SESSION OF
2011

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

ORGANIZATION DAY

December 1, 2010

The Honorable Tammy L. Wright, Clerk of the Senate, called the Senate to order at 10:00 a.m.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following remarks and prayer:

I will let you in on a little theological secret that many people don't know about. Do you know those passages in scripture where everybody begats everybody else? Joseph begats Isaac and Isaac begats Jacob, and so on and so forth. And, people in the pews sort of sit there and start rolling their eyes, and the readers start muffling a snicker, and it goes on for ages. And, people wonder, 'What is that place for?' Those begats, those long lists of begats, mark a place; they're a place-marker. They say that whatever follows that is extremely important.

The reason I mention this is because that's how God works, by gathering together a group of people who are a community – whether they're a community through the past, or whether they're a community in the present. You've been gathered together by the process through which you've been working, and now you're a community. And, the important thing now is to remember that as you work, and whatever religious tradition you're from, whatever God or force assists you, that you're being gathered together to work not as individuals, but as a body, working together, trusting and vulnerable with each other. Let us pray.

God of all changelessness, be present in this new body and in this new potential for new leadership. Be present amongst us as we work to improve the lives of the people of New Hampshire, whom You love so desperately.
Amen.

Sen. Gallus led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Honorable Tammy L. Wright, Clerk of the Senate, called the Roll of the Senate for attendance. There were 24 members present.

OATH OF OFFICE FOR SENATORS

At this time, on the first Wednesday in December, in the year of our Lord, two thousand and ten, being the day prescribed by the Constitution for the legislature of New Hampshire to assemble and the Honorable

John H. Lynch, Governor of the State of New Hampshire, accompanied by the Honorable Executive Council, having come into the Senate chamber, will now subscribe the oaths of office and witness the signing of the oath by each individual Senator, and verify that these are duly qualified as Senators agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution.

GOVERNOR JOHN H. LYNCH: Thank you very much. Good morning, everybody. Could I ask everybody except the State Senators to please have a seat?

First of all, let me say to all of you, congratulations on your election or your reelection; I very much look forward to working with each of you. And, for those of you who don't know me, I'm very accessible; I'm around the State House a lot. So, I am here to help you any way I possibly can, and I mean that sincerely.

So, with that, I'd like to ask you all to raise your right hand.

I, state your name, of the town or city in which you live, do solemnly swear, that I will bear faith and true allegiance to the United States of America and the state of New Hampshire, and will support the constitution thereof. So help me God.

I, state your name, do solemnly and sincerely swear and affirm that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all duties incumbent on me as State Senator according to the best of my abilities, agreeably to the rules and regulations of this constitution and laws of the state of New Hampshire. So help me God.

GOVERNOR JOHN H. LYNCH: Congratulations.

WHEREUPON, the Governor and Council witnessed the signing of the oath by each of the following individual Senators, verifying that these are duly qualified as Senators pursuant to the provisions of the New Hampshire Constitution:

NOMINATIONS FOR TEMPORARY PRESIDING OFFICER

The Honorable Tammy L. Wright, Clerk of the Senate, stated that nominations for Temporary Presiding Officer are in order.

(The Clerk recognized Sen. Bragdon for a nomination.)

SENATOR BRAGDON: Thank you, Madam Clerk. It gives me great pleasure to nominate as Presiding Officer today the Honorable John T. Broderick, Jr., who many of us know from his role as Chief Justice of the New Hampshire Supreme Court from 2004 until, well, yesterday.

Prior to his appointment as Chief Justice, he had served as an Associate Justice on the Court since his appointment by Governor Merrill in 1995. Though he has retired from the Supreme Court, the Chief Justice will have plenty to do, having been named the new President and Dean of the New Hampshire School of Law.

For the past 15 years, Chief Justice Broderick has used his time and talents on the New Hampshire Supreme Court to make a positive impact on the lives of New Hampshire citizens, an ideal we all strive for as State Senators.

Please join me today in supporting the Honorable John T. Broderick, Jr. as Presiding Officer.

(The Clerk recognized Sen. Larsen for a second.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I rise to second the nomination of the Honorable John T. Broderick. He has served honorably in our state and given great service to our state, and we want to welcome him back to the City of Concord as he leads our new law school.

(The Clerk recognized Sen. Rausch.)

SENATOR RAUSCH: I move the nominations for Temporary Presiding Officer be closed.

Adopted. Chief Justice John T. Broderick, Jr. was elected Temporary Presiding Officer.

The Clerk of the Senate requested Senators Prescott and Larsen to escort the Honorable Chief Justice John T. Broderick, Jr., Temporary Presiding Officer, to the rostrum.

CHIEF JUSTICE BRODERICK: Please be seated. Good morning. I just want to say that I've never had a more important temporary position in my whole life, and I'm grateful for it, and for the invitation to be with you this morning. It's a great personal privilege for me to be here.

NOMINATIONS FOR PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE

The Honorable Chief Justice John T. Broderick, Jr., Temporary Presiding Officer, stated that nominations for the President of the New Hampshire Senate are in order.

(Chief Justice Broderick recognized Sen. Barnes for a nomination.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister Chairman. I nominate the gentleman by the name of Peter Bragdon to be our next Senate President. Senator Bragdon has served well the last two years as the Minority Leader of this Senate. He has done a great job, worked with all sides of the aisle, and I know he's going to continue to work diligently with every one of us in this chamber for the welfare of the people of the State of New Hampshire. And, it is my great pleasure to nominate my friend and yours, Senator Peter Bragdon from the great Town of Milford.

(Chief Justice Broderick recognized Sen. D'Allesandro for a second.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I second the nomination of Peter Bragdon for President of the New Hampshire State Senate. I've worked with Senator Bragdon during his term here in the New Hampshire State Senate, have found him to be very reasonable, very cooperative, and has shown excellent leadership qualities. I think Senator Bragdon is taking control of our Senate at a time when New Hampshire needs strong leadership to bring us forward in this next biennium, and I'm sure that he will do it in a very bipartisan manner, with the good being of the State of New Hampshire his primary goal. Thank you, Mister President.

(Chief Justice Broderick recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: I move that the nominations for President of the Senate be closed.

Adopted. The Honorable Peter Bragdon was elected President of the New Hampshire Senate.

The Honorable Chief Justice John T. Broderick, Jr., Temporary Presiding Officer, requested Senators Boutin and Gallus to escort Senator Peter Bragdon, President of the New Hampshire Senate, to the rostrum.

CHIEF JUSTICE BRODERICK: Senator, I've now been retired twice in 24 hours. Congratulations.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you very much.

SENATE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO THE SENATE

PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE, PETER BRAGDON: Thank you. Please be seated.

I'm honored today to stand before you, my fellow Senators and friends, to accept the position of Senate President. For this great honor and the opportunity to serve, I am thankful to all of you.

I would like to thank Governor Lynch and the Executive Council for taking time out of an extremely busy schedule this week to participate in today's events.

I would also like to thank Chief Justice Broderick for serving as our Presiding Officer today. As you know, he retired yesterday as Chief Justice of the New Hampshire Supreme Court, the highest position in the Judicial Branch of state government. Today, as presiding officer of the New Hampshire State Senate, he held, for a small window of time, the highest position in the Legislative Branch. Who knows? With a little luck tomorrow, perhaps Governor Lynch can help him get the hat trick.

Of course, I would be remiss if I did not also express my thanks and the thanks of us all to those of our friends and family who are able to join us today in these tight quarters. Your support for us in our endeavors has been crucial, and we ask for your continued support and encouragement over these next two years. Please take a moment and give a round of applause for those friends and supporters and families who are with us today.

My friends and colleagues, we face a very difficult financial challenge in the coming months. I do not think that's much of a matter of dispute. Although campaign season provided a very good opportunity to debate issues related to why we find ourselves in this situation, campaign season is over, thankfully. We must now focus our attention and our efforts on how to address this situation. We must work together to identify our challenges and work together to craft solutions. The people who elected each of us expect that from us. That is not to say we will always agree on all matters, nor that the people who elected us expect us to always agree on all matters. To paraphrase a former school board member I worked with: "If 24 of us agree with each other all the time, then 23 of us are unnecessary." Rather, the people who elected us expect us to discuss issues and possible solutions in a respectful manner, being willing to listen to our colleagues, those who hold opposing views, and respecting their convictions. After the final votes are cast, each side should know they had a fair chance to present their case. With that in mind, I would like to thank Senator Larsen for her leadership over the past four years. As Minority Leader for the last two years, I can say the minority always had the opportunity to present our case in a process that was fair and open. She has set an example I hope to be able to follow.

For a period of time, as many of you know, I ran a community newspaper in Milford. In my opinion section, I strongly encouraged writers to keep their op-ed pieces to around 600 words, because after that, it becomes hard for the reader to maintain the needed attention level. For the same reason, when I chair Senate committees, I encourage speakers to keep their remarks to three minutes or less – and I hope the lobbyists are listening today. I see that I am in danger of exceeding both my 600-word limit and the three-minute mark, so I will close by saying this: Once again, thanks to you, my Senate colleagues, for allowing me to serve as your Senate President. The challenges before us are daunting, but that will give us even more satisfaction when we look back at all we've accomplished. Thank you very much.

RESOLUTION No. 1

The Honorable Peter Bragdon, President of the New Hampshire Senate, recognized Sen. Bradley for a Resolution.

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, that the Rules of the 2009-2010 Session be adopted as the Rules of the 2011-2012 Session, with the changes which have been provided here today in your blue folder, and be it further RESOLVED that these Rules may be amended by majority vote for the next three legislative days.

NOMINATIONS FOR CLERK OF THE SENATE

President Bragdon stated that nominations for Clerk of the Senate are in order.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a nomination.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I rise to nominate Tammy Wright as Clerk of the Senate. Tammy has served for the past years in an amazing and capable way in leading us through the parliamentary process. She is a resident of Concord, and I think all of us can trust that she will serve honorably and fairly in her leadership as Clerk of the Senate in recordkeeping and all other matters. I nominate Tammy Wright for Clerk of the Senate.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a second.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. This is a great pleasure. One of our Pages today is the son of Tammy Wright. And, would you do me a favor, Mr. Page? Would you go up and stand next to your mother?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: That's not in the script, Jack.

SENATOR BARNES: Mister President, you opened the door.

Tammy has been here – matter of fact, today's her birthday; December 1st is the birthday of her being in the Senate – 21 years Tammy has been in this chamber, as an Assistant Clerk and, eventually, the Clerk. And, her son has never had the opportunity – that's why I asked him to go up there – to be here with her today, because they're pretty special people.

Now, Tammy has worked well with both sides of the aisle over the years; I've seen it from both sides, from the pluses and the minuses, and she has gone out of her way to address all 24 Senators' concerns and be helpful to all of us. And, sometimes it's been difficult sledding, but she has always hung in there and helped us.

And, I'll finalize this by saying it's a great honor to be able to second this, because a good friend of mine used to be the guy that nominated her: Senator Carl Johnson. And, I used to be jealous when Carl would get up and do that. So, Carl, if you're listening from up there, buddy, I'm doing it today. And, I want to say this: Ms. Wright is the right person for this job. Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you. I move that the nominations for our wonderful Clerk, Tammy Wright, for the Clerk of the Senate, be closed. Thank you.

Adopted. The Honorable Tammy L. Wright was elected Clerk of the New Hampshire Senate.

OATH OF OFFICE FOR SENATE OFFICER

President Bragdon duly administered the Oath of Office to the Clerk of the Senate:

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Please raise your right hand and where appropriate state your name and repeat after me:

I, state your name, do solemnly swear, that I will bear faith and true allegiance to the United States of America and the state of New Hampshire, and will support the constitution thereof. So help me God.

I, state your name, do solemnly and sincerely swear and affirm that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all duties incumbent on me as, state your position, according to the best of my abilities, agreeably to the rules and regulations of this constitution and laws of the state of New Hampshire. So help me God.

RESOLUTION No. 2

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, that the Secretary of State be requested to furnish the Senate with the official return of votes from the various Senatorial Districts.

Adopted.

The Honorable William Gardner, Secretary of State, appeared and presented the return of votes for State Senators from the various Senatorial Districts, as returned to the Secretary of State's Office from the General Election held November 2, 2010.

WILLIAM GARDNER, SECRETARY OF STATE: Good morning, Mister President, newly elected and reelected members of this Senate. SECRETARY GARDNER: With that, Mister President and members of this Senate, those were the votes that were cast by the citizens of New Hampshire on November 2nd, and those are the votes that determine that all of you should be here today.

RESOLUTION No. 3

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, that the return of votes from the several Senatorial Districts be referred to a Select Committee of three with instructions to examine and count the same and report to the Senate where any vacancies or contest exists and if so, in what Senatorial District.

Adopted.

President Bragdon appointed Senators Bradley, Barnes, and Larsen to serve as the Select Committee to examine the vote totals.

Recess. Out of recess.

SELECT COMMITTEE REPORT

Sen. Bradley reported that the select committee to which was referred the various return of votes for State Senators from the several districts, having attended to their duties and having examined the returns made to the Secretary of State, reports that it finds the state of the votes returned from the several districts to be correct.

Sen. Bradley moved to adopt the report. Adopted.

RESOLUTION No. 4

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, that the biennium salary of the members of the Senate be paid in one undivided sum as early as practical after adoption of this resolution, and be it further RESOLVED that the mileage of members of the Senate be paid every two weeks during the session.

Adopted.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I believe, at this point, we are awaiting a message from the House. I think while we do that we can have recognition of our guests.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce our Pages today, one of whom you have already met. George Seigel, if you would stand again? George is a 12th-grader in his senior year at Concord High School. As you all know, he is, in fact, the son of our illustrious Senate Clerk, Tammy Wright. He enjoys, in fall, spring, and summer, baseball and basketball. He is always welcome here in the Senate, and it's wonderful, over the years, that we've been able to see George as he's progressed in his maturity and capabilities. So, welcome, George.

Also with us today as a Page is Hope DuHaime. Hope is in the 11th grade at Concord High. Her favorite school subjects are in the sciences, and her extracurricular activities include girls ice hockey and volunteering at the hospital. So, thank you again for being here, Hope, and we hope you enjoy the day as well. Thanks.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce my wife, Susan, with me here today, and also a few guests in the gallery: my cousin, Pam Cameron, we have Jordan Prince, and Mark Oliberte. Thank you for coming. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I'll make this short, I promise. I want to introduce my best friend, my wife of 56 years, Fran. Sitting next to her is the family troublemaker, our daughter, Susan. Up in the gallery, I have... Our two sons are up there, Dwight and Warren; their wives are up there, Audrey and Jane. And, right here beside my wife is two-weeks-ago Warrant Officer, Derek Barnes. He's in the New Hampshire Army Guard, and he is now a helicopter pilot for Black Hawks. He came out of Fort Rucker, Alabama, and we're tickled pink that he's here with us today. And, his lovely wife is also upstairs in the gallery.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce Brittany Weaver, who is up in the gallery... There she is. Brittany was my campaign manager extraordinaire; she motivated me, organized me, and kept me laughing. Brittany is a native of Epping and a recent graduate of UNH, and she's a young woman with a very bright future. So, welcome to Brittany.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. On behalf of myself as well as their Senator, who will do a phenomenal job for them, Senator Houde, I'd like to introduce my parents, Dick and Selma, brother Rick, brother Ed.

(The Chair recognized Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President, fellow colleagues. I'd like to introduce my two daughters, Tammy Ann De Blois and Heather Newell. My friends are here, also: Jon Dulude, Steve Matthews, and my very best friend, Jean Esslinger. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce my two guests today: my mother, Charlotte Houde-Quimby, former member of the New Hampshire House, and my partner and friend, Sarah Sprague. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. In the gallery, I have our campaign manager, Peter Marcouillier, who was also my intern, recent graduate of the University of New Hampshire. On the floor, I have my son, Michael D'Allesandro, father of five, entrepreneur, and successful graduate of Plymouth State University; my daughter and her two sons, my daughter, Christina D'Allesandro, graduate of the University of New Hampshire, Master's Degree from the London School of Economics, her two sons, Dominic and Anthony. And, of course, last but certainly not least, my companion for the last 55 years, a person who's made my life, and embellished my life beyond belief, my wife, Patricia D'Allesandro.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Groen.)

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to introduce first, my wife, Shirley, my wife of 40 years, my best friend, and mother of our seven children. And, up in the gallery, Trixie Masse, who is my assistant campaign manager from Missouri, and my campaign manager could not be here; she took a position in Germany and left right after Thanksgiving. And, my daughter, Phoebe O'Neil, and her husband, Ryan O'Neil, in the back row, and three of my grandchildren, Reagan, Brianna, and Cameron.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Rausch.)

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce my lovely wife, Lorinda, and, in the balcony, my father- and mother-in-law, Peter and Martha Fingar, and my brother-in-law, Gregory Fingar.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I want to introduce my wife, Melinda, and my father up there, C. James Luther, my brother, John Luther, my brother Gray Luther, and his wife, Lori Luther.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Lambert.)

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President, fellow Senators. I'd like to introduce my wife, Lori, in the back, on the floor, my daughter, Katherine, and my daughter, Grace. And, up in the balcony, I have my mom, Melitta Lambert, and my campaign manager, Wade Sarraf, who's also a Captain in the U.S. Army Reserve.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to introduce my husband, Greg, who could be here with us today. And, I also want to say hello to my daughter, Alicia, whose home recuperating, and my daughter, Deidre, who's a junior at Clemson; I hope she's studying for final exams.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. Yes, I would like to introduce my friend and guest, Sandi Van Scoyoc; Sandi, if you want to stand? Sandi is the Executive Director of Healthy New Hampshire Foundation, and she does an outstanding job in the state.

Also, very important to me is my husband, Art Luptowski; would you stand? Art has just been a great supporter of mine, standing by my side through all of our terms and also our campaigns, and he's always fun to campaign with; we have a good time. We're also parents of four children, and very proud of that. And, Art probably will have to head out early this afternoon; he is a mens college basketball coach, and has a game tonight.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce my husband, Howard, and, in the balcony, my sons Howard, Greg, Ken, and my daughter-in-law, Lynda.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I have with me four of my campaign workers: Laura Condon, Dean Dexter, Bert Tenhave, and Steve MacDougall. On the floor I have my wife, Emily – stand, Emily – my wife, Emily, of 22 years who hung in with me during the campaign, and all of you know what that means. And so, thanks, Emily, for letting me be here.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I can't help but believe that my family voted me to come back up here because they wanted me to get out of town. With me today is my wife, Susan, my daughter, Emma, which is my basketball player – she has to go back today for tryouts – my mother, Doris, and my father, Dick.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce my husband, Keith, and I have two friends in the gallery: Peter Dooley and Kerry Marsh. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to introduce my mother, Jean Carlton. And, also, I have some close friends and supporters who drove me around door-to-door: Elena and Roger Ball. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to introduce my mother, Helen Bradley, who has always been an inspiration and somebody that I owe everything to.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. It is with great joy that I am able to welcome a good personal friend, a well-respected attorney, and a leader in this state and in her community of Concord, Susan Duprey. Thank you.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I would be remiss and in a great deal of trouble if I did not introduce my guests sitting on the couch, or – oops, sitting next to the couch over here is my mother, June Bragdon – raise your hand. And, on the couch: my older brother, Bob, my younger brother, Scott.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I have an amendment, a floor amendment.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: To your introductions?

SENATOR BARNES: Yes. In my haste to speed things up, I forgot a very important item when I introduced my wife. She also, two months ago, became a great-grandmother. You know, that happens to me... I'm so young, I don't understand how that happened, but it did.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: At this point, I believe having introduced all the guests, what we'll probably do is have a resolution to join in joint convention with the House. If they're not ready at this time, we will recess, and then we'll be joining them at the appropriate time. But, other than that, our business is complete, and so we can mingle with our guests for a while until we have to go in, and then lunch will be served over at the Upham-Walker House.

RESOLUTION No. 5

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, that the Senate, when appropriate, meet in Joint Convention with the House for the purpose of electing the Secretary of State and the State Treasurer.

Adopted.

Recess. Out of Recess.

HOUSE MESSAGES

The Clerk read the following House Messages:

PART ONEDUTIES OF THE SENATE PRESIDENT

- 1-1 Determination of quorum; correction of Journal.

The President, having taken the chair, shall determine a quorum to be present. Any erroneous entry in the daily journal shall be corrected no later than the third succeeding legislative day, and the permanent journal corrected within one week after the permanent journal copy is placed in the hands of the Senate.

- 1-2 Members, conduct when speaking.

Any member, wishing to speak, shall notify the President. When the member is recognized to speak he shall rise and address the President, and when he has finished shall then sit down.

- 1-3 Members not to speak more than twice.

No member shall speak more than twice on the same question on the same day without leave of the Senate President.

- 1-4 President shall recognize whom.

When more than one member wishes to speak at the same time, the President shall decide who shall speak first.

- 1-5 Questions of order, appeal.

The President shall preserve decorum and order. If any member transgresses the rules of the Senate, the President shall, or any member may, call him to order in which case the member so called to order shall immediately cease and desist, and the Senate, if appealed to, shall decide the case. But if there is no appeal, the decision of the President shall be conclusive.

- 1-6 Galleries, clearing of.

In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the gallery, the President shall have the power to order the same to be cleared. The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole may restrict attendance to the duly elected Senators.

1-7 President to sign bills, etc.

All warrants, subpoenas and other processes issued by order of the Senate shall be under the hand and seal of the President attested by the Clerk.

1-8 President may name member to chair.

The President when performing the duties of the Chair may, at any time, name any member to perform the duties of the Chair.

PART TWODECORUM AND DEBATE*2-1 Members, decorum of.

No member shall hold conversation with another while a member is speaking in debate, or use electronic devices, including but not limited to personal computers, and telephonic devices, without leave of the Senate.

2-2 Member, absence from Session.

No member shall absent himself without permission from the Senate.

2-3 Motions, order of preference.

When any question is under debate, no motion shall be received but first, to adjourn; second, to lay upon the table; third, for the previous question; fourth, to postpone to a certain day; fifth, to commit; sixth, to amend; and seventh, to postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are so arranged. Motions to adjourn, to lay upon the table, for the previous question, and to take from the table shall be decided without debate. Motions to postpone to a certain day shall be debatable both as to time and subject matter. No motion to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain day, or to commit, being decided, shall be in order at the same stage of the bill or resolution, until after adjournment.

2-4 Questions postponed indefinitely not acted upon in same biennium.

A question which is postponed indefinitely shall not be acted upon during the biennium except whenever two-thirds of the whole number of elected Senators shall on division taken, vote in favor thereof. Any bill which is indefinitely postponed shall not be reintroduced under cover of an amendment, bill, resolution, order, or committee of conference report. No motion to suspend this rule shall be permitted.

2-5 Questions, when divided.

Any member may call for the division of the question when the sense will admit it. The question of whether two or more propositions are capable of division is to be determined by the Chair. Unless otherwise specifically provided for, each part of a divided question shall pass only upon majority vote of those members present and voting.

2-6 Objections to reading paper, how determined.

When the reading of a paper or document is objected to by a member, the question shall be determined by a vote of the Senate; and without debate.

2-7 Roll Call, everyone must vote.

When the nays and yeas have been moved by a member and duly seconded by another member, each member present shall declare his assent or dissent to the question, unless for special reason he be excused by the Senate. The names of the persons so making the motion and the second shall be recorded in the Journal. The President shall determine the order of the roll call. No member shall be required to vote in any case where he was not present when the question was put.

2-8 Reconsideration.

No vote shall be reconsidered, unless the motion for reconsideration is made by a member who voted with the prevailing side. The notice of such motion for reconsideration shall be given to the Senate in open session prior to adjournment on the same day on which the vote was passed, or to the clerk within two working business days of the vote. Any such notice of reconsideration shall be effective for three legislative days only and thereafter shall be null and void. Reconsideration of any bills subject to a deadline established by Senate rules must be acted upon on or before the Senate rule deadline, and thereafter shall be null and void.

2-9 Petitions, introduction of.

Before any petition shall be received and read, a brief statement of the contents thereof shall be made by the member introducing the same.

2-10 Voting; division of Senate.

All questions shall be put by the President, and each member of the Senate present shall signify his assent or dissent by voting yea or nay, or shall abstain from voting by reason of a conflict pursuant to Part Two, Senate Rule 2-15. If the President doubts, or a division is called for, the Senate shall divide. Those in the affirmative on the question shall first rise from their seats and stand until they be counted. The President shall rise and state the decision of the Senate.

2-11 Visitors to Senate.

No person except members of the Senate and its officers, the Governor, Council members, the Secretary of State, the Treasurer, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and its officers and clerks, shall be admitted to the floor of the Senate while the Senate is in session, except by the invitation of the President, or some member with the President's consent.

2-12 Hours of meeting.

The Senate shall adjourn to meet on the subsequent legislative day for the early session at the time mentioned in the adjournment motion. The late session shall immediately follow the early session unless the Senate shall otherwise order.

2-13 Rules of Senate, how suspended.

No standing rule of the Senate shall be suspended unless two-thirds of the members present and voting vote in favor thereof. This rule shall not apply to Part Two, Senate Rule 2-4.

2-14 Rules of Senate, how rescinded.

No rule shall be rescinded unless two days notice of the motion has been given and two-thirds of those present and voting vote therefore.

2-15 Conflict of Interest.

In all instances every member shall act in conformance with the duly adopted Ethical Guidelines and Opinions of the New Hampshire General Court.

2-16 Committee of Conference reports.

Action on the floor of a report of the Committee on Finance or a Committee of Conference on either the general appropriations (budget) bill or the capital budget bill, shall not be taken by the Senate, until said report has been available from the Senate Clerk twenty-four hours in advance, in written form. Non-germane amendments and footnotes to such bills (except footnotes in explanation of the principal text of such bills or designating the use or restriction of any funds or portions thereof) are prohibited and shall not be allowed under any circumstances.

2-17 Personal privilege.

Personal Privilege: A Senator may, as a matter of personal privilege, defend his/her position on a bill, his/her integrity, his/her record, or his/her conduct, against unfair or unwarranted criticism, or may speak of an issue which relates to his/her rights, privileges or conveniences as a Senator; provided, however, the matters raised under personal privilege shall not be subject to questioning, answer, or debate, by another Senator. Personal Privilege remarks may be included in the Daily Journal if requested by the Senator, and in the Permanent Journal by vote of the Senate. A Senator may speak on other matters of his/her choosing and in such cases may be subject to questioning and/or answer according to the Rules of the Senate.

2-18 Appeal, presiding officer ruling.

Any appeal from the ruling of the presiding officer shall be decided by majority vote of the members present and voting.

2-19 Motions, no substitution under color of amendment.

No new motion shall be admitted under color of amendment as a substitute for the motion under debate.

PART THREEBILLS*3-1 Bills; shall be numbered and expressed clearly.

All petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the Senate and all bills and resolutions to be introduced in the Senate, shall be endorsed with the name of the Senator presenting them, and with the subject matter of the same. Every bill shall be marked on the first page "Senate Bill" and numbered serially; every joint resolution shall be marked "Senate Joint Resolution" and numbered serially; every concurrent resolution proposing a constitutional amendment shall be marked "Concurrent Resolution Proposing a Constitutional Amendment" and numbered serially; and every other concurrent resolution shall be marked "Senate Concurrent Resolution" and numbered serially, as each bill or resolution is introduced into the Senate.

3-2 Bills, introduction of.

All petitions, memorials and other papers addressed to the Senate and all bills and resolutions to be introduced into the Senate shall be delivered or caused to be delivered to the Office of Legislative Services, which in turn will submit it to the sponsor for his signature, and then to the Clerk by Legislative Services. If requested by the sponsor, a proposed bill, resolution or petition shall not be made public, except by the sponsor, until signed by the sponsor. During any adjournment the President may receive bills and resolutions for printing and for reference to committee, provided that no bill shall have a public hearing until it is formally introduced into the Senate, printed and available for distribution.

3-3 Bills, drafting of.

Drafting of Bills

(a) If a drafting request for a bill or resolution has been filed with the Office of Legislative Services requiring a fiscal note as provided in RSA 14:44-47, the substance or a draft of the proposal may be provided to the Legislative Budget Assistant for preparation of the required fiscal note without the specific consent of the sponsor of the proposal, provided that the identity of the sponsor shall not be disclosed.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Part Three, Senate Rule 3-2, a Senate bill, Senate joint resolution, or Senate concurrent resolution may be accepted by the Office of Legislative Services for drafting and introduced into the Senate at any time prior to the deadline established by Senate Rules for the transfer of bills out of the first body if approved by either a majority of the Senate Rules Committee or a two-thirds vote on the floor.

(c) No bill the subject matter of which has been indefinitely postponed or made inexpedient to legislate in the Senate in the first-year session shall be admitted into the second-year session whether as a bill, an amendment, a committee of conference report or in any other manner.

(d) Legislation returned from the non-originating body, with an amendment, shall not be re-referred to committee but shall have one of the following recommendations: Concur, Nonconcur, Nonconcur and Request a Committee of Conference. Adoption of a motion to Nonconcur kills the legislation.

3-4 Resolutions to be treated as bills.

All resolutions which may require the signature of the Governor shall be treated in the same manner as bills.

3-5 Bills shall have three readings; Progress of; time for second and third readings.

Every bill shall have three readings in the Senate previous to its passage. The first and second readings shall be by title only which may be accomplished by a conglomerate resolution, after which the bill shall be referred by the President to the appropriate committee and shall be printed as provided in Part Three, Senate Rule 3-6, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate. No bill after it has been read a second time shall have a third reading until after adjournment from the early session. The time assigned for the third reading of bills and resolutions shall be in the late session unless otherwise ordered by the Senate. The orders of the day for the reading of bills shall hold for every succeeding day until disposed of.

3-6 Bills, printing and distribution.

After every bill shall have been read a second time, and referred by the President to the appropriate committee, the Clerk shall procure a sufficient number of copies, printed on paper of uniform size, for the use of the legislature, and cause the same to be distributed to the members, and when printed the bill shall be immediately delivered to the committee to which it shall have been referred. Bills received from the House shall be printed at the same stage of their procedure unless they have been printed in the House and copies distributed in the Senate, in which case any amendment made by the House shall be duplicated and distributed in the Senate.

3-7 Bills amended only on second reading; filing of amendments.

No amendment shall be made but upon the second reading of a bill; and all amendments to bills and resolutions shall be in writing, with the name of the Senator and the district he represents, or in the case of a committee amendment the name of the committee that recommended it, thereon. No amendment to any bill shall be proposed or allowed at any time or by any source, including a committee of conference, except it be germane. Amendments shall have been reviewed by the Office of Legislative Services for form, construction, statutory and chapter reference.

3-8 Messages sent to House.

Messages shall be sent to the House of Representatives by the Clerk of the Senate.

3-9 Messages, when received.

Messages from the Governor or House of Representatives may be received at all times, except when the Senate is engaged in putting the question, in calling the yeas and nays, or in counting the ballots.

PART FOUR

COMMITTEES AND THEIR DUTIES

4-1 Public hearings to be held and advertised.

A hearing shall be held upon each bill referred to a committee, and notice of such hearing shall be advertised at least 4 days before hearing in the Senate Calendar. The Senate Calendar shall be available on the Internet for viewing as soon as it has been released for printing.

(a) All bills in the possession of committees shall be reported out with one of the following recommendations: ought to pass, ought to pass with amendment, rerefer to committee, inexpedient to legislate, or refer for interim study. Re-refer to committee shall be a committee report only in the first-year session. All rereferred bills shall be acted on by the fourth legislative day of the second year session. Refer for interim study shall be a committee report only in the second year session.

(b) Any legislation creating a chapter study committee shall have membership limited to members of the General Court.

4-2 Amended bills, printed distributed and disposed of.

When a bill is reported favorably with an amendment, the report of the committee shall state the amendment, and then recite the section of the bill in full as amended. The amendment shall be printed in the senate calendar on the date that the report is listed for action. If no action is taken on that day, then the amendment shall be printed on the day to which the bill has been referred. All bills reported shall be retained by the clerk and shall not be finally acted upon until the following legislative day, and a list of such bills with the report of the committee thereon shall be published in the senate calendar for the day on which action shall be taken.

4-3 Referral of Bills to Finance Committee.Referral of Bills to Finance Committee

(a). Every bill and joint resolution appropriating money, and every other bill which is accompanied by a fiscal note pursuant to RSA 14:44, which has been referred to another committee and favorably accepted by the Senate, shall be committed to the Finance Committee for review. All bills which are referred directly to the Finance Committee shall have a hearing.

(b). The chair of a standing committee may request the Chair of the Finance Committee to exempt from review a bill that is subject to a fiscal note pursuant to RSA 14:44, but which the Chair of the Finance Committee believes has an undetermined or insignificant fiscal impact. The Chair of the Finance Committee shall announce on the floor all such bills exempted from review as soon as practicable after receipt of the request.

4-4 Committees, appointment of.

All committees of the Senate, including Senate members on committees of conference, shall consist of members of both parties as nearly equal as possible, provided that on all committees, both parties shall be represented. The President shall appoint the members of all committees, after consulting with the minority leader.

4-5 Standing Committees.

The standing committees of the Senate shall be as follows: the Committee on Capital Budget, the Committee on Commerce, the Committee on Education, the Committee on Election Law and Veterans' Affairs, the Committee on Energy, Environment and Economic Development, the Committee on Executive Departments and Administration, the Committee on Finance, the Committee on Health and Human Services, the Committee on Judiciary, the Committee on Public and Municipal Affairs, the Committee on Rules and Enrolled Bills, the Committee on Transportation, the Committee on Ways and Means and the Committee on Wildlife, Fish and Game and Agriculture.

4-6 Committees, reports and meetings.

The committees shall promptly consider and report on all matters referred to them. The President may authorize such committees having a heavy load of investigation, re-drafting, research or amendments to meet as needed on non legislative days during the legislative session. The Clerk of the Senate shall prepare a list by number, title and sponsor of all Senate bills and resolutions in committee which have not been acted upon within one week before the deadline established for the transfer of bills and resolutions from the Senate to the House of Representatives, and he/she shall distribute this list to every member of the Senate as soon as it is prepared.

4-7 Requests to the Legislative Budget Assistant.

Any Senate member may make a request of the Office of the Legislative Budget Assistant Budget Division, for technical staff assistance in the areas of finance, accounting and budgeting. The Budget Division may respond to that request when doing so will not interfere with the Budget Division's principal responsibilities as outlined in RSA 14:31-b, as determined by the Legislative Budget Assistant.

PART FIVE
COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

5-1 Committees of Conference.

Committees of Conference.

(a) Whenever there be any disagreement between the Senate and the House on the content of any bill or resolution, and whenever both bodies, voting separately, have agreed to establish a committee of conference, the President of the Senate shall appoint three members to the Senate conference committee on the bill and the Speaker of the House shall appoint four members to the House conference committee. Exceptions: (1) the House committee of conference on the operating budget shall consist of five members; (2) the number of the members of the committees of conference on any bill may increase or decrease if the President and the Speaker both agree. The two committees of conference on a bill shall meet jointly but vote separately while in conference. A unanimous vote by both committees of conference shall be necessary for an agreed report to the Senate and the House by the committees of conference.

(b) The first-named person from the body where the bill or resolution in disagreement originated shall have the authority to call the time and place for the first meeting of the committees of conference on said bill.

(c) The first-named person on a committee of conference shall be the chairman of that conference. The chairman of the committee of conference of the body where the bill or resolution in disagreement originated shall chair the joint meeting of the committees of conference.

(d) No action shall be taken in either body on any committee of conference report earlier than some subsequent day, after the report has been delivered to the seats or placed on a member's desk. A committee of conference may neither change the title of any bill submitted to it nor add amendments which are not germane to the subject matter of the bill as originally submitted to it.

(e) Conference Committees on Budget Bills. The report of each committee of conference on either the general appropriation bill, or the capital improvements bill shall be printed in the journal or a supplement thereto of the appropriate body before action on said report is taken on the floor. Non-germane amendments, sections and footnotes to such bills (except footnotes in explanation of the principal text of such bills or designating the use or restriction of any funds or portions thereof) are prohibited and shall not be allowed under any circumstances. Notwithstanding the general provisions of paragraph (h) of this section, the Conference Committee on general appropriations bill may propose new items for inclusion in said bill but no such item may be so included unless and until it shall have been returned to both the Senate and the House and adopted in identical form by a majority vote in each body.

(f) When both committees of conference on a concurrent resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution have agreed, the committee of conference from the body which acceded to a request for committees of conference shall file its report with the clerk of that body who shall print it in full in the journal or supplement of that body. The report shall be made a special order of business at the late session of a subsequent day. After said report has been adopted by the first body, a message shall be transmitted to the second body which shall then act upon the report of its committee of conference.

(g) The sponsor of any bill or joint resolution referred to committees of conference shall, upon his request, be granted a hearing before said committees prior to action thereon.

(h) No member of a committee of conference shall sign any report that contains non-germane amendments or subject matter that has been indefinitely postponed in either body. For the purposes of this rule, a non-germane amendment would be any subject matter not contained in either the House or the Senate version of the bill.

PART SIX

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

6-1 Committee of the Whole.

The Senate may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole at any time on motion made for that purpose; and in forming a Committee of the Whole; the President shall leave the chair, and appoint a chairperson to preside in committee.

PART SEVEN

OFFICERS AND PERSONNEL

7-1 Senate staff, composition and duties.

The staff of the Senate shall be comprised of a clerk, an assistant clerk, a sergeant-at-arms, and a doorkeeper who are to be elected by the Senate, and such other personnel as the President shall appoint. The President shall define the duties of all members of the Senate staff which are not fixed by statute or otherwise ordered by the Senate.

7-2 Senate staff, days of employment.

Each member of the staff of the Senate shall be available on call to carry out the work of the Senate.

7-3 Requisition Approval Required.

No officer or employee of the Senate during the session or any adjournment thereof shall purchase or contract for the purchase, pay, or promise to pay any sum of money on behalf of the Senate or issue any requisition or manifest without the approval of the Senate President.

PART EIGHT

DEADLINES

8-1 Deadlines.

(a) Wednesday, October 13, 2010 – First day to file legislation for 2011 Senate Session.

(b) The Office of Legislative Services shall not draft a Senate Bill, Senate Concurrent Resolution, or Senate Joint Resolution, unless a request by a member for drafting with complete information has been received not later than 2:00 p.m., Friday, December 10, 2010, for the 2011 Session.

(c) Tuesday, January 18, 2011, at 12:00 p.m. - The Last Day to sign-off legislation for the above filing period.

January 5, 2011

CONVENING DAY

The Senate convened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

I'm going to replace the Bishop's Holy Water vial with a big hammer; that's what he's been missing all these days.

The great poet and mystic, Rilke, says this: "Once the realization is accepted that even between the closest human beings, infinite distances continue, a wonderful living side by side can grow. If they succeed in loving the distance between them, if they succeed in loving the distance between them, which makes it possible for each to see the other set against the whole sky."

To live and work side by side is one of your primary vocational callings as Senators and Senatorial staff. This sense of being community is both your best asset and, at times, going to be your hardest trial. So, I wanted to offer you a trick that I use in the church. When I come up against someone that really ticks me off, I imagine them as a five-year-old. I close my eyes, and I imagine them as a five-year-old, with all their assets and all their liabilities. And, my heart warms to them, and I love them. And, I don't confuse mutual love with mutual agreement. Let us pray.

God of all union, draw us together as one family, one Senate, one staff, one state, one nation, one world, in peace. Amen.

Sen. Forrester led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Sen. Forsythe is excused from today's session.

AMENDMENTS TO SENATE RULES

Sen. Bradley moved to amend the Senate Rules.

Amendment to Senate Rule 3-3 (b)

Amend Senate Rule 3-3 (b) by replacing with the following:

3-3 Bills, drafting of.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Senate Rule 3-2, a Senate bill, Senate joint resolution, or Senate concurrent resolution may be accepted by the Office of Legislative Services for drafting and introduced into the Senate at any time prior to the deadline established by Senate Rules for the transfer of bills out of the first body if approved by either a majority of the Internal Affairs Committee or a two-thirds vote on the floor.

Amendment to Senate Rule 4-4

Amend Senate Rule 4-4 by replacing with the following:

4-4 Committees, appointment of.

The membership of all committees of the Senate, including Senate conference committees, shall be divided between the political parties in a manner reasonably approximating each party's representation in the Senate as a whole, provided that on all committees both parties shall be represented. The President shall appoint the members of all committees after consultation with the minority leader.

Amendment to Senate Rule 4-5

Amend Senate Rule 4-5 by replacing with the following:

4-5 Standing Committees.

The standing committees of the Senate shall be as follows: the Committee on Capital Budget, the Committee on Commerce, the Committee on Education, the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, the Committee on Executive Departments and Administration, the Committee on Finance, the Committee on Health and Human Services, the Committee on Internal Affairs, the Committee on Judiciary, the Committee on Public and Municipal Affairs, the Committee on Transportation, and the Committee on Ways and Means.

Amendment to Senate Rule 8-1

Amend Senate Rule 8-1 by inserting after (c) with the following:

8-1 Deadlines.

(e) Thursday, March 10, 2011 - Deadline for Policy Committees to ACT on all Senate bills with a fiscal impact, except bills exempted pursuant to Senate Rule 4-3 (b).

(f) Thursday, March 31, 2011 - CROSSOVER – Last Day to ACT on all Senate bills.

(g) Thursday, May 05, 2011 - Deadline for Policy Committees to ACT on all House bills with a fiscal impact, except bills exempted pursuant to Senate Rule 4-3 (b).

(h) Thursday, June 02, 2011 - Last Day to ACT on all House bills.

(i) Wednesday, June 08, 2011 - Last Day to FORM Committees of Conference.

(j) Thursday, June 16, 2011 at 12:00 p.m. - Last Day to SIGN Committee of Conference Reports.

(k) Thursday, June 23, 2011 - Last Day to ACT on Committee of Conference Reports.

Adopted.

INTRODUCTION OF SENATE BILLS

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That in accordance with the list in the possession of the Senate Clerk, the following Senate legislation shall be by this Resolution read a first and second time by the therein listed titles and referred to the therein designated committees.

Adopted.

First and Second Reading and Referral

INAUGURATION DAY

The Senate convened at 11 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer:

In the Christian church calendar, today is the feast of the Epiphany. It's the day we all take down our Christmas trees, if you haven't already done so; I'm going to keep mine up for two more weeks, 'cause it's cute.

In the tradition from which I come, a star leads one to the child in the manger. But, what I love most about the story of the three wise men following that star to Bethlehem is that they do so in the midst of this political upheaval and political danger: King Herod is trying to find this child to destroy it for his own political advancement, and the wise men sense that they are being manipulated.

At the end of the story of the star over Bethlehem is this tiny little comment that we often throw away: "And they went home a different way." It's a great little comment.

When we meet truth, wherever it is – in a child, or in a conversation, in a person, in the Senate chamber, in your kitchen – we have a choice; we either pretend not to see it, or we, too, must find, having been unalterably changed, a new way home. Change is the companion of humility. Let us pray.

God of all truth, as we begin new work, break open our hearts and warm them to the humility which allows for change in the face of truth, and not just change for the sake of change. Grant us wisdom of the sages of old as we chart new courses, encounter new guiding lights, and go home a different way.

Amen.

Sen. Bradley led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Sen. Forsythe is excused from today's session.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I'm pleased to introduce Matthew Geason, who is a junior at my alma mater, Hanover High School. His favorite subject is American history; his favorite book is The Godfather. He participates in the crew team, he's an Eagle Scout, and he's also working at the Hanover Co-op, so he's got a busy plate these days. In the future, he'd like to make a difference in the lives of people; he'd like to change things to make things better. So, it's my pleasure to introduce Matthew.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: And, Senator Bragdon also has some guests to introduce. We have Sarena Patel from my alma mater, Milford High School, who is a junior. Her favorite subject is English. Her extracurricular activities include track and field, mock trial, We The People – I'm sorry, state champion We The People – dance, and Special Olympics. Please welcome Sarena Patel.

And also from my alma mater, a junior: Jonna Gath. Her favorite subject is history; she enjoys extracurricular activities of soccer, basketball, history club, Future Business Leaders of America, and state champion We The People team. Please welcome Jonna Gath.

Recess. Out of recess.

HOUSE MESSAGE

The Clerk read the following House Message:

The House of Representatives is ready to meet with the honorable Senate in Joint Convention for the purpose of hearing the report of the Joint Committee appointed to compare and count the votes for Governor and Executive Council, for the inauguration of the Governor, and the taking of the oath by the Executive Council.

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, that the Senate meet in Joint Convention for the purpose of hearing the report of the Joint Committee appointed to compare and count the votes for Governor and Executive Council, for the Inauguration of the Governor, the Honorable John H. Lynch, and for the taking of the oath by the Executive Council.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Odell.)

SENATOR ODELL: Good afternoon, Mister President. Thank you. My guest today is Mark Kaplan, a longtime family friend and a longtime selectman in the Town of New London. Welcome, Mark Kaplan.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces that SB 1-FN will not go to Finance Committee.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

SB 1-FN, eliminating the automatic continuation requirement for public employee collective bargaining agreements. Public and Municipal Affairs Committee. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-1. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 1 Ought to Pass. This bill eliminates the automatic continuation requirement for public employee collective bargaining agreements.

The current evergreen law requires the continuation of existing contract terms during the interim between the expiration of an existing contract and the adoption of a new agreement. This means that although a contract has ended, pay increases and other monetary benefits must be continued until a new contract is reached. These automatic increases can result in long-term expenses on the employer that were never approved and were not budgeted by the local government at the time of the contracting. Senate Bill 1 will repeal this mandate.

Senate Bill 1 will not prevent a bargaining unit and a local government entity from agreeing to include an evergreen provision in a labor contract if that is what they choose to negotiate.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 1 to be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Odell.)

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. As the prime sponsor of Senate Bill 1, I rise to simply explain how I came to be part of this discussion on the proposed repeal of the evergreen clause.

After the 2008 evergreen mandate became law, I was attending a meeting with other legislators called by a school superintendant and her staff.

The superintendant raised the issue, expressing the hope that none of her state legislators had supported the evergreen amendment. Her district had struggled to get contracts and budgets approved, and she felt the state evergreen mandate was a very negative factor in her district.

Subsequently, other school district and town officials have come to me to do something about the evergreen mandate. Fall Mountain leaders have expressed their support for repeal; the SAU for Claremont, Unity, and Cornish have written to me on my sponsorship of SB 1: "Good for you, and good luck." The Chair of my largest school district, Kearsarge, called personally to thank me for SB 1 getting a positive vote in the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee last week. My neighbor and friend, a longtime school teacher, but also the Chair of his local school board, has expressed his strong support. And, a former resident of Lempster, who now lives in Swanzey, wrote to me in support of this bill: "You will encounter opposition on this bill from public sector unions. However, it is the right thing to do, and I applaud all our Senators for trying to do the right thing." He is an employee in the Code Enforcement Office in the City of Keene.

SB 1 has the rare quality of bringing together the counties and municipalities, the school boards and school administrators together on a very significant and important issue to them and to the taxpayers that support them.

There are a couple of points that I will conclude with. Senate Bill 1, when it becomes law, will repeal the automatic continuation requirement in RSA 273-A:12, VII as passed in 2008. Senate Bill 1 is only relative to that state evergreen mandate on local public employers. When passed, Senate Bill 1 will ensure that the evergreen clause no longer applies to any public employee collective bargaining agreement which expired prior to the effective date of this bill. I'll read that again: When passed, Senate Bill 1 will ensure that the evergreen clause no longer applies to any public employee collective bargaining agreement which expired prior to the effective date of this bill. Parallel to that: When passed, Senate Bill 1 will ensure that the evergreen clause now in statute will not apply to any collective bargaining agreement which expires after the effective date of this bill.

Under Senate Bill 1, every contract will be treated equally. The repeal of the evergreen law will apply to all contracts, except it will have no impact on contracts in which evergreen clauses have been negotiated and approved by union members and local governing bodies. We're saying the mandate is wrong; we're not going to interfere with the collective bargaining process of the local area; the State is going to step back with the passage of Senate Bill 1.

Mister President, I ask my Senate colleagues to join me and the 17 other cosponsors in voting for Senate Bill 1. And, with that, I would ask for a roll call vote. Thank you, Mister President.

Recess. Out of recess.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro for a question of Sen. Odell.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Thank you, Senator Odell. Senator Odell, I just want clarity on one particular issue. The City of Manchester has negotiated an evergreen clause in their contract. Is that evergreen clause still enforceable given the passage of this piece of legislation?

SENATOR ODELL: Yes, it is. It stays enforced as long as it was negotiated by the parties—that is the public employer as well as the bargaining unit—that they had an agreement, that that was approved by the governing body, aware of the costs that would be included as part of all elements of that contract. Yes. This would have no impact on that.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise simply to say that there was a very good reason for the evergreen law, and it was in fact to level the playing field. All of us see the writing on the wall. However, the evergreen clause did aim to level the playing field between negotiating parties towards the common goal of reaching agreement. It was also meant to recognize that young teachers, for example, would be able to see increases based on longevity. So, it would encourage teachers to stay in school districts rather than shop for a better salary and leave those students and leave that longevity at one school to go to a better-paying school.

So, there was a very good public purpose in the evergreen law; we clearly see the writing on the wall. And, we are grateful that this statement of intent reflects that those locally negotiated evergreen clauses—sorry, I'm hesitating because we just talked about it—those locally agreed upon evergreen clauses remain enforceable if they are locally negotiated. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of committee recommendation of Ought to Pass.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Odell, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

Yeas: 19 – Nays: 5

Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 11-L, relative to the police commission in the town of Hooksett. Public and Municipal Affairs Committee. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 11 Ought to Pass. This enabling legislation permits the Town of Hooksett to have a local vote of whether or not to dissolve the Hooksett Police Commission.

The issue was debated by the Town Council, resulting in a unanimous 9-0 vote in favor of this measure. The Town Council needs legislative approval to enable the placement of this item as a warrant article. There is widespread community support to dissolve the Police Commission and have the Department placed under the authority of the town administrator, like all other town departments.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee unanimously recommends that Senate Bill 11 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 15, relative to the duties of tax collectors and clerks. Public and Municipal Affairs Committee. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 15 Ought to Pass. This bill increases the amount of receipts that may be deferred by the tax collector or clerk before remittance to the treasurer. This change was requested by both the New Hampshire City and Town Clerks Association and the New Hampshire Tax Collectors Association.

Currently, the law requires city and town clerks to deposit money at least weekly or when receipts exceed $500. The proposed amount of $1,500 matches the current requirements for town treasurers per RSA 41:29, making the deposit requirements the same across the board for town clerks, tax collectors, and town treasurers. The majority of towns and cities deposit receipts daily, but this change would allow small communities to deposit less frequently.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 15 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 16, relative to amendments to warrant articles. Public and Municipal Affairs Committee. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

Amendment to SB 16

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subparagraph; Use of Official Ballot. Amend RSA 40:13, IV by inserting after subparagraph (b) the following new subparagraph:

(c) No warrant article shall be amended to eliminate the subject matter of the article. An amendment that changes the dollar amount of an appropriation in a warrant article shall not be deemed to violate this subparagraph.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 16 Ought to Pass as Amended. This bill requires a town that has adopted official ballot voting to retain the substance of the subject matter of a warrant article when it is amended.

The issue developed as a result of the March 2008 New Hampshire Supreme Court Case: Ken Grant v. The Town of Barrington. In the Court's decision, they found nothing in RSA 40:13, IV, RSA 39:2, and RSA 39:3 that prevents voters from removing a subject from consideration at the second session by amending an article to delete the entire subject.

Because of that decision, however, several Senate Bill 2 towns found themselves with drastic changes to warrant articles at the March 2010 deliberative sessions. Citizens used the phrase, "2-C" as an amendment to citizens' warrant articles. The 2-C amendment destroys the warrant article. Other citizens who have taken the time to submit a warrant article sit and watch their efforts dissolve at the first deliberative session. Their petition article goes on the ballot as two words: 2-C. This created much confusion on the ballot questions. Senate Bill 16 as introduced simply dictated that no warrant article shall be amended to eliminate the substance of the original subject matter. The bill as amended clearly states no warrant article shall be amended to eliminate the subject matter itself, and that an amendment that changes the dollar amount of an appropriation in a warrant article shall not be deemed as a violation.

This bill is a bill for the people. We try to get people to come out and vote and get involved in politics. This is something that gives the people faith in the system. So, they go out and they put a warrant article in, it's going to get a fair shot for the voters to be able to vote on it at the election. It's a very bipartisan piece of legislation.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee would ask for your support on passing this piece of legislation.

The question is on the adoption of Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

MOTION TO VACATE

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move to vacate Senate Bill 17 from the Health and Human Services Committee.

Senate Bill 17 deals with medical malpractice claims, matters over which both the Health and Human Services Committee and the Judiciary Committee have jurisdiction. In this particular instance, the bill deals specifically with what evidence can be admitted at trial, a topic that, in reality, ought to be considered by my good friend, the Chair of the Judiciary Committee, and that committee, which is why I am asking for that change. Thank you.

The question is on the motion of vacate SB 17 to Judiciary Committee. Adopted.

SB 17, relative to evidence of admissions in medical injury actions.

AMENDMENTS TO SENATE RULES

Sen. Bradley moved to amend the Senate Rules.

Amendment to Senate Rule 4-1

Amend Senate Rule 4-1 by replacing with the following:

4-1 Public hearings to be held and advertised.

A hearing shall be held upon each bill referred to a committee, and notice of such hearing shall be advertised at least 4 days before hearing in the Senate Calendar. The Senate Calendar shall be available on the Internet for viewing as soon as it has been released for printing.

(a) All bills in the possession of committees shall be reported out with one of the following recommendations: ought to pass, ought to pass with amendment, rerefer to committee, inexpedient to legislate, or refer for interim study. Re-refer to committee shall be a committee report only in the first year session. All rereferred bills shall be acted on by the fourth legislative day of the second year session. Refer for interim study shall be a committee report only in the second year session. In the event a committee is unable to reach a majority vote in favor of any recommendation, the bill shall be reported out of committee with a recommendation of inexpedient to legislate.

(b) Any legislation creating a chapter study committee shall have membership limited to members of the General Court.

Amendment to Senate Rule 4

Amend Senate Rule 4 by inserting 4-8:

4-8 Consent Calendar.

Beginning January 1, 2012, the Senate Calendar may have a Consent Calendar section containing reports on bills and resolutions believed to be non-controversial. No bill or resolution shall appear on the Consent Calendar unless all of the following conditions are met:

(a) All members of the committee to which the bill or resolution was referred vote in favor of the final committee recommendation in executive session.

(b) All members of the committee to which the bill or resolution was referred vote in favor of placing it on the Consent Calendar.

(c) The bill or resolution, if recommended for passage, does not appropriate money and is not accompanied by a fiscal note, pursuant to RSA 14:44.

(d) A short explanation of the committee's recommendation, approved by the chairperson of the committee appears with the bill or resolution in the Consent Calendar.

Any member may request removal of any bill or resolution listed on the Consent Calendar. Any item removed from the Consent Calendar shall be taken up at the conclusion of the Regular Calendar. All items remaining on the Consent Calendar shall be acted upon without debate.

The following shall not appear on a Consent Calendar: Committee of Conference reports and Constitutional Amendment Concurrent Resolutions.

Notwithstanding Senate Rule 2-14, this rule may be rescinded by a majority vote after two days' notice of the motion to rescind.

PART FIVE

COMMITTEES OF CONFERENCE

Amendment to Senate Rule 5

Amend Senate Rule 5 by replacing with the following:

5-1 Formation of Committees of Conference.

Committees of Conference.

(a) Whenever there be is any disagreement between the Senate and the House on the content of any bill or resolution, and whenever both bodies, voting separately, have agreed to establish a committee of conference, the President of the Senate shall appoint three members to the Senate committee of conference on the bill or resolution ~~committee on the bill~~ and the Speaker of the House shall appoint four members to the House committee of conference ~~committee~~. Exceptions: (1) the House committee of conference on the operating budget shall consist of five members; (2) the number of the members of the any committees of conference on any bill may increase or decrease if the President and the Speaker both agree.

5-2 Operation of Committees of Conference.

The two committees of conference on a bill or resolution shall meet jointly but vote separately while in conference. A unanimous vote by both committees of conference shall be necessary for an agreed report to the Senate and the House by the committees of conference.

~~(b) The first-named person from the body where the bill or resolution in disagreement originated shall have the authority to call the time and place for the first meeting of the committees of conference on said bill.~~

5-3 Chairperson of Committees of Conference.

~~(c) The first-named person on a Senate committee of conference shall be the chairman of that conference chair the committee. The chairman of the committee of conference of the body where the bill or resolution in disagreement originated shall chair the joint meeting of the committees of conference and shall have the authority to call the time and place for their first meeting.~~

5-4 Action on Committees of Conference Reports.

~~(d) No action shall be taken in either body by the Senate on any committee of conference report earlier than some subsequent day to the filing of the report, and after the report has been delivered to the seats or placed on a member's desk.~~

5-5 Non-Germane Amendments Prohibited.

A committee of conference may neither change the title of any bill submitted to it nor add any non-germane amendments to which are not germane to the subject matter of the bill or resolution as originally submitted to it. For the purpose of this rule, a non-germane amendment is an amendment containing any subject matter not contained in either the House or Senate version of the bill.

5-6 Committees of Conference on Budget Bills.

~~(e) Conference Committees on Budget Bills.~~ The report of each the committee of conference on either the general appropriation bill or the capital improvements bill shall be printed in the journal or a supplement thereto of the appropriate body before action on said report is taken on the floor. Non-germane amendments, sections and footnotes to such bills (except footnotes in explanation of the principal text of such bills or designating the use or restriction of any funds or portions thereof) are prohibited and shall not be allowed under any circumstances. Notwithstanding the general provisions of paragraph ~~(h)~~ 5-9 of this section, the Conference Committee on general appropriations bill may propose new items for inclusion in said bill but no such item may be so included unless and until it shall have been returned to both the Senate and the House and adopted in identical form by a majority vote in each body.

5-7 Committees of Conference on CACRs.

~~(f)~~ When both committees of conference on a concurrent resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution have agreed, the committee of conference from the body which acceded to a request for committees of conference shall file its report with the clerk of that body who shall print it in full in the journal or supplement of that body. The report shall be made a special order of business at the late session of a subsequent day. After said report has been adopted by the first body, a message shall be transmitted to the second body which shall then act upon the report of its committee of conference.

5-8 Bill Sponsor Granted a Hearing.

(g) The prime sponsor of any bill or joint resolution referred to committees of conference shall, upon his or her request, be granted a hearing before said committees prior to action thereon.

5-9 Prohibitions.

(h) No member of a committee of conference shall sign any report that contains non-germane amendments or subject matter that has been indefinitely postponed in either body. For the purposes of this rule, a non-germane amendment would be any subject matter not contained in either the House or the Senate version of the bill.

Recess. Out of recess.

Sen. D'Allesandro moved to divide the question.

The Chair ruled the question divisible.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: I'd like to take 4-8 out of the mix and discuss that.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: The motion then before us is on the change for 4-1 and 5-1 through 5-9, dealing with the committee of conferences and the public hearings.

The question is on the motion to amend Senate Rules 4-1 and 5-1 through 5-9. Adopted.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: We now deal with Rule 4-8, Consent Calendar.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I've served in this Legislature, beginning in 1972. In 1972, we had no consent calendar in the House of Representatives. What we did is, we went over every bill. In order to expedite the situation, because of the 400 members of the body, a consent calendar was then adopted.

I must say that in the House, we have 400 members; you have screening through a large committee, a committee of at least 20. The bill is subsequently sent to a second committee, which is a subcommittee of the original committee, and then in some instances, is even sent back to the original committee and referred to another committee. Thus, in the House, I think the idea of a consent calendar has merit. I don't think the idea of a consent calendar in the Senate has any merit whatsoever.

This is a deliberative body. We represent, as Senator Barnes points out eloquently, the people of the State of New Hampshire. What we do here should be transparent. We must bring elements to the floor and discuss those elements. Now, we have many, many elements that go through here without any discussion. I don't want to negate that process at all; if you have a unanimous vote and there isn't any discussion to be had, no discussion is relevant. But, this is a deliberative body. We are 24 Senators representing 1.3 million people in the State of New Hampshire. They deserve to hear our sentiments on legislation that we're passing. We have an obligation to let the people that we represent know where we stand on the issues. Deliberation is the core to a democracy. When democracy was established in the Athenian Square, we had discussion and debate. That discussion and debate led to decisions that were made, hopefully, in the best interest of the people that we represent.

I say to you, this Senate has run for over 100 years—over 100 years—without a consent calendar. It seems to me our precursors in this Senate, leadership on both sides, Republican and Democrat, have done a very good job of controlling the issues and letting good discussion and debate take place, worthy of the people of the State of New Hampshire. And, when I say worthy, I mean worthy. Our opinions are important; they are opinions of the people that we represent, and we bring them forward here. I think to eliminate that by using a consent calendar is a disservice to the people of the State of New Hampshire. And, I don't believe anybody in this body wants to do that. They don't want that to be part of their legacy as leader of this body.

I have affection for this body. I have affection for the House; I have great affection for the Senate. I think it's an honor and a privilege to serve here. And, I honor each one of my colleagues who's taken that step and said, "I'm going to dedicate myself to public service; I'm going to be here. I'm going to represent my constituency." It would be shameful if the discussion and debate about legislation is pushed aside and not considered by each member of this body. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. Senator D'Allesandro, God bless you; you're 100 percent right. But, I want to clear something up; I don't want to clear it up, I just want to talk about it. This was discussed at great length in one of our caucuses with 19 Senators. A few of the Senators thought it was a great idea; a good number of our Senators, it's the first time that they've served in the Senate and they haven't had the feel for what goes on in this Senate.

After careful deliberation, a compromise was reached. The compromise was that this wouldn't go into effect until January 1st of 2012. This current year we would give the new folks in our chamber, new Senators that are here, a chance to see how the process works. And, I thought it was a great compromise to give it a shot. And, I also, Senator D'Allesandro, I agree with every darn thing you said and then some; I wasn't in the Athenian Square; I've been to Fenway Park, but I haven't been to Athenian Square like you might have been. If Senator Gatsas were here, former Senator Gatsas, he'd probably have been there, too, but I haven't. As you can see, the folks that wanted to give this a shot were nice enough to put in here the very last sentence of that situation, and I'll read it: "Notwithstanding Senate Rule 2-14, this rule,"—that you and I don't particularly like, Senator D'Allesandro—"may be rescinded by a majority vote after two days' notice of the motion to rescind." As much as I think that we shouldn't be following in the House's steps—this is not the House; this is the Senate, which a good number of us have a lot of feeling for and some of you new folks will have the same feeling before you get out of here—look around this room; there's only 24 of us in the State of New Hampshire! That's pretty damn important and pretty impressive, isn't it? Think about it: 24 out of 1.3 million people; that's us.

Also on the consent calendar, Senator D'Allesandro, as you know, having been in the House, any bill can be taken off the consent calendar. Also, Senate President, during the caucus, the group talked about this at great length. And, a whole committee, a committee of five, if one member of that committee says no, it doesn't go on the consent calendar. Only one member has to say that. In the whole committee—if there's five members on the committee and only four of them are there, uh-uh; you've got to have all five. You've got to have a full committee to make that vote. So, there are some stopgaps in it.

So, I voted to go along with this, even though I agree with you. But, I think there's a whole year for testing, and I think it's a fair—you know, you and I have been around a couple of years, and you and I know that fitting together with people and making compromises works pretty well in this chamber; it works pretty well in life. So, it was a compromise in that caucus to come up with this. So, I'm going to vote for it. I might be in the majority that votes to throw it the heck out next January, but that's a little way off; it's a year away. Let's let the new folks get their teeth into this, see how the Senate works. And, I've got a hunch some of the Senators who thought otherwise during our caucus might change their minds when it comes time in January to put this in effect. Thank you, Senator, and I really appreciate your comments. You did a great job, Athenian Square and all.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to this amendment. I do agree that there's place for efficiency. But, I ran for this Senate seat, and I hold it very dear. And, I think our obligation to my people and to our state is to have the ability to discuss all bills before this fine Senate we have.

Every single bill goes to the committee, every single bill is heard, and every single bill comes to the floor, and we vote on it; we've always voted on it individually. So, there is a process. I want to stick up for the process, and that's what I'm here for. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to concur with my colleague from Manchester, and to say that, in fact, I recognize the compromises that occurred, and we are appreciative of the listening that happened that added language that said that a majority could suspend this rule. So, I rise to recognize that kind of spirit of compromise.

I do think that it will be interesting after a long, long, long budget debate, and we are all leaving at the end of June, whether there will be a spirit of wanting to hear more debate when we come back. But, I believe that it's important for transparency, like Senator Prescott, that the voters are able to see and hear why we are passing bills. I would remember to each of you that we are on streaming audio now, and anyone who wants to listen in can hear what bills are passing and what bills are being debated and what bills are being heard. A consent agenda will be a quiet passage of bills that no one will be able to hear that it occurred that day. So, I would point those things out as you watch between now and the end of June—hopefully we're done by the end of June. I would ask you to consider as you watch this process and think in each of your own minds whether this is a process which is important that debate occur on the Senate floor, or whether there are some bills which we can just skip and write a blurb and send out of here. I personally come down on the side of transparency and full debate. Thank you.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I have a question of the Chair. If this rule fails to be adopted today, could it be brought up again for consideration at the beginning of 2012?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: The rule could be brought up for consideration if it fails; it would require a two-thirds vote to change the rules after today.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill for a follow-up question.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Even if it's the beginning of next session, not within this session.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Correct. After today, for the biennium, it needs two-thirds vote.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise in support of this rule change. I think we all know, even those of us who are the staunchest defenders of tradition, as my good friend from Manchester and my good friend from Raymond are, as well as Senator Prescott, who has served in this body before... I feel as if I'm one of the rookies here. But, in looking at who we are, all 24 of us, we have increasing work pressures outside of this body, and all of our schedules need some protection from the length of some of the Senate sessions that we've endured in the past.

Now, when the discussion gets down to words like 'transparency' and 'deliberation', I would remind my colleagues that we live in the Internet Age. And, while it is possible—and that's a good thing—to live-stream our sessions or to record them as is happening, more and more of the people of New Hampshire, the people across our country, get their information online. And so, in my view, having a blurb that describes a bill is every bit as transparent as a very brief discussion that happens, for the most part, during work hours, when people can't live-stream and listen to our deliberation. Having that blurb in the Calendar that's online, both before the debate happens and well after the debate, probably, at least in my view, provides more transparency and the ability for the public to interact with us, either prior to the vote or after the vote.

As my good friend from Raymond talked about, there are more protections in this proposal than there are in the House consent calendar. All members of the committee have to be there, all have to vote affirmatively for the bill or against the bill unanimously, and in a separate motion, to vote to place it on the consent calendar. We know there'll have to be a blurb that provides both the deliberative intent and the transparency that we have, and every member's right to then pull a bill from the consent calendar and have the debate that we're having now about a rule will be protected.

Furthermore, if we find, a year from now, which is when this rule will go into effect, that it's not working, whichever side of the aisle we're on, we will know that, and with the protection of just a simple majority vote, be able to change that rule.

So, I would urge us to think about the pressures that we all face, both in this building and outside this building, to understand that information is shared electronically and the written word is as powerful electronically as the spoken word, I would urge us to approve this, see how the process works in 2011, and implement it in 2012. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I rise and hope that you would consider voting against this amendment. I do this partly from what you've heard from many of our colleagues here, and certainly Senator D'Allesandro. And, I haven't been in the Senate as long as Senator D'Allesandro has, but I have been here for the last four years, for two terms. And, I have to say, one of the things I feel most proud about in being here is the fact that we respect all the voices of the people in this state, and that we are here to represent those. My concern, whether we would amend—or, the language that Senator Barnes referred to in this amendment of not having this enforced for a year—my concern is the perception that the people of the state then think of us and what we're doing here today. And, I think that the perception we want and the message we want to give to all of them is to continue that we are going to discuss and we are going to debate the issues that they've brought forward to us as their representatives and that we continue to do that. So, I urge you not to support this amendment. Thank you.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. My question is of you. There's nothing in this rule that requires us to put this in place; at the very first session in 2012, we could move this out, right?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: The rule states that with a majority vote, the rule can be rescinded.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. Following up on Senator Stiles' question, I'm reading the rule to say that there may be a consent calendar, that we're authorizing the possibility of it. Is that not right?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: The wording of the rule says there may be a consent calendar.

SENATOR MERRILL: Right. So, in follow-up to Senator Stiles' question, it doesn't necessarily have to be implemented. Is that right?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: If there are no bills coming from committees with a unanimous vote of all committee members present and voting for both the motion and to put it on the consent calendar, then there would be nothing on the consent calendar.

The question is on the motion to amend Senate Rule 4 by inserting Senate Rule 4-8. Adopted.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM EARLY SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Early Session, that the business of the Late Session be in order at the present time, that all bills and resolutions ordered to Third Reading be, by this resolution, read a third time, all titles be the same as adopted, and that they be passed at the present time.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Early Session.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rule 2-17 Tribute to Lance Corporal Michael Geary

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. On December 8, 2010, Lance Corporal Michael Geary was killed in combat while serving with Fox Company in Helmand Province, Afghanistan. I would like to take this opportunity to honor Michael.

I want to start by offering my deepest condolences to his family for their terrible loss. Michael Geary was only 20 years old, and a 2009 graduate of Pinkerton Academy. He had determined when he was 14 years of age that he wanted to be a Marine. Through hard work, dedication, and determination, he made his dream come true. He believed in serving his country.

Not all of us had the honor of knowing Michael personally, but by all accounts, he was a good son, a true friend, and a man who was dedicated to the U.S. Marine Corps. His death is a loss to all of us, especially to those in the community of Derry who knew him well.

Michael Geary made the ultimate sacrifice defending his country; we must never take this sacrifice for granted. I want to tell his family that their son will not be forgotten, not by the Town of Derry, and not by the State of New Hampshire.

Thank you, Lance Corporal Michael Geary. You are a New Hampshire hero.

Without objection President Bragdon moved that all Rule 2-17's shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate.

MOTION TO RECESS TO CALL OF THE CHAIR

Sen. Bradley moved that the business of the day being completed, that the Senate recess to the Call of the Chair for the purposes of introducing legislation, referring bills to committee, scheduling hearings, sending and receiving messages, and when we recess, we recess to the call of the Chair.

Adopted. The Senate is in recess to the Call of the Chair.

INTRODUCTION OF SENATE BILLS

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That in accordance with the list in the possession of the Senate Clerk, the following Senate legislation shall be by this Resolution read a first and second time by the therein listed titles and referred to the therein designated committees.

Adopted.

HOUSE MESSAGE

The House of Representatives has passed Bills with the following titles, in the passage of which it asks the concurrence of the Senate:

HB 32, relative to statutory references to the choice and duties of town auditors.

HB 77, relative to amendments to warrant articles.

HB 88, relative to liquor enforcement and liquor licensing.

HB 91, relative to the reporting by state agencies with capital budget projects to the capital budget overview committee.

HB 92, relative to expiration of licenses issued by the board of foresters.

HB 119, relative to agency membership on the information technology council.

INTRODUCTION OF HOUSE BILL

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That in accordance with the list in the possession of the Senate Clerk, the following House legislation shall be by this Resolution read a first and second time by the therein listed title and referred to the therein designated committee.

Adopted.

First and Second Reading and Referral

HB 77, relative to amendments to warrant articles. (Public and Municipal Affairs)

Out of Recess.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

February 3, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 12 p.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

The word "discretion" in the Middle Ages meant much more than the word does now; now it means secret-keeping, or not speaking. But, it came with its root in "discretio", which meant both discernment and discretion. So, discernment was: "What shall I do, or what am I called to do?" and, discretion was: "How do I work that plan out? How do I move forward in the midst of having decided what I'm going to do?" And, the combination of the two are to leadership like flour and yeast are to bread. To practice both well is to let go of immediate or personal gratification and separates a politician from a leader in the church or in government.

It seems to me that the art of leadership is more than just deciding what to do; it's deciding what not to do and what not to say. I'm always stunned to see how similar are leadership in government and in the church. The question in the church is to elect people good at being bishops, not to elect people good at becoming bishops. And, I suspect, so, too, in the Senate. Let us pray.

God of all being, assist us in being good humans, and out of that decision, to be good leaders. Guide us in knowing what is next, and so also guide us in knowing what is not next, but could have been. And then, sit with us as we mourn that from which we have turned away, so that we may embrace that which we know to be right. Amen.

Sen. Houde led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. We're honored today to have a sitting Senator from our sister state of Massachusetts with us. Senator? Senator Baddour. Senator Baddour is Vice Chair of the Ways and Means Committee in the Massachusetts Senate, but he's been very helpful to New Hampshire on transportation issues. He was Chair of the Transportation Committee in the last session of the Massachusetts Legislature.

We also have a former Massachusetts State Senator: retired State Trooper, former State Senator, James Jajuga. We in Manchester know James very well because his son is one of our distinguished patrolmen in the City of Manchester and does a terrific job for us in the City of Manchester.

And, our other guest: John Chemaly. John is a businessman who's been very active in Massachusetts and is looking to extend his area of operations to New Hampshire. John, welcome to the Senate. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to introduce our Page today. Our Page today is Emma Nelson. Emma is 16 and attends Bishop Brady High School. She's in the 10th grade, and her hometown is Concord, New Hampshire. Her favorite school subject is history, her favorite book is To Kill A Mockingbird, and she enjoys tennis, reading, running, travel, and skiing. In the future, she hopes to go to college and become a lawyer like her parents, who I know really well. I've seen Emma growing up over the years, and it's wonderful to have you here. I understand you even, at Kimball School, impersonated me for History Day. So, thank you, Emma; great to have you here, and enjoy being with us today. Thanks.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. Up in the gallery we have Representative Hoelzel, and we also have Peter Buckingham; both of those folks are constituents of mine from the great Town of Raymond.

SUSPENSION OF SENATE RULES

Sen. Bradley moved that Senate Rule 4-2 be suspended in order to dispense with a notice of the committee report in the Senate Calendar on HB 77.

The question is on the motion to suspend the rules. Adopted by necessary 2/3 vote.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

HB 77, relative to amendments to warrant articles. Public and Municipal Affairs Committee. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 77 Ought to Pass. This is the exact same bill as Senate Bill 16, which came before the Senate on January 19th, 2011, and was adopted.

This bill requires a town that has adopted official ballot voting to retain the substance of the subject matter of a warrant article when it is amended.

Some towns, such as the Town of Raymond, start their deliberative sessions on Saturday, February 5th: two days from now. It is hoped this bill can be passed and signed into law in a timely fashion so as to enable citizens to vote by ballot on the original subject matter of the warrant article at the March elections.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 77 be adopted.

I'd like to add a little bit to that; I'm not going to take a 2-17, which is a new rule that we have. I'd like to give a little bit of thanks before I sit down. And, the thanks goes to a lot of folks; it goes to the staffs of the House and the Senate, the Speaker of the House, who's been very helpful with this piece of legislation – it has had a hiccup or two along the way to this chamber today. The Governor has, incidentally, promised to sign this bill; I don't know if it's going to be this afternoon or tomorrow. So, I want to thank him; obviously, he's the end of the road on this piece of legislation. So, thank you, Governor, if you're listening; if you're not, thank you anyway.

But, I want to point out a couple of people that are very important to this. One of them is Senator Boutin, who was able to cure one of the big hiccups that started with this piece of legislation; he cured it very nicely. He must have scared somebody; their hiccups went away.

And, to you, Mister President, for you and your staff for making this moment possible; this is nothing but a citizens' bill. And, when the Governor signs it, I hope some of you folks can be up there to be there when he puts his signature on the bill. And, incidentally, the municipal and county government would appreciate your vote on this, positive. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Mister President, I would note that I do not have a copy of House Bill 77, and I wonder if anyone else does. It would be useful if we're going to go on the good word of our Senator that we also have the good words that come from the House so we could look at them before we vote on those. So, if we could have a copy of House Bill 77...

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Best to get that done.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

Recess. Out of recess.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: We appreciate the words, and we are all set.

The question is on the adoption of committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 24-FN-L, exempting the Unity school district from the moratorium on school building aid. Education Committee. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

SENATOR KELLY: Yes, thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 24-FN-L Ought to Pass. This legislation exempts the Unity school district from the current moratorium on school building aid.

The intent of the legislation that created the suspension of new school building aid was to ensure long-term financial sustainability of state aid for school buildings, and it provided a waiver to ensure that all children attend safe schools.

The Unity School situation is unique in that the moratorium on school building aid was never intended to close a school indefinitely. The Town of Unity deliberated over their current situation, and together, with assistance from a local architect, they were able to pass a bond to build a safe school for the children of their community.

The legislation before you today would assist them in the construction, and ultimately provide the Town of Unity with an adequate and safe environment to educate their own children. There is widespread support in the community and amongst the members of the State School Board of Education to pass this legislation.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 24-FN-L Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 19, relative to the definition of “prime wetlands.” Energy and Natural Resources Committee. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

Amendment to SB 19

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Local Option; Prime Wetlands. Amend RSA 482-A:15, I to read as follows:

I. Any municipality, by its conservation commission, or, in the absence of a conservation commission, the planning board, or, in the absence of a planning board, the local governing body, may undertake to designate, map, and document prime wetlands lying within its boundaries, or if such areas lie only partly within its boundaries, then that portion lying within its boundaries. For the purposes of this chapter, “prime wetlands” shall mean any areas of very poorly drained soils falling within the jurisdictional definitions of RSA 482-A:3 and RSA 482-A:4 that possess one or more of the values set forth in RSA 482-A:1 and that, because of their size, unspoiled character, fragile condition, or other relevant factors, make them of substantial significance. The designation of any prime wetland by the department prior to the effective date of this paragraph shall remain in effect. The commissioner shall adopt rules under RSA 541-A relative to the form, criteria, and methods that shall be used to designate, map, and document prime wetlands, determine boundaries in the field, and amend maps and designations once filed and accepted by the department under paragraph II.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 19 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This legislation was introduced to modify the definition of “prime wetlands” in order to provide a clearer understanding of the concept and bring it back to its original intent, as the changes to the definition led to confusion for towns, the Department of Environmental Services, and applicants.

The bill as introduced sought to add the language of “five acres or more” and “very poorly drained soils” to allow field delineation of the prime wetlands boundary and a 100-foot buffer to be placed on scientific immeasurable soil features. But, the bill was amended to remove the proposed language of “five acres or more” after the Committee determined that the size doesn’t necessarily determine the functionality and value that the wetland may have for a particular municipality.

Additionally, the bill as amended seeks to clarify that the designation of any prime wetland by the Department prior to the effective date shall remain in effect. Prime wetlands give towns the ability to look at their resources and seek to designate the wetland resources that provide the highest value and function for them.

That being said, the Energy and Natural Resources Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 26, establishing a committee to study the classification of motor vehicles. Transportation Committee. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

Amendment to SB 26

Amend the bill by replacing section 4 with the following:

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 120 days of the effective date of this section. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 26 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill seeks to establish a committee to study the classification of motor vehicles.

The Committee heard from the Director of the Department of Motor Vehicles, who stressed that there are many different types of motor vehicles on the roadways today that are classified, unclassified, or improperly classified at this time. The Department of Motor Vehicles would like the study committee to examine current classifications and create new classifications in an effort to properly classify all motor vehicles, whether they are the three-wheeled motorcycle or the plug-in car, for the safety and the benefit of the citizens of the State of New Hampshire.

The Committee amended the bill by changing the first meeting requirement from 45 days to 120 days. This was done in an effort to allow the study committee to meet after the conclusion of the current legislative session.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 31, relative to revocation or denial of a driver's license for drug or alcohol involvement by persons under 21 years of age. Transportation Committee. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

Amendment to SB 31

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move SB 31 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill seeks to clarify the procedure for revocation or denial of a driver's license for drug or alcohol involvement by persons under 21 years of age.

The Committee heard from the Department of Safety and the district and family courts, who both agreed this bill fixes unintentional consequences of existing law. Currently, if the Department of Safety receives a conviction notice for drug or alcohol involvement by persons under 21 years of age, the Department of Safety will automatically suspend the person's driver's license, even if the presiding judge did not order the suspension.

This bill would allow the Department of Safety only to suspend the driver's license of a person under 21 years of age convicted of drug or alcohol involvement if the presiding judge affirmatively orders the suspension.

The Transportation Committee amended line 30 of the original bill. This amendment changed the effective date of the bill from January 1, 2012, to making the bill effective upon passage.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM EARLY SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Early Session, that the business of the Late Session be in order at the present time, that all bills and resolutions ordered to Third Reading be, by this resolution, read a third time, all titles be the same as adopted, and that they be passed at the present time.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

February 15, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

From the Screwtape letters – a message from the devil to his demon about ruining human lives:

“Music and silence – how I detest them both! How thankful we should be that ever since Our Father entered Hell... no square inch of infernal space and no moment of infernal time has been surrendered to either of those abominable forces. But all has been occupied with noise – noise, the grand dynamism, the audible expression of all that is exultant, ruthless and virile – noise, which alone defends us from silly qualms, despairing scruples, and impossible desires. We will make the whole universe a noise in the end! We have already made great strides in this direction as regards the Earth. The melodies and silences of Heaven will be shouted down in the end.”

It is important, as your chaplain, that I remind you of the value of silence in daily life – a period of wordlessness. Daily time with a candle, with beautiful music – not driving! – with a walk in the woods in prayer or simply in reflection – the three questions – “What is going well, what is not going well, what needs to be changed?” This reflection is essential to the human spirit finding its way in the world and making good decisions on each other's behalf. It is as important for you to have silence as it is for a pilot to have sleep.

Let us pray:

God of all silence, your language is silence, you create in silence, and you love in silence. Help us to reflect your love to a cold world by keeping silence and listening to our hearts and not just the storm of words which surround us.
Amen.

Sen. Sanborn led the Pledge of Allegiance.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

February 16, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 1 p.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

The email signature on my email at work that has my basic contact information also has two quotes, and I use it kind of like bumper stickers on the back of your car; I've never had a bumper sticker because I've been told that that's your thing; that's what you want the world to know, and I've never found one that said that. But, these email signatures do. And, they are from two great leaders: one is from Jesus Christ, of whom I'm a great fan, and one is of Ghandi, of whom I'm also a great fan. And, I've been told that by keeping these email signatures on my email, I might not ever be elected Bishop, which is just an added benefit.

Jesus says: "Love one another." Ghandi says: "I like your Christ. I do not like your Christians; they are not very much like your Christ." Our goal in life, in our spiritual walk, in our work, whatever it happens to be, is to identify who we follow, and then to do so with enormous integrity. Let us pray.

Creator of the Universe and Lover of our Souls, so inspire us to integrity that our actions and our speech, our heroes and our work, the love and kindness you implant in us work together as one thing. Amen.

Sen. Groen led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

SENATOR LUTHER: It's my pleasure to introduce our two Pages; they're both from Hollis Brookline High School in Hollis – my town. And, we have Nicolas Gamache, who is the grandson of Jim Belanger, who is a Representative from our town. He's 14 and in the ninth grade. And, his favorite book is Shiloh and he writes. So, he's a great writer.

And, I also want to welcome Sara Lunderville. She's in the 12th grade; she's 17. And, she's going to be going to Daniel Webster next year and studying psychology.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I'm pleased today to introduce a Boy Scout Troop and their leader from Grafton, which is in Senate District 5. Welcome.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. It's my great pleasure to introduce Carl and Linda Johnson, who are here today to be present for Senate Bill 85. I'd also like to welcome Representative Wendelboe – former Representative Wendelboe – who's here as well. Thank you.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces that the following bills will not come to Finance: SB 127-FN, SB 140-FN.

COMMITTEE REPORTSSPECIAL ORDER

Without objection, SB 85 is Special-Ordered to the beginning of today's Session Calendar.

PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

SB 85, naming a bay in the town of Meredith Johnson Bay. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 85 Ought to Pass. This bill names a bay in the Town of Meredith Johnson Bay in honor of former New Hampshire State Senator Carl Johnson and his wife, Jeanette. Both of these individuals worked tirelessly on behalf of our lakes as well as the loon population. Senator Johnson strived to balance the needs of the business community with a commitment to protecting the environment and preserving the quality of life in New Hampshire. Jeanette and Carl linked arms on most issues, and Jeanette spent almost as much time in Concord as her husband did. She was fondly referred to at times as "the 25th Senator". This bill is a fitting thank you to the Johnsons for their service to the Lakes Region and the State of New Hampshire.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 85 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Barnes, seconded by Sen. Bradley.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Houde, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Kelly, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Larsen, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, D'Allesandro, Merrill, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

SB 49, relative to tip pooling arrangements. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

Sen. Sanborn moved to Table SB 49. Adopted.

SB 62, relative to persons participating in the return to work program. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 62 Ought to Pass. This bill was a request of the Department of Employment Security, and exempts all individuals who participate in the New Hampshire Return to Work program from the definition of "employment". Senate Bill 62 will help make job training available to more New Hampshire residents who are trying to rejoin the workforce. No one in front of the Committee spoke in opposition to the bill.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 2 with the following:

3 Manufactured Housing Installation License; Bond Required. Amend RSA 205-D:9, I to read as follows:

I. The board shall not issue a license to any person unless the person or his employer on his behalf has posted a surety bond or letter of credit to be held by the state treasurer in an amount to be determined by the board. No surety bond or letter of credit shall be accepted unless it is with a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The surety may cancel the bond or letter of credit at any time upon giving 30 days' written notice to the board.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

2011-0230s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Requires a licensed installer or manufacturer to attach a warranty seal to a manufactured home.

II. Removes the requirement that the manufactured housing installation standards board meet at least every 90 days and permits the board to meet at the call of the board or the chairperson.

III. Provides that a licensed installer's employer may file the required surety bond or letter of credit on behalf of the licensee.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. Senate Bill 116 was unanimously voted Ought to Pass with Amendment out of the Commerce Committee. This bill requires a licensed installer or manufacturer to attach a warranty seal to a manufactured home. Warranty seals are used to keep track of who manufactured and installed a manufactured home and are available through the manufacturer. This bill also removes the requirement that the Manufactured Housing Installation Standards Board meet at least every 90 days and permits the Board to meet at the call of the Board or the chairperson.

The committee amendment also allows the installation company for the manufactured home to post a bond for an installing employee, and lastly moves the effective date to upon passage.

EDUCATION

SB 37, relative to the determination of residency for certain pupils. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 37 Ought to Pass. This legislation provides further detail on the procedure for resolving residency disputes. In cases where a child is homeless or when a parent is activated for military service and the child must live with a relative, the child's residency, and therefore school district, is questioned. The current process requires the school superintendant to make that determination. The superintendant may also request the Commissioner of Education to resolve the issue. This legislation sets a timeline of 14 days in which the residency dispute must be resolved. In complex cases where a resolution is not imminent, the deadline is extended to 30 days. Senate Bill 37 amends RSA 193:12, VI. (a) by providing the parents a voice in making the request of the Commissioner when disputes over residency of a pupil arises.

The Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 37 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 45, relative to criteria for designation as a Granite State scholar. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 45 Ought to Pass. This legislation makes two technical changes to the criteria used in designation of a Granite State scholar and extends the date by which the funds can be distributed. This bill was requested by the New Hampshire Postsecondary Education Commission as a response to scoring change in the SAT tests. The scoring methodology will be changed from a benchmark of 1200 score to 75 percent of the highest aggregate score. The language will also remove the word "ACT" – A-C-T – and replace it with: "another nationally recognized assessment" due to the influx of nationally recognized assessments coming forward. This legislation also extends the date by which funds can be distributed by the New Hampshire Postsecondary Commission from June 1st to July 30th, a 60-day extension. The change comes as a result of a more realistic timeline for fund disbursement.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends Senate Bill 45 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 67

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Duties. The committee shall study the feasibility including the advantages, disadvantages, and legal issues of implementing a school voucher system to create greater school choice for parents of school-age children. The committee shall solicit testimony from any individual or group with information relevant to the committee's study.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 67 Ought to Pass as Amended. This legislation establishes a committee to study school vouchers and school choice. This bill was designed to establish a committee to study how school vouchers and school choice may be implemented in New Hampshire. In the past, there has been controversy on the constitutionality of vouchers used to attend religious schools. The Committee chose to adopt language extending the scope of the committee from just implementation to also include the advantages, disadvantages, and legal issues associated with the vouchers.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends Senate Bill 67 Ought to Pass as Amended and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 96 Ought to Pass. This legislation authorizes Pinkerton Academy to amend its charter and ratify all acts taken by the board of trustees prior to the effective date of this act.

The Pinkerton Academy was chartered in 1814, prior to the establishment of RSA 292:7, which allows charters to amend themselves if needed. This bill is designed to bring Pinkerton Academy up to date and file with the Secretary of State's Office.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 96 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 112

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the membership on the advanced manufacturing education advisory council.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds the commissioner of the department of resources and economic development or his or her designee and 2 directors of regional career and technical centers to the advanced manufacturing education advisory council.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 112 Ought to Pass as Amended. This legislation adds three additional members to the Governor's Advanced Manufacturing Education Council: the Commissioner of DRED, or his designee, and two directors of the career and technical centers.

The Governor's Council was created by legislation in 2008 because legislators recognized then the need for manufacturers and educators to work together in order to provide a prepared manufacturing workforce.

Committee members heard testimony that here in New Hampshire we have an advanced manufacturing industry with current job openings but without potential employees with the necessary skills to fill those jobs. As well, they heard from the Council that the economic vitality of our state depends on creating an education infrastructure that supports manufacturing. Partnerships between manufacturing businesses and education institutions are essential in preparing students and workers for manufacturing careers. Building these collaborative relationships is key to success for both employees and employers in this important viable industry. As well, the Department of Education and DRED are in support of this bill.

SB 112 has been amended to simply replace the word "panel" with "council" in the title.

SB 112 adds additional expertise to the Advanced Manufacturing Education Advisory Council in order for the Council to meet its legislative intent, and to ensure that New Hampshire remains a leader in the manufacturing industry.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 112 Ought to Pass as Amended and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 21

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to exemptions from excavating and drainage permits.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Excavating and Dredging Permit; Exemptions. Amend RSA 482-A:3, IV(b) to read as follows:

(b) Maintenance of existing man-made nontidal drainage ditches, culverts, catch basins, and ponds that have been legally constructed to collect or convey storm water and spring run-off, fire ponds and intake areas of dry hydrants that have been legally constructed to provide water for municipal firefighting purposes as approved by a local fire chief, and man-made water conveyance systems that are used for the commercial or industrial purpose of collecting, conveying, storing, and recycling water, may be cleaned out when necessary to preserve their usefulness without a permit from the department. Such drainage facilities, fire ponds, intake areas of any hydrants, or man-made water conveyance systems may be cleaned out by hand or machine; provided, that the facility is neither enlarged nor extended into any area of wetlands jurisdiction of the department of environmental services, dredged spoils are deposited in areas outside wetlands jurisdiction of the department of environmental services, and wetlands or surface waters outside the limits of the constructed drainage facility, fire pond, intake area of a dry hydrant, or man-made water conveyance system are neither disturbed nor degraded.

(c) Any modification to man-made roadside and railroad ditches, gullies, farm ponds, fire ponds, detention basins, wetlands made specifically for stormwater treatment or control, aggregate wash ponds, or sluice ways shall be exempt from a permit under RSA 482-A. No such modification shall be extended into any area of wetlands jurisdiction of the department or to wetlands or surface waters outside of the limits of the constructed drainage facility, roadside or railroad ditches, gullies, farm ponds, fire ponds, or man-made water conveyance system.

This bill modifies the exemptions from excavating and drainage permits.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 21 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This legislation was introduced to exempt certain manmade wetlands from the definition of "wetlands". The addition of the new language will allow maintenance corrective actions on manmade wetlands created for various purposes including detention basins and roadside ditches. Many of these have taken on the characteristics of a wetland but they were created to safely and securely hold water. Having to obtain a permit to make changes to these manmade wetlands is an unnecessary burden.

The amendment was introduced when it came to the Committee's attention that the addition of the language in the definition of "wetlands" would change the definition language from that of the federal definition. Therefore, the amendment simply moves the language into excavating and dredging permit exemption section.

I respectfully request that the Senate support the Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 48, relative to filing of rates for certain telephone services. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 48 be Re-referred to committee. The intent of Senate Bill 48 is to find a reasonable way to move the New Hampshire telecommunication industry into the modern world of competition through appropriate deregulation. The regulation of our major landline phone company in New Hampshire is in need of change to make those regulations more appropriate to today's modern telecommunications environment. In order to adequately ensure the changes in regulation are done appropriately and that there are no unintended consequences, we need to take the time to make sure that we get this correct the first time around. Re-referral will allow the various stakeholders to work on an amended bill which will be thoroughly vetted and ready for discussion and consideration by the full Senate come January of next year. I respectfully request that the Senate support the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Re-referral on Senate Bill 48. Thank you, Mister President.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ADMINISTRATION

SB 25, relative to the Connecticut River Valley resource commission. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 25 Ought to Pass. This legislation requires the Connecticut River Valley resource commission to be attached administratively to the Department of Environmental Services. Presently, the Connecticut River Valley resource commission is attached administratively to the Office of Energy and Planning, but their main contact is with the Department of Environmental Services due to the many concerns with environmental issues in the Connecticut Valley and river. With appreciations of the Office of Energy and Planning and with no compelling issues or negative objections regarding this move from one agency to another, the Senate ED&A Committee unanimously recommends that Senate Bill 25 Ought to Pass and is asking for your support in its passage. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 33-FN, relative to retired state employee contributions for medical benefits costs. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Larsen for the committee.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 33 Ought to Pass. This bill was the request of the Department of Administrative Services to establish a procedure for the Department to invoice and collect from retired state employees under the age of 65 who are receiving health benefits and who do not receive retirement allowance. This bill would also allow the retirement system to deduct from a monthly retirement allowance of a retired state employee under the age of 65 premium contribution amounts. Further, this bill authorizes the Department of Administrative Services to act on failure to remit payments of contribution amounts. Senate Bill 33 will increase the State's restricted revenue by an indeterminable amount of money.

The Senate ED&A Committee unanimously recommends that Senate Bill 33 Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 68, relative to records of disciplinary actions taken by the electricians' board. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 68 Ought to Pass. This legislation requires that records of actions taken in disciplinary proceedings by the electricians' board shall not be retained or considered after five years.

According to the State of New Hampshire Department of Safety Division of Fire Safety, if a licensed electrician has received a disciplinary action for the same violation within a five-year period it should be removed from the licensee file and destroyed. It has been shown that after a discipline proceeding, the licensee will do their job as required by code. The risk of losing their professional license and their livelihood is a major incentive to comply with the code.

The Senate ED&A Committee unanimously recommends that Senate Bill 68 Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

JUDICIARY

SB 36, relative to the permanent siting of the Hampton-Exeter District Court. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 36. This legislation is very simple and merely extends the date to January 1, 2015 when the permanent siting of the Hampton-Exeter Court must be determined. There is an active group working to locate a site, but the requirement that the land must be available at no cost to the State and accessible to all 14 communities who use this facility have proven to have additional challenges.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that Senate Bill 36 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 65, making technical corrections to a law relative to court facility financing. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass on SB 65. This legislation makes technical corrections to the law relative to court facility financing to reflect current procedures for negotiation and approval of leases and was requested by Administrative Services and the Judicial Branch.

While LBA was reviewing some statutes, they brought this outdated statutory language to Administrative Services' attention, thus the filing of SB 65 to make the corrections so that this practice, which dates back to the 1980s, and statute are in synch.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that SB 65 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

SB 73, establishing a committee to study local options for evergreen clauses. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President, and I promise to do a better job than on the preceding one. I move Senate Bill 73 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill sought to establish a committee to study local options for evergreen clauses.

During the public hearing, Senator D'Allesandro, the prime sponsor, explained his bill was drafted incorrectly and was problematic. He indicated Senator Odell's recent remarks on Senate Bill 1, eliminating the automatic continuation requirement for public employee collective bargaining agreements, are in the record and part of the testimony. Senator D'Allesandro then requested his bill be withdrawn. Senator Odell supported Senator D'Allesandro's request.

Therefore, based on Senator D'Allesandro's recommendations and Senator Odell's recommendations, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee asks your support in finding Senate Bill 73 Inexpedient to Legislate.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 91, relative to automatic fire suppression sprinklers. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-1. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I've got a busy day ahead of me, so let me get started.

I move Senate Bill 91 Ought to Pass. This bill prohibits municipalities from requiring automatic fire suppression sprinklers in one- and two-family homes. House Bill 1486 of the 2010 Legislative Session resulted in a committee which studied municipal residential fire sprinkler requirements. One of the final recommendations of the study committee called for further study of the feasibility of requiring municipalities to conduct a thorough economic assessment prior to implementing a residential sprinkler mandate.

Public testimony given in favor of Senate Bill 91 centered on the issue being a personal choice for individual homeowners and not a mandate. The expense of such a requirement was also debated, and the fact that adding sprinklers does not increase the appraised value of the home. It was pointed out that no language contained in Senate Bill 91 prohibits the installation of sprinklers if a homeowner desires to do so.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee respectfully recommends Senate Bill 91 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to the Ought to Pass motion because I believe that Senate Bill 91 goes too far too fast. The bill eliminates the ability of municipalities to make decisions about sprinkler requirements based on what they believe to be in the best interest of their own towns. I have faith in my own town officials and fire personnel to make those decisions in a way that addresses not only the safety issues involved but that is also sensitive to other issues, including cost to homeowners and, in particular, the goal of providing workforce housing to our citizens.

The study committee – which Senator Boutin also referred to – on residential sprinklers submitted a final report in November, and its final recommendation reads, and I quote: "It is strongly recommended that municipalities not rely on broad mandates to require residential fire sprinklers, but instead allow for the flexibility and creativity of local planning, safety, and municipal personnel.” I agree with that recommendation, and I urge members to vote against the OTP motion on Senate Bill 91. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a question of Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Senator. I recall this issue coming up last year, and one of the things that I think mitigated some of the concerns was that there’s another statutory provision that allows municipalities, in the case of scattered developments, to require sprinklers. Does this statute do away with the ability of municipalities to require sprinklers in that situation?

SENATOR BOUTIN: No. First of all, when it deals with – Senator, thanks for the question. When it deals with premature or scattered developments, there are several options for communities: They can require...They can ask the applicants to put sprinklers in, the applicants could offer to put sprinklers in, they could require systems, they could require ponds; there’s a number of different options. But, this legislation does not affect that provision – I think it’s RSA 674:36.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Yup.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. Prescott asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 91.

Sen. Odell is in opposition to the motion of Ought to Pass on SB 91.

SB 115, relative to observing voter check-in. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: I told you, Mister President, it was going to be a busy day. Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 115 Ought to Pass. This bill amends the statute on observing voter check-in by adding a reference to the statute authorizing the appointment of challengers by party committees. RSA 659:13 states that no one is allowed within six feet of the ballot clerk without permission of the moderator. Problems have arise, however, whereby the individual observing the check-in of the voters sometimes cannot hear the names being announced. RSA 656:4 indicates that this individual needs to see and hear each voter as each...Actually, correction, Mister Chairman, Mister President: As each voter signs in the checklist to vote. This bill clarifies these statutes. These observers are the official challengers. They should be located in close proximity to see and hear what is going on. It ensures the election observer cannot be barred from hearing the name announced.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 115 be adopted and asks for your support. And, I thank you, Mister President. I would just like to add that this legislation as adopted, as amended, has the support of the Secretary of State’s Office.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 127-FN, relative to the city of Manchester’s contributory retirement system. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise on behalf of the fair City of Manchester and the wonderful State Senator who sponsored this piece of legislation: Senator Lou D'Allesandro. I move Senate Bill 127-FN Ought to Pass. This bill makes housekeeping changes to provisions for accidental and ordinary death benefits of members and beneficiaries of the contributory retirement system of the City of Manchester. Back in 1973, the City created its own retirement system, and each time a change is made, approval must be acquired by the Legislature. For a number of years, Manchester has had death benefit provisions ensuring certain benefits are available to the family if a member dies while in service to the City. But, upon examination of the law, a fundamental oversight in the original plan was discovered, and provisions to the in-service death benefit needed to be clarified. The Board of Mayor and Aldermen have approved these changes, and Mayor Gatsas, who doesn't want to come up here any more, submitted a letter to the Committee members urging support of the bill.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 127-FN be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 140-FN, relative to the disposition of military justice fines. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 140-FN Ought to Pass. The bill, a request from the adjutant general's department, requires military justice fines to be credited to the New Hampshire National Guard recruitment and retention scholarship fund.

Previously, income from the rental property was directed to the scholarship fund, but that has dropped off significantly due to the noncompliance of the Manchester armory with the City of Manchester's fire code. It is in need of a sprinkler system, which would be cost-prohibitive to install. The Department is requesting authority to take the monies from non-judicial punishment and place them into the scholarship fund to support education efforts.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 140-FN be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to SB 29

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the definition of "moped" and relative to motorcycle endorsements.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Motorcycle License. Amend RSA 263:30, I to read as follows:

I. No person to whom a driver's license of any class or category has been issued may drive any registered motorcycle unless he or she holds a special motorcycle license or endorsement, a 3-wheeled motorcycle endorsement, or a motorcycle learner's permit. A person who holds a special motorcycle license or endorsement or a motorcycle learner's permit may drive any registered 2-wheeled or 3-wheeled motorcycle without holding any other class of driver's license. A person who holds a 3-wheeled motorcycle endorsement may drive any registered 3-wheeled motorcycle without holding any other class of driver's license, but shall not drive any 2-wheeled motorcycle.

3 Motorcycle Examinations. Amend RSA 263:31 to read as follows:

263:31 Special Motorcycle Licenses; Waiver of Driving Examination. The department shall cause to be issued a special license for persons without a driver's license or an endorsement on the driver's license for persons who have a driver's license, for all applicants who successfully complete the requirements for a motorcycle license. The department shall cause to be issued a 3-wheeled motorcycle endorsement on the driver's license for persons who have a driver's license, for all applicants who successfully complete the requirements for a 3-wheeled motorcycle endorsement. Applicants for such license or endorsement shall furnish proof of their fitness to drive a motorcycle as the director shall in his or her discretion determine. Such proof shall include the applicant's passing a driver examination conducted on a motorcycle. The examination for a special motorcycle endorsement and the examination for a 3-wheeled motorcycle endorsement shall be separate and distinct examinations emphasizing the skills and maneuvers necessary to operate safely the specific type of motorcycle for which the endorsement is issued. The director may waive the requirement for such a driving examination upon receipt of adequate evidence of experience in driving a motorcycle by an applicant under such rules as the director may deem necessary, or proof that the applicant has successfully completed a state-approved motorcycle rider education course. No person may take the motorcycle driver examination more than twice; any person who fails to pass the examination twice shall be required to successfully complete the motorcycle rider education program under RSA 263:34-b. No person shall drive a motorcycle on a way of this state, unless such person is duly licensed to drive a motorcycle by a special motorcycle license or endorsement issued under this section, or holds a permit under RSA 263:32. No person shall knowingly authorize or allow the driving of a motorcycle owned by him or her or in his or her charge on a way of this state by any person who does not hold a special motorcycle license or endorsement or motorcycle learner's permit.

4 Driver's License Fees. Amend RSA 263:42, I to read as follows:

I. For each original driver's license and examination or driver's license renewal, other than for a commercial vehicle or motorcycle- $50; for each youth operator's license and examination- $10 per year, not to exceed $50; for each license issued to a nonresident alien for less than 5 years- $10 per year or portion thereof; for each original commercial driver license and examination or commercial driver license renewal- $60; for each commercial driver license reexamination in a one-year period- $20; for each commercial vehicle endorsement, renewal of an endorsement, or removal of a restriction- $10; for each special motorcycle original license and examination or special motorcycle license renewal- $50; for each original motorcycle endorsement- $25; for each 3-wheeled motorcycle endorsement- $25; for each motorcycle endorsement and 3-wheeled motorcycle endorsement renewal- no charge. For each original driver's license issued, $5 shall be credited to the driver training fund established by RSA 263:52. Except as provided in RSA 263:14 and RSA 263:39-a, III, every license shall expire on the licensee's birthdate in the fifth year following the issuance of such license. No fee collected under this paragraph shall be refunded once an examination has been taken or a license issued, except as provided in RSA 263:43.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill eliminates the horsepower limitation in the definition of moped in the motor vehicle laws. This bill also creates a special 3-wheel motorcycle endorsement.

This bill was requested by the department of safety.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 29 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill eliminates the two brake horsepower or less limitation in the definition of "moped" in the motor vehicle laws. This bill was requested by the Department of Safety.

The Committee heard from the Department of Safety and moped industry stakeholders, both of whom believe this is a necessary change to eliminate confusion among New Hampshire moped users and the town clerks. The Transportation Committee amended the original bill by adding an additional section after section 1, which created a special three-wheeled motorcycle endorsement.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Recess. Out of recess.

SB 60, relative to the definition of commercial motor vehicle. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 60 Ought to Pass. This bill modifies the provision that exempts certain emergency vehicles from the definition of commercial motor vehicle.

Current law allows firefighters with a commercial driver's license to drive a fire truck to the scene of the fire, but does not let them drive it back to the fire station. This legislation would allow firefighters exemption from the requirement of carrying a commercial driver's license while driving a fire truck for the purpose of returning to the fire station and driving in a parade. Senate Bill 60 would especially serve our small communities that have volunteer fire departments.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 66, relative to nonresident fees for motorcycle rider education. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. This time I move Senate Bill 66 Ought to Pass. This bill requires the Director of the Division of Motor Vehicles to adopt rules relative to nonresident fees for motorcycle rider education. This bill was requested by the Department of Safety.

With nonresidents not paying any fees, this leaves the expense to be paid by the New Hampshire residents taking the motorcycle rider education course.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 69, permitting 2-wheeled vehicles to proceed through an intersection after stopping for a red light. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator Rausch for the committee.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move SB 69 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill permits two-wheeled vehicles to proceed through an intersection after stopping for a red light. It was explained to the Committee that the current problem is, at times, two-wheeled vehicles are not sensed by the various types of sensors that control traffic lights, and in turn, two-wheeled vehicles must wait longer for the traffic light to turn green.

The Committee heard from the Department of Safety, who came in opposed to the bill, and explained there are other ways of correcting the problem. Because the Department of Safety explained solutions and the significant safety concerns raised in the hearing, the Committee felt it was appropriate to vote Inexpedient to Legislate.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for that motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 98, revising the international registration plan. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 98 Ought to Pass. This bill adopts selected recent revisions to the international registration plan.

The Committee heard from the Department of Safety and industry stakeholders, both of whom support the bill and say these changes are important to keep New Hampshire consistent with other states and Canadian provinces. The Committee was told that if they did not pass these changes, New Hampshire could eventually be barred from the international registration plan, which would be detrimental to truck drivers in our state. There is no fiscal impact by updating the international registration plan with the changes in this bill.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 99, relative to trailer brakes. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

Amendment to SB 99

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Trailer Brakes. Amend RSA 266:30 to read as follows:

266:30 Trailer Brakes. No motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer~~[-the weight of which, including its load, is 3,000 pounds or more,]~~ shall be driven on the ways of this state unless equipped with adequate brakes in good working order and sufficient to control the said vehicle at all times. No house trailer weighing in excess of 1,500 pounds shall be driven on the ways of this state unless so equipped. ~~[This section shall not apply to wood-sawing machines, log splitters, cement mixers, compressors, tar kettles, conveyors, or to devices of 2 wheels used by public utilities for the transportation of cables or poles not exceeding 6 in number, road rollers and sweepers, thawing devices, or to refreshment booths on wheels towed not more than 2 miles at any one time.]~~ This section shall not apply to a motor vehicle trailer or semi-trailer with a gross weight of less than 3,000 pounds if the axle weight of the towed vehicle does not exceed 40 percent of the sum of the rated axle weights of the towing vehicle.

This bill modifies exemptions from the trailer brakes requirements.

This bill was requested by the department of safety.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 99 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill eliminates exemptions from trailer brake requirements and was requested by the Department of Safety. The request came after an audit from the National Highway Safety and Traffic Administration. The audit revealed incompatible exemptions of certain types of vehicles from the brake requirements listed in federal rules. The Committee was told noncompliance with federal trailer brake law could result in loss of federal highway funds. This bill would also create safer highways for the public by assuring that all trailers are being towed by a vehicle which can properly handle the trailer's braking scheme.

The Transportation Committee amended the original bill, adding language which modifies the exemptions from trailer brake requirements.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 137-FN-A, relative to the driver training fund. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. My Chairman keeps me busy. I move Senate Bill 137-FN-A Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill permits commercial and private driving schools to receive money from the driver training fund.

The Committee heard from stakeholders on the bill who felt this legislation would bring fairness between school-contracted driver's education teachers and commercial and private driver's education teachers. The Committee understands that there may be frustration on the end of the commercial or private driver's education teachers, but ultimately felt the fiscal impact was too great for the State to take on, as it essentially asked the State to subsidize private business.

The Transportation Committee, Mister President, asks for your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

WAYS AND MEANS

SB 18, deleting a function of the central tax services unit. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator D'Allesandro for the committee.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I move Senate Bill 18 Ought to Pass. This bill was requested by the Department of Revenue Administration. It removes internal control of tax receivables from the responsibilities of the central tax services unit, which is essentially the Department's customer service center. The central tax services unit issues tax notices when taxes are not paid. The Department believes it would be inappropriate for this unit to also be handling the accounts receivable. These are currently processed by the administration unit within the Department, so we're just changing the statute to be consistent with and to reflect the current practice.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 39, relative to enforcement of the excavation tax by the department of revenue administration. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-1. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 39 Ought to Pass. This bill allows the Department of Revenue Administration to assess administrative fines for violations of the excavation tax.

Currently, the Department of Revenue Administration has to go through local law enforcement to have violations enforced, and this can be time consuming, especially in smaller towns that might not have a full-time police department. While violations are rare, the Department would like to be able to impose the administrative fines themselves. This will save time as well as local expenditures. The bill also makes a minor technical correction with regard to forms that are filed.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 42, relative to the declaration of consideration for purposes of the real estate transfer tax. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Rausch for the committee.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 42 Ought to Pass. This bill was requested by the Department of Revenue Administration. It requires that the declaration of consideration form used in determining the real estate transfer tax to be filed separately by each party to a transaction. In other words, both the buyer and the seller will fill out a separate form. Typically the form is filled out by the title company, and it contains both parties' tax identification information on the same form. The Department testified that there are often instances when they have had to send the form back to one party, either for mistakes or missing information. This gives the party access to another's tax identification information that they should not have. Senate Bill 42 will eliminate this liability by separating the buyer and seller declarations. It will also provide greater efficiency within the Department.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 43, making a technical correction to the tobacco tax laws. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 43 Ought to Pass. This bill was requested by the Department of Revenue Administration and makes a small technical correction to the tobacco tax laws. It simply changes the word "reports" to "returns" so that the language in statute is consistent with the actual practice. The Department testified that in lieu of tobacco stamps, wholesalers of smokeless tobacco products file returns with the Commissioner. The statute incorrectly refers to the returns as reports. This bill makes no substantive changes to any tobacco laws.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 59-FN-A, relative to fees for terrain alteration permits. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 6-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 59 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill sought to roll back fees for terrain alteration permits. The fees were initially increased with the support of stakeholders in order to give the Department of Environmental Services the staff and the resources they needed to improve the turnaround time of the permitting process. Those who work in this field are more concerned with the time of process than with the fee. The implementation of this fee increase has been successful, and that the process has in fact been expedited.

We heard from the Department of Environmental Services that permits are being processed on an average of 36 days. A decrease in the fee would negatively impact the Department's ability to process permits, resulting in significant delays. DES and those who would be affected by this all testified in opposition to Senate Bill 59 during the public hearing.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 80-FN-A-L, exempting certain rental income from the meals and rooms tax. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-1. Senator D'Allesandro for the committee.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 80 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill sought to exempt rental income derived from renting a second home for not more than 12 weeks from the meals and rooms rentals tax. This would provide a significant tax shelter to any person or business for an entire summer season or an entire ski season.

The Department of Revenue raised concerns about the bill being unconstitutional since it would treat certain taxpayers differently from others. The meals and rooms tax applies to anyone renting out property, and those who abide by the law and file with the Department factor the cost of the tax into the rent that they charge. Therefore, the tax is not a burden on the property owner. While the attempt of the sponsor was to provide some relief to families, the Committee believes that this is not the appropriate way to do so, and this legislation does not achieve the desired outcome.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 97, relative to the application of the community revitalization tax relief incentive. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 6-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

Amendment to SB 97

Amend the bill by replacing section 5 with the following:

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 97 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill allows for buildings which have been destroyed by fire or other acts of nature to be included as a qualified structure eligible for the community revitalization tax relief incentive.

Last year, SB 128 was adopted, allowing cities and towns to modify certain requirements of the community revitalization tax relief incentive program under RSA 79-E. The statute isn't clear, however, on communities' ability to include buildings that are destroyed by fire or other natural disasters. SB 97 provides that clarity. This is enabling legislation in that it gives communities the opportunity to allow such structures to be considered for this tax relief incentive program. The goal is to incentivize business and property owners to rebuild when they might not otherwise choose to do so in a down economy, thus contributing to revitalization efforts.

The committee amendment simply changes the effective date of the legislation to upon passage.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I just wanted to comment that this is an attempt to give the locals an opportunity to refurbish the community, and I commend Senator Stiles for bringing it forward, because what it does is it creates an environment within the local community where you're incentivized to rebuild, to reconstruct, and to add on. And, we need that, particularly in the jurisdiction that you represent, where we had that terrible fire. And, this gives an opportunity for people to rebuild and not to suffer consequences of an increased tax for a limited period of time. I think it's a wonderful example of the local option being applied and the request of the local option being brought forward, and I commend Senator Stiles for that. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 130-FN-A, repealing the tax on gambling winnings. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 6-0. Senator D'Allesandro for the committee.

Amendment to SB 130-FN-A

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 130 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill repeals the 10 percent tax on gambling winnings that was enacted as part of the budget in 2009. The original language was not well thought out in that it did not include a provision to deduct one's losses as the federal law does.

Further evidence of the haste with which this law was first enacted is the fact that it applied retroactively. We had a situation where a group of individuals who won the lottery many years ago and who at that time had no choice but to accept their winnings through an annuity were now subject to this 10 percent tax on winnings. Fortunately, we were able to correct that aspect of the law through the passage of a bill brought forward by Senator Barnes last year.

Each month, we continue to see decreases in lottery sales. New Hampshire residents are buying more lottery tickets from Massachusetts. Out-of-state residents are no longer coming to New Hampshire to wager on simulcastings. This ill-advised, hastily enacted tax is damaging our gaming industry and negatively impacting our revenue stream. It's time for a complete repeal of this tax.

The committee amendment simply changes the effective date of the legislation to upon passage.

The Ways and Means Committee unanimously asks for your support of the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you very much, Mister President. In my Town of Exeter, I go to breakfast quite often at the Exeter Trackside Diner. And, it's a local place where my brother goes, my family goes. And, the owner gets me by the collar every single time I go into that little diner and says: "Are you going to repeal that 10 percent?" And, I said: "I'm going to try my best." So, today I am proud that I can try my best and say “yes” to repeal this. It is damaging New Hampshire’s future. And, thank you very much for the rest of the Senate to be able to vote for this at this time. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse for a question of Sen. D’Allesandro.)

SENATOR MORSE: Senator D’Allesandro, would you believe I stand with you against the consent calendar? We’ve heard 29 pieces of legislation today that would have been on the consent calendar; one piece of legislation that I would have taken off – Senate Bill 39, Senator Odell – and seven pieces of legislation like the one you’re presenting right now that are FN’s that would not have been on the consent calendar. I’ve pledged to the flag, I’ve said a prayer, and I’ve honored one of my colleagues that I serve with today, all in an hour.

SENATOR D’ALLESANDRO: I just...I’m overwhelmed by that vote of confidence in suppressing the consent calendar.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM EARLY SESSION

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

February 23, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Jason Wells, guest chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

Today is a day that the Episcopal Church and many other churches have set aside to remember Matthias, one of the twelve Apostles; he was really the thirteenth Apostle. He was elected to take the place of Judas, after he did his dirty deed.

Matthias was elected, as I said. He was put up in between another man, named Joseph, and Matthias. The Apostles prayed and voted, and the lot fell to Matthias.

It's important for us to keep that in mind, that there is nothing in the story, in the Scriptures, that say that they went into a business session to do the voting; they didn't quit praying, they didn't quit their worship during that time, that they reminded themselves that they prayed, and that God was present and working, even when they were in business, when they were discussing, deliberating, and voting, that there was nothing so small or business-minded or secular or profane that God wouldn't be among them, that God was with them at all times.

So, I remind you all that as you go into your voting and discussing and deliberating today, that God is working in and through each one of you as surely as God worked through the Apostles so many years ago. Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, as we come in from the cold, we hang up our coats and hats, but we can never hang up Your presence. Keep us always mindful that we can never put You away, and that You work in and through us as Your chosen people, to work always for that spirit that You fill us with: the spirit of mercy, of truth, of love, and of justice. This we pray in Your Holy name.

Amen.

Sen. Odell led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce two Senate Pages we have today. Our first Page is Alex Butcher-Nesbitt; he is 17 years old, grade 12. His hometown is Sandwich. His favorite school subject is English. His favorite book is Percy Jackson and the Olympians. His extracurricular activities include varsity baseball, Alpine skiing, and professional theater. He is the assistant director of the Sandwich Lot Baseball. He enjoys fiction-writing: novels, short stories, and screenplays, and in the future he hopes to become a political strategist or run for public office.

We also have Teddy Willey; he's 18, grade 12, also from Interlakes High School, and lives in Meredith. His favorite school subject is English. Extracurricular activities include soccer, Nordic skiing, tennis; he's the class president and participant in Life Smarts. He's in the student council, Granite State Challenge, and he enjoys sailing. In the future, he plans to work as a lawyer, and hopefully, one day, work in politics. Welcome.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister Chair. It is really, truly a pleasure today to introduce to you my lovely daughter, Rachel, and her two children, my beautiful grandchildren: Azalea and Kai. Rachel is a certified midwife and has just completed her RN degree. And, it has just been a joy to have them visiting with us for a week; they live in California. So, thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. You might notice that the gallery is a little more crowded than usual. It's my pleasure to welcome several distinguished guests from District 9: they are the Bedford Jaguars, who recently, under the Under-10 National Cheerleading Championship in Florida, won that competition. These 25 talented and athletic young ladies are led by their head coach, Kate Spencer, and they have all made Bedford very proud. And, I want to also yield for a moment to Senator D'Allesandro, who has a special connection to them, as well.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you very much, Senator White. I'm really, really excited about the fact that my niece and her husband are here, Lynn and Brian LeVeille, and two of the most prominent members of that cheerleading group: Jillian and Jordan LeVeille.

And, Mister President, also in the gallery are two of my grandchildren, Dominic and Anthony Smith, and my daughter, Christina D'Allesandro. Thank you.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Senator White, is there anything else that we need to be aware of?

SENATOR WHITE: Well, it may be possible that the cheerleading squad from Bedford might give us a little sample of what helped them win that competition.

The Bedford Jaguars Cheerleading Team cheered for the Senate.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces that the following bills will not come to Finance: SB 55-FN, SB 81-FN, SB 128-FN-A.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Sen. Sanborn moved to remove SB 49 from the Table.

The question is on the motion to remove SB 49 from the Table. Adopted.

COMMERCE

SB 49, relative to tip pooling arrangements.

The pending question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Senate Bill 49 specifically talks about allowing our restaurant and hospitality industry to initiate a tip-pooling process, which presently is not available to this state. This process of tip-pooling allows those employees who operate on what's called the "front side of the house" – so, wait staff, bus staff, and bartenders – the ability to combine their wages on and above the minimum need for wage requirement for minimum wages into a pool by which they can better serve their customers and their organization. And, I ask that you pass that.

Sen. Sanborn offered a floor amendment.

Sen. Sanborn, Dist. 7

February 23, 2011

Floor Amendment to SB 49

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Tip Pooling. RSA 279:26-b is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:
279:26-b Tip Pooling. Tips are wages and shall be the property of the employee receiving the tip and shall be retained by the employee. The requirement that an employee shall retain all tips does not preclude a valid tip pooling or sharing arrangement among employees who customarily and regularly receive tips, such as waiters, waitresses, bellhops, counter personnel (who serve customers), busboys/girls and service bartenders. No employer shall require tipped employees to share their tips with employees who have not customarily and regularly participated in tip pooling arrangements, such as dishwashers, cooks, chefs, and janitors. Only those tips that are in excess of tips that are counted as wages for the tip credit toward minimum wage may be taken for a pool. Tipped employees cannot be required to contribute a greater percentage of their tips than is customary and reasonable.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you very much, sir. This floor amendment clarifies that tips and wages addressed in Senate Bill 49 are the property of the employee receiving the tip, and shall be retained by the employee. Under this legislation, no employer shall require tipped employees to share their tips with employees who have not customarily and regularly participated in tip-pooling arrangements, such as dishwashers, cooks, chefs, and janitors. Only those tips that are in excess of tips counted as wages for the tip credit towards minimum wage may be included in the pool.

Senate Bill 49, with this floor amendment, will allow businesses in New Hampshire the freedom to establish a tip-pooling policy for their establishment. Please support this amendment and vote the underlying bill Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you.

COMMERCE

SB 28, establishing an exemption from the licensing requirements for nondepository first mortgage bankers and brokers for persons providing loans for certain seller-financed transactions. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-1. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

CommerceFebruary 15, 2011*2011-0343s*09/05*Amendment to SB 28

Amend RSA 397-A:4, VI as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

VI. An owner of real property who in any 12 consecutive month period makes no more than 3 mortgage loans to purchasers of the property for all or part of the purchase price of the real estate against which the mortgage is secured.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 28 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 28 is a compromise intended to help address real estate financing difficulties in the aftermath of our real estate market collapse.

After passage of the federal S.A.F.E. Act, it became apparent this new legislation eliminated the ability of individuals to "take back a mortgage or perform seller financing of real estate". Many states have and are creating a vehicle by where its residents are provided the authority to perform some form of seller financing while the Fed reexamines its restrictions.

This bill will allow New Hampshire residents the opportunity to enter into up to three seller-financed mortgage loans to purchasers. Senate Bill 28, as amended by the Committee, will allow New Hampshire residents the freedom to do what they wish with their own property.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I just wanted to go on record that I support this policy. I think it's a good idea to address this issue; I think it was an unintended consequence of New Hampshire's implementation of the S.A.F.E. Act requirements.

My concern is the vehicle we're choosing in order to address the problem. Essentially, are we asked to vote for Senate Bill 28 and hope that we don't have to change policy in our laws later, or do we focus on legislation which is currently in the House that complies with existing law and doesn't risk the federal government's stepping in? Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to address Senator Houde's good question.

The bill creates an exemption, which would permit up to five finance transactions in a 12-month period – and, it's a de minimis exemption – would allow that to happen.

If we read a letter from the U.S. Department of Housing, which was presented to the Committee, this was done by a letter from Barney Frank and Spencer Bachus, they say as the primary authors of the Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act – the S.A.F.E. Act – the US House of Representatives: “We look to continue dialogue clarifying Congressional intent with respect to this act.” And, then they go on to say that: “We think that it is permissible for states to consider a de minimis standard for registration.” That’s the tact that the Commerce Committee looked at, and considered that to be important to consider when we passed it out of Committee.

Secondly, HUD had rung in on this question, as well – Housing and Urban Development. The Texas Department of Savings and Mortgage Lending referenced that HUD verbally indicated that states should enforce their specific state statutes, even in variance with the model S.A.F.E. Act language if the State takes a responsible approach and can justify the variance. So, we took the lead from U.S. House Representative Barney Frank, and said if we do a de minimis change...And, we went even lower – we went lower than five; we went down to three. So, we made sure that we were really going to be in compliance.

Thank you very much for your efforts there in bringing that before the Committee. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator Prescott, I am seeing that the banking world and those who attended your hearing had questioned whether these unregulated mortgage business entities might be created, and that they had suggested some sort of registration of these, such that there would be a way to track these transactions. I am not opposed to seller financing that enables some transactions to occur in a difficult banking market, but the suggestion of a potential way of keeping some track of the arrangements... I wonder if your committee reviewed that and considered adding some additional safeguards to consumers.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you very much for the question, Senator Larsen. The Committee: When we met, we discussed that just as soon as December 31st, there was no limitations on seller financing. And, I don’t believe that those issues came before the Senate in the last ten years, that there was problems with seller financing. But, because of the S.A.F.E. Act, and because of trying to protect people from, you know, mortgages that they really can’t afford, we think that three in a time period of 12 months is a huge restriction on what it was just less than two months ago. Two months ago it was unlimited; now we’re saying only three.

So, we did look at that in the Committee; we thought, you know, we do want to have it allowed, but we’re making it the de minimis exception, and we wanted to go along with Barney Frank and the Housing and Urban Development. Thank you very much.

SB 109, establishing a committee to study the foreclosure process in New Hampshire. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 109 Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 109 establishes a committee to study the foreclosure process in New Hampshire. The study will include a review of current law and practice, consideration of whether the state should adopt a judicial foreclosure process in lieu of the statutory power of sale under RSA 479, and whether additional means of consumer protection are warranted.

SB 141-FN, requiring drivers who are residents of foreign countries to have insurance. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Houde for the committee.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 141-FN Inexpedient to Legislate. Senate Bill 141 would require drivers who are residents of foreign countries to have insurance coverage, and would prohibit renting a motor vehicle to any resident of another country without insurance.

The Commerce Committee unanimously recommends Inexpedient to Legislate for the following reasons: Notwithstanding the unfortunate incident that prompted the bill's introduction, New Hampshire has consistently rejected mandatory automobile insurance for New Hampshire drivers. Since we don't require our residents to do so, we could not constitutionally require residents of other states to do so, and there are similar concerns for drivers of foreign countries.

Furthermore, the fiscal note concerned the Committee, as did the Department of Insurance's concern with its implementation. For these reasons, the Commerce Committee asks for your support and vote of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT directing the legislative oversight committee to study the consolidation of school administrative units.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Legislative Oversight Committee; Consolidation of School Administrative Units. The legislative oversight committee established in RSA 194-C:11 shall, in addition to its duties set forth in RSA 194-C:12, study the advantages, disadvantages, and costs associated with consolidating school administrative units statewide into one school administrative unit in each county, except for Hillsborough and Rockingham counties which would have 2 school administrative units each. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before December 31, 2011.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the legislative oversight committee on school administrative units to study the advantages, disadvantages, and costs associated with consolidating school administrative units statewide into one school administrative unit in each county, except for Hillsborough and Rockingham counties which would have 2 school administrative units each.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 90 Ought to Pass as Amended. This legislation was written with the intent to establish a committee to study the consolidation of school administrative units.

Over the years, it has become apparent that money is being wasted with such a large number of SAU's, and consolidation may be a feasible way to save money. After discussion, it was noted that there is presently an SAU oversight committee, and it was decided that SB 90 would be amended to task this committee with the responsibility of studying the issue and reporting to the Senate by the year's end.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 90 Ought to Pass as Amended and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 20

Amend RSA 483-B:5-b, IV as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. Impacts in the protected shoreland that receive a permit in accordance with RSA 482-A and commercial or industrial redevelopment in accordance with RSA 485-A:17 shall not require a permit under this section.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 20 Ought to Pass with Amendment. The intent of SB 20 is to exempt certain terrain alteration permit holders from requiring certain shoreline protection permits. Specifically, it adds to the exemption section in the comprehensive shoreland protection act, commercial or industrial redevelopment, in accordance with RSA 485-A:17, which is terrain alteration. This exemption was added because alteration of terrain permits already deal with water quality issues that are addressed in the shoreline protection permits. Particularly, in this down economy, lightening the burden on business to redevelop is very important. This bill seeks to remove an extra repetitive step in the process to help encourage New Hampshire businesses to redevelop.

I respectfully request that the Senate support the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 20. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 32, relative to water withdrawals for snow making. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Gallus for the committee.

06/09

Amendment to SB 32

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Section; Measurement of Withdrawals for Snowmaking. Amend RSA 488 by inserting after section 4 the following new section:

488:4-a Measurement of Withdrawals for Snowmaking. Notwithstanding RSA 488:4, water use associated with snowmaking shall be measured at the point water is withdrawn from any natural source of water for use by a snowmaking system and at the point that water is entering into the snowmaking system, and such water withdrawal and use shall be measured by an appropriate and calculable method such as a weir, stream gauge, meter, or a technically appropriate and calculable method utilizing the manufacturer's plated specifications as they relate to gallons of water pumped per minute. Diversions from natural sources into storage reservoirs may be measured by using the measurement of the amount of water entering a snowmaking system and by calculating the change in the amount of water stored in the storage reservoir, provided separate records of the water withdrawn from each natural source are maintained.

2 New Section; Record Keeping for Snowmaking Withdrawals. Amend RSA 488 by inserting after section 6 the following new section:

488:6-a Record Keeping for Snowmaking Withdrawals. Notwithstanding RSA 488:6, water use records associated with snowmaking shall be maintained and documented monthly, and 24-hour maximum volumes of water withdrawn from each natural water source and the water entering the snowmaking system shall be maintained and documented monthly.

3 New Paragraph; Rulemaking. Amend RSA 488:9 by inserting after paragraph VI the following new paragraph:

VII. Forms and frequency for reporting to the department the records required under RSA 488:6-a regarding snowmaking and water withdrawals for snowmaking.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you very much, again, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 32 Ought to Pass with Amendment. The intention of Senate Bill 32 is to address how recordkeeping is conducted and reported for snowmaking in New Hampshire.

Current law requires redundant recordkeeping for withdrawals, which requires additional administrative work, as well as the potential of costly water metering systems. With the new language, ski areas will now be able to give the Department of Environmental Services more accurate information on water as it is withdrawn from a river or pond, or as it is diverted from a natural source into the snowmaking system.

The amendment was introduced to bring a few clarifications that have to do with broadening some options for measuring water use beyond just the pump capacity or meter that the water from natural sources need to be reported.

I respectfully request that the Senate support the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 32, and I thank you.

SB 38, relative to extensions for wetland and shoreland permits. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 38 Ought to Pass. SB 38 authorizes the Department of Environmental Services to issue extensions of wetlands and shorelands permits consistent with existing policy for other permits, including the alteration of terrain permits. This policy allows for one extension of up to five years, only in cases where the applicant can demonstrate that the project for which an extension is sought is moving forward according to plans set out in the original permit, even if more slowly than originally planned, and that mitigation measures will be taken as necessary to continue protection of water during the extension period.

As described in testimony, in today's economy, many slow-downs and setbacks can occur for permitted projects. This bill serves as a measure of relief in such circumstances. Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 38. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 55-FN, requiring certain engine coolants and antifreeze to include an aversive agent so that they are rendered unpalatable. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Bradley for the committee.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 55 Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 55 seeks to require the addition of an aversive agent to certain engine coolants to make them bitter in order to render the sweet smell and taste of the main ingredient unpalatable.

Further, the bill addresses liability concerns that were raised in the last session of the Legislature, when a similar bill was before us. The language is the result of a collaborative effort between the Humane Society of the United States as well as the Consumer Specialty Products Association, and it has received broad support.

This legislation is needed to protect vulnerable animals and young children of New Hampshire who may be attracted to this deadly substance. I respectfully request the Senate support the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 124-FN, relative to the comprehensive shoreland protection act. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-1. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 124-FN Inexpedient to Legislate. The intent of SB 124-FN is to make modifications to the Comprehensive Shoreland Protection Act.

Most of the people who testified before the Committee indicated that there were changes needed to the Comprehensive Shoreland Protection Act. Many who testified believed there were minor amendments in the bill that helped correct problems within the statute. However, most also believed there were many amendments that would have negated important progress that stakeholders have made to the Shoreland Protection Act in the past few years. Therefore, the Committee decided the best mechanism for making the necessary changes to the Comprehensive Shoreland Protection Act was not SB 124.

I respectfully request that the Senate support the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate on Senate Bill 124. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 128-FN-A

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a committee to study sources of funding for the search and rescue operations of the fish and game department.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study sources of funding for the search and rescue operations of the fish and game department.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Four members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties. The committee shall study sources of funding for the search and rescue operations of the fish and game department, including possible assessments of fees on hikers or accommodations in addition to or in lieu of charges on fish and game registrations and licenses.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 2011.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study sources of funding for the search and rescue operations of the fish and game department.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 128-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. The intent of Senate Bill 128 was to establish a hiker fee imposed on persons occupying sleeping accommodations of the Appalachian Mountain Club and the Randolph Mountain Club. The bill would establish these fees to fund the search and rescue fund and make it viable.

The amendment establishes a committee to study possible sources of funding for the search and rescue operations of the Fish and Game Department. The Committee understands that the funding problems of the search and rescue operations needs to be addressed. However, there is a need to explore all possible solutions with all the stakeholders to produce a long-term feasible solution to this problem.

I respectfully request the Senate support the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 128. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, as one of the sponsors of this piece of legislation, I'd just like to iterate to my colleagues that we have been trying to do something with the search and rescue fund since 1989 – 1989. Nothing has been done since that time. Search and rescue is paid for by the hunters and fishermen of the State of New Hampshire and the OHRV people, whose part of their license fee goes to Fish and Game. No general funds have been expended.

Repeatedly, there have been attempts to get general funds into the search and rescue, because if a person's out there, you don't ask them if they have a fishing license or a hunting license, or if they have an OHRV license plate, you save them! Those rescues are becoming more and more costly. We had one rescue last year, that young man; we paid $25,000 for his rescue. We do have a bill in about recovery, but we never recover any money. And, if we do recover it, it's de minimis. The fact of the matter is, we are going to save these people; that's our sworn responsibility. How we fund search and rescue is the issue. And, as I say, we have been discussing and debating this issue since 1989.

I applaud the Committee for saying we'll have another committee to study it, okay? Because I think studies are wonderful things. I'm a teacher; I encourage my students to study; they're going to do well on the exam. This exam was first addressed in 1989. So, for almost three decades, the study has been studied! The question is, are there any results to the study? Do we ever get results to studies? We study everything! Our Fish and Game Department is going to go belly-up! We don't have the money to keep replenishing the fund. We know license sales are down; they're down. Registrations are down. I would hope that this committee will come back with a recommendation of how to fund the search and rescue fund. We need it. We encourage people to come to New Hampshire. We're a great tourist destination; we want them here. Well, we've got to find a way to fund their search and rescue if indeed they get lost.

I'll make one little point: We had a situation in Maine yesterday where a young man was on Mount Katahdin. He got lost coming down. He was rescued – he was rescued. It took a lot of time, it took a lot of money, but the young man was rescued. He's got frostbitten feet; hopefully he will recover. We had a situation in New York just last week: Two West Point cadets were saved in a search and rescue situation in a night helicopter rescue. So, these things happen around the country; we've got to find a way to fund it in New Hampshire. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Yes, thank you, Mister President. The problem with the legislation as introduced is that it was going to go target a very small audience of hikers: those people who stay at the Appalachian Mountain Club, the eight huts, the hotel at Crawford Notch, and people in the Randolph Mountain Club. As such, we got an opinion that the funding mechanism suggested by Senator D'Allesandro, my good friend, is unconstitutional.

I am a hiker; you all know that. I spend virtually every weekend hiking in the White Mountains. And, I have seen situations that obviously need to be addressed. And, everything that Senator D'Allesandro has said is correct about the history of this fund; we heard testimony in the Committee about the lack of the equipment that our Fish and Game personnel have. But, given the unconstitutional nature of the fee, the Energy and Natural Resources Committee believes that we have to look at this in a comprehensive manner. And, given the fact that we all know that no new fees or new taxes are likely to pass, we've got to figure out a different solution. There are other states that have voluntary rescue passes; Colorado is one of them. My kids – I have three boys that live in Colorado – I'm climbing 4,000-footers; they're climbing 14,000-footers, and this is how they do it in Colorado. It makes a lot of sense to do it, but the Committee wasn't ready to take that step today. Should we look at helicopter policy? That's what drives the expense, Senator. There are helicopters that are absolutely necessary; perhaps this one in Katahdin was. But, there are times when helicopters are out when perhaps it isn't necessary.

So, these are things that ought to be studied calmly. And, we will do that. Thank you, and I urge support for the committee amendment.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 144 Ought to Pass with Amendment. The intent of Senate Bill 144 is to extend protection from zoning and regulatory changes for approved development projects that are stalled due to the poor economy.

This bill follows in the footsteps of Senate Bill 93, which was sponsored by Senator Bragdon, and passed into law two years ago. RSA 674, Section 39 relates to two critical timeframes for developments: the period of time during which you must actively begin a project, and the deadline for substantially completing your project in order to earn vested rights against subsequent regulatory changes.

The amendment was introduced to correct two areas of the bill. The first change to the amendment deals with removing sections 2 and 3 of the bill, as those sections have already been addressed in Senate Bill 38. The second minor change seeks to change the language in section 1, dealing with time limits in order to protect projects that would have expired in 2010.

Amendment to SB 53-FN

Amend RSA 326-B:26 as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

326-B:26 [~~Licensed~~] Nursing Assistant Registry.

I. The board shall maintain a registry of nursing assistants [~~licensed~~] who qualify pursuant to 42 C.F.R. section 483.156. Nursing assistants who are registered [~~or licensed~~] shall comply with all provisions of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (OBRA) of 1987, sections 1819 and 1919 of the Social Security Act, and all provisions of this chapter.

II. The nursing assistant fund is established in the state treasury and continually appropriated to the board which shall administer the fund. The fund shall be used only for administration of the licensed nursing assistant registry and related expenses.

III. All registry charges relating to nursing assistants shall be credited to the fund.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 53 Ought to Pass with Amendment. The purpose of this legislation is to protect New Hampshire citizens by clarifying who may call themselves a nurse.

The Board of Nursing requested this bill due to the citizen complaints regarding substandard care provided by those calling themselves a nurse, when in fact they had not been educated as nurses, nor licensed. Part 1 of the bill provides the public with the definition of a "nurse", whether APRN, an RN, or an LPN. Nursing assistants fall in a different category. Federal rules govern nursing assistants. While federal law does not require nursing assistants to be licensed, most voluntarily obtain a license for an LNA. For those who choose not to, a federally funded registry is offered free of charge, and this registry is maintained by the Board, as well.

The bill not only adds a definition for "nurse" in part 1, but in part 2, it restructures a confusing financial system. Instead of three financial organizations currently maintained by the Board, Senate Bill 53 will simplify the organization to two: one for the license fees of APRNs, RNs, and LPNs, and one for nursing assistant registration activities.

Senate Bill 53 will clarify various levels of nursing for the public and simplify the finances of the Board, making them more understandable to citizens and nursing registrants. It makes good sense, and that's why Senate Bill 53 was recommended Ought to Pass as Amended. We appreciate your support and consideration in passage of Senate Bill 53-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 81-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to powers and duties of commissioners of executive branch agencies, and relative to the extension of the expired term of a commissioner or agency head.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 3:

2 Terms of Appointment; Commissioners; Limitation Added. Amend RSA 21:33-a, III(a) to read as follows:

III.(a) That any commissioner or agency head of a department, as defined in RSA 21-G:5, VI, who is an unclassified employee of the state, and appointed to such position, shall serve for the appropriate term or unexpired portion thereof. The commissioner or agency head may serve beyond the appointed term or unexpired portion thereof with the written authorization of the governor, provided that such service shall not extend beyond 6 months. This subparagraph shall also apply to the adjutant general and the attorney general, and to appointees to the liquor commission, the lottery commission, the racing and charitable gaming commission, and the public utilities commission.

This bill provides that commissioners of agencies have the authority to transfer or reassign personnel within the agency and to delegate, transfer, or assign the authority to administer programs or services within components of the agency. The bill also limits the extension of the service of a commissioner or agency head as a holdover from an expired term.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 81-FN Ought to Pass as Amended. Currently, the Commissioner of the Department of Health and Human Services has the authority to transfer or reassign personnel within and between any division or office within the Department if the Department operates with vacancies where key duties need to be performed. This bill authorizes other commissioners of specific departments to operate in the same manner. This legislation is an effective tool for commissioners that otherwise may be impaired by vacant positions.

In addition, this bill limits the extension of service of an unclassified employee of the state appointed to such position to serve beyond the appointed term or unexpired portion thereof with the written authorization of the Governor, provided that such services shall not extend beyond six months.

Mister President, the Senate ED&A Committee recommends Senate Bill 81-FN be adopted and asks for your affirmative support in its passage. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to oppose the committee amendment. The logic of the main bill makes sense, but the amendment, I'm afraid, crosses over into Executive authority, and is not within the constitutional restraints of the Legislature.

The amendment basically prohibits a holdover status for commissioners. This is a severe limitation, no matter who is Governor. There are times when you have a very competent commissioner who is willing to wait and keep in holdover status until perhaps a new commissioner who is qualified can be found. It has happened in existing scenarios: the Office of Information Technology. It took our state a very long time to find someone qualified to do that.

So, we have had commissioners who have been willing to work as hold-over status until their position is filled by another person. It crosses into the ability of what is already a fairly weak Governor's authority to be able to guide the state in the way voters elected them to guide. To have us, as legislators, tell the Governor that he can no longer have a commissioner serve who the Governor believes is acting in a valid and good way to enhance what is the Governor's agenda.

So, there have been instances when we've had holdovers for many months, and I believe it will severely hamper the Executive authority, and it may in fact be unconstitutional. So, I rise to oppose the committee amendment, and would urge the members, in this next vote, to vote no on this enabling Senate Bill 81, which is a decent bill, to continue.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise against the amendment. I believe I'm the only member of this body that's ever served on the Executive Council. We confirmed nominations by the Governor, and were the body that dealt with these nominations and dealt with holdovers. This is an impediment to that process. The Governor and Executive Council are elected by the people. The Governor has the power to nominate; the Executive Council has the power to confirm. What we're saying is, that that Council will now have a limitation in terms of its ability to deal with nominations or holdovers.

I think we're treading into very, very serious waters, here. The nominating power is given to the Governor. Holdover status is something that has been around New Hampshire for a long period of time. As Senator Larsen pointed out, there are reasons: there's the inability to find a competent replacement; there's a search process that Governors go through. It takes, sometimes, an extended period of time. Why should we limit – why should this Legislature limit that time period? I think there's a constitutional question here in terms of the Executive's power being breached by the Legislature. This is a constitutional authority given to the Governor: the nomination of nominees. And, when you look at the list of nominees that are covered here, they're essential parts of the governmental process. I think we ought to be very careful about what we do in terms of moving into other branches of government. We've got enough to do right here in the Legislature, okay? And, this isn't one that we need to study. I firmly believe, having served in the Executive Branch, and really enjoyed my time in the Executive Branch, having served in the Legislative Branch, both in the House and in the Senate, that this is an overreach. And, I would hope that my colleagues would not support this amendment, would support the underlying bill, which is good public policy. Thank you, Mister President.

Recess. Out of recess.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Yes, thank you very much, Mister President. I just want to clarify that the Legislature has authority to set the term of office for any commissioner; it could be two years, it could be four years, it could be six years. RSA 21-G:5, VI, which we are proposing to amend, has established holdover status in the existing amendment. All we're suggesting with this amendment is that we limit the amount of holdover status that there is. Clearly, that's within the legislative purview, as it's also possible that the Legislature can eliminate positions, including those positions that would be appointed under this type of situation.

So, we don't see that there's a constitutional issue; this is a good government issue, so that it's clear what the status is of those people that are appointed by the Governor. And, the Governor always, if there are issues, can reappoint that particular person. So, I urge the full body to support the committee amendment and move Ought to Pass.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Senator Bradley, what has prompted this legislation? Is there any problem with the holdover situation as we speak? I noticed you have in here the adjutant general, the attorney general, appointees to the liquor commission, the lottery commission, the racing and charitable gaming commission, and the public utilities commission. Is there a super-problem that we face right now?

SENATOR BRADLEY: No specific problem, Senator. We just feel it's a good government issue that that process should have a time limit on it and that holdover status should not be able to continue indefinitely.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

Floor Amendment to SB 81-FN

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 Department of Administrative Services; Commissioner Authority; Personnel. Amend RSA 21-I:13, VIII to read as follows:

VIII. Have the authority to [~~temporarily~~] assign and reassign the personnel of the department among the divisions, bureaus, sections, units, or other organizational [units] subdivisions or components of the department.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. This amendment came in at the request of the Department of Administrative Services. It's just language that they feel is going to work best for their department. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

FINANCE

SB 158-FN, relative to the payment of state aid grants for water and wastewater for 2009 and 2010. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 158-FN Ought to Pass. This bill requires the Commissioner of the Department of Environmental Services to provide state aid to eligible entities with wastewater and public water supply projects that were eligible for Section 8 but were not funded beginning in 2009 due to budget reductions with any new appropriations that become available before providing such funding for any other new projects.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 72-FN

Amend RSA 126-A:66, I-IV as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. Evidence-based youth tobacco use prevention strategies. Such efforts shall follow the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's report "Best Practices for Comprehensive Tobacco Control Programs-2007."

II. Breast, cervical, and colorectal cancer screening.

III. Survivorship initiatives.

IV. Palliative initiatives.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 72-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill reauthorizes the comprehensive cancer plan fund and the comprehensive cancer plan oversight board that are currently scheduled to sunset on June 30th, 2011.

The cancer plan fund provides strategies to address the burden of cancer in our state through youth tobacco prevention, various cancer screenings, and survivorship and palliative care initiatives. The oversight board ensures that funds within the cancer plan are used appropriately and effectively to implement the provisions of the comprehensive cancer plan. Reauthorizing the fund strengthens the commitment of the state to proactively fight cancer.

The committee amendment removes any general fund appropriation from the plan. In this current fiscal climate, it would not be prudent to ask for state appropriations to fund the cancer plan. By keeping the cancer plan fund active, we retain a cable through which we may accept outside grants and gifts to put towards fighting cancer.

Keeping in mind the burden of cancer on New Hampshire families, I ask that you join the Health and Human Services Committee in voting Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 72-FN. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

Amendment to SB 95

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a commission to study youth sports concussions and other concussions received while at school.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Commission Established. There is established a commission to study youth sports concussions and other concussions received while at school.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the commission shall be as follows:

(a) A physician licensed in New Hampshire or other health care professional, appointed by the governor.

(b) A member from the New Hampshire School Boards Association, appointed by that association.

(c) A member from the New Hampshire Athletic Trainers' Association, appointed by that association.

(d) A member from the Brain Injury Association of New Hampshire, appointed by that association.

(e) An athletics coach from a New Hampshire high school, appointed by the governor.

(f) The director of the division of parks and recreation, or designee.

(g) A member from the New Hampshire Interscholastic Athletic Association, appointed by that association.

(h) A member from the New Hampshire School Nurses' Association, appointed by that association.

(i) The president of a New Hampshire company specializing in head impact biomechanics, or designee, appointed by the governor.

(j) The bureau chief of the bureau of developmental services, department of health and human services, or designee.

II. Members of the commission shall serve without compensation.

3 Duties.

I. The commission shall study:

(a) Youth sports concussions and other concussions received while at school and how the adults involved should educate youths and their parents or guardians about the nature and risk of head injury and concussion, and how best to identify and handle suspected and confirmed youth concussions and brain injuries.

(b) The logistics of implementing a so-called "return-to-play" system, including who can provide medical clearance in a return-to-play system.

(c) What training or certification is necessary to certify that a youth is safe to return to play.

(d) The impact, including but not limited to costs and liabilities, on municipalities and school-based athletic activities of implementing a return-to-play system.

II. The commission shall solicit the advice and expertise of helmet manufacturers on concussion-related issues and any other issue that the commission deems appropriate.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the commission shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the commission shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the commission shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section.

5 Report. The commission shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 2011. The commission shall submit an electronic copy of the signed final report to the office of information technology which shall post the report on the state of New Hampshire's website.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a commission to study youth sports concussions and other concussions received while at school.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 95 Ought to Pass with Amendment. SB 95 establishes a committee to study youth sports concussions. With over 60,000 student athletes sustaining concussions each year in New Hampshire, it is important that we study the issue now to ensure that any concussion sustained by youths in New Hampshire are addressed properly, with the youth's health and safety in mind.

The proposed Committee Amendment 0295s would change the committee to a commission, made up of experts on brain injuries, youth sports, and other important stakeholders. The commission members have the knowledge and insight to address the state of this issue in New Hampshire today. The amendment also expands the scope of study to include concussions sustained while at school that are unrelated to sports, studying potential liabilities, and seeking expertise from local helmet manufacturers.

The commission will be charged with the duty of assessing the best way to educate parents, coaches, and teachers on the risks of concussions, and how to treat and identify the symptoms, and how to treat a suspected youth concussion.

The commission will also investigate the best way to implement a "return-to-play system in our state, and address the potential cost of training, educating, and implementing a return-to-play system."

The health and wellbeing of New Hampshire's youth is a paramount, and therefore the Health and Human Services Committee unanimously recommends that SB 95 Ought to Pass with Amendment, and we ask for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to SB 102

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a commission to study the effects of service-connected post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury suffered in the line of duty by members of the armed forces and veterans.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Commission Established. There is established a commission to study the effects of service-connected post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury suffered in the line of duty by members of the armed forces and veterans.

Amend subparagraph I of section 2 of the bill by inserting after subparagraph (l) the following new subparagraph:

(m) Two representatives of veterans organizations who serve on the state veterans' advisory committee, appointed by the chairman of the state veterans' advisory committee.

Amend section 2 of the bill by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. In appointing members to the commission, the appointing authorities shall give priority to persons who served on the commission established by 2008, 257 (HB 1335 of the 2008 legislative session).

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Duties. The commission shall study the effects of service-connected post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury suffered in the line of duty by members of the armed forces and veterans.

2011-0296s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a commission to study the effects of service-connected post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury suffered in the line of duty by members of the armed forces and veterans.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 102 Ought to Pass with Amendment. SB 102 establishes a commission to study the effects of post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury suffered by New Hampshire soldiers and veterans returning from Iraq and Afghanistan.

With the proposed committee amendment, the scope of the study commission has been expanded to include all service members who have sustained brain injury or acquired post-traumatic stress disorder while in the line of duty, whether at a training facility here in the United States or in overseas combat.

This commission has existed in the past; it was first formed two sessions ago and issued an interim report, but demanded more time to study. Last session, the bill passed once again, but was not acted on. It is now our duty to fully study this issue in order to support our servicemen and women who risk their lives to protect ours. This commission will study issues that were not fully addressed in the original commission, assess our state's resources, and come up with a plan for how to best help our soldiers and veterans. This will all be done within a definitive time period, allowing for recommendations to be implemented at the next legislative session.

In addition to expanding the scope of servicemen being studied by the commission, the amendment also adds two members from veterans service organizations to the commission, and it includes language that will give membership priority to those who were on the 2008 commission.

Traumatic brain injury has become the signature injury for the war on terrorism, and with thousands of New Hampshire servicemen and women stationed around the country and the world engaged in this war.

The Health and Human Services Committee asks that you join us in supporting our soldiers and veterans by voting Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 102. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 122, establishing a committee to study the laws relating to electronic prescriptions. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 122 as Ought to Pass. This legislation establishes a committee to study laws relating to electronic prescribing and will review ways to move forward on the initial steps made towards the electronic prescribing for the Department of Health and Human Services last year.

Today, only 25 percent of the licensed physicians in New Hampshire use e-prescribing, although 75 percent have the technology. Likewise, only 12 percent of the 96 percent of New Hampshire pharmacists with e-prescribing capabilities take advantage of the technology.

The committee to study e-prescribing will look for reasons behind the low penetration levels and ways to improve the trend. The committee will also suggest ways to improve the prescribing process, such as real-time prior authorization and the use of e-prescribing as a reverse communication tool from pharmacies to physicians.

The federal Medicaid program is currently offering incentives to states that use e-prescribing systems through 2011, and will assess penalties for those who do not e-prescribe as of 2012. Our state cannot afford to receive diminishing levels of federal Medicaid reimbursements, and by studying e-prescribing in New Hampshire, we can make sure that does not happen. Electronic prescriptions will lead to increased savings and will create greater efficiency and patient safety in healthcare.

The Health and Human Services Committee recommends that SB 122 be voted Ought to Pass, and we ask for your support. Thank you.

Amendment to SB 34-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to orders of notice in guardianship cases; relative to approvals of marriages for persons under 18 years of age by the judicial branch family division; and relative to the adjudicatory hearing date in child protection cases.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 2 with the following:

3 Petition to Marry by Party Under Age. Amend RSA 457:6 to read as follows:

457:6 Petition by Party Under Age. If special cause exists rendering desirable the marriage of a person resident in this state, or the marriage of a person who is a nonresident in this state who applies for permission to marry a resident in this state, either person being below the age of consent and above the ages specified in RSA 457:4, the parties desiring to contract such marriage, with the parent or guardian having the custody of such party below such age, if there be such parent or guardian, may apply in writing to ~~[a justice of the superior court, or to the judge of probate of the county]~~ the judicial branch family division having jurisdiction in the location in which one of them resides, for permission to contract such marriage. No waiver shall be granted to persons below the age of consent if both parties are nonresidents.

4 Child Protection Act; Adjudicatory Hearing Date. RSA 169-C:15, III(d) is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

(d) Set a date for an adjudicatory hearing. In all cases, the adjudicatory hearing shall be held and completed and written findings issued within 60 days from the date that the petition was filed with the court. If a child is in an out-of-home placement, the adjudicatory hearing shall be held and completed within 30 days from the date the petition was filed with the court, unless the court makes a written finding of extraordinary circumstances requiring the time limit to be extended.

5 Effective Date.

I. Section 3 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

2011-0301s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Clarifies the court's responsibility for sending orders of notice in guardianship cases and provides for charging the mailing cost to the petitioner.

II. Transfers jurisdiction for approvals of marriages for persons under 18 years of age to the judicial branch family division.

III. Establishes and clarifies the time period within which the court must hold the adjudicatory hearing in child protection cases.

This bill is a request of the supreme court.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 34-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill deals with orders of notice in cases involving guardianships of minors, and was filed at the request of the Supreme Court to deal with inconsistencies in the statutes. The bill clearly states that it is the court's responsibility to send out orders of notice, but that the petitioner will be charged for the cost, consistent with what is done in similar other court processes currently.

The committee amendment adds two Family Division-related matters. The first clarifies that all approvals for underage marriages will be handled by the Family Division as opposed to being heard by either the probate or superior courts, which is consistent with the philosophy of having one court for family matters.

The second part of the amendment involves the scheduling of adjudicatory hearings in abuse and neglect petitions. Under existing law, all petitions must be heard within 30 days. The amendment would clarify that in cases where a child is placed outside of the home and away from parents, a hearing would still be required within 30 days. However, for children who are remaining in the home and there is a safety plan in place, hearings would have to be held within 60 days. I would add, Mister President, that the 60 days is consistent with the national standard in these cases. It ensures that children placed outside the home will continue to receive priority hearings, as they should, but that with current court demands, those cases involving children who remain in the home do not have to have priority over other family cases.

The Judiciary Committee unanimously recommends that SB 34 be adopted with amendment and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

2011-0300s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill removes the oath requirement for criminal complaints filed by police officers.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 64. This legislation was filed at the request of the Supreme Court and the Department of Safety.

This legislation will ease the administrative burden on both the courts and the police officers, without compromising quality. If cases go to trial, the charges would still be proven beyond a reasonable doubt. As the court system moves to more efficiency, being able to file electronically will be more cost effective.

The amendment clarifies that these electronic filings are for violation-level and misdemeanor cases only, and that all complaints shall include notice that making a false statement may result in criminal prosecution.

Amend RSA 4:13-p as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

4:13-p Granny D. Day. The governor shall annually issue a proclamation calling for the proper observance of January 24 as Granny D. Day in honor of Doris "Granny D." Haddock as a New Hampshire citizen of national significance for her stalwart leadership and passionate dedication in fighting for campaign finance reform and her walk across America at the age of 90.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 173 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill calls upon the Governor to issue an annual proclamation observing January 24th as Granny D. Day, that being Granny D.'s birthday.

Doris "Granny D." Haddock of Dublin acted upon her convictions with passion, courage, and creativity. She's probably best known for undertaking a 3,200 mile walk across the United States to demonstrate her commitment to campaign finance reform. She was joined by several dozen members of Congress as she walked the last leg of her trip, arriving at the Capitol 90 years young. Her memoir of the trip is read in schools from coast to coast.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the governor to issue a proclamation calling for the proper observance of January 24, 2012 as Granny D. Day.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. What this amendment does, is proclaiming January 24th, 2012, as Granny D Day.

"Granny D Day, to be proclaimed on January 24, 2012. The Governor shall issue a proclamation calling for the proper observance of January 24, 2012, as Granny D Day, in honor of Doris "Granny D." Haddock as a New Hampshire citizen of national significance for her stalwart leadership and passionate dedication in fighting for campaign finance reform and her walk across America at the age of 90."

And, I would appreciate a 24-0 vote on this. I think it's a fitting tribute for Granny D.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I certainly appreciate Senator Barnes coming forward and bringing forth this amendment, because I think we should recognize Granny D. for all of the good things that she did, and bringing something, I think, to a level where people around the country recognized it – recognized that here's a woman dedicated to civic responsibility, civic engagement, who, at age 90, walked across the United States.

Now, one of the things that I think we fail to do as a Legislature – and, we have failed for a number of years – is recognize the prominent role that women have played in the political process. We had to amend the Constitution of the United States to give women the right to vote. We had to amend the Constitution of the United States to give women the right to vote. Now, when you think about that, and my colleagues here, the women in this body, can you imagine not having the right to vote? Can you imagine if the Senate President had to say: "Of those seated, only males could vote, but you women, you can participate." We rectified that with an amendment to the Constitution.

Women have played vital roles in all of our lives, in all of our lives. And, it seems to me, when New Hampshire has a woman who went out of her way to bring something to the attention of the nation – you know, finance reform: we all talk about finance reform, but this woman actually did something about it, and walked across the United States. My dear friend Senator Bradley, she might have gone up all those mountains if she had to. I mean, she would have done it! I think she would have done it at 90-plus years of age. And, came back to the state; I met her right out in front of this State House – right out in front of this State House! – when she returned from that journey.

How much of a deal is it for the Governor on an annual basis to write a proclamation saying: “This is Granny D. Day”. I mean, isn’t that the least we could do for someone who did so much for us? We sometimes look at these things and say, “Oh yeah. If we do it once, that’s okay.” Remember, our memories are pretty short; we’re not great for remembering the past. And, I think we have to remember the past, because as a historian, you learn from the past, because history does repeat itself, and it’s repeated itself on more than one occasion. It seems to be fitting and proper that we recognize Granny D. for the contribution that she made not only to New Hampshire, but to the citizens of the United States of America, which I think is important. If she did nothing else, what she proved is that you’re never too old to become involved, you’re never too old to do your civic duty, and you’re never too old to contribute. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I rise and oppose this amendment, and ask my colleagues to join me and to oppose the amendment.

You know, I think Senator D’Allesandro did address the fact that we have many people in our state that we’d like to honor and distinguish over time and over history. And, we look to, where is that threshold where we honor someone continually, every year, not just one year? And, I feel that Granny D., Doris Haddock, has reached that threshold. And, she has distinguished herself from others. And, one of the ways that she has done this is her civic duty, her civic work, and I think what really brings this to that level of an annual – every year – honor for her and a proclamation, is that she is recognized not only in this state – we are proud of what she has done in this state – but, she is not recognized only in this state. She is recognized across our country, and she is recognized worldwide. And, I think that that really raises this to a different level. She has been honored and she’s been recognized in the United States government, and she has worked with United States Senators in a bipartisan manner for fair elections and equal representation. And, that’s why we’re here. And, I think it is only fitting that this body recognizes her on that level. She has remarkable legacy, she has outstanding leadership – we hear it, we’ve seen it – and her significant impact on our entire country and on her state, I believe, makes her only deserving that on January 24th of every year, not only January 24th of 2012, that we proclaim honor to Granny D. in this state. I think she is deserving, and I ask for your support in opposing the amendment. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 174, relative to the Concord regional solid waste/resource recovery cooperative. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 174 Ought to Pass. This bill ratifies amendments to the Concord regional solid waste/resource recovery cooperative agreement. It is an important housekeeping measure for the co-op. The proposed legislation amends chapter law that confirms the formation and sets forth the authority of the co-op.

The co-op was founded in 1985 by 27 communities to provide for the long-term disposal of solid waste through the joint participation in a centralized waste-to-energy facility. The work of the co-op is evolving to include the siting of a single-stream recycling facility and the use of recycling as a solid waste management tool. Notably, the original law creating the co-op did not expressly address recycling.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 174 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to thank the Committee and to support the bill. I think Senate Bill 174 is an important step in improving the capacity of our state to accept and encourage recycling. The addition of a fairly expensive but valuable single-stream recycling facility will, I know, encourage myself as well as residents of my communities, but all of those 27 communities, and perhaps encourage further inclusion in a single-stream recycling facility. When you don't have to separate your recycling, more people do it.

So, it's a great bill. Thank you for your help on it, and I urge support for Senate Bill 174.

TRANSPORTATION

SB 101, requiring the Pettengill Road project in Londonderry to be added to the state's 10-year transportation improvement program. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 101 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill requires the Pettengill Project in Londonderry to be added to the State's 10-year transportation improvement plan.

The Committee heard from the Department of Transportation, and they explained that the 10-year transportation improvement plan has been well established by the Department in conjunction with the Governor. The Department of Transportation furthered their argument by adding that opening the 10-year transportation improvement plan to one community's project would only frustrate other communities who also have necessary transportation needs.

The Committee voted Inexpedient to Legislate because they felt it was inappropriate to open the 10-year plan when other funding opportunities could be investigated. The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate, and thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I have to make my annual Pettengill Road speech, here. And, I hope my fellow Senators will indulge me.

This bill was brought in front of the Senate last session, and I want to thank the Transportation Committee for all their hard work in looking at this bill and their discretion. I would just like to really reiterate the fact that this is a vital project for our region, from the state line to Concord, and now including the Route 3 area also, because of the airport access road going in.

This project would open up almost 1,000 industrial and commercially-zoned acreage adjacent to the Manchester Airport. There are businesses that want to move in, and there really is a sense of urgency, because the airport access road is very close to completion. And, anybody who has anything to do with any kind of a building project knows it's better to build it while all the other building is going on than to wait until after the building is complete and try to retrofit it.

We believe that we can get a good cost for building this road right now because of the way the market is. The town has been very, very aggressive in looking at alternate funding sources, and I believe the next bill will address one of those funding sources. But, again, this is a very important project, and I hope that as we move forward, I will gradually and hopefully be able to get your support on this. Thank you very much.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 159-FN-L, establishing a state infrastructure bank. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-1. Senator Rausch for the committee.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 159 Ought to Pass. This bill establishes a state infrastructure bank and came at the request of the Department of Transportation.

The Committee heard from the State Treasurer, who is neutral on the bill, but explained creating and maintaining a state infrastructure bank is certainly feasible. The Committee also heard from the Department of Transportation, who supports the intent of the bill, the intent being the ability to leverage state and federal funds to support municipal transportation projects aimed at improving economic development.

The Committee does not want to be misconstrued as supporting the current piece of legislation as a concrete piece of legislation. The Committee unquestionably believes that there is work to be done in regard to the language and the fiscal components of the bill. We especially want to stress that the capitalization issue is of critical importance, and if not resolved, should be regarded as a fatal flaw. The Committee feels moving the bill to the Finance Committee will allow stakeholders more time to ascertain other means of funding the proposed state infrastructure bank rather than taking current dollars away from state-designated federal highway funds.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

WAYS AND MEANS

SB 40, making technical corrections to meals and rooms tax laws. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 6-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

Amendment to SB 40

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Suspension and Revocation of Licenses; Appeal. Amend RSA 78-A:5, II to read as follows:

II. Any operator aggrieved by a suspension, revocation or refusal of the commissioner may appeal from the ruling either by application to the board of tax and land appeals or by petition to the superior court in the county in which he or she resides or conducts his or her operation within 10 days after receiving written notice of the commissioner's ruling in the manner prescribed in RSA 78-A:15. The board of tax and land appeals or the court, as the case may be, shall hear the appeal forthwith. If the appealing operator files a bond running to the state in an amount fixed by the board of tax and land appeals or the court, with a surety company authorized to do business in the state as surety, conditioned on the payment of taxes due and to become due during the pendency of the appeal, the ruling appealed from is inoperative if it is a ruling of suspension or revocation. If the ruling appealed from is a refusal to ~~[issue a]~~ renew an existing license, the ~~[commissioner shall issue the license]~~ existing license shall remain valid during the pendency of the appeal if the appeal bond is given.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Collection of Tax; Gender Neutral. Amend RSA 78-A:7, II to read as follows:

II. Each operator shall keep books and records in a form acceptable to the department showing the amount of all taxes collected. The operator shall pay the taxes over to the state as provided in this section. If the department believes that special action is necessary because payment of taxes collected may be in jeopardy, it may direct an operator to keep all taxes collected separate from any other funds. The department may require that the taxes be periodically deposited in a bank designated by the department, in an account in the name of the department. The department may withdraw these tax collections from the bank account and apply them to the payment of the taxes due from the operator. When an operator commingles tax money with money belonging to him or her, the claim of the state for the tax is traceable, is enforceable against all other claims and takes precedence over all other claims against the commingled funds. No taxes collected by an operator under this chapter may be sent outside the state without the written consent of the department.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 40 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill was requested by the Department of Revenue Administration after they reviewed the statutes pertaining to the meals and rooms tax and found some technical corrections needed to be made.

There were several references to the former 8 percent meals and rooms tax rate in statute that were not updated when the rate was increased to 9 percent. This bill updates the statutes to reflect the current rate. The bill also makes a change relative to suspensions or revocations of licenses. It eliminates language that required the Department to issue a license to a new operator starting up a new business to be effective during the appeals process in cases where the Department refused to issue the initial license. This was a time-consuming and inefficient practice in that the license would often end up being revoked as a result of the appeals process. However, in the case of an existing operator's license being suspended or revoked, they are permitted by the Department to continue operating throughout the appeals process. It is not the Department's intent to shut down any existing business while they appeal a suspension or revocation.

The committee amendment simply adds language to clarify the intent in order to ensure that existing operators are not shut down.

The bill makes other minor technical corrections, ranging from ensuring operators keep meals and rooms taxes collected in a separate account to clarifying when an operator must file a surety bond with the Department. The overall intent of this piece of legislation is to clean up the meals and rooms tax statute to be consistent with the current practice.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment.

Sen. Bradley moved to Table SB 40.

The question is on the motion to Table. Adopted.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, members of the Senate, I had a bill for late introduction that was approved and circulated yesterday, and many of you probably saw it come across your desk. Unfortunately, we have had to amend that legislation; there was some boiler plate language on there that was not supposed to be on there. So, you are going to see it again today. And, the reason I rise to speak about it is because I'm told this has to be in by Friday. So, I would ask all your indulgence as you go back to your offices today, or before you leave today, if you could please make a point of signing off on that so that we can meet the requirements of the deadline. Thank you.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you, Senator Boutin. The deadline is Friday at noontime for any late bills that were approved by the Internal Affairs Committee.

MOTION TO RECESS TO CALL OF THE CHAIR

Sen. Bradley moved that the business of the day being completed, that the Senate recess to the Call of the Chair for the purposes of introducing legislation, referring bills to committee, scheduling hearings, sending and receiving messages, and processing enrolled bill reports and amendments and when we recess, we recess to the Call of the Chair.

Adopted. The Senate is in recess to the Call of the Chair.

HOUSE MESSAGE

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

March 9, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

Recently, the Schroadter Family of Newmarket suffered a terrible loss. Adam Schroadter is a member of the House of Representatives across the hall, and we keep them in our prayers and we are reminded that life is so fleeting and fragile. We are little more than water and a bit of calcium and some clothing. And, our times between the liquids of conception and the ashes of death can be brief.

Augustine said, "Be kind to the people you meet, for each of them is fighting a great battle." And, I find that to be true. We tend, in our deep and molten insecurities, to be brash, harsh, and judgmental in our dealings with each other, unaware of what hardships and losses we all have in our lives.

All over Christendom today, people are giving things up. It is my hope that we give up nothing, but that we take on kindness, instead. It's not a Christian issue; it's a human issue. Let us pray.

God of all human frailty, grant us so to be aware of our own human failings and our own human fragility that we do not assault each other with our smoldering fears wrapped in our thinly-veiled insecurities, but rather we approach everyone we meet with the kind of humility which honors the truth that we are all doing our best. May we face judgment and manipulation not with indignation, but with deep, deep compassion. Amen.

Sen. White led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Sen. Prescott is excused from today's session.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce our Pages today. First, I'd like to introduce Amber Cronan. Amber is 16 and in 10th grade at Merrimack Valley High School. She lives in Penacook, which is part of Concord – has its own name but it's part of Concord. Her favorite subject is American systems and biology and her favorite book is Before I Fall and Romeo and Juliet – which is the name of my birds, by the way. Her favorite extracurricular activities are softball, running, volunteering at elementary schools, skiing, or being outside. And, in the future she hopes to become a teacher in either first grade or 10th grade in American systems. So, it's wonderful to have you here, Amber, and thank you; we are happy to have you and hope you find it a good learning experience.

Next, I'd like to introduce Eric Lang. Eric, again, is 16 and in the 10th grade at Merrimack Valley High School in Penacook. His favorite school subject is computer technology courses. His favorite book – although he says it's not his favorite – but he must really like the book Dragon Rider. And, extracurricular activities include lacrosse. In the future, he hopes to be a billionaire! So, we hope you learn along the way today, Eric. Thanks for being here today.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I was honored on Sunday evening to offer welcoming remarks to the Pakistan United States Delegation to a bilateral conference on disaster preparedness, which is being held here in the State of New Hampshire. And, the delegations have been working very hard, and they've also been touring the state; last night they were in Dunbarton. And, I'd like to introduce...Accompanying the delegations are the high-ranking civil and military officials. And, I'd like to introduce the head of the Pakistan Delegation: Ahmed Kamal; and I'd also like to introduce the person leading the United States Delegation, Ambassador George Bruno. And, I would ask the Senate to extend them a warm welcome today.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces that the following bills will not come to Finance: SB 23-FN, SB 30, SB 35-FN-A, SB 46, SB 47, SB 57, SB 71-FN, SB 74-FN, SB 82-FN, SB 87, SB 89, SB 94, SB 104, SB 108, SB 131-FN, SB 133-FN, SB 135-FN-A, SB 138-FN-A, SB 139-FN, SB 143-FN, SB 145-FN, SB 148-FN, SB 149-FN-A-L, SB 150-FN, SB 163-FN, SB 164, SB 168-FN, SB 169-FN, SB 172, SB 178, SB 184, SB 185-FN, SB 186-FN, SB 188-FN.

MOTION TO AMEND SENATE RULE 7-1
PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SENATE RULE 7-1

Sen. Bradley moved to amend Senate Rule 7-1.

Amend Senate Rule 7-1 by replacing with the following:

7-1 Senate staff, composition and duties.

The staff of the Senate shall be comprised of:

- (1) a Clerk, who shall be elected by the Senate;
- (2) Clerk's office staff, who shall be nominated by the Clerk and appointed by the President; and
- (3) such other personnel as the President shall appoint.

The President shall define the duties of all members of the Senate staff which are not fixed by statute or otherwise ordered by the Senate.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. As everybody knows, we have had a brief discussion amongst ourselves about how we make sure that the Office of the Senate Clerk is handled in the most professional and nonpolitical way. And, by allowing our Clerk, who we all voted for unanimously and in a bipartisan way, to make nominations of her staff that would then be appointed by the President is in fact a manner that we can ensure that we have a professional Clerk's staff and that it is as nonpartisan as humanly possible. So, with that, I commend this rule to the entire body and look forward to having your support. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I've been around here, Mister President, for the last 13 years. I haven't seen any faulty situation vis-a vis the election of our officers; I want to make that clear. And, some of my colleagues have been here for that same period of time.

Mister President, I rise in opposition to the proposed amendment to Senate Rule 7-1. I do so because I believe that this proposed amendment represents a significant policy change with regard to the operation and management of the Senate, and additionally serves as a deviation from the tradition of openness, transparency, and nonpartisanship that has always – in my time in this institution – defined the Senate Clerk's Office.

As all of you know by now, the Senate Clerk's Office is the entity through which all important business of the Senate flows. Any number of important duties are facilitated and carried out by the Senate Clerk and her staff every day. These responsibilities are critical to the effective and efficient functioning of this chamber and those who are members of this chamber.

At present, the Assistant Senate Clerk along with the Senate Sergeant-At-Arms and the Senate Doorman are positions elected by the majority of this body. With that process comes the opportunity for public debate by the Senators followed by a vote of this body that's recorded and entered into the permanent record. The current proposed rule change before us today would allow for the appointment of the Assistant Clerk and additional Clerk's Office personnel to be appointed by the Office of the President. I believe that this rule has the potential to threaten the very integrity of the Clerk's Office and subsequently the Senate by blurring the lines of nonpartisanship that are imperative in that office. Additionally, this new proposal would serve to eliminate the public and transparent process by which these offices of the Senate have been traditionally chosen. Usurping the authority of this legislative body and choosing a process that's currently open, transparent, and without fault are not concepts that I feel comfortable with.

I would ask my colleagues to join me in voting nay on the proposed rule amendment to Senate Rule 7-1. There are those of us that have been in this Senate for a long period of time. We know that the majority rules the Senate; we accept that. That's the democratic process; that's a parliamentary process that's been in place since this Senate was formed. I don't see any reason why we should deviate from a process that's been in existence for the hundred years the Senate has been in existence. What's wrong with what we have been doing – with Republican leadership, with Democratic leadership – over these years? We've had good rapprochement between the parties in terms of the election of our officers. No one has ever been not elected that wasn't supported by the majority – no one! It has never failed to work. Why, then, are we changing it? Why? And, I think, Mister President, that's what I bring to your attention: Why is the change an imperative when there's never been a problem? Think of that. We're trying to fix a problem that doesn't exist. Why do we do that? Why do we waste our time on looking for trouble when we have many, many more important duties to perform in this Senate? We've got an economic situation that's upon all of us. We see what's happening in our state and in our nation. And yet, the desire to be civil to one another, the desire to get things done by working together seems to be dissipating. And, it's things like this that cause that dissipation to accelerate.

I understand numbers; I can count. But, I say to you, Mister President, and to my colleagues: We have had a system in place that's been fair, it's a system that has worked for this body and, as a result, I think that the change being offered is a change that we don't need. We don't need to change things that are working well. We need to change things that aren't working well, and those changes should be for the benefit of the people that we represent. Therefore, Mister President, I state my opposition. And, again, I say: We have a situation here that has worked well since the inception of this body, and now we are changing something that doesn't need to be changed. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator Bradley, I know you recognize the importance of nonpartisanship in the processing that the Clerk's Office does; that nonpartisan trust in the sense that our materials are handled in a nonpartisan way. What is the need now to have an Assistant Clerk and any other member of the Clerk's staff be appointed by the President? I understand that you recognize some of our objection by allowing the Clerk's staff to be nominated by the Clerk, but it still leaves the appointment by the President. What is the problem we're addressing here that hasn't worked in the last hundred years that we need to now fix?

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much for the question, Senator Larsen. And, I would answer it in this way: This is really a good government type of situation, to make sure that, whomever the Clerk is, that individual can run his or her office – in this case, obviously, our Clerk is somebody that you and I had the pleasure of nominating because we do believe in the nonpartisan nature of having a Clerk that handles the business of running the Senate in the most appropriate way possible. I would tell you, I would tell my friend from Manchester, that what we're proposing today better protects the rights of the minority. When you had 14-10 last year, your majority could elect whoever they wanted with no complication, no discussion; it's 14-10! We could do the same thing at 19-5! So, by allowing Miss Wright – who we all trust, whose integrity is unimpeachable – to be able to make the nominations, it protects your rights better than the current system. That's why we're doing it. It's good government and it's protecting the rights of the minority.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a follow-up question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Is it not equally and better protected by the election of officers so the body has the ability both to...And, the other part is that by having it be a position that the Clerk is the head officer of the Clerk's Office rather than having her staff be appointed by the Senate President, in essence.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Again, it's a good government motion to make sure that the Senate Clerk can run his or her office in the most effective and efficient way possible. I think we all would agree that that needs to happen. But, to get back to what I was saying before, right now, without this rule, whomever in the majority can nominate and effectively ensure all the staff are whomever they want it to be. So, we are putting the major responsibility, quite frankly, on the nonpartisan position here – the Clerk – to make the nomination. So, the Senate President is not going to be able to appoint somebody that our Clerk – that both you and I trust completely and implicitly and, as I said before, whose integrity is unimpeachable – it adds another level of making sure that we run the business in the most nonpartisan way possible. And, I think that when you see how this will work out in the coming years – and, I know that Senator D'Allesandro expects to be here for the next hundred years, and I hope to climb a couple of more mountains, you know, before that happens; I'm not going to be here that long. But, I suspect when the people that will sit in our seats in the future will see this as a very reasonable change to protect the rights of the minority.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I respect the Majority Leader's comments and hold them dear to my heart. And, I hope that I can live a hundred years – a hundred more! A hundred more would be a blessing!

Mister President, knowing of your actions when you were Minority Leader, no one was ever bashful about debating an issue in this Senate and being heard by the President about that issue. And, if there's a problem, in a democratic process, one gets up and debates the issue. This body is a debate body; this is a discussion and debate body. So, I think the situation of doing something for better government...We always want to do things for better government, but we've had pretty good government here since I've been here, and I have never seen an individual Senator stymied when they had a complaint or wanted to discuss a particular issue. And, as a result of that, if indeed the person nominated doesn't fit with the minority, the minority has an opportunity to bring that forward and to discuss it. I mean, that's the whole genesis of the Senate. When Senates were constituted as part of the bicameral legislative system, they were constituted as societies where debate could occur, where significant discussion and debate would occur, and where an issue would be brought before the body, talked about before the body, and then that decision made. So, I think we have ample opportunity to do that. And, as I say, it's proved very effective since the inception of the Senate, and I think it will continue to prove very effective. I think this change in the law is not going to enhance the credibility and the reliability and the good government aspect of the running of the Clerk's Office. We've always had that; we'll continue to have that, and I think the change is unwarranted. Thank you, Mister President.

Sen. Barnes moved the question. Without objection President Bragdon closed debate.

The question is on the motion to amend Senate Rule 7-1.

Amendment to SB 57

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 3:

2 Title Loan Renewals. Amend RSA 399-A:15 to read as follows:

399-A:15 Title Loan Renewals. A title loan shall be for an original term of no more than one month. A title loan lender may allow such loan to be renewed no more than ~~[11]~~ 10 additional periods each equal the original term, provided however, that at each such renewal the borrower must pay at least [5] 10 percent of the loan's original principal balance, in addition to any finance charge owed, to reduce the principal balance outstanding. If the borrower cannot pay this principal reduction at any renewal, the title loan lender may either: (i) declare the borrower in default, or (ii) allow the loan to be renewed, provided that the lender shall reduce the current principal amount of the loan by [5] 10 percent of the original principal amount for the purposes of calculating interest thereafter. This reduction in principal shall continue to be owed by the borrower, but such amount shall not be entitled to accrue interest thereafter. For the purpose of this section, a renewal is any extension of a title loan for an additional period without any change in the terms of the title loan other than a reduction in principal. No accrued interest shall be capitalized or added to the principal of the loan at the time of any renewal.

2011-0451sAMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Increases the maximum percentage of interest allowed to be charged by title loan lenders annually.

II. Reduces the number of additional pay periods for which a lender may allow a title loan to be renewed.

III. Requires a borrower whose title loan has been renewed to pay at least 10 percent of the loan's original principal balance at the time of renewal.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 57 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill allows for the ability of an industry to come back to our state and both provide a needed service of often short-term automotive title-based loans to our residents and it will create much-needed jobs to help our economy.

In response to concerns raised at the hearing, the Committee worked hard with all sides to amend Senate Bill 57 to provide protections to the residents of New Hampshire and still provide reasonable real-world flexibility to this industry. Under this amendment, anyone borrowing money on a monthly basis will be limited in the total amount they can borrow and limited to only one borrowing facility at a time. There is also a cap on the amount of interest that can be charged. This bill limits a borrower's ability to renew this loan to only ten consecutive months, and if they do renew the loan, there will be a requirement to make monthly principal payments of ten percent of the original loan balance, thereby resulting in a maximum loan duration of only ten months. Additionally, this industry will be regulated under the jurisdiction of the New Hampshire Banking Department.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 57. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to Senate Bill 57. In 2008, New Hampshire joined most other states in the Northeast by enacting a reasonable interest rate cap – one that the United States Military found was compelling to implement for personnel because they found the practice so objectionable and because it compromised service by military personnel.

Senator Sanborn talked about an interest rate cap, but I would note that as expressed in an APR, we're still over 100 percent interest being charged on these particular products. The application process for a title loan does not measure or consider for the purposes of approval the consumer's ability to repay the loan. And, the one asset – the one asset that a person needs to get to work – their car – is subject to repossession. I'm not so certain that that's something we should be encouraging. It is common for consumers to renew or rollover their loans, further indebting themselves. It was pointed out that the cap is at ten, which is fairly reasonable since the average consumer rolls it over eight times, so it's within that average, and that's according to the New Hampshire Community Loan Fund.

Senate Bill 57 as amended – we talked about this – ten rollovers. According to lenders themselves, about half of borrowers will be indebted for at least four months, interest accruing continually during that time. There's been no outcry by consumers for a return of these loans; in fact, at the public hearing on SB 57, not one consumer appeared in favor of the bill. Meanwhile, the list of those appearing in opposition was fairly long and included representation from consumer advocates, law enforcement, and state regulators, including the New Hampshire Attorney General's Office, the New Hampshire Banking Department, New Hampshire Legal Assistance, and AARP.

Here's a sample of some of the testimony we heard, to paraphrase: Professor Peter Wright, who's the Director of the Consumer and Commercial Law Clinic at UNH Law School: "This is one of the worst forms of predatory lending out there." Local Welfare Administrators Association: "The property taxpayers of the state are actually subsidizing the profitable practices of these predatory lenders." But, perhaps the person who put it best was Representative Neal Kurk – no great antagonist of free market principles, I would add. "These loans are predatory and unfair. Attempts made at creating jobs should not come at the detriment of New Hampshire's most vulnerable citizens. The Legislature made a good decision when they said, 'What is good for the military is good for the rest of us.'"

It has additionally been suggested that were SB 57 to become law only one North Carolina-based title loan lender would be operating in the state, bringing into question the bill's ability to actually help generate jobs or economic development we should be looking for in New Hampshire. Thank you very much, Mister President.

SB 71-FN, relative to health care fees in workers' compensation. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I would move to Re-refer Senate Bill 71-FN. This bill would clarify medical fees and reimbursement levels for healthcare services under the workers' compensation law. The prime sponsor agreed, and the unanimous Committee made a commitment to work together on this legislation to be acted on in January of the 2012 legislative session. We are looking forward to working with all interested parties to craft good, meaningful, final legislation in that timeframe indicated.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote to Re-refer Senate Bill 57. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 74-FN, relative to the life settlements act. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you again, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 74-FN be Re-referred to the Committee. Senate Bill 74-FN would make various changes to the life settlements act. The prime sponsor requested this bill be Re-referred to allow all stakeholders an opportunity to come together around language that can be agreed upon. This is a very complex topic and it demands more attention. Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote to Re-refer Senate Bill 74-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 89, relative to employee leasing companies. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-2. Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 89 Ought to Pass. This bill clarifies the procedures for employee benefits and other insurance for employee leasing companies. By contracting with an employee leasing company, a small business gets a professional business partner to administer their employees, leaving them more time to run their businesses. Among the services that a business receives from an employee leasing company are complete payroll processing and human resource support, administration of benefits, workers' compensation coverage, work programs for injured employees, and safety programs to ensure safe work sites.

Senate Bill 89 includes modifications to the current state statute that will help employee leasing companies continue to assist small businesses in New Hampshire.

Floor Amendment to SB 89

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a study committee on the procurement of health insurance by employee leasing companies.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study the procurement of health insurance by employee leasing companies.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

(b) Two members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties. The committee shall study the procurement of health insurance by employee leasing companies licensed under RSA 277-B, including whether policies sponsored by employee leasing companies should be exempt from the rating requirements and other standards for small employer coverage set forth in RSA 420-G.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named house member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 2011.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill reestablishes the committee to study the procurement of health insurance by employee leasing companies.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: What this amendment does is it replaces the language of the bill with a study committee on the procurement of health insurance by employee leasing companies. We hope to do this because there was a long history of this bill, going back into the last session, where a study committee was supposed to be established to study this complex topic and apparently never got off the ground. Feeling it is still a complex topic and still in need of study, I would offer this amendment to do just that.

Amendment to SB 148-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to health insurance coverage and declaring that the attorney general should join the lawsuit challenging the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Lawsuit Challenging the Federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act. The attorney general should, as soon as practicable, join the lawsuit (State of Florida et al. v. United States Department of Health and Human Services et al.) challenging the constitutionality of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides that a resident of New Hampshire shall not be required to obtain, or be assessed a fee or fine for failure to obtain, health insurance coverage.

This bill also declares that the attorney general should join the lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 148-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 148-FN provides that no resident of New Hampshire will be required to obtain or be assessed a fee or fine for failure to obtain health insurance. The amendment adopted by the Committee establishes legislative intent that the General Court declares that the Attorney General should join the lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act. Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 148-FN.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise in opposition to Senate Bill 148, even as amended. I appreciate the amendment, the sponsor's willingness to have the bill so amended, and the Committee's decision to adopt the amended bill. I rise in opposition, however, because frankly not everyone in New Hampshire thinks the federal healthcare law is a bad idea. In fact, most people want to keep several provisions of the bill that preclude insurance companies from denying people with preexisting conditions and allows children to stay covered by their parents' insurance policies, that prohibit lifetime limits on benefits and reducing the donut hole. For all of these reasons, I don't think that the Senate or the people of New Hampshire speak with one voice that the AG even should join the lawsuit. Furthermore, I think that while we can see that federal law preempts state law, so the first part wouldn't stop those provisions of federal law that people objected to anyway. That being said, it can only lead to fruitless potential litigation, and as such, I rise in opposition to Senate Bill 148 as amended. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I rise to second the comments of Senator Houde. The bill still has two problems: one is that it approaches dangerously close – for the Legislature telling the Executive Branch and the important independence of the Attorney General – it approaches us having the Legislature cross into the Executive Office and the important independence of the Attorney General – telling that Attorney General what cases they have to take up or what case he should take up and what case he should not. The biggest problem, as Senator Houde pointed out, is that I think if you were to poll the public, most people would say it's good that we are covering children up to age 26 and allowing them – adult children – allowing them to remain on a family health plan. It's also good that our seniors now do not face a donut hole when they experience prescription costs that exceed the $2,500 that was the previous point at which they had to start paying their own money. It's good that these insurance companies can no longer preclude people because of preexisting conditions from getting coverage, and it's good that those lifetime limits that used to exist are now prohibited. Those are important healthcare benefits that I think everyone in this state – not everyone, perhaps – but the vast majority would say: “We need important healthcare reform, and this is a step towards that.” So, while you have improved it through the committee amendment, I think we are approaching a point when we all need to sit back and say: “How can we best offer affordable healthcare to the people of this state, and what’s the best process for doing that?” And, the kind of dialogue that’s been going on...I think we need to all sit down and work rationally towards a point when we get more access to healthcare to the, I believe, over 47 million Americans that currently have none. So, I rise to oppose Senate Bill 148, even in its amended state.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I don’t know how many of my colleagues in this chamber have read the original bill that passed Congress. It seems to me that most of the folks that voted for that didn’t read it either. I think there are some good parts to that bill, but the part that bothers me and most of the people that have talked to me, both Democrats and Republicans – because I do listen to both parties, and I got an earful at the polls yesterday when I was there on this very matter – people don’t like being told they have to have insurance. Why should we be told that we have to have it? I think that is a step too darned far. And, where there are good things in that piece of legislation, that is un-American and un-New Hampshire, and un-Jack Barnes, and I certainly am going to support this piece of legislation to the fullest extent of my voice and my ability because I do not believe that the federal government can tell me that I have to have insurance. They tell me enough things I have to do: I have to pay an income tax; I have to do this; I have to do that. Pretty soon, if we go along with this sort of thing, they’re going to tell us when we can go to bed – and, I was going to say something else, but we’ve got young folks in the room, so I won’t say it, because they’d read my lips. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D’Allesandro.)

SENATOR D’ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. You know, as I’ve said on numerous occasions, we are a discussion and debate society, and this is an example of it. And, I concur with some of the things that Senator Barnes has said; it makes a lot of sense. Nobody wants to be mandated to do everything. That’s not the American way; it’s not the way it should be. But, there are portions of this law that are very, very important to us. As a matter of fact, there’s a portion of this bill – the under 26 – that we had discussion and debate in this Senate about, and actually passed the law so that a young woman who was thrown off of an insurance policy was able to stay on an insurance policy. Unfortunately that young woman passed away; she lost her life to cancer. But, because of the discussion and debate that took place in this forum, we did something positive; we said: “Boy, this is something that needs to be taken care of”, and as a result of that, under 26 youngsters will now be on their parents’ insurance policy. That’s a good thing; that’s a very good thing. The most expensive portion of our lives is healthcare, and it’s healthcare as we age. And, if you have a child who’s infirmed, needs healthcare from birth until that child grows into adulthood or maybe succumbs because of the tremendous disease that that individual may have.

I applaud Senator Bradley for the amendment. I think it’s a move in the right direction; it’s certainly a move that indicates that we do compromise. But, I can't support the bill, because I think there are portions of the healthcare debate that will go on. Remember, we've been debating healthcare in this country for 50 years; this is not a new debate. We have been debating this subject for 50 years. In 50 years we've made some strides – some strides: the ability not to deny a person coverage because of a previous condition: That's a very significant movement; the ability to have a child on an policy until that child is 26: That's significant movement. There are some things that we could all support; there are other things that we can't support. But, in the course of moving forward, those discussions will take place: They'll take place at our level and they'll take place at the national level. And, we should continue the debate, because I think that's what good government is all about, and that's why I can't support the bill, but I can support the basic premise. And, we're going to look at a budget, and my dear friend and honorable colleague, Senator Morse, is going to look for a little portion of the budget called "uncompensated care", and how much do we spend on an annual basis on uncompensated care. Do you know why? Because people have no insurance. And, guess what? Who pays? Every person in this room is going to pay. And, we're going to pay. And, why are we going to pay? Because we think it's the right thing to do; because we think we have a moral responsibility. And, think about those things as we move through this process. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. You know, if we were just debating the insurance reforms in the new federal law, I think we'd be having a very different debate. And, quite frankly, if the federal law had focused on preexisting conditions, on children up to age 26, on lifetime limits, we might have had a bill that had a lot less controversy. But, the lawsuit is not about the insurance reforms, it's about the individual mandate; it's about whether the federal government has the ability to force each and every one of us, as Americans, to purchase a product that we may not want. It's unprecedented in our nation's history, which is why courts already have struck down the individual mandate – not every court, but two court decisions have struck that down. Now, when we talk about the aspects of the bill, there's the individual mandate, there's the insurance reforms; there's a lot of other things that are in the bill that give people in New Hampshire a lot of pause: large tax hikes, unfunded mandates to states – Just in the case of New Hampshire the estimated mandates over a ten-year period for an expansion of Medicaid could be as much as $1.2 billion, and we've just found out in the last few days that provisions were slipped into the bill that nobody really knew about that will prefund it to the tune of well over $100 billion. And, Americans on all sides of the political spectrum are increasingly worried about the trillion dollar deficit that our nation faces and trillion dollar deficits as far as the eye can see. So, while some of the insurance reforms might have had broad popular support, other provisions in the bill don't, and the most important provision is one that strikes at the very heart of our ability to make free and conscious decisions as to what consumer products we are going to purchase. That's what the lawsuit is about. We step back from ordering the Attorney General to join the lawsuit – there is a constitutional argument; we don't know which way it would be decided if it went to the Supreme Court. But, at least with this bill we're on record as a Legislature in wanting to join the lawsuit, and perhaps more importantly establishing under New Hampshire law that there would be no individual mandate and no penalties for not purchasing health insurance. This is a valid expression of our will as a Legislature today, and I commend this bill to all of you for support.

(The Chair recognized Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR DE BLOIS: In support of this bill. This bill was of concern because of the constitutionality of what's known as the "Obama Care" bill. And, we put this forth questioning the constitutionality of a mandate for our personal rights, which adversely affects the Tenth Amendment of the New Hampshire Constitution. The Obama Care bill needs more debate; it's flawed, and many people know it's flawed. It's one step before a single payer, which is socialized medicine. And, I don't think the constituents in my District are interested in having the government run the complete healthcare system.

This bill originally followed the bill that was presented by the House in ordering the Attorney General to join the other states in this lawsuit. This bill was amended to show that we respect the AG's Office and we are not giving a mandate or an ultimatum to the AG's Office, but we are urging him to let him know what we would like him to consider doing. And, in light of that, I wish to ask my colleagues to support this bill.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I would only point out what was an interesting point made in the hearing, which is that...And, it was argued that in fact there is a constitutional reason and it is constitutional to require this. But, there's also an economic reason, and that is, in fact, that in New Hampshire, a person who buys private health insurance is now paying more than $1,000 a year in premium costs to cover the shift in healthcare costs of those who are uninsured. So, we're paying – those of us who are insured – are paying for the costs of the uninsured in one way or another, and the economic effect of that is in fact more and more people are dropping health insurance because it is so costly. To spread the cost makes sense, and that's what the intent was through that bill. I just wanted to point that out. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Groen.)

SENATOR GROEN: I need to rise to respond to that. I understand the desire to make sure that the cost is spread. But, what I have seen...I spoke to two non-profits in the last few months; their insurance rates, because of the provisions of the national healthcare bill, have gone up 38 percent. I spoke to a small business owner just a few weeks ago with 30-something employees; his rates are going up 27 percent because of this. It seems to me that if the argument that we make sure that the uninsured are covered was the main cause here that the rates should go down. I spoke to an individual just last week who carried a personal policy – a major medical policy – and has an HSA to cover his expenses underneath that policy; his rates have gone up 35 percent because of the provisions of the national healthcare bill, and he is probably going to be forced to drop that and become uninsured. So, I think there's an adverse effect to this. This bill moves the consumers away from consumer-driven healthcare and more toward government-defined healthcare, and for those reasons...I think when a bill has as many flaws as this one does, it's good for the whole bill to go and that we start over and we make the necessary changes for provisions that are a good idea. Thank you.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I would remind the Senate that we are debating a bill regarding individual mandates of a federal piece of legislation not the federal piece of legislation itself.

Sen. Bradley moved the question. Without objection President Bragdon closed debate.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Houde, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, White, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Houde, Odell, Kelly, Larsen, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

SB 150-FN, authorizing individuals and certain businesses to purchase health insurance from out-of-state insurance companies. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move to Re-refer Senate Bill 150-FN. This bill would authorize individuals and certain businesses to purchase health insurance from out-of-state insurance companies.

The prime sponsor of SB 150 testified that this issue is being worked on at the federal level, and without changes from Washington it would be difficult for states to move forward on this issue.

Please join the unanimous vote from the Commerce Committee and vote to Re-refer Senate Bill 150-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 163-FN, relative to the New Hampshire health benefit exchange. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you again, Mister President. I move to Re-refer Senate Bill 163-FN. Senate Bill 163 would establish a New Hampshire health benefit exchange to assist in the purchase and sale of qualified health plans and to meet the requirements of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act. While I believe, as we just debated, that we should be working through the courts to stop the implementation of the Affordable Care Act, we should also plan for the possibility of an exchange being mandated by the federal government. Senate Bill 163 would make sure that any exchange created in New Hampshire safeguards our local control. The federal government continues to work out the details of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, which makes it very difficult as a state to move forward at this time. It seems like a major change, a rule revision, a court decision, or some other opportunity for state-specific waivers comes up on a weekly basis, so the Committee unanimously recommends Re-referring Senate Bill 163-FN to allow us more time to see what approach the federal government takes.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote to Re-refer Senate Bill 163-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 163-FN.

EDUCATION

SB 82-FN, extending the state board of education's authority to approve chartered public schools and relative to the funding of chartered public schools approved by a school district. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Forsythe for the committee.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 82-FN Ought to Pass. This legislation makes two important changes to the current charter school law. First, it extends the State Board of Education's authority to approve chartered public schools by repealing the ten-year pilot program and giving the Board permanent authority to approve public charter schools. This change will increase public school options for parents and their children while also making our state more competitive when applying for future federal grants and education funding.

Second, the bill also requires the State to pay the State's portion of adequacy aid – currently $3,450 – directly to the locally authorized charter school for those students that attend a locally authorized charter school that is located outside the student's resident district. This change does not include the additional $2,000 per student in disparity aid that the State Board authorized charter schools receive.

This bill will provide that the adequacy aid follows the student from their local school district to the locally authorized charter school outside the district. Currently, there are no locally authorized charter schools operating, and this change would encourage them to open by eliminating the fear that out-of-district students would come into the charter school without bringing their per-pupil adequacy aid with them.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 82-FN Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 172, relative to performance-based school accountability criteria. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

Amend RSA 193-E:3-cc, V-VI as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

V. The commissioner of the department of education shall evaluate each school based on each of the criteria established in this section and shall assign a score to each school using a numerical scale for each of the required criteria ranging from one (the lowest possible score) to 4 (the highest possible score). The commissioner shall develop a list of all elementary and middle schools and a list of all high schools including each school's score.

VI. Locally defined criteria and data may be used by schools to demonstrate that the school provides the opportunity for an adequate education using multiple measures of performance that are locally selected and assessed. Criteria, specifications, and guidance for locally defined indicators, goals, and measures shall be prepared by the commissioner's task force. School submissions shall be reviewed by a team made up of educators from the department of education and the field. The commissioner's task force shall continue to review the criteria that would be appropriate for kindergarten, kindergarten and grade 1, and kindergarten through grade 2 schools in order to make a recommendation at a later date about how to appropriately measure that such schools are providing the opportunity for an adequate education.

VII. The task force established in RSA 193-E:3-c may suggest new criteria or propose changes to the performance-based evaluation system to the legislative oversight committee established in RSA 193-C:7.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 172 Ought to Pass as Amended. This legislation is the culmination of the Performance Accountability Task Force Committee's work of identifying performance criteria and measurements and developing a performance-based scoring system. This bill was a request of the Department of Education in accordance with RSA 193-E:3-c, IV passed in June of 2009 to establish an accountability system to ensure schools are providing the opportunity for an adequate education by an input-based system and a performance-based system. The criteria in this legislation includes performance and growth in student academic achievement, participation in assessments, graduation rates, dropout rates, and attendance rates using data that is already submitted by New Hampshire schools to the Department of Education.

SB 172 was amended by deleting V, in regards to ranking schools from highest to lowest. The Committee heard testimony that it was never the intent of this legislation or the task force to rank schools. As well, SB 172 was amended by adding a new paragraph, which states that the Department of Education will accept multiple data currently used by local districts to measure growth in schools and add language that addresses kindergarten, K1 and 2 schools, which are schools that currently do not submit assessment data to the DOE.

The Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 172 Ought to Pass as Amended and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

SB 178, establishing a commission to study long-term sustainable funding for school building aid and the establishment of eligibility criteria for school building aid in order to ensure that all school age children in every part of the state have access to a safe, healthy, and academic environment for learning. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-1. Senator Stiles for the committee.

Sen. Stiles moved to Table SB 178.

ENERGY AND NATURAL RESOURCES

SB 35-FN-A, relative to exemption from the definition of utility property for purposes of the utility property tax. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 35 Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 35 adds certain exemptions to the definition of utility property use for the assessment of the utility property tax under RSA 83-F. This bill is solely an attempt to amend the existing statute on utility property tax and make it consistent with the practice that is occurring now at the Department of Revenue Administration. The current practice is that the Department does not tax under the utility property tax the properties identified in this bill. Therefore, while it is technically an exemption, it will not result in any lower revenue to the State or impact any property taxpayer.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 35. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to SB 46

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Membership of the Commission. Amend 2008, 348:3, I and II, as amended by 2009, 248:2, and 248:3 to read as follows:

I. The members of the commission shall be as follows:

(a) [~~Two members~~] One member of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) [~~Two members~~] One member of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

(c) The director of the office of energy and planning, or designee.

(d) The commissioner of the department of resources and economic development, or designee.

(e) A commissioner of the public utilities commission, or designee.

(f) [~~The governor, or designee.~~]

(g) Three representatives of the north country, appointed by the governor and council.

[(h)] (g) The chairperson or designee of the energy efficiency and sustainable energy board established pursuant to RSA 125-O:5-a.

II. The commission [~~shall~~] may include as nonvoting participants the following:

(a) Representatives of proposed New Hampshire renewable generation projects which either have active applications in the ISO-NE Generator Interconnection Study Queue or are subject to New Hampshire jurisdictional interconnection administration, one member appointed by each U.S. Senator [~~Judd Gregg, one member appointed by U.S. Senator John Sununu~~] representing New Hampshire, and one member appointed by each U.S. Congressman [~~Paul Hodes, and one member appointed by U.S. Congresswoman Carol Shea Porter~~] representing New Hampshire.

(b) A representative of the unregulated energy supply industry, appointed by that industry.

(c) [~~A representative of the (FERC) Federal Energy Regulatory Commission or an individual with expertise in the area of federal electricity transmission regulation, appointed by that commission.~~

(d)] A representative of Public Service of New Hampshire, appointed by that organization.

[(e)] (d) A representative of National Grid Group, appointed by that organization.

[(f)] (e) A representative from New England Power Generators Association, appointed by the association.

[(g)] (f) A representative of the Business and Industry Association of New Hampshire, appointed by the association.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original sections 3 and 4 to read as 4 and 5, respectively:

3 Amend RSA 2008, 348:5 to read as follows:

348:5 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the commission shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the commission shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the commission shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this act. [~~Six~~] Five members of the commission shall constitute a quorum. The commission shall meet monthly to receive updates from the public utilities commission on the progress that is being made and to provide input to the public utilities commission with regard to achieving the necessary transmission capacity expansion in a timely fashion.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 46 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 46 seeks to extend and revise the commission to develop a plan for expansion of the transmission capacity in the North Country. This bill simply seeks to extend the term of the commission and to reduce the number of participants, namely the legislative members. This would eliminate two voting members and give an expanded role to the three representatives of the North Country.

The amendment was introduced to clarify drafting complications and does not change the substance of the bill. The amendment just clarifies outdated references and nonvoting participants and eliminates the involvement of a representative of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, which has never designated a person to attend. Furthermore, a number of the voting members would be reduced in the bill; the quorum requirement has been reduced in the amendment.

I respectfully request the Senate support the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation on Senate Bill 46, and I thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 47, extending the commission to study water infrastructure sustainability funding. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Gallus for the committee.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you again, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 47 Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 47 is a bill to extend the commission to study water infrastructure sustainability funding. In the commission's 2010 report, it was recommended an extension of a year to complete research and identify and prioritize specific actions that should be taken. The language of SB 47 gives a reasonable amount of time for the commission to proceed, conclude its work, and complete the final report. The commission has made progress since its establishment to upgrade the funding model, but work is still needed to make it sustainable.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee on their recommendation of Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 47, and I thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of SB 47, in particular because I think that this issue related not only to the North Country but all the way down to my District in District 10 in the southwest corner, and as you know, I brought forth a bill very similar – SB 184. And, I want to thank Senator Gallus for working with me on this bill – in a bipartisan manner – that affects all the citizens of this state. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 87, relative to the closure of certain underground storage tank systems. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Bradley for the committee.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 87 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill would have allowed a waiver for underground storage tanks from replacement as long as they could prove that they had structural integrity.

The Committee unanimously voted this bill Inexpedient for several reasons: It's been proven that most tanks fail at the end of their useful life. And also, the constituent that brought this forward recognized with the help of DES that there were other alternatives. So, this bill was not necessary. And so, for those reasons, I respectfully request the Senate support the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 184, extending the commission to study water infrastructure sustainability funding. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 184 Inexpedient to Legislate. The intent of SB 184 is to extend the commission to study water infrastructure sustainability funding. The ENR Committee recognizes the importance of extending this commission, but felt that SB 47 was the best approach for the extension. The minute difference between the bills deals with the amount of time for the final report. The Committee unanimously agreed that the extra time that SB 47 allowed for the final report would be beneficial. So, I respectfully request that the Senate support the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ADMINISTRATION

SB 76-FN, relative to the authority of the department of revenue administration to adopt rules and to administer state tax laws. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

Amendment to SB 76-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 21-J:13-a, relative to the exemption of department of revenue administration forms from rulemaking.

II. RSA 21-J:33, III, relative to the additional penalty for failure to make payments by electronic fund transfer.

III. RSA 541-A:21, V, relative to the exception for the department of revenue administration under RSA 21-J:13-a.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 76-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. SB 76-FN requires the Department of Revenue Administration to have express legislative authorization for increasing fees, establishing fines or penalty schedules, or imposing penalties on taxpayers. SB 76-FN repeals the 1996 and 2010 blanket exceptions for the Department of Revenue Administration to operate outside the JLCAR process, and by passing this legislation will require the Department of Revenue Administration to stand before JLCAR to seek legislative approval for its actions. SB 76-FN also repeals legislation which was passed in 2010 which provided for a $5,000 fine for not complying with new form requirements and the addition of burdensome financial tax filing requirements for New Hampshire taxpayers. Under SB 76-FN, the collection of state taxes are administered by the Department as exists but with the following changes: "Provided, however, that the authority to administer state tax law shall not permit the Department to increase any fee, establish any fine or penalty schedule, or impose any penalty on taxpayers of this state unless expressly authorized in law. No general grant of authority or rulemaking shall be considered as an express authorization. Any proposed administrative rule which would increase any fee, authorize the assessment of fines, or impose any penalty on taxpayers shall require legislative approval prior to adoption. The Commissioner may propose legislation as provided in RSA 21-J:3, IX for obtaining express authorization or legislative approval."

The ED&A Committee requests that SB 76-FN be adopted with the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 143-FN, requiring the commissioner of administrative services to develop a proposal for state employees to make monetary contributions to a health savings account or other tax-advantaged account. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: I do move Senate Bill 143-FN be Re-referred to committee. The Committee members believe that before we can require the Commissioner of Administrative Services to develop a proposal for state employees to make monetary contributions to a health savings account or any tax-advantaged account for that matter, we need to find out exactly what is being considered and projected by other agencies and very particularly the State Employees Association themselves.

Several good points were brought up in the ED&A Committee hearing, and from those discussions, we as Committee members believe it is best to investigate and research what all of the stakeholders are presently considering before asking the Commissioner to move in another direction.

For these reasons, we recommend that SB 143-FN be Re-referred to committee and ask for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 145-FN, relative to state employees who volunteer as election workers. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-1. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 145-FN be Inexpedient to Legislate. SB 145-FN recommends that state employees who volunteer as election workers on the day of a biennial election receive paid time off without being required to use accrued leave time.

Because the Committee believes that volunteering of one's time is just that: volunteering, whether that is personal time off or work-related time off. We should not require any employer to pay their employees for voluntary time off.

The fiscal impact of this bill if it were to pass would be potential overtime costs paid to an employee or additional workload on another employee.

We stand firm in recommending that SB 145-FN be Inexpedient to Legislate and ask for your positive support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 157-FN, relative to the division of weights and measures and fees for licensing weighing devices and the definition of service technician. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-1. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 157-FN Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 157-FN eliminates the rulemaking authority of the Commissioner of the Department of Agriculture, Markets, and Foods to set fees for licensing weighing devices. In addition, Senate Bill 157 allows registered service technicians to issue state seals. Senate Bill 157-FN also sets a fee schedule for licensing weighing devices.

Mister President, there was as great deal of dialogue on this bill in the ED&A Committee. The bill before you establishes in statute fees for licensing commercial weighing devices. It allows registered service technicians – and by registered, we mean that a technician holds a valid certificate of registration from the Department of Agriculture, Markets, and Food who, for hire, installs, services, repairs, reconditions, tests, seals, or calibrates a commercial weighing or measuring device. This bill also authorizes a registered service technician who installs, services, repairs, reconditions, tests, or calibrates a commercial weighing device or measuring device to seal that device in a manner approved by the Commissioner. This seal also authorizes the device owner to use a licensed device unless rejected pursuant to RSA 438:14.

Senate Bill 157 repeals under RSA 438:8 section I, section H, (1) through (2) the authority of the Commissioner of the Department of Agriculture, Markets, and Food to set fees for the testing and licensing of weighing devices.

Mister President, let me note here that all of these changes which we are requesting here today were being conducted and were being worked in a procedural manner up until June of 2009 when the new fiscal budget was passed and signed into law. At this time, this procedure was taken out of the budget, and a replacement procedure was inserted into the budget, all without a formal public hearing.

Mister President, this bill passed out of Committee 4-1 in favor. The ED&A Committee believes that this change in law will benefit the people of our great state by furthering employment and will also be a positive financial savings, not only for the State of New Hampshire, but also for our consumers.

That being said, Mister President, the ED&A Committee is requesting your support in the affirmative passage of Senate Bill 157-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to oppose Senate Bill 157 with its motion of Ought to Pass. I think the best and most telling letter we got on this is – in fact, this was directed to Senator Forsythe – from a constituent who is also an investigator with the New Hampshire Division of Weights and Measures. And, in that letter, she said: “Senate Bill 157 would, in essence, authorize businesses that use commercial scales, gas pumps, home heating oil or propane gas meters and other such devices to adjust and calibrate their own devices. The business service technician or subcontracted service company would be able to determine the amount of the product being delivered to their customer and then would be authorized to approve a State approval seal on those devices, indicating that they are accurate and correct. I believe that the place of the service technician,” – and, I agree with this – “the place of the service technician or service company is to service the device and not to engage in the process of approval. The scope of the inspection is more encompassing than merely making sure that the device is weighing or measuring accurately. There is a need to maintain uniformity in the enforcement level, and it’s nearly impossible when so many individuals are involved. The process of approving should remain a government function in order to maintain a fair marketplace. Just like consumers trust government to oversee unfair trade practices in other areas, it’s important for consumers to trust that a State seal means that they are getting the appropriate weight or measure.”

In this letter from this constituent, she also goes on to explain the story of a person who is authorized to...who was going into the business of purchasing gold – purchasing gold from community members, from our constituents. This person wanted to go in the business to offer gold practice and they were trying to buy a scale. That scale, if it has even the slightest difference in its...what they call a scale division, can mean the loss to our consumers, and with gold prices at $1,400 per troy ounce, can mean $45 in a very small single transaction – a difference from

$45 loss to that consumer if it's off by one division. These are similar to a letter we received from the National Conference on Weights and Measures, in which this expert, who is the Executive Director of the National Conference on Weights and Measures points out that the transfer of inspection responsibilities to the private sector creates a serious conflict of interest. If you set the devices predominantly with businesses, without a regulatory presence, service persons are less likely to set devices as closely to zero as practicable, and they instead may be compelled, because they are hired by the company they are now measuring, they may be more compelled to set devices predominantly in the business owner's own favor. He goes on to point out that in 2008, 788 million gallons of motor fuel – that's fuel that you and I pump into our cars and trucks every day – 788 million gallons were pumped in 2008. If those meters are set to a mere one cubic inch error in the seller's favor, the loss goes undetected by consumers – you don't know when you're buying a gallon of gas – unless you can trust that seal, you don't know if it's correct. But, that one cubic inch error in the seller's favor amounts to 3.4 million gallons paid for and not being delivered to the person who thinks they are buying it in that one year. So, at risk for our consumers in our state is a massive amount of loss and a significant change, and my fear is a conflict of interest that we are now reintroducing. In the hearing and in the arguments made in our Committee, the point was made: "Well, these people come measure it and then the inspectors will come and check their measurements." But, the problem is that we set, we establish, we reestablish enough inspectors in our Department of Agriculture to oversee these weights and measures. Prior to this, there were not enough inspectors to get in there and check the work that these private technicians were doing. So, what they did was, they set fees that enabled enough inspectors to be out in the field that when you buy a pound of ham at the grocery store, you know you're getting a pound of ham. When you buy a gallon of gasoline at the gas station, you can trust that within a very small amount you're getting what you're buying. There's a reason why the Farm Bureau is very much in support of keeping these inspectors. When they put their products on the market, they need to know that they're getting paid the full measure for what they're providing in products to the marketplace. So, there's a really good consumer reason for keeping these inspectors there and having enough fees to keep them there. And, the fear is that through our budget cutting we're going to cut those inspectors and we will have private service technicians measuring for their own employers, and there will be a return to what the Commissioner of Agriculture pointed out: Of 28 scales tested in the 5,000 to 20,000 pound class, 60 percent failed. 60 percent failure rate! This group of inspectors only had one year to get out there; they reached over half of all the weights and measures in our state and they found 60 percent failure rate. Of 78 vehicle scales tested, 36 percent failed. These are weights and measures that mean that our consumers are getting what they're paying for. I say that we keep the system that we've established. There may be some adjustment made to allow technicians to get in and look at them, but a technician in a private industry should not be applying a State seal of approval; the State should be doing that. And, there's a really... Sometimes we don't think the State should be involved. We had at the hearing one of the most persuasive, highly conservative Republican inspectors come in and say: "I'm with you," – and I think my Committee members who were there remember this person – "I'm with you; I don't believe in government, but in this case, government works, and we need to have inspectors there who will make sure that you're getting what you pay for." So, I would argue that we do not return to the days of old. We only gave this one year to work, and they found a lot of problems out there. And, we're all elected by more consumers than any other... We are not elected to represent just businesses; we're elected to represent the consumers, as well. And, I think the consumers of this state need to trust that a State seal means that you are getting a fair measure. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Mister President, thank you very much for allowing me to speak and momentarily pause this wonderful debate that we're having, which is necessary. I'd like to introduce my guests and good friends from the elementary school of Loudon, New Hampshire. Thank you so very much for coming today.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley for a question of Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Senator Carson, isn't it the case that when this changeover was made that the State basically was not able to get to do the inspections that were necessary and sent letters to people with weights and measures and scales, saying: "We may not be able to inspect you for up to 24 months."?

SENATOR CARSON: Yes, you are correct, Senator Bradley. And, I appreciate the question and the opportunity to perhaps answer some of the issues raised by Senator Larsen in her very eloquent testimony here this morning.

It's important to realize first of all that this was changed not because of problems, but it was revealed during the subsequent JLCAR hearings on proposed rules that this was done at the request of the Executive Branch. So, it is only through having a public hearing that we became aware that there were problems, or supposed problems, within this whole process. For 20 years this process had been in place. And, we also received from the Department a list of 33 supposed violations, which, quite frankly, was very inadequate; it didn't explain exactly what the problems were, when these problems occurred. And, the Commissioner, when asked, said: "Well, they didn't occur during the three years that I've been a Commissioner." So, again, we really don't know how long these problems have gone on.

Senator Larsen brought up the point of conflicts of interest, that knowing that who is putting on the State seal is appropriate. Well, we all register our cars, don't we? We don't bring our cars to a State garage to have a State automotive technician inspect our cars. The State licenses various automotive facilities across the state to do the inspections. They trust that the technician is doing the job that they're supposed to do, and we trust that when that seal of approval, ie: the registration sticker for the inspection, is being done correctly. Here, there really wasn't any evidence that they are doing a bad job.

We heard this morning from Senator Larsen that being off a fraction can hurt the consumer. But, it also hurts the business. And, what kind of recourse does the businessman have, or businesswoman have, if their scales are off? They have to eat that loss. It is in their best interest – their best financial interest – to make sure that their scales are accurate. And, it doesn't matter if it's the gentleman or gentlewoman who is delivering the oil to your house, whether it's the gas that's being pumped in your car, or it's the apples or oranges or whatever you're buying at the grocery store that's weighed. It is within the business owner's best interest to make sure that those scales, those weights are accurate.

We heard testimony that during the first year, the process was a bit cumbersome, that the person would come out...they would have to have a service technician come out and balance their scales to make sure that they were accurate, and the State person would just stand there and lean over and put that seal of approval on. It's costing the businesses more money through increased fees, and we really shouldn't be doing that to businesses during a time where many of them are struggling. It's important to realize...Senator Larsen talked about the State hiring new employees. We hired four new inspectors. Hiring those four new inspectors came at the loss of over 100 private sector jobs. And, I think that that's important, and it's something that we need to be cognizant of. It's also important to realize that the Farm Bureau is exempt from paying fees. Our local farm stands, if they have weights and measures, they don't have to pay any fees. This really falls on the backs of our grocers, our gas station people, our oil people. There was no real reason to change this other than to perhaps charge more fees, and again, that is my opinion. I am hoping that I can persuade you to support the committee report here, restore the system; it wasn't broken. It's important to realize that the State registered these inspectors, and if the State had a problem with the quality of work that the people that they were registering, perhaps the Department needs to go back and look at the criteria that they were using for hiring these individuals and registering them. Thank you very much, Mister President.

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator Carson, you and I were both in the Committee. Did you understand as I did that both the States of Vermont and Massachusetts...If we return to the days of our not having State inspectors and allow private companies, that we received notice from – and I have the letter in my hand – from Vermont that says...The question was would Vermont accept the test and approval of oil and LP gas measures by private service companies on trucks from New Hampshire that are delivering into Vermont, and this answer is no. So, what kind of added problems does that give to both our LP gas meters and our oil dealers when they try to deliver either in Vermont or New Hampshire and New Hampshire's seal will not be allowed, and they will have to be licensed and tested again in those states before their delivery is accepted? Does that not add an additional burden to the industry that you're trying to help?

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you very much for the question, Senator. I would just like to remind you that the old way was in place for 20 years, and to my knowledge, there were no complaints from the State of Vermont or the State of Massachusetts about the delivery of oil from New Hampshire certified trucks into those states. I would also like to remind you, this is New Hampshire, and we create our own laws, and if Vermont and Massachusetts are not happy, well then that's fine; that's their problem.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I serve on ED&A Committee. And, I must say that the testimony that we heard, both from the Commissioner and from the investigator, was very weak. The investigator...We asked him numerous questions, and I don't think he was able to answer one question succinctly. For instance, he talked about violations, and we said: "Well, are you able to go out and see this in the field?" And, he said: "We don't have time to do that. We run from this place to that place." It became very clear that this agency... Their oversight is very weak. And, what I saw was that this system of previous was not broken, it's just that the agency is not doing their job. And, the Commissioner as well, I don't think gave a compelling case that we should go back... or that we should stick with what we have. Thank you, Mister President.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 157-FN.

SB 185-FN, establishing a restitution fund for victims of financial fraud and continually appropriating a special fund. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Senator Carson, I assume you have Senator White's permission to make a motion to Re-refer.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I was going to make the comment that while Senator White today is the king of Re-refers, I'm going to be the queen of Re-refers.

Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 185-FN be Re-referred to the Committee. The Committee voted this motion unanimously in favor 5-0. Senate Bill 185-FN would establish a restitution fund for the victims of financial fraud and would also continue to appropriate a special fund. This bill would also establish a process for restitution assistance for victims and sets up a restitution committee who would award the assistance from such fund to such victims.

The Secretary of State had commissioned a study report, which is known as the Chandler Report, which will not be available until sometime in March of this year, and which facts in this report will need to be reviewed prior to any decision being made on this legislation. Due to these facts, the decision was made that all bills relating to this particular report will be Re-referred.

There was also the outstanding question of the funding for this piece of legislation, and due to the State's economic resources and also to the fiscal impact that it would have on the Department of Justice, the Bureau of Securities Regulation, the Banking Department, and the Insurance Department, this legislation will need to be further researched for the financial impact to the State.

Mister President, for all these reasons, the ED&A Committee is requesting that this bill be Re-referred to the Committee and appreciates your affirmative support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 186-FN, repealing the exemption from the consumer protection act for certain regulated trade and commerce. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 186-FN be Re-referred to committee. The ED&A Committee voted this motion unanimously in favor 5-0.

Senate Bill 186-FN repeals the exemption from the Consumer Protection Act for certain regulated trade and commerce. In 2002, HB 1429 was passed. This bill exempted from the Consumer Protection Act trade or commerce that was subject to the jurisdiction of the Banking Commissioner, the Director of Securities Regulation, the PUC, financial institutions, and insurance regulators of other states or federal banking or security regulators who possess the authority to regulate unfair or deceptive trade practices. House Bill 1429 removed the jurisdiction from the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Bureau, activities regulated by Banks, Securities, Insurance, and the PUC. As a result of House Bill 1429, our consumers were affected. Our consumers had no right under the Consumer Protection Act to take private legal action. The rights of these consumers to seek redress under the Consumer Protection Act had been eliminated. Senate Bill 186-FN seeks to protect our residents and will put the law back to where it was for the past 32 years prior to 2002.

The ED&A Committee realizes that Senate Bill 186-FN needs a closer look regarding regulation jurisdiction and consumer protection. And, again, because the Chandler Report is not available, the Committee has not had the chance to review this very important document, the ED&A Committee recommends that Senate Bill 186-FN is Re-referred to committee at this time. We appreciate your support, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 186-FN.

SB 188-FN, relative to the authority and roles of the banking department, the attorney general, and the bureau of securities regulation in state regulation of securities. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you very much, Mister President: My last Re-referral. I move Senate Bill 188-FN be Re-referred to the Committee. Senate Bill 188 clarifies the authority and roles of the Banking Department, the Attorney General, and the Bureau of Securities Regulation in State regulation of Securities. This bill deals with agency interaction and, as was mentioned in the previous bills – Senate Bill 185 and 186 – all are in relation to agency interactions. In order to make an appropriate decision on this bill, the Committee will need to review, again, the Chandler Report, which is due for completion this month. The ED&A Committee feels that we do not have all the information needed to make a comprehensive decision at this time. The lines are blurry and the focus is problematic. This bill needs further review, and for this reason, the ED&A Committee requests, Mister President, that Senate Bill 188 is Re-referred to committee. Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. All three of these rereferrals we're hearing about have to do, really, with the FRM case. And, during the course of our hearing, which lasted several hours, there was a man there who sat through the entire hearing process named Alan McIlvene. And, I just want to say on the Senate floor, as I said to Mr. McIlvene, that I apologize for what happened during FRM; I think it was a breakdown in state agencies and state oversight, and that oftentimes we think Re-referral means just bury a bill, but I made a personal promise to him that we were going to focus like a laser beam on really all three of these bills, and rectify a situation that was really harmful to him. And, I just wanted to say that on the Senate floor.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I concur with what Senator White just said, his remarks, and Senator Carson. We have a situation here that needs to be looked at. All of the reports have not come forward, so it would be very difficult to make good value judgments based on information that's not available at present time. But, I think all of those people who came to the hearings, those good people who invested and who did that with a feeling that they were appropriately advised by certain state entities that they were doing things properly and that things were secure and it was a good faith situation deserve to be heard and deserve, really, to receive consideration.

So, by bringing these three bills together and by looking at them carefully based on the information that's available, people are going to get satisfaction that government does work, and I think that's the most important and the most significant aspect of all three pieces of legislation. This government is here to support you, and when things that have been perpetrated or done incorrectly must be corrected, there's a way to do it. And, this legislative forum presents that opportunity to our constituents. And, I think it's that kind of rapport that exists between us and our constituents that makes good government work, and this is an example of it. So, I applaud that. And, I thank you, Mister President, for your activities in bringing these together. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

FINANCE

SB 24-FN-L, exempting the Unity school district from the moratorium on school building aid. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 24-FN-L Ought to Pass. This legislation exempts the Unity school district from the current moratorium on school building aid. This body has already voted once on this, and this is the vote on the financial implications. The bill is supported by the Department of Education. The Finance Committee recommends that Senate Bill 24-FN-L Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 33-FN, relative to retired state employee contributions for medical benefits costs. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator D'Allesandro for the committee.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 33-FN Ought to Pass. This bill was a request by the Department of Administrative Services to establish a procedure for the Department to invoice and collect from retired state employees under the age of 65 who are receiving health benefits and who do not receive a retirement allowance.

Senate Bill 33 will also allow the retirement system to deduct from the monthly retirement allowance of a retired state employee under the age of 65 premium contribution amounts. Further, this bill authorizes the Department of Administrative Services to act on failure to remit payment of contribution amounts.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 34-FN, relative to orders of notice in guardianship cases; relative to approvals of marriages for persons under 18 years of age by the judicial branch family division; and relative to the adjudicatory hearing date in child protection cases. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 34-FN Ought to Pass. This bill deals with orders of notice in cases involving guardianships of minors, and was filed at the request of the Supreme Court.

The bill clearly states that it is the court's responsibility to send out orders of notice, but that the petitioner will be charged for the cost, consistent with what is done in similar other court processes.

The legislation before you adds two Family Division-related matters. The first clarifies that all approvals for underage marriages will be handled by the Family Division. This is consistent with the philosophy of having one court for all family matters.

Furthermore, the bill involves scheduling of adjudicatory hearings in abuse and neglect petitions. Under existing law, all petitions must be heard within 30 days. The bill also clarifies that in cases where a child is placed outside the home and away from parents, a hearing would still be required within 30 days, but for children remaining in the home, hearings would have to be held within 60 days, which is consistent with the national standard in these cases. This ensures that children placed outside the home will continue to receive priority hearings, but that with the current court demands, those cases involving children who remain in their homes do not have to have priority over other family cases.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 39, relative to enforcement of the excavation tax by the department of revenue administration. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-2. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 39 Inexpedient to Legislate. The Committee feels that the Department of Revenue does not have the ability at this time to assess the level of administrative fines for violations of the excavation tax. We believe that the court system has in place today is functioning well. Overall, there were good intentions put into this bill, but it is not the appropriate time for an adjustment of the management.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of ITL.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 130-FN-A, repealing the tax on gambling winnings. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator D'Allesandro for the committee.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 130-FN Ought to Pass. This bill repeals the 10 percent tax on gambling winnings that was enacted as part of the budget in 2009.

The Committee believes that this tax is unfair, causing New Hampshire residents to buy their lottery tickets from out of state, and people from the State of Massachusetts who had come to New Hampshire to buy tickets were discouraged from coming because of the 10 percent tax. Each month, we continue to see decreases in lottery sales.

As a state that emphasizes tourism, this tax is hurting us, and the numbers clearly indicate that.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 146-FN, relative to requiring submission of a reduced spending alternative as part of the biennial budget process. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 146 Ought to Pass. This legislation requires submission of a reduced spending alternative as part of the biennial budget process.

The intent of this legislation is to require state agencies to submit a reduced spending level alternative as part of the biennial budget process – which I just said. There is no question that the budget process is lengthy, convoluted, and oftentimes frustrating. At times, we can see upwards of five budgets before a compromise is reached, and this legislation would provide a more efficient process. By asking the Governor to submit his documents at 95 percent to ensure a more informative and accurate budget for state agencies to use in their calculations, not only will this legislation create a more open and transparent process, but it will also allow legislators to begin working on a budget come day one.

Therefore, the Finance Committee recommends that Senate Bill 146 Ought to Pass, and thank you for your support.

SB 181-FN-L, relative to distribution of funds for education. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 181 be rereferred to committee. This legislation extends the provisions for determining the total state aid for education and excess tax payments for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2015.

The intent of this legislation was to be an extension of the collar. However, with the widespread bipartisan support of the education funding reform legislation written by Senator Rausch and Senator Stiles, the Finance Committee recommends that this bill be rereferred to committee and asks for your undivided support.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 183-FN-L, amending the calculation and distribution of adequate education grants, repealing fiscal capacity disparity aid, and providing stabilization grants to certain municipalities. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 183 Ought to Pass. Education funding in New Hampshire has been on a rollercoaster ride. A series of well-intended plans and compromises have all led to constant uncertainty regarding funding at both the state and local level.

The legislation before you creates a funding mechanism that is predictable, stable, sustainable, and affordable. This legislation will repeal the current provisions requiring that excess statewide education tax payments be remitted to the Department of Revenue Administration, and allow instead for municipalities to retain any excess education tax revenues.

The bill sets the amounts of differentiated aid at $1,725 for each pupil for the free or reduced price meal program, eliminates donor towns and fiscal disparity aid – two of the most divisive elements of the school funding formula – while still maintaining all of the components and base funding of adequacy.

Overall, it gives our local communities what they require as it stops the battles between winning and losing communities. Most importantly, Senate Bill 183 ties our education dollars directly to children that it is meant to support. Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to SB 183. We have come so far here in the Legislature to implementing a constitutional education funding formula that is based on the principle that the State has a responsibility to ensure that our students have an equal opportunity for an education that will prepare them for the future. We as legislators instituted a funding formula that provides funding for every student in New Hampshire and provides additional funding for those students with additional needs.

We realize and we understand that not all New Hampshire schools and communities are able to provide the same funding for their students. Fiscal capacity funding equalized these differences, providing an equal opportunity for all of our students. This legislation eliminates fiscal capacity and instead provides a state grant without any basis for calculating for that grant. My fear and my concern is that this state grant becomes an arbitrary funding amount with no basis or criteria for funding.

I also hear a lot of comments referring to winners and losers. However, I believe that educational funding based on ensuring equal opportunity is a win-win for all of us; students win – all students win – with a 21st century education for themselves. And we, we all win, because the result is a win for our economic growth for all of our communities if our students are educated and trained.

I believe that this legislation is a slippery slope that will take us backwards, and ask my colleagues to vote against this legislation. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I rise to offer a cautionary tale. I have been around here 15 years, and one of the reasons I came to the Senate was to work on education funding. When I came to the Senate, the State was spending in the vicinity of $57 million on educational aid to the cities and towns. We had a Claremont decision; I brought in a bill to fund – prior to the Claremont decision, I brought in a bill to fund the education funding formula that, at that time, was part of the Augenblick Formula. Instead of our paying the full fare for Augenblick Formula, the Legislature continued to say that education was a local responsibility and that the State had no role to play. So, my bill to fund the Augenblick Formula that had been agreed to through a court action with the State and the courts cost $60 million, but it was rejected. We have been through many years of education funding debate, and we have moved this state dramatically in terms of relieving some of the property tax burden caused on our localities because we have picked up the mantle of what I believe is the State's responsibility to educate our kids, to even that educational opportunity across communities, so that a child who is born in Pittsfield has the same chance as a child who's born in Amherst. So, a child who has the ability to move into another community is not dependent just on that community to educate them; our children don't stay in their communities like they used to when we were farm communities. Our children move within our state and they move out of our state, and it's to our state's best interest to educate and to equalize educational opportunity.

What we did in previous years was, in fact, pass a constitutionally approved education funding formula that would have increased the educational opportunities to children all across the state. It was found constitutional, and it makes sense. I understand we are in a time of economic difficulty now, and I applaud Senators Stiles and Rausch for working through another way to get to that. I am not certain that eliminating the fiscal disparity aid makes sense, because it then turns us to a world where we have to have a constitutional amendment in order to target aid to those most needy communities. But, I understand the world we are in. I only caution you that we should not and must not allow this state to return to a point where the only way we pay for education is we look in our pockets and say, "Well, I've got $10 here – which I just happen to have – and I can pay for education with that. And, that's what I'm going to spend on education this year and I'm going to make that formula match what I'm willing to spend." Because, we know that there are times when education is the most important thing we can offer in terms of the economic health of our state, and the opportunity for young people in our state to better their lives.

So, I say we need to continue to watch these funding formulas and to monitor ourselves that we are not just educating based on how many dollars we have in our pockets. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: I forgot to thank Senators Stiles and Rausch, and I'd like to do so, as Senator Larsen did. And, I'd also like to make it clear that in this legislation, as the Governor requested, we funded education at $578 million, and I'd like to remind all the Senators that the Governor put that in his plan in the budget that is in the House right now. So, as we debate, I would hope we support this so that when that legislation changes, possibly, in the budget now, we will put it back in the budget when it gets over here, and we will fight for the Senate's budget on education, which is to keep towns whole at $578 million. Thank you.

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

SB 164, relative to the personal needs allowance of residents of nursing homes. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 164 as Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 164 sets the current personal needs allowance for nursing home residents on Medicaid as the minimum amount permitted by law.

The Commissioner of Health and Human Services set the base rate of the personal needs allowance as $56 a month in 2005, and was given authority to increase this base rate every five years to account for cost of living increases.

Based upon a set of guidelines, the Commissioner raised the personal needs allowance by $9 a month in July of 2010. This legislation does not raise the personal needs allowance; it simply sets into statute existing policy.

The personal needs allowance for nursing home residents on Medicaid is currently set at $65 per month, and SB 164 ensures that this amount is the baseline, and that the law clarifies that the personal needs allowance shall never go below that amount.

The personal needs allowance is the amount of money a nursing home resident retains of his or her personal income before their living facility acquires the rest of their pay for the cost of care. The personal needs allowance is the only resource for these seniors. It allows them to afford basic living needs, such as haircuts, clothing, local telephone service. The current personal needs allowance barely leaves room for purchasing as much as a birthday card for a grandchild. $65 a month, $2.16 a day: this is the rate that the Commission of Health and Human Services has deduced as the lowest reasonable personal needs allowance for our nursing home residents on Medicaid.

In order to show our respect for the dignity of New Hampshire residents, the Health and Human Services Committee recommends that the Senate Bill 164 Ought to Pass, and we ask for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. There are 4,600 nursing home residents who are low-income and that qualify for the State's Medicaid allotted nursing home residency and personal needs allowance. These are folks who amazingly are able to make it on $55 a month. It's surprising to find that they have to pay privately for their hair to be washed, and many people of course can't wash their own hair, and the haircuts certainly need to be done. And so, these allowances are relied upon by those who, then, as we heard, perhaps if there's anything left, they want to be able to buy a birthday card for their grandchild. It was wonderful that the Committee saw this need and recognized the importance of providing to those who are receiving this personal allowance and assurance that it will not fall back to the level that the statute says of $56, but will in fact remain – this will be some protection and assurances to the elderly people in our nursing homes that this personal allowance will not fall back. So, I thank the favorable reception of the Committee, and I hope that the Senate receives this bill favorably as well. For those who might be listening, I hope they understand that we may table this bill later in order for us to find time to meet with our House colleagues and make sure that this bill is handled as compassionately in the House as it has been in the Senate. So, if we table it, it would allow us time to make sure that it is received and welcomed, and I hope that in the Senate, sending a message through this subsequent roll call, that we support this, that it will send a message to the House that this is an important allowance that provides as very basic minimum needs of folks who are in our nursing homes. Thank you for this time, and I ask for your favorable support for this bill.

SB 30, relative to including a parent's residence in the parenting plan. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

Senate Judiciary
February 18, 2011
2011-0409s
05/04

Amendment to SB 30

Amend RSA 461-A:4, III as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. If the parents have joint decision-making responsibility under RSA 461-A:5, the parenting plan shall include the legal residence of each parent unless the court finds that there is a history of domestic abuse or stalking or that including such information would not be in the best interest of the child. If the parenting plan includes a parent's residence, the parent shall be responsible for promptly notifying the court and the other parent of any change in residence. The failure to provide such information may result in a finding of contempt of court.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 30. This legislation requires that the parenting plan include the legal residence of each parent unless the court finds that such disclosure would not be in the best interest of the child or there is a presence of abuse within the family. This information is already required to be included in all documents filed in the Family Division, but in some instances, individuals are not providing updated addresses to the court. The amendment clarifies that the information will be provided in a prompt manner, and that the court may issue a finding of contempt for failure to comply.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that Senate Bill 30 be adopted with amendment and asks for your support. Thank you.

SB 108, relative to emergency obstetrical care. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-1. Senator Houde for the committee.

Senate Judiciary
February 18, 2011

05/04

Amendment to SB 108

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Section; Emergency Obstetrical Care; Immunity From Civil Liability. Amend RSA 508 by inserting after section 17-a the following new section:

508:17-b Emergency Obstetrical Care; Immunity From Civil Liability. A physician, advanced practice registered nurse, midwife, or physician assistant credentialed to provide obstetrical care who renders emergency obstetrical care in a licensed health care facility to a female where the female has not previously been cared for in connection with the pregnancy by such physician, midwife, physician assistant, or advanced practice registered nurse shall not be liable for any damages or injuries caused by conduct prior to the rendering of the emergency obstetrical care.

This bill grants immunity to physicians, advanced practice registered nurses, midwives, or physician assistants who render emergency care to pregnant women under certain circumstances.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 108. This legislation intended to address the difficulty some hospitals, especially those in the North Country, are having in finding providers willing to give emergency obstetrical care. The bill would grant immunity from liability for a physician or healthcare provider credentialed to provide obstetrical care in a licensed medical facility for acts taken or care given prior to the emergency care.

The most important and overriding concern is the safety of the baby and mother in these instances, and providers shouldn't hesitate to provide care based on concerns of liability accruing to them for the care provided previously by others not affiliated with the facility. But, I want to be very clear that if any healthcare provider acts negligently in the care they do provide, he or she would still be liable for their actions, just not for the treatment given by some other provider prior to that emergency situation or their involvement.

The committee amendment removes one sentence from the bill as introduced, that some felt was either confusing or didn't clarify when immunity from liability was actually available.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that Senate Bill 108 be adopted with amendment and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 139-FN, relative to state recoveries of public assistance caused by fraud. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 139-FN. This legislation will enable the Department of Justice to conserve investigative resources in cases brought under the false claims statute. Because of previously enacted legislation, New Hampshire gets named in an average of 70 cases per year. Whether we have the whistleblower statute on the books or not, New Hampshire will still be entitled to be paid between 15 and 18% of the recovery in the settlements. Enacting this legislation merely enables us to not have to carry these cases on our books.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that Senate Bill 139-FN be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass.

Floor Amendment to SB 139-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. The only thing the amendment does is addresses the date of passage, and the bill should take effect upon passage.

In putting the legislation together, the perception was that you would default to the effective upon passage under current rules; it didn't do that. So, effective upon passage is what we would like, and this will allow us to be more operative in terms of creating savings for the State in a more efficient and effective manner. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

SB 94, relative to state certification of community residences in municipalities with zoning ordinances which accommodate certified community residences. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 94 rereferred to committee. This bill establishes that when a municipality has zoning ordinances which accommodate certified community residences in certain areas within the municipality, the State shall not certify a community residence for location in an area of a municipality which is not zoned for such residence without the approval of the municipal planning board.

There are three different and distinct courses of action, or legal theories, involved in this bill. First and foremost are two New Hampshire State Supreme Court cases on municipal zoning power. Applicable aspects of the workforce housing law also are in play in this bill, not to mention possible violations of the federal Fair Housing Act.

Due to the extensive testimony and documentation received during the hearing and the many lingering questions surrounding this bill, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 94 be rereferred to the committee and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Amendment to SB 104

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to certain agricultural operations and certain bonds for excavation and driveways.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Bond; Application to Vehicles Carrying Commodities. Amend RSA 236:10 to read as follows:

236:10 Regulations; Bond. The person or entity giving such written permission may make rules and regulations to govern the excavation and restoration of such highway and may require that a bond satisfactory to such person or entity be furnished to the state, city, or town providing for the satisfactory restoration of the highway. The bond requirements shall be equitably and reasonably applied to other bonded vehicles using the highway. The type of commodity being transported shall not be the determining factor for requiring a bond or the dollar amount of the bond. The person or entity providing the bond shall determine the type of bond furnished and it may be in the form of cash, letter of credit from a bank or lending institution licensed in New Hampshire and acceptable to the person giving written permission, or a bond furnished by an insurance company. The person or entity granting permission shall not arbitrarily withhold funds from any cash bond or letter of credit, but shall first make a good faith effort to resolve any differences with the contractor doing the excavation or restoration.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Requires bonds for restoration of municipal highways after excavations be equitably and reasonably applied to all bonded vehicles using the municipal highway and prohibits the type of commodity carried by a vehicle from being the determining factor in either the requirement of such bond or fixing the dollar amount of such bond.

II. Allows zoning ordinances to be designed to protect agricultural operations.

III. Prohibits planning boards from regulating timber harvesting operations that are not part of a subdivision application or a development project subject to a site plan review.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 104 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill prohibits a town or city from requiring road maintenance bonds as a prerequisite for signing an intent to cut. It allows zoning ordinances to be designed to protect agricultural operations, and it prohibits planning boards from regulating timber harvesting operations that are not part of a subdivision application or a development project subject to a site plan review.

Mister President, during the course of the hearing on this bill, the question arose in terms of what bonded vehicles and the commodities that they carried – there was a concern that road agents and boards of selectmen could arbitrarily choose which one they wanted to require to have to post a bond. So, a group of stakeholders got together under the capable leadership of our Chairman and put together an amendment. And, that amendment that was introduced would allow bonds for restoration of municipal highways after excavations, but would require that they be equitably and reasonably applied to all bonded vehicles using the municipal highway. The amendment prohibits the type of commodity carried by the vehicle, for example, logs or heating oil, from being the determining factor in either the requirement of such a bond or fixing the dollar amount of such a bond.

Mister President, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 104 be adopted as amended and asks for your support.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to SB 135-FN-A

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 General Content of Return. Amend RSA 659:73 to read as follows:
659:73 General Content of Return.

1. The election return forms shall be submitted on paper and electronically immediately after the completion of the vote count in the manner prescribed by the secretary of state. The return of votes shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) The name of each candidate printed on the ballot and the number of votes that candidate received for the listed office including any write-in votes for the same office on the same ballot where the voter did not mark the printed candidate name.

(b) ~~[For each office, the number by which the total number of votes that could have been cast for that office exceeds the total number of votes actually cast for that office.]~~

(c) ~~For each office, the number of potential votes not counted because the voter marked more candidates than permitted. The totals for subparagraphs (b) and (c) may be reported together as a single number.~~

(d) For each office the total number of votes cast for each write-in candidate who received 5 or more votes and the candidate's name, along with the aggregate number of all other write-in votes cast for each candidate receiving less than 5 votes, excluding write-in votes for candidates whose names were printed on the ballot where the voter did not mark the printed candidate name and the vote is reported under subparagraph (a).

~~[(e) (c) For any question submitted to the voters:~~

~~(1) The number of affirmative votes.~~

~~(2) The number of negative votes.~~

~~[(3) The number of ballots where the voter did not cast a vote.~~

~~(4) The number of ballots where the ballot was not counted because the voter marked both yes and no.~~

~~(f) The number of voters who voted in person on election day checked off on the checklist as having voted.~~

~~(g) The number of absentee voters checked off on the checklist as having voted.~~

~~(h) The number of official ballots received from the secretary of state brought to the polling place on election day, excluding ballots marked as test ballots and used prior to election day to test a ballot counting machine.~~

~~(i) The number of official ballots cast on election day.~~

~~(j) If the polling place runs out of official ballots, the number of absentee ballots used as official ballots and cast.~~

~~(k) If the polling place runs out of official ballots, the number of photocopy ballots used as official ballots and cast.~~

~~(l) The number of Accessible Voting System ballots cast.~~

~~(m) The number of state absentee ballots cast.~~

~~(n) The number of federal offices only absentee ballots cast.~~

~~(o) The number of state write-in absentee ballots cast.~~

~~(p) The number of federal write-in absentee ballots cast.~~

~~(q) (d) In a primary, the number of ballots cast for each party.~~

(e) In a general election, the number of ballots cast.

~~[(r) The number of people who registered to vote on election day.~~

~~(s) The number of undeclared voters that cast ballots for each party at a state primary election.~~

~~(t) The number of undeclared voters that returned to undeclared after voting in a state primary election.]~~

II. Within 24 hours of the closing of the polls, the moderator shall forward to the secretary of state a list of all write-in candidates receiving between one and 4 votes in the election.

III. The secretary of state shall provide guidance for completing the return of votes in the election procedure manual issued pursuant to RSA 652:22. The secretary of state may provide an electronic version of the return of votes capable of being used on a computer at the polling place to assist moderators and clerks in completing and submitting the paper and electronic forms.

IV. The moderator shall fill out a worksheet prepared by the secretary of state, which shall be recorded and signed by the moderator within 24 hours of the closing of the polls and submitted to the clerk. The worksheet shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) The number of official ballots received from the secretary of state brought to the polling place by the city or town clerk on election day, excluding ballots marked as test ballots and used prior to election day to test a ballot counting machine.

(b) The number of official ballots cast on election day.

(c) If the polling place runs out of official ballots, the number of absentee ballots used as official ballots and cast.

(d) If the polling place runs out of official ballots, the number of photocopy ballots used as official ballots and cast.

(e) The number of Accessible Voting System ballots cast.

(f) The number of state absentee ballots cast.

(g) The number of federal offices only absentee ballots cast.

(h) The number of state write-in absentee ballots cast.

(i) The number of federal write-in absentee ballots cast.

(j) A comparison of the different methods of tallying ballots cast.

V. The moderator shall record and sign a names on checklist form within 24 hours of the closing of the polls, unless the secretary of state directs otherwise, and shall submit the form to the secretary of state, with a copy to the clerk. The names on checklist form shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) The number of people who registered to vote on election day.

(b) For each party, the total number of voters registered as members of the party.

(c) The number of undeclared voters that cast ballots for each party at a state or presidential primary election.

(d) The number of undeclared voters that returned to undeclared after voting in a state or presidential primary election.

VI. The moderator shall record and sign a ballots cast form within 24 hours of the closing of the polls and shall submit the form to the secretary of state, with a copy to the clerk. The ballots cast form shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) The number of voters who voted in person on election day checked off on the checklist as having voted.

(b) The number of absentee voters checked off on the checklist as having voted.

VII. The town or city clerk may require that forms be completed under this section earlier than the time required by the secretary of state.

Amend the bill by replacing section 5 with the following:

5 Preservation of Checklists. Amend RSA 659:102 to read as follows:

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 135 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Last year, we passed legislation enabling New Hampshire to comply with the requirements of the federal Military and Overseas Voters Empowerment Act. The purpose of M.O.V.E. is to ensure that our military personnel and others living overseas have sufficient opportunity to vote by absentee ballot.

At the state level, this means that ballots must be ready to send 45 days before an election. In New Hampshire, where our primary election can be particularly close in time to the general election, this causes a logistical challenge for local election officials, who must convey primary election data to the Secretary of State's Office in a very short timeframe.

The bill before us today, Senate Bill 135, will relieve some of that time pressure by amending the deadlines for data reporting to the Secretary of State. Town officials will still need to report critical election results by 8:00 a.m. of the day after the election. However, additional data will not be due until 24 hours after the closing of the polls. This bill will reduce the stress placed on local election officials during the last election.

Please join the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee in voting Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 135. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The clerk shall preserve such checklists in his or her custody for a public record for a period set forth in RSA 33-A:3-a.

SENATOR STILES: This amendment is consistent with the committee amendment, except that it extends the hours from 24 to 48 hours for the clerks to get the information back to the Secretary of State.

We heard from a few of the town clerks that they would prefer to have more than 24 hours to get the detailed information put together. Working with the Secretary of State's Office, this amendment extends those hours, while still giving the Secretary of State the opportunity to move it back to 24 hours should the time between a primary and general election, or other reasons, dictate the need.

You will note the changes in hours from 24 to 48 on page 2, lines 18 and 26, and on page 3, on lines 6 and 18. There are also two language changes. The Secretary of State's recommendation, page 2, line 25, the word "worksheet" has been changed to "certificate", and on line 31, the word "machine" has been changed to "device".

I ask that we give our local clerks the extra time, if necessary, working with the Secretary of State's Office, and ask you to vote Ought to Pass on this amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of the floor amendment, and would think that our local officials would, too. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White for a question of Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I'm wondering if there's a problem on page 2, line 28, because you did change the word to "certificate", but then you've got "worksheet" here; do we have consistency in the language, or did I misunderstand that part of the amendment?

SENATOR STILES: Thank you for the question. I would trust the Secretary of State's Office with identifying the difference between "certificate" and "worksheet". So, I think it's appropriate to leave them as it is.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 169-FN, relative to campaign expenditures and contributions by business organizations and labor unions. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-1. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 169-FN Inexpedient to Legislate. A basic tenet of constitutional law, and New Hampshire election law, as well, according to our Secretary of State's Office, expressly forbids the singling-out of specific political committees such as business organizations or a labor union from different treatment than other political committees with regard to contributions and frequency of reporting requirements for political committees.

Senate Bill 169-FN, if adopted as written, will undermine the basic principles of equal treatment under the law by singling out business organizations and labor unions for different treatment than a person or other political committee.

After discussing the bill, including two amendments the bill sponsors alluded to, the Committee concluded the current political contribution and reporting and disclosure requirements are adequate.

Mister President, I'd just like to note that last session, House Bill 1367 – very similar to this Senate Bill 169 – came to the Senate, we put it out of the Senate committee and it was laid on the table for reasons similar to what I have stated in my remarks. That said, Mister President, I ask that the Senate accept the recommendation of the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee of Inexpedient to Legislate for Senate Bill 169. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. And, Senator Boutin, I'm sorry that the Secretary of State was unable to join us for our hearing on 169; I think it would have furthered our discussion of issues that you've raised, and others.

Senate Bill 169 addresses the issue of large independent expenditures and contributions that have the potential to have a significant impact on New Hampshire's political process. This bill does so solely through the implementation of reporting requirements for business organizations and labor unions, in addition to the political committees established by those entities.

Current New Hampshire law does not require the reporting of independent expenditures made directly from the general treasury funds of business organizations and labor unions. New Hampshire remains the only state in the Northeast without such reporting.

It's important to emphasize that Senate Bill 169 contains no restrictions or prohibitions on expenditures or contributions. It is about one thing only: giving our citizens the full picture of who is participating in our elections through financial contribution. I urge my colleagues to support campaign finance disclosure by overturning the Inexpedient to Legislate motion. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. And, the good Senator Merrill mentioning the absence of the Secretary of State's Office when this bill was heard, that is correct; the Secretary of State's Office was in the House at the time. I did go and speak with the Secretary of State's Office, did receive a memo from the Secretary of State's Office regarding Senate Bill 169. And, I was told that the Secretary of State's Office was in complete comfort with this being revealed on the Senate floor: Basically, the remarks, Senator Merrill, that I read, is a reflection of the Secretary of State's Office about the different treatment, and also about the... The Secretary of State's Office also made a big point of the burden that it would place on their office for the additional reporting requirements. And, what's important to understand is that if you're concerned about disclosure, transparency, whatever, all these organizations, whether it's a business organization or if it's a labor union or if it's an individual, and they write a check to us, we have to report it on our form, and there's a reporting schedule. Now, you suggest that all these different business organizations and labor unions who already are reported on the candidate form will now have to do their own separate reporting, and the Secretary of State's Office indicated that that would be a substantial burden on their office. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I will be mercifully brief in my comments; Senator Merrill has completely captured everything that I would have noted.

The only point that I feel compelled to articulate is, with all due respect and deference to the Secretary of State's Office and the input that they would provide, it is this body's and the Legislature's responsibility to pass policy and to pass bills that we feel are important to the State of New Hampshire's election laws and transparency. That's my only comment. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I can't promise to be mercifully brief. But, I will say that I think the most important thing for us to consider today is the ability of our voters and those who are participating in the election process to know where the funding is coming from when we are being advertised to. And, for us to be able to see whether it's on the Republican side, Democratic side, Independent side, Tea Party side, who's paying for our elections? And, when you know that, when you're being advertised to and you know where it's coming from, that gives you greater information as a voter. And, I think that overused word, "transparency", is important to the election process. And, if there's a way that we can find to have that reporting occur and make it more open and sun shine on those spendings in our election process, all of those advertising pieces that so many citizens we heard from saying, "Give us a break; this is endless," at least they know where it's coming from, and that's what this bill was seeking to do. And, I think it's one which we need to keep a focus on, that we still need to correct this problem. And, while I understand the votes are there to make Inexpedient to Legislate Senate Bill 169, I think it's important to recognize the importance of sunshine on all of our election process. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill for a question of Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. Thank you, Senator Larsen. Senator Larsen, is it your understanding that currently, business organizations and labor unions do not have to report on so-called "independent expenditures"?

SENATOR LARSEN: That's my understanding. If it's a PAC, making a contribution to PAC in the last few weeks, they are required to file immediately – if it's over $500 – to file immediately with the Secretary of State. But, if it's an independent contribution, the filing is not required.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Senator Larsen.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley for Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Senator Boutin, could you outline for us the disclosure requirements that we all have to go through whenever we get a donation of over $100, and how often we would have to do that starting after the June filing period?

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you for the question. Senator Bradley. There is a framework in our RSA 664; I don't have the statute with me, so I don't know the exact reporting. But, it's frequent enough. And, we do have to report by name, address, who donated; if it's a business organization, you report that, if it's from a labor union, we report it, if it's from an individual. The matter of this issue is that you can't differentiate between... In New Hampshire law – forget about federal law, forget about election law in any other State – in New Hampshire law, business organizations, labor unions, and a person are all the same. You cannot treat them differently. So, XYZ Pizza wants to give me a check, or Senator Larsen a check, they're allowed to do that. And so, that's the underlying, or the root problem with this particular bill, and I would be happy to work with Senator Houde if he'd like to work on this for next session to see if we can craft something that would get at what he would like to do, but I don't think that this bill, with all due respect, gets to where he wants to get. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Houde, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Houde, Kelly, Larsen, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

WAYS AND MEANS

SB 23-FN, establishing a revenue assistant position within the department of justice. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 6-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 23 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill was requested by the Department of Revenue Administration that sought to establish a revenue assistant position within the Department of Justice to represent the Department of Revenue in various court cases.

Ultimately, the Department of Revenue was not able to find sufficient funding for the position as required by the legislation. As a result, the Commissioner expressed his understanding of our inability to move forward with the bill due to the budget constraints we currently face.

Therefore, the Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 78-FN-A-L, relative to motor vehicle registration fees. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-1. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 78 Ought to Pass. This bill eliminates the $30 dollar surcharge on motor vehicle registration fees enacted in 2009. This surcharge was initially agreed upon as a compromise during the budget process, and was intended to be temporary for only a two-year period.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise in opposition for the following reasons: The bill says "effective upon passage". The budget was built with these revenues through the 30th of June. The bill sunsets, or the registration fee sunsets, at the end of the fiscal year. So, that situation, I think, is important, because it costs $5 million if indeed that happens. And, I recognize the fact that this is a serious consideration among our constituents. By the same token, the dollars going to the Department of Transportation and the Department of Safety are very important in terms of our roads and bridges on the DOT side and our State Police on the Department of Safety side.

This particular piece of legislation was worth $90 million: $45 million a year. The withdrawal of this piece of legislation in the succeeding budgets for '12 and '13 will be the loss of $90 million worth of revenue. That revenue went back to cities and towns, to betterment, which means our bridges and our roads will not be getting any money unless that money is supplanted by general fund monies. That means $90 million must be found. And, there's been a reticence on the part of the House to come up with revenue-producing measures. So, I just want you to take these things into consideration. The cities and towns that you represent will not be getting betterment money. That money goes to fix bridges and to repair roads. All of you recognize the fact that we have red-lined bridges in the State of New Hampshire. If you'd been driving down the F.E. Everett Turnpike to Manchester, you'd notice that both of those bridges are red-lined, and every time you go under them, you're running a risk, and you see the little wooden house that's built underneath one of our bridges right now, that's constantly under repair. I drive through those bridges every day, I drive right under those bridges every day, and obviously, I am concerned about their ability to sustain the traffic that goes over them. Roads, bridges: very important. Some of that money goes to State Police. As I say, that money has to be, has to be, supplanted with general funds in order to sustain our safety and the credibility of our roads. I think that's something we all ought to know, we ought to be attentive to that fact as the budget moves across from the House to the Senate. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 126-FN, relative to net operating loss carryovers under the business profits tax. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 126 Ought to Pass. This bill increases the net operating loss carry-forward threshold from a very limited $1 million to $10 million.

The purpose of the net operating loss credit is to allow businesses to use losses in one year to offset profits in other years. This enables businesses who are suffering to recover more quickly and to invest their profits back into hiring and other areas that will ultimately lead to more profitability.

In addition, fast-growing startups can throw off losses for several of its early years, and a limited carry loss would cripple them in this situation.

This legislation is important in order to support our business community and enhance New Hampshire as a business-friendly state. We currently rank 50th in terms of our net operating loss cap. Most states and the federal government allow a two-year carry-back and a 20-year carry-forward, with an unlimited cap. New Hampshire has no carry-back provision and has a 10-year carry-forward. In this extremely difficult business climate, raising the net operating loss threshold from $1 million to $10 million is the right thing to do for businesses.

Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 131-FN, repealing the exemption for water and air pollution control facilities from local property taxation. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 6-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 131 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill sought to repeal the exemption from property taxes for the appraised value of water and air pollution control facilities as determined by the apartment of Department of Environmental Services.

This bill would treat certain companies' equipment as taxable property. More than 40 other states have similar provisions for companies to have their water and air pollution control systems exempt from property taxation. A repeal of this exemption would put New Hampshire companies at a competitive disadvantage, and also send a negative message to any companies looking to relocate here.

If this bill were to pass, utility companies would pass the increased taxes directly on to their customers. Others that would be negatively impacted, including the Mount Washington Hotel, Monadnock Paper, and Berlin Paper Mill, would also be impacted by a repeal of the exemption. These are companies who, in some cases, employ hundreds of individuals in the towns in which they are located, and they're our highest taxpayers, as well. This is not the time to be increasing taxes on our businesses.

The Ways and Means Committee asks your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate for Senate Bill 131. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 133-FN, relative to reestablishing the exemption from property taxation for telecommunications poles and conduits. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-2. Senator D'Allesandro for the committee.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 133 Ought to Pass. This bill reestablishes the property tax exemption for telecommunications poles and conduits.

When we enacted the communications service tax, it was intended to create a level playing field for wireless, wire-based, and satellite telecommunications providers. Part of maintaining that level playing field included the exemption of poles and conduits from property taxation. We passed a bill in the Senate last year to continue this exemption, but it was killed in the House.

Telecommunications poles and conduits have never been subject to local property taxation in this state. If we don't reinstate the exemption now, we will be subjecting poles and conduits to taxation for the first time, and this will ultimately be passed on and absorbed by New Hampshire taxpayers.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sens. Barnes, Forrester, and Stiles are in opposition to the motion of Ought to Pass on SB 133-FN.

SB 138-FN-A, eliminating the lottery commission and establishing the education lottery authority. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-1. Senator Rausch for the committee.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 138 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill was requested by the lottery commission and sought to allow them to operate more like a business by creating an education lottery authority.

While we commend the lottery commission for wanting to take steps to improve the efficiency of their operation, we believe a more careful and deliberative process, with thoughtful communication between the Legislature and the commission, must first take place. The State does rely heavily on revenues raised by the lottery commission, and there are ways to streamline and modernize the operations to achieve greater results, and we understand that the Governor's budget includes language to do just that.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 149-FN-A-L, relative to the rate of the meals and rooms tax and the distribution formula for meals and rooms tax revenue. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 6-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 149 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill sought to reduce the rate of the meals and rooms tax from 9 percent to 8 percent. It also sought to change the distribution formula for meals and room tax revenue distributed to towns and cities. When the rate was raised from 8 to 9 percent, an agreement was reached that would allocate a portion of the tax to promote travel and tourism.

There is no evidence to indicate that the increase of 1 percent in the meals and rooms tax rate has had any negative impact. Any rollback of the rate would eliminate the State's ability to invest in travel and tourism promotion to attract more business. Additionally, those entities who collect the tax on behalf of the State retain 3 percent for doing so.

The second half of this legislation would have altered the current meals and rooms tax revenue distribution formula to give more money back to certain towns or cities where the revenue is generated. That would pitch rich communities against poor communities, and the Department of Revenue indicated to the LBA that they don't have the necessary data to implement the proposed distribution formula.

SB 168-FN, conforming the interest and dividends tax to federal tax definitions. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 6-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

Senate Ways and Means
February 23, 2011
09/03

Amendment to SB 168-FN

Amend section 11 of the bill by replacing all after paragraph XII with the following:

XIII. RSA 77:14-a, relative to partnerships and limited liability companies.

XIV. RSA 77:14-b, relative to partners and members.

XV. RSA 77:14-c, relative to members of partnership or limited liability company outside the state.

XVI. RSA 77:14-d, relative to application of sections.

XVII. RSA 77:17-a, relative to small business corporation reports.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 168 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill seeks to simplify and modernize New Hampshire's incredibly outdated interest and dividends tax law.

The law was first enacted in 1923, and hasn't been updated to reflect modern economic and legal practices. I do believe that a few key events have happened in the financial market since 1923.

This bill contains the same language as last year's Senate Bill 497, which passed the Senate on a 24-0 vote but was subsequently killed in the House Ways and Means Committee. This bill will provide simplicity, clarity, and consistency. If you report interest and dividends tax to the federal government, you will pay 5 percent to New Hampshire; that speaks to the simplicity of it.

The bill eliminates 40 pages of administrative rules, and instead provides a simple one-page form that will help encourage compliance.

We understand that the DRA will be revising the current fiscal note, and we believe the ultimate fiscal impact of this bill will likely be close to revenue neutral.

The committee amendment simply makes some technical corrections to the bill.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR LARSEN: It's a simple one. Will Senate Bill 168 be going to Finance?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Senate Bill 168 is not scheduled to go to Finance.

SENATOR LARSEN: Then may I ask a question of Senator Morse?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Senator Morse has not spoken, though if he cares to speak to why this isn't going to Finance, then that would be allowed.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I'm just wondering why it's not going to Finance, Senator Morse.

SENATOR MORSE: I believe this is going to be revenue neutral. The legislation itself is just picking up a number from a form exactly the way the Department wanted the number to be picked up. And, I don't believe that there's going to be a revenue problem with this.

SENATOR LARSEN: And, the prior year's estimate of $11 to $12 million you think is not an accurate estimate?

SENATOR MORSE: No, and I think the Department, when they came to speak, spoke to that.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Bradley, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

(The Chair recognized Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. This month is the celebration of the French people. In America, we call it the Franco-American Day. There's an organization called Francophone, which is an international arm of the French people's celebration around the world. At 9:00 Monday morning in the Governor's chambers, we are going to have a proclamation. The people that are going to attend this celebration with us are the Consulate General of France, the Consulate General of Canada, and a delegate of Quebec. We're going to have the ceremonies at the proclamation with the Governor followed by a flag-raising, followed by a session in the Senate, where we will exchange gifts, or present gifts, to this delegation to honor the Franco people of the world. I'd like to take an opportunity to invite all the Senators to join us in that celebration. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, really some sad news. I'm sure some of you saw in the newspaper that our former Governor, former Speaker of the House, and just great public servant, Walter Peterson, is quite ill. Walter has stage IV cancer. He's being treated at the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Hanover.

Most of you know Walter because he's been on the scene in New Hampshire for most of our lives, having served as Speaker of the House of Representatives, President of the Constitutional Convention, Governor of the State of New Hampshire, President of Franklin Pierce, President of UNH. Walter's 88 years of age, and is probably the finest example of a public servant that any of us have ever seen, and the State of New Hampshire has been blessed with his presence for 88 years.

His condition is being treated at Hitchcock, and I would hope that those of you who know Walter would maybe give a call or drop a card to him at his home, and probably be in contact with his son, Andy, who's really handling the communications at this point in time. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. As some of you may know, my wife and I participate in an annual charity event called Saint Baldrick's that raises money and awareness, trying to help young kids who have cancer. And, we're having our annual event this Saturday. And, I invite all Senators and members of the gallery to come down and participate and help show kids who are suffering some real challenges that it will be okay. And, in solidarity with all these children that are coming to our fine establishment – I hope to see many of you there Saturday – we'll be giving free exceedingly close haircuts to show the children that it's an okay thing. So, I invite you all down on Saturday from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Without objection President Bragdon moved that all Rule 2-17's shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate.

MOTION TO RECESS TO CALL OF THE CHAIR

Sen. Bradley moved that the business of the day being completed, that the Senate recess to the Call of the Chair for the purposes of introducing legislation, referring bills to committee, scheduling hearings, sending and receiving messages, and processing enrolled bill reports and amendments and when we recess, we recess to the Call of the Chair.

Adopted. The Senate is in recess to the Call of the Chair.

HOUSE MESSAGE

The House of Representatives has passed Bills with the following titles, in the passage of which it asks the concurrence of the Senate:

HB 90, relative to enforcement of the requirement of boaters to have a safe boater education certificate.

HB 488-FN, relative to criminal records checks for employment with child day care agencies.

HB 510, requiring marital masters to be New Hampshire residents.

HB 511, relative to retired judges over 70 years of age.

HB 525, naming a bridge in the town of Merrimack in honor of Corporal Timothy Gibson, U.S.M.C.

HB 535, relative to the committee to study parole boards and parole board procedures.

HB 572-FN, relative to official oppression.

HB 634-FN, relative to payment of guardian ad litem and mediator fees in marital cases where the parties are indigent.

INTRODUCTION OF HOUSE BILLS

Sen. Bradley offered the following Resolution:

RESOLVED, That in accordance with the list in the possession of the Senate Clerk, the following House legislation shall be by this Resolution read a first and second time by the therein listed titles and referred to the therein designated committees.

Adopted.

First and Second Reading and Referral

HB 36-FN-L, reducing the fee for copies of birth certificates. (Ways and Means Committee.)

HB 90, relative to enforcement of the requirement of boaters to have a safe boater education certificate. (Transportation Committee.)

HB 91, relative to the reporting by state agencies with capital budget projects to the capital budget overview committee. (Capital Budget Committee.)

HB 111, relative to redispensing unused drugs. (Health and Human Services Committee.)

HB 525, naming a bridge in the town of Merrimack in honor of Corporal Timothy Gibson, U.S.M.C. (Transportation Committee.)

Out of Recess. Call Senate to Order.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

March 16, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

In the early 400s, when Saint Patrick was captured by Irish pirates and dragged off to slavery as a shepherd, he had five years to think. Years after, he returned to that place of captivity, a cold and rocky wet place, not unlike New Hampshire in the spring.

He is known for his strategy: he took Druid pillars and put crosses on them. We can take a page from Saint Patrick's playbook, no matter what religion or perspective we hold on things spiritual. Patrick led by embracing hardship as a teaching tool, using silent captivity to search his heart rather than his head, and moved his agenda forward by carving signs into stone rather than messages into flesh. As leaders, our calling is to lead with strong tenderness, not weak power plays. Let us pray.

God of all tenderness, so change our hearts and move within our souls that we, like the shepherds of every land, may learn that it is in silence and not in the debate that we will find our answers. Grant us the good use of our silence.

Amen.

Sen. Kelly led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. It's my pleasure to introduce two students from Ashland School. We have Abby Downing, who is a 14-year-old, grade 8, from Ashland. Her favorite school subject is language arts; her favorite book is White Fang. Extracurricular activities include softball, basketball, volleyball, after-school arts, and she is a member of the National Junior Honor Society. In the future, she hopes to have a farm and teach children how to ride horses. Welcome, Abby.

We also have Alannah LeBlanc; she lives in Hebron and attends Ashland. Her favorite school subject is math; her favorite book is L.A. Candy. Her extracurricular activities are cheerleading and softball, and in the future she hopes to go to medical school and become a doctor.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces that the following bills will not come to Finance: SB 12-FN, SB 13-FN, SB 14-FN, SB 70-FN, SB 75-FN, SB 77-FN, SB 79-FN, SB 83-FN, SB 84-FN, SB 132-FN-A-L, SB 134-FN, SB 142-FN, SB 152-FN, SB 155-FN-A, SB 162-FN, SB 167-FN-A-L, SB 182-FN-A-L.

SUSPENSION OF SENATE RULES

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate Rules be suspended in order to allow SB 156-FN-L to be reported out of the Commerce Committee, as the Committee acted after the Senate deadline.

The question is on the motion to suspend the rules. Adopted by necessary 2/3 vote.

COMMITTEE REPORTSSPECIAL ORDER

Without objection President Bragdon moved SB 3-FN-A-L be Special-Ordered to immediately following lunch.

COMMERCE

SB 70-FN, relative to remedies in landlord-tenant actions. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0.

Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I ask the Senate to vote down the motion to Rerefer. After the executive session on Senate Bill 70, members of the Commerce Committee have worked out a floor amendment that we believe all parties can agree to. Please join me in voting against the motion to Rerefer so that a substitute motion of Ought to Pass can be made and followed by a floor amendment. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Motion failed.

Sen. De Blois moved Ought to Pass.

Sen. Houde offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment to SB 70-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Remedies. Amend RSA 540-A:4, IX(b) to read as follows:

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (a), a landlord who violates RSA 540-A:3, VII shall be subject only to an award of actual damages, plus costs and reasonable attorneys fees.

(c) The provisions of subparagraph (a) shall not apply to petitions brought in good faith by a landlord or a tenant to determine whether a request for entry under RSA 540-A:3, V is reasonable and lawful.

2011-0866s

This bill shortens the time period during which a landlord is required to store a tenant's abandoned property. The bill also reduces the amount of damages available for violations of the requirement.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. The Commerce Committee heard a substantial amount of testimony from landlords regarding the burden of retaining a departed tenant's possessions for the current 28 days that is required, and the risks of failing to do so. They essentially lose a month's value in many cases, or incur costs for storage, while the tenant seldom returns for the possessions. We also heard of an unfortunate incident that cost a landlord substantially financially as a result of Consumer Protection Act provisions applied to her situation.

As such, the Committee agrees with reducing the time required for a landlord to maintain the possession of seven days, which is reflected in section 1 of Senate Bill 70 as introduced. However, section 2 of Senate Bill 70, as introduced, would have removed important consumer protections in their entirety. As such, the Committee has agreed, instead, to remove only the applicability of the Consumer Protection Act to the specific situation where a landlord disposes of a tenant's property prior to the seven days elapsing. Specifically, in such situation, a landlord will not be subject to an initial fine and threat of treble damages, but instead only for actual damages, as well as costs and reasonable attorneys' fees that may be incurred. Consumer protection provisions for other violations, including for heat, electric, and other utility services, remain.

As such, the Committee respectfully asks for your support of Senate Bill 70 as amended. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 77-FN, relative to the special fund for payment for second injuries under the workers' compensation law. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 77-FN be rereferred to committee. Senate Bill 77-FN would clarify when payments would be made from the special fund for second injuries under workers' compensation law. This bill would establish a special fund review board to hear appeals from the Commissioner of Labor's actions regarding requests for reimbursement from the special fund.

The Committee believes this legislation could benefit from some additional work. Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote to rerefer Senate Bill 77.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Amendment to SB 156-FN-LOCAL

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT authorizing retail vehicle dealers to act as agents of the division of motor vehicles for vehicle registrations and title applications.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Purpose.

I. This act known as the Electronic Vehicle Registration (EVR) law will allow New Hampshire residents to choose the most convenient place for them to register their newly purchased vehicle: their town or city hall or the New Hampshire dealership where it was purchased.

II. Currently, New Hampshire residents and businesses can only register their vehicles at town or city halls. In nearly 30 other states, customers can choose to electronically register their vehicle at the dealership. These dealers through an electronic intermediary securely and quickly electronically transmit the official local and state fees and data to the appropriate entity. This act seeks to replicate the success in those states.

III. This act will:

(a) Allow customers to securely register their vehicles at authorized dealerships but only at time of sale of the vehicle.

(b) Improve customer service at the towns, cities, state, and dealerships.

(c) Allow law enforcement access to temporary plate information.

(d) Allow New Hampshire dealers to collect and electronically remit the official fees, securely and promptly, to the towns or cities and the state as they have successfully done in other states.

(e) Allow towns and cities and the state to collect their respective revenues more quickly and safely.

(f) Allow towns and cities and the state to quickly integrate moneys and data into their respective accounting or related software.

IV. All current town revenues are to stay with the towns. The fees collected by dealer agents will be transmitted to the same government entity where the fees are currently sent or collected. This includes the registration permits fees (RSA 261:153, I), town clerk fee (RSA 261:152), title application fee (RSA 261:4, IV), municipal agent fee (RSA 261:74-d), waste reclamation fee (RSA 261:153, V), municipal transportation improvement fee (RSA 261:153, VI), collection of permit fees in unorganized places (RSA 261:160), and the public parking facilities fee (RSA 261:154).

2 New Paragraph; Notification of Unpaid Fines. Amend RSA 231:130-a by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. The town or city clerk may provide the notifications permitted by subparagraphs I(b) and I(c) to electronic vehicle registration integrators operating under an agreement with the department of safety pursuant to RSA 261:74-s.

3 New Sections; Definitions. Amend RSA 259 by inserting after section 29-a the following new sections:

259:29-b EVR Integrator. "EVR integrator" shall mean an electronic vehicle registration integrator who provides any necessary hardware, software, or network connections between dealer agents, the department, and towns for the electronic transmittal and receipt of registration and title data and money.

259:29-c EVR Program. "EVR program" means the electronic vehicle registration program that allows dealer agents to process motor vehicle registrations, permits for registration, or registration transfers and title applications in conjunction with the sale of a new or used vehicle by said dealer pursuant to RSA 261:74-h through 261:74-s.

4 Bond Required. Amend RSA 261:98, I to read as follows:

I.(a) Every retail vehicle dealer as defined in RSA 259:89-a, every auto wholesale dealer as defined in RSA 259:5-a, every automotive recycling dealer as specified by RSA 261:123, and certain utility dealers as defined by RSA 259:121 if required by rule of the commissioner, shall obtain a bond or equivalent proof of financial responsibility as described in paragraph VI, and continue in effect a surety bond or other equivalent proof of financial responsibility satisfactory to the department in the amount of $25,000 executed by a surety company authorized to transact business in the state by the insurance department.

(b) The bond or its equivalent shall only be for the benefit of:

(1) A natural person who purchases a vehicle from a dealer, an automotive recycling dealer, or a utility dealer, and who suffers loss on account of:

[(a)] (A) The dealer's default or nonpayment of all valid bank drafts, including checks, drawn by the dealer for the purchase of motor vehicles;

[(b)] (B) The dealer's failure to deliver in conjunction with the sale of a motor vehicle a valid motor vehicle title certificate free and clear of any prior owner's interests and all liens except a lien created by or expressly assumed in writing by the buyer of the vehicle;

[(c)] (C) The motor vehicle purchased from the dealer was stolen; or [(d)] (D) The dealer's intentional or knowing failure to disclose the vehicle's actual mileage at the time of sale.

(2) A New Hampshire town or city or the state of New Hampshire which suffers loss on account of:

(A) The dealer's failure to collect all official fees related to motor vehicle registration, permits for registration, registration transfer, and title applications required and permitted under this chapter; or

(B) The dealer's nonpayment of all official fees collected to register a motor vehicle, issue a permit for registration, transfer a registration, or title a vehicle.

(c) Subparagraph (b)(2) shall apply to only those dealers who are dealer agents appointed pursuant to RSA 261:74-h. Subparagraph (b)(2), if applicable, shall not require the dealer to obtain a separate bond.

5 New Subdivision; Registration by Dealer Agents. Amend RSA 261 by inserting after section 74-g the following new subdivision:

Registration by Dealer Agents

261:74-h Appointment of Dealer Agents. Subject to the direction and approval of the commissioner, the director may appoint retail vehicle dealers meeting the requirements of RSA 261:103-a as agents to process electronically through EVR integrators motor vehicle registrations, permits for registration, or registration transfers and title applications in conjunction with the sale of a new or used vehicle by said dealer. The director shall consult with the New Hampshire City and Town Clerks' Association and the New Hampshire Automobile Dealers Association prior to approving the appointment of any dealer agent. Any permits issued by a dealer agent shall indicate that it was processed by a dealer agent. No dealer shall be permitted to act as a dealer agent unless the department of safety has implemented an agreement with an EVR integrator.

261:74-i Duration of Appointment. The director shall appoint those dealers that meet the reasonable security requirements and other requirements as set forth in this chapter and in rule. The appointment of any dealer for the purposes of this subdivision shall continue only as long as the ownership of the dealer remains the same, except as provided in RSA 261:74-j and RSA 261:74-q. In case of a transfer of ownership, the new owner may apply to become a dealer agent.

261:74-j Qualifications and Training of Dealer Agents. No dealer shall be appointed as an agent unless the dealer principal or its staff meet the qualifications and successfully complete the training programs established under RSA 261:74-r. No dealer agent may perform the duties required under this subdivision unless the dealer principal or its staff continues to meet the reasonable qualification and training requirements.

261:74-k Duties of Dealer Agents. Each dealer agent or its staff shall perform all the duties necessary to register motor vehicles, issue a permit for registration, transfer motor vehicle registrations, and process title applications unless the director determines otherwise. Dealers shall be responsible to the division, or towns and cities where applicable, for any inventory of title applications, registration forms, and any other materials issued to them and for all moneys collected. The dealer agent through the EVR integrator shall electronically transmit to the appropriate town or city a copy of the newly issued registration permit and a signed affidavit of residency, and, where applicable, a copy of the registration transferred and a copy of either the resident tax affidavit or the tax receipt as set forth in 261:74-n, III. Dealer agents shall be in compliance with the Red Flags Rule, 16 C.F.R. part 681, and the Safeguards Rule, 16 C.F.R. part 314, as promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission.

261:74-l Security and Record-Keeping Requirements. Before receiving title applications, registration forms, and any materials related to electronic vehicle registration, dealer agents shall adopt and implement security and record-keeping requirements satisfactory to the director.

261:74-m Examination of Dealer Agent Records. Any dealer appointed as an agent pursuant to this subdivision shall be deemed to have given its consent for authorized agents of the department and any auditor employed or commissioned by the state of New Hampshire or the municipality to examine, during usual business hours and with reasonable notice, the records required to be preserved under this chapter; provided no such agent shall be subjected to unnecessary or unreasonable examinations or investigations.

261:74-n Collection of Fees.

I. Dealer agents shall collect the fees required to process motor vehicle registrations, permits for registration, transfers of registrations, and title applications as set forth in this chapter.

II. When a dealer agent processes motor vehicle registrations, permits for registration, transfers of registration, and title applications the applicable town or city or clerk shall receive the following fees through the dealer agent and the EVR integrator: the registration permit fee under RSA 261:153, I, the town clerk fee under RSA 261:152, the title application fee under RSA 261:4, IV, the municipal agent fee under RSA 261:74-d, and, when applicable, the waste reclamation fee under RSA 261:153, V, the municipal transportation improvement fee under RSA 261:153, VI, the collection of permit fees in unorganized places under RSA 261:160, and the public parking facilities fee under RSA 261:154. The town or city may use the fees received by the town or city to offset the expenses of examination and auditing of dealer agents. Towns, cities, and the state shall inform the EVR integrator annually as to the details of the fees listed in this paragraph and provide timely notice to the EVR integrator of any changes to fees.

III. When a registration permit applicant resides in a town that assesses, levies, or collects a resident tax pursuant to RSA 72:1, the applicant shall comply with the provisions of RSA 261:71 either by showing or causing to be shown to the dealer agent a tax receipt or by executing the affidavit permitted under RSA 261:71 at the time of sale. If a resident tax town electronically shares resident tax data with the EVR integrator, neither the affidavit nor tax receipt is needed if such data reveals the resident tax has been paid. An applicant shall not be permitted to register a vehicle if such data reveals that the applicant is delinquent in paying the resident tax.

IV. If the applicant resides in a town or city which has adopted the provisions of RSA 231:130-a and the town or city has provided notification of unpaid fines to the electronic vehicle registration integrator pursuant to 231:130-a, III, a dealer agent shall not issue a registration permit to the applicant unless the town or city clerk's records reveal no outstanding parking violations in this state.

V. No dealer agent shall assume or absorb any fee listed in paragraph II owed by a customer or advertise or assert that the dealer will assume or absorb such fee. Any violation of this paragraph shall subject the dealer agent to a fine of $100 per violation.

261:74-o Optional Electronic Vehicle Registration Charge. Each dealer agent may collect a charge from the consumer to transmit electronically the registration and title data and the fees collected required to register a motor vehicle, issue a permit for registration, transfer a motor vehicle registration, or title a motor vehicle. This optional charge is in addition to other dealership fees or charges and the fees otherwise required to register a motor vehicle, issue a permit for registration, transfer a motor vehicle registration, or title a motor vehicle. The charge shall be separately stated and identified as "optional EVR charge" on the purchase agreement between the customer and the dealer agent. If a customer declines to pay the optional electronic vehicle registration charge, the dealer agent is not required to register the vehicle, issue a permit for registration, title the vehicle, or collect the required fees.

261:74-p Proof of Residency. A dealer agent shall not process any vehicle registration, permit for registration, or transfer of motor vehicle registrations of a natural person unless the applicant has provided to the dealer agent a current New Hampshire driver's license or New Hampshire nondriver's picture identification card with an address matching the application to be transmitted and the natural person has signed an affidavit of residency which specifies the town or city in which he or she currently resides. Dealer agents shall not process registrations for homeless residents without a permanent address eligible to register under RSA 261:52-c. A dealer agent may register the vehicles of a corporation or other legal entity with a place of business in this state if the applicant is a registered business in New Hampshire and is in good standing and an authorized representative of the corporation or entity has signed an affidavit specifying the New Hampshire town or city in which the corporation or entity resides, is headquartered, or operates.

261:74-q Revocation or Suspension of Agency Status.

I. The director may revoke or suspend a dealer's agent status for any violation of law or rule governing electronic vehicle registration, any violation of the dealer agent's security and record-keeping plan, revocation or suspension of the dealer license, or any other action that in the director's opinion adversely affects the registration system. If the director determines that a dealer agent has not continued to fulfill the requirements of this subdivision or has violated any of the rules adopted pursuant to this subdivision, the director shall commence a process to suspend or revoke the agent status of the dealer. The director shall take into account concerns of towns, cities, and the EVR advisory group established under RSA 261:74-s, IV about dealer agents.

II. Any dealer agent whose appointment is sought to be suspended or revoked shall be afforded the opportunity for a hearing before the bureau of hearings prior to such suspension or revocation. Following the hearing, the director may suspend or revoke the appointment as dealer agent upon satisfactory evidence of malfeasance, misfeasance, theft, financial instability, or violation of the rules adopted under this subdivision and that the revocation or suspension is in the best interest of the state.

III. Upon the revocation of such agent status, the dealer agent shall surrender to the department or its authorized agent all materials issued by the state under the provision of this subdivision and all records pertaining to all matters authorized by this subdivision.

IV. Whenever an authorized auditor of the state of New Hampshire or the department determines that the public interest requires immediate action, the director may issue a temporary order suspending the authority of a dealer agent to register or transfer registrations, pending a hearing.

261:74-r Rulemaking. The director, with input from the EVR advisory group established under RSA 261:74-s, IV, shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A relative to:

I. Minimum standards for the qualification of dealer agents and their staffs.

II. Minimum security standards for the dealer agent, staff, and dealer agent facility.

III. Training requirements and programs for dealer agents and their staffs.

IV. The collection, remittance, and auditing of state and local funds pursuant to this subdivision.

V. The completion of required reports and records and their submission to the department and towns or cities.

VI. Minimum standards of accuracy, legibility, and timeliness of submission for documents and reports.

VII. The indemnification and reimbursement of the state or town or city in case of loss.

VIII. The efficient and economical administration of this subdivision.

IX. Revocation and suspension of dealer agent status.

X. The ability to enter into agreements with dealer-agents and EVR integrators.

XI. The creation of an error resolution process to resolve registration errors resulting from the EVR Program.

261:74-s Agreements with Electronic Vehicle Registration Integrators.

I. Upon approval of the attorney general and governor and council, the department may enter into an agreement with an electronic vehicle registration integrator to provide, at no cost to the state, any necessary hardware, software, or network connections between dealer agents, the department, and towns for the electronic transmittal and receipt of registration and title data and money. The electronic vehicle registration integrator shall be authorized in the agreement to collect and transfer funds electronically from the dealers to the department, towns, cities, or town clerks, where appropriate. RSA 261:141-b shall not apply to electronic transfers to or from an electronic vehicle registration integrator or a dealer agent. Electronic vehicle registration integrators shall transmit funds within one business day of the completion of the registration to the appropriate entity if the entity accepts electronic transfers of funds and within 20 days to any other entity. The transmittal of funds by an EVR integrator to a town or city or the state pursuant to this section shall not be considered a delegation of a town's, city's, or state's deposit function as set forth in RSA 41:29.

II. An agreement under this section shall provide for minimum standards established by the department and the department of information technology for transfers of data and funds, financial solvency of the electronic vehicle registration integrator, training of dealer-agents, and town clerks, if necessary, by the electronic vehicle registration integrator, implementation of an electronic vehicle registration integrator "help line" to assist dealer agents, automatic and accurate calculation of all fees required by this chapter, electronic transmittal of applicable documents to the towns, cities, and state, bonding to indemnify the state, municipalities, and dealer agents in the event of loss, security, and privacy of motor vehicle records, access by state-appointed auditors to the records and reports of the electronic vehicle registration integrator, minimum standards for the accuracy and timeliness of submission of data and funds, reporting to the state, towns, or cities, transmittal of fees required to register a motor vehicle, issue a permit for registration, transfer a motor vehicle registration, or title a vehicle provided said fees are transmitted to the appropriate entity in the manner set forth in this chapter, conditions for cancellation of the agreement, and the other requirements related to the efficient and economical administration of this subdivision. The reporting to the towns, cities, and state shall provide notice of registrations processed, allow proper and accurate collection and remittance of town or city moneys, allow integration of data and moneys into software used by towns and cities to transmit registration data to the state, allow towns and cities to clearly identify the particular fees collected and remitted, and provide vehicle specific data including the maker's list price, and vehicle make and model. The department shall solicit input from affected municipalities before entering into an agreement under this section.

III. To ensure the EVR integrator and dealer agents are accurately calculating the applicable fees and properly transmitting the fees and data, and that towns and cities may integrate the data and fees into the software used by towns and cities to transmit registration data to the state, the EVR program shall be implemented as follows:

(a) The first year of the EVR program shall involve a limited number of dealers and towns and cities as determined by the director and a single electronic vehicle registration (EVR) integrator to ensure that the EVR program is successfully implemented. The director shall select which towns, cities, and dealers shall participate during the first year from a list submitted to the director by the senate president and the speaker of the house of representatives within 60 days of the effective date of this section. The director shall select the participants after obtaining the input of the New Hampshire City and Town Clerks' Association and the New Hampshire Automobile Dealers Association. The director shall select both large and small municipalities to participate and towns and cities that use software to transmit registration data to the state, with at least 2 towns or cities for each type of software.

(b) After the EVR program has operated for 270 days, the director shall seek formal input from the EVR advisory group established in paragraph IV and towns, cities, and dealer agents involved in the program as to whether or not the EVR integrator and dealer agents are properly calculating and assessing applicable fees, properly transmitting the fees and data, and properly integrating data and moneys into the software used by towns and cities to transmit registration data to the state.

(c) After the EVR program has operated for one year, the director shall incorporate the remaining towns and cities into the program and additional dealers may apply to become dealer agents unless the director, in consultation with the EVR advisory group established in paragraph IV determines that the EVR integrator has failed to materially comply with the program requirements. If such a determination is made, the director shall delay the addition of towns and cities and dealers for up to 180 days to permit the EVR integration to materially comply with the program requirements.

(d) One year after the incorporation of the remaining towns and cities into the EVR program, the department may enter into agreements with additional EVR integrators.

(e) After the incorporation of all towns and cities into the EVR program, the director shall evaluate on a periodic basis, no less than annually, whether the EVR integrators and dealer agents are properly calculating and assessing applicable fees, properly transmitting the fees and data, and properly integrating data and moneys into the software used by towns and cities to transmit registration data to the state.

IV. The director shall form an EVR advisory group consisting of representatives from the department of information technology, the division of motor vehicles, the department of safety, the New Hampshire City and Town Clerks' Association, the New Hampshire Government Finance Officers Association, organizations representing the interests of town managers and administrators, the New Hampshire Municipal Association, the New Hampshire Local Government Information Network, the New Hampshire Automobile Dealers Association, the EVR integrators, and other persons the director deems necessary. The primary purpose of the EVR advisory group is to ensure that the EVR program meets the requirements in rules and law. The EVR advisory group shall meet at least quarterly.

V. The director shall periodically evaluate whether the EVR program affects registration-related assistance provided to towns and cities by the department.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill authorizes retail vehicle dealers to act as agents of the division of motor vehicles for vehicle registrations and title applications.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 156 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 156 as amended by the Committee will enable a comprehensive group of municipal stakeholders, Department of Safety, New Hampshire Auto Dealers, and technology experts to come together and create a process which, if successful, will allow New Hampshire residents to choose the most convenient place for them to register their newly-purchased vehicle: their town or city hall or the New Hampshire dealership where it was purchased. We all know the challenges being imposed on our local communities due to budget cuts, resulting in diminished hours town offices are open. Lines are long, data interchange problematic, and it results in making it more difficult for our residents to register their cars.

Virtually every state in America allows for auto registration at the dealership, and 27 states currently do so electronically. These dealers, through an electronic intermediary, securely and quickly electronically transmit the official local and state fees and data directly to the appropriate entity. SB 156 seeks to replicate the success in those states. In addition to a program that will provide modern convenience to our residents, this legislation will accomplish several other important tasks, including providing much-needed data enhancements to allow our law enforcement the ability to keep our friends and families safe, providing our local communities with much-needed technological enhancements and efficiencies for completing their jobs and ensuring a separation between the state and local municipalities in the collection of tax revenue.

We have a unique opportunity on a public-private partnership where an outside firm is willing to come to this great state and provide all of the up front investment to help our state modernize this activity, which sees over 200,000 transactions annually. The creation of this program, the testing period, and, if ultimately successful, the ongoing operation, will be performed at no cost to the State or local communities.

We all understand this legislation is complex, and during the past three months, I have had the distinct pleasure of working closely with our Town Clerks Association, local town administrators, our New Hampshire Municipal Association, Department of Safety, and a host of others to craft a framework to move New Hampshire into the 21st century. I'd like to thank every one of these organizations for all their work to date and commit to keeping all of these stakeholders firmly in the loop to ensure they continue to have a seat at the table.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I understand that it's our earnest effort to make things easier, to streamline things, and to work together to make this happen. I just want it on record that many of the town clerks that I represent – there's a mixed message: one group is firmly in support, another group is opposed to this situation. And, their concern is how the transactions will take place and how the dollars will come to the communities in terms of the town tax.

So, there is a concern being manifested by a number of towns, and I think we should take that into consideration. I understand it's a pilot program; I'm going to support the issue. But, clearly there is sentiment and a little bit of anxiety expressed by some of the towns with regard to this, and I think we should note that as we move forward. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I do rise in support of this legislation after many, many discussions with the clerks and those users in my district, plus dealers, and bringing people together in a collaborative effort in the best interest of all. But, I do just want to make just one comment, and that is I do not believe that the intent of this bill was because of any part of the clerks were not doing their part. They have worked very hard, traditionally, on these registrations, and I just want to make that comment, that I think the clerks have done an outstanding job, and that the intent of this bill is not in any way reflective on their work, but in fact, my experience in gathering people together is that the clerks see this as a benefit to them, to business, to the dealers, and most important, to the consumers. So, I do support this legislation. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

Sen. Forrester is in opposition to the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended on SB 156-FN-LOCAL.

Without objection, President Bragdon has given Sen. Luther leave to use an electronic device to experiment with an online version of the Senators' Session Day binders.

SB 160-FN, relative to the definition and regulation of installment loans. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-1. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

Amendment to SB 160-FN

Amend RSA 384-H:2, III as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. "Installment loan" or "loan" means a loan, advance of money, or extension of credit with a repayment term agreed to by the parties and not exceeding 180 days, including any loan transaction conducted via any medium whatsoever, including paper, facsimile, Internet, or telephone.

Amend RSA 384-H:4, II as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. No lender shall make an installment loan to a consumer if:

(a) The total of all loan payments for that loan coming due within the first calendar month of the loan exceeds the lesser of:

(1) $1,000; or

(2) Thirty-five percent of the consumer's gross monthly income.

(b) The consumer has another outstanding installment loan with the lender.

Amend RSA 384-H:10, II as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The commissioner may conduct examinations of the books, records, and loan documents of a licensee after giving reasonable notice to the licensee.

Amend RSA 384-H:12, II (b)-(d) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) The requirements under RSA 384-H:13 are satisfied;

(c) The payment of the annual license fee required under paragraph IV; and

(d) The applicant has submitted such other information as the commissioner may reasonably deem necessary.

Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 384-H:12, IV as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. A licensee shall pay an annual fee of $450. In addition to the license fee, the reasonable expense of any examination or hearing by the commissioner under any provisions of this chapter shall be borne by the licensee. If a licensee fails to renew its license prior to its expiration, the license shall automatically expire; however, the commissioner, in his or her discretion, may reinstate an expired license upon:

Amend RSA 384-H:13 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

384-H:13 Net Worth. Each applicant and licensee shall maintain a positive net worth at all times. Each applicant shall demonstrate that it has available for use in such business at each location specified in the application, at least $25,000, or in the case of a licensee, has such amount available or actually invested in loans made under this chapter at each location or has posted a continuous surety bond in the amount of $25,000 in the form and under the terms determined by the commissioner.

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 30 days after its passage.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 160-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 160-FN as amended by the Committee defines and regulates installment loans. Senate Bill 160-FN, as amended, opens an additional source of financing for New Hampshire residents who may currently have a difficult time securing short-term financial backing they need to keep a small business up and running, or a family with an unexpected expense that they may have difficulty addressing with current available financial resources.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 160. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Because this may become a heated debate, I would like to rise in the honor of the former female Dean of the Senate, Sheila Roberge, to make a motion that the gentlemen may be allowed to remove their coats at any point during the course of our debate today.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you, Senator Larsen. Without objection, the gentlemen will be allowed to remove their coats. Thank you, Senator Larsen, for reminding me of that.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to SB 160, as amended or otherwise. I was inclined to save us all some time and just say something like, "Please see my opposition from last week to Senate Bill 57, relative to regulation of title lenders," which, as you'll recall, included opposition based on the prudence of having an interest rate cap in statute, what was good for military servicemen and women being good for New Hampshire residents, a triple-digit effective APR, frequency of consumers rolling over these short-term products to propel them further into a debt trap, the wisdom of Rep. Kurk, and that the only businesses that will really profit are out-of-state ones. However, I decided I couldn't leave well enough alone, and so rise in opposition.

And, I'm perpetually hopeful that I can convince some additional of my colleagues, even those that supported a return of title loans, to balk at the idea of a return of payday lenders. And, what additional rationale can I provide, you may ask. The interest rate – number one – the interest rate can actually rise to over 400 percent APR – let me make sure I repeat that so that it's reflected in the record – that the interest rate on an APR basis can actually rise over 400 percent. The interest rate provision, page 2, line 26 of the original bill, allows 15.50 per 100 per installment; that translates to 403 percent annually, assuming the installment periods are 14 days, 26 times 15.50. It is unlikely that lenders are going to structure installment periods for anything other than the borrower's pay schedule, 14 days for many workers.

Two: This proposal virtually guarantees that people will be stuck in these loans for the maximum of 180 days. At least as far as I can tell, the lender has no incentive to offer loans with anything other than the 180-day term, because otherwise they have to wait two days in between the shorter loans – see page 2, line 12. And, because the total finance charges get bigger and bigger the longer they're in the loan, at 180 days of indebtedness, with installment payments every 14 days, people will end up paying back over $1,100 on a $500 loan – $1,100 on a $500 loan. Hmm. The idea that someone who doesn't have $500 on day one can afford an additional $90 expense every two weeks for the next six months simply doesn't make sense, nor is it reasonable, in my opinion.

There was opposition, furthermore, from the Local Welfare Administrators Association that I think bears repeating. They were represented by Angela Martin-Giroux, the Berlin local welfare officer, who so eloquently reminded us that, "the local property taxpayers of the state are actually subsidizing the profitable practices of these predatory lenders."

Finally, I would argue that this creates a totally new product outside of the small loan law, and therefore merits at least further study before it is fast-tracked. I'll note that the amendment makes it effective 30 days after passage.

With that, Mister President, I thank you, and I'd ask for a roll call.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you very much, Mister President. I think it'd be a good opportunity for this body to vote ITL, or bring forward some other direction for this bill with further study. From the good comments of Senator Houde, I believe it does need further looking at, and I'd appreciate it if the body would move along with that tenure so that we can look further at it; maybe we could re-refer it to committee, and that would be a good thing to do. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Mister President, I rise in support of this bill. The good Senator didn't mention it that in the provision of this bill, there are some safeguards for the consumer, where no loan can be approved for more than 35 percent of the consumer's gross income. So, there are some provisions in there that people that can't afford this loan can have them. So, there is some scrutiny. So, I would urge all of my colleagues to pass this bill. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to recognize and welcome the students from Cutler School in Swanzey, New Hampshire, these beautiful and outstanding young students and people who live in my community, and I'm so proud of them. And, welcome.

Amendment to SB 162-FN

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subdivision; Federal Health Care Reform. Amend RSA 400-A by inserting after section 66 the following new subdivision:

Federal Health Care Reform

400-A:67 Implementation of Public Law 111-152. The general court shall determine any policy regarding implementation of Public Law 111-152 if it is determined that the state of New Hampshire is required to implement such law. The insurance commissioner, or designee, shall develop recommendations in conjunction with the insurance reform oversight committee, established in RSA 400-A:68, prior to the enforcement of Public Law 111-152. In addition, any state official or agency that seeks to enforce the insurance provisions of Public Law 111-152 shall develop recommendations in conjunction with the oversight committee.

400-A:68 Joint Health Insurance Reform Oversight Committee Established.

I. There is established an oversight committee on health insurance reform consisting of 5 members as follows:

(a) Two members of the senate, appointed by the senate president.

(b) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

II. The terms of the members shall be for the biennium and shall be coterminous with their membership in the general court. The committee shall elect a chairman from its membership.

III. The committee shall provide legislative oversight, policy direction, and recommendations for legislation to implement Public Law 111-152 as it determines appropriate.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2011.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes an oversight committee to implement Public Law 111-152, should it be determined that the state of New Hampshire is required to implement such law.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 162-FN. Senate Bill 162, as amended by the Committee, will create a joint health insurance reform oversight committee to provide legislative oversight, policy direction, and recommendations for legislation to implement Public Law 111-152, as it determines appropriate. Public Law 111-152 refers to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, which implements the recent federal health care reform.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 162-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

Floor Amendment to SB 162-FN

Amend RSA 400-A:68, II as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The terms of the members shall be for the biennium and shall be coterminous with their membership in the general court. The committee shall elect a chairman from its membership. The committee shall meet at the call of the chairman who may call a meeting as often as necessary. Amend RSA 400-A:68 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

IV. The committee shall make a report, together with any recommendations for legislation, to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the chairpersons of the house and senate committees having jurisdiction over commerce issues and the house and senate committees having jurisdiction over health and human services issues by October 1, 2011 and annually thereafter.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. The purpose of this amendment is, after we did exec the bill out of Committee, it was pointed out to me by several people who looked at our bill that we did not do two things that were pretty necessary to do with this, since it is a study committee. Number one is, we did not make provisions for calling the committee together. And so, the first part of this amendment does just that; it says the committee will elect a chairman, and that the chairman, or that the committee shall meet at the call of the chairman, who may call a meeting as often as necessary. So, that's part one.

And then, the second part I failed to recognize originally was that the committee needs to make a report so that future Senate people who need to look at this and see what has been done will have some record of what occurred. And so, the second part of this amendment does just that; it provides for a report that will be provided on October 1st, 2011, and annually thereafter.

So, I would make a motion to move this amendment. Thank you.

EDUCATION

SB 113, relative to nonpublic schools receiving public funds. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President, and good morning. I move Senate Bill 113 Inexpedient to Legislate. This legislation requires a nonpublic school to comply with all statutes and the Department of Education rules, which may apply to a public school which accepts funds.

This bill was designed to establish good policy without directly affecting any existing institutions. However, as the Committee listened to testimony and made inquiries with those testifying, there developed a sense that this legislation may inadvertently affect existing academies in the state, as well as special education funding.

This legislation would make sweeping changes with a broad stroke that is not pertinent at this time. Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 113 be Inexpedient to Legislate and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

Amendment to SB 117

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Postsecondary Education Commission; Rulemaking Authority. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 188-D:8-a to read as follows:

188-D:8-a Rulemaking Authority. The executive director[, ~~in consultation with the postsecondary education commission,~~] shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A relative to:

2 Regulation of Private Postsecondary Career Schools; Definitions; Exclusions. RSA 188-D:19 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

188-D:19 Definitions; Exclusions.

I. The following definitions shall apply in this subdivision except as otherwise provided:

(a) "Alternative delivery" means a mode of instruction, which does not involve face-to-face instruction between instructor and student in the same geographic location. This mode of instruction shall include Internet, televised, video, telephonic, and correspondence media.

(b) "Entity" means any individual, firm, partnership, association, corporation, organization, trust, school, or other legal entity or combination of these entities.

(c) "Executive committee" means the executive committee of the postsecondary education commission as defined in the postsecondary education commission bylaws.

(d) "Executive director" means the executive director of the postsecondary education commission, or designee.

(e) "Instructor" means any person who teaches, trains, or educates students.

(f) "Occupational" means related to an occupation or vocation.

(g) "Physical presence" means any physical location, place of contact, telephone exchange, or mail drop in this state, and if an individual is conducting one or more of the following activities within this state:

- (1) Advertising.
- (2) Solicitation of potential students.
- (3) Enrollment of students.
- (4) Providing student services.
- (5) Student mentoring.
- (6) Instruction of students.

(h) "Private postsecondary career school" means any for-profit or nonprofit, non-degree granting, postsecondary career entity maintaining a physical presence in this state and providing vocational or occupational education or training for tuition or a fee to the public. Private and postsecondary career schools that offer resident or non-resident programs, including programs using modes of alternative delivery, beyond the secondary school level to the public shall be included in this definition regardless of the fact that the school's tuition and fees from education and training programs constitute only a part of the school's revenue.

(i) "Student" means any person enrolled in a course or program at a private postsecondary career school.

(j) "Vocational" means related to an occupation or vocation.

II. "Private postsecondary career school" shall not include barbering or cosmetology schools, schools offering training that has been approved by a state agency with appropriate jurisdiction over such training, including but not limited to the plumber's board, the electrician's board, the office of the state fire marshal, the division of fire standards and training and emergency medical services, and schools providing federally-required flight or ground instruction to students.

3 Private Postsecondary Career Schools; Licenses and Fees. Amend RSA 188-D:20 to read as follows:

188-D:20 Licenses and Fees.

I. Prior to registering or renewing a business or trade name, or soliciting students for enrollment, an entity maintaining a physical presence in this state shall be reviewed by the executive director to determine if the entity requires a license. The executive director~~[-in consultation with the postsecondary education commission]~~ shall establish procedures to accomplish this review.

II. ~~[A]~~ Any private postsecondary career school maintaining a physical presence in this state and which assesses tuition or fees for providing vocational or occupational training shall register to obtain a license or license renewal from the postsecondary education commission. The license shall be issued or renewed pursuant to rules, adopted under RSA 541-A, by the executive director~~[-in consultation with the postsecondary education commission]~~. The rules shall establish minimum criteria, including but not limited to, financial stability, educational program, administrative and staff qualifications, business procedures, facilities, equipment, and ethical practices to be met by licensees, and criteria for rejecting a licensing applicant and for suspending or revoking a license.

III. A school that is not required to obtain a license may apply for a license and, upon issuance of the license, shall be subject to the provisions of RSA 188-D:19 through RSA 188-D:28. Such school may voluntarily surrender its license and revert to its original status.

IV. The executive director~~[-in consultation with the postsecondary education commission]~~ shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A to establish reasonable fines, reimbursement rates for consultants, and procedures for complaint investigations and enforcement actions, which are necessary for the administration of this subdivision.

V. A private postsecondary career school which the executive director has determined requires a license shall, prior to the issuance of a license, comply with RSA 188-D:20, RSA 188-D:20-a, and RSA 188-D:20-b.

4 Private Postsecondary Career Schools; Surety Indemnification. Amend RSA 188-D:20-a, IV(b) to read as follows: reason, while not in default, discontinue operation, all moneys on deposit, including any interest, shall be released to the appropriate school subject to the approval of the executive director.

5 Private Postsecondary Career Schools; Student Tuition Guaranty Fund. Amend RSA 188-D:20-b to read as follows:

188-D:20-b Student Tuition Guaranty Fund.

I.(a) A student tuition guaranty fund is hereby established within the postsecondary education commission and shall be administered by the executive director.

(b) The fund shall be funded from an annual fee to be established by the executive director and assessed against each school duly licensed by the postsecondary education commission and all applicants for a license under RSA 188-D:20.

(d) The fund shall be used to reimburse students when a school has failed to faithfully perform its contractual obligations for tuition and instructional fees, in the event of a school closing, and the expense of investigating and processing the claims. ~~[The owner of]~~ A school which fails to perform its contractual obligations shall be ~~[personally]~~ liable to reimburse the fund for the difference between the per student amount paid into the fund by the school and the amount paid out of the fund to a student to settle a claim made against the school.

(e) A school's surety bond, irrevocable letter of credit, or other approved form of indemnification shall be exhausted prior to the use of any funds from the student tuition guaranty fund.

II. The executive director~~[-in consultation with the postsecondary education commission]~~ shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to the administration and maintenance of the fund.

III. The executive director may establish guidelines for exempting schools from providing surety indemnification and from paying into the student tuition guaranty fund, provided the executive director determines that there are sufficient funds in the student tuition guaranty fund for disbursement in the event of a school closure. The executive director shall not grant such an exemption to any school until the school has paid into the student tuition guaranty fund for at least 5 years and is in good standing with the postsecondary education commission. An exemption granted to a school may be revoked if the executive director determines that the student tuition guaranty fund balance is insufficient for disbursement in the event of a school closing.

6 Regulation of Private Postsecondary Career Schools; Revocation. Amend RSA 188-D:22 to read as follows:

188-D:22 Revocation; Hearing. The executive committee~~[-in consultation with the postsecondary education commission]~~ may, after due notice and hearing, revoke the license of any school licensed pursuant to RSA 188-D:20 for violating the provisions of this subdivision or rules adopted hereunder. The provisions of RSA 541 shall apply to actions taken pursuant to this section.

7 Private Postsecondary Career Schools; Use of Fees. Amend RSA 188-D:25 to read as follows:

188-D:25 Use of Fees. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, all license fees collected under the provisions of this subdivision shall be ~~[retained by]~~ deposited in a nonlapsing account within the postsecondary education commission which shall be continually appropriated to the commission for use in meeting the expenses of administering this subdivision.

8 Regulation of Private Postsecondary Career Schools; Rulemaking. Amend RSA 188-D:26 to read as follows:

188-D:26 Rulemaking Authority. The executive director ~~[in consultation with the postsecondary education commission]~~ shall adopt such rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, as may be necessary in order to carry out the provisions of this subdivision.

9 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. 2004; 190:6, relative to the contingent repeal of the surety indemnification to be provided by private postsecondary career schools.

II. 2004; 190:7, relative to the written certification required for the contingent repeal in 2004; 190:6 to take effect.

10 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 117 Ought to Pass as Amended. This legislation makes significant changes to private postsecondary career schools and the tuition guaranty fund.

First, it simplifies the definition of a private postsecondary career school to encompass all of the current exemptions. Second, it eliminates the double indemnification requirement, so schools who have contributed to the guaranty fund for five years cease double payments with bonding and provide the Executive Director with the authority to exempt schools from said indemnification. Finally, it provides a housekeeping change by clearly stating that the statute supports for the dedicated fund without general funds.

SB 117 was amended to provide clear language that the Executive Director would have sole authority over indemnification exemptions. The amendment also ensures that this legislation doesn't adversely affect any existing RSA's. Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 117 Ought to Pass as Amended and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 192

Amend RSA 189:66, I(e) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(e) One teacher who is a member of the National Education Association-New Hampshire, appointed by the executive director of the association.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 192 Ought to Pass as Amended. This legislation establishes a commission for the purpose of identifying strategies to deliver a 21st century education.

This bill would bring together a diverse group of individuals to the table to work toward a goal that is universally accepted: to identify what a 21st century education looks like. The members of this commission would develop strategies for implementation, compensation, and financing, to ensure that the focus of education in New Hampshire is mastery of competencies rather than seat time.

The amendment is to ensure that the union representation to the commission is a current teacher. It is important to have representation on the commission from teachers who see real classroom experience and witness the issues.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 192 Ought to Pass as Amended and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 194 Ought to Pass. This legislation transfers all real and personal property from the former department of regional community-technical colleges to the board of trustees of the community college system of New Hampshire.

Senate Bill 194 was drafted as the final piece of legislation resulting from a bill passed in the 2007 legislative session that made the university system self-governing. This transfer of property legislation was written using the language from when Keene State College and Plymouth State University were transferred to the university system.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that Senate Bill 194 be moved Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 84-FN, relative to state regulation of the septic system installation process. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 84 be re-referred to committee. Senate Bill 84 is legislation relative to state regulation of the septic system installation process. The intent of the bill is to transfer the authority to approve septic system design and installations from the Department of Environmental Services to municipalities.

DES has a solid system that is working, and in order to make certain that this proposal does not have unintended consequences, we need to make sure this bill is fully examined. Re-referral will allow work on the bill, which will be fully vetted and ready for discussion by the full Senate in January of next year.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies that highway trail crossings received by the bureau of trails and approved by the department of transportation are exempt from the evaluation process required in establishing certain state trails for ATVs and trail bikes.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 105 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 105 as introduced clarifies the exception of the Department of Transportation property used for rail crossings or connector permits, and for the change in use designations for all-terrain vehicles and trail bikes from the evaluation process required in establishing certain state trails.

The amendment solves issues that were presented by limiting the exemption from evaluation requirements of the Department of Transportation to just highway trail crossings.

SB 106, naming the visitor center at Jericho Mountain state park for Robert Danderson. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Gallus for the committee.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 106 Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 106 names the visitors' center at Jericho Mountain state park for Robert Danderson.

"Mayor Bob" is a true proponent for the North Country. He served the City of Berlin through some of its toughest times. As Mayor, he shepherded us through the mill closings and outmigration of many residents. He almost singlehandedly brought Berlin a federal prison with over 300 jobs.

In respect to the bill, he was the key individual in bringing to fruition the Jericho Mountain state park. His enthusiastic spirit, fortitude, and vocal opinions were heard in Concord on almost a daily basis until Jericho state park was created. While Mayor, his leadership resulted in Jericho Lake and over 200 acres being given to the state park system. Further, the visitors' center is being constructed by the Berlin High School building trades program, which originally received funding from none other than Mayor Bob Danderson. Bob still rides in Jericho Mountain state park to this day, and naming the visitors' center after him will be one way New Hampshire can honor someone who truly loves his community and the State of New Hampshire.

That being said, I respectfully request the Senate support the Committee's recommendation on Senate Bill 106, and I thank you, Mister President.

SB 142-FN, relative to reorganizing the permitting process within the department of environmental services. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 142 be re-referred to committee. Senate Bill 142 would reorganize the permitting process within the Department of Environmental Services. This bill establishes an integrated land development permit option, a key feature of which is early communication and collaboration among stakeholders in a pre-application process. The bill would also establish a position of ombudsman within DES to facilitate this new permitting approach.

This is an important piece of legislation for permit applicants, departmental personnel, and those interested in regulatory efficiency, as well as environmental protection. Re-referral will afford the Committee and interested parties the time to carefully construct this new permit option.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee in voting SB 142 re-refer to committee. Thank you, Mister President.

VII-c. "Horticultural professional" means any arborist, landscape architect, or gardening consultant whose function is that of providing services relative to horticulture.

5 Definitions. Amend RSA 483-B:4, X-b to read as follows:

X-b. "Natural ground cover" means any herbaceous plant or any woody seedling or shrub generally less than 3 feet in height. [~~Natural ground cover shall also include naturally occurring leaf or needle litter, stumps, decaying woody debris, stones, and boulders.~~] Natural ground cover shall not include lawns, landscaped areas, gardens, invasive species as listed by the department of agriculture, markets, and food in accordance with RSA 430:53, III, exotic species as designated by rule of the department of environmental services in accordance with RSA 487:24, VII, imported organic or stone mulches, or other artificial materials.

6 Definitions. Amend RSA 483-B:4, XIII to read as follows:

XIII. "Primary building line" means a setback for primary structures of [~~at least~~] 50 feet from the reference line.

7 Definitions. Amend RSA 483-B:4, XV to read as follows:

XV. "Protected shoreland" means, for natural, fresh water bodies without artificial impoundments, for artificially impounded fresh water bodies, except private garden water features and ponds of less than 10 acres, and for coastal waters and rivers, all land located within 250 feet of the reference line of public waters.

8 Definitions. Amend RSA 483-B:4, XVIII to read as follows:

XVIII. "Removal or removed" means girdled, felled, [~~killed, or~~] cut, sawed, pruned, pushed over, buried, burned, or any other activity conducted to the extent that it otherwise [~~destructively alters or altered~~] kills the vegetation.

9 Definitions. Amend RSA 483-B:4, XVIII-c to read as follows:

XVIII-c. "Replace in kind" means the substitution of a new structure for an existing legal structure, whether in total or in part[, ~~with no change in size, dimensions, footprint, interior square footage, and location, with the exception of changes resulting in an increase in the setback to public waters~~].

10 Definitions. Amend RSA 483-B:4, XX-a to read as follows:

XX-a. "Shoreland frontage" means the [~~average of the distances of the actual natural shoreline footage and a straight line drawn between property lines~~] actual shoreland frontage along the water front measured at the reference line.

11 Definitions. Amend RSA 483-B:4, XXII to read as follows:

XXII. "Structure" means anything constructed or erected for the support, shelter or enclosure of persons, animals, goods, or property of any kind, with a fixed permanent location on or in the ground, exclusive of fences.

12 Definitions. Amend RSA 483-B:4, XXIV-b to read as follows:

XXIV-b. "Unaltered state" means [~~native~~] vegetation allowed to grow without cutting, limbing, trimming, pruning, mowing, or other similar activities except as needed [~~to maintain the health of the plant being trimmed, as allowed by rules of the department~~] for plant health, normal maintenance, and renewal.

13 Enforcement by Commissioner; Duties; Woodland Buffer. Amend RSA 483-B:5, II to read as follows:

II. The commissioner or his or her designee may, for cause, enter upon any subject land or parcel at any reasonable time after written notification and with prior permission of the owner to perform oversight and enforcement duties provided for in this chapter.

14 Permit Required; Exemption. Amend RSA 483-B:5-b, I to read as follows:

I.(a) No person shall commence construction, excavation, or filling activities within the protected shoreland without obtaining a permit from the department to ensure compliance with this chapter. For projects which have no impact on water quality and which follow department rules, the applicant shall qualify for a permit by notification. The owner may proceed with the proposed project immediately upon receipt of written notice from the department that a complete and appropriate notification has been received by the department. A notification shall be complete and appropriate provided it meets or exceeds all of the minimum standards under RSA 483-B:9, includes a notification form signed by the owner of property, the name and address of the property owner, the address of the site on which the work will occur, the name of the jurisdictional waterbody, the tax map and lot number on which the proposed work will occur, plans clearly and accurately depicting the work to be completed relative to the reference line of the jurisdictional waterbody, photographs of the area to be impacted, and identification of those project criteria listed below that would qualify the project for a permit by notification. Such project criteria shall include:

(1) Construction, excavation, and filing, or other activity that impacts less than 1,500 square feet and adds no more than 900 square feet of impervious area within a protected shoreland area.

(2) Construction, excavation, and filling, directly related to stormwater management improvements and erosion control projects or environmental restoration or enhancement projects.

(3) Maintenance, repairs, and improvements of public utilities, public roads, and public access facilities.

(4) Any similar activities defined as qualified for a permit by notification by rules of the department.

(b) The permit application fee shall be $100 plus $.10 per square foot of area affected by the proposed activities and shall be deposited in the wetlands and shorelands review fund established under RSA 482-A:3, III. Such fees shall be capped as follows:

(1) For projects that qualify for permit by notification under RSA 483-B:17, X, $100 for restoration of water quality improvement projects and $250 for all other permit by notification projects.

(2) For projects of 0-9,999 square feet, that do not qualify for a permit by notification, $750.

(3) For projects of 10,000-24,999 square feet, $1,875.

(4) For projects of 25,000 square feet or more, $3,750.

(c) If the application is denied after relying on the recommendations of the department, the application fee shall be refunded to the applicant within 30 days of such denial.

15 New Paragraph; Permit Required; Exemption. Amend RSA 483-B:5-b by inserting after paragraph IV-a the following new paragraph:

IV-b. No permits issued by the department pursuant to this chapter that involve private, non-federal undertakings shall require coordination with or clearance by the New Hampshire division of historical resources.

16 Permit Required; Exemption. Amend RSA 483-B:5-b, V to read as follows:

V.(a) Within 30 days of receipt of an application for a permit or ~~[75]~~ 30 days of receipt of an application for a permit that will require a ~~[variance of the minimum standard of RSA 483-B:9, V or a]~~ waiver of the minimum standards of RSA 483-B:9, the department shall request any additional information reasonably required to complete its evaluation of the application, and provide the applicant with any written technical comments the department deems necessary. Any request for additional information shall specify that the applicant submit such information as soon as practicable and notify the applicant that if all of the requested information is not received within ~~[60]~~ 120 days of the request, the department shall deny the application.

(b) When the department requests additional information pursuant to subparagraph (a), the department shall, within ~~[30]~~ 20 days of the department's receipt of the information:

(1) Approve the application~~[-, in whole or in part,]~~ and issue a permit; or

(2) Deny the application, and issue written findings in support of the denial; or

(3) Extend the time for rendering a decision on the application for good cause and with the written agreement of the applicant.

(c) Where no request for additional information is made, the department shall, within 30 days of receipt of the application for a permit or ~~[75]~~ 30 days of receipt of an application for a permit that will require a ~~[variance of the minimum standard of RSA 483-B:9, V or a]~~ waiver of the minimum standards of RSA 483-B:9~~[-]~~;

~~[(1)]~~ approve or deny the application~~[-, in whole or in part, and issue a permit; or~~

~~(2) Deny the application, and issue]~~ with written findings in support of the ~~[denial; or~~

~~(3) Extend the time for rendering a decision on the application for good cause and with the written agreement of the applicant]~~ decision.

(d) Within 5 business days of receipt of a permit by notification filing the department shall issue a written notice to the property owner or agent stating that the notification has either been accepted or rejected.

~~[(d)]~~ (e)(1) The time limits prescribed by this paragraph shall supersede any time limits provided in any other provision of law. If the department fails to act within the applicable time frame established in subparagraphs (b) and (c), the applicant may ask the department to issue the permit by submitting a written request. If the applicant has previously agreed to accept communications from the department by electronic means, a request submitted electronically by the applicant shall constitute a written request.

(2) Within 14 days of the date of receipt of a written request from the applicant to issue the permit, the department shall:

(A) Approve the application, in whole or in part, and issue a permit; or

(B) Deny the application and issue written findings in support of the denial.

(3) If the department does not issue either a permit or a written denial within the 14-day period, the applicant shall be deemed to have a permit by default and may proceed with the project as presented in the application. The authorization provided by this subparagraph shall not relieve the applicant of complying with all requirements applicable to the project, including but not limited to requirements established in or under this chapter and RSA 485-A relating to water quality.

(4) Upon receipt of a written request from an applicant, the department shall issue written confirmation that the applicant has a permit by default pursuant to subparagraph (d)(3), which authorizes the applicant to proceed with the project as presented in the application and requires the work to comply with all requirements applicable to the project, including but not limited to requirements established in or under this chapter and RSA 485-A relating to water quality.

[(e)] (f) All applications filed in accordance with the rules adopted by the department under RSA 483-B:17 and which meet the minimum standards of this chapter shall be approved and a permit shall be issued.

[(f)] (g) The department may extend the time for rendering a decision under subparagraphs (b)(3) and (c)(3), without the applicant's agreement, on an application from an applicant who previously has been determined, after the exhaustion of available appellate remedies, to have failed to comply with this chapter or any rule adopted or permit or approval issued under this chapter, or to have misrepresented any material fact made in connection with any activity regulated or prohibited by this chapter, pursuant to an action initiated under RSA 483-B:18. The length of such an extension shall be no longer than reasonably necessary to complete the review of the application, and shall not exceed 30 days unless the applicant agrees to a longer extension. The department shall notify the applicant of the length of the extension.

[(g)] (h) The department may suspend review of an application for a proposed project on a property with respect to which the department has commenced an enforcement action against the applicant for any violation of this chapter, RSA 482-A, RSA 485-A:17, or RSA 485-A:29-44, or of any rule adopted or permit or approval issued pursuant to this chapter, RSA 482-A, RSA 485-A:17, or RSA 485-A:29-44. Any such suspension shall expire upon conclusion of the enforcement action and completion of any remedial actions the department may require to address the violation; provided, however, that the department may resume its review of the application sooner if doing so will facilitate resolution of the violation. The department shall resume its review of the application at the point the review was suspended, except that the department may extend any of the time limits under this paragraph and its rules up to a total of 30 days for all such extensions. For purposes of this subparagraph, "enforcement action" means an action initiated under RSA 482-A:13, RSA 482-A:14, RSA 482-A:14-b, RSA 483-B:18, RSA 485-A:22, RSA 485-A:42, or RSA 485-A:43.

(d) No fertilizer, except limestone, shall be applied to vegetation or soils located within 25 feet of the reference line of any public water. Beyond 25 feet, limestone or any fertilizer containing low phosphate[;] and slow release nitrogen [fertilizer or limestone;] may be used [~~on areas beyond 25 feet from the reference line~~].

18 Minimum Shoreland Protection Standards. RSA 483-B:9, V(a) through V(b)(2)(A)(ii) is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

(a) Maintenance of a Waterfront Buffer.

(1) The waterfront buffer shall be those protected shorelands within 50 feet of the reference line. The purpose of this buffer shall be to protect the quality of public waters while allowing homeowner discretion with regard to water access, safety, viewscape maintenance, and lot design.

(2) Within the waterfront buffer all of the following prohibitions and limitations shall apply:

(A) No chemicals, including pesticides or herbicides of any kind shall be applied to ground, turf, or established vegetation except if applied by horticultural professionals who have a pesticide application license issued by the department of agriculture or as allowed under special permit issued by the division of pesticide control under rules adopted by the pesticide control board under RSA 541-A, or fertilizers of any kind except those specified in RSA 483-B:9, II(d).

(B) Rocks and stumps and their root systems shall be left intact in the ground unless removal is specifically approved by the department, pursuant to RSA 482-A or RSA 483-B:11, II or unless rocks are removed to improve runoff control or the planting in the waterfront buffer, and stumps that are removed are replaced with pervious surfaces, new trees, or other woody vegetation.

(D) Starting from the northerly or easterly boundary of the property, and working along the shoreline, the waterfront buffer shall be divided into 50 by 50 foot segments. Owners of land within the waterfront buffer shall measure, calculate, and maintain the tree, sapling, shrub, and groundcover point score in each of these segments in accordance with the methods and standards described in subparagraphs (i) through (ix).

(i) Tree and sapling diameters shall be measured at 4 1/2 feet above the ground for existing trees and saplings, or by caliper at a height consistent with established nursery industry standards when nursery stock is to be used, and are scored as follows:

Diameter or Caliper Score

1 to 3 inches – 1

3 to 6 inches – 5

6 to 12 inches – 10

12 to 24 inches – 15

Greater than 24 inches – 25

(ii) Shrubs and groundcover plants shall be scored as follows:

Four square feet of shrub area – 1 point.

Ground cover planted in the form of sod or mat – one point for every 50 square feet.

Shrub and groundcover shall not count for more than 25 points in each full segment.

(iii) Dead, diseased, or unsafe trees or saplings shall not be included in scoring.

(iv) If the total tree and sapling score in any 50 foot by 50 foot segment exceeds 50 points, then trees, saplings, shrubs, and groundcover

(vegetation) may be removed as long as the sum of the scores for the remaining trees and saplings in that segment does not total less than 50 points. If for any reason there is insufficient area for a full segment, or the segment contains areas incapable of supporting trees and saplings, such as areas of rock, ledge, or beaches, the point score requirement for the remaining vegetation in that partial segment shall be reduced proportionally to that required of a full segment. Vegetation shall not be removed from any segment which fails to meet the minimum point score for that segment. Owners are encouraged to take efforts to plan the maintenance of their waterfront buffer areas including the planting of additional non-invasive vegetation to increase point scores within segments, thus providing sufficient points to allow the future removal of vegetation as may become necessary while still meeting the requirements of this paragraph.

(v) The department shall approve applications pursuant to RSA 482-A or RSA 483-B that include the planting of trees, saplings, shrubs, and groundcover as necessary to at least maintain either the existing point score or the minimum score required. The department shall not approve any application that would result in a combined vegetation score of less than the minimum score required where the segment initially meets the minimum score or would result in any reduction of the point score where the segment does not initially meet the minimum score.

(vi) Owners of lots and holders of easements on lots that were legally developed prior to July 1, 2008 may maintain but not enlarge cleared areas, including but not limited to existing lawns, gardens, landscaped areas, beaches, and rights-of-way for public utilities, public transportation, and public access, and may repair existing utility structures within the waterfront buffer. Conversion to or planting of cleared areas with non-invasive species of ground cover, shrubs, saplings, and trees is encouraged but shall not be required unless it is necessary to meet the requirements of subparagraph (g)(2) or (g)(3), or RSA 483-B:11, II.

(vii) Normal trimming, pruning, and thinning of branches to the extent necessary to maintain the health of the planted area as well to protect structures, maintain clearances, and provide views is permitted provided such activity does not endanger the health of the plant.

(viii) When necessary for the completion of construction activities permitted in accordance with RSA 483-B:6, a temporary 12 foot wide access path shall be allowed. On those properties accessible only by water, this access path may be maintained provided it is stabilized with a surface that will infiltrate stormwater. On other properties the access path shall be completely restored and replanted with vegetation upon completion of construction except as allowed under subparagraph (ix).

(ix) A permanent 6-foot wide foot path as well as access to any docks, beaches, structures, existing open areas, and the water body, configured in a manner that will not concentrate storm water runoff or contribute to erosion, are allowed.

(b) Maintenance of a Natural Woodland Buffer.

(1) A natural woodland buffer shall be maintained within 150 feet of the reference line. The first 50 feet of this buffer is designated the waterfront buffer and is subject to the additional requirements of subparagraph (a). The purpose of the natural woodland buffer shall be to protect the quality of public waters by minimizing erosion, preventing siltation and turbidity, stabilizing soils, preventing excess nutrient and chemical pollution, maintaining natural water temperatures, maintaining a healthy tree canopy and understory, preserving fish and wildlife habitat, and respecting the overall natural condition of the protected shoreland.

(2) Within the natural woodland buffer of a given lot the vegetation, except lawn, within at least 25 percent of the area outside the waterfront buffer shall be maintained unaltered or improved with additional vegetation. Owners of lots legally developed or landscaped prior to July 1, 2008 that do not comply with this standard are encouraged to, but shall not be required to, increase the percentage of area to be maintained in an unaltered state. The percentage of area maintained in an unaltered state on nonconforming lots shall not be decreased.

19 Impervious Surfaces. Amend RSA 483-B:9, V(g) to read as follows:

(g) Impervious surfaces.

(1) ~~[Subject to subparagraph (2);]~~ No more than 30 percent of the area of a lot located within the protected shoreland shall be composed of impervious surfaces, unless a stormwater management system designed and certified by a professional engineer that will not concentrate stormwater runoff or contribute to erosion is implemented.

(2) If the impervious surface area will exceed 20 percent, a stormwater management system shall be implemented and maintained which is designed to infiltrate increased stormwater from development occurring after the effective date of this paragraph in accordance with rules established by the department under RSA 485-A:17.

(3) If the impervious surface area will exceed ~~[20]~~ 30 percent and the ~~[natural]~~ tree, ~~[and]~~ sapling ~~[cover]~~, shrub, and groundcover in the waterfront buffer does not meet the ~~[50-point minimum]~~ point score requirement of RSA 483-B:9, V(a)(2)(D) in any segment, then such segment shall be planted, as determined by rule of the department, with ~~[native]~~ trees, saplings, shrubs, or ~~[natural ground cover]~~ groundcover in sufficient quantity, type, and location either to meet the minimum score or to provide at least an equivalent level of protection as provided by the minimum score and shall be maintained in accordance with RSA 483-B:9, V(a).

20 Waivers. Amend RSA 483-B:9, V(i) to read as follows;

(i) The commissioner shall have the authority to grant ~~[variances]~~ waivers from the minimum standards of this section. Such authority shall be exercised ~~[subject to the criteria which govern the grant of a variance by a zoning board of adjustment under RSA 674:33, I(b)]~~ if the commissioner deems that strict compliance with the minimum standards of this section will provide no material benefit to the public and have no material adverse effect on the environment or the natural resources of the state. Waivers shall also be granted to accommodate the reasonable needs of persons with disabilities.

21 Nonconforming Lots of Record. Amend RSA 483-B:10, I to read as follows:

I. Except when otherwise prohibited by law, present and successive owners of an individual undeveloped lot may construct a single family residential dwelling and appurtenant accessory structures on it, notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter. Conditions may be imposed which, in the opinion of the commissioner, more nearly meet the intent of this chapter, while still accommodating the applicant's rights.

22 New Paragraph; Nonconforming Lots of Record; Merger. Amend RSA 483-B:10 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. Consistent with RSA 674:39-a, a municipality shall not merge adjacent nonconforming lots in common ownership without the consent of the owner.

23 Nonconforming Structures. RSA 483-B:11 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

483-B:11 Nonconforming Structures.

I. Except as otherwise prohibited by law or applicable municipal ordinance, nonconforming structures located within the protected shoreland may be repaired, replaced in kind, reconstructed in place, altered, or expanded. Repair, replacement-in-kind, or reconstruction in place may alter or remodel the interior design or existing foundation of the nonconforming structure, but shall result in no expansion or relocation of the existing footprint within the waterfront buffer. However, alteration or expansion of a nonconforming structure may expand the existing footprint within the waterfront buffer, provided the structure is not extended closer to the reference line and the proposal or property is made more nearly conforming than the existing structure or the existing conditions of the property.

II. For the purposes of this section, a proposal that is "more nearly conforming" means alteration of the location or size of the existing footprints, or redevelopment of the existing conditions of the property, such that the structures or the property are brought into greater conformity with the design standards of this chapter. Methods for achieving greater conformity include, without limitation, reducing the overall square footage of structural footprints, enhancing stormwater management, adding infiltration areas and landscaping, upgrading wastewater treatment, improving traffic management, or other enhancements that improve wildlife habitat or resource protection.

III. An expansion that increases the sewerage load to an onsite septic system, or changes or expands the use of a septic system, shall require a subsurface approval issued by the department.

IV. Under paragraph I, and except as otherwise prohibited by law or applicable municipal ordinance, primary nonconforming structures may be entirely demolished and reconstructed, with continued encroachment into the waterfront buffer, provided the replacement structure is located farther back from the reference line than the preexisting nonconforming structure.

24 Rulemaking. Amend RSA 483-B:17, IV to read as follows:

IV. Procedures and criteria for the size[;] and placement[~~;-and construction~~] of small accessory structures such as storage sheds and gazebos, which are consistent with the intent of this chapter, between the reference line and the primary building line.

25 Penalties. RSA 483-B:18, III is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

III. Persons violating the provisions of this chapter and damaging the public waterway who, after notification by the department, fail to make a good faith effort at remediation and restoration shall be subject to the following:

(b) The commissioner, after notice and hearing pursuant to RSA 541-A, may impose an administrative fine of up to $5,000 for each offense upon any person who violates this chapter. Rehearings and appeals relating to such fines shall be governed by RSA 541. Imposition of an administrative fine under this section shall not preclude the imposition of further civil penalties under this chapter.

(c) Notwithstanding the $5,000 fine limit in subparagraph (b), the administrative fine for each repeat violation of this chapter may be multiplied by a factor of 2 for every previous violation committed by the person or entity.

26 New Paragraph; Shoreland Advisory Committee. Amend RSA 483-B:21 by inserting after paragraph VII the following new paragraph:

VIII. Any permit applications denied under any section of this chapter shall be reported to the shoreland advisory committee by the department.

27 Permit Application Fees; Effective Date. Amend 2008, 5:28, II to read as follows:

II. Paragraph I of section 27 of this act shall take effect July 1, [2011] 2016.

28 Definitions. Amend RSA 483-B:4, XVII(a) to read as follows:

(a) For all lakes, ponds, and artificial impoundments greater than 10 acres in size, the surface elevation as listed in the Consolidated List of Water Bodies subject to the [Comprehensive] shoreland water quality protection act as maintained by the department.

29 Shoreland Advisory Committee. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 483-B:21 to read as follows:

There is established a shoreland advisory committee. All members shall be New Hampshire residents representing diverse geographic areas of the state. The primary focus of this committee is to address residential shorefront owner input and perspective relating to shoreland development regulated under the [comprehensive] shoreland water quality protection act under this chapter and the regulation of shoreline structures under RSA 482-A.

30 Approval to Increase a Load on a Sewage System. Amend RSA 485-A:38, II-a(c) to read as follows:

(c) When applicable, the proposed expansion, relocation, or replacement complies with the requirements of the [comprehensive] shoreland water quality protection act, RSA 483-B.

31 Repeal. RSA 483-B:9, V(c)(1), relative to subdivision of land within the protected shoreland, is repealed.

32 Effective Date.

I. Section 27 of this act shall take effect June 30, 2011.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 154 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill makes extensive changes and renames the Comprehensive Shoreland Protection Act. The legislation seeks to meet the goals of protecting water quality, the shoreland environment, while maintaining traditional property rights.

SB 154 as amended comes before the Senate after much deliberation and examination between all stakeholders who produced this legislation, which seeks to create a clear, complete approach to reforming the act. I would note that some of the organizations that worked on and support this act are the New Hampshire Lakes Association, the Homebuilders Association, as well as organizations dedicated to personal property rights, and has the support of the Department of Environmental Services.

The proposed title change to the shoreland water quality protection act is just one example of the way this legislation seeks to bring clarity and improvements to enhance the act while not weakening the provisions that have helped make New Hampshire's water quality what it is today.

I respectfully request that the Senate support the Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 154. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Sen. Bradley asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 154-FN.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows the department of administrative services to invoice and collect payment for participation in the group insurance plan by members of the general court.

Recess. Out of recess.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President, and please accept my apologies for being a little unorganized this morning.

Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 152-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 152-FN allows the Commissioner of the Department of Administrative Services to invoice and collect payment for participation in the group insurance plan by members of the General Court.

The amendment to Senate Bill 152-FN was brought forward to give the Commissioner of the Department of Administrative Services the authority for terminating group insurance benefits, which is not expressly current in law.

The ED&A Committee voted unanimously in favor, 5-0. Therefore, we ask for your support in the adoption of Senate Bill 152-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 153-FN, relative to the regulation of real estate appraisers by the New Hampshire real estate appraiser board. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

Amendment to SB 153-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 New Paragraphs; Definitions. Amend RSA 310-B:2 by inserting after paragraph XV the following new paragraphs:

XVI. "Agency" means the New Hampshire real estate appraiser board, which is responsible for registering appraisal management companies under this act.

XVII. "Appraisal" means the practice of developing an opinion of the value of real property in conformance with the Uniform Standards for Professional Appraisal Practice as developed by the Appraisal Foundation.

XVIII. "Appraisal management company" means, in connection with valuing properties collateralizing mortgage loans or mortgages incorporated into a securitization, any external third party authorized either by a creditor of a consumer credit transaction secured by a consumer's principal dwelling or by an underwriter of, or other principal in, the secondary mortgage markets:

(a) To recruit, select, and retain appraisers;

(b) To contract with licensed and certified appraisers to perform appraisal assignments;

(c) To manage the process of having an appraisal performed, including providing administrative duties such as receiving appraisal orders and appraisal reports, submitting completed appraisal reports to creditors and underwriters, collecting fees from creditors and underwriters for services provided, and reimbursing appraisers for services performed; or

(d) To review and verify the work of appraisers.

XIX. "Appraisal review" means the act or process of developing and communicating an opinion about the quality of another appraiser's work that was performed as part of an appraisal assignment, except that a Quality Control Examination of an appraisal report shall not be an appraisal review.

XX. "Appraiser" means an individual who holds a license or certification as an appraiser and is expected to perform valuation services competently and in a manner that is independent, impartial, and objective.

XXI. "Appraiser panel" means a group of licensed or certified independent appraisers that have been selected to perform appraisal services for a third party.

XXII. "Controlling person" means:

(a) An officer director, or owner of greater than a 10 percent interest, of a corporation, partnership or other business entity, seeking to act as an appraisal management company in this state; or

(b) An individual employed, appointed, or authorized by an appraisal management company that has the authority to enter into a contractual relationship with other persons for the performance of services requiring registration as an appraisal management company and has the authority to enter into agreements with appraisers for the performance of appraisals; or

(c) An individual who possesses, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of an appraisal management company.

XXIII. "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company, association, corporation, or other group engaged in joint business activities, however organized.

XXIV. "Quality Control Examination" is an examination of an appraisal report for compliance and completeness including grammatical, typographical, or other similar errors.

XXV. "Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice" (USPAP) means the current standards of the appraisal profession, developed for appraisers and users of appraisal services by the Appraisal Standards Board of the Appraisal Foundation.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 7 the following and renumbering the original sections 8-19 to read as 9-20:

8 New Sections; Registration of Appraisal Management Companies.
Amend RSA 310-B by inserting after section 12-a the following new sections:

310-B:12-b Registration of Appraisal Management Companies.

I. It is unlawful for a person to directly or indirectly engage in or attempt to engage in business as an appraisal management company or to advertise or hold itself out as engaging in or conducting business as an appraisal management company in this state without first obtaining a registration issued by the agency under the provisions of this chapter.

(a) An applicant for registration as an appraisal management company in this state shall submit to the agency an application on a form or forms prescribed by the agency.

(b) In the event a registration process is unavailable upon the effective date of this chapter, an appraisal management company already conducting business in this state may continue to conduct business in accordance with this chapter until the 120th day after a registration process becomes available.

II. An application for the registration required by paragraph I of this section shall include the following information:

(a) Name of the person seeking registration and the fictitious name or names (if any) under which it does business in any state;

(b) Business address of the person seeking registration;

(c) Phone contact information of the person seeking registration;

(d) If the person is not a corporation that is domiciled in this state, the name and contact information for the company's agent for service of process in this state;

(e) The name, address, and contact information for any individual or any corporation, partnership, or other business entity that owns 10 percent or more of the appraisal management company;

(f) The name, address, and contact information for one controlling person designated as the main contact for all communication between the appraisal management company and the agency;

(g) A certification that the person has a system and process in place to verify that an individual being added to the appraiser panel of the appraisal management company holds a license in good standing in this state under this chapter if a license or certification is required to perform appraisals;

(h) A certification that the person requires appraisers completing appraisals at its request to comply with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) including the requirements for geographic and product competence;

(i) A certification that the person has a system in place to verify that only licensed or certified appraisers are used for federally related transactions;

(j) A certification that the person has a system in place to require that appraisals are conducted independently and free from inappropriate influence and coercion as required by the appraisal independence standards established under section 129E of the Truth in Lending Act, including the requirement that fee appraisers be compensated at a customary and reasonable rate when the appraisal management company is providing services for a consumer credit transaction secured by the principal dwelling of a consumer.

(k) A certification that the person maintains a detailed record of each service request that it receives and the appraiser that performs the residential real estate appraisal services for the appraisal management company;

(l) An irrevocable uniform consent to service of process, pursuant to RSA 310-B:12-c.

(m) Any other information required by the agency which is reasonably necessary to implement this chapter.

III. An application for the renewal of a registration shall include substantially similar information required for the initial registration as noted in paragraph II, as determined by the agency.

IV. A registration granted by the agency pursuant to this chapter shall be valid for one year from the date on which it is issued.

310-B:12-b Appraisal Management Company Exemptions.

I. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to an appraisal management company that is a subsidiary owned and controlled by a financial institution regulated by a federal financial institutions regulatory agency.

II. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to a business entity that exclusively engages real estate appraisers on an employer and employee basis for the performance of all real property appraisal services in the normal course of its business, except to the extent federal law or regulation requires such entities to register with and be subject to supervision by a state appraiser certifying and licensing agency.

310-B:12-c Appraisal Management Company Consent to Service of Process. Each person applying for a registration as an appraisal management company that is not domiciled in this state shall complete an irrevocable uniform consent to service of process, as prescribed by the agency.

310-B:12-d Appraisal Management Company Fee.

I. The agency shall establish by rule or regulation a processing fee to be paid by each appraisal management company seeking registration under this chapter that is sufficient for the administration of the registration process.

II. A similar processing fee, may be charged by the agency in connection with the renewal of any registrations.

310-B:12-e Appraisal Management Company Owner Requirements.

I. An appraisal management company applying for registration in this state shall not:

(a) Be owned by any person who has had an appraiser license or certificate in this state or in any other state, refused, denied, cancelled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked, unless such license or certificate was subsequently granted or reinstated;

(b) Be more than 10 percent owned by a person who is not of good moral character, which for purposes of this section shall require that such person has not been convicted of, or entered a plea of nolo contendere to, a felony relating to the practice of appraisal, banking, mortgage lending or the provision of financial services, or any crime involving fraud, misrepresentation or moral turpitude.

II. For purposes of subparagraph I(b), each owner of more than 10 percent of an appraisal management company shall submit to a background investigation to be carried out by a law enforcement agency or other entity authorized by the agency.

310-B:12-f Appraisal Management Company Designated Contact. Each appraisal management company applying to the agency for registration in this state shall designate one controlling person who is an employee of the appraisal management company that will be the designated contact for all communication between the agency and the appraisal management company.

310-B:12-g Appraisal Management Company Appraiser Credentials.

I. An appraisal management company that applies to the agency for a registration to do business in this state as an appraisal management company shall not:

(a) Knowingly employ any individual to perform appraisal services, who has had a license or certificate to act as an appraiser in this state or in any other state, refused, denied, cancelled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked, unless such license or certificate was subsequently granted or reinstated;

(b) Knowingly enter into any independent contractor arrangement for the performance of appraisal services, in verbal, written, or other form, with any individual who has had a license or certificate to act as an appraiser in this state or in any other state, refused, denied, cancelled, surrendered in lieu of revocation, or revoked, unless such license or certificate was subsequently granted or reinstated.

II. Prior to assigning appraisal orders, an appraisal management company shall have a system in place to verify that a person being added to the appraiser panel holds the appropriate appraiser credential in good standing.

III. Each appraisal management company seeking to be registered in this state shall certify to the agency on an annual basis on a form prescribed by the agency that the appraisal management company has systems in place to verify that:

(a) An individual on the appraiser panel has not had a license or certification as an appraiser refused, denied, cancelled, revoked, or surrendered in lieu of a pending revocation in the previous 12 months, unless such license or certificate was subsequently granted or reinstated; and

(b) Only licensed or certified appraisers are used to complete appraisal assignments in connection with federally related transactions.

310-B:12-h Appraisal Management Company; Appraisal Review. Any employee of, or independent contractor to, an appraisal management company that performs a USPAP Standard 3 review of an appraisal report on property located in this state shall be an appraiser with the proper level of licensure issued by the agency. Quality control examinations are exempt from this requirement as they are not considered a Standard 3 review.

310-B:12-i Appraisal Management Company; Adherence to Standards.

I. Each appraisal management company seeking to be registered in this state shall certify to the agency on an annual basis that it requires appraisers completing appraisals at its request to comply with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice including the requirements for geographic and product competence.

II. Each appraisal management company seeking to be registered in this state shall certify to the agency on an annual basis that it has a system in place to require that appraisals are conducted independently and free from inappropriate influence and coercion as required by the appraisal independence standards established under section 129E of the Truth in Lending Act, including the requirement that fee appraisers be compensated at a customary and reasonable rate when the appraisal management company is providing services for a consumer credit transaction secured by the principal dwelling of a consumer.

III. An appraisal management company shall not prohibit an appraiser from reporting the fee paid to the appraiser in the body of the appraisal report, however an appraisal management company may require an appraiser to present any such disclosure in a specified format and location.

310-B:12-j Appraisal Management Company; Recordkeeping. Each appraisal management company seeking to be registered in this state shall certify to the agency on an annual basis that it maintains a detailed record of each service request that it receives and the appraiser that performs the appraisal for the appraisal management company. Such records must be retained for a period of at least 5 years after an appraisal is completed or 2 years after final disposition of a judicial proceeding related to the assignment, whichever period expires later.

310-B:12-k Appraisal Management Company; Appraisal Reports.

I. An appraisal management company may not alter, modify, or otherwise change a completed appraisal report submitted by an appraiser without the appraiser's written consent, except as necessary to comply with regulatory mandates or legal requirements.

II. An appraisal management company may not use an appraisal report submitted by an independent appraiser, or any of the data or information contained therein, for any purpose other than its intended use without the appraiser's or the intended end user's written consent.

310-B:12-l Appraisal Management Company; Registration Number.

I. The agency shall issue a unique registration number to each appraisal management company registered in this state pursuant to this chapter.

II. The agency shall maintain a list of the appraisal management companies registered in this state and the registration numbers assigned to such persons.

III. An appraisal management company registered in this state shall disclose the registration number provided to it by the agency on the engagement documents presented to an appraiser.

310-B:12-m Appraisal Management Company; Unlawful Acts.

I. It shall be a violation of this chapter for any employee, partner, director, officer, or agent of an appraisal management company to:

(a) Influence or attempt to influence the development, reporting, result, or review of an appraisal through coercion, extortion, collusion, compensation, inducement, intimidation, bribery or in any other manner, including but not limited to:

(i) Withholding or threatening to withhold timely payment or partial payment for an appraisal with the exception of a substandard or noncompliant appraisal;

(ii) Withholding or threatening to withhold future business from an appraiser, or demoting, terminating or threatening to demote or terminate an appraiser;

(iii) Promising or implying that an appraiser may be given opportunities for future business, promotions, or increased compensation;

(iv) Conditioning an assignment of an appraisal or the payment of an appraisal fee or salary or bonus on the opinion, conclusion, or valuation to be reached, or on a preliminary estimate or opinion requested from an appraiser;

(v) Requesting that an appraiser provide an estimated, predetermined, or desired valuation in an appraisal, or provide estimated values or comparable sales at any time prior to the appraiser's completion of an appraisal;

(vi) Providing to an appraiser an anticipated, estimated, encouraged, or desired value for a subject property or a proposed or target amount to be loaned to the borrower, except that a copy of the sales contract for purchase transactions may be provided; and

(vii) Requiring an appraiser to prepare an appraisal report if the appraiser has indicated to the appraisal management company that he or she does not have the necessary expertise for the specific geographic area.

(b) Require an appraiser to indemnify the appraisal management company against liability, damages, losses, or claims other than those liabilities, damages, losses or claims arising out of the services performed by the appraiser, including performance or non-performance of the appraiser's duties and obligations, whether as a result of negligence or willful misconduct.

(c) Submit or attempt to submit false, misleading, or inaccurate information in any application for registration or renewal;

(d) Fail to timely respond to any subpoena or any other legally-binding request for information;

(e) Fail to timely obey a lawful administrative order of the agency; or

(f) Fail to fully cooperate in any agency investigation.

II. Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter, an appraisal management company shall not be prohibited from requesting that an appraiser:

(a) Consider additional appropriate property information;

(b) Provide additional information concerning the basis for an evaluation; or

(c) Correct objective factual errors in an appraisal report.

310-B:12-n Appraisal Management Company; Mandatory Reporting. An appraisal management company that has a reasonable basis to believe an appraiser has failed to comply with applicable laws, the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice or other ethical or professional requirements in connection with a consumer credit transaction secured by a consumer's principal dwelling, shall refer the matter to the agency if the failure to comply is material. For purposes of this section, a failure to comply is material if it is likely to significantly affect the value assigned to the consumer's principal dwelling.

310-B:12-o Appraisal Management Company; Rulemaking Authority. The agency may adopt rules consistent with the provisions of this chapter that are reasonably necessary to implement, administer, and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

Amend RSA 310-B:16-a, IV as inserted by section 12 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. The requirements of this section shall take effect to appraisal management companies beginning the later of:

(a) January 1, 2012; or

(b) 120 days after the first date on which all rules, forms and policies necessary to implement this chapter have been finalized and made available by the agency. No unregistered appraisal management company may perform services related to a federally related transaction in the New Hampshire after January 1, 2012.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 153-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 153-FN makes various changes to the regulation of the real estate appraisers by the real estate appraisal board, which includes registration of appraisal management companies and changes related to the federal Dodd-Frank Reform Act. The real estate appraiser board would be authorized to establish fees for the registration of appraisal management companies.

Senate Bill 153-FN also brings the New Hampshire real estate appraisal board in compliance with the federal mandates issued under the Dodd-Frank Reform Act. The ED&A Committee voted unanimously in favor, 5-0. Therefore, we ask your support in the adoption of Senate Bill 153-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 161-FN, relative to procedures for adoption of agency rules under the administrative procedures act. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

Amendment to SB 161-FN

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Procedure for Adopting Rule; Public Hearing. Amend RSA 541-A:3, IV to read as follows:

IV. ~~[Holding]~~ Scheduling a public hearing and receiving comments under RSA 541-A:11;

2 Notice of Rulemaking Proceedings; Scheduled Public Hearing; Concise Summary. Amend RSA 541-A:6, I(e) and (f) to read as follows:

(e) The date of the first scheduled agency public hearing and the cut-off date for the submission of written materials to the agency.

(f) If existing rules are being amended, readopted, or readopted with amendment, a concise summary ~~[explaining the effect]~~ of the ~~[rule]~~ existing rules and any proposed amendments, and if the proposed rules are being adopted, a concise summary of the proposed rules.

3 Notice of Rulemaking Proceedings; Substantial Noncompliance Scheduled Public Hearing. Amend RSA 541-A:6, II and III to read as follows:

II. The director of legislative services may refuse to publish a notice if the director determines that there is significant noncompliance with the requirements of paragraph I. In this paragraph, "significant non-compliance" means one or more errors of such magnitude that a reasonable person would not be able to discern what rules are the subject of the rulemaking proceeding and/or what the agency is proposing to do. The term includes the absence of elements required by paragraph I.

III. The agency shall send notice to the director of legislative services, to all persons regulated by the proposed rules who hold occupational licenses issued by the agency, and to all persons who have made timely request for advance notice of rulemaking proceedings. Upon request the agency shall send notice to the president of the senate, to the speaker of the house of representatives, to the chairperson of the fiscal committee, and to the chairpersons of the legislative committees having jurisdiction over the subject matter. Notice shall be made not less than 20 days before the first scheduled agency public hearing required by RSA 541-A:11, I. Notice to occupational licensees shall be by U.S. Mail, electronically, agency bulletin or newsletter, public notice advertisement in a publication of daily statewide circulation, or in such other manner that is reasonably calculated to inform such licensees of the proposed rulemaking. The committee may identify additional methods of notifying occupational licensees that are deemed sufficient [by the committee].

4 New Paragraphs; Rulemaking Register; Authority of Director; Date of Publication. Amend RSA 541-A:9 by inserting after paragraph I the following new paragraphs:

I-a. Prior to publication and with prior notice to the agency, the director of legislative services may correct typographical, spelling, and punctuation errors, as well as unintentional errors in references and citations in a submission, provided the corrections do not affect the substance of the notice.

I-b. The date of publication of the rulemaking register shall be the date on which the register is available to the public on the general court information services web site.

5 Rulemaking Register; Electronic Copies. Amend RSA 541-A:9, II and III to read as follows:

II. The rulemaking register shall be made available upon request to agencies and officials of this state free of charge. The director of legislative services shall send a paper or electronic copy of the rulemaking register upon request to the clerk of each municipality in the state and upon request to any member of the general court free of charge. Municipalities and members of the general court shall be deemed to have requested an electronic copy unless a paper copy is specifically requested. Paper copies of the register which are sent to municipalities and to members of the general court shall be sent by first-class mail.

III. Paper copies of the register shall also be made available upon request to other persons at prices fixed by the director of legislative services to cover mailing and publication costs.

6 Filing Proposed Rule Text; Establishing and Revising Text of Rules. Amend RSA 541-A:10 to read as follows:

541-A:10 Filing of Proposed Rule Text; Establishing and Revising Text.

I. At the same time the notice required by RSA 541-A:6, I is filed, the agency shall file the text of the proposed rule with the director of legislative services. The text of the proposed rules as filed pursuant to RSA 541-A:3, III shall not be changed ~~[or established as]~~ prior to the hearing scheduled pursuant to RSA 541-A:11, I(a).

II. The agency shall not establish the text of the final proposal until after the conclusion of the public comment period established pursuant to RSA ~~[541-A:11]~~ 541-A:11, I(b). If the agency elects to solicit comment pursuant to RSA 541-A:11, I(c), the agency shall prepare a draft final proposal that is annotated to show how the rules as initially proposed are proposed to be changed. In response to comment received, the agency may revise the draft prior to filing the final proposal in accordance with RSA 541-A:12.

7 Public Hearing; Public Comment Period. Amend RSA 541-A:11, I to read as follows:

I.(a) Each agency shall ~~[hold]~~ schedule at least one public hearing on all proposed rules filed pursuant to RSA 541-A:3 and shall afford all interested persons reasonable opportunity to testify and to submit data, views, or arguments in writing or, if practicable for the agency, in electronic format, in accordance with the terms of the notice filed pursuant to RSA 541-A:3, I and the provisions of this section. The office of legislative services shall provide oral or written comments on potential bases for committee objection under RSA 541-A:13, IV in a form and manner determined by the director of the office of legislative services. Each agency shall require all materials submitted in writing to be signed by the person who submits them, and the agency shall transfer to hard copy, if practicable for the agency, all materials submitted as diskette, electronic mail, or other electronic format. Copies of the proposed rule shall be available to the public under RSA 91-A and at least 5 days prior to the date of the scheduled hearing.

(b) For rules proposed by a board or commission, a period of at least ~~[10]~~ 5 business days after the hearing shall be provided for the submission of materials in writing or in electronic format, unless a shorter period is specified in the notice. If a shorter period is specified in the notice, the deadline for the submission of such materials shall not be earlier than the scheduled conclusion of the public hearing. For rules proposed by an agency official, a period of at least ~~[10]~~ 5 business days after the hearing shall be provided in all instances. If a hearing is continued or postponed as provided in paragraph III or IV of this section, the period for the submission of materials in writing or in electronic format shall be extended unless the previously-established deadline meets the applicable requirement specified above.

(c) An agency may hold a public hearing or otherwise solicit public comment on a draft final proposed rule prior to filing the final proposed rule pursuant to RSA 541-A:3, V. Notice of such hearing or comment period shall be provided by such means as are deemed appropriate to reach interested persons, which may include publishing a notice in the rulemaking register.

8 New Paragraph; Public Hearing; Preregistration. Amend RSA 541-A:11 by inserting after paragraph I the following new paragraph:

I-a. For an agency that has adopted preregistration requirements under RSA 541-A:16, I(b)(3), the agency may cancel a scheduled hearing if the agency:

(a) Has a reasonable belief that no member of the public is likely to attend the hearing;

(b) Has clearly stated the requirement to preregister for the hearing prominently in the notice filed under RSA 541-A:6, I, and in any other information about the rulemaking proceeding the agency has distributed to interested persons;

(c) Has received no preregistration for attendance at a scheduled hearing as of 2 business days in advance of the hearing; and

(d) Informs the director of legislative services of the cancellation.

Cancellation of the public hearing shall not affect the deadline for submission of comments.

9 Filing Final Proposal; Incorporation by Reference; Internet Content. Amend RSA 541-A:12, II-IV to read as follows:

II. The final proposal shall include:

(a) A cover sheet listing:

(1) The number of the notice and the date the notice appeared in the rulemaking register;

(2) The name and address of the agency;

(3) The title and number of the rule; and

(4) A citation to the statutory authority for the rule.

(b) ~~Two copies~~ One copy of the established text of the final proposed rule.

(c) ~~A copy of the full text of the statutory authority for the rule.~~

(d) If required pursuant to RSA 541-A:5, VI, an amended fiscal impact statement from the legislative budget assistant stating that as a result of notice and hearing the rule did change and explaining how this change affects the original fiscal impact statement.

~~(e)~~ (d) A copy of the fixed text of the final proposed rule annotated clearly to show how the final proposed rule differs from the rule as initially proposed, if the text has changed.

III. ~~[With the final proposal, the agency shall also file the incorporation by reference statement described by paragraph IV of this section, if the]~~ An agency [incorporates into] may establish requirements in its rules [any] by citing to a document or to Internet content prepared by [any entity outside the agency] an unrelated third party. If state-enforceable requirements are so established, the agency shall file an incorporation by reference statement as specified in paragraph IV with the final proposal. ~~[However, the]~~ No agency shall ~~[not]~~ incorporate by reference any document or Internet content prepared by or on behalf of the agency.

IV. Any ~~[required]~~ incorporation by reference statement required by paragraph III shall include a ~~[separately signed]~~ statement signed by the adopting authority:

(a) Certifying that the text of the ~~[matter]~~ incorporated document or Internet content has been reviewed by the agency, with the name of the reviewing official;

(b) Explaining how the text of the ~~[matter]~~ incorporated document or Internet content can be obtained by the public, and at what cost;

(c) Explaining any modifications to the ~~[matter]~~ incorporated document or Internet content;

(d) Discussing the comparative desirability of reproducing the incorporated ~~[matter]~~ document or Internet content in full in the text of the rule; and

(e) Certifying that the agency has the capability and the intent to enforce the ~~[rule]~~ requirements being incorporated.

V. If an agency establishes requirements by incorporating undated Internet content by reference, the agency shall make a read- only copy of the incorporated Internet content no later than the date of filing the incorporation by reference statement, and make the dated copy available to the public.

541-A:14-a Extension of Currently Effective Rules Pending Re-adoption.

I. If an agency files a notice pursuant to RSA 541-A:6 to readopt existing rules, with or without amendments, the currently effective rules in the filing which would otherwise expire prior to the completion of the readoption of the rules by the agency shall continue in effect until the proposed rules are adopted and effective.

II. If, after filing a notice pursuant to paragraph I, an agency fails to file a final proposal by the deadline specified in RSA 541-A:12, fails to file a response to objection as specified in RSA 541-A:13, or fails to adopt and file the proposed rule as specified in paragraph III, the existing rules which would otherwise expire prior to the completion of the readoption of the rules by the agency shall expire 30 days after such deadline unless the agency has obtained a waiver of the deadline pursuant to RSA 541-A:40, IV(a). If the agency has obtained a waiver to a deadline, such existing rules shall expire 30 days after the deadline established pursuant to RSA 541-A:40, IV(b) if the required action is not taken.

III. If rules are extended pursuant to this section, the agency shall:

(a) Adopt the proposed rules no later than 30 days after the date on which the agency is allowed to adopt the rules under RSA 541-A:14, I; and

(b) File the rules as required by RSA 541-A:14, III with an effective date that is not more than 60 days from the date of filing, except that an agency may specify an effective date that is more than 60 days from the date of filing if a waiver is obtained pursuant to RSA 541-A:40.

11 Agency Rules; Preregistration for Public Hearings. Amend RSA 541-A:16, I(b)(3) to read as follows:

(3) Rules governing public comment hearings for rulemaking, including preregistration procedures if the agency intends to require preregistration for any rulemaking hearing.

12 Filing Rules; Effective Date. Amend RSA 541-A:16, III to read as follows:

III. A rule shall become effective as of 12:01 a.m. on the day after the filing of the adopted rule or as of 12:01 a.m. on the date specified by the agency pursuant to RSA 541-A:14, IV, RSA 541-A:14-a, III, or RSA 541-A:19, X, or such other date and time as specified, provided that filing occurs before such effective date and time. Except as provided in RSA 541-A:14-a, a rule adopted under RSA 541-A:14, IV shall expire after the last day of the [eighth] tenth year following its becoming effective, unless sooner amended, readopted, or repealed.

13 Time Limit; Effective Period. Amend RSA 541-A:17, I to read as follows:

I. No rule shall be effective for a period of longer than [8]10 years except as extended pursuant to RSA 541-A:14-a, but the agency may adopt an identical rule under RSA 541-A:5 through RSA [541-A:14] 541-A:14-a, in conformance with the drafting and procedure manual adopted under RSA 541-A:8.

14 Emergency Rules. Amend RSA 541-A:18, I to read as follows:

I. [~~If an~~] An agency may proceed to adopt an emergency rule if it finds either that an imminent peril to the public health or safety requires adoption of a rule with less notice than is required under RSA

541-A:6 or that substantial fiscal harm to the state or its citizens could occur if rules are not adopted with less notice than is required under RSA 541-A:6. [~~and states in writing its reasons for that finding, it may proceed to adopt an emergency rule.~~] The rule may be adopted without having been filed in proposed or final proposed form and may be adopted after whatever notice and hearing the agency finds to be practicable under the circumstances. The agency shall make reasonable efforts to ensure that emergency rules are made known to persons who may be affected by them.

15 Emergency Rules; Adoption. Amend RSA 541-A:18, III(e) to read as follows:

(e) A signed and dated statement by the adopting authority explaining the nature of the [~~imminent peril to the public health or safety~~] basis for the emergency rule, including [~~a summary~~] an explanation of the effect upon the state if the emergency rule were not adopted.

16 Interim Rules; New or Amended Statute. Amend RSA 541-A:19, I(a) to read as follows:

(a) Conform with a new or amended codified state statute or chaptered session law, provided, however, that an agency shall not publish notice of a proposed interim rule more than [90] 120 days after the effective date of the new or amended codified state statute or chaptered session law;

17 Expedited Process for Readoption of Rules. The director of legislative services shall develop an expedited process for readopting rules which contain no changes or contain only minor changes. Minor changes shall include renumbering, updating internal references, references to documents incorporated by reference, date and year changes, typographical or grammatical errors, and other editorial changes. The director shall consult with agency staff as necessary. The director shall provide a report on an expedited process and any proposals for legislation to the chairperson of the joint legislative committee on administrative rules not later than November 1, 2011.

18 Suspension of Provisions; Waiver. Amend RSA 541-A:40, IV as follows:

IV.(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the director of legislative services may, after consultation with the chair and vice-chair of the joint legislative committee on administrative rules, [~~may,~~] and for good cause shown, waive any deadline or otherwise extend any time period contained in any provision of this chapter which relates to the rulemaking process.

(b) If a deadline is waived or a time period is extended, the director shall, after consultation with the chair and the vice-chair of the committee and the agency whose rules are affected, establish a new deadline by which the required action shall be taken.

19 Transition; Application. The provisions of this act shall govern the following on or after the effective date of this act:

I. All rulemaking initiated by filing a notice of rulemaking under RSA 541-A:6 or RSA 541-A:19-c.

II. All emergency rules adopted under RSA 541-A:18.

III. All interim rules initiated by filing a proposed interim rule under RSA 541-A:19, II.

IV. All expedited repeal of rules under RSA 541-A:19-a.

V. All notices submitted to the director of legislative services for publication in the rulemaking register.

20 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 161-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 161-FN addresses technical and procedural topics relating to administrative rulemaking. It allows for pre-registration for agents at public hearings, gives the Director of Legislative Services discretion in publication of rulemaking notices, provides for electronic copies of the register, allows agencies to hold second public hearings, extends the expiration date of rules from eight to ten years, and allows for extending rules by filing re-adoption of currently effective rules.

This legislation also allows for the incorporation by reference of Internet content, modifies procedures for interim emergency rulemaking, and requires the Director of Legislative Services to develop a process for expedited re-adoption of rules.

The ED&A Committee voted favorably 4-0 on SB 161-FN. Therefore, we ask for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Groen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: One of the discussions we had – one of the biggest issues was the pre-registration issue of, if people wanted to attend the hearing on an administrative rule, they might have to pre-register their intent to come speak on an administrative rule. We have since been having more discussions about that issue, and I understand that's one of the concerns in this bill. If we send this to the Finance Committee, is this a place where we could work on a proposed committee amendment, or an amendment that might address the pre-registration issue?

SENATOR GROEN: Senator Larsen, I would have no objection to that.

SENATOR LARSEN: My understanding in the Finance report that we have on our desks is that 161 is not scheduled to go to the Finance Committee. But, would we now change that to send it to Finance?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Yes, thank you, Senator Larsen. That will be ordered to Finance should the Ought to Pass motion prevail.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you very much.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 177, relative to training of directors and officers of nonprofit corporations. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 177 be re-referred to committee. Senate Bill 177 would require that every publicly-supported voluntary corporation ensure that its directors and chief executive and financial officer receive annual management training.

The ED&A Committee believes that the matter of requiring management training needs further assessment before a confident and ultimate decision on this legislation can be reached. The Committee voted unanimously in favor – 5-0 – to re-refer this bill to committee, and therefore we ask your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Amendment to SB 147-FN

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Medicaid Managed Care. Amend RSA 126-A:5 by inserting after paragraph XVIII the following new paragraph:

XIX.(a) The commissioner shall employ a managed care model for administering the Medicaid program and its enrollees to provide for managed care services for all Medicaid populations throughout as much of New Hampshire as practicable consistent with the provisions of 42 U.S.C. 1396r-2. Models for managed care may include, but not be limited to, a traditional capitated managed care organization contract, an administrative services organization, an accountable care organization, or a primary care case management model, or a combination thereof, offering the best value, quality assurance, and efficiency, maximizing the potential for savings, and presenting the most innovative approach compared to other externally administered models. The department shall present the opportunities of the various models or combination of models to the oversight committee on health and human services with a recommendation for the best managed care model for New Hampshire, no later than June 15, 2011. Services to be managed within the model shall include all mandatory Medicaid covered services and may include, but shall not be limited to, care coordination, utilization management, disease management, pharmacy benefit management, provider network management, quality management, and customer services. After consultation with the oversight committee, the commissioner shall issue a 5-year request for proposals to enter into a contract with the vendor or vendors that demonstrates the greatest ability to satisfy the state's need for value, quality, efficiency, innovation and savings. The request for proposals shall be released no later than October 1, 2011. The vendor or vendors of the managed care model or combination of models demonstrating the greatest ability to satisfy the state's need for value, quality, efficiency, innovation, and savings shall be selected no later than December 1, 2011 with a final contract submitted to the governor and council as soon as practicable thereafter. After the bidding process, the commissioner shall establish a capitated rate based on the bids by the appropriate model for the contract that is full risk to the provider. The capitated rate shall be broken down into rate cells for each population including, but not limited to, the persons eligible for temporary assistance to needy families (TANF), aid for the permanently and totally disabled (APTD), breast and cervical cancer program (BCCP), home care for children with severe disabilities (HC-CSD), and those residing in nursing facilities. The capitated rate shall be approved by the fiscal committee of the general court. The managed care model or models' selected vendor or vendors providing the Medicaid services shall establish medical homes and all Medicaid recipients shall receive their care through a medical home. In contracting for a managed care model and the various rate cells, the department shall ensure no reduction in the quality of care of services provided to enrollees in the managed care model and shall exercise all due diligence to maintain or increase the current level of quality of care provided. The target date for implementation of the contract is July 1, 2012. The commissioner may, in consultation with the fiscal committee, adopt rules, if necessary, to implement the provisions of this paragraph. The department shall seek all necessary and appropriate waivers to implement the provisions of this paragraph.

(b) The department shall ensure that all eligible Medicaid members are enrolled in the managed care model under contract with the department no later than 12 months after the contract is awarded to the vendor or vendors of the managed care model.

(c) For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) An "accountable care organization" means an entity or group which accepts responsibility for the cost and quality of care delivered to Medicaid patients cared for by its clinicians.

(2) "An administrative services organization" means an entity that contracts as an insurance company with a self-funded plan but where the insurance company performs administrative services only and the self-funded entity assumes all risk.

(3) A "managed care organization" means an entity that is authorized by law to provide covered health services on a capitated risk basis and arranges for the provision of medical assistance services and supplies and coordinates the care of Medicaid recipients residing in all areas of the state, including the elderly, those meeting federal supplemental security income and state standards for disability, and those who are also currently enrolled in Medicare. After the first 5 years, a "managed care organization" may include the department of health and human services, with the approval of the fiscal committee.

(4) "A primary care case management" means a system under which a primary care case management contracts with the state to furnish case management services, which include the location, coordination and monitoring of primary health care services, to Medicaid recipients.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the commissioner of the department of health and human services to issue a 5-year request for proposal to enter into a contract with a vendor or vendors of a managed care model after consultation with the oversight committee on health and human services to provide for managed care services to the Medicaid population. The commissioner, in consultation with the fiscal committee of the general court, is granted rulemaking authority for the purposes of this bill.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 147 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 147 requires the Commissioner of Health and Human Services to issue a five-year request for proposal to enter into a contract with a vendor or vendors of a managed care model to provide for managed care services to Medicaid recipients in New Hampshire.

In his budget address, Governor Lynch called for our state to join over 30 other states in implementing a managed care model for services delivered to the Medicaid population. By switching to managed care, Governor Lynch is contemplating a $33 million savings in the budget that he proposed in this biennium alone. However, some believe it could produce even significantly more savings. Therefore, the Committee worked with the Department of Health and Human Services to draft this bill, and the amendment, to establish an aggressive but realistic timeline for implementing this system.

Senate Bill 147 will not only provide necessary cost savings, but will also be an innovative and efficient way of delivering services that are high-quality to our state's Medicaid recipients. The Health and Human Services Committee unanimously recommends that SB 147 Ought to Pass with Amendment and asks for your support.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

Amendment to SB 151-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Contract Consolidation; Department of Health and Human Services.

I. No later than January 1, 2012, the commissioner of the department of health and human services shall develop a plan to consolidate contracts of the department including, but not limited to, contracts for the acquisition of goods and services and for the provision of services to clients of the department. The plan shall be provided for review and comment to the oversight committee on health and human services established pursuant to RSA 126-A:13. For the remainder of the biennium ending June 30, 2013, the commissioner shall provide reports on a quarterly basis to the oversight committee on implementation of the contract consolidation plan.

II. In addition, no later than January 1, 2012, the commissioner shall report the total number of full-time equivalent contract employees and the number of contractors employed at state-run facilities and shall submit such report to the oversight committee on health and human services.

This bill requires the commissioner of the department of health and human service to develop a plan to consolidate all outside contracts and to provide the plan for review and comment to the oversight committee on health and human services.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 151-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 151 requires the Commissioner of the Department of Health and Human Services to develop a plan to consolidate all outside contracts and to provide the plan for review and comment to the oversight committee on Health and Human Services.

As suggested by the Department, the amendment calls for the Department to complete its plan for consolidating contracts by January 1st, 2012, and to provide quarterly reports thereafter throughout the remainder of the biennium. As a result of SB 151-FN, the Department will see administrative cost savings by reducing the number of contracts being administered – the number, which is currently over 750, annually.

Therefore, the Health and Human Services Committee unanimously voted that SB 151-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment and we ask for your support. Thank you.

Amendment to SB 12-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Medical Malpractice Panel and Insurance Oversight. Amend RSA 519-B:11, VI(b) to read as follows:

(b) The committee shall make a final report of its findings about medical liability insurance rates and the mandatory panel process and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate president, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before December 1, ~~[2010]~~ 2013. The report shall include a recommendation to terminate, continue, or amend RSA 519-B.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 12-FN. This legislation merely extends the legislative oversight committee for the medical malpractice screening panels. Regardless of how you feel about the screening panels, we should absolutely have legislative oversight while they are in existence. The bill as introduced extended the oversight committee until 2015. The committee amendment merely changes this until 2013. I would note, Mister President, that while there is a fiscal note on the bill, it appears to have been done in error; there is no cost associated with this bill's implementation.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that SB 12-FN be adopted with amendment and asks your support. Thank you.

Sen. Carson moved to Table SB 14-FN.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR HOUDE: If I may, if you believe, as I believe, that Senate Bill 14-FN is but one of many bills dealing with firearms that we'll be hearing throughout the session, would you not vote against the table motion so that the bill can be re-referred and one less bill dealing with firearms. Thank you, Mister President.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: If you are in favor of the motion to table, you would vote yes. If you are opposed, you would vote no.

Amendment to SB 52-FN

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Parole of Prisoners; Terms of Release. Amend RSA 651-A:6, I(b) to read as follows:

(b) A prisoner convicted of a nonviolent offense who has not been previously convicted of a sexually violent offense as defined in RSA 135-E:2, XI shall be released on parole upon serving 120 percent of the minimum term of his or her sentence, minus any credits received pursuant to RSA 651-A:23, plus the disciplinary period added to such minimum under RSA 651:2, II-e, any part of which is not reduced for good conduct as provided in RSA 651-A:22, unless the parole board votes to deny such release.

2 Parole of Prisoners; Terms of Release. Amend RSA 651-A:6, I(c) to read as follows:

(c) ~~[All prisoners who have not been previously paroled]~~ A prisoner who has not been previously paroled, or who ~~[were]~~ was recommitted to prison more than one year prior to the expiration of the maximum term of his or her sentence, shall be released on parole at least 9 months prior to the expiration of the maximum term of his or her sentence, unless the parole board votes to deny such release. This provision shall not apply to any prisoner who is the subject of a pending petition for civil commitment pursuant to RSA 135-E. In the event that the prisoner is not civilly committed, he or she shall be released on parole for the remainder of his or her sentence.

3 Effect of Recommittal. Amend RSA 651-A:19 to read as follows:
651-A:19 Effect of Recommittal.

I. A prisoner who is recommitted shall serve 90 days in prison before being placed back on parole or the remainder of his or her maximum sentence, whichever is shorter, or may be subject to an extended term of recommitment pursuant to paragraphs III and IV. The time between the return of the parolee to prison after arrest and revocation of parole shall be considered as time served as a portion of the maximum sentence.

II. Prisoners who are recommitted shall be ~~[housed separately in a prison housing unit that provides]~~ provided access to focused, evidence-based programming aimed at reengaging parolees in their parole plan.

III. The parole board may impose an extended term of recommitment for greater than 90 days if:

(a) The prisoner has previously been recommitted for a parole violation; or

(b) The prisoner was on parole for a sexual offense as defined in RSA 651-B:1, V or an offense against a child as defined in RSA 651-B:1, VII; and

(1) The conduct underlying the parole violation is related to his or her offense or offending pattern; or

(2) The prisoner has displayed a combination of dynamic risk factors, including but not limited to, homelessness, loss of supports, substance abuse, or non-compliance with treatment, as determined by the department of corrections sexual offender treatment program staff; or

(3) Both subparagraphs (1) and (2); or

(c) The prisoner was on parole for a violent crime as defined in RSA 651:5, XIII; or

(d) The nature of the conduct underlying the parole violation constitutes a criminal act or is otherwise so serious as to warrant an extended period of recommitment.

IV.(a) A prisoner may be brought before the parole board at any time during the 90-day term of recommitment to determine whether a longer term is warranted if:

(1) The prisoner did not meaningfully participate in the evidence-based programming during the 90-day recommitment period; or

(2) The prisoner received one or more major disciplinary violations during the 90-day recommitment period.

(b) The prisoner shall be provided notice of the hearing and the basis of the parole board's consideration of an extended term.

V. The imposition of an extended term of recommitment pursuant to paragraph III or IV shall be supported by written findings and a written order.

VI. Any prisoner who is subject to an extended term of recommitment shall, upon request, be entitled to a hearing before the parole board after serving 6 months of his or her term of recommitment and every 6 months thereafter.

VII. At the revocation hearing, the parole board may impose a term of recommitment for less than 90 days if:

(a) The prisoner has not been previously recommitted for a parole violation;

(b) The prisoner was not on parole for a sexual offense as defined in RSA 651-B:1, V or an offense against a child as defined in RSA 651-B:1, VII;

(c) The prisoner was not on parole for a violent crime as defined in RSA 651:5, XIII;

(d) The parole violation is not substantially related to his or her offense or offending pattern; and

(e) The parole board determines that a lesser period of recommitment will aid in the rehabilitation of the parolee.

4 Involuntary Civil Commitment of Sexually Violent Predators; Notice. Amend RSA 135-E:3, II to read as follows:

II. When a person who has committed a sexually violent offense is to be released from total confinement in New Hampshire, the agency with jurisdiction over the person shall give written notice to the person and the county attorney of the county where that person was last convicted of a sexually violent offense, or attorney general if the case was prosecuted by the attorney general. If the person is in custody on an out-of-state or federal sexually violent offense, the agency with jurisdiction shall give written notice to the person and the county attorney of the county where the person plans to reside upon release or, if no residence in this state is planned, the county attorney in the county where the facility from which the person to be released is located or to the attorney general if the person has been convicted of murder. Except as provided in RSA 135-E:4, the written notice shall be given at least 9 months prior to the [anticipated] potential release on parole pursuant to RSA 651-A:6, I(c), except that in the case of persons who are totally confined for a period of less than 9 months, written notice shall be given as soon as practicable.

5 Involuntary Civil Commitment of Sexually Violent Predators; Release From Total Confinement. Amend RSA 135-E:4, I to read as follows:

I. In the event that a person who has been convicted of a sexually violent offense is eligible for immediate release on parole pursuant to RSA 651-A:6, I(c), or upon completion of the maximum term of incarceration, the agency with jurisdiction shall provide immediate notice to the county attorney or attorney general of the person's release. The county attorney or attorney general or the agency with jurisdiction may file a petition for an emergency hearing in the superior court requesting that the person subject to immediate release be evaluated by the multidisciplinary team to determine whether the person is a sexually violent predator. The hearing shall be held within 24 hours of the filing of the petition, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The person shall not be released from total confinement until after the hearing has been held. At the hearing, the court shall determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the person is a sexually violent predator. If the court finds probable cause, the person shall be held in an appropriate secure facility.

6 Probationers and Parolees; Risk Assessment and Length of Supervision. Amend RSA 504-A:15, III-IV to read as follows:

III. Any person placed on probation for a felony shall be subject to active supervision for up to the first 12 months and thereafter be placed on administrative supervision unless the probationer has been designated high risk [or], has been adjudicated by the court for a violation of the conditions of probation during the first 12 months under supervision, or was placed on probation for a felony listed as a tier II or tier III offense in RSA 651-B:1, IX and X, respectively.

IV. Any person placed on parole for a felony shall be subject to active supervision for up to the first 18 months and thereafter be placed on administrative supervision unless the parolee has been designated high risk [or], has violated the conditions of parole during the first 18 months under supervision, or was placed on parole for a felony listed as a tier II or tier III offense in RSA 651-B:1, IX and X, respectively.

7 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

2011-0804s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Excludes a prisoner convicted of a violent crime or a sexually violent offense from mandatory early supervised release if the parole board votes to do so.

II. Provides the parole board with greater discretion to recommit a person who reoffends while on mandatory early supervised release.

III. Requires that an offender placed on probation or parole for conviction of a felony offense that would require registration as a sexual offender or an offender against children shall not be placed on administrative supervision.

SENATOR HOUE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 52-FN. This legislation amends the Justice Reinvestment Act, which was adopted last session in Senate Bill 500, by restoring discretion to the parole board, both in terms of eligibility for supervised release and in terms of duration of recommitment upon violation of parole.

I would like to go on record thanking my Senate colleagues, various departments, and those involved with public safety for the bipartisan and effective resolution reached through SB 52 as amended. At the public hearing, we received requested amendments from the Department of Corrections, county attorneys, and Senator Bradley. I am pleased that all of these amendments have been incorporated into the committee amendment. I am also genuinely appreciative that we will combine the best practices from empirical evidence in corrections with the discretion of those charged with ensuring public safety.

The Judiciary Committee recommends Senate Bill 52-FN be adopted with amendment, and therefore asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 134-FN, relative to jury trials under the consumer protection act. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Inexpedient to Legislate on SB 134-FN. This legislation sought to establish a statutory right to a jury trial in consumer protection cases.

The Committee was not convinced that there was a good enough reason presented to potentially incur the associated costs of these trials. Also, the Senate ED&A Committee has a number of bills in their possession dealing specifically with rights to file cases. We feel that they are fully prepared to deal with this matter. Therefore, the Judiciary Committee recommends that SB 134-FN be voted as Inexpedient to Legislate, and we ask for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

SB 83-FN, enabling municipalities to create other post-employment benefits (OPEB) trusts. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 83 be re-referred to committee. This bill would enable municipalities to set up a trust for the purpose of paying so-called "other post-employment benefits", or OPEB's. These are non-pension benefits paid to retired employees, typically health benefits.

Testimony at the public hearing from the City of Dover outlined the actuarial benefits of appropriating funds into an OPEB trust. Questions arose regarding the appropriate makeup of the proposed board of trustees and other operational details. Also, since Dover is in a unique situation with regard to OPEB obligations, the possibility of amending the bill to simply authorize Dover to establish an OPEB trust was entertained.

At the request of the prime sponsor, the Committee agreed to allow more time to investigate that option and to resolve other issues raised. Please join the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee in voting Senate Bill 83 re-referred to committee. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 129-FN, requiring valid photo identification to vote in person. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-1. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 129 Ought to Pass. This bill requires that a voter present a valid photo identification to vote in person. Voters without photo identification may vote by provisional ballot. The bill also eliminates the fee for a non-driver picture identification card.

There have been a growing number of issues arising with identity fraud in this country. Requiring photo identification would help to end such fraud. Many voters go to the polls expecting to display some sort of identification. Some are surprised that it is not required in New Hampshire. It is anticipated that most states will eventually mandate such a requirement. The issue states are grappling with is determining what type of individual form of identification to require.

As this bill has a fiscal note, it will receive additional scrutiny from the Senate Finance Committee. Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 129 be adopted and asks for your support. And, I thank you very much.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to the motion of Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 129. And, first, I would note that while I realize that if this bill passes today it will go to Finance, where some of the issues of cost of the bill will be examined, I believe that there are more basic policy issues at stake with this bill, and that's what I'll address.

Senate Bill 129, I believe, sets out to fix a problem that does not exist here in New Hampshire: voter fraud. And, it does so in a way that can only discourage voting for some of our citizens. The photo ID that will be required by Senate Bill 129 might be a useful tool if we were plagued with people at the polls trying to pass themselves off as someone else in order to vote. However, we've had just one known case of attempted impersonation here in New Hampshire, over ten years ago. And, U.S. Department of Justice data on voting fraud reflect the same extremely low rate of this kind of fraud.

The remedy set out for this non-problem of voter fraud sounds simple; to many of us, it would mean showing our driver's license at the polls – no big deal. However, for a significant number of eligible voters, it's not so simple, and that's why representatives of AARP, Disabilities Rights Center, and Granite State Independent Living, as well as America Votes and the League of Women Voters, all showed up to oppose Senate Bill 129.

The League of Women Voters testified that there are 66,000 people over the age of 18 in New Hampshire who do not have a driver's license. Some of these are older citizens who no longer drive; some are disabled, some poor, some college students with licenses from other states. The last group, students, would be allowed to show a university ID, but it would have to be one with an expiration date on it, which I understand is not the case for a significant number of student ID's in New Hampshire. So, for many of them, as well as resident non-drivers, it would mean going to a DMV station to get a non-drivers photo ID. The bill does eliminate the current fee for such ID's, but does not take into consideration the cost and the logistics involved in acquiring the necessary documents for qualifying for such an ID – a birth certificate or a passport – and actually getting to the DMV: real challenges for those who must rely on others or on public transportation.

The bill allows for a provisional ballot, as was mentioned, for those who arrive at the polls without a picture ID. But, in order for their vote to count, those people have only ten days in which to get to the DMV to have their picture taken, and then get to their town clerk's office to present their new ID. So, that would be a total of three not-so-simple trips from a non-driving elderly or disabled person, and all to fix a system that isn't broken.

Only eight states require photo ID's to vote. We don't need to join them. We don't have a voting fraud problem in New Hampshire, but we do have citizens in New Hampshire for whom this bill will create unnecessary obstacles to carrying out their most basic civic right and responsibility.

I think, like all of my colleagues, I'm sure, I love going to the polls to vote. I brought my children with me at early ages so that they could be part of that experience. For me, it's as easy as hopping in the car and driving a mile and a half to the high school, or, if I have time, walking there, better yet. For many people, it's not so easy. Let's encourage all of our citizens to participate in our democracy. Please join me in voting against this unnecessary bill, and I will request a roll call. Thank you, Mister President.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise in opposition to the bill.

In New Hampshire, we have taken a great deal of pride in making access to the polls available to everyone. When I first got into the business of running for public office, there were communities in my District that opened their polls at 11 and closed at 5, which meant that if you were a working person, you couldn't vote, because you went to work early in the morning and you didn't get home 'til after 5 at night. There was also another community in my District that said in order to register to vote, you had to either present your birth certificate or a passport. Only 20 percent of the people in the United States of America have passports. That means 80 percent of the people might not have the right to vote. And, how many of us carry our birth certificates around in our back pocket? Not many, I'm sure.

We have a Secretary of State who's done a magnificent job in opening up the voting process. I taught civics, encouraging my students to register and to vote. Now we put another impediment in place: in order to vote, you've got to present a picture ID. What is wrong with us? When all of us, hopefully, are encouraging every student to register when they get to be 18, every person to vote, because it's a civic duty and it's a civic responsibility. And now, we want to put an impediment? My sister-in-law is 75 years of age; she's never had a driver's license. She does not drive – does not drive. So, she's going to go to Motor Vehicles and get a non-driver picture ID? So it doesn't cost her – but who's going to drive her there? Why do we time after time after time try to impede a process – a process that's working? We rave about voter participation in New Hampshire, we rave about the quality of our involvement in the process, and now we want to restrict the process? The next thing, it'll be a blood test. I mean, let's be responsible, let's be reasonable. Let's think about civic responsibility, civic engagement, and the quality – the quality – of the kind of representation that we're voting for. And, let's say – let's put a stop to all of the impediments. We should be opening the process; we should be opening it so that more people can become involved. One of the great tragedies of our country is when you go and you're denied the right to vote – which has happened on a number of occasions, yet we never talk about that; we never talk about the people who are turned away at the polls. We say, "That's okay!" Who's going to protect those people? This is not the right time or the right place for this piece of legislation. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I also rise to oppose Senate Bill 129. New Hampshire has apparently 66,000 people over the age of 18 who do not have driver's licenses, and 42,000 of them have not applied for a non-driver's photo ID. These are people who are most likely to be elderly, disabled, poor, or members of minority populations. These are people for whom the cost of obtaining a document such as this becomes an impediment to voting. In certain rural areas, perhaps Senate District 1, how far would they have to drive to get to one of the 12 DMV offices open on a regular basis in order to apply for one of these? And, the cost of applying for even a non-driver's ID requires a birth certificate. Photocopies and copies of birth certificates cost $30.00 or more. The fiscal note apparently does not include the 42,000 citizens now who do not have a non-driver's photo ID.

The right to vote is one of the most fundamental rights in our democracy. The allegation is that this bill violates the Constitution in the 14th, 15th, 18th, and 26th amendments, and Article 11 of the New Hampshire Constitution, which we are all bound to uphold.

I urge you to recognize the real impediment that this bill creates for New Hampshire citizens who wish to exercise their constitutional right to vote, and I urge you to vote no on Senate Bill 129.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise in favor of the bill. This Fall, I had the great pleasure of bringing my daughter, who turned 18 in September, to the polls. I can't tell you who she voted for, though. And, you know, she's 18; she, fortunately, has her license. And, she took the time to fill out the registration to vote. I hope these young ladies right here have done that or will do that soon, because it is a great privilege; it is a great honor. She presented that she was over 18. That is a hurdle that needs to be made to prove that she is who she is, and she did that at registration, and it was simple: she went to a table separate from the polling booths, sat down with the person that's educated on how to fill out the form, and she got it done in a few minutes. And, it was very proud for me – my wife and I – and we had a picture of her and I taken there at the polls.

I think that that wasn't an impediment to her going to the polls and voting. I think that just preserves the process; that's why we have registration. I think what also preserves the process, and it keeps our integrity that one person has one vote and it means something, is that a photo ID was used to register; I don't see a problem with a photo ID used to re-vote on subsequent elections.

I also know that this bill is going to Finance. And, I want to work on this bill to take out the other objections. I believe that there was no cost to register to vote; there was no cost whatsoever. And, I believe if you don't have a photo ID, that there should be no cost to get a photo ID. I believe that you get to the polls, you should be able to vote, with no cost, and get your photo ID, right there on the spot. Those are the things I would like to work on. I'm going to vote Ought to Pass for this bill to be able to have that opportunity to get this bill in a position where it's good for New Hampshire. It protects my daughter's vote, it protects my vote, and it protects all votes here. I think this is the time and the place to pass this bill to continue working on voter ID. It's for the process, it's for New Hampshire, and I appreciate the opportunity to speak to it. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator Prescott, what is the problem that this bill seeks to address, given that we have had years of analysis by both the Secretary of State and the Attorney General that there is no voter fraud occurring in this state, and the last instance was 10 years ago, in which a son represented himself as his father? What is the problem that this seeks to address? Where do you see a problem in our voting?

SENATOR PRESCOTT: That would be conjecture on my part. And, I think that this, if there is a problem existing, this does take a step to keep it from happening. It's the right move to make. If this is a voter fraud situation, a person presents their identification instead of just a rent slip or a, you know, a past electric bill, it really doesn't prove that a person is residing in the town and is a citizen of New Hampshire. That's the issue that I think this one step further, without cost, without interference of being able to go to the polls, register same day, get your photo ID, it really, I think, secures the process for all of us. So, to make conjecture – I am not in that position to make conjecture about abuse, I'm just talking about keeping the integrity of the system.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill for Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. Thank you, Senator Prescott. Senator Prescott, are you aware that the bill as written does not provide for acquiring a photo ID at the polls?

SENATOR PRESCOTT: I agree. I understand that. Now, the process, you know, here and now, we have the opportunity to move this not as a passage of a bill, but to the Finance Committee. And, I am going to do that.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: I'll just speak to the issue of disabled. I have a disabled son who is voting age. He is not able to drive himself to the polls; that is a greater impediment than what we're talking about here. He is not able to really understand the ballot; his mother and I have to spend a lot of time with him before he goes to the polls – that's a great impediment. I don't feel that him needing to provide an ID – he, by the way, will never have a driver's license, so he does have to obtain some sort of identification for many reasons throughout his adult life – that I don't see as an impediment. And, Randy did vote – does vote – did vote just a couple of weeks ago in the town elections, despite all those impediments. And, again, I don't see photo ID being one of them.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Merrill, seconded by Sen. Barnes. The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, White, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Houde, Odell, Kelly, Larsen, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

TRANSPORTATION

SB 195, naming the Manchester Airport Access Road for Raymond Wieczorek. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 195 Ought to Pass. This bill renames the Manchester Airport Access Road Raymond Wieczorek Drive.

The Committee heard about the many accomplishments and contributions of Councilor Wieczorek, some of which include his current position as Executive Councilor of District 4, five-term Mayor of Manchester, and being a United States Army Korean War veteran. Because of Councilor Wieczorek's dedication to civil service, the Transportation Committee unanimously felt that it was appropriate to honor him and rename the Manchester Airport Access Road. The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

WAYS AND MEANS

SB 13-FN, increasing the limit on single wagers for games of chance conducted by charitable organizations. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 13 be re-referred to committee. This bill would increase the limit on single wagers for games of chance conducted by charitable organizations from the current $4 to a $30 maximum bet. In light of concerns raised by some committee members as well as those of the Attorney General's Office, we believe more debate is needed before making a decision with regard to this bill.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of re-refer to committee. Thank you.

Amendment to SB 56-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT authorizing the department of revenue administration to accept credit card and debit card payments of taxes.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Section; Credit or Debit Card Payment. Amend RSA 21-J by inserting after section 43 the following new section:

21-J:43-a Credit or Debit Card Payment. The commissioner of the department of revenue administration and any authorized employee or agent of the commissioner may accept credit cards or debit cards in the payment of any of the taxes, penalties, interest, or fees administered by the commissioner or collected by the department. The department may add to the amount due, in addition to any tax, penalties, and interest payable, a service charge for the acceptance of the credit card or debit card, as approved by the department. The department, at the time of billing, shall disclose the amount of the service charge. The commissioner shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, as necessary for the administration of such electronic transactions.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill authorizes the department of revenue administration to accept credit card and debit card payments of taxes.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 56 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill authorizes the Department of Revenue Administration to accept credit card payments for taxes. This legislation is intended to provide greater flexibility, giving them the option of paying by credit card, debit card, or electronic transfer. The credit card payments will be administered by a third party. A service charge will be assessed by the third party for the credit and debit card transactions. The committee amendment is to clarify that the service charge fees would not apply to any electronic payments made as a direct transfer from a bank account.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support of Ought to Pass.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I'm not opposed to the legislation. But, what I have concerns about were the Department of Revenue's explanation of how this would happen and how the fees that are incurred would be either passed on to the person who's filing or who's going to pay them.

Now, it seemed to me that in our discussion with Revenue Administration, the most expedient way to do this would be electronic transfer. Electronic transfer is used across the country, and it would be the most expedient, efficient methodology for collecting taxes. They didn't really explain to us at Ways and Means what they had in place and how they were going to work this out. So, I'm a bit skeptical of how this is going to work. Now, I think anything that expedites the payment of a tax is the way we should move. It's the right way to go; it's the most efficient way to go. But, their explanation of how they were going to do this was not satisfactory to me, and it causes me some doubt. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: Mister President, I'd just like to point out that I've invited the Department to the Finance Committee meeting tomorrow afternoon to address exactly the points that Senator D'Allesandro has brought up.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 58-FN-A, adding qualified community development entities to the definition of "qualified investment company" under the business profits tax and the business enterprise tax. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

Amendment to SB 58-FN-A

Amend RSA 77-E:1, XIV(a)(4) as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(4) A qualified community development entity as defined in section 45D of the United States Internal Revenue Code, which entity is owned, controlled, or managed, directly or indirectly, by the business finance authority of the state of New Hampshire.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 3 the following and renumbering the original section 4 to read as 5:

4 Applicability. This act shall apply with respect to all taxable periods ending on or after December 31, 2010.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 58 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill adds qualified community development entities to the definition of qualified investment company under the business profits tax and the business enterprise tax.

The New Markets Tax Credit is a federal program that is designed to help spur economic development in low-income areas. Under the program, the Business Finance Authority must establish the aforementioned entities in order to facilitate investment in local projects by third parties. The intent of this bill is to ensure that these entities will not be subject to the business profits tax, the business enterprise tax, or the interest and dividends tax. The ultimate recipient of the investment funds will continue to be subject to the taxes.

The committee amendment ensures that the bill will only apply to qualified community development entities that are owned or controlled by the New Hampshire Business Finance Authority.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

SB 79-FN, authorizing the department of revenue administration to impose administrative fines for timber tax violations. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 79 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill sought to authorize the Department of Revenue Administration to impose administrative fines for timber tax violations. At the Department of Revenue Administration's request, we found this bill Inexpedient to Legislate.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion, and thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 125-FN-A, relative to the business profits tax deduction for reasonable compensation. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 125 Ought to Pass. This bill shifts the burden of proof from business owners to the Department of Revenue Administration to prove that someone is unreasonably compensating themselves under the business profits tax deduction. This bill is intended to eliminate the climate of uncertainty that has existed for business owners in New Hampshire in recent years, and also made New Hampshire less appealing to others looking to relocate.

This will send a strong and clear message that New Hampshire is not going to use the business profits tax as an income tax on small business owners. This is an opportunity to set a clear tax policy that will encourage compliance and help our small businesses to grow and create jobs.

While the fiscal note states a $49 million revenue loss, the Department of Revenue Administration told the Committee that the anticipated loss is actually a range: it could go from zero to $49 million.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 132-FN-A-L, establishing exemptions from the real estate transfer tax. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Rausch for the committee.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 132 be re-referred to committee. This bill would provide exemptions from the real estate transfer tax for transfers of title between spouses to wholly-owned entities or transfers to or from a revocable trust.

While the intent of this bill was to exempt from the real estate transfer tax certain transfers where no cash actually changes hands, the Committee has concerns about certain aspects of the bill. One concern raised during the committee hearing was a lack of a definition for the term "spouse". We are concerned that this language is not tight enough, and could enable transfers between spouses not married to each other to avoid taxation. We also have concerns about the retroactive applicability section that could result in numerous appeals and subsequent refunds.

Therefore, the Committee would like more time to carefully work out the technical aspects of the legislation to ensure we are not opening ourselves up to significant revenue loss. The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of re-refer to the committee, and I thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Amendment to SB 136-FN

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Unclaimed Ticket Vouchers. Amend RSA 284:31 to read as follows:

284:31 Unclaimed Ticket Money. On or before January 31 of each year every person, association, or corporation conducting a race or race meet, whether live racing or simulcast racing, hereunder shall pay to the state treasurer all moneys collected during the previous year of pari-mutuel pool tickets and vouchers which have not been redeemed. The books or records of said person, association, or corporation, which clearly show the tickets entitled to reimbursement in any given race, live or simulcast, shall be forwarded to the commission. Such moneys shall become a part of the general funds of the state. The state treasurer shall pay the amount due on any ticket or voucher to the holder thereof from funds not otherwise appropriated upon an order from the commission. Pari-mutuel tickets and vouchers which remain unclaimed after 11 months shall not be paid. Vouchers shall be remitted to the state treasurer on January 31 of the calendar year, 24 months after the year of the unclaimed voucher.

2 Definitions; Game Operator. Amend RSA 287-D:1, V to read as follows:

V. "Game operator" means:

(a) "Primary game operator" which means any consultant or any person other than a bona fide member of the charitable organization, involved in conducting, managing, supervising, directing, or running the games of chance; or

(b) "Secondary game operator" which means any person other than a bona fide member of the charitable organization, involved in dealing, running a roulette wheel, [or] handling chips, or providing accounting services or security functions.

(c) "Game operator employer" means a primary game operator or a business entity who employs, supervises, and controls game operators and who is hired by a charitable organization to operate games of chance on its behalf. The owner, partner, managing member, or chief executive of a business entity who serves as a game operator employer must be licensed as a primary game operator.

3 Operation of Games of Chance; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-b, I(d) to read as follows:

(d) Notwithstanding subparagraph (a), all charitable organizations that conduct games of chance for charitable purposes may employ, by means of a written agreement, a [primary] game operator employer or a primary game operator licensed under RSA 287-D:2-c to operate games of chance on their behalf.

4 Operation of Games of Chance; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-d, III to read as follows:

III. An applicant for a primary game operator license under RSA 287-D:2-c shall apply to the racing and charitable gaming commission, and if the applicant meets all other requirements of this chapter and pays the fee established by the racing and charitable gaming commission in rules adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A, a license shall be issued. A primary game operator license issued under RSA 287-D:2-c shall expire on December 31. The racing and charitable gaming commission shall notify the attorney general and police chief of any city or town where games of chance are held of any applications approved. RSA 7:28-c shall not apply to game operator licensees subject to this chapter. An applicant for a secondary game operator license under RSA 287-D:2-c shall apply to the racing and charitable gaming commission, and if the applicant meets all other requirements of this chapter and pays the fee established by the racing and charitable gaming commission in rules adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A, which shall not exceed $45, a license shall be issued. A secondary game operator license issued under RSA 284-D:2-c shall expire on the last day of the month of the licensee's birthday.

5 Operation of Games of Chance; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-d, VI to read as follows:

VI. Any license issued under RSA 287-D:2-a or RSA 287-D:2-c shall not be transferable and the fees for the license shall not be refunded except for good cause shown as specified in rules adopted by the racing and charitable gaming commission. Nothing in this section shall prevent a licensee from working for different licensed entities. A licensee who works for more than one game operator employer during the licensed period shall have a separate badge for each game operator employer and pay a separate fee for each badge.

6 Bond; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-b, VIII to read as follows:

VIII.(a) On game dates where the charitable organization operates the games, the charitable organization shall deposit cash and proceeds from a game of chance into the account required by RSA 287-D:2-a, VII(e). All expenses, including ~~[prizes of more than $500]~~ prizes of $500 or more and equipment and hall rental fees shall be paid by check from the account required by RSA 287-D:2-a, VII(e). The treasurer of the charitable organization shall document all prizes awarded as prescribed in rules adopted by the racing and charitable gaming commission.

(b) On game dates where the licensed game operator operates the games, the licensed game operator shall deposit cash and proceeds from a game of chance into the account required by RSA 287-D:2-c, VI. All expenses, including ~~[prizes of more than $500 and]~~ equipment and hall rental fees shall be paid by check or electronic fund transfers from the account established in RSA 287-D:2-c, VI. The licensed game operator shall document all prizes awarded as prescribed in rules adopted by the racing and charitable gaming commission. Prizes of $500 or more shall be paid by check from the account established in RSA 287-D:2-c, VI.

7 Bond; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-c, V to read as follows:

V. Prior to conducting any games of chance, the game operator or the game operator's employer shall submit a bond for each location where the game operator is conducting games of chance, conditioned upon the game operator running games of chance in conformity with this chapter and with the rules and regulations prescribed by the racing and charitable gaming commission, in the amount of up to ~~[$300,000]~~ $500,000 but not less than $25,000 to the racing and charitable gaming commission with the application form. The amount of the bond in excess of $25,000 established for each licensee shall be based on that licensee's normal outstanding obligations of charity payments and state taxes.

VIII. Unless a provision to the contrary is part of a written agreement in place prior to the commencement of a game date between the charitable organization and the game operator or game operator employer, all moneys due to the charitable organization shall be paid over to the organization no later than 5 business days following the date on which a game was conducted. Notwithstanding the provisions of any agreement with the charitable organization, the game operator or game operator employer shall pay over all moneys due to the charitable organization no later than 15 business days following a game date.

9 Wagering; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:3, VII to read as follows:

VII. Unless a charitable organization rents a facility from a [primary] game operator employer or a primary game operator licensed under RSA 287-D:2-c, the charitable organization shall only rent a facility by means of a fixed rental payment. The fixed rental payment shall not be based on a percentage of what the charitable organization receives from the game of chance and it shall reflect fair rental value of the property for any use not just as a place to hold a game of chance. If a charitable organization rents a facility from a licensed game operator under RSA 287-D:2-c, the charitable organization shall retain no less than 35 percent of the gross revenues from any games of chance minus any prizes paid in accordance with RSA 287-D:3, VIII. Any rental agreement entered into by the charitable organization shall be submitted with the charitable organization's license application for review by the racing and charitable gaming commission. Under no circumstances shall a charitable organization sustain any loss from games of chance, such that its share of the gross revenues minus any prizes paid is less than zero dollars, during a license period with a single game operator.

10 Wagering; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:5, I to read as follows:

I. A charitable organization [or], a licensed [primary] game operator employer, or a primary game operator under contract to conduct games of chance on behalf of a charitable organization and designated by the charitable organization to be responsible for submitting financial reports shall submit a complete financial report for all game dates licensed under RSA 287-D:2 and RSA 287-D:2-a to the racing and charitable gaming commission on forms approved by the racing and charitable gaming commission within 15 days of the end of each month during which a game of chance was held.

11 Operation of Bingo Games; Penalty Added. Amend RSA 287-E:7, XVI to read as follows:

XVI. In not more than one game conducted in accordance with [RSA 287-E:7,] paragraph XIII, a carry-over, cover-all game may be run with the prize money rolled over to the successive game dates in the event that there is no winner on the original or preceding game dates. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the prize money may accumulate until there is a winner. The prize shall be awarded to any winner covering all 24 numbers on the card in less than 50 numbers, or a greater number if so designated prior to the game. If there is no winner on a given game date, a pre-designated consolation prize shall be awarded to the game winner who first achieves cover-all. The balance of the [monies] moneys collected shall be carried over to subsequent game dates until there is a winner. Any person who purposely, knowingly, or recklessly deprives a charitable organization of any of its moneys collected from bingo or lucky 7 or any person who purposely, knowingly, or recklessly deprives players of any prizes collected from bingo or lucky 7, shall be guilty of a class A felony.

12 Reference Change; Financial Reports and Inspection Required. Amend RSA 287-E:9, I to read as follows:

I. A charitable organization which has been licensed to conduct bingo games shall submit a complete financial report to the commission for each license issued under RSA 287-E:6 within 15 days after the expiration of each license; provided, however, a complete monthly financial report shall be submitted in a timely fashion to the commission for each month covered by a license issued under ~~[RSA 287-E:6, I-a]~~ RSA 287-E:6, II.

13 Reference Change; Financial Reports and Inspection Required. Amend RSA 287-E:9, IV to read as follows:

IV. All charitable organizations licensed under this chapter shall maintain a separate checking account for the deposit and disbursement of all income relating to bingo and lucky 7, except cash prizes awarded at the games. All expenses shall be paid by check, ~~[and all prizes of $500 or more shall be paid by check]~~ or electronic funds transfers. All prizes of $500 or more shall be paid by check. There shall be no commingling of bingo and lucky 7 funds with other funds of the charitable organization. The organization shall retain all cancelled checks for the payment of expenses and prizes for at least 2 years. The organization may cash checks which it issues.

14 Campground Bingo. Amend RSA 287-E:12 to read as follows:

287-E:12 Bingo [License] for Private Campgrounds and Hotels. Any private campground or hotel may ~~[apply to the commission for a special campground or hotel bingo license. Licenses may be granted under the following conditions]~~ conduct bingo games provided:

~~I. The bingo license application fee shall be $25 per year and shall be nonrefundable.~~

~~II. The provisions of RSA 287-E:6, IV and RSA 287-E:7, IV and VI relating to bingo licenses and the operation of games for charitable organizations shall also apply to licenses issued under this section.~~

~~III.] I.~~ The price to be paid for a single card or play under the license shall be $.10.

~~IV. A license shall permit no more than 2 game dates of bingo in any one calendar week and shall be issued on an annual basis.~~

~~V-] II.~~ All revenues received from the sale of bingo cards in any game or series of games on any one calendar day shall be paid out to the players. The total value of all prizes, tokens, or awards used, given, offered, or awarded in connection with any game or series of games in any calendar day shall not exceed $500.

~~VI.] III.~~ Games shall be operated only by persons on the staff of the campground or hotel ~~[holding the license under this section]~~. Such staff shall operate the games without compensation from the bingo revenues.

~~VII.] IV.~~ The games of bingo shall be open only to persons 18 years of age or older who are bona fide guests at the campground or hotel.

~~VIII.] Licenses shall be granted only to campgrounds or hotels in cities or towns which have approved bingo under RSA 287-E:~~

~~IX-] V.~~ No campground or hotel shall act as an agent for operating games of bingo when it is unlawful for such campground's or hotel's principal to operate bingo games.

~~X. The campground or hotel holding the license issued under this section shall keep records and submit a report as required for agricultural fairs under RSA 287-E:10, VIII, except that the report shall be submitted to the commission within 15 days of the expiration of the bingo license. The report shall include the names and addresses of persons from whom bingo equipment was rented or leased.~~

~~XI.] VI.~~ The campground or hotel shall have been in existence for at least 2 years in the city or town in which the bingo games are to be conducted.

[XII. The campground or hotel shall be in compliance at the time of application with all applicable state and local requirements for the operation of private campgrounds or hotels.

XIII.] VII. The campground or hotel shall maintain a current list of bona fide guests.

[XIV.] VIII. The campground or hotel shall not have been established solely for the purpose of operating bingo games.

15 Campground Bingo. Amend the introductory paragraph RSA 287-E:13 to read as follows:

Any campground or hotel [~~holding a license under RSA 287-E:12~~] may conduct special bingo games for children under the conditions specified in RSA 287-E:12, except:

16 Payment to Distributor. Amend RSA 287-E:23-a to read as follows:

287-E:23-a Payment to Distributor. Licensees shall pay for purchased tickets no later than 30 calendar days after delivery. Unless a waiver is given by the commission for good cause shown, no charitable organization may purchase tickets from a different distributor when that charitable organization has failed to comply with the provisions of this section.

17 Financial Reports and Inspection Required. Amend RSA 287-E:24, IV to read as follows:

IV. All expenses shall be paid by check, or electronic funds transfers, and all cash prizes [over] of $500 or more shall be paid by check, and the charitable organization shall retain cancelled checks or bank produced facsimiles of cancelled checks for the payment of expenses and checks or bank produced facsimiles of checks and receipts for the payment of prizes for a period of 2 years.

18 Pari-Mutuel Breakage; Cross Reference. Amend RSA 284:22-a, VII to read as follows:

VIII. RSA 284:22, I, II, and III, [~~and IV~~] shall apply according to the type of race on which the simulcast wagers are made, excepting, however, interstate common pools as provided in RSA 284:22-a, V(b) and that the provisions made for purses made in RSA 284:22, I shall not apply to simulcast races. The commission on simulcast race pools shall be available to the simulcasting licensee to satisfy obligations to the racing association originating or transmitting such simulcast races or to the horsemen's group of such association.

19 Campground Bingo. Amend RSA 287-E:4, II to read as follows:

II. Such fee shall be submitted to the commission at the time the application for a bingo license is filed and [~~except as provided in RSA 287-E:12~~], shall be refunded if the application is denied.

20 Racing Purses. Amend RSA 284:22, I-II to read as follows:

I. The commission on all win, place, and show pari-mutuel pools at tracks or race meets at which running horse races are conducted for public exhibition shall be uniform throughout the state at the rate of 19 percent of each dollar wagered in such pools, and the commission on all other pari-mutuel pools at such tracks or race meets shall be at the rate of not less than 26 percent of each dollar wagered in such pools and not more than 27 percent of each dollar wagered in such pools as determined from time to time by the licensee which conducts live running horse races after written notice to the commission and, in the absence of written notice, at the rate of 26 percent of each dollar wagered in such pools. Except as provided in RSA 284:22-a, the amount of the purse at such tracks or race meets at which running horse races are conducted shall be 8 1/4 percent of each dollar wagered in all pari-mutuel pools, said 8 1/4 percent to be paid by the licensee out of the commission on such pools. In addition to the above commission, 1/2 of the odd cents of all redistribution based on each dollar wagered exceeding a sum equal to the next lowest multiple of 10, known as "breakage", shall be retained by the licensee, 1/4 paid to the state treasury for the use of the state in accordance with the provisions of RSA 284:2 and 1/4 shall be paid to the racing and charitable gaming commission. The racing and charitable gaming commission shall distribute such breakage to the licensee which paid such breakage ~~[to supplement purses of live races conducted by the licensee at the location from which such breakage was paid]~~. Each licensee shall pay the tax provided for in RSA 284:23.

II. The commission on all win, place, and show pari-mutuel pools at tracks or race meets at which harness horse races are conducted for public exhibition, including those conducted by agricultural fairs, shall be uniform throughout the state at the rate of 19 percent of each dollar wagered in such pools, and the commission on all other pari-mutuel pools at such tracks or race meets shall be at the rate of not less than 25 percent of each dollar wagered in such pools and not more than 26 percent of each dollar wagered in such pools as determined from time to time by the licensee which conducts live harness horse racing after written notice to the commission and, in the absence of such written notice, at the rate of 25 percent of each dollar wagered in such pools. In addition to the above commission, 1/2 of the odd cents of all redistribution based on each dollar wagered exceeding a sum equal to the next lowest multiple of 10, known as "breakage", shall be retained by the licensee, 1/4 paid to the state treasury for the use of the state in accordance with the provisions of RSA 284:2 and 1/4 shall be paid to the racing and charitable gaming commission. The racing and charitable gaming commission shall distribute such breakage ~~[to the licensee which paid such breakage]~~. Each licensee shall pay the tax provided for in RSA 284:23.

21 Repeal. RSA 284:22, IV relative to breakage on pari-mutuel pools, is repealed.

22 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

- I. Defines game operator employers.
- II. Requires that game operators pay charities participating in charitable gaming no later than 15 business days following a game date.
- III. Raises the amount of bond required for conducting games of chance.
- IV. Requires charitable organizations to collect certain fees on lucky 7 deals and pay them to the racing and charitable gaming commission.
- V. Allows private campgrounds and hotels to conduct certain bingo games without a license.
- VI. Allows the racing and charitable gaming commission to distribute breakage to pari-mutuel licensees without consideration of live racing.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 136-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. This is a housekeeping bill requested by the racing and charitable gaming commission to update various statutes in order to streamline certain processes, better protect charities, and increase efficiency. Some of the bills components include setting a date certain of no later than 15 days after a game date by which game operators must pay the participating charity, raising the bond requirement for conducting games of chance, and allowing private campgrounds and hotels to conduct certain Bingo games without a license. This change was made because these games carry a maximum bet of only 10 cents. Therefore, it is not an efficient use of the commission's time to regulate them.

The committee amendment simply makes some additional technical corrections to the bill. The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

SB 155-FN-A, relative to section 179 expense deductions under the business profits tax. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you again, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 155-FN be re-referred to committee. This bill would allow businesses to apply the federal section 179 expense deduction for the purchase price of equipment. This would be a fairly significant change, as New Hampshire currently allows businesses to deduct up to $20,000 worth of equipment, and the federal allowance is $500,000.

During the committee hearing, questions were raised about the possibility of a business taking advantage of the deduction in the year in which they purchased the equipment and then selling the equipment a year or two later. There is a possibility we may be able to recapture some of the credit if that was to occur, but the Committee would like more time to work on the bill to ensure that our questions are answered and to fully determine the impact versus the value of this legislation. The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of re-refer to committee. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott for a question of Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: When you read the committee response just now, were you using paper? What was that?

SENATOR LUTHER: No, this is not paper. It's an iPad.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: It's an iPad!

SENATOR LUTHER: Yeah. There's the text right there, versus...

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Well, that's a first, isn't it?

SENATOR LUTHER: Yeah, that is a first. Versus this, and this... Yes.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Wonderful. Thank you for answering the question.

SENATOR LUTHER: My pleasure.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn for a question of Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Senator Luther, are you finding your day easier to navigate with your iPad?

SENATOR LUTHER: Navigate is a good word; yes. I am; I'm able to go through all the windows, I'm able to see...I'm able to see the bill, I'm able to see the amendments, I'm able to see the committee reports and the docket and the Senate Calendar, and also my comments, all right on here. Yes.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, sir.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 167-FN-A-L, establishing a production jobs creation credit under the business enterprise tax and making changes affecting small business to the business profits tax, the business enterprise tax, and the meals and rooms tax. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. And, I'm navigating with paper quite well. Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 167 be re-referred to committee. This bill makes a variety of changes to New Hampshire tax laws affecting businesses. The changes are designed to make New Hampshire a more business-friendly state, and some bring New Hampshire in line with federal standards.

While some of the proposals in this bill appear to be good policy decisions, others are less clear, both in terms of practicality as well as impact. This is a difficult time to make changes in tax laws that could result in significant revenue loss to the State. The Committee believes this bill requires more work in order to better determine the exact fiscal impact.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of re-refer to committee. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 182-FN-A-L, relative to video lottery and table gaming, providing property tax relief for local economies, providing services for problem gamblers, and promoting tourism and public safety. Re-refer to committee, Vote 6-0. Senator D'Allesandro for the committee.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I'll make this short and sweet. I move Senate Bill 182 be re-referred to committee. The concept contained in this piece of legislation is not a new one; it's something many of you have seen before. However, the Committee would like more time to examine the bill.

The Ways and Means Committee asks your support of the motion of re-refer to committee. Thank you, Mister President.

AFTERNOON SESSION, COMMITTEE REPORTS RESUMED

Sen. Rausch moved to remove SB 194 from the table.

The question is on the motion to remove SB 194 from the table. Adopted.

Sen. Carson asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 194.

EDUCATION

SB 194, transferring all real and personal property from the former department of regional community-technical colleges to the board of trustees of the community college system of New Hampshire.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Rausch.)

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you. The Stratham campus has been a significant piece of property that the community technical college system has been trying to divest itself of. And, I just wanted to make sure that this piece of legislation didn't have any unintended consequences in regard to sale of that property; I have been assured that it does not. And, with that, I would absolutely support Ought to Pass.

The pending question is on the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. Carson asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 194.

Amendment to SB 3-FN-A-LOCAL

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Retirement System; Definition of Earnable Compensation. Amend RSA 100-A:1, XVII to read as follows:

XVII. "Earnable compensation" shall mean:

(a) For ~~all~~ members who have attained vested status prior to July 1, 2011 the full base rate of compensation paid, as determined by the employer, plus any overtime pay, holiday and vacation pay, sick pay, longevity or severance pay, cost of living bonus, additional pay for extracurricular and instructional activities ~~for other extra or special duty~~, and any military differential pay, plus the fair market value of non-cash compensation paid to, or on behalf of, the member for meals or living quarters if subject to federal income tax, but excluding other compensation except cash incentives paid by an employer to encourage members to retire, supplemental pay paid by the employer while the member is receiving workers' compensation, and teacher development pay that is not part of the contracted annual salary. Compensation for extra and special duty, as determined by the employer, shall be included but limited during the highest 3 years of creditable service as provided in paragraph XVIII. However, earnable compensation in the final 12 months of creditable service prior to termination of employment shall be limited to 1-1/2 times the higher of the earnable compensation in the 12-month period preceding the final 12 months or the highest compensation year as determined for the purpose of calculating average final compensation, but excluding the final 12 months. Any compensation received in the final 12 months of employment in excess of such limit shall not be subject to member or employer contributions to the retirement system and shall not be considered in the computation of average final compensation. Provided that, the annual compensation limit for members of governmental defined benefit pension plans under section 401(a)(17) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall apply to earnable compensation for all employees, teachers, permanent firemen, and permanent policemen who first become eligible for membership in the system on or after July 1, 1996. Earnable compensation shall not include compensation in any form paid later than 120 days after the member's termination of employment from a retirement eligible position, with the limited exceptions of disability related severance pay paid to a member or retiree no later than 120 days after a decision by the board of trustees granting the member or retiree disability retirement benefits pursuant to RSA 100-A:6 and of severance pay which a member was entitled to be paid within 120 days after termination but which, without the consent of the member and not through any fault of the member, was paid more than 120 days after the member's termination. The member shall have the burden of proving to the board of trustees that any severance payment paid later than 120 days after the member's termination of employment is earnable compensation and meets the requirements of an asserted exception to the 120-day post-termination payment requirement.

(b) For members who begin service after June 30, 2011 or who are not in vested status on July 1, 2011 the full base rate of compensation paid, as determined by the employer, plus any overtime pay, holiday and vacation pay, sick pay, longevity pay, cost of living bonus, additional pay for extracurricular and instructional activities, and any military differential pay, plus the fair market value of non-cash compensation paid to, or on behalf of, the member for meals or living quarters if subject to federal income tax, but excluding other compensation except supplemental pay paid by the employer while the member is receiving workers' compensation and teacher development pay that is not part of the contracted annual salary. Compensation for extra and special duty, as determined by the employer, shall be included but limited during the highest 3 years of creditable service as provided in paragraph XVIII. Earnable compensation shall not include incentives to encourage members to retire, severance pay, and pay for unused sick or vacation time. However, earnable compensation in the final 12 months of creditable service prior to termination of employment shall be limited to 1-1/2 times the higher of the earnable compensation in the 12-month period preceding the final 12 months or the highest compensation year as determined for the purpose of calculating average final compensation, but excluding the final 12 months. Any compensation received in the final 12 months of employment in excess of such limit shall not be subject to member or employer contributions to the retirement system and shall not be considered in the computation of average final compensation. Provided that, the annual compensation limit for members of governmental defined benefit pension plans under section 401(a)(17) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall apply to earnable compensation for all employees, teachers, permanent firemen, and permanent policemen who first become eligible for membership in the system on or after July 1, 1996. Earnable compensation shall not include compensation in any form paid later than 120 days after the member's termination of employment from a retirement eligible position.

2 Retirement System; Definitions; Average Final Compensation. Amend RSA 100-A:1, XVIII to read as follows:

XVIII. "Average final compensation" shall mean:

(a) For members who have attained vested status prior to July 1, 2011, the average annual earnable compensation of a member during his or her highest 3 years of creditable service, or during all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 3 years. For purposes of this calculation, the inclusion of the average annual compensation for extra and special duty in the 3 years shall not exceed the average annual amount of compensation for extra and special duty paid to the members over the member's last 7 years or over all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 7 years.

(b) For members who began service after June 30, 2011 or have not attained vested status on July 1, 2011, "average final compensation" shall mean the average annual earnable compensation of a member during his or her highest 5 years of creditable service, or during all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 5 years. For purposes of this calculation, the inclusion of the average annual compensation for extra and special duty in the 3 years shall not exceed the average annual amount of compensation for extra and special duty paid to the members over the member's last 7 years or over all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 7 years.

3 Maximum Initial Benefit; Effective 2016. Amend RSA 100-A:6-a to read as follows:

100-A:6-a Maximum Retirement Benefit. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, ~~[for members who commenced service before July 1, 2009;]~~ a member's initial calculation of the retirement benefit granted under the provisions of RSA 100-A:5 or RSA 100-A:6 shall not exceed 100 percent of the member's highest year of ~~[earnable compensation]~~ full base rate of compensation paid. ~~[For members who commenced service on or after July 1, 2009, a member's maximum retirement benefit granted under the provisions of RSA 100-A:5 or RSA 100-A:6 shall not exceed $120,000.]~~ Nothing in this section shall affect the ability of a member to receive disability benefits pursuant to RSA 100-A:6, II(b) and (c). This provision shall not limit the application of supplemental allowances under RSA 100-A:41-a.

4 State Employees; Group Insurance Benefits; Group II. Amend RSA 21-I:30, III to read as follows:

III. Any vested deferred state retiree may receive medical and surgical benefits under this section if the vested deferred state retiree is eligible. To be eligible, a group I vested deferred state retiree shall have at least 10 years of creditable service with the state if the employee's service began prior to July 1, 2003 or 20 years of creditable service with the state if the employee's service began on or after July 1, 2003 and a group II vested deferred state retiree shall have at least 20 years of creditable service with the state if the employee's service with the state began on or after July 1, 2010. In addition, if the vested deferred state retiree is a member of group I, such retiree shall be at least 60 years of age to be eligible. If the vested deferred state retiree is a member of group II who is in vested status before July 1, 2011, such retiree shall not be eligible until 20 years from the date of becoming a member of group II and shall be at least 45 years of age, and any group II member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 shall not be eligible until 25 years from the date of becoming a member of group II and shall be at least 50 years of age, and group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d).

5 Service Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:5, II to read as follows:

II. Group II Members.

(a) Any group II member in service, who is in vested status before July 1, 2011, who has attained age 45 and completed 20 years of creditable service, and any group II member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 who has attained age 50 and completed 25 years of creditable service, and group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d), or any group II member in service who has attained age 60 regardless of the number of years of creditable service, may retire on a service retirement allowance upon written application to the board of trustees setting forth at what time not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days subsequent to the filing thereof the member desires to be retired, notwithstanding that during such period of notification the member may have separated from service.

(b) Upon service retirement, a group II member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(1) A member annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his or her accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(2) For members who are in vested status before July 1, 2011, a state annuity which, together with his or her member annuity, shall be equal to 2-1/2 percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 40 years, or for members who commenced service after June 30, 2011, a state annuity which, together with his or her member annuity, shall be equal to 2 percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 50 years, and group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the maximum number of years adjusted proportionally between 40 and 50.

(c)(1) Notwithstanding any provision of RSA 100-A to the contrary, any group II member who is in vested status before July 1, 2011 and has retired on or after the effective date of this subparagraph after attaining the age of 45 with at least 20 years of creditable service, and any group II member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 and has retired on or after the effective date of this subparagraph after attaining the age of 50 with at least 25 years of creditable service, and group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d), shall receive a minimum annual service retirement allowance of $10,000. If such group II member has elected to convert the retirement allowance into an optional allowance for the surviving spouse under RSA 100-A:13, the surviving spouse shall be entitled to a proportional share of the $10,000.

(2) [Repealed.]

(3) [Repealed.]

(d) Active group II members who are not in vested status on July 1, 2011 shall be subject to the following transition provisions for years of service required for regular service retirement, the minimum age for regular service retirement, and the multiplier used to calculate the retirement annuity, which shall be applicable on July 1, 2011 according to the following table:

Creditable service on July 1, 2011	Minimum years of service	Minimum age attained	Annuity multiplier
(1) Less than 4 years	24	age 49	2.1%
(2) At least 4 years but less than 6 years	23	age 48	2.2%
(3) At least 6 years but less than 8 years	22	age 47	2.3%
(4) At least 8 years but less than 10 years	21	age 46	2.4%

6 Ordinary Disability Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:6, II(b) to read as follows:

(b) Upon ordinary disability retirement, the group II member shall receive an ordinary disability retirement allowance which shall consist of: a member annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his or her accumulated contributions at the time of his or her ordinary disability retirement; and a state annuity which, together with his or her member annuity, for members who are in vested status before July 1, 2011, shall be equal to 2-1/2 percent of his or her average final compensation at the time of [his] ordinary disability retirement multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 40 at the time of [his] ordinary disability retirement, or for members who commenced service after June 30, 2011, shall be equal to 2 percent of his or her average final compensation at the time of ordinary disability retirement multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 50 at the time of ordinary disability retirement, and group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the maximum number of years adjusted proportionally between 40 and 50 provided, however, that such allowance shall not be less than 25 percent of the member's final compensation at the time of his or her disability retirement.

7 Accidental Disability Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:6, II(d) to read as follows:

(d) Upon accidental disability retirement, the group II member shall receive an accidental disability retirement allowance equal to 2/3 of his or her average final compensation at the time of [his] disability retirement.

(1) For members who are in vested status before July 1, 2011, any group II member who has more than 26-2/3 years of service, a supplemental disability retirement allowance shall be paid. Such supplement shall be equal to 2-1/2 percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service in excess of 26-2/3 but not in excess of 40 years.

(2) For members who commenced service after June 30, 2011, any group II member who has more than 33-1/3 years of service, a supplemental disability retirement allowance shall be paid. Such supplement shall be equal to 2 percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service in excess of 33-1/3 but not in excess of 50 years.

(3) For group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 calculation of the supplemental allowance shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the number of years for the supplement adjusted proportionally.

8 Vested Deferred Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:10, II(b) to read as follows:

(b) For members who are in vested status before July 1, 2011, upon the member's attainment of age 45, provided the member would then have completed 20 years of creditable service, otherwise the subsequent date on which such 20 years would have been completed, or for members who commenced service after June 30, 2011, upon the member's attainment of age 50, provided the member would then have completed 25 years of creditable service, otherwise the subsequent date on which such 25 years would have been completed, and group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d), or at any time after age 60, a group II member who meets the requirement of subparagraph (a) may make application on a form prescribed by the board of trustees and receive a vested deferred retirement allowance which shall consist of: (1) A member annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of accumulated contributions on the date the member's retirement allowance commences; and (2) A state annuity which, together with the member annuity, shall be equal to a service retirement allowance based on the member's average final compensation and creditable service at the time the member's service is terminated.

9 Split Benefits; Minimum Age. Amend RSA 100-A:19-b, II to read as follows:

II.(a) For a member who is in vested status before July 1, 2011 and, who has completed 20 or more years of combined creditable service, one year shall be deducted from age 60 for each year of creditable group II service, provided that the age shall not be less than 45 years.

(b) For a member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 and who has completed 25 or more years of combined creditable service, one year shall be deducted from age 60 for each year of creditable group II service, provided that the age shall not be less than 50 years.

(c) For group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011, minimum age shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with one year deducted from age 60 to not less than the adjusted minimum age.

10 Split Benefits; Reduced Early Retirement. Amend RSA 100-A:19-d to read as follows:

100-A:19-d Reduced Early Retirement. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any retirement system member who has creditable service in both group I and group II with at least 10 years combined creditable service, and who has attained an age which is at least 45 for members who are in vested status with group II service before July 1, 2011 or at least 50 for members who commenced group II service after June 30, 2011, and group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d), and is within 10 years of the minimum age set forth in RSA 100-A:19-b, may elect to retire and have benefits commence immediately as a reduced split-benefit service retirement allowance. Application shall be as provided in RSA 100-A:5, I(c). The allowance shall be determined as a split-benefit service retirement allowance in accordance with RSA 100-A:19-c, and the total combined split-benefit service allowance shall be reduced by the percentages shown in RSA 100-A:5, I(c), based on the total combined length of creditable service, for each month by which the date on which benefits commence precedes the month after which the member attains the minimum age set forth in RSA 100-A:19-b.

11 Financing; Member Contribution Rates; Group II Member Payroll Deduction. Amend RSA 100-A:16, I(a) to read as follows:

(a) The member annuity savings fund shall be a fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions deducted from the compensation of members to provide for their member annuities together with any amounts transferred thereto from a similar fund under one or more of the predecessor systems. Such contribution shall be, for each member, dependent upon the member's employment classification at the rate determined in accordance with the following table:

~~[Employees of employers other than the state 5.00~~

~~Employees of the state hired on or before June 30, 2009 5.00~~

~~Employees of the state hired after June 30, 2009 7.00~~

Teachers 5.00

Permanent Policemen 9.30

Permanent Firemen 9.30]

Group I members, 7.00, provided that for any group I member whose contribution rate on June 30, 2011 was 5.00, the rate for the state fiscal year beginning July 1, 2011 shall be 6.00, and for the state fiscal year beginning July 1, 2012 and each state fiscal year thereafter the rate shall be 7.00.

Group II members, 11.30, provided that for any group II member whose contribution rate on June 30, 2011 was 9.30, the rate for the state fiscal year beginning July 1, 2011 shall be 10.30, and for the state fiscal year beginning July 1, 2012 and each state fiscal year thereafter the rate shall be 11.30.

The board of trustees shall certify to the proper authority or officer responsible for making up the payroll of each employer, and such authority or officer shall cause to be deducted from the compensation of each member, except group II members who are in vested status before July 1, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 40 years and group II members who commenced service after June 30, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 50 years, and group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the maximum number of years adjusted proportionally between 40 and 50, as provided in RSA 100-A:5, II(b) and RSA 100-A:6, II(b), on each and every payroll of such employer for each and every payroll period, the percentage of earnable compensation applicable to such member. No deduction from earnable compensation under this paragraph shall apply to any group II member who is in vested status before July 1, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 40 years, and any group II member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 50 years, and group II members not in vested status on July 1, 2011 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the maximum number of years adjusted proportionally between 40 and 50, as provided in RSA 100-A:5, II(b) and RSA 100-A:6, II(b), and this provision for such members shall not affect the method of determining average final compensation as provided in RSA 100-A:1, XVIII. In determining the amount earnable by a member in a payroll period, the board may consider the rate of compensation payable to such member on the first day of a payroll period as continuing throughout the payroll period and it may omit deduction from compensation for any period less than a full payroll period if such person was not a member on the first day of the payroll period, and to facilitate the making of deductions it may modify the deduction required of any member by such an amount as shall not exceed 1/10 of one percent of the annual earnable compensation upon the basis of which such deduction is made. The amounts deducted shall be reported to the board of trustees. Each of such amounts, when deducted, shall be paid to the retirement system at such times as may be designated by the board of trustees and credited to the individual account, in the member annuity savings fund, of the member from whose compensation the deduction was made.

12 Retirement System; Administration; Membership of Board. Amend RSA 100-A:14, I to read as follows:

I. The administration of this system is vested in a board of ~~[14]~~ 13 trustees. Each newly appointed or reappointed trustee shall have familiarity with or experience in finance or business management. The state treasurer shall be an ex officio voting member of the board. The governor and council shall appoint 2 trustees, to be known as nonmember trustees, who shall be qualified persons with investment and/or financial experience as provided in this paragraph and not be members of the system, and who shall serve for a term of 2 years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The nonmember trustees of the board shall have substantial experience in the field of institutional investment or finance, taking into account factors such as educational background, business experience, and professional licensure and designations. The original appointment of one of the nonmember trustees shall be for a term of one year. The remaining ~~[11]~~ 10 members of the board shall consist of ~~[2 employees, 2 teachers, 2 permanent policemen, 2 permanent firemen]:~~ one employee member, one teacher member, one permanent police member, one permanent fireman member, 4 employer members; one member of the senate who shall be appointed annually by the senate president, and one member of the house of representatives who serves on the executive departments and administration committee and who shall be appointed annually by the speaker of the house~~[-and one person representing management in local government]~~. Whenever a vacancy occurs for a legislative member, the senate president or the speaker of the house shall fill the vacancy in the same manner by appointing a senate or a house member who shall serve for the unexpired term. The New Hampshire state employees' association, the New Hampshire education association, the New Hampshire police association, and the New Hampshire state permanent firemen's association~~[-and the New Hampshire Local Government Center]~~ shall each annually nominate from their members a panel of 5 persons, all of whom ~~[except for the panel of the Local Government Center]~~ shall be active members of the retirement system~~[-or one of the 4 predecessor systems]~~, no later than May 31 of each year, and the panels so named shall be filed with the secretary of state no later than June 10 of each year. From ~~[each of]~~ the above named panels the governor and council shall appoint ~~[one person annually to]~~ the active member trustees of the board~~[-except for the panel of the Local Government Center, which shall have one person appointed every 2 years]~~ as needed so as to maintain the representation on the board. The governor and council shall appoint the employer members of the board with one member nominated by the New Hampshire Association of Counties, one member nominated by the New Hampshire Municipal Association, one member nominated by the New Hampshire School Boards Association, and one member to represent management of state employees. Members appointed to the board in the manner aforesaid shall serve for a term of 2 years. Each member so appointed shall hold office until his or her successor shall be appointed and qualified. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the governor and council shall fill the vacancy by appointing a member who shall serve for the unexpired term [~~from the same panel from which the former member was appointed~~]. The governor shall designate one of the nonmember trustees to serve as chairman of said board of trustees.

13 Quorum. Amend RSA 100-A:14, IV to read as follows:

IV. Each trustee, including the chairman, shall be entitled to one vote in the board of trustees. [~~Seven~~] Six trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business of the board of trustees. [~~Seven~~] Six votes shall be necessary for any resolution or action by the board at any meeting.

14 Application; Board of Trustees Membership. Members of the board of trustees for the retirement system on the effective date of this section shall serve for the remainder of their terms. In order to conform to changes to the retirement system board of trustees made by this act, upon a vacancy occurring in the membership on the board of trustees after the effective date of this section, the appointment of a trustee shall be made to reasonably conform to the trustee designations in RSA 100-A:14, I.

15 Repeal of Special Account Funding. RSA 100-A:16, II(h)(2), relative to the method of allocating funds to the special account, is repealed.

16 Return of Members' Contributions; Reference to Assumed Rate of Return. Amend RSA 100-A:11, I(a) to read as follows:

(a) If a group I member ceases to be an employee or teacher for reasons other than retirement or death and if he or she has not elected to receive a vested deferred retirement allowance under RSA 100-A:10, the amount of his or her accumulated contributions shall be paid within 3 months after his or her written request therefor, provided that the member may not file a written request for such payment until at least 30 days from the date the member ceases to be an employee or a teacher and provided that the member may not again become a group I member during said 30-day period. A group I member shall cease to be an active member if he or she is absent from service for more than 180 days, without requesting return of the amount of his or her accumulated contributions, and the retirement system shall retain his or her accumulated contributions. The annual return credited on inactive, vested members shall be paid pursuant to RSA 100-A:16, II(g). The board shall hold and invest such accumulated contributions on behalf of the inactive member, provided that the annual return credited on the inactive member's accumulated contributions shall be 2 percentage points less than either the assumed rate of return determined [~~under RSA 100-A:16, II(h)~~] by the trustees or the actual rate of return, whichever is lower, for the immediately preceding fiscal year as reported in the comprehensive annual financial report (CAFR), provided the rate of return shall not be less than zero. The inactive member may make a written request for his or her total accumulated contributions, provided he or she is not on a leave of absence, and he or she shall be paid within 3 months after his or her written request. In the event an inactive member who has not withdrawn his or her contributions under this section returns to become an active member in service, his or her previous service shall count toward that member's creditable service to the extent that his or her accumulated contributions have remained in the retirement system.

17 Return of Members' Contributions; Reference to Assumed Rate of Return. Amend RSA 100-A:11, II(a) to read as follows:

(a) If a group II member ceases to be a permanent policeman or permanent fireman for reasons other than retirement or death and if he or she has not elected to receive a vested deferred retirement allowance under RSA 100-A:10, the amount of his or her accumulated contributions shall be paid within 3 months after his or her written request therefor. A group II member shall cease to be an active member if he or she is absent from service for more than 180 days, without requesting return of the amount of his or her accumulated contributions, and the retirement system shall retain his or her accumulated contributions. The annual return credited on inactive, vested members shall be paid pursuant to RSA 100-A:16, II(g). The board shall hold and invest such accumulated contributions on behalf of the inactive member, provided that the annual return credited on the inactive member's accumulated contributions shall be 2 percentage points less than either the assumed rate of return determined ~~[under RSA 100-A:16, II(h)]~~ by the trustees or the actual rate of return, whichever is lower, for the immediately preceding fiscal year as reported in the comprehensive annual financial report (CAFR), provided the rate of return shall not be less than zero. The inactive member may make a written request for his or her total accumulated contributions, provided he or she is not on a leave of absence, and he or she shall be paid within 3 months after his or her written request. In the event an inactive member who has not withdrawn his or her contributions under this section returns to become an active member in service, his or her previous service shall count toward that member's creditable service to the extent that his or her accumulated contributions have remained in the retirement system.

18 Medical Benefits Subsidy; Payment by Retirement System. Amend RSA 100-A:52, II to read as follows:

II. However, for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1990, the maximum amount payable by the retirement system under this subdivision on account of each person qualified under paragraph I who is not entitled to Medicare benefits, shall be $101.50 per month, and on account of each person qualified under paragraph I who is entitled to Medicare benefits, shall be $64 per month. As of July 1, 1991, and on each July 1 until and including July 1, 2007, the maximum amount payable by the retirement system as provided in this paragraph shall be increased by 8 percent, compounded on previous increases. After July 1, 2007 ~~[and until and including July 1, 2011]~~, the rate payable under this paragraph shall not be increased. ~~[As of July 1, 2012, and on each July 1 thereafter, the maximum amount payable by the retirement system as provided in this paragraph shall be increased by 4 percent, compounded on previous increases.]~~

19 New Sections; Retirement System; Return to Work; Statement Required. Amend RSA 100-A by inserting after section 27 the following new sections:

100-A:27-a Return to Work; Suspension of Benefits. Beginning January 1, 2012, no person shall be hired into a full-time position for which membership is required under RSA 100-A:3, or hired into a full-time state position for which membership is optional under RSA 100-A:3, I, while concurrently receiving a retirement benefit under this chapter. Benefits shall be suspended during any such period of employment. No person who retires after January 1, 2012 and is receiving retirement benefits under this chapter shall within 6 months of his or her retirement be employed by the state or another participating employer.

100-A:27-b Statement Required. The retirement system shall provide to employers a form to be signed, dated, and submitted by persons hired by the employer containing a statement establishing that the person is not currently receiving an allowance under this chapter. Employers shall submit such forms to the retirement system.

20 Repeal. 2002, 137:7, relative to the application of the repeal of former RSA 100-A:3, I(c), is repealed.

21 Transfer Required; Retirement System. The board of trustees of the retirement system shall forthwith transfer the sum of $89,000,000 from the group II components of the special account established under RSA 100-A:16, II(h) to the state annuity accumulation fund.

22 Study Committee Established; Voluntary Defined Contribution Plan. There is established a committee to study the establishment of a federal tax qualified voluntary defined contribution plan.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) One member of the senate, who shall be from the executive departments and administration committee, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Three members of the house of representatives, each of whom shall be from the executive departments and administration committee, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

III. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the senate member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Three members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

IV. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 2011.

23 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 100-A:16, III-a, relative to employer assessments for excess benefits paid by employers in the retirement system, is repealed.

II. RSA 100-A:4-b, relative to group I employees and teachers purchase of credit for out-of-state service.

III. RSA 100-A:4-c, relative to group II members purchase of credit for out-of state service.

24 Severability. If any provision of this act or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance is held invalid or is deemed not to comply with applicable law or regulations of the Internal Revenue Service so as to jeopardize the retirement system's status as a qualified governmental pension plan, the invalidity or non-compliance does not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

25 Applicability; Contingent Amendment. If any provision in sections 1-10 of this act is found by the New Hampshire Supreme Court to be invalid as to active members of the New Hampshire Retirement System on the effective date of this act, section 26 shall take effect for the first payroll period beginning 10 days from the date of such decision. The board of trustees of the retirement system shall certify to the secretary of state and the director of legislative services the date of such occurrence.

26 Member Contribution Rates; Contingent Version. The introductory paragraph of RSA 100-A:16, I(a) and the contribution rates following the introductory paragraph are repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

(a) The member annuity savings fund shall be a fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions deducted from the compensation of members to provide for their member annuities together with any amounts transferred thereto from a similar fund under one or more of the predecessor systems. Such contribution shall be, for each member, dependent upon the member's employment classification at the rate determined in accordance with the following table:

Group I members, 8.00.

Group II members, 12.30.

27 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1, 2, and 4-18 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2011.

II. Sections 19 and 20 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

III. Section 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2016.

IV. Section 26 of this act shall take effect as provided in section 25 of this act.

V. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes various changes to the state retirement system including:

I. Increasing retirement ages of group II members for service retirement, disability retirement, vested deferred retirement, and split benefits.

II. Changing the definitions of earnable compensation and average final compensation used in calculating retirement benefits.

III. Changing the composition of the board of trustees.

IV. Eliminating the special account.

V. Eliminating the retirement system funding of medical benefits premium payments.

VI. Increasing contribution rates.

VII. Establishing a voluntary defined contribution plan administered by the board of trustees.

VIII. Limits when a member in service may concurrently receive benefits.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 3-FN-A-L Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill makes various changes to the benefits of current non-vested members and future members, and to the administration of the retirement system. These changes are necessary so that we are able to establish two important goals: that we have a retirement system that is stable and viable, and that the burden of the unfunded liability is equitably spread to property taxpayers. There were some technical areas that needed to be addressed in the bill, and those were addressed in the amendment. SB 3 came out of Committee with a vote of 4-1 in favor. We ask for your support in the adoption of Senate Bill 3. Thank you, Mister President.

Recess. Out of recess.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Sen. Carson offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment to SB 3-FN-A-LOCAL

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 24 with the following:

25 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1, 2, and 4-18 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2011.

II. Sections 19 and 20 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

III. Section 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2016.

IV. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. All this amendment does is it removes section 25 and section 26 of the bill. This is the contingency clause that many found objectionable. So, what I've done, and Senator Bradley, is we've decided that we're going to take this out. So, that's all it does. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I rise simply to support the adoption of this amendment and applaud those who listened to the concerns of the punitive effect of this, and thank you for your support on this.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise to express my concern – one of which was just alleviated – but, express my concern with some of the remaining provisions of Senate Bill 3 that may pose constitutional questions. And, I'd request that, in light of the following issues I'll discuss, that this body consider a Senate Resolution that requests an opinion of the Justices concerning those questions as they're raised.

I would note that the New Hampshire Supreme Court has ruled in Janeau v. New Hampshire Personnel Commission, for example, that employee members are vested – and I'm using their language – vested upon attaining permanent employment status. The effect of Senate Bill 3 is to diminish benefits for employees that are permanent employees but have fewer than 10 years of service. So, my first question is whether legislation changing the benefits for employees that have reached permanent employment status but have not been employed for 10 years would violate the New Hampshire Constitution; that's the first issue that I would ask that we send to the Justices for an opinion.

The second issue that I have is, Article 36-a of the New Hampshire Constitution states, "all contributions and payments made to any such system to provide for retirement and related benefits shall be held, invested, or disbursed in trusts for the exclusive purpose of providing for such benefits, and shall not be encumbered for or diverted to any other purposes." My second question, therefore, is whether the diversion of the $89 million from the special account to the corpus of the pension fund violates that provision of the New Hampshire Constitution; that would be the second question.

And, finally, I would just ask my colleagues to consider the expenses that will accrue as a result of litigation that is likely to follow passage of SB 3 as amended. And, therefore, would ask my colleagues to join me in consideration of sending a Resolution to the Justices of the Supreme Court to resolve those questions; then we can move forward without a cloud of litigation. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I would speak against what I believe will be a motion subsequent to my speaking to table the bill so that the advisory opinions of the New Hampshire Supreme Court can be sought, as my good friend from the Upper Valley has just asked us to do. Let us not forget that there currently is litigation on a past bill that was passed in 2008 – House Bill 1645 – and it's very unlikely, in my opinion, that the Court, in the middle of pending litigation on this subject, would give us an advisory opinion on Senate Bill 3. So, I would urge my colleagues to vote down the tabling motion, which I suspect will come next. Thank you.

Sen. Larsen moved to Table SB 3-FN-A-L.

The question is on the motion to Table.

Floor Amendment to SB 3-FN-A-LOCAL

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Maximum Initial Benefit; Effective 2016. Amend RSA 100-A:6-a to read as follows:

100-A:6-a Maximum Retirement Benefit.

I. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, [for members who commenced service before July 1, 2009,] a member's initial calculation of the retirement benefit granted under the provisions of RSA 100-A:5 or RSA 100-A:6 shall not exceed 100 percent of the member's highest year of [earnable compensation] full base rate of compensation paid. [For members who commenced service on or after July 1, 2009, a member's maximum retirement benefit granted under the provisions of RSA 100-A:5 or RSA 100-A:6 shall not exceed $120,000.]

II. In addition to any other benefit or payment under this chapter, if a member has reported compensation for any year of the member's creditable service which exceeds the member's maximum initial calculation of benefit under this paragraph, the member's contributions attributable to the amount exceeding the maximum initial benefit for each of those years shall be repaid to the member as a lump sum within 90 day of the member's retirement date.

III. Nothing in this section shall affect the ability of a member to receive disability benefits pursuant to RSA 100-A:6, II(b) and (c).

IV. This [provision] section shall not limit the application of supplemental allowances under RSA 100-A:41-a.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise to offer Floor Amendment 0895s, which seeks to amend a basic inequity in SB 3 as amended. SB 3 as amended addresses the concept of what is known as "maximum initial benefit" by placing a cap on an employee's retirement benefit not to exceed 100 percent of the member's full base rate of compensation. This is also commonly referred to as the "100 percent rule". Floor Amendment 0895s seeks in no way to alter such a provision in SB 3, but rather seeks a level of fairness for employees by allowing for repayment to members those contributions to the system that cannot be counted toward their awardable pension benefit. Again, in simple terms, if a police officer has worked or continues to work X amount of overtime hours that cannot be counted toward his or her retirement benefit because such calculation would exceed 100 percent of the member's base rate of compensation, thus making such earnings unattributable under SB 3 as amended, why should that police officer be forced to pay a contribution into the system for a benefit he or she will ultimately not receive? I ask my colleagues to recognize this inequity in SB 3 as amended and further ask for their support on Floor Amendment 0895s. Thank you, Mister President.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I would urge my colleagues to vote against this amendment. I had made this suggestion to my good friend from Concord last night, that the concept in this amendment be brought to the Finance Committee, and if in fact there is an issue – and I don't believe there is – but if there's an issue, I'd like it to be done in the light of day with the appropriate amount of discussion, as opposed to on the fly on the floor. Let's not forget that what we are talking about here are the opportunities to recover spiked benefits and the like. We need to think about this carefully, and we need to do so, I think, at the Finance Committee, if there is indeed an issue.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator Bradley, if this were to fail as a floor amendment, can we anticipate that it would still be a topic of discussion in the Finance Committee, given that it has some validity and it's a good case that those who pay into a system, if they can't receive it back in benefits, ought to be credited for that?

SENATOR BRADLEY: Well, Senator, I encouraged you last night to take it to the Finance Committee; I would encourage you to continue to do so. The operative word is "if" there is a problem, and I think that this is something that needs to be looked at carefully, not on the fly on the floor.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Houde, Kelly, Larsen, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

Amendment to SB 3-FN-A-LOCAL

Amend the bill by replacing section 19 with the following:

19 New Sections; Retirement System; Return to Work; Form Required. Amend RSA 100-A by inserting after section 27 the following new sections:

100-A:27-a Return to Work; Suspension of Benefits. Beginning January 1, 2012, no person shall be hired into a full-time position for which membership is required under RSA 100-A:3, or hired into a full-time state position for which membership is optional under RSA 100-A:3, I, while concurrently receiving a retirement benefit under this chapter. Benefits shall be suspended during any such period of employment. No person who retires after January 1, 2012 and is receiving retirement benefits under this chapter shall within 6 months of his or her retirement be employed by the state or another participating employer.

100-A:27-b Form Required. The retirement system shall provide to employers a form to be signed, dated, and submitted by persons hired by the employer containing such information as determined necessary by the retirement system and a statement establishing that the person is not currently receiving an allowance under this chapter. Employers shall submit such forms to the retirement system.

SENATOR HOUE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise to offer Floor Amendment 0905s. This amendment addresses section 19 of SB 3 as amended, the section so referenced as "Return to Work" identifies an issue that has come to light in recent years, commonly referred to as "double-dipping". SB 3 as introduced would have eliminated the opportunity for double-dipping, the practice where an employee will retire, subsequently collect his or her pension, and then return to active employment at a reduced hourly or part-time capacity. However, SB 3 as amended allows for the practice of double-dipping to continue with the implementation of a six-month buffer period before a retiree can reenter state service. This is problematic from an administrative standpoint for the following reasons: First, the retirement system actuaries make a number of assumptions when they establish appropriate employer rates; one such assumption is that certain full-time classified positions are occupied by full-time employees, and thus such employees are paying the established and appropriate employee contribution into the retirement system. If part-time employees are occupying such positions, then consequently no contribution is being made into the system. Two, if assumed contributions are not being made from an actuarial standpoint, the resulting rates, from an actuarial standpoint, can be manipulated and may not reflect actual dollars into the system, resulting in a underfunding of both real pension costs and the portion paid toward the unfunded accrued liability.

Floor Amendment 0905s seeks to accomplish one simple thing: help the retirement system and its actuaries accurately identify the employees that are engaging in double-dipping so that the positions that they occupy can be tracked and the losses to the system that they represent can be accurately accounted for. I propose doing this, as indicated in line 12 of the floor amendment, by allowing for the New Hampshire retirement system to collect employee data from employers as they deem necessary to identify and account for the extent of the issue. This would be accomplished through the use of a simple form to be generated accordingly and with expertise, of course, of the retirement system.

At its most basic, in conclusion, this floor amendment allows for the collection of already available data that will help identify so-called "double-dippers" and allow for such an activity to be actuarially accounted for in calculating pension contributions and costs. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. My good friend from the Upper Valley, I agree with line 12, and I agree with lines 1 through 11 of your amendment, and 13 through 16, as well. But, let me just say this with regard to double-dipping: It is currently against state law to retire and to be a full-time position and to be currently retired. And, I think that – I would like to think, at least, that when we're done with Senate Bill 3, we will strengthen those provisions to make sure that the perception of people retiring and then resuming a full-time position while they're collecting their retirement benefit is something that we curtail and curtail significantly. So, I thank you for the amendment, and I urge its passage.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to welcome the students of Sant Bani School from Sanbornton who are with us here today.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

Floor Amendment to SB 3-FN-A-LOCAL

Amend the bill by replacing section 12 with the following:

12 Retirement System; Administration; Membership of Board. Amend RSA 100-A:14, I to read as follows:

I. The administration of this system is vested in a board of ~~[14]~~ 13 trustees. Each newly appointed or reappointed trustee shall have familiarity with or experience in finance or business management. The state treasurer shall be an ex officio voting member of the board. The governor and council shall appoint 2 trustees, to be known as nonmember trustees, who shall be qualified persons with investment and/or financial experience as provided in this paragraph and not be members of the system, and who shall serve for a term of 2 years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The nonmember trustees of the board shall have substantial experience in the field of institutional investment or finance, taking into account factors such as educational background, business experience, and professional licensure and designations. The original appointment of one of the nonmember trustees shall be for a term of one year. The remaining ~~[11]~~ 10 members of the board shall consist of ~~[2 employees, 2 teachers, 2 permanent policemen, 2 permanent firemen];~~ one employee member, one teacher member, one permanent police member, one permanent fireman member, 4 employer members; one member of the senate who shall be appointed annually by the senate president, and one member of the house of representatives who serves on the executive departments and administration committee and who shall be appointed annually by the speaker of the house~~[-and one person representing management in local government]~~. Provided, however, that the senate and house of representatives appointees shall be nonvoting members of the board, and whenever a vacancy occurs for a legislative member, the senate president or the speaker of the house shall fill the vacancy in the same manner by appointing a senate or a house member who shall serve for the unexpired term. The New Hampshire state employees' association, the New Hampshire education association, the New Hampshire police association, and the New Hampshire state permanent firemen's association~~[-and the New Hampshire Local Government Center]~~ shall each annually nominate from their members a panel of 5 persons, all of whom ~~[except for the panel of the Local Government Center]~~ shall be active members of the retirement system~~], or one of the 4 predecessor systems]~~, no later than May 31 of each year, and the panels so named shall be filed with the secretary of state no later than June 10 of each year. From ~~[each of]~~ the above named panels the governor and council shall appoint ~~[one person annually to]~~ the active member trustees of the board~~], except for the panel of the Local Government Center, which shall have one person appointed every 2 years]~~ as needed so as to maintain the representation on the board. The governor and council shall appoint the employer members of the board with one member nominated by the New Hampshire Association of Counties, one member nominated by the New Hampshire Municipal Association, one member nominated by the New Hampshire School Boards Association, and one member to represent management of state employees. Members appointed to the board in the manner aforesaid shall serve for a term of 2 years. Each member so appointed shall hold office until his or her successor shall be appointed and qualified. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the governor and council shall fill the vacancy by appointing a member who shall serve for the unexpired term ~~[from the same panel from which the former member was appointed]~~. The governor shall designate one of the nonmember trustees to serve as chairman of said board of trustees.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to offer Floor Amendment 0910s. This floor amendment provides language intended to decrease the potential for the politicizing of decision-making by the New Hampshire retirement system board of trustees. It does so by stipulating that the two legislative members of the board of trustees shall be nonvoting members. Elected representatives and Senators who serve on the board of trustees act as conduits between the retirement system board and the State Legislature, and rightfully so, as so many decisions pertaining to the scope and shape of the NHRS fall under the purview of the Legislature. And, it's my understanding that the original intent of including legislators on the board was that they in fact serve in a liaison role.

I believe that legislators serving on the New Hampshire retirement system board of trustees should be free to carry out their fiduciary duty to protect the overall health and benefit of the retirement system without the potential for conflict between legislative decision-making regarding bills that may address aspects of the retirement system on one hand and decision-making regarding the overall health of the retirement system that, on the other hand, a legislator board member encounters as a member of the board of trustees, a voting member.

I ask that my colleagues consider these potential conflicts and take a step toward removing politics from the New Hampshire retirement system by supporting Floor Amendment 0910s. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I'm concerned about this amendment. There's 13 trustees, and only two of the trustees would be members of the General Court; I think that's a very small percentage; I don't think that's going to bring any significant level of politicization, and I think we have an oversight role in that. So, two out of 13, last time I counted, that's a small fraction. So, I would urge you not to support this amendment.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment.

A roll call was requested by Sen. D'Allesandro, seconded by Sen. Merrill.

Floor Amendment to SB 3-FN-A-LOCAL

Amend the bill by deleting section 21 and renumbering the original sections 22-27 to read as 21-26, respectively.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you so much, Mister President. Knowing that I come to you all from the historical perspective, let me tell you this is the 21st time that the retirement system has been addressed by this legislative body since its inception in 1967. So, it's a matter that keeps coming up.

My amendment deals with the transfer of $89 million. And, I'd like to let all of my colleagues know that I believe that we have legal challenge in the making as a result of this transfer. And, as the Majority Leader indicated, there is currently a legal challenge over the transfer of $250 million.

In 2007, House Bill 653 changed the methodology to entry-age normal and restricted the flow of funds to the special account, and added a trustee from the public employees to the board. House Bill 876 created a commission to study the long-term viability of the system, and during fiscal year 2007, the trust gained 16 percent, and close the year with a fund ratio of 63.4 percent. A report on November 13, 2007, by Ice Miller, LLP, was brought to the board of the New Hampshire retirement system on funding of employer-provided retiree health insurance. The $89 million that's being discussed in Senate Bill 3 is a result of a $26 million transfer that's discussed in the Ice Miller independent legal counsel report to the board of trustees. Recommendations from the report on page 2 were recommending that the board seek approval from the Internal Revenue Society to correct the FY 1990 through FY 2000 series of transfers. The method for correcting this transfer is participation in the IRS Voluntary Correction Program, or the VCP. As part of the VCP submission, we believe it would be reasonable to propose that the IRS approve the return of the $26 million from the 401h sub-trust to the pension reserve, with interest determined at the appropriate rate. The New Hampshire retirement system assumed investment rate of return for each year. However, the amounts cannot be transferred without prior IRS approval. Again, this correction and the appropriation total amount would be determined pursuant to negotiations with the IRS. The transfer of $89 million of special account money to the state accumulation fund breaches an agreement entered into by the retirement system and the IRS, and reverses a vote of the New Hampshire retirement board authorizing a transfer of $89 million from the medical sub-trust back to the special account where the $89 million originally came from. The agreement with the IRS was recommended by the New Hampshire retirement system outside legal expert, Ice Miller, who expressly recommended that this money be returned to the special account. The transfer of special account money to the corpus of the fund also contributes a prohibited transaction under IRS rules and violates the New Hampshire Constitution, Part 1, Article 36-a. The prior transfer of $250 million from the special account to the corpus is the subject of an ongoing lawsuit, and Senate Bill 3 will likely amount to another legal diversion of money raised and authorized exclusively to pay for employee pension benefits. So, I think there's a legal question here about the flip of the $89 million. And, rather than risk another legal challenge, I ask that you support my amendment, which prohibits the transfer of the $89 million. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much. This is one of those mind-numbing forays into the actuarial world of the New Hampshire retirement system and all the machinations that have happened over the years.

Let me try to simplify this as best I possibly can. The IRS has a ruling that says pension dollars should be used for pensions, not for other employment benefits, such as the medical subsidy. And so, as a result of this IRS ruling, the monies that were deposited into the medical sub-trust – the $250 million that Senator D'Allesandro references – went back into the body – the word corpus is the body of the retirement account. The Group II dollars, the $89 million, for whatever reason, never were transferred back into the body of the account. During that time that this was all taking place, though, the medical subsidy, which is not a direct pension benefit, but is an adjunct to the pension and administered by the New Hampshire retirement system, instead of being funded by the medical sub-trust, became an employer responsibility – let's remember that: The burden shifted to the employers for this medical subsidy. The medical subsidy has an unfunded liability right now of $976 million, and it has about $50 million of assets. It's 5.6 percent funded, and it is exclusively today an employer responsibility. So, this money that was generated over time should go back as a result of this IRS ruling to accrue to the benefit of the employers, because that's what the IRS ruling says, and that would destroy it with the purpose of this amendment. So, I would urge my colleagues to protect taxpayers, to send the money where it belongs, and to vote against this amendment.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: My distinguished colleague from Wolfeboro, Land of Lakes and Wonderful Boats – and, as Senator Rausch points out, "Go slow, boats."

Senator, thank you for taking my question. Senator, did you consider the fact that the actuaries are not in line with the policy you're proposing, and why did you choose to go against their advice if your goal is to have a more solvent pension fund?

SENATOR BRADLEY: Senator, this is an employer responsibility now, the medical trust, as I just outlined – the unfunded liability of the medical trust is $976 million, on top of the unfunded liability and the pension portion of the New Hampshire retirement system, which is $3.7 billion, for a total unfunded liability of $4.7 billion. Way back when, the medical trust was not an employer responsibility; it is today. It's a large part of the unfunded liability, it's a large part of the employer rates. This money should go to balance out the employer responsibility.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro for a follow-up question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: So, in essence, if this $89 million flips, what it does is reduces the employer's contribution, is that correct?

SENATOR BRADLEY: What this money would do, if it goes back into the body of the pension plan, is reduce the unfunded liability of the pension plan by $89 million, and it would accrue over time. Let's remember, employers, my good friend from Manchester, who loves to go fast, we are talking about protecting property taxpayers here, and your amendment, unfortunately, would leave – well, never mind. Your amendment would not protect property taxpayers. I thought I could get something on Senate Bill 27 in there, but I couldn't.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, thank you very much. Thank you very much, Senator Bradley.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment.

Floor Amendment failed.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Senator Bradley, by moving the $89 million, are we eliminating the special account?

SENATOR BRADLEY: No. We are not eliminating the special account, nor, if you have a question on the gain-sharing provision, which was adopted by yourself and former members of the Senate, I believe in 2008, or 2007, on House Bill 653, your provision for gain-sharing precludes the ability to siphon money out of the pension fund for other benefits, similar to what we were just discussing. Now, there are other proposals from our friends across the wall that would pull all the remaining balance of the special account and put it into the corpus. This bill does not do it. The – and, I think I'm going to anticipate your question – what the provision does for the special account is make sure that we never allow gain-sharing to come back in the future. We build on the work that you did several years ago and make sure that the money that is generated for pensions by both employers and employees stays in the pension to pay for the pension. One of the reasons why we're having this debate today, Senator D'Allesandro, is that $900 million was siphoned out of the pension fund to pay for other post-employment benefits.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you very much, Senator Bradley. But, clearly, for the record, you are not going to eliminate the special account.

SENATOR BRADLEY: I thought I said no.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Good, thank you very much. I love that: positive no.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Earlier, you indicated that the $89 million would help in the unfunded liability of the pension system. And yet, we heard from the actuarial folks that, in a fiscal note that they authored, the system actuarial, that the bill would have virtually no effect on the unfunded liability, but would affect the normal pension costs. So, how do you justify moving this legislation forward when the actuaries say, in fact, it does not affect the unfunded liability and does not work to address that?

SENATOR BRADLEY: Senator, you must not be reading the same fiscal note that I'm reading; I'd be happy to let you look at my copy of it. Because actually, the unfunded liability on the original bill, is reduced by $700 million. Now, I would wish it was more, quite frankly. When you have a $4.7 billion unfunded liability, you can't have a magic bullet to fix it. And, I'd be the first one to admit that all of these provisions in the original bill and in the amendment, which I think has improve the bill, it's still not a magic bullet. But, the unfunded pension liability is reduced by about $400 million and the unfunded medical subsidy liability is reduced by about $300 million. So, I think that's a very significant improvement. And, what really is the problem, as I see it, is the employer rates. Let's remember, the State's an employer, the counties are employers, our cities and towns are employers, but who's paying the bill? Senator Larsen, it's primarily property taxpayers. And, while I haven't been here that long, I know that you have been a very effective champion for property taxpayers. But, the rates that property taxpayers, through cities and towns and the State and their counties are paying for employees now has shot up and is going to continue to escalate dangerously. And, this is the problem with the $4.7 billion dollar unfunded liability. This bill makes great progress; it will bring those employer rates down to just a little bit higher than they are today. We won't see the tremendous spike that's coming if we pass this bill, and that's what's at stake here.

SENATOR LARSEN: But so, are you not, in fact, asking more of the employees? We recognize over the history of this account, primarily, the employee funds have gone to offset the employer funds over the years; the employees' rates were higher while the employers' rates were able to be much lower. So, aren't we, in fact, returning to that pattern?

SENATOR BRADLEY: No, absolutely not. If you look at what today's employer rates are for employees – for employees, it's roughly 11 cents on the dollar; for teachers, a little bit higher; for police, about 19 cents; and for firefighters, about 24 cents. That's – just to use the firefighter number – it's 24 cents on the dollar. On July 1st, the firefighter rates are going to go to 29 cents; the police rates, 25 cents, and on down the line. In two years, it's projected that the firefighter rates are going to go to 34 cents, and the police rates 30 cents and the teacher and employee rates continue to escalate. And, just as a point of comparison, the employer-employee match for Social Security is about 13 percent split evenly. So, when we talk about employer rates that are that high, this has huge ramifications, not only for the property taxpayers, who are largely going to foot the bill, but for the ability of the cities and towns, the State, the counties to be able to afford basic services if the cost of retirement is so extreme. And, this is the conundrum, Senator Larsen, that we face.

Rating agencies are starting to look at unfunded liabilities to pensions; New Hampshire has the fourth worst unfunded liability in the country as determined by Bloomberg in a September survey. So, it's possible – and, I don't want to say it's going to happen – but, as Moody's and Fitch and Standard and Poors look at these issues, it could well impact our bond rating. And then, as that happens, and the ramifications of this spread, through higher property taxes impact will have a large effect on our ability to attract new stable employers to New Hampshire. So, this is a problem that we can no longer put off a solution for. So, yes, there is an amount of requests, if you will, that are made of the current employees. We do next to nothing for current retirees; it's very limited for vested employees, somewhat more for non-vested employees, and new hires get most of the reforms in this measure. It's fair, it is a compromise. Ideas were brought to us from people that are in the Retirement Security Coalition, which we've adopted. So, I would urge you to think about the long-term implications for the State and for property taxpayers and join with me in trying to fix this problem that we can no longer avoid.

SENATOR LARSEN: Would you believe that I believe it's important to balance the needs of property taxpayers with the promises we've made under contractual obligations to our employees, and the need to keep competent teachers, firefighters, police officers, who don't leave the system?

SENATOR BRADLEY: I absolutely would agree with you, and, Senator Larsen, we have, I think, gone to great pains to do exactly that: to be very fair to everybody in the system. Let's not forget that at today's very high rates for employers, which means taxpayers, they're going to stay very high for a long, long time. We just prevent the future coming spike. And, I wish it was more. But, we have got to do it, or this system is going to become increasingly unsustainable.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

Floor Amendment to SB 3-FN-A-LOCAL

Amend the bill by replacing sections 1-11 with the following:

1 Retirement System; Definition of Earnable Compensation. Amend RSA 100-A:1, XVII to read as follows:

XVII. "Earnable compensation" shall mean:

(a) For [aH] members who commenced service prior to July 1, 2011, the full base rate of compensation paid plus any overtime pay, holiday and vacation pay, sick pay, longevity or severance pay, cost of living bonus, additional pay for extracurricular and instructional activities or for other extra or special duty, and any military differential pay, plus the fair market value of non-cash compensation paid to, or on behalf of, the member for meals or living quarters if subject to federal income tax, but excluding other compensation except cash incentives paid by an employer to encourage members to retire, supplemental pay paid by the employer while the member is receiving workers' compensation, and teacher development pay that is not part of the contracted annual salary. However, earnable compensation in the final 12 months of creditable service prior to termination of employment shall be limited to 1-1/2 times the higher of the earnable compensation in the 12-month period preceding the final 12 months or the highest compensation year as determined for the purpose of calculating average final compensation, but excluding the final 12 months. Any compensation received in the final 12 months of employment in excess of such limit shall not be subject to member or employer contributions to the retirement system and shall not be considered in the computation of average final compensation. Provided that, the annual compensation limit for members of governmental defined benefit pension plans under section 401(a)(17) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall apply to earnable compensation for all employees, teachers, permanent firemen, and permanent policemen who first become eligible for membership in the system on or after July 1, 1996. Earnable compensation shall not include compensation in any form paid later than 120 days after the member's termination of employment from a retirement eligible position, with the limited exceptions of disability related severance pay paid to a member or retiree no later than 120 days after a decision by the board of trustees granting the member or retiree disability retirement benefits pursuant to RSA 100-A:6 and of severance pay which a member was entitled to be paid within 120 days after termination but which, without the consent of the member and not through any fault of the member, was paid more than 120 days after the member's termination. The member shall have the burden of proving to the board of trustees that any severance payment paid later than 120 days after the member's termination of employment is earnable compensation and meets the requirements of an asserted exception to the 120-day post-termination payment requirement.

(b) For members who commenced service after June 30, 2011, the full base rate of compensation paid, as determined by the employer, plus any overtime pay, holiday and vacation pay, sick pay, longevity pay, cost of living bonus, additional pay for extracurricular and instructional activities, and any military differential pay, plus the fair market value of non-cash compensation paid to, or on behalf of, the member for meals or living quarters if subject to federal income tax, but excluding other compensation except supplemental pay paid by the employer while the member is receiving workers' compensation and teacher development pay that is not part of the contracted annual salary. Compensation for extra and special duty, as determined by the employer, shall be included but limited during the highest 5 years of creditable service as provided in paragraph XVIII. Earnable compensation shall not include incentives to encourage members to retire, severance pay, and pay for unused sick or vacation time. However, earnable compensation in the final 12 months of creditable service prior to termination of employment shall be limited to 1-1/2 times the higher of the earnable compensation in the 12-month period preceding the final 12 months or the highest compensation year as determined for the purpose of calculating average final compensation, but excluding the final 12 months. Any compensation received in the final 12 months of employment in excess of such limit shall not be subject to member or employer contributions to the retirement system and shall not be considered in the computation of average final compensation. Provided that, the annual compensation limit for members of governmental defined benefit pension plans under section 401(a)(17) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall apply to earnable compensation for all employees, teachers, permanent firemen, and permanent policemen who first become eligible for membership in the system on or after July 1, 1996. Earnable compensation shall not include compensation in any form paid later than 120 days after the member's termination of employment from a retirement eligible position.

2 Retirement System; Definitions; Average Final Compensation. Amend RSA 100-A:1, XVIII to read as follows:

XVIII. "Average final compensation" shall mean:

(a) For members who commenced service prior to July 1, 2011, the average annual earnable compensation of a member during his or her highest 3 years of creditable service, or during all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 3 years.

(b) For members who commenced service after June 30, 2011, the average annual earnable compensation of a member during his or her highest 5 years of creditable service, or during all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 5 years. For purposes of this calculation, the inclusion of the average annual compensation for extra and special duty in the 5 years shall not exceed the average annual amount of compensation for extra and special duty paid to the members over the member's last 7 years or over all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 7 years.

3 Maximum Initial Benefit; Effective 2016. Amend RSA 100-A:6-a to read as follows:

100-A:6-a Maximum Retirement Benefit.

I. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary[;]:

(a) For members who commenced service before July 1, 2009, a member's initial calculation of the retirement benefit granted under the provisions of RSA 100-A:5 or RSA 100-A:6 shall not exceed 100 percent of the member's highest year of earnable compensation.

(b) For members who commenced service on or after July 1, 2009 and before July 1, 2011, a member's maximum retirement benefit granted under the provisions of RSA 100-A:5 or RSA 100-A:6 shall not exceed $120,000.

(c) For members who commenced service on or after July 1, 2011, a member's maximum retirement benefit granted under the provisions of RSA 100-A:5 or RSA 100-A:6 shall not exceed the member's highest year of full base rate of compensation paid.

II. Nothing in this section shall affect the ability of a member to receive disability benefits pursuant to RSA 100-A:6, II(b) and (c). This [provision] section shall not limit the application of supplemental allowances under RSA 100-A:41-a.

4 State Employees; Group Insurance Benefits; Group II. Amend RSA 21-I:30, III to read as follows:

III. Any vested deferred state retiree may receive medical and surgical benefits under this section if the vested deferred state retiree is eligible. To be eligible, a group I vested deferred state retiree shall have at least 10 years of creditable service with the state if the employee's service began prior to July 1, 2003 or 20 years of creditable service with the state if the employee's service began on or after July 1, 2003 and a group II vested deferred state retiree shall have at least 20 years of creditable service with the state if the employee's service with the state began on or after July 1, 2010. In addition, if the vested deferred state retiree is a member of group I, such retiree shall be at least 60 years of age to be eligible. If the vested deferred state retiree is a member of group II who commenced service before July 1, 2011, such retiree shall not be eligible until 20 years from the date of becoming a member of group II and shall be at least 45 years of age, and any group II member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 shall not be eligible until 25 years from the date of becoming a member of group II and shall be at least 50 years of age.

5 Service Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:5, II to read as follows:

II. Group II Members.

(a) Any group II member in service, who commenced service before July 1, 2011, who has attained age 45 and completed 20 years of creditable service, and any group II member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 who has attained age 50 and completed 25 years of creditable service, or any group II member in service who has attained age 60 regardless of the number of years of creditable service, may retire on a service retirement allowance upon written application to the board of trustees setting forth at what time not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days subsequent to the filing thereof the member desires to be retired, notwithstanding that during such period of notification the member may have separated from service.

(b) Upon service retirement, a group II member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(1) A member annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his or her accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(2) A state annuity which, together with his or her member annuity, shall be equal to 2-1/2 percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 40 years.

(c)(1) Notwithstanding any provision of RSA 100-A to the contrary, any group II member who commenced service before July 1, 2011 and has retired on or after the effective date of this subparagraph after attaining the age of 45 with at least 20 years of creditable service, and any group II member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 and has retired on or after the effective date of this subparagraph after attaining the age of 50 with at least 25 years of creditable service, shall receive a minimum annual service retirement allowance of $10,000. If such group II member has elected to convert the retirement allowance into an optional allowance for the surviving spouse under RSA 100-A:13, the surviving spouse shall be entitled to a proportional share of the $10,000.

(2) [Repealed.]

(3) [Repealed.]

6 Ordinary Disability Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:6, II(b) to read as follows:

(b) Upon ordinary disability retirement, the group II member shall receive an ordinary disability retirement allowance which shall consist of: a member annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his or her accumulated contributions at the time of his or her ordinary disability retirement; and a state annuity which, together with his or her member annuity, shall be equal to 2-1/2 percent of his or her average final compensation at the time of [his] ordinary disability retirement multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 40 at the time of [his] ordinary disability retirement, provided, however, that such allowance shall not be less than 25 percent of the member's final compensation at the time of his or her disability retirement.

7 Accidental Disability Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:6, II(d) to read as follows:

(d) Upon accidental disability retirement, the group II member shall receive an accidental disability retirement allowance equal to $\frac{2}{3}$ of his or her average final compensation at the time of [his] disability retirement. For any group II member who has more than $26\frac{2}{3}$ years of service, a supplemental disability retirement allowance shall be paid. Such supplement shall be equal to $2\frac{1}{2}$ percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service in excess of $26\frac{2}{3}$ but not in excess of 40 years.

8 Vested Deferred Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:10, II(b) to read as follows:

(b) For members who commenced service before July 1, 2011, upon the member's attainment of age 45, provided the member would then have completed 20 years of creditable service, otherwise the subsequent date on which such 20 years would have been completed, or for members who commenced service after June 30, 2011, upon the member's attainment of age 50, provided the member would then have completed 25 years of creditable service, otherwise the subsequent date on which such 25 years would have been completed, or at any time after age 60, a group II member who meets the requirement of subparagraph (a) may make application on a form prescribed by the board of trustees and receive a vested deferred retirement allowance which shall consist of: (1) A member annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of accumulated contributions on the date the member's retirement allowance commences; and (2) A state annuity which, together with the member annuity, shall be equal to a service retirement allowance based on the member's average final compensation and creditable service at the time the member's service is terminated.

9 Split Benefits; Minimum Age. Amend RSA 100-A:19-b, II to read as follows:

II.(a) For a member who commenced service before July 1, 2011 and, who has completed 20 or more years of combined creditable service, one year shall be deducted from age 60 for each year of creditable group II service, provided that the age shall not be less than 45 years.

(b) For a member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 and who has completed 25 or more years of combined creditable service, one year shall be deducted from age 60 for each year of creditable group II service, provided that the age shall not be less than 50 years.

10 Split Benefits; Reduced Early Retirement. Amend RSA 100-A:19-d to read as follows:

100-A:19-d Reduced Early Retirement. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any retirement system member who has creditable service in both group I and group II with at least 10 years combined creditable service, and who has attained an age which is at least 45 for members who commenced service before July 1, 2011 or at least 50 for members who commenced after June 30, 2011, and is within 10 years of the minimum age set forth in RSA 100-A:19-b, may elect to retire and have benefits commence immediately as a reduced split-benefit service retirement allowance. Application shall be as provided in RSA 100-A:5, I(c). The allowance shall be determined as a split-benefit service retirement allowance in accordance with RSA 100-A:19-c, and the total combined split-benefit service allowance shall be reduced by the percentages shown in RSA 100-A:5, I(c), based on the total combined length of creditable service, for each month by which the date on which benefits commence precedes the month after which the member attains the minimum age set forth in RSA 100-A:19-b.

11 Financing; Member Contribution Rates; Group II Member Payroll Deduction. Amend RSA 100-A:16, I(a) to read as follows:

(a) The member annuity savings fund shall be a fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions deducted from the compensation of members to provide for their member annuities together with any amounts transferred thereto from a similar fund under one or more of the predecessor systems. Such contribution shall be, for each member, dependent upon the member's employment classification at the rate determined in accordance with the following table:

Employees of employers other than the state hired on or before June 30, 2011, 5.00

Employees of the state hired on or before June 30, 2009, 5.00

Employees of the state hired after June 30, 2009, 7.00

Teachers hired on or before June 30, 2011, 5.00

Permanent Policemen hired on or before June 30, 2011, 9.30

Permanent Firemen hired on or before June 30, 2011, 9.30

Group I members hired after June 30, 2011, 7.00

Group II members hired after June 30, 2011, 11.30

The board of trustees shall certify to the proper authority or officer responsible for making up the payroll of each employer, and such authority or officer shall cause to be deducted from the compensation of each member, except group II members who commenced service before July 1, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 40 years and group II members who commenced service after June 30, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 50 years, as provided in RSA 100-A:5, II(b) and RSA 100-A:6, II(b), on each and every payroll of such employer for each and every payroll period, the percentage of earnable compensation applicable to such member. No deduction from earnable compensation under this paragraph shall apply to any group II member who commenced service before July 1, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 40 years, and any group II member who commenced service after June 30, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 50 years, as provided in RSA 100-A:5, II(b) and RSA 100-A:6, II(b), and this provision for such members shall not affect the method of determining average final compensation as provided in RSA 100-A:1, XVIII. In determining the amount earnable by a member in a payroll period, the board may consider the rate of compensation payable to such member on the first day of a payroll period as continuing throughout the payroll period and it may omit deduction from compensation for any period less than a full payroll period if such person was not a member on the first day of the payroll period, and to facilitate the making of deductions it may modify the deduction required of any member by such an amount as shall not exceed 1/10 of one percent of the annual earnable compensation upon the basis of which such deduction is made. The amounts deducted shall be reported to the board of trustees. Each of such amounts, when deducted, shall be paid to the retirement system at such times as may be designated by the board of trustees and credited to the individual account, in the member annuity savings fund, of the member from whose compensation the deduction was made.

SENATOR LARSEN: All the other floor amendments now have been considered at this point, and Floor Amendment 916 takes all the provisions offered in Senate Bill 3 and applies them only to new hires. The amendment additionally seeks to retain the current escalator of 2.5 percent for the purposes of calculating an employee's pension benefits, rather than the 2 percent escalator implemented in Senate Bill 3, which represents a 20 percent reduction in benefits for those workers who are already being asked to work longer and contribute more while they receive lesser benefits in return.

I rise to oppose the bill now before it goes to Finance, while there's still time to work with both the employer and the employee groups. Senate Bill 3 tilts the balance of fairness by overriding the concerns of those who participate in the State Retirement Security Coalition and represent all of those who contribute to the retirement system. There are an estimated 75,000 active and retired New Hampshire citizens who contribute over $500 million to the New Hampshire economy. Together, in the last four years, with the Coalition, we have already made significant progress supporting sound policy changes that will ensure the long-term sustainability of the New Hampshire retirement system. While some would portray that the state employees and retirees are stubbornly opposing any changes, the evidence shows otherwise. In the last four years, important concessions were made to safeguard the long-term sustainability of the fund, including transferring $250 million – that includes funds from employee contributions – out of the special account to help offset employer rate increases. Further, we passed offsetting another 200 – more than $200 million – in potential employer cost increases last session through House Bill 2 budget changes. We discontinued gain-sharing, through which funds flowed into the special account, we changed the primary funding mechanism to entry-age normal, we created a commission to study the long-term viability of the retirement system, we created an advisory investment committee comprised of significant financial and investment experience to add expertise to the investment decisions, we added a public employer member to the board of trustees, we closed the groups of New Hampshire retirement membership who were entitled to a medical subsidy. All of those concessions were made in just the last few years. More recently, the coalition of Group I and Group II members have agreed to reduce the board of trustee members down to 10, but making legislative members non-voting. They've agreed to increase the number of years over which we calculate employees' final average compensation from three to five years. There has been agreement that increasing the employee contribution from five to seven for Group I new hires and from 9.3 to 11.3 for Group II new hires. They've also agreed to increase Group II retirement age from 25 years of service and 50 years of age.

What we cannot agree on, however, is placing the entire burden of funding Senate Bill 3 and adjusting the fund upon the back of employees in the state retirement system such as Senate Bill 3 proposes. That's why we've proposed these amendments, to strip out the most egregious sections. We believe for those who are vested, some of the changes in Senate Bill 3 will be found unconstitutional. Most state courts have found that pensions are a form of deferred compensation, and are therefore a contract protected under the contract laws of Article 1, Section 10 of the United States Constitution, and our own New Hampshire Supreme Court has repeatedly found that: "Vesting occurs upon the commencement of permanent employee status." Senate Bill 3 represents a breach of contract and a broken promise. The bill shifts the entire burden of paying the debts of the retirement system onto the backs of New Hampshire workers, despite the fact that they have consistently paid their fair share. I urge you to reconsider your support for Senate Bill 3 as amended, and to in fact consider, as many of you have had discussions with employees from around the state, that it is in fact right that we would address new hires, but that we do not do this to whom we have made a promise and contracted with. Thank you for your attention.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Yes, thank you, Mister President. I do rise in support of Floor Amendment 0916. As Senator Larsen said, many of you have had conversations with members of the retirement system employees, and I have as well. And, in many of my conversations and meetings with these employees, we discussed all of these issues at length. But, I think one of the things that really rose to the top was the issue of new hires. And, some of the conversations and I think the concerns that SB 3 should really be only pertaining to new hires has to do with the fact, and you heard from Senator Larsen, who stated many of the changes that we have made over the last four years; we've worked very hard on those changes, we've worked together in collaborative efforts, and we did so so that this pension would be available to our employees and those who are members and going forward and to be able to sustain that pension plan. Those plans have just been in effect and haven't been there long enough to even take place. And, I believe that we can stabilize a lot of what we've already done and this plan by moving forward with the changes that you proposed, except for our amendments, and only have them apply to new hires.

We hear a lot about trying to balance our finances and how difficult this is this year, and we're all working hard and understand that. But, at the same time, I think it is not reasonable to think about balancing our finances on the backs of our teachers, our police officers, and our firefighters. One of the other concepts and principles I hear and heard a lot today was fairness. Senator Bradley, you spoke about fairness. And, I think that is what we're talking about today. And, I think that to move this amendment forward to only include new hires is fair. Those members who are currently working, who have put themselves out – I mean, I think about police officers and our firefighters – I know many of you have spoken with them, and I even rode – I have been with them in ride-alongs three times – I see what kind of work that they're doing. They do that kind of work by relying on what we have promised; they have planned this with their families, and they move forward in that way. And, I think that we owe them that kind of fairness, to rely on what has been already promised to them.

And, another concern that I have, when we talk about the reality of finances, but I also have a concern about the reality of our safety of our state and our communities. I am really concerned that if this applies to our current members and not just new hires, we are putting ourselves at risk in our communities and our state, in particular with our police officers and firefighters. And, I urge you to consider that. Another – Something that I've heard quite a bit about today was putting this on the backs of property taxpayers. Well, I will tell you that we are talking about 75,000 people who are police officers, who are firefighters and teachers, and they, every single one of them, are property taxpayers. So, I urge you to support the Amendment 0916s. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, in debating this bill, I think we're showing the true reason for a Senate: to bring things out, to discuss them, and to make decisions. And, I can count, and I appreciate that. I had a pretty good math teacher when I was in the eighth grade: Sister Nathaniel, Sister of Saint Joseph, and she gave me every mechanism that I needed to count. So, I'm a pretty good counter.

But, let me say this, because I think this is the most important thing: We have a number of people out there who are very concerned about what we're doing. In the City of Manchester, we have 83 firefighters who can retire. We have 40 members of our police department that can retire. If indeed there's a perception that they are going to be the ultimate losers in this game, then the City of Manchester is going to lose 120 public officials. We're not going to be able to replace them immediately, and there's a significant cost to the buyouts.

So, I think we should carefully examine this. And, the thing that bothers me the most is the erroneous information that's flowing around the area. The unfunded liability – what's the exact number? You know, I was at a meeting on Monday evening when a member of the House said the unfunded liability was $7 billion. And, we're going to take care of this – there's not a problem. We were going to produce – the House is going to produce a balanced budget, send it over here with no increase in fees, no push-down to the communities, everything was going to be perfect. I understand the real life drama. I think we have to be careful about what we say, we have to be concerned about what we do, and have a transparent situation across the board. We are affecting the lives of every person in the State of New Hampshire. I'm a property taxpayer; I've had the honor of owning my home for the last 45 years. I've lived in the same house for the last 40 years; pay my taxes every year. I get a wonderful service from the City of Manchester: I get good fire, good police, good education for my children. So, I think we should be careful about what we do and how we do it. And, as I say, we've got to be transparent in how we address this situation.

The discussion we've had today I think is an important one; it has brought to light a number of things that people were concerned about, and I appreciate the Majority Leader's ability to address that situation. But, I think, going forward, we have a serious situation here – a situation that affects not only everyone seated in this hall, but every person in the State of New Hampshire. And, we've got to do this with good heads, with good thoughtfulness, and with quality information. The more tainted the information that gets out, the more problematic this becomes. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I appreciate the opportunity to speak on behalf of voting down this amendment. I have taken this very seriously about going to the people that are most affected by this change in the retirement system. I've had three meetings in the last two days. And, I have 10 towns. And, I know bill is going to Finance, so I plan on getting to the seven other towns. But, it has been resounding, when I go to visit the different police station or fire station that they understand that the retirement board has said we have a $4.7 billion problem; we are 58 percent funded. They get it. And, they are willing to spend the extra on their retirement to go from 9.3 percent to 11.3 percent for the Group II and also the Group I increases. They're willing to take the spread of the counting of extra duty for police to make it seven years. They understand that the ones that are not vested are the ones that can't continue to do the buyouts, which really are causing a big deficit to happen further and further into the future. They understand that. I have a friend of mine who was the best man of my brother's wedding – 25-year veteran of the Exeter Fire Department. He said to me that this is coming, I knew it had to come, because it just can't be sustainable. The police chief of my town where I grew up has said the same thing, other than, he does have a concern – and I have that concern – about return-to-work section of this bill. We're going to lose a lot of historic knowledge if some of these people who want to retire aren't able to work again, and not wait six months, and lose their ability to work as a police officer. I have concerns about that, but I feel as though by voting down this amendment, bringing forth the full amendment that was done in the Committee, brought out of Committee, and brought to the Finance Committee, I can work further on correcting that problem if I can.

The other thing is that we address the many people who are going to retire if you affect my retirement when I'm vested – we have not done that. This is only the change in those that are non-vested in terms of increase in time and age and the amount of time to go forward with their employment.

And, I've come away from all of those meetings knowing that we are doing the right thing, we're on the right path, and we have a long way to go 'til June, and I'm looking forward to the continued process.

And, last of all, I want to thank one of the fire people that I met last night at 9:00 at a meeting. And he said, "Good luck, today." And, I will say the same thing to the Senate: Good luck. But, I know luck doesn't come without hard work. Thank you very much for doing that, the Senate body and whole. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I also would rise in opposition to this amendment. I feel that first of all, we need to come to reality with the fact that during the long hearing when we did have the retirement people in front of us from the system, including actuaries – they all came – I pointedly asked the question that if we confined our reforms to new hires only, would there be any impact on the unfunded liabilities of the system. The answer was a resounding no. There is no impact to the unfunded liability if all the reforms only encompass new hires. So, that's a fact that was stated in the hearings clearly, unequivocally. So, we've got to do more than that.

We on the ED&A Committee tried to be cautious – great caution was put into what we've deliberated about. We tried to be fair – great fairness. I mean, these things are weighty issues. To think that we're callous about it or dismissive about people's concerns is simply not the truth. We cared. But, we had to consider everyone. Senator D'Allesandro said pointedly that this is going to affect everyone, and that is a true statement. We had to consider those that are currently receiving a benefit. And, the feeling was that those people were the most vulnerable, the least likely to be able to absorb any sort of changes, and so that's how we left it; we left them alone. Then we had to consider those that are vested – 10 years or more in the system – and approaching retirement, thinking about retirement, planning for retirement, and we realized that those people had little room for error and little room to plan, so we had to be compassionate toward those, and we did that, as we did very little with them. Then we had to consider those that were in the system but not yet vested – less than 10 years in the system. And, frankly, I think we made our biggest movement toward those people because of the hearing process. One thing I heard over and over again was from the person who said to me, “Ray, I’ve got eight years in, I’ve got nine years in; it’s not fair that you’re going to make changes on me; I’m almost at 10 years. In fact, if you just move that effective date another few months, I get by.” And so, we heard that. And, a major change was made to phase in the impact on those people – a huge concession with a lot of thought because of that input. Then lastly, I didn’t hear from these people, but we had to consider those that were re-hired, those new hires. Certainly, it would be unfair if we said, “Well, to you that have not yet been hired, you’re going to pay 20 or 30 percent toward your pension.” But, the fact of the matter is, the only way, if we confined our changes to new hires only, we would have to put some astronomical burden on them in order to address the unfunded liabilities and the funding ratio of the plan. That would not be fair. So, we had to consider those people too; we’ve got to be fair to the people not yet hired.

Then we had to consider the employers – the towns, the cities, the schools – under tremendous financial pressure: escalating cost on the pension plan, school boards saying to me, “This thing is going to kill us; we can’t hire teachers and paraprofessionals.” We hear from towns: “I can’t pave my roads; I can’t hire that extra fireman, that extra police officer.” We heard that; we cared; we had to balance their concerns.

And then, lastly, of course, the taxpayers. The taxpayers: Sometimes they get left out of the argument a little bit. The taxpayer who, right now, has probably seen his or her retirement plan greatly impacted in the last few years – greatly impacted. Maybe they lost their defined benefit plan; maybe they lost their defined contribution plan; maybe they lost their job. Somebody had to listen to those people. And, that was a concern, and we were concerned about that. The taxpayer, who maybe is working two jobs to keep inside of his house, or three, and none of them have a pension; they matter, too.

And then, myself, my own background: I’m a certified financial planner, I’m a chartered financial consultant. Besides all the emotion that I’ve just talked about that we’ve had to listen to, the fact of the matter is, this is about the math and about the numbers. The math doesn’t lie; the numbers don’t lie: There’s a big hole here. And so, we had to look at it in that light, like I have to do when I do financial planning with a client, I had to be antiseptic and unemotional, and just say, “What is going to be fair to every stakeholder? If I could remove myself from all the influences and just do what’s fair to everybody, what would we do?” And, I’m sure everybody on ED&A took that approach.

And, I’ll just say this: that this is a defining moment, for me, anyway, as a freshman. This is a big issue; it’s a huge issue. This will have an impact to my kids, my grandkids; I mean, this is big. It’s a lot of money; you know, we’re going to wrestle with that budget in a while, but it pales in comparison to the kind of dollars we’re talking about here, and the kind of impact. We need to step up and do the hard thing, because if we think we’re going to just leave it for others, let’s deal with it in another couple of years, or whatever, it’s going to get exponentially worse – exponentially worse. And, quite frankly, I’ll say this to those that oppose what we are doing today – I know there are a lot of opposition from people that are in the pension system, but I'll say this: Consider the grave choices that could be made in the future if we fail to act today. If we don't look at the problem and say, "We're going to get ahead of this thing and solve it before it really deteriorates," unbelievably horrific choices could be made by future taxpayers who get so angry that they may do things that none of us today would think are reasonable. The potential is there for that. We have to take action.

Actuarially unsound practices happened in the past: gain-sharing was actuarially unsound. There is no such thing as excess earnings to anybody who does investments. No matter what you earn – 50, 60 percent – the long-term averages – it's all about the numbers. The long-term averages always come back to the mean. Those things should never have happened. Unsound practices like letting people buy into the system. The fact of the matter is, 70 percent of benefits paid are from the earnings, not from the contributions of either the employee or the employer. Time and money go together to do miraculous things; that's how big numbers grow. So, that was just actuarially unsound. Things happened in the past, hard medicine's got to be swallowed, it's got to be swallowed right now, and it's got to apply to everyone with the fairness that I outlined. And, that's what we need to do. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. White.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator White, one of the – you spoke well of the need to balance issues. One of the statements you said is that we left retirees alone. But, by taking the $89 million and emptying the special account, are we not going to be challenged to ever be able to come up with the cost of living adjustment, particularly for those who we know are retired teachers with maybe $12 to $18,000 a year? That's how we've always paid the cost of living allowance increases, and so I don't see where that's going to come from now, and I'd be interested to hear your thoughts.

SENATOR WHITE: Well, I would say this; I would say two answers to that question: First of all, if we can get the system on the right track, eventually, earnings could help in that direction. And, the General Court could recognize, if the actuaries came back to us and said: "Hey, look, we have increased our funding ratio by thus over the number of years," the General Court is always free to grant a COLA. So, let the General Court do what the General Court does. But, the fact of the matter is, that I would think retirees are more concerned with receiving a pension than they are an inflated or COLA pension at this point; we're in that much peril. We need to do the right thing. COLA's are nice, but people – we need to keep our promises to the best of our ability and to be sustainable for the future so we're not having the conversation again and again in a few years. And, quite frankly, as you know, Senator Larsen, you have to make a hierarchy of the important things, and COLA's have to move down in the scheme of things right now.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Groen.)

SENATOR GROEN: I would echo what Senator White said, and he took up most of what I said, so I'll be very brief.

First of all, the change that was made to accounting methods in 2007 was a very needed change. But, it was a change to accounting methods; it just simply recognized the problem we were in. I want to point out that after 2007, the unfunded liability increased by $1 billion, which is indication that change of accounting method doesn't solve a problem.

Next, the 20-year average on earnings in our system is 7.8 percent. The presumed rate of return that we've been using is 8.5 percent. 20-year average is 7.8 and we've been using 8.5. To me, that's almost unconscionable. The 10-year average is 2.3 percent. My colleagues know that I compromised for this bill. I frankly don't think it goes deep enough. I think we're going to have to revisit it in two or three years if the return rates are lowered to what some of the projections are. I hate to be a doomsayer, but this – I agree with Senator White: this is essential that we make these changes. The longer we wait, the more of a problem it's going to become.

Now, I want to throw a couple of numbers out to bring it down into a smaller scope. First of all, we have 50,000 active members in the system. If you take the $4.7 billion unfunded liability and divide it by member, we are unfunded – our unfunded liability is $94,000 per member – $94,000 per member. Now, if you take it to another example that all of us would recognize, because I think most, if not all of us, have mortgages on our homes. If you had a $300,000 mortgage on your home and you were having a difficult time paying the payments on that mortgage and you went to the bank and you wanted to refinance, you wanted to spread it out over another 30 years, you wanted to do whatever, and the banker said: "Your home is only worth $172,000; we're not going to renegotiate anything. Your home is only worth $172,000." I think most homeowners – not all – but most homeowners would walk away from that mortgage. God forbid that a state retirement system would ever walk away from their liability in such a way. But, I want to remind you that before federal Congress right now, there is discussion of a state...a way for states to declare bankruptcy in an organized manner. And, why is that there? Because states have such an extreme unfunded liability that they don't see a way out, and there are states that are considering bankruptcy. I never want New Hampshire to get to that point. And so, we need to make this decision, we need to make the decision now; it's tough medicine, but it needs to be done and it needs to be done now. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I also serve on the ED&A Committee, and my wife is part of the retirement system; she is a professor in the community college system. She's not vested; she's been in for eight years. And, as I talked to her about this, she said: "You've got to save this."

According to the New Hampshire Center for Economic Policy, if we don't do anything, the system runs dry in 11 years. Also, if you look at Bloomberg, we have moved up by four ranks in unfunded – we have gone from eighth place to fourth place in one year. We're going in the wrong direction. We, as the State Senate and the House, we need to deal with these tough issues. And, if we don't deal with this, there won't be any money left in the system. These are the tough choices we need to make; I need to do that for my wife, we need to do that for everybody in this state. So, I would suggest that we support SB 3 without these amendments. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Houde, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Houde, Kelly, Larsen, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

Yeas: 5 - Nays: 19

Floor Amendment failed.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. Just to recap a couple of things. These books, which are produced by the actuary, are not nighttime reading. They give us nightmares. If you look at the executive summary, today we have a $4.7 billion unfunded liability. But, when we deal with the return on investment, which we have to do, that unfunded liability will escalate by nearly $1 billion overnight. The unfunded liability, under the current system, that some of you have touted today, will continue to grow until 2024.

The reforms that have been talked about: the freezing of the medical subsidy that's under litigation, the return of the $250 million that Senator D'Allesandro – again, under litigation. There were some good reforms: the actuarial methodology, the moving the investment panel into a separate panel and eliminating gain-sharing. At the end of the day, this bill is fair. As Senator White outlined, current retirees: no impact; vested retirees: yes, some impact, primarily an increase in the contribution level and an inability to spike benefits. More of the work-rule changes are in place for the non-vested. But, we listened to those who asked for a compromise; those, as Senator Prescott outlined, said: "Gee, I'm in my ninth year; is that really right?" So, we phased in the age requirements. We kept the five-year averaging, and we made sure that unused sick and vacation time are not able to go into the equation, and we make those all apply to new hires, too.

If there's just a couple of things to remember from this debate...The gravity and the magnitude of this debate have certainly made this issue resound for all of us. But, the two things to remember is this bill begins to make sure that the retirement system is stable and viable for the people that depend on it. And, it makes sure that some of that unfunded liability burden is absorbed by people who are getting the benefit of the retirement system.

I commend this bill to you. I thank the ED&A Committee and the great Chair for the work on it, and, quite frankly, the courage of those who will vote for it today, because it was just three years ago in this very room, the folks that were urging that we just make these reforms apply to new members today fought that three years ago. Now, if that had been done three years ago, it wouldn't have solved the problems, but it would have put us a little bit further ahead of where we are today. Let's not make the same mistake today; let's begin the process of fixing the retirement system and make sure that New Hampshire has a retirement system that works for current retirees, for future retirees, and for taxpayers. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 197, regulating guaranteed price plans and prepaid contracts for heating oil, kerosene, or liquefied petroleum gas. (Kelly, Dist 10; Larsen, Dist 15; Merrill, Dist 21; Houde, Dist 5; D'Allesandro, Dist 20; Boutin, Dist 16: Commerce)

Out of Recess. Call Senate to Order.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

March 23, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

You and I have four more weeks together, and then I'm going away on sabbatical for almost four months. I'm going to go to Chiang Mai, Thailand, where I have two side-by-side apartments, one for me and one for my friends, who are going to join me in rotation over that entire time; eleven friends are joining me, one at a time. It'll be a time of rest and it'll be a time of deepening friendships.

Sabbath Rest is called for in every religious tradition, and even called for by the community of medical professionals, for those who embrace no religious tradition at all. When God, in the Genesis myths, created the world, he named Sabbath Rest as "Holy" or "Tszadech". It is the first time He used the word "Holy", and it's the only time in Scripture he used it for a time; every other time Holy is used, it's referring to a place.

As you do this hard work of making systems and laws under such financial and relational hardship, do take the time to give yourselves time for Sabbath. Rest and silence softens hard hearts. Rest and silence recalls that we're loved, and so need not speak or act out of our insecurities. Rest and silence gives integrity to our words. Let us pray.

God of all creation, You created a world which rests every 18 hours with the fall of night. So quiet our hunger for power and accomplishment that we can rest and keep silence, so that when we are rested and peaceful, our words and our actions are not so much to control and manipulate, but to enliven and encourage.
Amen.

Sen. Luther led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to introduce Mason Prata: age 17, grade 12, from Woodsville High School in Woodsville. His favorite school subject is math; his favorite book is Everlost by Neal Shusterman. His extracurricular activities include Friends of Rachel, which is an anti-bullying program, and he's in New Hampshire JAG. In the future, he'd like to attend medical school and become a doctor or a psychologist. Thank you, Mason.

I'd also like to introduce David Peart; he's from Woodsville High School as well, and he lives in Haverhill. He's 18 years old and in grade 12. His favorite school subject is math; his favorite book is The Martian Chronicles by Ray Bradbury. His extracurricular activities include New Hampshire JAG, and he plays in a band: he plays guitar and he sings. I asked him if he would sing for us and he declined. But, he does, just in case anyone is interested, his band, which is Anderson Lang, will be touring this summer in New England. And, in the future he hopes to have a successful career in the music industry. Thank you, David.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Good morning ladies and gentlemen, I'd like to introduce Ian Hill. Ian Hill, whose father is actually a first-term Representative from Northfield, New Hampshire, over in the House. Ian's 15 years old; he's in the ninth grade at Tilton School. His primary focus is on English. His extracurricular activities include golf, theater, hiking, rock climbing, and writing. I'm very proud of Ian, because he's also made the decision to pay his own way through college and started his own custom doughnut-making shop and travels around the District selling custom doughnuts. But, unfortunately, because his family was on vacation and they flew home last night so he could be here today, forgot doughnuts, but has promised to bring the Senate a wide selection of doughnuts that he makes, because we know the Senate President loves doughnuts.

When I asked Ian what he wanted to be when he grew up, suggesting that being a State Senator was a strong accomplishment for all of us in the room and something to be considered, he appreciated my comments, but indicated he wants to be Governor. Please welcome Ian Hill.

Without objection, President Bragdon has given Sen. Luther leave to use an electronic device to experiment with an online version of the Senators' Session Day binders.

Senate Bill 100 increases the size limitations for off-road vehicles operating on State-owned trails and excepts certain trails in Jericho Mountain State Park. The bill also adds a definition of utility terrain vehicle.

The amendment was introduced to narrow the increase in size of off-road vehicles to only designated trails in Jericho Mountain State Park. Further study is needed to determine if wider off-road vehicles should be permitted on other State-owned land.

I respectfully request the Senate support the Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 100. Thank you.

SB 107, relative to use of designated roads in the Connecticut Lakes Headwaters Working Forest for all terrain vehicles. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

Energy and Natural ResourcesMarch 17, 2011*2011-0994s*10/04*Amendment to SB 107

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a committee to study the effectiveness of criteria for establishing ATV and trail bike trails on state lands.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study the effectiveness of criteria for establishing ATV and trail bike trails on state lands.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties. The committee shall review the effectiveness of the existing evaluation process for new ATV or trail bike trail proposals on state-owned property, known as coarse and fine filter pursuant to RSA 215-A:42 and RSA 215-A:43, and, if appropriate, make recommendations for legislation to revise the process.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Four members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 2011.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study the effectiveness of criteria for establishing ATV and trail bike trails on state lands.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 107 Ought to Pass with Amendment. SB 107 as introduced would exempt designated roads in the Connecticut Lakes Headwaters Working Forest from the evaluation process for establishment of state trails for ATV's and trail bikes.

The amendment replaces the bill and establishes a committee to address the broader question of the effectiveness of the current evaluation process for trail establishment, and, if appropriate, to recommend legislation to revise it.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee in voting Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 107. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 118, modifying the definition of renewable generation facility. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator Gallus for the committee.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 118 Inexpedient to Legislate. Senate Bill 118, modifying the definition of renewable generation facility. This bill as introduced would have given towns the option to reach payment in lieu of tax agreements with a participant-funded electric transmission line.

The Committee supported an amendment that would have replaced the bill with language that would have extended the minimum electric renewable portfolio standards past 2025 to bring clarity for possible long-term power purchase agreements.

The City of Berlin requested I put in this piece of legislation. It was also the City that asked for the bill's removal at this time.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee in voting Inexpedient to Legislate on Senate Bill 118. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

Amendment to SB 53-FN

Amend RSA 326-B:26 as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

326-B:26 [~~Licensed~~] Nursing Assistant Registry.

I. The board shall maintain a registry of nursing assistants [~~licensed~~] who qualify pursuant to 42 C.F.R. section 483.156. Nursing assistants who are registered [~~or licensed~~] shall comply with all provisions of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (OBRA) of 1987, sections 1819 and 1919 of the Social Security Act, and all provisions of this chapter.

II. The nursing assistant fund is established in the state treasury and continually appropriated to the board which shall administer the fund. The fund shall be used only for administration of the licensed nursing assistant registry and related expenses.

III. All registry charges relating to nursing assistants shall be credited to the fund.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you very much, Mister President. This bill was laid on the table at my request because I hadn't been there as the Committee Chair for the public hearing. I've gone back; I've read the bill, I've read the amendment. I've spoken with Senator Morse about the bill; I feel comfortable that the bill is ready to move forward. So, I would like to recommend Ought to Pass as Amended.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: The Chair has a question for Senator D'Allesandro: You had a floor amendment earlier; is that still something going on, or...

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I think the floor amendment, which just changed one word, is still an operative situation. So, when we're finished, I'll re-offer the floor amendment.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR LARSEN: The question is, this amendment appears to say that the fund shall only be used for administration of the registry and related expenses. Are there certain uses for which you were concerned they might be used? Is that saying that it will not be a 125 percent fund, where sometimes our licensing boards have 25 percent go to the general fund? Is that why this is written in this way?

SENATOR CARSON: Yes.

SENATOR LARSEN: Okay. Thanks.

SENATOR CARSON: You're welcome.

The pending question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Sen. D'Allesandro offered a floor amendment.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds a definition for nurse and clarifies the establishment and funding of the board of nursing's nursing assistant registry fund.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. As I remember the floor amendment, it just struck out one word. What the floor amendment does is, if you look at line 10 on the amendment that we just passed, and it will become line 11 on our floor amendment, and the word "licensed" is struck out to be consistent with the "licensed" being struck out in the other parts of the bill. That's the only thing the floor amendment does, is strike out the word "licensed", and it says the fund shall be used only for administration of the nursing assistant registry and related expenses rather than the licensed nursing assistant registry and related expenses. That's the only change for the floor amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Rausch for a question of Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Senator. I'm not sure I heard; does this circumvent the 125 percent rule, or does the 125 percent rule pertain to this fund as well?

SENATOR CARSON: It does not circumvent the rule; in fact, I think it's stronger language that says that the monies raised will be used only for this purpose and nothing else. So, in fact, I think it's stronger language.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Rausch for a follow-up question of Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR RAUSCH: So, they get 100 percent for the board, but 25 percent goes to the general fund?

SENATOR CARSON: No. They can only raise the money that they need to operate the board and nothing else.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you.

SENATOR CARSON: You're welcome.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. It's my privilege to welcome to our Senate Chamber these fourth-grade students from Greenland Central School. And, according to Senator Barnes, questions that he has put forth to them, they are an extremely bright group of students. So, welcome to the Senate Chamber.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ADMINISTRATION

SB 190, relative to the duties and membership of the executive branch ethics committee. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 2-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

Senate Executive Departments and Administration

March 17, 2011

05/10

Amendment to SB 190

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Executive Branch Ethics Committee; Complaints. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 21-G:31, I and RSA 21-G:31, I(a) to read as follows:

I. Each complaint shall be submitted in writing and signed under oath by the complainant. The sworn complaint shall be filed confidentially with the committee and shall contain the name and address of the complainant. After first examination by the committee, and unless the complaint is discharged under subparagraph (a), before any other action is taken by the committee, the executive branch official complained against shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint [and a copy shall be sent to each member of the committee for review]. All information identifying the complainant shall be removed before it is first furnished to the executive branch official complained against. Information identifying the complainant shall be furnished to the executive branch official complained against only if the committee does not dismiss the complaint in accordance with subparagraph (a) or (b). The committee may initiate a complaint on its own motion against any individual the committee has reason to believe has violated any law, guideline, rule, or regulation within the committee's jurisdiction. The committee shall promptly examine each sworn complaint and:

(a) Upon first examination, if by a unanimous vote of all members present for the meeting, it determines that a complaint is frivolous, scurrilous, retaliatory in nature, or plainly not within the committee's jurisdiction, the committee may summarily discharge the complaint without further meeting or proceeding. The committee shall notify the respondent and complainant in writing of its action.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 190 Ought to Pass as Amended. Senate Bill 190 makes several clarifications for the Executive Branch Ethics Committee. The changes brought forward were to clarify legislation that currently exists. The changes remove obsolete references, require a unanimous vote of members present to dismiss a complaint, makes clear the obligations to provide copies of a complaint, and increases the quorum from four to five members.

The Senate ED&A Committee voted in favor of the motion Ought to Pass as Amended, and we therefore ask for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

FINANCE

SB 56-FN, (New Title) authorizing the department of revenue administration to accept credit card and debit card payments of taxes. Ought to Pass, Vote 7-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 56-FN Ought to Pass. This bill authorizes the Department of Revenue Administration to accept credit card payments for taxes. This legislation is intended to provide greater flexibility to taxpayers by giving them the option of paying by credit card, debit card, or electronic transfer.

The Department of Revenue has been processing an abundant amount of checks, where with this option of using a credit card would let them transfer the money quicker and provide savings and convenience for the taxpayers and the State. The credit card payments will be administered by a third-party vendor, not by the State. The service charge fee will be assessed by the third party for the credit and debit card transactions; those service charge fees will not apply to any electronic payments made as a direct transfer from a bank account.

Please support the Finance Committee motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 72-FN, establishing a comprehensive cancer plan fund. Re-refer to committee, Vote 6-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 72-FN to be Re-referred to committee. However, to start with, we'd like you to turn down the Re-refer motion so that I can make a motion of Ought to Pass.

This bill would establish the New Hampshire comprehensive cancer plan fund, and also establishes a comprehensive cancer plan oversight board to oversee the allocation of monies from the fund. The cancer plan and its continuation is good public health policy and sets priorities in battling cancer and saving lives.

Once again, please turn down the motion of Re-refer so that I can make a motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Failed.

Sen. Odell moved Ought to Pass.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Yes, thank you, Mister President. And, I rise in support of the Ought to Pass motion, and certainly want to thank all of my colleagues for the motion. You know, without this legislation, the cancer plan fund would have sunset. And the intent of, truly, this fund and this plan is prevention of cancer. We all know that this terrible disease affects, I would think, almost every family here in our state and nationally. And, you know, while understanding that there are no current state appropriations to be able to be placed in this fund, I think it is important that we keep the fund open, because as the law states on this fund currently, different gifts, donations, and private grants can be put into this fund, as well. And, I think, also, this Ought to Pass renews our commitment here today to be proactive in our fight against cancer. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 78-FN-A-L, relative to motor vehicle registration fees. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 78 Ought to Pass. The bill eliminates the $30 surcharge on motor vehicle registration fees enacted in 2009.

This surcharge was initially agreed upon as a compromise during the budget process and was intended for only a two-year period.

The Finance Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I know this bill sunsets at the end of this current biennium, and I want to make it clear that I didn't support this when it was part of the budget process. But, what I want to make clear to my colleagues and my constituents is what happens if this money is not replaced in the budget – this $90 million that this surcharge produces.

We have 137 red-listed bridges in New Hampshire. We have 267 pink-listed bridges in New Hampshire. Part of the money from this surcharge went back to the communities as part of our betterment commitment: $15 million each year. The work that's being done and that has been done is essential to maintaining the quality of life in the State of New Hampshire. Some of this money goes from the highway fund to the Department of Safety. I don't know if you've been following the budget on the other side of that wall, but if you look at the dramatic cuts that have been made in DOT and Safety, there's not going to be anybody left if we don't take care of this situation. I think it should be clear to all of you the number of Troopers that we're going to lose, some of which are funded by this surcharge, and the activity that's not going to take place in your communities based on the dollars that will be diverted from the highway fund.

So, these are things I think we have to look at. The surcharge isn't the greatest thing since sliced bread; I understand that. I understand, generally speaking, everyone is opposed to the surcharge. But, we've got to do something – we have got to do something. And, we've got to replace that money with either general fund money or money from someplace else. It's a significant burden that we're carrying.

In the House budget, $45 million – $45 million – is taken away. We're not going to do that; that's from the highway fund – that's going to disappear. Another $180,000 comes from the general fund appropriation. Now, those are devastating items. They've got to be taken care of on this side; this was one way to do it. And, I understand the problem with this. But, remember, this came about because of the unwillingness on the other side to promote the gas tax. And, remember, gas tax revenue goes back to the cities and towns for betterment. As mileage rates are increasing, as the cost of gas is increasing, we are going to get less and less money from our gas tax revenue. That all has to be replaced. Just think about that as we move forward. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator D'Allesandro, I was not at this hearing, but I see that Pike Industries, Aggregate Manufacturers, the Associated General Contractors...I see this bill was opposed by the Society of Civil Engineers. And, it was my understanding that their main opposition was that without these funds coming in in some way or another, it would result in significant job loss as well as our not being able to address the red-listed bridges and pink-listed bridges and highway plans that we all know we need to continually maintain. Did you also understand that Pike Industries indicated there was a direct...they could directly count 174 jobs on one project?

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thanks for the question. Yes. In the testimony presented by Pike Industries, and let me quote: "174 jobs were either created or saved through this project." At a time when unemployment within the construction industry in New Hampshire hovers near 20 percent, there were 174 families that did not have to rely on unemployment compensation for the duration of this job. So, yes.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator Morse, my question to you is: If you are passing this, you are recognizing that we would be losing an approximate $90 million in revenues, which we know are needed. We all understand the difficulties that the surcharge caused, but how do you intend to address this loss of revenue? Is this something you're going to put in the budget in another way, or are you going to actually have the State lose the monies we need for bridge maintenance and highway repairs?

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you for the question, Senator Larsen. And, while I was going to speak again, I'll address your question and address what I was going to speak about.

You know, in the past we've spoken about $90 million. We heard that $15 million – $30 million total in the biennium – goes back to our communities. So, what they decided to do in taxation for the people we represent – which we all heard about – was they decided to take another $60 million and operate the Department. That's what they did. They didn't just operate theirs; they operated Safety with $60 million: taxation without representation. The gas tax – established purely for the highways – they bonded $60 million in the last budget and paid for it with the penny and the gas tax that was supposed to be dedicated to our communities. The system's broke. We increase taxation and we don't use it for what we're telling the public we're using it for. One-third of this money went back to our communities. Senator Rausch: $1.75 million from your three communities. Ask them how much they got back. That's one year. Londonderry: almost a million dollars. Salem: almost a million dollars in taxation in one year. I tell you, it's taxation without representation. It will not be back in the budget; I do believe we have a highway system problem, Senator; I do believe we need to address it. But, we aren't going to address it in this budget. We need to come back in January and talk about it. But, the reality is, we've had a highway problem since I started back in 1998, and it's not going to be addressed this way. We taxed our own citizens 100 percent, and I assure you they're not the only ones driving on the roads in the State of New Hampshire.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a follow-up question of Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR LARSEN: The monies that went to the Department of Safety and the Department of Transportation...Were they not used for things like supporting Troopers, for supporting road plow, for supporting pothole repair, whatever? I assume that those monies did not just go towards growing a large administration who sat at their desks and did nothing.

SENATOR MORSE: Senator, when I left here in '06, we were short about 40 or $50 million in that program. We upped the tolls in those four years and created at least $40 million. So, not only did we solve the problem, we created another one, with bonding and with this revenue that I don't believe was needed. Something's happened; I believe we will scrutinize both these budgets to the point where I think they ought to look like something like '06 and an increase for four years, and that would be appropriate. But, we funded 10 percent raises in DOT with this money. Those things are not acceptable to the public – I don't believe so. I don't believe they'll be acceptable in this budget. We will take a good look at it, and I believe we will make the difference. And, when we come back in January, we do need to talk about how the highway fund needs to be addressed, but I believe we've talked about that for years, and I do believe we need to find a solution, but this isn't it.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a follow-up question of Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I'm just curious why you say January when we have to create a budget that apparently funds our highways and bridge repairs now. So, why are you mentioning January?

SENATOR MORSE: Actually, I think that is a good question. The reality is, we asked the question of the Department. This year, we have let out the contracts already; those contracts are in place. So, this year, we are all set for moving forward in the paving season. So, actually, next year it becomes a problem, and we will have a problem with whether we can do enough highway plans. But, I can assure you, Senator, we've had that problem for a long time in this state, and I think when we tax our citizens 100 percent when the general public's using the transportation system, we made a major mistake.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to tell you why I'm going to vote for this piece of legislation. I voted against it last year when it came up in the budget. But, as I went around my District, and some other Senators that are sitting here into their Districts during the campaign, the biggest thing I heard, believe it or not, was not gay marriage, it was not guns, but it was the $30 extra that people had to pay. It got so gross in a couple of my towns that town clerks called me and said: "Jack, what can you do about this?" So, what I did is, I sent 12 letters out to each of my town clerks asking them to post it and telling the folks that were complaining and busting on the people that work behind the counter not to blame them but to write letters up here to their delegation and ask them why they did this and complain to the right people; it was the Legislature that did it and not those people behind the counter. And this, believe it or not, was the largest issue in November 2nd's election in my District that people were complaining about. Remember: Gay marriage is a big issue in my District. But, this topped the gay marriage concerns of my constituents, and many others of your constituents in the Districts that I was fortunate enough to have traveled around during the campaign. So, I'm voting for this, and I think every one of us should vote for this, and I'm sure Chuck and the Finance Committee will take care of this as the budget process moves along; you know, it's three months from now before we're on the floor finalizing our budget, so a lot's going to happen between now and three months from now. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, we have with us in the gallery the Speaker and the Deputy Speaker of the Moldavian Parliament, as well as members of the Parliament.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Ladies and gentlemen, I rise in support of this legislation. Very similar to my good friend, Senator Jack Barnes, as I was traveling throughout the District when I ran last year, beyond question, this was the number one issue that our hardworking residents in our state talked about. On and above the increase and what it costs to register people's vehicles went up $30 to $70 per car, the big issue to me is delivering on the promise. This tax was raised as a temporary tax on the hardworking people of this state. We told them it would be a temporary tax and would sunset in two years, and I believe we need to keep that promise. So, I ask all my colleagues in this room today to please support and keep the promise of sunseting this tax. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Barnes, seconded by Sen. Rausch.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

SB 125-FN-A, relative to the business profits tax deduction for reasonable compensation. Ought to Pass, Vote 7-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 125 Ought to Pass. This bill shifts the burden of proof from business owners to the Department of Revenue to prove that someone is unreasonably compensating themselves under the business profits tax deduction. This bill is intended to eliminate the climate of uncertainty that has existed for business owners in New Hampshire in recent years and also made New Hampshire less appealing to others looking to relocate. This will send a strong and clear message that New Hampshire is not going to use the business profits tax as an income tax on small business owners. This is an opportunity to set clear tax policy that will encourage compliance and help our small businesses to grow and create jobs.

While the fiscal note states a $49 million revenue loss, the Department of Revenue told the Committee that the anticipated loss is actually a range that could go from zero to $49 million.

The Finance Committee asks for your support for this motion of Ought to Pass.

Floor Amendment to SB 125-FN-A

Amend the bill by replacing sections 3-4 with the following:

3 Applicability. This act shall apply with respect to taxable periods ending after January 1, 2013.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect April 15, 2013.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, this amendment just changes a date in the legislation to move it into 2013 so the Senate can assure the public that every word in this document has been put in properly.

Recess. Out of recess.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

Sens. Bradley, Forsythe, and Sanborn are in opposition to the Floor Amendment on SB 125-FN-A.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of the amendment and support of the bill as amended. I believe that we have worked on this particular situation, reasonable comp, for the last two sessions; Senator Odell worked with me in the last session on this piece of legislation. And, the one problem that's continually before us is the delineation by Revenue Administration as to what this will cost the State of New Hampshire. Now, the range still exists between zero and $49 million; that's a very broad, broad range. I think by adjusting the time that it goes into effect gives us two very important items: number one: passage through the House, which is very important. But, number two: a firm estimate from Revenue Administration as to what this is going to be reflected in the revenues for the State of New Hampshire. The reason for this piece of legislation was the tremendous number of audits that have taken place, which were very disadvantageous to business; it was very disrupting to business. They were constantly in an auditing process, which didn't make any sense. So, hopefully by the time this becomes effective, we will have the answer from the Division of Revenue Administration as to what the actual cost is and how reasonable comp is ascertained; I think that's very important. Senator Bradley worked with us on this bill, and I appreciate that very much. But, I think it's a good, strong business...It's a very positive business move. By the same token, though, we have got to know what the effect will be on the State of New Hampshire, because BPT and BET represent 33 percent of the general fund revenues for the State of New Hampshire, and that's a very critical issue. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended.

SB 126-FN, relative to net operating loss carryovers under the business profits tax. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 126 Ought to Pass. This bill increases the net operating loss carry-forward threshold from $1 million to $10 million.

The purpose of the net operating loss credit is to allow businesses to use losses in one year to offset profits in others. This enables businesses who are suffering to recover more quickly and to invest their profits back into hiring and other areas that will ultimately lead to more profitability.

This legislation is important in order to support our business community and to keep New Hampshire a business-friendly state. We currently rank 50th in terms of net operating loss cap. Most states and the federal government allow a two-year carry-back and a 20-year carry-forward with unlimited cap. New Hampshire has no carry-back provision and has a 10-year carry-forward. In this extremely difficult business climate, raising the NOL threshold from $1 million to $10 million is the right thing to do for businesses.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 20 the following and renumbering the original sections 21-22 to read as 25-26, respectively:

21 Games of Chance. Amend RSA 287-D:2-b, II-a to read as follows:

II-a. Unless otherwise agreed to in advance, pursuant to paragraph II, in writing by the charitable organization, [~~operators of games of chance~~] game operators may be reimbursed for their out-of-pocket expenses in an amount not to exceed $25 per game date, provided that such expenses are itemized and submitted in writing to the charitable organization.

22 Games of Chance. Amend RSA 287-D:2-b, VII-a to read as follows:

VII-a. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a member of the sponsoring charitable organization shall be present and on site at least once per day during the operation of any game of chance and shall file with the racing and charitable gaming commission an affidavit attesting to the member's presence at the site during the operation of any games of chance. The sponsoring charitable organization member shall not be employed by the game operator [~~or the employer of the game operator~~].

23 Licensing of Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-c, II(a)-(c) to read as follows:

(a) The name and social security number of the primary or secondary game operator, or for [~~an organization~~] a game operator employer the name and federal tax identification number. The racing and charitable gaming commission shall not disclose any social security number submitted;

(b) The name, [~~of the game operator's employer and the employer's~~] address, and telephone number of the game operator employer;

(c) A list of the known games of chance in which the game operator will participate including the date of the game, the location of the game, and the charitable organization holding the game;

24 Licensing of Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-c, VI to read as follows:

VI. To be eligible for licensure under this chapter, a licensed primary or secondary game operator shall maintain an account at a financial institution with at least one branch in New Hampshire solely in the name of the licensed primary or secondary game operator in which the money only from games of chance shall be deposited and withdrawn. All payments to charities, all prizes over $500, and all other expenses associated with games of chance shall be paid by check from said account.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 136-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. And, at the appropriate time, I will also introduce a floor amendment.

This is a housekeeping bill requested by the Racing and Charitable Gaming Commission to update various statutes in order to streamline certain processes, better protect charities, and increase efficiency. Some of the bill's components include: setting a date certain of no later than 15 days after a game date by which game operators must pay the participating charity, raising the bond requirement for conducting games of chance, and allowing private campgrounds and hotels to conduct certain Bingo games without a license. This change was made because these games carry a maximum bet of only 10 cents, and therefore it is not an efficient use of the Commission's time to reregulate them.

The committee amendment simply makes some additional technical corrections to the bill to make sure that the sections of the law carry the same verbiage for game operators.

The Finance Committee asks your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Floor Amendment to SB 136-FN

Amend the bill by deleting section 20 and renumbering the original sections 21-26 to read as 20-25, respectively.

Amend RSA 287-D:2-c, II(c) as inserted by section 22 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(c) A list of the known [~~games of chance~~] game dates in which the game operator will participate including the [~~date~~] name of the game, the location of the game, and the charitable organization holding the game;

Amend RSA 287-D:2-c, VI as inserted by section 23 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

VI. To be eligible for licensure under this chapter, a licensed game operator employer or primary game operator shall maintain an account at a financial institution with at least one branch

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Defines game operator employers.

II. Requires that game operators pay charities participating in charitable gaming no later than 15 business days following a game date.

III. Raises the amount of bond required for conducting games of chance.

IV. Requires charitable organizations to collect certain fees on lucky 7 deals and pay them to the racing and charitable gaming commission.

V. Allows private campgrounds and hotels to conduct certain bingo games without a license.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. During the discussions of this bill and the amendment, Senator D'Allesandro noted in our committee session that there was a line that read, "a list of known games in which the game operator will participate", so there was some ambiguity about it. And, what the language should have read is "a list of known game dates". And so, that's what the floor amendment deals with. And also, down at the bottom, identifies "game operator employer" or "primary game operator". So, we're making the verbiage the same in all places. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 147-FN, relative to Medicaid managed care. Ought to Pass, Vote 7-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 147 Ought to Pass. SB 147 requires the Commissioner of Health and Human Services to issue a five-year request for proposal to enter into a contract with a vendor of managed care models to provide for managed care services to the Medicaid recipients in New Hampshire.

By switching to managed care, there have been deliberations for $33 million in savings in the Governor's proposed budget in the biennium alone. This bill has been worked on with the Department of Health and Human Services in drafting this bill to establish an aggressive but realistic timeline for implementing the system. Senate Bill 147 will provide initiative and efficient ways of delivering services that are high-quality to our state's Medicaid recipients.

The Finance Committee recommends Senate Bill 147 with a unanimous vote – full support.

Floor Amendment to SB 147-FN

Amend RSA 126-A:5, XIX(a) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

XIX.(a) The commissioner shall employ a managed care model for administering the Medicaid program and its enrollees to provide for managed care services for all Medicaid populations throughout as much of New Hampshire as practicable consistent with the provisions of 42 U.S.C. 1396r-2. Models for managed care may include, but not be limited to, a traditional capitated managed care organization contract, an administrative services organization, an accountable care organization, or a primary care case management model, or a combination thereof, offering the best value, quality assurance, and efficiency, maximizing the potential for savings, and presenting the most innovative approach compared to other externally administered models. The department shall present the opportunities of the various models or combination of models to the oversight committee on health and human services with a recommendation for the best managed care model for New Hampshire, no later than June 15, 2011. Services to be managed within the model shall include all mandatory Medicaid covered services and may include, but shall not be limited to, care coordination, utilization management, disease management, pharmacy benefit management, provider network management, quality management, and customer services. The model shall not include mandatory dental services. After consultation with the oversight committee, the commissioner shall issue a 5-year request for proposals to enter into a contract with the vendor or vendors that demonstrates the greatest ability to satisfy the state's need for value, quality, efficiency, innovation and savings. The request for proposals shall be released no later than October 1, 2011. The vendor or vendors of the managed care model or combination of models demonstrating the greatest ability to satisfy the state's need for value, quality, efficiency, innovation, and savings shall be selected no later than December 1, 2011 with a final contract submitted to the governor and council as soon as practicable thereafter. After the bidding process, the commissioner shall establish a capitated rate based on the bids by the appropriate model for the contract that is full risk to the provider. The capitated rate shall be broken down into rate cells for each population including, but not limited to, the persons eligible for temporary assistance to needy families (TANF), aid for the permanently and totally disabled (APTD), breast and cervical cancer program (BCCP), home care for children with severe disabilities (HC-CSD), and those residing in nursing facilities. The capitated rate shall be approved by the fiscal committee of the general court. The managed care model or models' selected vendor or vendors providing the Medicaid services shall establish medical homes and all Medicaid recipients shall receive their care through a medical home. In contracting for a managed care model and the various rate cells, the department shall ensure no reduction in the quality of care of services provided to enrollees in the managed care model and shall exercise all due diligence to maintain or increase the current level of quality of care provided. The target date for implementation of the contract is July 1, 2012. The commissioner may, in consultation with the fiscal committee, adopt rules, if necessary, to implement the provisions of this paragraph. The department shall seek all necessary and appropriate waivers to implement the provisions of this paragraph.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you again, Mister President. This is a very simple amendment that the Department of Health and Human Services came to me as sponsor of the bill and asked that we include – and you will see it on the amendment that's being passed out in lines 16 and 17 – to not include mandatory dental services. The Department believes that inclusion of dental in the managed care models could be a complicating factor, and they believe that there are minimal if any savings to be achieved from inclusion of dental services. So, at the request of the Department, I offered to sponsor this amendment. I believe it makes common sense, and that we should go forward with this amendment, with the floor amendment today. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 151-FN, relative to contracts of the department of health and human services. Ought to Pass, Vote 7-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 151 Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 151 requires the Commissioner of the Department of Health and Human Services to develop a plan to consolidate all outside contracts and to provide the plan for review and comment to the oversight committee on Health and Human Services.

The bill calls for the Department to complete its plan for consolidating contracts by January 1, 2012, and to provide quarterly reports thereafter throughout the remainder of the biennium. The Health and Human Services Department will see administrative cost savings by reducing the number of contracts being administrated.

Therefore, the Finance Committee unanimously voted 151 Ought to Pass, and we ask for your support.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 153-FN, relative to the regulation of real estate appraisers by the New Hampshire real estate appraiser board. Ought to Pass, Vote 7-0. Senator Gallus for the committee.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 153-FN Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 153 makes various changes to the regulation of real estate appraisers by the real estate appraiser board, which include registration of appraisal management companies and changes related to the federal Dodd-Frank Reform Act.

The real estate appraiser board would be authorized to establish fees for the registration of appraisal management companies as well as bringing the New Hampshire real estate appraiser board in compliance with the federal mandates issued under Dodd-Frank.

The Finance Committee voted unanimously to support, and asks for your support in the adoption of SB 153-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 157-FN, relative to the division of weights and measures and fees for licensing weighing devices and the definition of service technician. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 157 Ought to Pass. The division of weights and measures regulates commercial weighing and measuring devices in New Hampshire. It is my understanding that, over 15 years, the division permitted private contractors and companies to test, certify, and seal commercial devices, so long as they were licensed by the division and the devices met the correct standards.

I have been told the ability of private firms to offer this service was a policy of the division. Over the last two years, a number of changes occurred within the regulations. First, in the last budget, the division was given the authority to hire four inspectors who would test and seal devices in New Hampshire. The implementation of the change in policy, which went in with the new positions, was handled through the rule-making process. Despite objections from many small businesses, rules were adopted which increased licensing fees for devices and created new fees for testing, certification, and sealing of the devices by the division's inspectors. Although the inspectors would test, certify, and seal devices, they would not calibrate the devices if they were incorrect. This responsibility was left with the private sector. Unfortunately, many small businesses which offered testing, calibrating, and sealing devices were negatively impacted by these rules.

Senate Bill 157 is intended to eliminate the ability of the Department of Agriculture to develop fees for licensing and certifying weighing devices through the rulemaking process, places a fee schedule for licensing and certifying weighing and measuring devices in statute, and for private contractors to seal the devices. The fee schedule included in the legislation is the schedule used by the division prior to the enactment of the rules in early 2010, and it returns the regulations to the manner in which they were done for more than 15 years.

The Finance Committee is requesting your support of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to oppose this bill once again. I was hoping that as Finance looked at this that they would see the importance of retaining these regulations and inspectors who, in fact, guarantee some sense of consumer protection by regulating and reviewing the weights and measures of our state. I would remind you that we had testimony as it went through the Committee that, in fact, 60 percent of all scales tested for certain devices – vehicle and other large-capacity scales – 60 percent failed. As we finally got enough inspectors to go around and look at our previous version of private review by technicians of their own equipment, 60 percent of our scales in this state failed. We had letters from states near us – Massachusetts, Vermont, Maine – saying that they would not accept our weights and measures because New Hampshire's going back to privatized review of the way we measure our products. We had a letter saying that in 2008, there were 788 million gallons of motor fuel sold in New Hampshire, and a 1-cubic-inch error in the seller's favor means that the consumer would lose 3.4 million gallons that they paid for and did not get.

When we were in the hearing, we heard: "Well, the inspectors will cover this; we'll have private technicians checking this out, and our state's inspectors will cover their work." But, I would point out in a letter from the Department of Agriculture, which many of us received, they point out that we are, at least in the House budget, eliminating the inspector positions. The Department is concerned about the elimination of these inspectors, and say there's no statutory language granting any rights or privileges to technicians currently; it was by rule. We are now giving them statutory authority to review and put a State inspection sticker with private technicians. The elimination of the three inspector positions they liken to having the liquor brokers and restaurants and bars enforcing state liquor laws and rules. We got notice from the Department of Agriculture that they will not be able to inspect the work of these privatized services, and that we will continue to have the kind of 60 percent failure – 60 and over percent failure – of many of our scales.

This is an issue of consumer protection of the highest order. When you buy something in the free market, you have a right to know that what you're getting is a fair value. We are not, through both the passage of this and then what I assume will be the elimination of our inspector positions, we will be losing any guarantees to our constituents that what they buy at the marketplace, what they buy at the gas pump, is a fair value. And, that is wrong; that is the reason why we had inspectors put in in those positions, and there's a really good reason to keep them. If we pass Senate Bill 157, we are in fact eliminating one of the most important consumer protections, and that is the right to know that what you buy is a fair price and a fair measure. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill for a question of Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. Thank you, Senator Larsen. Is it accurate to say that the proposed decreases in licensing fees in this bill would probably jeopardize the Agriculture Department's ability to employ enough investigators to monitor the work of the weights and measures inspectors who, if this bill passes, will be the private technicians?

SENATOR LARSEN: Yes. Commissioner Merrill of the Department of Agriculture writes that, in fact, the elimination of these fees result in the rollback to a private system that... The fees were covering the cost of the inspectors. And, by privatizing this, you will not have enough money in the Department to have inspections of the work that's going on privately. So, an employee of a gas station can go out, measure their measurements, put the State seal on, and whose allegiance will that employee be to? The consumer or the person they're working for? That is the question.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a question of Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Senator Larsen. I think I heard you say that a letter came in that the States of Vermont, Maine, and Massachusetts would not be happy with this? Well, my question to you is, for the previous 20 years – you and I have been here that length of time – the States of Massachusetts, Vermont, and Maine were accepting. So, what, all of the sudden, got in their bonnet? We're going back to exactly the way it was, and now all of a sudden somebody from those three states has got a problem. Why didn't they speak up during the 20 years when we were doing it the exact same way that we intend to do it now?

SENATOR LARSEN: My understanding is, in fact, there were occasions when they didn't accept our own state measures, and they did re-measure as we were entering another state with our loads. So, my understanding is that there was – there has been an ongoing question on the State's method of measurements, and in fact that they have required a further measure when they enter another state. So, you have some commerce issues – interstate commerce issues.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a follow-up of Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR BARNES: Senator Larsen, I appreciate that answer. But, I have a second question for you. Over the 20 years that this old program was enforced and being used, how many complaints did you as a State Senator from District 15 get from your consumers about weights and measure? I can tell you how many I've gotten over the last 20 years from my constituents.

SENATOR LARSEN: Well, just as Senator Morse said, you might as well take a nap. It sounds like a boring issue, but when it comes down to the hard-earned dollars of our public who's buying things – it sounds boring to talk about weights and measures, but when it comes down to... If you're buying a gallon of gas and you're getting less than a gallon of gas at $4 a gallon, do you care about that? You should, because there's about 3.4 million in 2008 that would be lost by under-measurement.

SENATOR BARNES: Do I understand your answer to be you haven't heard from anyone over the 20 years?

SENATOR LARSEN: I have not –

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you very much, Senator; I appreciate it.

SENATOR LARSEN: I have not. But, I think it's because they're not aware of this arcane issue.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles for a question of Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Senator Larsen. I have a question. Who provides the license for these private contractors, and do they have the authority to remove the license?

SENATOR LARSEN: That I would need to check. They, I don't believe... Perhaps our Chairman can remind me of their certification process. But, they previously were allowed to do this by rule, and this bill will allow them to do it by statute, which gives them even further authority to issue state stamps from private individuals who perhaps are certified through the process. I would yield to the Chairman to remind me; if I don't go through this whole thing I'm not going to remember that detail.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Groen.)

SENATOR GROEN: I want to try to put this in perspective. We heard testimony that the Department oversees something in excess of 10,000 devices. The Department also presented us with a list of 32 reported issues of those 10,000 devices; the math says that's a little bit less than one in 300. We said: "Is that for a year? When does this list come from?" The Commissioner could not give us an idea – not even an idea – of how many years that list of 32 complaints or problems was spread over; she knew that none of them had happened during her tenure with the Department of Agriculture. So, the first thing is, 10,000 devices, 32 issues, one in 300: That's a pretty good record for any oversight system.

The second thing: The Department does license all technicians who apply State seals; that's mandatory. The Department testified that it has full authority to discipline licensees or to rescind their licenses. Next, the Department testified that there are less than 10 percent of the licensees who they have any problems with at all. Now, there's something in excess of 100 licensees; I believe 125 is approximately the number of licensees. 10 percent is about 13. So, if there are 13 licensees that they have problems with, if the Department is able to put seals on 10,000 devices, would they not be able to supervise 13 problematic licensees? I would submit that, if not, they need to check the way they supervise their licensees.

The Department adequately supervised weights and measures for over 20 years. We're restoring it to the way it was. This bill simply restores that. I would submit that the concerns based on the lists given are a tempest in a teapot; I'd urge my colleagues to vote to restore a system that worked well, that worked well with private enterprise, has adequate supervision within the Department, and will work again. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: I want to read a couple lines out of the hearing report, just to give you an idea of what was discussed. Actually, my good colleague, Senator Groen, indicated – I'm reading this verbatim – that there were approximately 100 people in the private sector companies who lost their jobs or had their jobs reduced, and the State hired four inspectors to replace these people. And, his question to the Commissioner of the Department was: How can these four inspectors cover what 100 people had done? The response: The Commissioner could not explain that. Then he asked with a question: Can the four people hired by the State handle and meet all the state inspector requirements, and if not, how many would it take? The Commissioner indicated that she thought they could, but that it would be a challenge. I think this indicates...I think for quite a few of us on the Committee, we were not impressed by the explanation of the Department to be able to handle this adequately. There were many questions they could not answer. And, I won't take credit for this, but one of the points that's been made is car inspections: That's a private deal. And, if you had a dealership who improperly inspected your car, your life is at risk. I think that's a pretty serious deal. We trust that every – it's got to be in the tens of thousands in this state – trust that they can inspect the cars; why can't we do this? We're returning it to what it was before. And, I think that this Department has shown they can't handle this job.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you very much, Mister President. I'm not going to beat this horse any more; I mean, we've had numerous discussions on the floor. I support what Senator Morse has done in Finance and I applaud him. And, just to basically say, we've heard a lot about protecting consumers. Again, we didn't get a lot of complaints over 20 years that this was an issue. And, just as a measuring device can fail against a consumer, it can also fail against the business owner. The business owner has a vested interest to make sure that their scales are accurate, because they have no one to make them whole if their scales are out of balance. Who do they complain to if their scales are out of balance? They can't call the State; they can't call the Division of Consumer Protection or the Department of Agriculture and make a complaint; it's on them. I agree with my esteemed colleague from Concord that oil prices are very high – almost $4 a gallon – and we don't know if they are going to get higher. And, people need to be assured that when they buy a gallon of gas, they're getting a gallon of gas. That is what that State seal provides them: that they are getting their full measure of their product for their dollar.

Now, we have privatized it in the past; it worked very well. All we're doing is restoring a system that worked well. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley for a question of Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Senator Carson. I asked you this question on the floor two weeks ago when we debated this bill. Isn't it true that the Department of Agriculture sent a letter to people that have measuring devices across the state, in essence saying they...because of the backlog, the issue that our friend from Nashua, Senator Luther raised, of four people replace 125 people, that they weren't going to get to inspections for a period of at least a year and perhaps as much as two years. Isn't that the case?

SENATOR CARSON: Yes, it is.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley for a follow-up question of Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: If I were Senator Larsen and concerned about consumer protection, wouldn't I be even more concerned if the department that was responsible for consumer protection did not have adequate resources to even begin to do their job that had been done effectively for 20 years? Wouldn't I be extremely concerned about consumer protection?

SENATOR CARSON: Well, I cannot speak for my esteemed colleague from Concord, but I will speak for myself and say I would be extremely concerned as a consumer that this was not being done. Thank you.

SB 159-FN-L, establishing a state infrastructure bank. Re-refer to committee, Vote 6-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 159 to be Re-referred to committee. This bill would establish a state infrastructure bank that was requested from the Department of Transportation.

Although creating and maintaining a state infrastructure bank is certainly feasible, there was concern from the Committee that we do not have the ability to leverage state and federal funds within this infrastructure bank to support the projects at this time. The Committee does support the concrete piece of legislation before you, but as the budget process moves along, we feel that there is more work that needs to be done, such as looking deeper into the fiscal components of the bill, and seek other means of funding for the proposed state infrastructure bank rather than taking current dollars away from state-designated areas.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Re-refer. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Amendment to SB 161-FN

Amend the bill by replacing sections 1-11 with the following and renumbering the original sections 12-20 to read as 9-17, respectively.

1 Notice of Rulemaking Proceedings; Concise Summary. Amend RSA 541-A:6, I(f) to read as follows:

(f) If existing rules are being amended, readopted, or readopted with amendment, a concise summary [~~explaining the effect~~] of the [~~rule~~] existing rules and any proposed amendments, and if the proposed rules are being adopted, a concise summary of the proposed rules.

2 Notice of Rulemaking Proceedings; Substantial Noncompliance. Amend RSA 541-A:6, II and III to read as follows:

II. The director of legislative services may refuse to publish a notice if the director determines that there is significant noncompliance with the requirements of paragraph I. In this paragraph, "significant noncompliance" means one or more errors of such magnitude that a reasonable person would not be able to discern what rules are the subject of the rulemaking proceeding and/or what the agency is proposing to do. The term includes the absence of elements required by paragraph I.

III. The agency shall send notice to the director of legislative services, to all persons regulated by the proposed rules who hold occupational licenses issued by the agency, and to all persons who have made timely request for advance notice of rulemaking proceedings. Upon request the agency shall send notice to the president of the senate, to the speaker of the house of representatives, to the chairperson of the fiscal committee, and to the chairpersons of the legislative committees having jurisdiction over the subject matter. Notice shall be made not less than 20 days before the first agency public hearing required by RSA 541-A:11, I. Notice to occupational licensees shall be by U.S. Mail, electronically, agency bulletin or newsletter, public notice advertisement in a publication of daily statewide circulation, or in such other manner that is reasonably calculated to inform such licensees of the proposed rulemaking. The committee may identify additional methods of notifying occupational licensees that are deemed sufficient [~~by the committee~~].

3 New Paragraphs; Rulemaking Register; Authority of Director; Date of Publication. Amend RSA 541-A:9 by inserting after paragraph I the following new paragraphs:

I-a. Prior to publication and with prior notice to the agency, the director of legislative services may correct typographical, spelling, and punctuation errors, as well as unintentional errors in references and citations in a submission, provided the corrections do not affect the substance of the notice.

I-b. The date of publication of the rulemaking register shall be the date on which the register is available to the public on the general court information services web site.

4 Rulemaking Register; Electronic Copies. Amend RSA 541-A:9, II and III to read as follows:

II. The rulemaking register shall be made available upon request to agencies and officials of this state free of charge. The director of legislative services shall send a paper or electronic copy of the rulemaking register upon request to the clerk of each municipality in the state and upon request to any member of the general court free of charge. Municipalities and members of the general court shall be deemed to have requested an electronic copy unless a paper copy is specifically requested. Paper copies of the register which are sent to municipalities and to members of the general court shall be sent by first-class mail.

III. Paper copies of the register shall also be made available upon request to other persons at prices fixed by the director of legislative services to cover mailing and publication costs.

5 Filing Proposed Rule Text; Establishing and Revising Text of Rules. Amend RSA 541-A:10 to read as follows:

541-A:10 Filing of Proposed Rule Text; Establishing and Revising Text.

I. At the same time the notice required by RSA 541-A:6, I is filed, the agency shall file the text of the proposed rule with the director of legislative services. The text of the proposed rules as filed pursuant to RSA 541-A:3, III shall not be changed [~~or established as~~] prior to the hearing held pursuant to RSA 541-A:11, I(a).

II. The agency shall not establish the text of the final proposal until after the conclusion of the public comment period established pursuant to RSA [~~541-A:11~~] 541-A:11, I(b). If the agency elects to solicit comment pursuant to RSA 541-A:11, I(c), the agency shall prepare a draft final proposal that is annotated to show how the rules as initially proposed are proposed to be changed. In response to comment received, the agency may revise the draft prior to filing the final proposal in accordance with RSA 541-A:12.

6 Public Hearing; Public Comment Period. Amend RSA 541-A:11, I to read as follows:

I.(a) Each agency shall hold at least one public hearing on all proposed rules filed pursuant to RSA 541-A:3 and shall afford all interested persons reasonable opportunity to testify and to submit data, views, or arguments in writing or, if practicable for the agency, in electronic format, in accordance with the terms of the notice filed pursuant to RSA 541-A:3, I and the provisions of this section. The office of legislative services shall provide oral or written comments on potential bases for committee objection under RSA 541-A:13, IV in a form and manner determined by the director of the office of legislative services. Each agency shall require all materials submitted in writing to be signed by the person who submits them, and the agency shall transfer to hard copy, if practicable for the agency, all materials submitted as diskette, electronic mail, or other electronic format. Copies of the proposed rule shall be available to the public under RSA 91-A and at least 5 days prior to the date of the hearing.

(b) For rules proposed by a board or commission, a period of at least [~~10~~] 5 business days after the hearing shall be provided for the submission of materials in writing or in electronic format, unless a shorter period is specified in the notice. If a shorter period is specified in the notice, the deadline for the submission of such materials shall not be earlier than the scheduled conclusion of the public hearing. For rules proposed by an agency official, a period of at least [~~10~~] 5 business days after the hearing shall be provided in all instances. If a hearing is continued or postponed as provided in paragraph III or IV of this section, the period for the submission of materials in writing or in electronic format shall be extended unless the previously-established deadline meets the applicable requirement specified above.

(c) An agency may hold a public hearing or otherwise solicit public comment on a draft final proposed rule prior to filing the final proposed rule pursuant to RSA 541-A:3, V. Notice of such hearing or comment period shall be provided by such means as are deemed appropriate to reach interested persons, which may include publishing a notice in the rulemaking register.

7 Filing Final Proposal; Incorporation by Reference; Internet Content. Amend RSA 541-A:12, II-IV to read as follows:

II. The final proposal shall include:

(a) A cover sheet listing:

(1) The number of the notice and the date the notice appeared in the rulemaking register;

(2) The name and address of the agency;

(3) The title and number of the rule; and

(4) A citation to the statutory authority for the rule.

(b) ~~Two copies~~ One copy of the established text of the final proposed rule.

(c) ~~A copy of the full text of the statutory authority for the rule.~~

(d) If required pursuant to RSA 541-A:5, VI, an amended fiscal impact statement from the legislative budget assistant stating that as a result of notice and hearing the rule did change and explaining how this change affects the original fiscal impact statement.

~~(e)~~ (d) A copy of the fixed text of the final proposed rule annotated clearly to show how the final proposed rule differs from the rule as initially proposed, if the text has changed.

III. ~~[With the final proposal, the agency shall also file the incorporation by reference statement described by paragraph IV of this section, if the]~~ An agency [incorporates into] may establish requirements in its rules [any] by citing to a document or to Internet content prepared by [any entity outside the agency] an unrelated third party. If state-enforceable requirements are so established, the agency shall file an incorporation by reference statement as specified in paragraph IV with the final proposal. [However, the] No agency shall [not] incorporate by reference any document or Internet content prepared by or on behalf of the agency.

IV. Any ~~[required]~~ incorporation by reference statement required by paragraph III shall include a ~~[separately signed]~~ statement signed by the adopting authority:

(a) Certifying that the text of the ~~[matter]~~ incorporated document or Internet content has been reviewed by the agency, with the name of the reviewing official;

(b) Explaining how the text of the ~~[matter]~~ incorporated document or Internet content can be obtained by the public, and at what cost;

(c) Explaining any modifications to the ~~[matter]~~ incorporated document or Internet content;

(d) Discussing the comparative desirability of reproducing the incorporated ~~[matter]~~ document or Internet content in full in the text of the rule; and

(e) Certifying that the agency has the capability and the intent to enforce the ~~[rule]~~ requirements being incorporated.

V. If an agency establishes requirements by incorporating undated Internet content by reference, the agency shall make a read-only copy of the incorporated Internet content no later than the date of filing the incorporation by reference statement, and make the dated copy available to the public.

8 New Section; Extension of Currently Effective Rules Pending Readoption. Amend RSA 541-A by inserting after section 14 the following new section:

541-A:14-a Extension of Currently Effective Rules Pending Readoption.

I. If an agency files a notice pursuant to RSA 541-A:6 to readopt existing rules, with or without amendments, the currently effective rules in the filing which would otherwise expire prior to the completion of the readoption of the rules by the agency shall continue in effect until the proposed rules are adopted and effective.

II. If, after filing a notice pursuant to paragraph I, an agency fails to file a final proposal by the deadline specified in RSA 541-A:12, fails to file a response to objection as specified in RSA 541-A:13, or fails to adopt and file the proposed rule as specified in paragraph III, the existing rules which would otherwise expire prior to the completion of the readoption of the rules by the agency shall expire 30 days after such deadline unless the agency has obtained a waiver of the deadline pursuant to RSA 541-A:40, IV(a). If the agency has obtained a waiver to a deadline, such existing rules shall expire 30 days after the deadline established pursuant to RSA 541-A:40, IV(b) if the required action is not taken.

III. If rules are extended pursuant to this section, the agency shall:

(a) Adopt the proposed rules no later than 30 days after the date on which the agency is allowed to adopt the rules under RSA 541-A:14, I; and

(b) File the rules as required by RSA 541-A:14, III with an effective date that is not more than 60 days from the date of filing, except that an agency may specify an effective date that is more than 60 days from the date of filing if a waiver is obtained pursuant to RSA 541-A:40.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Shortens the public comment period after a public hearing.

II. Gives the director of legislative services limited discretion in the publication of rulemaking notices.

III. Provides for electronic copies of the rulemaking register.

IV. Allows agencies to hold a second public hearing on proposed rules.

V. Extends the expiration date of rules to 10 years and allows for extending rules by filing readoption of currently effective rules.

VI. Allows for incorporation by reference of Internet content.

VII. Modifies procedures for interim and emergency rulemaking.

VIII. Requires the director of legislative services to develop a process for expediting readoption of rules.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 161-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 161-FN addresses technical and procedural topics relating to administrative rulemaking. It gives the Director of Legislative Services discretion in publication of rulemaking notices and provides for electronic copies of the rulemaking register.

The bill will allow agencies to hold second public hearings, extending the expiration date of rules to 10 years, as well as allowing for extending the rules by filing re-adoption of currently effective rules. Senate Bill 161 authorizes incorporation by reference of Internet content, modifies procedures for interim and emergency rulemaking, therefore requiring the Director of Legislative Services to develop a process for expediting re-adoption of rules.

The amendment simply takes out section 8 of the bill that would allow for preregistration for agency public hearings on proposed rules and cancellation of public hearings if no person preregisters.

The Finance Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 195, naming the Manchester Airport Access Road for Raymond Wieczorek. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. Before I start reading this piece for Ray Wieczorek, I want to say that over the years I have been concerned sometimes that the blurbs are longer than the bills that are being talked about. However, in this particular instance, this one was very beautifully put together, and it pays honor to the individual that we're going to talk about. So, please indulge me and my two-page – which is longer than the bill – blurb.

I move Senate Bill 195 Ought to Pass. This bill renames the Manchester Airport Access Road Raymond Wieczorek Drive. Councilor Raymond Wieczorek has been a resident of Manchester, New Hampshire for 52 years, and serves currently as Executive Councilor of District 4, which incidentally includes Raymond, New Hampshire. Ray is a veteran of the Korean War – gosh, he doesn't look that old, does he? – and is currently a member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Ray Wieczorek has been active in over 20 community clubs and activities, including the United Way and Boys and Girls Club of Manchester. In 1989, Ray was elected Mayor of Manchester, and served five terms. In his tenure as Mayor, he led the City through tough economic times. In the early 1990s, Money Magazine ranked Manchester 296 out of 300 cities, and in 1998, under Mayor Ray Wieczorek, Manchester was ranked the number one best small city in the East. Manchester is now home to a thriving airport, the Verizon Wireless Arena – which I don't believe would have happened without his pushing very hard for it – and a revitalized mill yard and downtown. Manchester has undergone a complete transformation because of the vision of Ray Wieczorek. In honor of his accomplishments, in November of 2000, Ray Wieczorek – I'm halfway through guys; hang on – by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, whom voted to name the block housing the Verizon Wireless Arena, Raymond J. Wieczorek Square.

Ray has been named Citizen of the Year by the Manchester Chamber of Commerce and the Granite State taxpayers. He's a recipient of the Small Business Administration Advocacy Award, and one of nine officials nationally to receive the Public Sector Leadership Award, and was presented an honorary Doctorate of Law from New Hampshire College.

Because of Councilor Wieczorek's dedication to civil service, the Senate Finance Committee felt it was most appropriate to honor him with the renaming of the Manchester Airport Access Road. The bill will not have any additional cost – I repeat: The bill will not have any additional cost associated with the naming suggested in the bill. When the final outcome of Senate Bill 195 is passed, the signage will be completed within the existing contract cost.

The Finance Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass, and I thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. As Senator who represents Manchester and really been a resident of Manchester for most of my adult life, I want to say this: Being Mayor of the City of Manchester, as being Mayor of any city, is a difficult task. Ray Wieczorek did a commendable job as Mayor of our city for 10 years.

As Senator Barnes pointed out, the key element was a structure called the Verizon Wireless Arena. That arena did a great deal for the economic prosperity of not only our city, but our state. The development of the Manchester Airport, which is the economic engine that really drives New Hampshire: That airport would not have been done, would not have been completed, without the work of Ray Wieczorek. So, we have a structure in place in the City that does a lot for the economic viability of the City; we have a structure in place, the Manchester-Boston Regional Airport, which does a great deal for the economic prosperity of the State of New Hampshire.

It's tough being a public official; I think all of us understand that. But, Ray Wieczorek did a very good job for the City of Manchester. And, you know, Manchester is a city that has reinvented itself over a period of years: We went from an industrial base, from a manufacturing city, to a shoe city, to an electrical component city. So, we've made a number of transitions, and many of them haven't been of the best situation. But, the Mayor has done, and did, an outstanding job; I think the City is vibrant as we speak. And, we must give praise to former Mayor Wieczorek for the work he did. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of this bill, and recognize that Mr. Raymond Wieczorek has not only been a business leader in his career, but has guided Manchester with delicacy and success, and also the decades as a public servant here in the State of New Hampshire. I would recommend to all of my colleagues that this bill Ought to Pass.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

01/09

Amendment to SB 51

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the establishment of a state leadership team to address issues concerning certain adults with developmental disabilities who may present a substantial risk to the community.

Amend RSA 126-A:5, XIX as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

XIX.(a) The commissioner shall create and administer a state leadership team to address issues concerning the most challenging cases of individuals 18 years of age or older with developmental disabilities or acquired brain disorders who present a substantial risk to community safety as determined by a comprehensive risk assessment appropriate to the individual. The leadership team shall include representation from the following agencies: the bureau of developmental services, the bureau of behavioral health, and the division for children, youth and families, department of health and human services, the department of corrections, and the department of justice. The leadership team shall work across all services systems to determine and authorize system responsibility for providing and/or funding specific services and supports to effectively meet the needs of the individual and the public safety of the community in accordance with the rules of the respective departments.

(b) Nothing in this paragraph shall abrogate the rights of individuals or responsibilities of agencies under RSA 171-A, RSA 171-B, RSA 137-K, or any other applicable state or federal law.

(c) Any agency on the state leadership team may refer a case to the state leadership team for consideration. In addition, a county house of corrections may refer a case to the state leadership team for consideration for individuals determined eligible under RSA 171-A.

(d) The commissioner shall submit an annual report beginning on November 1, 2011 to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, and the governor relative to the performance of the leadership team.

2011-0793s

This bill requires the commissioner of the department of health and human services to establish a state leadership team to address issues concerning certain adults with developmental disabilities who may present a substantial risk to the community.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 51 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 51 follows a year of work by the legislative commission established by Senate Bill 112 to develop a strategic legislative plan to meet the needs of adults with developmental disabilities and traumatic brain injury who may present a substantial risk to community safety.

SB 51 requires the Commissioner of the Department of Health and Human Services to create a leadership team to address these individual cases, working across all service systems, bringing together representatives from various state departments to meet the needs of the individuals and of the public.

The goal of the amendment to SB 51 is primarily to clarify the process by which cases may be brought to the leadership team for consideration, including a referral from a county house of corrections. All parties agreed upon this amendment language.

The Health and Human Services Committee unanimously recommends SB 51 Ought to Pass with Amendment, and we ask for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 93

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Pharmacist Administration of Vaccines. Amend RSA 318:16-b to read as follows:

318:16-b Pharmacist Administration of [~~Influenza~~] Vaccines. A pharmacist may administer influenza vaccines to the general public and a pharmacist may administer pneumococcal and varicella zoster vaccines to individuals 18 years of age or older, provided all of the criteria in this section have been met. The pharmacist shall:

I. [~~Have earned a Pharm. D. degree and be licensed by the board to practice as a pharmacist in New Hampshire, or~~] Hold [~~an unrestricted and~~] a current license to practice as a pharmacist in New Hampshire [~~and have held the license for at least 3 years~~].

II. Possess at least $1,000,000 of professional liability insurance coverage.

III. In order to administer influenza, pneumococcal, and varicella zoster vaccines [~~by injection~~], have completed training specific to the administering of [~~influenza~~] the respective vaccines [~~by injection~~] that includes programs approved by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) or curriculum-based programs from an ACPE-accredited college of pharmacy or state or local health department programs or programs recognized by the board.

IV. Provide to the board evidence of compliance with paragraphs I-III.

V. Provide notice to the primary care provider, when designated by the patient, of the administration of the pneumococcal and varicella zoster vaccines.

VI. Maintain a record of administration of pneumococcal and varicella zoster vaccinations for each individual as required by state and federal law.

2 Pharmacist Administration of Influenza Vaccines; 2013 Version. RSA 318:16-b is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

318:16-b Pharmacist Administration of Influenza Vaccines. A pharmacist may administer influenza vaccines to the general public provided all of the criteria in this section have been met. The pharmacist shall:

I. Have earned a Pharm. D. degree and be licensed by the board to practice as a pharmacist in New Hampshire, or hold an unrestricted and current license to practice as a pharmacist in New Hampshire and have held the license for at least 3 years.

II. Possess at least $1,000,000 of professional liability insurance coverage.

III. In order to administer influenza vaccines by injection, have completed training specific to the administering of influenza vaccines by injection that includes programs approved by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) or curriculum-based programs from an ACPE-accredited college of pharmacy or state or local health department programs or programs recognized by the board.

IV. Provide to the board evidence of compliance with paragraphs I-III.

3 Effective Date.

I. Section 2 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2013.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

2011-0794s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill expands for a 2-year period the vaccines which may be administered by a pharmacist and changes the qualifications for pharmacists to administer vaccines.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 93 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 93 will allow pneumonia and shingles vaccines to be administered by pharmacists to individuals over 18 years of age for a two-year period. This follows a bill from 2008, which allows pharmacists to administer the influenza vaccine.

Senate Bill 93 also amends the qualifications for a pharmacist to administer the vaccine. Senate Bill 93 allows individuals without a primary care provider access to these important vaccinations while requiring a pharmacist to report the immunization to an individual's primary care provider if one exists.

The sunset clause in the amendment to SB 93 allows the Legislature to assess the progress of this program after two years to help determine whether pharmacist administration of pneumonia and shingles vaccines should continue.

Please join the Health and Human Services Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 93. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 171, relative to prescription drug benefits for the treatment of pain. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

Health and Human Services

March 10, 2011

2011-0795s

01/09

Amendment to SB 171

Amend RSA 420-J:7-b, II as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. Every health benefit plan that provides prescription drug benefits shall maintain an expeditious exception process, not to exceed 48 hours, by which covered persons may obtain coverage for a medically necessary nonformulary prescription drug. In the case of a medically necessary formulary or nonformulary drug prescribed for the treatment of pain, the exception process shall not exceed 24 hours. The exception process shall begin when the prescribing provider has provided the health benefit plan with the clinical rationale for the exception.

This bill requires health benefit plans providing prescription drug benefits to provide an exception process which shall not take more than 24 hours for coverage for a medically necessary drug prescribed for the treatment of pain.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 171 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 171 requires health benefit plans providing prescription drug benefits to provide an expeditious process which shall not take more than 24 hours for coverage for a medically necessary drug for the treatment of pain.

The amendment to Senate Bill 171 resulted from a compromise between two conflicting parties: those representing insurance companies and those representing the pain sufferers. The amendment ensures that patients' pain is alleviated quickly in respect for their dignity and wellbeing while also allowing insurance companies to continue their cost containment strategies such as step therapy.

So, I respectfully request that the Senate support the Health and Human Services Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 171. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS

CACR 5, relating to the governor's power to reduce appropriations. Providing that the governor shall have line item reduction power of items in any bill making appropriations of money. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Constitutional Amendment Concurrent Resolution 5 Ought to Pass. This Resolution is related to the Governor's power to reduce appropriations. The Resolution provides that the Governor shall have line item reduction power of items in any bill making appropriations of money.

It was explained to the Committee that this CACR would put a constitutional amendment onto the November 2012 ballot. This amendment would ask the people of New Hampshire to vote on whether or not they want to grant the Governor the ability to veto line items in bills which make appropriations.

The Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I think sometimes when you've been around the Legislature as long as I have, and a few other of us in the room, you begin to approach with caution constitutional amendments that change the balance of power. Even though we have a very good Governor now and one who is reasonable and moderate, there have been times when perhaps that's not true. There will always be Governors that some of us support and others don't, and that's the way it is. But, the checks and balances of the equalization of powers between the Legislature and the Judiciary and the Executive are important balance. And, I have been in a state – years ago I worked in the State of Wisconsin's Senate; I worked there about eight years. And, during that period, I saw a Governor who had a line item veto. It was, perhaps, a broader veto than is proposed here, but he was able to strike out the word "not", and in one fell stroke of a pen reverse a legislative intent and make something happen which the Legislature had intended not to happen. In the same way, you can envision with this a school funding language...the appropriation for school funding or highways in a bill, in a budget bill, the Governor line-items out $53 million, and all you've got is $500,000. You end up with an awkward cycle where schools might not know what their funding appropriation is, or highway repair teams might not know that they can start to work in April because the Governor has line-itemed this out and the whole work season waits while we wait to come back into a veto session.

So, I caution this, even though I support our current Governor's ability and recognize that we have a somewhat weak form of Governor's position in this state. I caution that this balance of power stuff is pretty important. And so, I personally am not going to be supporting CACR 5 for that reason. I think that our balance of power is one which I treasure the ability of the Legislature, who are elected by a majority, to pass majority-supported items. And, when it requires a two-thirds vote to override one single person's objection to a bill, you change your balance of power. That's why I will be opposing CACR 5.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a question of Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR BARNES: Yes, thank you, Mister President. Thank you, Senator Larsen. Have you had an opportunity to talk to Governor Lynch on what his thoughts are on this?

SENATOR LARSEN: I haven't personally talked to him, although we did check in and understand that he supports this, and that's fine; he can support it. And he's one individual, and I believe that the Legislature represents a majority elected by the people. And, he has his opinion and I have mine.

SENATOR BARNES: And, that happens throughout the whole session, doesn't it?

SENATOR LARSEN: It certainly does. And, it's majority rules, not usually two-thirds.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you very much.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I'd ask the Senate to join me in warmly welcoming the students from Mount Saint Mary Academy from Manchester, New Hampshire. Welcome.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I am truly honored to introduce to you today the children from the Presentation of Mary School in Hudson, New Hampshire. They are some of our state's brightest young children, and it gives me hope for the future. So, welcome, today.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. First, let me say about the students from PMA and from the Manchester School, one of the great assets we have in this Legislature is the ability of the fourth-graders to come and see what we're doing. So, it's wonderful to see them, and it's wonderful that this process goes on.

Mister President, I speak against this constitutional situation, this CACR. We are members of the third largest legislative body in the English-speaking world; only the Parliament of Great Britain and the Congress of the United States are larger than we are. We are citizen representatives. We don't get enormous salaries. Anybody can run for the House; anybody can run for the Senate. We pride ourselves on citizen participation. Why would we, who work so diligently on preparing a document called the budget, which is introduced by the Governor, goes to the House, goes to the Senate, goes to conference; in each one of those situations, the Governor can play a role – a very active role. Why would we then give the Governor the ability to line item veto, and then say the only way we could override that line item veto was a two-thirds majority in both the House and the Senate? I don't think that's good public policy; I don't think that's good government. I've witnessed line item veto in the State of Massachusetts – a very different environment, a much different legislature, both on the House side and the Senate side, and certainly a much different environment to conduct business.

What we do here has been very successful for a long period of time. We have a process that's in place that's worked well. We flip majorities; we've done that for years. The work, the time, and the effort that goes into the budget process is something that we all should be aware of and really be proud of because of the fact that due diligence is given to that document. Why, in essence, should one person be given the authority to strike out what we have done on a line item basis as it relates to a financial situation? It doesn't make any sense to me – it doesn't make any sense at all. What you do is you negate the responsibilities of those who participated in the process.

I oppose this; I don't think it's good government. I think what we have works well; it will work better if we indeed decide one of these days to bring staff on board to support the Finance Committees in both the House and the Senate; I think that's an issue. As the budgets have grown in size, that's an issue that we have to deal with as we move forward. We're talking about an $11 billion situation over this biennium. When I first came to this Legislature, we were talking about a de minimis budget: it was very, very small compared to what we're doing now, and right now we're not that large as compared to other states.

I don't think this is good policy. I think what we have in place works; it'll continue to work as long as good, responsible people run for the Legislature and work diligently to produce a budget that represents the needs of the people of the State of New Hampshire. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise in support of CACR 5, salute Senator Morse for his sponsorship of the bill, and turn to the comments of my good friend from Manchester and my good friend from Concord.

First of all, we have to realize that the Governor in the State of New Hampshire is one of the weakest Governors in the United States of America. The Governor has an Executive Council that approves every contract, I believe, of $5,000 and greater, and the Governor has no line item veto; has the opportunity to present a budget to us and then accept or reject the entire package.

When Senator D'Allesandro talks about going from a de minimis budget when he came here to an $11 billion budget today, Senator D'Allesandro, you are making my case for line item veto. Because, ladies and gentlemen, the voters sent us in November of 2010, whether it was here in our beautiful state capitol or in our nation's capitol, to attack deficit spending and get our economy back on track. I have served in both of these buildings. Nothing in Washington brought that need for line item veto to greater scrutiny, if you will, than earmarks. And, exactly the same type of thing is why we ought to be able to give – whether it's a Democratic Governor – we would give a Democratic Governor, as Republicans, the power to exercise the line item veto, or a Republican Governor – the ability to use a line item veto to get rid of extraneous spending that should not be in a bill. This is the function that we all have to confront. The House is now dealing with the budget situation that we have; we are going to have it soon. We might not be in the problems that we have today if over the course of the last 20, 30, 40 years, our Governors of both political parties had had the tool that we are trying to allow the voters to have the opportunity – and let's remember: the voters have to approve this tool to curtail spending that we are here about today. I encourage you to take a major step in providing for good government, responsible government, and fiscally responsible budgets by passing CACR 5.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of this constitutional amendment for line item veto for the Governor. I just want to say to my members, you know, this is a state credit card, and we maxed it out over the last few budgets, way beyond the means of the citizens of this state to afford it. Our working families cannot afford it any more, our small businesses cannot afford the taxes and fees that have been passed and put on them, and we've got 40,000 of our friends and neighbors in the state that are out of work. And, this debate today is a debate about us, and it's not about us. It's not about the Legislature; it's not about the Governor. The balance of power that this bill will tip will tip in the favor of the taxpayers. And, that's who we represent up here when we come up here to do our work and to pass bills, and that's what this bill will do; it will give the Governor the authority... When the Legislature can't control its spending, then maybe the Governor will do it on behalf of the taxpayers. Thank you, Mister President.

JUDICIARY

SB 17, relative to evidence of admissions in medical injury actions. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 17 be Re-referred to the committee. This legislation deals with what is commonly referred to as "I'm Sorry" laws. Our issue was with the word "fault" and how this may or may not impact cases that are filed.

The Judiciary Committee would like to look at the issue as a whole and asks that Senate Bill 17 be Re-referred to committee. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 41, relative to enforcement of the timber tax and excavation tax by the department of revenue administration. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Bill 41 be Re-referred to committee. This legislation was filed at the request of DRA as they attempted to address a number of statutory fixes. Because of the timing of the current budget and how this may or may not affect timber and excavation taxation, the DRA has asked that the bill please be Re-referred. The Judiciary agrees, and welcomes your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

SB 63, relative to the list of bail bondsmen and prohibiting law enforcement and corrections officers from indicating preferences for bail bond companies. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

Amendment to SB 63

Amend RSA 597:2, III(b)(1) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(1) Execute an agreement to forfeit, upon failing to appear [as] within 45 days of the date required, such designated property, including money, as is reasonably necessary to assure the appearance of the person as required, and post with the court such indicia of ownership of the property or such percentage of the money as the court or justice may specify;

2011-0799s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill prohibits anyone but the secretary of state from compiling, furnishing, or altering the secretary of state's approved list of bail bondsmen and prohibits law enforcement, corrections, and court personnel from indicating a preference for any particular bail bondsman. The bill also provides that a defendant released pending trial who fails to appear within 45 days of the date required shall forfeit all designated property held by the court to secure such defendant's appearance.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 63. This legislation amends a statute enacted earlier which controls the provision of the listing of bail bondsmen. The listing is controlled by the Secretary of State's Office. Evidently, some places are omitting qualified agents or providing lists of their preferred bondsmen. This legislation clarifies that the full list will be provided in alphabetical order.

The committee amendment changes the requested 90 days from the bill to 45 days for a defendant to make an appearance or forfeit the bail. The Committee was concerned that 90 days was too long a jump from the current 30 days.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that SB 63 be adopted with amendment and asks for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 123, relative to notification if a person found incompetent to stand trial and civilly committed is released into the community. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 123. This legislation clarifies the notification requirement if a person found incompetent to stand trial and civilly committed is released into the community. This bill was requested by the Attorney General.

The Attorney General worked with the Department of Health and Human Services in order to come up with the recommended language and process as to whom the notification applies to and upon which discharge it also applies.

The Judiciary Committee unanimously recommends that Senate Bill 123 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 176, relative to marriage licenses. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass on SB 176. This legislation makes technical corrections to delete obsolete references. The language here merely reflects previously adopted statutory changes and was viewed quite literally as a housekeeping bill.

The Judiciary Committee unanimously recommends that SB 176 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 180, establishing a committee to study the availability of community supervision programs for prisoners released on probation or parole. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 180. This legislation creates a study committee to work on the availability of community supervision programs for prisoners released on probation or parole under the Justice Reinvestment Act, which was adopted in SB 500 and amended in SB 52.

In order for prisoners to succeed upon probation or parole, resources in the community need to be available. Right now, the State is receiving $3 million annually for four years to help with these recovery programs. This study is an important part of continuing these programs and funding.

The Judiciary Committee unanimously recommends SB 180 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to SB 27

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subparagraph; Winnepesaukee Speed Limitations. Amend RSA 270-D:2, X by inserting after subparagraph (d) the following new subparagraph:

(e) The prima facie daytime speed limits in subparagraph (b)(2) shall not apply to the area described as follows, where the prima facie speed limit shall be 55 miles per hour: Starting at light buoy #76 southeast of Welch Island in the town of Gilford, running northeast to light buoy #9 at Sandy Island in the town of Tuftonboro, running southeast to light buoy #19 at Millstone Point in the town of Tuftonboro, continuing southeast to light buoy #66 at Little Barndoor Island in the town of Alton, then running southwest to light buoy #78 at Moose Island in the town of Alton, then returning to the outside of Rattlesnake Island in a northwest direction to light buoy #76.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

2011-0989s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a prima facie daytime speed limit of 55 miles per hour on a portion of Lake Winnepesaukee described in the bill.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 27 Ought to Pass as Amended. This bill replaces the speed limit on Lake Winnepesaukee with a general limit for all vessels defined as reasonable and prudent.

The Committee heard from legislators, residents, vacationers, lobbyists, and state agencies on this bill. After careful consideration of the written and verbal testimony, the majority of the Committee determined a compromise was the fairest option for the task at hand.

The Committee amended the bill to eliminate all of the language after the enacting clause. The amended version allows for a daytime speed limit of 55 miles per hour in a certain delineated portion of Lake Winnepesaukee as defined by the Department of Safety and anecdotally referred to as "the broads". The Department of Safety has assured the Committee they can enforce this change in the speed limit and stated they already have buoys on the lake delineating this specific area.

The Committee voted Ought to Pass as Amended, seeking a compromise which no entity would be wholly satisfied with, but the Department of Safety testified could be safely enforced and monitored.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Sen. Bradley is in opposition to the Committee Amendment on SB 27.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I rise against this bill. I have been a boater, and I would have to say from personal experience being on Lake Winnepesaukee that for many of the folks who I know who boat, that this would not be a good situation on the lake. Boating, like many other things, like car driving, has become less civil, and I think that it would help business on the lake to keep the speeds as they are. And, for those who haven't boated, I would encourage you to think about these speeds, because they're considerably higher in reference to cars. So, I would encourage my colleagues to vote against this bill.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I rise against this motion of Ought to Pass on SB 27 as I did in the Committee. This is my fifth year as a member of the Senate Transportation Committee, and this issue of speed limits on Lake Winnepesaukee is not new to the Transportation Committee. In the past years, we've listened many, many times to the very same testimony and the arguments that we heard again this year.

Last year, we passed legislation that was a result of balancing the needs and the safety issue of all the people of New Hampshire who want to enjoy this beautiful lake. It is only reasonable, then, that we give the current law time to work before we change the speed limits again, and I urge all of you to vote against this Ought to Pass. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise to speak in favor of the legislation. And, first of all, I want to thank the Chairman of the Committee, Chairman Rausch, for a masterful job of putting something together that makes sense.

We aren't really increasing the speeds any place except one small area called "the broads", and the speed limit in the evening will remain at 30 miles per hour; it will be increased to 55 miles an hour in the daytime. Every place else in the lake, the speed limits remain the same.

Now, I've got to tell you, I'm not a boater; I never had enough money to get a boat, number one. And, number two, I don't go boating, okay? I'm at home in the 20th Senate District; we have three tenement houses, we have one lake, and that's our water supply. So, the D'Allesandros aren't big boaters. But, what we are, I hope, are people who believe that everyone should have an opportunity to get one of these motor crafts and use it appropriately. The speed limits remain the same in all areas of the lake, all right? They have worked well; I agree with that. There is one area of the lake, and we specifically designate that area where the speed can be increased to 55 miles an hour.

As I said, Chairman Rausch did a magnificent job of bringing things together; I appreciate that. It's a great example of the collegiality in this body when people of opposing points of view can work together and make something positive happen. Hopefully, we can move forward with this; it has been a bone of contention. I think it's one of the items that most reappears here, you know? It's like the phoenix; it's the phoenix of legislation, down and rebirth, down and rebirth – it has resurrection more than Easter Sunday, I'll tell you that! So, what are we going to do? Hopefully, this will solve the problem, and we can move forward. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. As somebody that lives on the eastern portion of Lake Winnepesaukee and someone who has talked to numerous boaters over the year, I believe that the current law of 45 and 20 is working fine, and we should leave it in place, and I would urge my colleagues to do so. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to Senate Bill 27. I speak on behalf of the constituents from my District, and I also speak on personal experience as a boat owner and as a passenger.

In the last few weeks, I've received hundreds of emails, letters, and phone calls on Senate Bill 27. In total, nearly three to one, those communications have been opposed to SB 27. The communications come from residents, boaters, camp directors, marina owners, business owners, and members of the hospitality industry. The overwhelming message has been: Keep the current speed limits in place.

Since the speed limits have been in place, people feel safer and use and enjoy the lake more. Lake Winnepesaukee is user-friendly and accommodates everyone from kayakers to swimmers to fishermen and boaters.

As mentioned earlier, I also have personal experience. Over 30 years ago on a Labor Day Weekend, I almost lost my mom and my brother in a boating accident caused because of speed. Briefly, my mom, dad, brother, and myself were passengers on a boat. The owner, an experienced boater and close friend of the family, hit a breakwater at top speed. My mom ended up in a coma when she was tossed from the back of the boat and hit her head on the galley door. My brother lost his spleen when he was thrown through the window. My dad and I both suffered broken ribs and miscellaneous injuries.

I'm sure this friend of the family believed he was operating the vessel at a safe speed, but his judgment was wrong, and the injuries suffered by my mom, my brother, my father, and myself were real, negative, and had permanent results. I urge the members here to vote against SB 27. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator D'Allesandro brought up the issue of birds. Apparently, not only do we need to worry about campers out in the broads who are in a canoe or learning to sail, but apparently the Loon Society, the Loon Preservation Committee, who also oppose this bill, said that the loons cannot swim or dive fast enough to get away from the boats, and that seven out of ten loon chicks do not survive. So, we end up with a lake that is one of our most beautiful – I believe the largest inland lake in the United States – where many folks cannot feel like they can go out safely and survive.

The Committee heard from those who have been on the lake and watching the effectiveness of the speed limits, and they all testified to the dramatic change that they've witnessed through the enforcement. And, it's self-enforcement. When we were passing it, there was the issue of, "Well, how many patrollers are you going to have out there?" It turns out, it's self-enforcement, and that's the best way: where people recognize what... You see on the highways – we have speed limits on the highways – and there's a sign that says: "Drive with courtesy; that's the New Hampshire way." It should be that way on our lakes, as well. They're the most beautiful quiet areas of our state, and people ought to be courteous to each other. And, this self-enforcing law has worked; it's made the state and the area and those who live there and those who go to take a boat out, to put a boat in – you don't have to be an owner to put a boat in on Lake Winnepesaukee – it's made the largest lake in our state more approachable, more user-friendly, and one which I think 78 percent of the voters who were interviewed and polled on this support boat speed limits. I say, let's go with those who recognize the value of this and oppose the passage of Senate Bill 27. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, White, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, D'Allesandro, Morse, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Forrester, Bradley, Houde, Odell, Kelly, Luther, Lambert, Larsen, Merrill, Prescott, Stiles.

MOTION TO RESCIND ORDER TO THIRD READING

President Bragdon rescinded ordering SB 136-FN to Third Reading.

Sen. Morse moved to Table SB 136-FN.

The question is on the motion to Table. Adopted.

HB 116, relative to the rulemaking requirement for establishing operating restrictions on certain bodies of water. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 116 Ought to Pass. This bill exempts the requirement that rules establishing operating restrictions on certain bodies of water be adopted under RSA 541-A.

The Committee heard from the Department of Safety, who explained this was a housekeeping bill, which eliminates the requirement to go through the Joint Legislative Committee on Rules for posting things such as speed limit restrictions or no-motor restrictions on bodies of water.

The Committee believes this bill will save on resources, time, and money. The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 117, allowing additional weight for vehicles using idle reduction technology in order to promote reduction of fuel use and emissions. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 117 Ought to Pass. This bill allows additional weight for vehicles using idle reduction technology in order to promote reduction of fuel usage and emissions. This bill was requested by the Department of Safety.

The Committee heard from the Department of Safety, the Department of Environmental Services, and other stakeholders, all of whom agreed that this was a good piece of legislation which enabled the motor transport industry to be environmentally friendly while not penalizing them for doing so.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass, and thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 188, relative to division responsibility for road toll administration, hazardous waste transport, truck weight enforcement, and the international registration plan by the department of safety and relative to clerical support for the advisory board of fire control.

Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 188 Ought to Pass. This bill transfers responsibility for road toll administration, the position of road toll administrator, and enforcement of the fuel tax agreement from the Division of Motor Vehicles to the Division of Administration within the Department of Safety and makes the Division of Administration responsible for the international registration plan. This bill also transfers responsibility for hazardous waste transport and truck weight enforcement from the Division of Motor Vehicles to the Division of State Police. And lastly, this bill directs the Division of Fire Safety rather than the Division of Administration to provide clerical support to the advisory board of fire control.

HB 188 is a request of the Department of Safety. The Committee heard from the Department of Safety, who explained that these proposed changes were found after an audit by the Legislative Budget Assistant.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 192, relative to commercial motor vehicle registration. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Forsythe for the committee.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 192 Ought to Pass. This bill expands the authority of the Division of Motor Vehicles to refuse or revoke the registration of a commercial motor vehicle. This was requested by the Department of Safety.

The Committee heard from the Department of Safety, who stated this bill was to resolve a federal fund audit finding. This bill is an effort to keep the state in compliance with the federal Motor Carrier Safety Assistance Program and assure no federal funding is lost.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 363-L, relative to Depot Street in the town of Andover. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Forsythe for the committee.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 363-L Ought to Pass. This bill reclassifies Depot Street, which is a portion of US Route 4 in the Town of Andover, as a classified highway. The Committee heard from the Department of Transportation in support of this bill. The Committee also received written testimony from the Town of Andover in support of the bill. The Department explained this bill would give a small piece of land in the Town of Andover to the town to control and maintain. This piece of land was once used as a storage site for a DOT construction project and is undevelopable. The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 399, relative to nonresident registration of motor vehicles. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-1. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 399 Ought to Pass. This bill limits nonresident registration of motor vehicles to vehicles garaged exclusively in this state.

The Committee received written testimony from stakeholders, including the City and Town Clerks Association, stating that the current language is unenforceable as it currently allows for 15 days of out-of-state vehicle storage, and no one can truly verify when that 15-day period begins or ends. The Committee was told going back to the original language would allow for the State of New Hampshire and other bordering states to enforce the law with nonresidents.

The Transportation Committee asks you for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM EARLY SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Early Session, that the business of the Late Session be in order at the present time, that all bills and resolutions ordered to Third Reading be, by this resolution, read a third time, all titles be the same as adopted, and that they be passed at the present time.

Out of Recess. Call Senate to Order.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

March 30, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

The thing is, that we're all busy being saints; on our best days and on our worst days. And, when you're doing what you're doing as Senators in New Hampshire, it's really quite simple: you are the people's decision makers. And, it must be hard to be chosen to do that and then get yelled at all the time.

There's a great politician-statesman named Dag Hammarskjöld; I don't know if you know of him. He was a Swedish diplomat and economist and an author; he was the second Secretary General of the United Nations; he served in the '50s, and is generally considered to have been murdered because he was doing such good work for humanitarian efforts in the world. He was the only person ever to be given a posthumous Nobel Peace Prize.

He is famous for much of what he said, and this is one of the things he said, and I think it applies very much to you and very much to now.

As United Nations Secretary General, from the podium, he said to the people he served, "You know, everything will be all right. Do you know when? When people, just people, stop thinking of the United Nations as a weird Picasso abstraction and see it as a drawing that they have made themselves."

After Hammarskjöld's death, Kennedy said, "I realize now that in comparison to him, I'm a very small man."

Today, Dag Hammarskjöld is listed as a lesser saint in the Episcopal Church's Book of Lesser Feasts and Fasts. He is celebrated in his life every June. Let us pray.

God of all silence, call us into that silence and self awareness which are the anvil and the hammer of good decision-making. Amen.

Sen. Lambert led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I will try to do that. I would like to introduce Marissa Laro. Marissa is in 10th grade at Merrimack Valley but resides in Andover, which of course is in Senate District 5. Her favorite subjects at school are math and business. Her extra-curricular activities include softball, field hockey, Making Strides Against Breast Cancer volunteer, soccer, baseball, and babysitting – that's a full plate, Marissa. In the future, she plans to become an accountant after attending college. So, welcome, Marissa; it's nice to have you here.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you. I want to introduce Melissa Gifford. Melissa is a 16-year-old in the 10th grade at Merrimack Valley High School. Her hometown is Penacook, which is also part of Concord. Her favorite school subject is history and math, and her favorite book is Annie's Baby. She enjoys basketball, lacrosse, math team, chorus, and color guard, and in the future she hopes to become a lawyer and graduate from a good four-year college. Welcome, Melissa; wonderful to have you here. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Groen.)

SENATOR GROEN: I would like to introduce my daughter, Deborah, my youngest daughter – youngest of seven. And, she was my campaign manager in my last campaign; if you're appreciative that I'm here, then you would thank her. I just want to add a little bit: Deborah is a typical youngest child – one of the reasons that she was so effective in my campaign is that her six older brothers and sisters really worshipped her and gave her everything she wanted, and so when she ran my campaign, she assumed that everybody would do everything for her, and that was a wonderful train in a campaign manager. She just got back from four months in Germany, taking care of an Alzheimer's patient there, and some touring in Europe with my other campaign assistant, Trixie. And, I really appreciate Deborah and welcome her to the Senate.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces that the following bills will not come to Finance: HB 288-FN-L, HB 441-FN.

Without objection, President Bragdon has given Sen. Luther leave to use an electronic device to experiment with an online version of the Senators' Session Day binders.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

SPECIAL ORDER

Without objection, the following bills are Special-Ordered to after lunch: SB 54, SB 120, SB 129-FN, SB 88, and SB 197.

Without objection, HB 525 is Special-Ordered to the front of the Calendar.

TRANSPORTATION

HB 525, naming a bridge in the town of Merrimack in honor of Corporal Timothy Gibson, U.S.M.C. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 525 Ought to Pass. This bill names a bridge in the Town of Merrimack in honor of Corporal Timothy Gibson, United States Marine Corps, who was killed in action in Iraq in 2005. Corporal Gibson was a son, he was a brother, and a friend, and a 2000 graduate of Merrimack High School, where he was quarterback of the football team and played center field on the baseball team.

Corporal Gibson had been assigned to the 1st Battalion, 3rd Marine Region, 3rd Marine Division, III Marine Expeditionary Force, Marine Corps Base in Hawaii, where he was subsequently assigned to Operation Iraqi Freedom. His very young life was lost in a horrific crash in a CH-53E helicopter in Rutbah, Iraq.

Please join the Transportation Committee in honoring this valiant young Marine and support the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I'm going to request a roll call on this vote. And also, I would like to note that the parents of Corporal Gibson are here, Tom and Elaine Gibson are here, as well as Representative Notter. And, I would just like to say that this is a great thing that we're able to honor Corporal Gibson's memory with this bridge, and I would like to especially thank Representative Notter, who's really been the lynchpin of doing this; somebody has to carry the ball on this kind of thing. And, Representative Notter herself has three kids who are in military service, and is a Gold Star Mother volunteer – very instrumental with the Gold Star Mothers. So, very thankful to her, as well.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass.

A roll call was requested by Sen. White, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Houde, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Kelly, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Larsen, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, D'Allesandro, Merrill, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: (None.)

Yeas: 24 - Nays: 0

Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

CAPITAL BUDGET

SB 61, relative to capital appropriations to the liquor commission. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 61 Ought to Pass. This bill will allow the liquor commission to use excess funds that were appropriated in the 2009 capital budget for the construction of a new store in Nashua and to make improvements to existing stores. The commission has three projects that they would like to use the excess funds for. This legislation will enable them to act quickly to make improvements that will hopefully lead to greater profitability, while at the same time use the balance of the capital funds already appropriated. This bill does not appropriate any new funds.

The Capital Budget Committee recommends that this legislation be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted.

Sen. Odell moved to Table SB 61.

The question is on the motion to Table. Adopted.

HB 91, relative to the reporting by state agencies with capital budget projects to the capital budget overview committee. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Rausch for the committee.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 91 Ought to Pass. This bill will require agencies with capital building projects to submit quarterly reports to the Department of Administrative Services in the same standardized format. The intent is to create consistency and transparency with regard to the reporting of capital funds, thus making it easier for the Capital Budget Overview Committee to track capital projects. The Department of Administrative Services will submit summarized reports to the committee. This bill will help improve the committee's oversight function, which will also result in the availability of better information when the capital budget is assembled.

The Capital Budget Committee recommends that this legislation be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

COMMERCE

SB 50, making various changes to laws regulating trusts and trust companies. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-0. Senator Houde for the committee.

Commerce
March 24, 2011
2011-1183s
08/04

Amendment to SB 50

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 New Section; Wills; Enforcement of No-Contest Provision. Amend RSA 551 by inserting after section 21 the following new section:

551:22 Enforcement of No-Contest Provision.

I. For the purposes of this section, a “no-contest provision” means a provision of a will that, if given effect, would reduce or eliminate the interest of any beneficiary of such will who, directly or indirectly, initiates or otherwise pursues:

- (a) Any action to contest the admission or validity of such will;
- (b) Any action to set aside or vary the terms of such will;
- (c) Any action to challenge the acts of the executor of such will or other fiduciary of such will in the performance of such executor’s or other fiduciary’s duties as described in such will; or
- (d) Any other act or proceedings to frustrate or defeat the testator’s intent as expressed in the terms of such will.

II. A no-contest provision shall be enforceable according to the express terms of the no-contest provision without regard to the presence or absence of probable cause for, or the beneficiary’s good or bad faith in, taking the action that would justify the complete or partial forfeiture of the beneficiary’s interest in the will under the terms of the no-contest provision.

III. Paragraph II of this section shall not apply to:

- (a) Any action brought by the executor or other fiduciary of any such will that incorporates a no-contest provision, provided that such executor or other fiduciary is not a person against whom the no-contest provision would be enforced for bringing the action;
- (b) Any agreement among the beneficiaries under the will in settlement of a dispute or resolution of any other matter relating to such will;
- (c) Any action to determine whether a proposed or pending motion, petition, or other proceeding constitutes a contest within the meaning of a no-contest provision;
- (d) Any action brought by a beneficiary under a will or on behalf of any such beneficiary for a construction or interpretation of the will; or
- (e) Any action brought by the attorney general for a construction or interpretation of a will containing a charitable trust or charitable bequests or if a provision exists in a will or trust purporting to penalize a charity or charitable interest for contesting the will or trust or instituting other proceedings relating to the estate or trust if probable cause exists for instituting proceedings.

IV. It is the intent of this section to enforce the testator’s intentions as reflected in a no-contest provision described in paragraph II of this section to the greatest extent possible. The provisions of this section shall be construed and applied in a manner consistent with such intent.

V. This section shall apply to all judicial proceedings concerning the enforcement or interpretation of a no-contest provision commenced on or after its effective date.

3 Testamentary Trusts; Bond and Surety Requirements for Trustees. Amend RSA 564:1 to read as follows:

564:1 Bonds.

I. Every trustee to whom any estate, real or personal, is devised in trust for any person shall give bond to the judge of probate, with sufficient sureties, or without sureties in estates of five thousand dollars or less where the judge finds it in the interest of the estate, in such sum as the judge may order, except as provided in RSA 564:2, conditioned:

[I:] (a) That [he] the trustee will make and file in the probate office a true inventory of the real estate, goods, chattels, rights and credits so devised, at such time as the judge shall order.

[H:] (b) That [he] the trustee will annually render an account to the judge of the annual income and profit thereof, unless excused by the judge of probate as provided by law.

[HH:] (c) That at the expiration of the trust [he] the trustee will adjust and settle his or her account with the judge, and pay and deliver over all balances, money, and property with which [he] the trustee has been intrusted.

[IV:] (d) That [he] the trustee will faithfully execute the trust according to the true intent of the devisor.

II. This section shall not apply with respect to any trust exempted from the accounting requirements under RSA 564:19, II and III.

4 Testamentary Trusts; Bonds of Banks. Amend RSA 564:5 to read as follows:

564:5 Bond of Banks. Except as otherwise provided in RSA 564:1, such trust company or national bank when appointed trustee shall give a surety company bond in such sum as the judge may order.

5 Testamentary Trusts; Filing Accounts. Amend RSA 564:19 to read as follows:

564:19 Filing Account.

I. Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs II and III, every trustee shall file in the probate court an annual account of administration, unless upon petition [he] the trustee is excused by the judge of probate; but in no event shall [he] the trustee be excused for a period longer than three years, except that in cases where such filing may be impractical and may work financial hardship to the trust estate the judge of probate upon written approval of the attorney general may extend said period not exceeding in the aggregate five years. Such annual account of administration provided for herein may be allowed by the judge of probate without publication unless he or she shall otherwise order. Before giving notice to settle a final account the trustee shall file it in the probate office and shall cause the fact of such filing to appear in the notice and shall at the same time file a statement of the names and residences of the beneficiaries in the trust estate.

II. The following trusts under will shall be exempt from the accounting requirements of paragraph I:

(a) A trust created under a will admitted to probate on or after January 1, 2012, under which the testator expressly waives the requirement for annual accountings under the terms of the will creating the trust.

(b) A trust created under a will admitted to probate on or after January 1, 2012, that is not exempt from the accounting requirement under subparagraph (a) with respect to which one or more interested parties, including the director of charitable trusts if the director is a "qualified beneficiary" of the trust under RSA 564-B:1-110(c) have petitioned the court having jurisdiction over the trust for approval of the interested parties' nonjudicial settlement agreement under RSA 564-B:1-111 seeking a waiver of the requirement of future accountings. The presiding judge shall grant such petition and approve the nonjudicial settlement agreement unless the presiding judge finds that doing so would (i) jeopardize a material purpose of the testator of the will under which the trust was created, based on the language of the will clearly indicating the intention of the testator that the trust be subject to full judicial supervision, including the accounting requirement; or (ii) adversely affect the interests of any stakeholder who is not a signatory to the nonjudicial settlement agreement.

(c) A trust, if (i) the court grants a petition for the acceptance of jurisdiction over that trust with respect to which a court of another state has released its jurisdiction, and (ii) the court releasing jurisdiction did not require the trustee or trustees of that trust to file accounts with that court, or required that the trustees of the trust file accounts less frequently than annually, then the court accepting jurisdiction over such trust shall not require accountings whatsoever, or shall require accountings less frequently than annually, as the case may be, on the same basis as may have been required by the court releasing jurisdiction.

III. A trust under will described in paragraph II, with respect to which no judicial accountings will be required, shall in all respects be subject to the beneficiary reporting and information requirements of RSA 564-B, the Uniform Trust Code, and all other pertinent provisions of such Code, except to the extent that a contrary provision appears in the will under which the trust was created, provided that such contrary provision does not violate any of the mandatory rules of RSA 564-B:1-105. For these purposes, the pertinent terms of the will shall have the same meaning as "terms of a trust" and the "will creating the trust" shall have the same meaning as "trust instrument", as defined in RSA 564-B:1-103(19) and (20), respectively. Nothing in this paragraph shall be interpreted to limit the ability of persons with standing to petition the probate court having jurisdiction over a trust under will to require any trustee of that will to make a judicial accounting, or the jurisdiction of any such court to require an accounting on its own initiative.

IV. Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the attorney general otherwise provided by common law or other statute.

6 New Section; Uniform Trust Code; Application to Testamentary Trusts. Amend RSA 564 by inserting after section 24 the following new section:

564:25 Application of the Uniform Trust Code. The provisions of RSA 564-B, the Uniform Trust Code, shall apply to all trusts under will governed by this chapter, except to the extent that any provisions of the Uniform Trust Code conflict with the express provisions of this chapter, in which case the provisions of this chapter shall control.

7 Uniform Trust Code; Clarifying Terms of Trust Instrument Control. Amend RSA 564-B:1-105(b)(3) to read as follows:

(3) the requirement that a trust and its terms be for the benefit of its beneficiaries as their interests are defined under the terms of the trust, and that the trust have a purpose that is lawful, not contrary to public policy, and possible to achieve;

8 Uniform Trust Code; Clarifying Terms of Trust Instrument Control. Amend RSA 564-B:1-112 to read as follows:

564-B:1-112 Rules of Construction. The rules of construction that apply in this state to the interpretation of and disposition of property by will also apply as appropriate to the interpretation of the terms of a trust and the disposition of the trust property. For the purposes of determining the benefit of the beneficiaries, the settlor's intent as expressed in the terms of the trust shall be paramount.

9 Uniform Trust Code; Application of Judicial Supervision of Trusts. Amend RSA 564-B:2-201(b) to read as follows:

(b) A trust~~[-, other than a trust created by a will,]~~ is not subject to continuing judicial supervision unless ordered by the court.

10 Uniform Trust Code; Application of Judicial Supervision of Trusts. Amend RSA 564-B:4-404 to read as follows:

564-B:4-404 Trust Purposes. A trust may be created only to the extent its purposes are lawful, not contrary to public policy, and possible to achieve. A trust and its terms must be for the benefit of its beneficiaries, as their interests are defined under the terms of the trust.

11 Uniform Trust Code; Trust Purposes. Amend RSA 564-B:4-412(b) to read as follows:

(b) The court may modify the administrative terms of a trust if ~~[continuation of the trust on its existing terms would be impracticable or wasteful or impair the trust's administration]~~ modification will further the purposes of the trust.

12 Uniform Trust Code; Limitation of Action Against Trustee. Amend RSA 564-B:10-1005 to read as follows:

564-B:10-1005 Limitation of Action Against a Trustee by a Beneficiary.

(a) A beneficiary may not commence a proceeding against a trustee for breach of trust more than one year after the date the beneficiary or a representative of the beneficiary was sent a report that adequately disclosed the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust and informed the beneficiary of the time allowed for commencing a proceeding.

(b) A report adequately discloses the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust if it provides sufficient information so that the beneficiary or representative knows of the potential claim or should have inquired into its existence.

(c) If subsection (a) does not apply, a judicial proceeding by a beneficiary against a trustee for breach of trust must be commenced within 3 years after the first to occur of:

- (1) The removal, resignation, or death of the trustee;
- (2) The termination of the beneficiary's interest in the trust; ~~[or]~~
- (3) The termination of the trust~~[-];~~ or

(4) The date on which the beneficiary or a representative of the beneficiary was sent a report that adequately disclosed the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust.

(d) The periods of limitation under this section shall not be tolled for any reason, except by a written agreement of the trustees and qualified beneficiaries or a court order. Without limiting the circumstances under which a court may issue an order tolling the period of limitations, a court may issue an order tolling the period of limitations under this section during the pendency of any action described in RSA 564-B:10-1014(c)(3).

(e) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the attorney general otherwise provided by common law or other statute.

13 New Section; Uniform Trust Code; Limitation of Action Against a Trustee by a Trustee, Trust Advisor, or Trust Protector. Amend RSA 564-B by inserting after section 10-1005 the following new section:

564-B:10-1005A Limitation of Action Against a Trustee by a Trustee, Trust Advisor, or Trust Protector.

(a) A trustee shall commence a proceeding against a cotrustee or a former trustee for breach of trust within 3 years after the earlier of the date on which the trustee was sent a report that adequately disclosed the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust or the removal, resignation, or death of the cotrustee or former trustee. A trustee, however, shall not commence a proceeding against a cotrustee or a former trustee if, under RSA 564-B:10-1005, none of the beneficiaries may commence a proceeding against the cotrustee or former trustee for such breach of trust.

(b) A trust advisor or trust protector shall commence a proceeding against a trustee for breach of trust within 3 years after earlier of the date on which the trust advisor or trust protector was sent a report that adequately disclosed the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust or the removal, resignation, or death of the trustee. A trust advisor or trust protector, however, shall not commence a proceeding against a trustee for breach of trust if, under RSA 564-B:10-1005, none of the beneficiaries may commence a proceeding against the trustee for such breach of trust.

(c) A report adequately discloses the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust if it provides sufficient information so that the recipient knows of the potential claim or should have inquired into its existence.

(d) The periods of limitation under subsection (a) shall not be tolled except by either a written agreement of the trustees or, in the case of a possible claim against a former trustee, the trustees and the former trustee or a court order. The periods of limitation under subsection (b) shall not be tolled except by a written agreement of the trust advisors, trust protectors, and trustees or a court order. Without limiting the circumstances under which a court may issue an order tolling the period of limitations, a court may issue an order tolling the period of limitations under this section during the pendency of any action described in RSA 564-B:10-1014(c)(3).

14 New Section; Uniform Trust Code; Enforcement of No-Contest Provision. Amend RSA 564-B by inserting after section 10-1013 the following new section:

564-B:10-1014 Enforcement of No-Contest Provision.

(a) For the purposes of this section, a "no-contest provision" of a trust instrument means a provision that, if given effect, would reduce or eliminate the interest of any beneficiary of such trust who, directly or indirectly, initiates or otherwise pursues:

(1) Any action to contest the validity of the trust or the terms of the trust;

(2) Any action to set aside or vary the terms of the trust;

(3) Any action to challenge the acts of the trustee or other fiduciary of the trust in the performance of the trustee's or other fiduciary's duties as described in the terms of the trust; or

(4) Any other act or proceedings to frustrate or defeat the settlor's intent as expressed in the terms of the trust.

(b) A no-contest provision shall be enforceable according to the express terms of the no-contest provision without regard to the presence or absence of probable cause for, or the beneficiary's good or bad faith in, taking the action that would justify the complete or partial forfeiture of the beneficiary's interest in the trust under the terms of the no-contest provision.

(c) Subsection (b) shall not apply to:

(1) Any action brought by the trustee or any other fiduciary serving under the terms of the trust, provided that the trustee or other fiduciary is not a person against whom the no-contest provision would be enforced for bringing such action;

(2) Any agreement among the beneficiaries and other interested parties in settlement of a dispute or resolution of any other matter relating to the trust, including without limitation any nonjudicial settlement agreement;

(3) Any action to determine whether a proposed or pending motion, petition, or other proceeding constitutes a contest within the meaning of a no-contest provision;

(4) Any action brought by a beneficiary or on behalf of any such beneficiary for a construction or interpretation of the terms of the trust; or

(5) Any action brought by the attorney general for a construction or interpretation of a charitable trust or a trust containing a charitable interest if a provision exists in a trust purporting to penalize a charity or charitable interest for contesting the trust if probable cause exists for instituting proceedings.

(d) It is the intent of this section to enforce the settlor's intent as reflected in a no-contest provision to the greatest extent possible. The provisions of this section shall be construed and applied in a manner consistent with such intent.

(e) This section shall apply to all judicial proceedings concerning the enforcement or interpretation of a no-contest provision commenced on or after its effective date.

15 New Section; Uniform Trust Code; Limitation of Action Against a Trust Advisor or Trust Protector. Amend RSA 564-B by inserting after section 12-1205 the following new section:

564-B:12-1206 Limitation of Action Against a Trust Advisor or Trust Protector.

(a) A beneficiary shall commence a proceeding against a trust advisor or trust protector for breach of trust within the earlier of:

(1) One year after the date on which the beneficiary or the beneficiary's representative was sent a report that adequately disclosed the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust and informed the beneficiary of the time allowed for commencing a proceeding; or

(2) Three years after the date on which the beneficiary or the beneficiary's representative was sent a report that adequately disclosed the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust.

(b) A fiduciary shall commence a proceeding against a trust advisor or trust protector for breach of trust within 3 years after the date on which the fiduciary was sent a report that adequately disclosed the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust; provided, however, that a fiduciary shall not commence a proceeding against a trust advisor or trust protector for breach of trust if, under subsection (a), none of the beneficiaries may commence a proceeding against the trust advisor or trust protector for such breach of trust. For purposes of this section, a "fiduciary" means any trustee, trust advisor, or trust protector.

(c) A report adequately discloses the existence of a potential claim for breach of trust if it provides sufficient information so that the recipient knows of the potential claim or should have inquired into its existence.

(d) The periods of limitation under subsection (a) shall not be tolled for any reason, except by a written agreement of the qualified beneficiaries and each of the trust advisors and trust protectors against whom a beneficiary may commence a proceeding or a court order. The periods of limitation under subsection (b) shall not be tolled for any reason, except by a written agreement of the trustees and each of the trust advisors and trust protectors against whom a fiduciary may commence a proceeding or a court order. Without limiting the circumstances under which a court may issue an order tolling the period of limitations, a court may issue an order tolling the period of limitations under this section during the pendency of any action described in RSA 564-B:10-1014(c)(3).

(e) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the attorney general provided by common law or other statute.

16 Uniform Principal and Income Act; Conversion to Unitrust. Amend RSA 564-C:1-106(a)-(b) to read as follows:

(a) Unless expressly prohibited by the terms of the trust, a trustee may convert a trust into a unitrust as described in this section if all of the following apply:

(1) The trustee determines that the conversion will enable the trustee to better carry out the intent of the settlor ~~[or testator]~~, as defined in RSA 564-B:1-103(15), and the purposes of the trust.

(2) The trustee gives written notice of the trustee's intention to convert the trust into a unitrust and of how the unitrust will operate, including what initial decisions the trustee will make under this section, to all the ~~[sui-juris]~~ qualified beneficiaries, as defined in RSA 564-B:1-103(12) and including the director of charitable trusts if the director is a "qualified beneficiary" of the trust under RSA 564-B:1-110(c). ~~[who:~~

~~(A) Are currently eligible to receive income from the trust;~~

~~(B) Would be eligible, if a power of appointment were not exercised, to receive income from the trust if the interest of all the beneficiaries eligible to receive income under subparagraph (a)(2)(A) were to terminate immediately before the giving of notice; and~~

~~(C) Would receive, if no powers of appointment were exercised, a distribution of principal if the trust were to terminate immediately prior to the giving of notice.~~

~~(3) There is at least one sui-juris beneficiary under subparagraph (a)(2)(A) and at least one sui-juris beneficiary under subparagraph (a)(2)(B).~~

~~(4) No sui-juris~~ (3) No qualified beneficiary objects to the conversion to a unitrust in a writing delivered to the trustee within 60 days of the mailing of the notice under subparagraph (a)(2).

(b)(1) The trustee may petition the court to approve the conversion to a unitrust if ~~[any of the following apply:~~

~~(A) A beneficiary timely objects to the conversion to a unitrust.~~

~~(B) There are no sui-juris beneficiaries under subparagraph (a)(2)(A).~~

~~(C) There are no sui-juris beneficiaries under subparagraph (a)(2)(C).~~ a qualified beneficiary timely objects to the conversion of the unitrust.

(2) A qualified beneficiary may request a trustee to convert to a unitrust. If the trustee does not convert, the beneficiary may petition the court to order the conversion.

(3) The court shall approve the conversion or direct the requested conversion if the court concludes that the conversion will enable the trustee to better carry out the intent of the settlor ~~[or testator]~~ and the purposes of the trust.

17 Uniform Principal and Income Act; Conversion to Unitrust. Amend RSA 564-C:1-106(j)-(l) to read as follows:

(j)(1) If subparagraph (i)(3), (i)(4), or ~~[(i)(5)]~~ (i)(6) applies to a trustee and there is more than one trustee, a cotrustee to whom the provision does not apply may convert the trust, unless the exercise of the power by the remaining trustee or trustees is prohibited by the terms of the trust.

(2) If subparagraph (i)(3), (i)(4), or ~~[(i)(5)]~~ (i)(6) applies to all the trustees, the trustees may petition the court to direct a conversion.

(k) A trustee may permanently release the power conferred by paragraph (a) or may release the power conferred by paragraph (a) for a specified period including a period measured by the life of an individual to convert to a unitrust if any of the following apply:

(1) The trustee is uncertain about whether possessing or exercising the power will cause a result described in subparagraph (i)(3), (i)(4), or (i)(5).

(2) The trustee determines that possessing or exercising the power will or may deprive the trust of a tax benefit or impose a tax burden not described in paragraph (i).

~~(l) [The provisions of RSA 564-B:3-304 shall apply with respect to beneficiaries other than sui-juris beneficiaries]~~ For the purposes of this section, a person may represent and bind another person in accordance with Article 3 of RSA 564-B.

18 Qualified Dispositions in Trust Act; When Transferor May Serve as Trust Advisor. Amend RSA 564-D:5 to read as follows:

564-D:5 Transferor May Serve as Trust Advisor. Any individual, including the transferor of the qualified disposition, may serve as a trust advisor as described in RSA 564-D:4. However, if ~~[such]~~ the transferor serves as ~~[the]~~ a trust advisor, his or her rights and powers as a trust advisor shall be limited to: ~~[the right to disapprove distributions from the trust and the right to consent to a trustee's action or inaction relating to the investment of trust assets]~~ (i) the right to direct, consent to, or veto a fiduciary's actual or proposed investment decisions; and (ii) the rights and powers described in RSA 564-D:2, II excluding any power that would enable the transferor, acting as trust advisor, to direct, consent to, veto, or otherwise participate in a distribution by the trustee to or for the benefit of the transferor, the transferor's creditors, the transferor's estate, or the creditors of the transferor's estate.

19 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 50 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 50 makes various changes to laws regulating trusts and trust companies, which were and continue to be designed to attract such business to New Hampshire.

SB 50 as amended by the Committee represents a significant amount of collaborative effort by the stakeholders to continue a multi-year effort to build a successful financial services industry in New Hampshire. As Senator D'Allesandro would no doubt want to note, this effort has created jobs in New Hampshire, and we are recognized nationally for doing so.

Briefly, Senate Bill 50 as amended addresses the following areas: enforcement of no-contest provisions, an opt-out option from annual accounting requirements for trusts created by wills, enforcement of a settler's intent, statute of limitations, and assorted technical changes, such as statutory references.

As with any bill of a technical nature, some areas require additional clarification and consensus. However, the primary authors and sponsors of the bill have committed to working with the Department of Health and Human Services, the Attorney General's Office, and the probate court on any issues that may still need to be addressed.

As such, I ask you to join the Commerce Committee's recommendation and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted. Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 50.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to SB 86

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Civil Penalties. RSA 273:11-a is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

273:11-a Civil Penalties.

I. In addition to any criminal penalty provided under this chapter, the commissioner may, after hearing, impose a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500, as determined by the commissioner, for any violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or of any rule adopted pursuant to this chapter. All moneys collected under this section shall be deposited in the general fund.

II. Except as provided in paragraph III, the commissioner shall issue one written warning to the employer. The employer shall have 30 days from receipt of the warning to cure the defect causing the violation.

III. No warning shall be issued if, in the opinion of the commissioner, the employer intends to cause harm, the violation poses a threat to public safety, or the violation involves any of the following:

(a) Failure to pay an employee in full and on time under RSA 275:43.

(b) Payment of wages by checks on a financial institution that is not convenient to the place of employment as required by RSA 275:43, I(e).

(c) Failure to pay final wages in full as required by RSA 275:44.

(d) Failure to pay amounts withheld for court ordered child support to the custodial parent.

(e) Continuation of wage withholding for insurance benefits that have been cancelled.

(f) Illegal withholding of wages to compensate employer for employee actions resulting in loss or damage.

(g) Failure to comply with RSA 275-A:4-a regarding illegal aliens.

(h) Requiring that employees to perform any illegal activities under threat of job loss.

IV. Any person on whom a penalty is imposed under this section may appeal as provided in RSA 273:11-c and 273:11-d.

V. The commissioner shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to the conduct of hearings under paragraph IV.

2 Civil Penalties. Amend RSA 157-A:10-a, II to read as follows:

II. The commissioner shall conduct hearings in the manner required under rules adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A and 273:11-a, [H] V.

3 Civil Penalties. Amend RSA 157-B:13-a to read as follows:

II. The commissioner shall conduct hearings in the manner required under rules adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A and 273:11-a, [H] V.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 86 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 86 as amended by the Committee requires the Department of Labor to issue one warning to employers for certain violations before a fine may be imposed.

Under Senate Bill 86 as amended, the Commissioner may impose a civil penalty not to exceed $2,500 for a violation of this chapter or rules adopted. Unless the Commissioner believes the employer intends to cause harm or the violation poses a threat to public safety, one written warning will be given to the employer, who will have 30 days from receipt to cure the defect causing the violation. The Commerce Committee wants the State of New Hampshire to work with compliant employers, not punish them.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 86. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 110, relative to condominium development projects and application of the state fire code. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you again, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 110 Inexpedient to Legislate. Senate Bill 110 would provide that the state fire code shall apply to substantial rehabilitation of existing buildings, structures, or equipment, extends the time period under which the option to contract a condominium may be exercised, and extends the statutory timeline for the declarant to convert convertible land in a condominium to finish units.

Several possible unintended consequences were raised at the public hearing. The Committee believes that working with stakeholders, a new bill can be filed next year that addresses the sponsors' intent while protecting against negative unintended consequences.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Inexpedient to Legislate on SB 110. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

SB 111, relative to short sales of a homeowner's residence. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you again, Mister President. I would ask that you would join me in voting "No" – voting "No" – on the committee recommendation, so that a substitute motion of Ought to Pass can be made, and so I can offer a floor amendment that has broad support from the Committee and stakeholders. Remember, "No" is the vote that I am asking for. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Failed.

Floor Amendment to SB 111

Amend RSA 479-B:11, II(b) and (c) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

(b) If, as part of the sale, a deficiency was required by any creditor, the exact terms and conditions of any deficiencies were disclosed to the borrower by the purchaser at least 72 hours before the transfer. The disclosure shall be:

(1) Printed in at least 14-point type and in boldface; and

(2) Dated and personally signed by the homeowner and witnessed and acknowledged by a notary public or a justice of the peace appointed and commissioned by the state of New Hampshire; and

(c) The homeowner received from the purchaser, at least 72 hours before the transfer, a document entitled "notice of short sale." The document entitled "notice of short sale" shall:

(1) Be printed in at least 14-point type;

(2) Be dated and personally signed by the homeowner and witnessed and acknowledged by a notary public or a justice of the peace appointed and commissioned by the state of New Hampshire;

(3) Contain a prominent statement, printed in at least 16-point type and in boldface, that the homeowner is selling his or her home, will no longer have any ownership of the home after the sale, and will no longer have the right to live in the home after the sale; and

(4) Describe in detail the terms of the sale.

Amend RSA 479-B:11, III as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. Notwithstanding any provision of the law to the contrary, the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to a person who attempts to negotiate a short sale in which the person would purchase the homeowner's residence as set forth in paragraph II, but does not purchase the homeowner's residence or arrange for another person to purchase the homeowner's residence.

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you. What happened here is, this is relative to short-sales, which are advantageous for all parties involved, particularly the person who's in the property being sold, because obviously they're in a position where they can't meet their mortgage and they're also what we call "underwater". And so, the intent here was to give that person an out where they can get away from the property and get started over. There were objections raised in committee over some technical elements, but they were somewhat minor in nature, and so we asked the parties to get together, come up with an amendment, and that's what you have before you, and I believe we reached consensus at that point.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a question of Sen. White.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Senator. I support the amendment completely. I just had a question for clarification, if you would, which is, I believe we had a discussion in the committee, and I'm looking at line 19, specifically...

SENATOR WHITE: Of the amendment?

SENATOR HOUDE: Of the amendment; thank you, yes. And, it says, "and will no longer have the right to live in the home after the sale". Conceivably, there could be a situation where you have a tenant, or the former owner continues to be a tenant, and was curious if you could clarify that "will" provides for that as opposed to the word "may".

SENATOR WHITE: Okay. Thanks for the question. There was a lengthy discussion about this in committee, because our concern is, very often in short-sales, the person residing in the home, although they are walking away from their obligation and they are underwater, very often the successor who buys the property does want that person to remain in the home and turn them into a tenant, if you will. And so, Senator Houde's question was valid and was discussed. But, we felt that the language was clear that they do not have a right to live in the home, but that does not mean they do not have an ability to live in the home, as long as the successor owner basically executes a lease or whatever is favorable to him. So, that should take care of that, and thanks for the question.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of this bill as amended, and I do so because this is just another example of the Senate doing what we said we were going to do when we came here, which is to help people out, try to help our economy out in the state. And, this legislation is going to make it easier for these kinds of transactions to happen, which means it's going to improve the real estate industry in our state. And so, overall, it's a good piece of legislation – oh, by the way, it's my bill. But, disregard that. But, I do want to thank the Commerce Committee for their work on this bill, and they've made it a better bill, and I urge everyone to support it. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 119, relative to qualified association trusts. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-1. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Inexpedient to Legislate on Senate Bill 119. This bill would modify the definition of a "qualified association trust" to enable certain entities to offer health insurance to their employees.

With the federal healthcare discussion still being so fluid, the Committee was concerned that Senate Bill 119 could segment the insurance market and present significant anti-selection issues that could destabilize the existing insurance market. There are currently purchasing alliance statutes on the books that the stakeholders supporting this bill can form an alliance for the purpose of purchasing health insurance as an entity through this existing process.

Please support the Commerce Committee and vote Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 119.

SB 121, relative to the application of the worker adjustment and retraining notification act. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-1. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 121 Ought to Pass. Senate Bill 121, or more commonly known as "the WARN Act", will put New Hampshire in line with every other state in New England in setting a threshold of 100 employees for the purpose of notification under the worker adjustment and retraining act.

While we depend on small and mid-sized businesses to the same degree as our neighbors, we have been at a competitive disadvantage when trying to recruit companies with 75 to 99 employees to our state. We should pursue every option open to us that will make our state more competitive in attracting businesses to locate to New Hampshire, for, as we all know, you can't be pro-job if you're not pro-business.

Please support the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 121. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise in opposition to Senate Bill 121. I was the one, obviously, against in committee, and I just felt it appropriate to rise and recognize that I'm not sure that there's been a ton of time to realize from the time this change went into effect to now what kind of negative influence we're having on attracting businesses to the state. The other states around us have adopted 100, which is a federal standard, I believe, but I'm not sure that New Hampshire is always lining up to join in line with the federal process or numbers, and that there are in fact a large number of businesses that would fall within that category, and the bill was designed to protect employers. So, I rise to state those objections. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Just quickly, in the hearing notes alone, it shows that in the Greater Nashua Area, there are 55 businesses – 55 businesses – that have an employee level between 60 and 100 employees. So, if that is true in Nashua alone, you are affecting a great many people throughout the state who will now not have any warning when their business is about to close. This is, I believe, a retraction of what had been good worker protection in previous law, and I think we make a real mistake when we allow a company to close down with no warning, close their doors, and cause the kinds of problems we've seen in businesses from Manchester around the state, and what that does to the employees who have car payments, house payments, any other normal household expenses, where they lose their job without warning and we have to track down how we're going to get their wages paid. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Houde, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Houde, Kelly, Larsen, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

Amendment to SB 175

Amend RSA 359-K:3 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

359-K:3 Transferability. The right to control the commercial use of one's identity is a property right that is freely transferable and descendable, in whole or in part, during and after a person's life by means of (1) a written contract, license, conveyance, or assignment or a will, trust, or other testamentary instrument, executed before or after the enactment of this chapter, and by the original holder or his or her successor-in-interest, or (2) by intestate succession occurring before or after the enactment of this chapter. In the absence of an express transfer in a testamentary instrument of the right to control commercial use of a person's identity, a provision in a testamentary instrument that provides for the disposition of the residue of the deceased person's assets shall be effective to transfer that right in accordance with the terms of that provision.

Amend RSA 359-K:4 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

IV. The right protected under this chapter, insofar as it extends beyond a person's death, applies only to any person who died a domiciliary of the state of New Hampshire. With regard to any person still living, this paragraph shall not be construed to alter or expand the in personam jurisdiction or choice of law principles to be applied in an action brought under this chapter.

Amend RSA 359-K:5, I as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. Any use of a person's identity during the term of the right protected under this chapter, on or in products, merchandise, or goods, or for the purpose of advertising, marketing, selling, or soliciting purchases of products, merchandise, goods or services, requires the written authorization, including by electronic means, of that person or his or her successor-in-interest.

Amend RSA 359-K:6 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

359-K:6 Exceptions. This chapter shall not apply to the following:

I. Use of a person's identity in an attempt to portray, describe, impersonate, or refer to that person in any of the following informational or expressive works, regardless of length or format, appearing in any medium now known or hereafter devised, provided that the work does not in and of itself constitute a commercial advertisement for a product, merchandise, goods, or services, and provided further that the work is not a videogame or other similar digital or electronic device:

(a) A news, public affairs, public interest, or sports broadcast or account.

(b) A play, book, story, graphic novel, article, editorial, commentary, or other similar written or theatrical work.

(c) A speech.

(d) A musical composition or musical lyrics.

(e) A radio program, sound recording, or other similar audio work.

(f) A documentary, motion picture, television program, or other similar audiovisual work.

(g) An original work of art.

(h) Any work used in connection with any political campaign.

(i) An article, editorial, commentary, magazine, newspaper, periodical, or other work of political or newsworthy value.

II. Use of a person's image in a photograph that does not single the person out as an individual, but rather depicts the person as a member of a group or the public, provided that the person is not named or otherwise identifiable in connection with the use of the photograph.

III. Truthful identification of a person as the author, composer, performer, or creative contributor to or of a work or lawfully recorded performance, under circumstances in which the work or recorded performance is otherwise lawfully reproduced, exhibited, or broadcast.

IV. Promotional materials, advertisements, or commercial announcements for a use described in paragraph I, II, or III, or the facilitation of the same, provided that the use of the person's identity in such promotional materials, advertisements, or announcements is related to the promoted, advertised, or announced use of that same person's identity.

V. Use of a person's identity in promotional material or an advertisement for a news reporting or an entertainment medium that:

(a) Uses such identity solely as originally contained in all or part of a past or future edition of the medium's own broadcast or publication; and

(b) Does not convey or reasonably suggest that the person endorses the news reporting or entertainment medium.

VI. Use of a person's identity in promotional material or an advertisement for an aggregator of news reporting and/or entertainment content that:

(a) Uses such identity solely as originally contained in all or a part of the content of any news medium or entertainment medium available via the aggregator to the aggregator's customers; and

(b) Does not convey or reasonably suggest that the person endorses the news and/or entertainment aggregator. As used in this paragraph, the term "aggregator" means a party who receives content not of its own creation from others which it transmits or otherwise provides to others.

VII. Use of a person's identity in connection with the efforts of a government agency to promote travel and tourism in this state, portray historical events, or commemorate persons or physical sites that are significant in the history of this state, except where the use is directly connected with commercial use, benefit, or sponsorship by a nongovernmental agency; provided, however, that if a government agency intends to have photographs taken at a public event for use pursuant to this paragraph, the government agency shall, if practical, announce or otherwise inform the public, or request the sponsor of the event to announce or otherwise inform the public, that photographs may be taken that can be used in materials for the promotion of travel and tourism in this state without permission from the person photographed.

VIII. Use of a person's identity that is merely descriptive and used in good faith solely for the purpose of referring to products, merchandise, goods, or services that have been marketed, advertised, or sold by means of an authorized use of that person's identity, or the facilitation of the same.

Amend RSA 359-K:7, III-V as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

III. In any suit brought to enforce the right protected under this chapter, the plaintiff may recover an amount equal to the greater of $2,500 or actual damages incurred as a result of the prohibited use and any profits that are attributable to the prohibited use but not otherwise taken into account in computing actual damages. In establishing profits attributable to a prohibited use, the plaintiff shall be required to present proof only of the gross revenue attributable to use, and the defendant shall be required to prove his, her, or its deductible expenses.

IV. Any plaintiff or defendant that prevails in an action to enforce the right protected under this chapter shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and expenses.

V. No owner, employee, or provider of any medium used for the distribution, transmission, or aggregation of advertising, news reporting, and/or entertainment content is liable pursuant to this chapter for any prohibited use of a person's identity in an advertisement promoting the goods or services of a third party unless it is established that the owner, employee, or provider had actual knowledge that the use was unauthorized and the owner, employee, or provider did not create the advertisement.

VI. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to impose liability for offering the transmission, routing, or providing of connections for communications, between or among points specified by a user, of material of the user's choosing, without modification to the content of the material sent or received.

Amend RSA 359-K as inserted by section 2 of the bill by deleting RSA 359-K:9

SENATOR HOUDÉ: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise and move Senate Bill 175 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 175 was introduced to recognize the statutory right of publicity, which is an interest that protects the proprietary commercial value of one's identity. In some ways, it is really another branch of intellectual property law like copyrights, trademarks, and patents. Importantly, the right of publicity protects not only those who commercialize their identities, like athletes, inventors, musicians, and authors, but also protects those who choose not to commercialize their identities, for example, like J.D. Salinger and his family, longtime residents of Cornish, New Hampshire.

Enacting a statutory right of publicity, I believe, will help cement New Hampshire's rightful place as a protector of individual rights for all citizens. Thirty states already recognize the right of publicity, including 18 that have enacted a statute on the subject. At the hearing and beyond, many interested parties weighed in on these issues, and the Committee asked the parties to work together to resolve any differences in an effort to make the bill stronger. That effort was made, but I admit there remains a contested issue here, as it has been in other states. Specifically, the Committee, in its recommendation, chose to support the inclusion of language that provides sports figures with a greater level of assurance that their names and images will be protected. This area of the law, as it continues to develop, will no doubt see more challenges and court cases, as the very nature of issues which require the balancing of First Amendment rights.

In addition to the interested parties, the Commerce Committee has spent a significant amount of time trying to resolve the issues and find consensus among the stakeholders. I believe Senate Bill 175 as amended reflects a good-faith effort to do just that, recognizing the negotiations are likely to continue going forward.

As such, I ask for your support of the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on Senate Bill 175. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise and ask my colleagues to overturn the motion of my good friend, Senator Houde, and while I couldn't agree more with his comments and his hard work on this bill, unfortunately, the discussion that we're having about intellectual property or even, in fact, what I would believe is a property right, people that would have the right of publicity, there is a tension between that right of publicity and the First Amendment. And, unfortunately, though the Commerce Committee tried vainly to be able to ensure that the right of publicity is something that continues and that people were not exploited for commercial purposes and taken advantage of, there are too many unanswered questions. And so, I would ask that the body overturn the pending motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment, re-refer the bill back to the Commerce Committee, where a number of us will work over the break and over the interim – that seems like it's so far away. But, we will do so to try to bring out a bill that will protect entities like the Salinger Family, and protect entities such as professional sports athletes, without infringing upon the First Amendment. It is a tall order, and unfortunately has to be done correctly and delicately. So, I would ask that the pending motion be defeated and then I will subsequently move re-refer to committee.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Failed.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass. Failed.

Sen. Bradley moved Re-refer to Committee.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I just express disappointment as a Commerce Committee member that we weren't able to Ought to Pass this bill. I feel sorry and sad for the constituent family in Cornish that wanted to see this bill; I feel sorry and sad for Senator Sanborn and Senator Houde, in particular, who put countless hours into this bill – I mean, really worked hard. I feel bad for Senator Odell, who brought it. However, I am heartened by the remarks of Senator Bradley, that this re-refer is not a polite "kill the bill", but rather that you are making a commitment to work on this bill, because it's a bill that should move forward. And, if people will put their nose to the grindstone, I think we can overcome the issues that caused us not to be able to pass it. So, I'll respect the decision of the Senate, but I would ask that you respect the work we put into it and finish the job over the summer and fall.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. As a member of the Commerce Committee, I also have to rise and give thanks to Senator White, who was an absolute tiger in his attempts to try and bring some consensus in, and understood at what times to be the tiger and what times to be the pussycat, and actually trying to get all these very diverging interests together and craft some great legislation. Our committee worked, as Senator Houde will also agree, incredibly hard on what seemed like such a simple thing to do – protecting a family's personal rights – and it's taken on a life of its own. And, we all commit to working hard this summer to making a great piece of legislation. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Re-refer to Committee. Adopted.

Amendment to SB 179

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Powers and Duties of Purchasing Alliance; Restrictions on Purchasing Alliances. Amend RSA 420-M:7, I(f) to read as follows:

(f) Establish membership criteria that allow any employer to participate in the alliance or that limit participation in the alliance to employers that are members of or affiliated with an association, trade group, or other entity that has been in existence for at least 10 years and was established and maintained for purposes other than the provision of health coverage;

2 Qualified Purchasing Alliance. Amend RSA 420-M:13, I to read as follows:

I. Either that [it] membership in the alliance is open to all employers without discrimination or[, if participation is based on membership in or an affiliation] that the alliance has established membership criteria that limit membership in the alliance to employers that are members of or affiliated with an association, trade group, or other entity[;] that [the entity] has been in existence for at least 10 years and was established and maintained for purposes other than the provision of health coverage; and

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 179 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 179 clarifies the criteria for obtaining certification as a qualified purchasing alliance.

The Committee received testimony that an issue of today is rising costs of healthcare. This bill as amended by the Committee allows for the option of using an existing organization that is over 10 years old, that was created for purposes other than insurance, as a qualified purchasing alliance. Senate Bill 179 allows for added flexibility while being in line with current practices of the Department of Insurance.

Please support the unanimous Commerce Committee vote of Ought to Pass. I'd like to bring the attention that we – Senator Merrill and Senator Stiles had a lot of work with this bill; they actually met in my office one day. It was a fine time to work together outside the venue of the Senate, and I appreciated them coming over. I enjoyed working on the bill with them, and also Doug Bates – I'd like to congratulate Doug Bates, Seacoast Chamber Alliance, for moving this bill forward and asking Amanda to be the prime sponsor. Thank you, Amanda Merrill, and Nancy Stiles, thank you very much. And, I ask that the whole Senate vote Ought to Pass. Thank you very much.

SB 187, relative to fair debt collection. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 187 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill would require the plaintiff to file additional materials with a complaint brought under RSA 358-C, relative to debt collection practices. This bill would also require certain evidence of the amount and nature of the debt in order for the court to enter into default judgment or summary judgment against the debtor.

Senate Bill 187 received significant opposition at the public hearing, and the Committee agreed that this issue needs to be studied more before the Committee can support such legislation.

Please support the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 189

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Mortgage Loan Originator; Definition. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 397-A:1, XVII(a) to read as follows:

(a) "Originator" or "mortgage loan originator" or "mortgage originator" or "loan originator" means an individual who for direct or indirect compensation or gain or in the expectation of direct or indirect compensation or gain, takes a mortgage application or offers, negotiates, solicits, arranges, or finds a mortgage loan or ~~who assists a consumer in obtaining or applying to obtain a mortgage loan by, among other things, advising on loan terms (including rates, fees, and other costs), preparing loan packages, or collecting information on behalf of the consumer with regard to a mortgage loan or~~ who offers or negotiates terms of a residential mortgage loan. No individual may act as an originator for more than one mortgage broker, mortgage servicer, or mortgage banker. A sole proprietor licensed as a mortgage broker, mortgage servicer, or mortgage banker shall also obtain a license as a mortgage originator prior to engaging in the activities of a mortgage originator. Mortgage loan originator does not include:

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 189 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill changes the definition of "mortgage loan originator". When the Legislature revised our statutes to comply with the federal S.A.F.E. Act, we moved beyond the federal standards and mistakenly included anyone who gives mortgage advice, the result of which required CPAs, as an example, to become licensed as mortgage loan originators if they discuss mortgage-related matters. This was clearly not the desired outcome, and this fact has been stated by federal legislators. So, it's important that we adopt Senate Bill 189 as amended to correct that mistake.

Please support the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I want to thank the Commerce Committee for their work on this piece of legislation. The CPAs were very concerned about this; I think the amendment clarifies the situation, brings the bill to the proper format, and allows it to move forward. And, I think it's very important that we recognize the fact that cooperation is really what it's all about when it comes to developing a piece of legislation, and that when we put our heads together, we can come up with good legislation that makes sense and addresses the needs of our communities. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 191

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT authorizing registration of independent contractors for the purposes of workers' compensation.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Workers' Compensation; Definitions. Amend RSA 281-A:2, V-a to read as follows:

V-a. "Domestic," "domestic employee," or "domestic worker" means a person performing domestic services in a private residence of the employer, where the employer is an individual, family, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority and not an agency or other entity engaged in the business of providing domestic workers to the public and the person is not defined as an independent contractor under RSA 281-A:2, VI(b) or registered under RSA 281-A:3-b.

2 Workers' Compensation; Definitions; Employee With Respect to Private Employment. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 281-A:2, VI(b)(1) to read as follows:

(b)(1) Subject to the preceding subparagraph, any person, other than a direct seller or qualified real estate broker or agent or real estate appraiser, or person providing services as part of a residential placement for individuals with developmental, acquired, or emotional disabilities, who performs services for pay for an employer, is presumed to be an employee. This presumption may be rebutted by presenting to the employer a certificate of registration obtained pursuant to RSA 281-A:3-b. This presumption may also be rebutted by proof that an individual meets all of the following criteria:

3 New Section; Registration for Independent Contractors. Amend RSA 281-A by inserting after section 3-a the following new section:
Registration for Independent Contractors

281-A:3-b Registration for Independent Contractors Authorized for Workers' Compensation.

I. Every person doing business in this state as an independent contractor for the purposes of workers' compensation under RSA 281-A may register as a sole proprietor in the manner provided in paragraph II.

II. Every person engaged as an independent contractor doing business in this state may file with the department a form signed by such person stating the name under which the business is to be conducted and the principal place of said business. The commissioner may charge a fee for filing of registration and issuance of a certificate of registration.

III. The commissioner shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to any fee to be charged and forms required for the purposes of this section.

IV. This section shall not apply to employees, as defined in RSA 281-A:2, VI, who are not working in their capacity as registered independent contractors.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill authorizes an independent contractor to register with the department of labor as a sole proprietor for purposes of workers' compensation. Under this bill, the department shall issue a certificate acknowledging that such person is an independent contractor for purposes of workers' compensation. The independent contractor may present the certificate to the employer which shall satisfy any audit requirement for purposes of RSA 281-A.

Amendment to SB 114

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Failure to be Renominated or Reelected. Amend RSA 189:14-a to read as follows:

189:14-a Failure to be Renominated or Reelected.

I.(a) Any teacher who has a professional standards certificate from the state board of education and who has taught for one or more years in the same school district shall be notified in writing on or before April 15 or within 15 days of the adoption of the district budget by the legislative body, whichever is later, if that teacher is not to be renominated or reelected, provided that no notification shall occur later than the Friday following the second Tuesday in May.

II. Any teacher who has a professional standards certificate from the state board of education and who has taught for [3] 5 consecutive years or more in any school district in the state shall, after having taught for [2] 3 consecutive years in any other school district in the state, be entitled to all of the rights for notification and hearing set forth in [paragraphs I(b), II, and IV of] this section.

III. In cases of nonrenomination because of unsatisfactory performance, [the superintendent of the local school district shall demonstrate, at the school board hearing, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the teacher had received written notice that the teacher's unsatisfactory performance may lead to nonrenomination, that the teacher had a reasonable opportunity to correct such unsatisfactory performance, and that the teacher had failed to correct such unsatisfactory performance. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require the superintendent or the school board to provide a teacher with remedial assistance to correct any deficiencies that form the basis for such teacher's nonrenomination] a teacher's performance shall not be based solely on state or national assessment scores received by pupils in such teacher's class.

[IV. In all proceedings before the school board under this section, the burden of proof for nonrenewal of a teacher shall be on the superintendent of the local school district by a preponderance of the evidence.]

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 3:

2 Applicability. Section 1 of this act shall not apply to any teacher who has taught for 3 or 4 consecutive years in any school district in the state as of the effective date of this act.

Amendment to SB 22

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Alternative Regulation of Small Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers.
Amend RSA 374:3-b to read as follows:

374:3-b Alternative Regulation of Small Incumbent Local Exchange Carriers.

I. In this section, "small incumbent local exchange carrier" means an incumbent local exchange carrier serving fewer than 25,000 access lines.

II. Solely at its option, a small incumbent local exchange carrier subject to rate of return regulation, and only such small incumbent local exchange carrier, may petition the public utilities commission for approval of an alternative form of regulation providing for regulation of such carrier's retail operations comparable to the regulation applied to competitive local exchange carriers, subject to paragraph III, due to its status as carrier of last resort.

III. The commission shall approve the alternative regulation plan if it finds that:

(a) ~~[Competitive wireline, wireless, or broadband service is available to a majority of the retail customers in each of the exchanges served by such small incumbent local exchange carrier;]~~ The small incumbent local exchange carrier has 25 percent fewer access lines in service than it did on December 31, 2004;

(b) The plan provides for maximum stand-alone basic local service rates at levels that do not exceed the comparable rates charged by the largest incumbent local exchange carrier operating in the state and that do not increase by more than ~~[10]~~ 5 percent in each of the 4 years after a plan is approved with the exception that the plan may provide for additional rate adjustments, with public utilities commission review and approval, to reflect changes in federal, state, or local government taxes, mandates, rules, regulations, or statutes;

(c) ~~[The plan promotes the offering of innovative telecommunications services in the state;~~

(d) The plan meets intercarrier service obligations under other applicable laws;

~~[(e)]~~ (d) The plan preserves universal access to affordable stand-alone basic telephone service; and

~~[(f)]~~ (e) The plan provides that, if the small incumbent local exchange carrier operating under the plan fails to meet any of the conditions set out in this section, the public utilities commission may require the small incumbent local exchange carrier to propose modifications to the alternative regulation plan or return to rate of return regulation.

IV. The alternative regulation plan may allow the small incumbent local exchange carrier to offer bundled services that include combinations of telecommunications, data, video, and other services.

V. Following approval of the alternative regulation plan, the small incumbent local exchange carrier shall no longer be subject to rate of return regulation or be required to file affiliate contracts or seek prior commission approval of financings or corporate organizational changes, including, without limitation, mergers, acquisitions, corporate restructurings, issuance or transfer of securities, or the sale, lease, or other transfer of assets or control.

VI. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, competitive entry in the service territory of a small incumbent local exchange carrier which has petitioned for approval of an alternative regulation plan, is consistent with the public good for the specific purpose of RSA 374:22-g and approval of such competitive entry shall not require a hearing as required under RSA 374:26.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 22 Ought to Pass with Amendment Senate Bill 22 is relative to alternative regulation of small incumbent local exchange carriers. This bill modifies the requirements for use of an alternative regulation plan. The regulatory patterns that have been established and used in the past may no longer be appropriate for modern times, where there's been a rapid change in technology and communications.

100-A:28-c Participation Standards; Classified State Employees.

I. In order to be eligible for participation in the retirement system, an employee as defined in RSA 100-A:1, V who is a classified employee of the state or of any department, commission, institution, or agency of the state government, must be employed in a full-time position with the state or a department, commission, institution, or agency of the state government, as defined by the department of administrative services, division of personnel. Employment by a classified employee in one or more part-time positions, as defined by the department of administrative services, division of personnel, shall not result in such employee's participation in the system, regardless of the number of hours worked in one or more part-time positions, regardless of whether the part-time position or positions may in some instances qualify for vacation pay, sick pay, or other benefits, and regardless of whether positions are held within one or more departments, commissions, institutions, or agencies.

II. Employment by a full-time classified employee of any department, commission, institution, or agency of the state government in a part-time position with a different department, commission, institution, or agency of the state government shall not result in retirement contributions being made in regard to the part-time position, nor shall that position be considered for the purposes of the member's participation in the retirement system.

III. Solely part-time state employment by a classified employee shall not entitle the person to benefits under this chapter or under RSA 21-I:30, RSA 21-I:30-a, or RSA 21-I:32.

IV. To the extent that any administrative rule of the New Hampshire retirement system is inconsistent with the provisions contained in this section, the operation of that rule is hereby suspended.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage

2011-1240s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

The bill provides that part-time classified state employees shall not participate in the retirement system on the basis of such part-time employment.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Commissioner Linda Hodgton approached myself and others, in particular, the sponsor of the bill, Senator D'Allesandro, about the status of part-time state employees and their participation in the New Hampshire retirement system. After the hearing, after the executive session, Commissioner Hodgton came again to me and requested that we pass what was in the original bill, which you should have in front of you, section 2, which is the basis of the floor amendment. Commissioner Hodgton's point was that the State of New Hampshire has never contributed to the retirement system for part-time employees, nor are they eligible, and we should not be paying that retirement stipend. So, this floor amendment deletes section 1 of the bill, which the ED&A Committee found somewhat problematic, replaces it with section 2 of the bill, changes the effective date to passage, and I would urge the full Senate to pass this floor amendment.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ADMINISTRATION

SB 92, establishing an economic strategic commission to review the relationship between business and government. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

Senate Executive Departments and AdministrationMarch 24, 2011*2011-1209s*08/03*Amendment to SB 92

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing an economic strategic commission to review the relationship between business and government and changing the name of the department of resources and economic development to the department of business assistance.

Amend RSA 359-K:3, I(c)-(d) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(c) Twelve members of the business community, 4 of whom shall be appointed by the senate president, 4 of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, and 4 of whom shall be appointed by the governor.

(d) Nine members specializing in business law, 3 of whom shall be appointed by the senate president, 3 of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, and 3 of whom shall be appointed by the governor.

Amend RSA 359-K:4, I as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. The commission and any subcommittees therein shall study and review all aspects of public policy, front- and back-end data interchange, coordination, technology requirements, legislative initiatives, streamlining, and such causal requirements to create a plan to project New Hampshire into a “one-door” front-end operational facility to assist in the ease of economic opportunities in the establishment, support, maintenance, education, and monitoring of the business community.

Amend RSA 359-K:4, III(c) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(c) Study the feasibility of establishing a new adjudicatory conflict resolution center to manage business to government conflicts. This center shall manage, hear, and adjudicate conflicts when administrative hearings are unresolved, or where the business community remains aggrieved.

Amend RSA 359-K:4, IV as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. The commission may enlist any faculty and students from post-secondary institutions in New Hampshire to provide research services to the commission.

Amend RSA 359-K:6 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

359-K:6 Report. The commission shall make an interim report of its findings and recommendations on or before November 1, 2011 and a final report of its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before December 31, 2011.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 4:

2 Name Change. AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes an economic strategic commission to review the relationship between business and government and changes the name of the department of resources and economic development to the department of business assistance.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 92 Ought to Pass as Amended. Senate Bill 92 would create a commission to examine the relationship between business and government. The commission's intentions would be threefold: to review our business statutes in relation to both physical and intellectual property protections for New Hampshire, bringing together delegates from our legal community specializing in legal administration, which would include a review of the feasibility to create a business resolution center, and lastly, provide a vehicle where the business community can seek through due process. I believe this commission has the potential to modernize and improve New Hampshire business regulation systems and keep our state very friendly to businesses.

The Committee voted favorably 5-0 Ought to Pass as Amended, and we therefore ask for your support in its passage. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Sen. Sanborn offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment to SB 92

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing an economic strategic commission to review the relationship between business and government.

Amend RSA 359-K:4, III as inserted by section 1 of the bill by inserting after subparagraph (c) the following new subparagraph:

(d) Consider changing the name of the department of resources and economic development to the department of business advancement-NH or any other name that conveys New Hampshire's desire to promote economic growth and prosperity.

Amend RSA 359-K:6 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

359-K:6 Report. The commission shall make status reports on its findings and recommendations on or before December 1, 2011 and August 1, 2012, a preliminary report of its findings and recommendations on or before October 1, 2012, and a final report of its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before December 1, 2012.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Repeal. RSA 359-K, relative to the economic strategic commission to review the relationship between business and government, is repealed.

3 Effective Date.

I. Section 2 of this act shall take effect December 1, 2012.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes an economic strategic commission to review the relationship between business and government.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I appreciate it. My floor amendment on Senate Bill 92, which is 1234s, effectively does two changes. We've realized that the breadth of this commission is going to require some additional time, so we're extending the timeline of the commission for when it has to report back to the Senate, and when its final report needs to be done, which will be December of 2012. In addition to that, there was a concept of whether or not the Committee should be considering a name change to what we all commonly know as "DRED", which is so much better than "DED", but in an effort to be pro-business in the State of New Hampshire, there have been some suggestions by my good friend, Senator Luther over there, participated in trying to change the name to the Division of Business Advancement, and we ask that the commission consider that name. And, I recommend it pass. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I simply rise to commend the wisdom of the floor amendment in that to change the name of a department in the middle of a season would cause dramatic problems as well as expenses to the Department. And, I'm not sure that DBA is better than DRED, but I believe that we ought to take some time and consider carefully what the name change should be. As we pointed out in committee, there are also resources under this department, as well as business assistance. So, we need to consider all that carefully. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: I just want to applaud this bill. We were called to this session to build the economy and jobs. And, I think this bill is a great bill; it's going to help us as a state to become more competitive in the region and the country, and I support it 100 percent.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 166, relative to medical benefits for beneficiaries of a police officer or firefighter killed in the line of duty. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. It's my privilege to introduce this bill. I move Senate Bill 166 Ought to Pass. SB 166 would reinstate what previously had been promised as premium payment for medical benefits for beneficiaries of police officers and firefighters killed in the line of duty. This bill would require the premium payments for medical benefits for the surviving spouse and dependent children shall not be reduced by the application of a maximum benefit limitation.

The ED&A Committee voted unanimously in favor, 5-0, Ought to Pass, and we ask for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. And, I would like to thank my colleagues on the ED&A Committee. This was a bill that I brought in on behalf of a constituent. Her husband was killed in the line of duty, and they got caught up in all the retirement changes, and the benefit was reduced. I think it's very important that we send a strong statement that we support the families of our fallen firefighters and police officers and that we do the right thing here today. Thank you very much.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 170, relative to the New Hampshire Medical Malpractice Joint Underwriting Association. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

Senate Executive Departments and Administration

March 24, 2011

2011-1193s

10/04

Amendment to SB 170

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Purpose. The general court finds that the New Hampshire Medical Malpractice Joint Underwriting Association (NHMMJUA) is a mutual form of insurance plan funded in the first instance by premiums paid by policyholders. Since 1986, the NHMMJUA has amassed more funds through premium payments than is necessary to sustain operations. Return premiums should be issued to all policyholders who have contributed to the current surplus of funds.

2 New Section; New Hampshire Medical Malpractice Joint Underwriting Association (NHMMJUA). Amend RSA 404-C by inserting after section 13 the following new section:

404-C:14 New Hampshire Medical Malpractice Joint Underwriting Association (NHMMJUA).

I. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, no officer or agent of the state shall take or transfer, through taxation or otherwise, any funds now held by the NHMMJUA in a manner inconsistent with this section.

II. All funds held as of the effective date of this section by the NHMMJUA in excess of the amount required for the fund to remain actuarially sound, as determined by a qualified actuary, shall constitute excess surplus funds and shall not be less than $110,000,000 in accordance with 2009, 144:1. Such determination shall be completed under the direction of the NHMMJUA board of directors not more than 45 days from the effective date of this section. All such excess surplus funds have resulted from premiums paid under assessable and participating medical malpractice insurance policies, belong to the policyholders who paid these premiums, and shall be returned as directed under this section. Within 60 days from the effective date of this section, all excess surplus funds, except for a reserve of $25,000,000 for the payment of any federal tax liability, shall be interpleaded into the Merrimack County Superior Court, docket no. 217-2010-CV-00414 for the purpose of adjudicating all policyholders' claims to excess surplus funds. All distributions made to policyholders shall be subject to a claim from the NHMMJUA to reclaim a pro rata portion of the distribution to satisfy any federal tax liabilities in excess of the $25,000,000 reserved for such claims.

III. Within 30 days of the effective date of this section, the NHMMJUA, the insurance commissioner, or designee, and a representative of NHMMJUA policyholders, designated by the president of the New Hampshire Medical Society, shall jointly approach the United States Internal Revenue Service to obtain a closing agreement, or its equivalent, determining whether the NHMMJUA has any federal tax liability arising from the excess premiums paid and that shall be returned to policyholders.

IV. No later than 30 days after receipt of the closing agreement, or its equivalent, the NHMMJUA shall interplead into the Merrimack County Superior Court docket no. 217-2010-CV-00414 for the purpose of adjudicating all policyholders' claims to these remaining excess surplus funds the remaining amount of the tax reserve after satisfaction of any taxes owed.

V. Funds that cannot be distributed to a policyholder in the court proceedings referenced in this section due to the inability to locate the policyholder after reasonable efforts, shall revert to the NHMMJUA. Undistributed funds that revert to the NHMMJUA as provided in this section shall be used to provide grants in aid to health care providers servicing medically underserved populations to assist in the NHMMJUA coverage.

VI. The approval of the commissioner of insurance shall not be required for any action contemplated under this section.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 170 Ought to Pass as Amended. Senate Bill 170 declares that the State shall not take or transfer through taxation or otherwise any funds now held by the New Hampshire Medical Malpractice Joint Underwriting Association.

Since 1986, the JUA has amassed more funds through premium payments than is necessary to sustain operations, and the return of premiums should be issued to all policyholders who have contributed to the current surplus funds.

In addition, Senate Bill 170 requires that the JUA, along with the Insurance Commissioner or designee, and a representative of the JUA policyholders designated by the New Hampshire Medical Society, approach the United States Internal Revenue Service to obtain a closing agreement determining whether the JUA has any federal tax liability arising from excess premiums paid. This legislation also requires a reserve of $25 million, which shall be interpleaded into the Merrimack County Superior Court for the payment of any federal tax liability.

Funds that cannot be distributed to a policyholder due to the inability to locate that policyholder shall revert to the JUA. These undistributed funds that revert shall be used to provide grants and aid to healthcare providers servicing medically underserved populations to assist in JUA coverage.

The ED&A Committee voted unanimously in favor, 5-0, Ought to Pass as Amended, and we therefore ask for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 170.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise against Senate Bill 170. As one of the few people who was around here when the JUA was created – I was on the Executive Council when we called a special session of the Legislature. We called a special session of the Legislature to deal with the problem: it was the ability to get malpractice insurance. The gynecologists and the hospitals were at wits end because there was an inability to get insurance. The State stepped in. The State provided malpractice insurance and said it would never be 10 percent more than what was the going rate – 10 percent less than the going rate. So, the State stepped in, performed good public policy, and those insured got exactly what they paid for: they got insurance; they were covered. Isn't that how insurance works? Or do you get rebates? You buy life insurance and you don't die, do they rebate the money that you've paid in? I don't think so.

So, in essence, the State did the right thing. And, now we're talking about giving money back to those who bought insurance. Well, it seems to me the State was responsible, the State fulfilled a void that was created, and now where's the money going? Well, we're going to pay some taxes, because for years, it was a non-taxed entity – no taxes were paid; no taxes were paid to the State, no taxes were paid to the federal government – it was a non-taxable situation. Now we're going to pay federal taxes on it and we're going to try to find the people who paid, but we can't find them any more. And, what are we going to do with that money? We're going to set up a trust. It just seems to me that we're on the wrong path, here. We're on the wrong path. The State comes in and does the right thing, and now we're undoing it with what, in my opinion, is the wrong thing. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. And, I'd like to address some of the concerns that have been expressed by my esteemed colleague from Manchester.

I think it's important to realize that over the life of this fund, disbursements have been made twice to the policyholders. Yes, we created this fund through policy, but the State has never contributed a dime to this fund. This fund has accumulated because of the policyholders and, quite frankly, the good investment management of the trustees of this fund. We are not entitled to this money; it does not belong to us. And again, not one dollar of taxpayer money was ever funded.

In JLCAR we had this issue come before us, and we were given a copy of the policy itself. And, quite clearly, it does say any excess funds will be returned to the policyholders. It does not belong to us. Yes, there are some questions about tax liability, that's why the amendment provides as vehicle for the JUA to resolve that issue. The State does not have a dog in this fight, quite frankly. We are trying to fight over $110 million that we do not have a right to. And, what this bill does is very clearly lays out a path for the issue to be resolved. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro for a question of Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Senator Carson. Senator Carson, should the State have put up money to protect people when they provided a vehicle for that protection? Why should the State have put up money?

SENATOR CARSON: Well, thank you for your question. And, again, that was a decision that was made when this fund was set up by us, by policy. The people that were here decided not to give it any money, that the impetus, or the whole issue of the fund, would fall upon the doctors themselves, not the State. We should not be in the insurance business, the State itself. If I may, we are precluded by law from doing that.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. It just seems to me, when you can use the State for your advantage, you do it. And, that's what happened in 1975. Nobody could get insurance! So, who supplied the vehicle for the insurance? The State of New Hampshire. The State of New Hampshire stepped up to the plate and protected the doctors and protected the hospitals. That's good public policy; that's what the State should do. Now to say that the State doesn't have any role I think is inconsistent with that policy. It's use the State when the State's usable, discard the State when it's not usable. It doesn't make any sense to me. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin for a question of Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Senator Carson, I'm listening to this debate, and I'm a bit confused. Could you clarify for me – that money that is in the JUA account, whose money is that?

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you for the question. That money belongs to the policyholders.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Senator.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President, for your indulgence. I would also like to remind my colleagues that back in the 1980s, this fund ran into a great deal of difficulty. And, they were basically told to solve the problem themselves; the State did not intervene. And, they did, and they have been very, very successful. And, again, I believe that bolsters the argument that this is not our money, we have no right to it; this money belongs to the policyholders. Mister President, I would also like to ask for a roll call.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Carson, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Houde, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Kelly, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Larsen, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Merrill, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: D'Allesandro.

Yeas: 23 - Nays: 1

Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on SB 170.

Amendment to SB 3-FN-A-LOCAL

Amend the bill by replacing sections 1 and 2 with the following:

1 Retirement System; Definition of Earnable Compensation. Amend RSA 100-A:1, XVII to read as follows:

XVII. "Earnable compensation" shall mean:

(a) For [all] members who have attained vested status prior to January 1, 2012 the full base rate of compensation paid, as determined by the employer, plus any overtime pay, holiday and vacation pay, sick pay, longevity or severance pay, cost of living bonus, additional pay for extracurricular and instructional activities [~~or for other extra or special duty~~], and any military differential pay, plus the fair market value of non-cash compensation paid to, or on behalf of, the member for meals or living quarters if subject to federal income tax, but excluding other compensation except cash incentives paid by an employer to encourage members to retire, supplemental pay paid by the employer while the member is receiving workers' compensation, and teacher development pay that is not part of the contracted annual salary. Compensation for extra and special duty, as determined by the employer, shall be included but limited during the highest 3 years of creditable service as provided in paragraph XVIII. However, earnable compensation in the final 12 months of creditable service prior to termination of employment shall be limited to 1-1/2 times the higher of the earnable compensation in the 12-month period preceding the final 12 months or the highest compensation year as determined for the purpose of calculating average final compensation, but excluding the final 12 months. Any compensation received in the final 12 months of employment in excess of such limit shall not be subject to member or employer contributions to the retirement system and shall not be considered in the computation of average final compensation. Provided that, the annual compensation limit for members of governmental defined benefit pension plans under section 401(a)(17) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall apply to earnable compensation for all employees, teachers, permanent firemen, and permanent policemen who first become eligible for membership in the system on or after July 1, 1996. Earnable compensation shall not include compensation in any form paid later than 120 days after the member's termination of employment from a retirement eligible position, with the limited exceptions of disability related severance pay paid to a member or retiree no later than 120 days after a decision by the board of trustees granting the member or retiree disability retirement benefits pursuant to RSA 100-A:6 and of severance pay which a member was entitled to be paid within 120 days after termination but which, without the consent of the member and not through any fault of the member, was paid more than 120 days after the member's termination. The member shall have the burden of proving to the board of trustees that any severance payment paid later than 120 days after the member's termination of employment is earnable compensation and meets the requirements of an asserted exception to the 120-day post-termination payment requirement.

(b) For members who begin service after December 31, 2011 or who are not in vested status on January 1, 2012 the full base rate of compensation paid, as determined by the employer, plus any overtime pay, holiday and vacation pay, sick pay, longevity pay, cost of living bonus, additional pay for extracurricular and instructional activities, and any military differential pay, plus the fair market value of non-cash compensation paid to, or on behalf of, the member for meals or living quarters if subject to federal income tax, but excluding other compensation except supplemental pay paid by the employer while the member is receiving workers' compensation and teacher development pay that is not part of the contracted annual salary. Compensation for extra and special duty, as determined by the employer, shall be included but limited during the highest 5 years of creditable service as provided in paragraph XVIII. Earnable compensation shall not include incentives to encourage members to retire, severance pay, and pay for unused sick or vacation time. However, earnable compensation in the final 12 months of creditable service prior to termination of employment shall be limited to 1-1/2 times the higher of the earnable compensation in the 12-month period preceding the final 12 months or the highest compensation year as determined for the purpose of calculating average final compensation, but excluding the final 12 months. Any compensation received in the final 12 months of employment in excess of such limit shall not be subject to member or employer contributions to the retirement system and shall not be considered in the computation of average final compensation. Provided that, the annual compensation limit for members of governmental defined benefit pension plans under section 401(a)(17) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, shall apply to earnable compensation for all employees, teachers, permanent firemen, and permanent policemen who first become eligible for membership in the system on or after July 1, 1996. Earnable compensation shall not include compensation in any form paid later than 120 days after the member's termination of employment from a retirement eligible position.

2 Retirement System; Definitions; Average Final Compensation. Amend RSA 100-A:1, XVIII to read as follows:

XVIII. "Average final compensation" shall mean:

(a) For members who have attained vested status prior to January 1, 2012, the average annual earnable compensation of a member during his or her highest 3 years of creditable service, or during all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 3 years. For purposes of this calculation, the inclusion of the average annual compensation for extra and special duty in the 3 years shall not exceed the average annual amount of compensation for extra and special duty paid to the members over the member's last 7 years or over all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 7 years.

(b) For members who began service after December 31, 2011 or have not attained vested status on January 1, 2012, the average annual earnable compensation of a member during his or her highest 5 years of creditable service, or during all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 5 years. For purposes of this calculation, the inclusion of the average annual compensation for extra and special duty in the 5 years shall not exceed the average annual amount of compensation for extra and special duty paid to the members over the member's last 7 years or over all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 7 years.

Amend the bill by replacing sections 4-11 with the following:

4 State Employees; Group Insurance Benefits; Group II. Amend RSA 21-I:30, III to read as follows:

III. Any vested deferred state retiree may receive medical and surgical benefits under this section if the vested deferred state retiree is eligible. To be eligible, a group I vested deferred state retiree shall have at least 10 years of creditable service with the state if the employee's service began prior to July 1, 2003 or 20 years of creditable service with the state if the employee's service began on or after July 1, 2003 and a group II vested deferred state retiree shall have at least 20 years of creditable service with the state if the employee's service with the state began on or after July 1, 2010. In addition, if the vested deferred state retiree is a member of group I, such retiree shall be at least 60 years of age to be eligible. If the vested deferred state retiree is a member of group II who is in vested status before January 1, 2012, such retiree shall not be eligible until 20 years from the date of becoming a member of group II and shall be at least 45 years of age, and any group II member who commenced service after December 31, 2011 shall not be eligible until 25 years from the date of becoming a member of group II and shall be at least 50 years of age, and group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d).

5 Service Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:5, II to read as follows:

II. Group II Members.

(a) Any group II member in service, who is in vested status before January 1, 2012, who has attained age 45 and completed 20 years of creditable service, and any group II member who commenced service after December 31, 2011 who has attained age 50 and completed 25 years of creditable service, and group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d), or any group II member in service who has attained age 60 regardless of the number of years of creditable service, may retire on a service retirement allowance upon written application to the board of trustees setting forth at what time not less than 30 days nor more than 90 days subsequent to the filing thereof the member desires to be retired, notwithstanding that during such period of notification the member may have separated from service.

(b) Upon service retirement, a group II member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(1) A member annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his or her accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(2) For members who are in vested status before January 1, 2012, a state annuity which, together with his or her member annuity, shall be equal to 2-1/2 percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 40 years, or for members who commenced service after December 31, 2011, a state annuity which, together with his or her member annuity, shall be equal to 2 percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 50 years, and group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the maximum number of years adjusted proportionally between 40 and 50.

(c)(1) Notwithstanding any provision of RSA 100-A to the contrary, any group II member who is in vested status before January 1, 2012 and has retired on or after the effective date of this subparagraph after attaining the age of 45 with at least 20 years of creditable service, and any group II member who commenced service after December 31, 2011 and has retired on or after the effective date of this subparagraph after attaining the age of 50 with at least 25 years of creditable service, and group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d), shall receive a minimum annual service retirement allowance of $10,000. If such group II member has elected to convert the retirement allowance into an optional allowance for the surviving spouse under RSA 100-A:13, the surviving spouse shall be entitled to a proportional share of the $10,000.

(2) [Repealed.]

(3) [Repealed.]

(d) Active group II members who are not in vested status on January 1, 2012 shall be subject to the following transition provisions for years of service required for regular service retirement, the minimum age for regular service retirement, and the multiplier used to calculate the retirement annuity, which shall be applicable on January 1, 2012 according to the following table:

Creditable service on January 1, 2012	Minimum years of service	Minimum age attained	Annuity multiplier
(1) Less than 4 years	24	age 49	2.1%
(2) At least 4 years but less than 6 years	23	age 48	2.2%
(3) At least 6 years but less than 8 years	22	age 47	2.3%
(4) At least 8 years but less than 10 years	21	age 46	2.4%

6 Ordinary Disability Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:6, II(b) to read as follows:

(b) Upon ordinary disability retirement, the group II member shall receive an ordinary disability retirement allowance which shall consist of: a member annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his or her accumulated contributions at the time of his or her ordinary disability retirement; and a state annuity which, together with his or her member annuity, for members who are in vested status before January 1, 2012, shall be equal to 2-1/2 percent of his or her average final compensation at the time of [his] ordinary disability retirement multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 40 at the time of [his] ordinary disability retirement, or for members who commenced service after December 31, 2011, shall be equal to 2 percent of his or her average final compensation at the time of ordinary disability retirement multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service not in excess of 50 at the time of ordinary disability retirement, and group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the maximum number of years adjusted proportionally between 40 and 50 provided, however, that such allowance shall not be less than 25 percent of the member's final compensation at the time of his or her disability retirement.

7 Accidental Disability Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:6, II(d) to read as follows:

(d) Upon accidental disability retirement, the group II member shall receive an accidental disability retirement allowance equal to 2/3 of his or her average final compensation at the time of [his] disability retirement.

(1) For members who are in vested status before January 1, 2012, any group II member who has more than 26-2/3 years of service, a supplemental disability retirement allowance shall be paid. Such supplement shall be equal to 2-1/2 percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service in excess of 26-2/3 but not in excess of 40 years.

(2) For members who commenced service after December 31, 2011, any group II member who has more than 33-1/3 years of service, a supplemental disability retirement allowance shall be paid. Such supplement shall be equal to 2 percent of his or her average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his or her creditable service in excess of 33-1/3 but not in excess of 50 years.

(3) For group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 calculation of the supplemental allowance shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the number of years for the supplement adjusted proportionally.

8 Vested Deferred Retirement; Group II. Amend RSA 100-A:10, II(b) to read as follows:

(b) For members who are in vested status before January 1, 2012, upon the member's attainment of age 45, provided the member would then have completed 20 years of creditable service, otherwise the subsequent date on which such 20 years would have been completed, or for members who commenced service after December 31, 2011, upon the member's attainment of age 50, provided the member would then have completed 25 years of creditable service, otherwise the subsequent date on which such 25 years would have been completed, and group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d), or at any time after age 60, a group II member who meets the requirement of subparagraph (a) may make application on a form prescribed by the board of trustees and receive a vested deferred retirement allowance which shall consist of: (1) A member annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of accumulated contributions on the date the member's retirement allowance commences; and (2) A state annuity which, together with the member annuity, shall be equal to a service retirement allowance based on the member's average final compensation and creditable service at the time the member's service is terminated.

9 Split Benefits; Minimum Age. Amend RSA 100-A:19-b, II to read as follows:

II.(a) For a member who is in vested status before January 1, 2012 and, who has completed 20 or more years of combined creditable service, one year shall be deducted from age 60 for each year of creditable group II service, provided that the age shall not be less than 45 years.

(b) For a member who commenced service after December 31, 2011 and who has completed 25 or more years of combined creditable service, one year shall be deducted from age 60 for each year of creditable group II service, provided that the age shall not be less than 50 years.

(c) For group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012, minimum age shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with one year deducted from age 60 to not less than the adjusted minimum age.

10 Split Benefits; Reduced Early Retirement. Amend RSA 100-A:19-d to read as follows:

100-A:19-d Reduced Early Retirement. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any retirement system member who has creditable service in both group I and group II with at least 10 years combined creditable service, and who has attained an age which is at least 45 for members who are in vested status with group II service before September 1, 2011 or at least 50 for members who commenced group II service after December 31, 2011, and group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d), and is within 10 years of the minimum age set forth in RSA 100-A:19-b, may elect to retire and have benefits commence immediately as a reduced split-benefit service retirement allowance. Application shall be as provided in RSA 100-A:5, I(c). The allowance shall be determined as a split-benefit service retirement allowance in accordance with RSA 100-A:19-c, and the total combined split-benefit service allowance shall be reduced by the percentages shown in RSA 100-A:5, I(c), based on the total combined length of creditable service, for each month by which the date on which benefits commence precedes the month after which the member attains the minimum age set forth in RSA 100-A:19-b.

11 Financing; Member Contribution Rates; Group II Member Payroll Deduction. Amend RSA 100-A:16, I(a) to read as follows:

(a) The member annuity savings fund shall be a fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions deducted from the compensation of members to provide for their member annuities together with any amounts transferred thereto from a similar fund under one or more of the predecessor systems. Such contribution shall be, for each member, dependent upon the member's employment classification at the rate determined in accordance with the following table:

(1) ~~[Employees of employers other than the state 5.00
Employees of the state hired on or before June 30, 2009 5.00
Employees of the state hired after June 30, 2009 7.00
Teachers 5.00]~~

Group I members, 7.00

(2) ~~[Permanent Policemen 9.30
Permanent Firemen 9.30]~~

Group II members, 11.30

(aa) The board of trustees shall certify to the proper authority or officer responsible for making up the payroll of each employer, and such authority or officer shall cause to be deducted from the compensation of each member, except group II members who are in vested status before January 1, 2012 with creditable service in excess of 40 years and group II members who commenced service after December 31, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 50 years, and group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the maximum number of years adjusted proportionally between 40 and 50, as provided in RSA 100-A:5, II(b) and RSA 100-A:6, II(b), on each and every payroll of such employer for each and every payroll period, the percentage of earnable compensation applicable to such member. No deduction from earnable compensation under this paragraph shall apply to any group II member who is in vested status before January 1, 2012 with creditable service in excess of 40 years, and any group II member who commenced service after December 31, 2011 with creditable service in excess of 50 years, and group II members not in vested status on January 1, 2012 shall be as provided in the transition provisions in RSA 100-A:5, II(d) with the maximum number of years adjusted proportionally between 40 and 50, as provided in RSA 100-A:5, II(b) and RSA 100-A:6, II(b), and this provision for such members shall not affect the method of determining average final compensation as provided in RSA 100-A:1, XVIII. In determining the amount earnable by a member in a payroll period, the board may consider the rate of compensation payable to such member on the first day of a payroll period as continuing throughout the payroll period and it may omit deduction from compensation for any period less than a full payroll period if such person was not a member on the first day of the payroll period, and to facilitate the making of deductions it may modify the deduction required of any member by such an amount as shall not exceed 1/10 of one percent of the annual earnable compensation upon the basis of which such deduction is made. The amounts deducted shall be reported to the board of trustees. Each of such amounts, when deducted, shall be paid to the retirement system at such times as may be designated by the board of trustees and credited to the individual account, in the member annuity savings fund, of the member from whose compensation the deduction was made.

Amend RSA 100-A:27-a as inserted by section 19 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

100-A:27-a Return to Work; Suspension of Benefits. No person who retires after January 1, 2012 and is receiving retirement benefits under this chapter shall within 6 months of his or her retirement be employed by the state or another participating employer. Beginning January 1, 2012, no person shall be hired into a full-time position for which membership is required under RSA 100-A:3, or hired into a full-time state position for which membership is optional under RSA 100-A:3, I, while concurrently receiving a retirement benefit under this chapter. Benefits shall be suspended during any such period of employment.

Amend subparagraph I(b) of section 22 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) Three members of the house of representatives, each of whom shall be from the special committee on public employee pensions reform, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

Amend paragraph I of section 23 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. RSA 100-A:16, III-a, relative to employer assessments for excess benefits paid by employers in the retirement system.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 24 with the following:

25 Retirement System; Recalculation of Employer Rates; Recertification. Notwithstanding the notice requirements of RSA 100-A:16, III, the board of trustees of the retirement system shall recalculate employer contribution rates for the state fiscal years 2012 and 2013 to reflect the requirements of this act. Notwithstanding the notice requirements of RSA 100-A:16, III, such employer contribution rates shall be effective during the biennium beginning July 1, 2011, and the recertification of employer contribution percentages, applicable beginning January 1, 2012, shall be provided to each employer within a reasonable period of time not to exceed 30 days from January 1, 2012 and shall be calculated using most recent information available. The exception to the notice requirements of RSA 100-A:16, III in this section shall be limited to the applicable employer contribution rates for the biennium beginning July 1, 2011.

26 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1, 2, 4-10, 11, 19, and 20 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

II. Section 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2016.

III. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

2011-1221s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes various changes to the state retirement system including:

I. Increasing retirement ages of group II members for service retirement, disability retirement, vested deferred retirement, and split benefits.

II. Changing the definitions of earnable compensation and average final compensation used in calculating retirement benefits.

III. Changing the composition of the board of trustees.

IV. Eliminating the special account.

V. Eliminating the retirement system funding of medical benefits premium payments.

VI. Increasing contribution rates.

VII. Establishing committee to study the establishment of a federal tax qualified voluntary defined contribution plan administered by the board of trustees.

VIII. Limiting when a member in service may concurrently receive benefits.

Recess. Out of recess.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 3 Ought to Pass with Amendment. These changes are necessary so that we are able to establish two important goals: One, that we have a retirement system that is stable and viable, and two, that the burden of the unfunded liability is equitable and shared. This legislation helps stabilize the New Hampshire retirement system, which presently has a total unfunded liability of nearly $4.75 billion.

This bill as amended makes reasonable changes to the retirement system for teachers, firefighters, police officers, and other public employees, while not overburdening the taxpayers.

The amendment addresses technical and other necessary changes. The effective date for various sections in this bill has been moved to January 1st of 2012. The date has been changed to accommodate the retirement system in their quest for more time to implement the changes in the pension calculations. Due to the delay in the implementation of the changes to the system, the phase-in period of the increase in the employee contributions has been done away with; employee contributions increase to 7 percent for Group I and 11.3 percent for Group II. The amendment also calls for a recalculation and recertification of employer rates to account for the changes to the retirement system.

Now is the time to help the retirement system and move forward. Ten years ago, the funded ratio was at a healthy 89.9 percent, and now has dropped to 58.5 percent in 2009. If we do not act now, we will begin to impact New Hampshire's bond rating, driving up the cost of borrowing, and especially with Moody's recent announcement that they are beginning to consider unfunded pension liabilities in states' ratings. Given the enormity of the funding shortfall and the pending impact on property taxpayers, it is certainly appropriate to ask the beneficiaries with less than 10 years of service to share in the solution.

We, the Senate, are committed to meeting the retirement system's long-term obligations and making decisions based on the best interests of all stakeholders. Please support the Finance Committee motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise to speak against Senate Bill 3. You heard me speak against this before it went to Finance. My concerns remain the same.

We spent a great deal of time, two bienniums ago, working on the retirement system; we made a number of significant changes that would take this system and, over a 30-year period, would restore the system and make the system whole. I think the retirement system people who came to the Committee agreed with that, that we had made changes, significant changes, both in terms of how the money is invested through an investment committee; we put together a unique program having to do with the health coverage that becomes self-funding. So, we've made gigantic strides.

What this bill has done is created, in the corpus of those who are covered by the system, great concern about their ability to get their retirement. That didn't need to happen; we didn't need to do that. We made changes that made things better. Now what we've done is, I think, caused great concern about those who are getting ready and thinking about retirement. I mentioned this the last time: In the City of Manchester, we've got 83 firefighters who can retire. We've got 40 police officers who can retire. If they all left today, and they're all eligible for retirement, what burden would that put on the City in terms of the buyout provisions? That's something that concerns me. In the Town of Goffstown we have the same situation; they are the areas that I represent.

The term "vested" – what is the explanation? What is the clear definition of what "vesting" is? We've never heard that; it's not defined in statute. Does a system that says to the employee: "You're going to pay 2 percent more," and, on the fact of the employer, "You pay less"? One of the reasons we're in this predicament is because the employers paid less for a long period of time when this system was producing beyond the specified rate of return. We're also removing $89 million from the special account. That means there won't be any more COLAs! Special accounts were created for that.

These are the concerns that I have with this piece of legislation. We're all here to do the right thing. I applaud Senator Bradley for bringing this forward. We do need change. We know that; we recognized that two bienniums ago. And, we did move forward; the retirement system has made significant changes at this point in time. We're throwing around numbers like they're going out of style: $7 billion is the unfunded liability – somebody said that at a meeting I was at in Goffstown: "There's a $7 billion unfunded liability!" Count to 7 billion, I should have said to him! How do you know there's a $7 billion unfunded liability? That's nonsense; we don't have a $7 billion unfunded liability. The system is not going to collapse; we know it isn't going to collapse. Is it as good as it was in the past? No, we know that. Well, we had 120 percent! But, we don't have 120 percent any more. But, one of the reasons for that has been the contribution by the employers. Employees have always paid their contribution – always; that's always been paid; it's never been reduced.

For these reasons, Mister President, I ask that we think long and hard about this piece of legislation. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin for a question of Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Senator Morse, would it be accurate to say that if we pass this bill that we are eliminating the retirement system?

SENATOR MORSE: No.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin for a follow-up question of Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you for clarifying that for me. The second question is, if we did not pass this bill with the changes that it embodies, what would be the impact on the property taxpayers in our cities and towns?

SENATOR MORSE: It's twofold Senator. Obviously, if you look at the House's budget, the State, in passing an amendment much like ours, will be able to help those kids that we can't help right now in the budget. The towns will be able to calculate much clearer, knowing that it's 100 percent of base pay. Those are two important things that are going to happen in this phase of the budget.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Senator.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR LARSEN: So, following up on that question then, is one of the reasons for passing Senate Bill 3 to in fact reduce the...decrease the employer rates? You talked about the taxpayers; certainly we're all concerned about the taxpayers. Is one of the goals of Senate Bill 3 to decrease employer rates?

SENATOR MORSE: No, I don't believe that is the case. I do believe the case is we need to be stable in our payments, and I think that is something that we're concerned about locally, as local officials, and as state officials. The rise in costs – and, you do have to understand, Senator – the rise in costs on our communities have been over $200 million. That's a big cause of concern locally. They cannot afford to put any more on the tax base. And, selectmen and school district people have made it perfectly clear that they cannot afford increases like that any more. And, this bill will address that.

SENATOR LARSEN: And so, further question. So, in fact, it is to decrease employer rates, because you're seeking to reduce what you see as a heavy burden on the cities and towns?

SENATOR MORSE: No, Senator. If we didn't think the prices were increasing in all areas, then you could use that. But, the reality is, this has been an increase in our communities of over $200 million. It has not been a decrease. The towns in the state have not walked away from their share of the obligation.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a follow-up question of Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR LARSEN: So, if we pass Senate Bill 3, do you foresee that you will accomplish a rate decrease for the cities and towns?

SENATOR MORSE: If we pass Senate Bill 3, I think we've accomplished some stabilization in the retirement system, and I think that's what people are asking for at both ends, Senator. I honestly believe the retirees want to know where this is going. I think that's important to them, and as equally important is the people in the communities want to know when it's going to stop rising on them. And, I think that's what Senate Bill 3 will accomplish.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I just would reiterate comments I made before in the Senate, that this bill is about fairness for everyone, and there is a lot of stakeholders in the retirement system – arguably every person in New Hampshire is a stakeholder in the system; it's not just about people who pay into the system or receive benefits, it's about taxpayers – it's about a lot of different stakeholders. And, we have tried to be fair – that's been the number one objective of the ED&A Committee throughout this process, is to engage all stakeholders and hear their concerns and be as fair and objective as we could to each of them. And, I think that lost in a lot of this discussion again is the point that if we do nothing, we risk grave consequences down the road, some of which we're already seeing in some of our neighboring state – or, not neighboring, but other states in this country, where great acrimony is happening between the public sector and taxpayers. We don't want to go there. We're trying to head this off at the pass, so to speak. We see a problem, we're trying to do the right thing and make the solution now, not when it will be more painful and arguably Draconian. The time to act on this is now, when all stakeholders are minimally affected, relatively speaking; I think we've accomplished that. I strongly support this bill, I ask my colleagues to strongly support this bill.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to oppose, once again, although we had a full discussion as this came prior to Finance, but simply to rise to oppose Senate Bill 3.

If you look at even the amended analysis of Senate Bill 3, Senate Bill 3 increases retirement ages on Group II members, etc. Senate Bill 3 changes the definition of earnable compensation. People have been saying: "We need change; we need to change this system." And, when Senator Morse introduced the bill, he said the goal was to make the burden of unfunded liability – to make sure that the burden of unfunded liability is equitable and shared. I heard that word "shared"; that means employer and employee sharing the obligations to keep this fund stable and able to be used into the future. So, is it shared when the amended analysis alone says we're increasing retirement ages, we're changing the definition of earnable compensation, we are changing the composition of the board of trustees to add more people who are employers and to take away those whose voices are paying into the system in greater numbers? We are eliminating the special account of $89 million; that was a shared cost, which is going into the general fund, now. It eliminates the opportunity for cost-of-living increases for at least the next 30 years. By eliminating that special account, those who are living on $20,000 – retired teachers who retired so many years ago – they will never see a cost-of-living unless, through some largess by the Senate and House, we decide to just give them some extra general fund money.

We say we want this to be a shared benefit, but we are eliminating the medical benefits premium payment that we know many people counted on. We are eliminating increasing contribution rates – the contribution rates of employees. We are limiting when a member in service may concurrently receive benefits. In each case, we are going after those who have worked in public service for the State. The shared burden of balancing this is heavily upon the employee. And, it is not a shared burden in Senate Bill 3. And, I believe it is aimed at working to decrease employer rates. We all understand the forces that are causing this. And, quite honestly, one of the biggest forces causing this is healthcare cost increases. And, if you believe that we need to work on healthcare cost increases, that alone would solve so much of what is the pressures on school boards, on cities and towns: the cost of healthcare. But, it is not our job to place all of the burden on the employees, and that's what's happening with this bill, and that's why Senate Bill 3 is wrong, and we should not pass it today. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I'd like to just take a moment to address some of the issues that have been raised by both Senator Larsen and Senator D'Allesandro.

Much has been made about employer rates. I'd like to talk about where employer rates are going to be in fiscal year 2014 – in other words, two years from today – and then my good friends from Concord and Manchester can judge whether the burden is in fact a shared burden.

The rate for teachers, Senator Larsen, will be 13.6 percent of salary in two years. The rate for police officers will be 29.2 percent of salary, and the rate for firefighters will be 33.9 percent of salary. That's before the board adjusts the fact that for 20 years we have not met our investment return targets. And, when we had the discussion here two weeks ago, remember that two-thirds, roughly, of the income that a pension system earns is from investment income. And, because the assumed rate of return for 20 years was 8.5 percent, but the actual has been 7.8 percent, and really only 2.3 percent for the last 10 years; this is what could happen to rates when the board makes that adjustment. The rate for teachers could go to 16 percent; the rate for police officers could go to 34.3 percent; and the rate for firefighters could go to 39.3 percent. I would submit to my colleagues, those rates are unsustainable. And, I would submit to my good friend from Manchester, that's why the police chief of Manchester has talked to us about the fact, among other things, that there are 27 vacant positions right now in the Manchester Police Department and 14 vacant firefighter positions, because the cost, not just the salary, but the cost level for these employees has grown precipitously and will continue to grow. So, when people talk about a shared burden, ladies and gentlemen, the burden right now is crushing on employers, which means property taxpayers.

I'd like to address some of the other things that were brought up by both my good friends. And, maybe it would be good to go back, for all of us, if we could have been flies on the wall here, to the debate that probably occurred in this chamber in 2007 and 2008. Senator Larsen, you voted for a bill that changed the definition of "earnable compensation"; that's what you did. And, my good friend Senator D'Allesandro, you voted for a bill that moved $250 million from the special account into the corpus because of the IRS rulings and because the medical subsidy is an employer responsibility. We are doing, Senator, the same thing that you did several years ago, because today, that money, which was diverted from the corpus, the body of the pension plan, into the special account, has now become an employer responsibility. So, it never should have gone there in the first place per the IRS ruling. We are doing exactly what you did.

There was discussion about the medical subsidy, and I would remind my good friend from Concord: You eliminated the growth in the medical subsidy. We just continue the same policy that you established, because the medical subsidy has a $975 million unfunded liability with only about $50 million of assets in it. It's a bit of a problem. We are proposing to preserve the medical subsidy for those people who are receiving it or will be able to receive it in the future, but we follow your lead in terms of not allowing a growth factor to come back.

But, I really am most interested in what you talked about in terms of eliminating the special account. First of all, we don't do that. Again, we build upon your good efforts, Senator D'Allesandro's good efforts, and, quite frankly, the 24-0 majority of the Senate that voted to do this, both in 1645 and 643, to eliminate gain-share. What is gain-sharing? That's a fancy schmancy name for diverting money out of the main body of the pension fund into the special account to pay for benefits over and above what we were able to pay for. Now, I'm the first one to sit here and say that we have got to resolve the COLA issue. But, remember, it was legislation that both of you had sponsored that changed the COLAs in the last biennium to 1.5 percent of the first $30,000, and eliminating gain-sharing for the foreseeable future. That's what you did. We're just preserving that and making sure that a pension plan that depends on two-thirds of its investment income to be whole and viable and do what a pension plan is supposed to do, it actually can do. You did it, and we're making sure that it stays in the future.

Now, there's been some discussion this morning about the payment holiday that the cities and towns took. And, I'd really like to address that. Because, that goes back to a time that probably only Senator Barnes, Senator Larsen, Senator D'Allesandro and myself actually were in this building. When the Legislature set an actuarial methodology that understated the future true costs, it should have been removed after a temporary use of it; it wasn't. So, when it finally was removed, yes, city and town rates went up, and they're going up and up and up to the level that I just described. We all know that happened. But, at the same time, the gain-sharing provision. When years were good in the retirement system, and the few years that there were that exceeded the 8.5 percent assumed return, money was diverted from the pension fund and put into the special account. You blocked it. And, guess what? The very people that are arguing so loudly – our friends who are labor union officials – who are arguing so loudly that cities and towns got a payroll holiday, now seem to think, in Merrimack Superior Court, that there is a constitutionally protected right to divert money out of our pension system. It is no wonder why we're in the predicament that we're in.

Now, I heard my good friend say that he has heard people claim that there's a $7 billion unfunded liability. That actual unfunded liability in our pension system – pensions plus medical subsidy – is $4.7 billion. And, I'd be happy to share, Senator D'Allesandro, with you these books – show you right where it is. I will tell you this: It ain't nighttime reading, but it'll give you nightmares. Because, as we look out into the future, this is the unfunded liability that we face. Now, you made a lot of very good changes. I would suggest, though, that you didn't go far enough, because in 2007 and 8, the unfunded liability was about $2.7 billion, and then $3 billion in 2008. Right now, it's $4.7 billion. When the investment return on assumptions are factored in, it will increase by nearly another billion dollars depending on the investment rate that the board pays. This is a burden that will mean several things: It will make our pension system unstable; it will make it increasingly difficult for cities and towns, for counties and the State to be able to pay for the retirement costs of employees, and we see the job losses that are coming – I cited your fair City of Manchester and the vacant positions.

These are the ramifications that we face if we don't make these changes today. We have made this as fair as humanly possible. We will continue to be open to any good suggestions as legislation comes our way from the House to try to improve a bill. But, at the end of the day, the goal that those of you who were here in the past tried to establish in 2007 and 2008 has got to be our goal: a viable retirement system without all of the unfunded burden falling on the backs of property taxpayers. That's what Senate Bill 3 does; that's what this amendment does, and I commend it to you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. And, thank you, Senator Bradley; I appreciate your enunciation and articulation. Wonderful; one of the reasons why we should never consider a consent calendar, because we need this kind of discussion; we need this kind of debate; it's very desirable. And, you did state some improvements we made to the system. And, I don't think there's anybody out there who doesn't believe that there does have to be some change, and I think both the employees and the employer believe that. But, let me tell you some of the most significant things that put us in the situation that we're in today.

For 15 years – for 15 years – the contributions by the employers were artificially low – 15 years, okay? 15 years. Employees continued to pay at their rate, whatever their rate was: 5 percent, 9.75 percent. So, for 15 years, we had a situation where the employees were here and the employers were here. Do we expect the pension to be completely corrected overnight? Absolutely not; can't happen. We've got a significant liability; we know about that. So, what changes did we make to try to address this? And, certainly, the development of the independent investment committee was a significant move, as Senator Bradley points out very articulately. Where's the money going to come from? Basically, the investment policy has to be the key. If the employer and the employee are giving – Senator White, you know that; that doesn't handle the retirement benefit. It's got to be return on investment. So, we have an independent investment committee that's in place now that's going to shore up the fund; we have confidence that we're going to do that. So, we've done some good things. And, we did move $250 million over; yes, I agree. And, I did vote for that. And, that, in essence, helped us move along this path. Of course, we're being sued for that, but it was the right thing to do. I'm not afraid of being sued if I think it's the right thing to do. And, that's why I believe strongly that some of the things here aren't the right thing to do; we need to spend more time and effort creating a situation where we're doing the right thing by getting all of the parties together. And, I know that Chief Mara did visit you, because he called me. I said, "You've got to talk to Senator Bradley! He'll listen!" And, I know that the Chief did speak with you; I encouraged him to do that, because I think open dialogue creates positive solutions. And, I think we need more open dialogue in this case. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator Bradley, do you believe that this bill will decrease the unfunded liability in the system?

SENATOR BRADLEY: The analysis that's come back from the actuaries of the retirement system – let me see if I can find the numbers for you – will reduce the unfunded liability in the original version of the bill, and they have not actually run the amended version, although they have told us that it's relatively similar. We will ask for an actuarial update based on what we actually take today. $4.7 billion unfunded liability right now; the pension liability will be reduced by about $407 million, and the unfunded medical subsidy liability will be reduced by $302 million. That's in a snapshot that is taken immediately. Obviously, the actuarial numbers change over time, but it's going to have a very stabilizing impact on the system. And, the other thing that I would add, too, maybe pre-guessing your next question, is that employer rates are going to continue to be extremely high, they just won't continue to spike to the level that I described previously. And, I would submit, just as you tried to achieve a bipartisan consensus to attack a problem that was fundamental to the State four years ago, the problem has just gotten worse, unfortunately, despite your good efforts. And, I would urge you not to undo the work that you did a couple of years ago by diverting money back into the special account. You opposed that several years ago by reinstituting the growth rate in the medical subsidy, which you opposed several years ago. And, most particularly, in not locking the door on the ability to divert money out of the pension system.

Senator D'Allesandro, who is as eloquent as there is, has talked about the employer holiday, so-called. But, just as big a problem is the $900 million that was diverted out of the corpus, the body of the pension plan, to pay for these higher benefits that you tried to block, and did, several years ago, which, admittedly, the State is being sued about – wrongfully, in my view. Don't undo that today, Senator Larsen, by voting against this bill. Don't undo the good work that you started on several years ago.

SENATOR LARSEN: Would you believe that I believe we set ourselves on a path for funded liabilities and for a stable system, we made significant changes with significant contributions and concessions from both entities. I do not believe at this point we are aiming our goals towards that shared contribution. But, my further question was, then, you mentioned that this will avoid spikes. So, aren't we really doing this to reduce employer rates?

SENATOR BRADLEY: If you believe that for firefighters a rate of nearly 40 percent is appropriate for employers which, let's face it, they're taxpayers, and if you believe that the rate for police officers at 35 percent is appropriate, and if you believe that the rate for teachers, which will approach 16 percent when the rate of return issue is done, if you believe those rates are appropriate and sustainable, then I think you would vote no; you'd vote against the bill. But, several years ago, I think, when faced with a similar situation and an unfunded liability that was basically one half of what it is four short years later, you chose to say: "We've got to tackle this problem." That's what we're doing today. I would have wished, Senator, that you would have been somewhat more aggressive several years ago, and maybe have changed the age requirements for new workers. Had you done that four years ago – and, there was a lot of pressure to do it, but obviously more pressure not to do it – we might not be debating changing the age requirements. And, the fact of the matter is that the unfunded liability continues to grow to 2024. We have got to resolve that issue as best as possible. And, it's not going to be done overnight; this has got to be a shared effort that involves all parties of the system. And, let's not forget what we're about here. The main and most important policy that we're trying to do is to make sure that the retirement system is stable and viable for retirees today and in the future, and that the crushing burden that employers, ie: taxpayers are facing is not so extreme that we have to continue to cut services and people losing their jobs. That's what's happening.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a follow-up question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Would you believe that I was not – follow-up question, only to clarify that I was not around here for the payment holiday. I may be here a long time, but I was not here for that, and I would have voted against it.

SENATOR BRADLEY: I would believe that.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Senator Bradley, in parts of my District, and I'm sure everybody in their districts, are seeing people, good people – firefighters, policemen, teachers – losing jobs, because this cost is unsustainable. My question to you is this, Senator, and by the way, I think you correctly said that it's not the employer that's the issue as much as the taxpayers. So, my question is: If we do nothing, what are the trajectory of those rates? I know you went out a couple years – is 30 percent in two years going to be 40 percent or 45 percent two years out? What will happen if we don't fix the problem now?

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you for that question. Much of what happens depends on investment returns on Wall Street. So, if the pension recovers somewhat, that may put some downward pressure on rates. But, I think it's safe to say, and certainly all of the charts in this book point to extraordinarily high employer rates for a long time; in fact, the 30-year life of the actuarial funding cycle that has been established by the previous pieces of legislation. And, I would point out again to you as I did to Senator D'Allesandro, as you have Manchester in your District, 27 police officers not having jobs, vacant positions in Manchester, and 14 firefighters is a public safety concern. And, I'm not going to stand here and say retirement costs are the only thing; I think Senator Larsen pointed out that healthcare costs are also an important concern. But, at rates approaching 40 percent and 35 percent, which they could well be in the future, it's unsustainable; it's simply unsustainable.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Senator.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Groen.)

SENATOR GROEN: My esteemed colleague from Manchester has said a number of times that, you know, we need to have a system that recognizes and protects those who are currently in the system, both retirees and existing workers. Now, I want to address that here. First of all, the protection of employees who are currently retired. The average teacher retirement – according to the system – the average teacher retirement as of 2010 for all who are retired is $21,000; the system is currently funded to pay $12,000. I don't think that's a healthy system. The average police retiree currently is $33,000; the system is funded to pay $19,000. That's not healthy. The average fire retiree is $34,000; it's currently funded for $20,000. That's not healthy.

We need to fix this system to protect this system for the current retirees. We also need to fix this system to protect the positions of the active members. Projected for 2015, under current law, without the change in the projected rate of return – currently 8.5 percent projected, should be, I believe 7.75 or 7.5, based on historical record. But, without that change, the projected rate for teachers is 14 percent. That means for every seven teachers that pay into the retirement system, we're paying for a position. Now, considering that there's 19,000 teachers in our system, that's the equivalent of 2,600 positions that the retirement system is costing. That's going to have a severe impact on keeping positions filled of teachers.

For police, for every 3.5 workers, we're paying for another worker in the retirement system by 2015. Out of 4,200 police active in the retirement system, that's 1,235 that it's costing us – the equivalent of 1,235. For firemen, for every three firemen, we're paying for another one in retirement system costs. And, again, for 1,600 firemen, that's 550 positions.

So, for protection of the people currently in the system, we have to fix this; this is not an option. This is also good for our taxpayer constituents, because that's what it comes down to: the cities and towns, as has been pointed out, are paid for by our taxpayers. First of all, it's going to help keep the retirement system costs from spiraling out of control, and they are spiraling out of control. The rates we're talking about are obscene; they're way too high. They aren't affordable; they will result in less positions. Secondly, we're protecting the taxpayers by helping to keep municipal workers and teachers and policemen and firemen employed. They won't stay employed if these rates skyrocket as we're looking at; positions will be cut. So, we're helping taxpayers in both of those senses.

Now, another thing we've done in this amendment is we've changed the date, and we've moved it out six months. A number of us have heard input from active members that for those who are near retirement, it doesn't give them adequate time when the projected date of implementation was July 1. So, it's moved back to January 1; it gives them six months to think through this and make a wise decision for their retirement.

A final thing: You know, there are four legs to what caused the problem – four legs to the stool that caused the problem. One is investment returns, and they've been pretty poor over the last few years. The second one is lower than needed employer contributions, which, again, I want to point out that the employers paid exactly what they were told to. They paid exactly what they were told to by the system. So, that we had an incorrect method, I agree, but they paid what they were told to. Now, the third thing is the amount of money that was skimmed off the retirement system: $900 million. But, that isn't $900 million; that money started coming off in the early '80s. The current value of that, and I tried to get a number from the retirement system, but it's somewhere between $2.1 and $2.5 billion; that would solve half of the unfunded liability problem; that's at least as big of a problem as the low employer rates, in my opinion. So, the fourth leg is the retirement board. Yes, there are changes to the retirement board; they're much needed changes. We have a retirement board whose sole fiduciary responsibility is to protect the system for employees; that's their job. They didn't do that. They didn't cry out when the employer rates were too low; they didn't cry out and say: "These are too low." They didn't vote against rates that were too low. So, we're making some changes to the board. The stakeholders in the board are employers as well as employees, because when the retirement system isn't healthy, the current system says employers pay the rate of what it takes to make it healthy. So, when we look at those things, it's a good thing to change the board; it's a good thing to give broad representation on the board. This is a good bill; it's fair to everybody, and it's especially fair, I believe, to people who are currently in the system and to people who are retired, because they're going to have a system there for their retirement. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. We've been talking about the employer rates. And, I have a chart here – many of you have seen this – and this shows the employer rates and the employee rates. And, when I was back in school learning math and area, if anybody remembers area, which is the area below a line, when you look – and, I'd be happy to furnish this to anybody who'd like to see it – the area below the line for Group II employees is so much larger than what the employers paid and what the employees paid in. That is the upward line, that is a picture of unsustainability. We see this all over the nation; we're hearing this in Washington, and that is a huge jump – a huge jump – for Group II employees. We have to fix this. These are the numbers from the New Hampshire retirement system. My wife is in the system; she's a teacher. She says to me: "Save this system." Because she can see it as an employee; it's going to go away if we don't fix this. And, we've got to deal with this.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I think the discussion clearly indicates that we need change; the question is, what is that change going to be? And, I think one thing has to be clarified here. These employees are taxpayers. You know, there seems to be some thought that they don't pay taxes. Well, they do pay property taxes. Most of these employees own homes, they're active members of the community, and they are participants. So, they're paying on both ends; they're paying their contribution and they're paying their local property taxes. Now, let's give credit where credit is due. They're not sponging off the system; they are participating. They're participating at both levels: They're paying their taxes and they're paying their contribution. I think that should be perfectly clear. Everyone here understands there's a problem. The question is, how do you solve the problem? We have different methodologies to do that. I hope at the end of the day we come to a meeting of the minds with the problem solved, and that everyone gets to move forward with regard to this: those that are retired, those that are thinking about retiring. And, the problems with the cities and towns, pension plays a role, but boy, that role is far beyond pension. One of the things is, how do you get damn good qualified candidates to fill these jobs? Who wants to be a police officer today, you know? Who wants to be a police officer? Look at the number of police officers killed in the line of duty in the last six months. It's a very, very dangerous job. To get a good candidate, to train that good candidate, to get that good candidate to stay with you, you've got to have a good system, and that good pension system is a very attractive situation in terms of bringing those people to our city. And, we do have a lot of vacancies in our city; I agree – Senator Bradley points that out. I'd like to see those vacancies filled, because the public safety is really my concern. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I've been listening very carefully to what my colleagues have said about this, and nowhere in the last 45 minutes did I hear anything about somebody saying that our employees are sponging, and I am a little concerned about that and a little upset that that comment was made. I didn't hear that from either our Democratic folks sitting here or our Republican folks. Sponging was never brought up, and it was never brought forward – and I think that should deserve a recall of that comment; I don't think it was appropriate, and it's embarrassing to me to have that comment made here.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: If I recall, before the scrumptious lunch, we had finished work on Senate Bill 3. We have a number of bills left to go, a number that were Special-Ordered. Without objection, the bills that were Special-Ordered will stay Special-Ordered 'til the end of the Calendar to allow people time to continue working on amendments.

SENATOR BARNES: I think we all should say "Thank You" to you for that great lunch that you as the Senate President put on and for that great birthday cake for our two great Senators that are now a year older. And, if you clap loud enough, he might do it again! So, let's hear it real loud.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you. I will deflect all praise for that to our staff, who does a great job handling things like that and making you think that I did it.

Amendment to SB 52-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Parole of Prisoners; Terms of Release. Amend RSA 651-A:6, I(b) to read as follows:

(b) A prisoner convicted of a nonviolent offense who has not been previously convicted of a sexually violent offense as defined in RSA 135-E:2, XI, aggravated felonious sexual assault pursuant to RSA 632-A:2, felonious sexual assault pursuant to RSA 632-A:3, sexual assault pursuant to RSA 632-A:4, I(a)-(b), kidnapping pursuant to RSA 633:1, I, first degree assault pursuant to RSA 631:1, I, possession of child sexual abuse images pursuant to RSA 649-A:3, I, or distribution of child sexual abuse images pursuant to RSA 649-A:3-a, I shall be released on parole upon serving 120 percent of the minimum term of his or her sentence, minus any credits received pursuant to RSA 651-A:23, plus the disciplinary period added to such minimum under RSA 651:2, II-e, any part of which is not reduced for good conduct as provided in RSA 651-A:22, unless the parole board votes to deny such release.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 52 Ought to Pass with Amendment. We as a body have worked together to create legislation that ensures public safety for our citizens here in New Hampshire. The bill restores the parole's discretion to deny parole to the most dangerous offenders. The only change the amendment makes is to expand the parole board's discretion to deny parole to inmates who have committed a larger number of offenses. The offenses are either sex crimes or the most violent of assault crimes, including homicides. Those offenses are now specifically enumerated in this bill.

The Department is not currently able to determine the precise fiscal impact of this bill, as it cannot predict how the parole board will choose to exercise its restored discretion. The Department states the marginal cost, cost of medical, dental, food, clothing, and inmate pay for an individual in the general prison population for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2010 was $2,439. The Judicial Council states this bill may result in an indeterminable increase in general fund expenditures as the parole board provides greater discretion to recommit individuals to prison for violating parole and in court for any new charges.

Please support the committee motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise in support of the bill as amended. I visited the prison yesterday and spoke with the warden. I asked him about this and what kind of an effect it would have on his population. He thought that these changes were good and that they're workable.

Since we put in Senate Bill 500, we've had a better situation in both Concord and in Berlin as far as population is concerned, and the bill seems to be working. If this enhances the bill, this is a good thing. But, remember that our concern has always been the dynamic recidivism rate that takes place in New Hampshire. When you're recidivism is at 57 and 60 percent, something's wrong. So, this change will help, the changes we made last time will help, and I'm supportive of that because I think it's in the best interest of the public. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I think it was a very laudatory goal last year with Senate Bill 500, which was to try to find some efficiencies and cost savings in our prisons' corrections system, and I don't think any of us in this room would disagree with that. But, when we put the safety of our public at risk, which that bill did, by allowing people to be released early without the approval of the parole board, that is wrong. And, I have to say that I think most of you would agree with me – you had the same experience – there was no piece of legislation that I got more phone calls, more emails on my inbox, than on this one alone. So, I appreciate the Committee's work on this, and the amendment I support, and the bill as amended, and I urge all of the Senators to support this legislation. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I'm so happy to see that this group is going to vote on a better bill than what came through here, in my opinion – only my opinion – last time around. And, I'm glad to see the parole boards have some authority given back to them where it belongs in the first place. And, I'm going to appreciate everyone voting for this bill that cleans up the mess that I think was made earlier.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I would simply rise to point out that, in fact, Senate Bill 500 has accomplished much of what it set out to do. If you look at the populations in Berlin, in Concord, and at the Women's Prison, we now have reduced numbers of people behind those bars and more people under community supervision and able to monitor how they're performing in the community. So, while I recognize the importance of adjustments – that's always true in a major bill, and revisions – it is a bill which has caused reductions both in our populations and improved supervision. Thank you.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds qualified community development entities to the definition of "qualified investment company" under the business profits tax and the business enterprise tax. The bill also clarifies the a New Hampshire resident investor in a qualified investment company is only taxable on his or her proportionate share of interest and dividend income earned by the qualified investment company.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 58-FN-A Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill addresses two tax issues. This bill clarifies that entities established, controlled, and managed by the New Hampshire Business Finance Authority for the sole purpose of participating in a federal tax credit program for economic development would not be subject to the business profits tax or the business enterprise tax. The bill accomplishes this objective by adding these special BFA qualified community development entities to the definition of "qualified investment company" under the business profits tax and business enterprise tax statutes.

The new markets tax credit is a federal program that is designed to help spur economic development in low-income areas. Under the program, the Business Finance Authority must establish the aforementioned entities in order to facilitate investment in local projects by third parties. The intent of this bill is to ensure that these entities will not be subject to the business profits tax, the business enterprise tax, or the interest and dividends tax. The ultimate recipient of the investment funds will continue to be subject to the taxes. Pretty interesting.

The bill as amended by the Finance Committee also addresses a second issue. It amends the interest and dividends tax statute to clarify that New Hampshire residents who are investors in qualified investment companies only pay interest and dividends tax on their share of the interest and dividends earned by the qualified investment company. Recently, a question has arisen about whether such an investor might have to pay interest and dividends tax on capital gains earned by a qualified investment company. Such a result would be inconsistent with the purposes and policy of the interest and dividends tax, and this amendment would clarify that only interest and dividends are taxable under the interest and dividends tax.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. And, after you've approved the amendment, I will bring forward a floor amendment to address one last problem. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Floor Amendment to SB 58-FN-A

Amend the bill by replacing section 4 with the following:

4 Taxation of Income; What Taxable. Amend RSA 77:4, V to read as follows:

V. For each holder of an ownership interest in a qualified investment company as defined in RSA 77-A:1, XXI [~~which is not a qualified investment capital company as defined in RSA 77-A:1, XXIV~~], which holder is subject to tax under RSA 77, the holder's proportional share of the interest or dividend income taxable under this chapter, less any income attributable to United States government notes or bonds, [of] received by such qualified investment company shall be treated as a dividend taxable under this chapter to the holder; however, notwithstanding any other provision of RSA 77, no actual distribution made to such holder by such qualified investment company shall be taxable under RSA 77.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. 1276 addresses, in a sense, a typographical error. We were trying to amend in the committee amendment a statute that does not exist; we now have identified the elusive statute, and this bill will amend that statute correctly. Thank you, Mister President.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: While it's being distributed, I will note that Senator D'Allesandro had expressed concern that the retirement bill might have ended up on the Consent Calendar. And, I will point out to the body that the vote was 3-2 in committee, thus it would not qualify for the Consent Calendar.

SB 76-FN, relative to the authority of the department of revenue administration to adopt rules and to administer state tax laws. Ought to Pass, Vote 7-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 76 Ought to Pass. The bill requires the adoption of tax forms pursuant to RSA 541-A, and the Department to adopt a form for the summary filing of business profits and business enterprise taxes by a business organization to be in compliance. Senate Bill 76 repeals legislation which was passed in 2010 and provided a $5,000 fine for not complying with new form requirements, which caused a burden on financial tax filing requirements for New Hampshire taxpayers.

By passing this legislation, it will require the Department of Revenue Administration stand before JLCAR to seek legislative approval for its actions. Any proposed administrative rule which would increase any fee, authorize the assessment of fines, or impose any penalty on taxpayers shall require legislative approval prior to adoption. There will be no fiscal impact on county and local expenditures or revenue.

Please support the Committee's motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to SB 154-FN

Amend RSA 483-B:9, V(g)(2) as inserted by section 19 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(2) If the impervious surface area will exceed 20 percent, but is less than 30 percent, a stormwater management system shall be implemented and maintained which is designed to infiltrate increased stormwater from development occurring after the effective date of this paragraph in accordance with rules established by the department under RSA 485-A:17.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 154-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 154 creates a clear, complete approach to reforming the Act, meets the goals of protecting water quality, the shoreline environment, and maintaining traditional property rights. The bill enhances the Act while not weakening provisions that have helped make New Hampshire's water quality what it is today.

The amendment inserts language in section 19 of the bill, providing a very clear clarification that does not alter any other provisions. The Department of Environmental Services states the bill as amended will have no measurable fiscal impact on revenue and expenditures, as application fees would continue at current levels, and there would be no new permitting processes or exemptions that would affect the number of applications filed. The Department notes there is a provision to refund application fees for projects denied under certain specific circumstances. The Department indicates it has historically denied fewer than 2 percent of all applications received, and only a small percentage of those denials would qualify for a refund. Therefore, the Department states that if there is any fiscal impact, it would be negligible.

Amendment to SB 156-FN-LOCAL

Amend RSA 259:29-b as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

259:29-b EVR Integrator. "EVR integrator" shall mean an electronic vehicle registration integrator who provides necessary hardware, software, software updates, or network connections between dealer agents, the department, and towns for the electronic transmittal and receipt of registration and title data and money.

Amend RSA 261:74-h as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

261:74-h Appointment of Dealer Agents. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 261:148, subject to the direction and approval of the commissioner, the director may appoint retail vehicle dealers meeting the requirements of RSA 261:103-a as agents to process electronically through EVR integrators motor vehicle registrations, permits for registration, or registration transfers and title applications in conjunction with the sale of a new or used vehicle by said dealer. The director shall consult with the New Hampshire City and Town Clerks' Association and the New Hampshire Automobile Dealers Association prior to approving the appointment of any dealer agent. Any permits issued by a dealer agent shall indicate that it was processed by a dealer agent. No dealer shall be permitted to act as a dealer agent unless the department of safety has implemented an agreement with an EVR integrator.

Amend RSA 261:74-n, II as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. When a dealer agent processes motor vehicle registrations, permits for registration, transfers of registration, and title applications the applicable town or city or clerk shall receive the following fees through the dealer agent and the EVR integrator: the registration permit fee under RSA 261:153, I, the town clerk fee under RSA 261:152, the town clerk and dealer title application fees under RSA 261:4, IV, the municipal agent fee under RSA 261:74-d, and, when applicable, the waste reclamation fee under RSA 261:153, V, the municipal transportation improvement fee under RSA 261:153, VI, the collection of permit fees in unorganized places under RSA 261:160, and the public parking facilities fee under RSA 261:154. The town or city may use the fees received under this paragraph to offset the expenses of examination and auditing of the EVR program, if required. Towns, cities, and the state shall inform the EVR integrator annually as to the details of the fees listed in this paragraph and provide timely notice to the EVR integrator of any changes to fees.

Amend RSA 261:74-s, I as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. Upon approval of the attorney general and governor and council, the department may enter into an agreement with an electronic vehicle registration integrator to provide, at no cost to the state, any necessary hardware, software, or network connections between dealer agents, the department, and towns for the electronic transmittal and receipt of registration and title data and money. The electronic vehicle registration integrator shall be authorized in the agreement to collect and transfer funds electronically from the dealers to the department, towns, cities, or town clerks, where appropriate. RSA 261:141-b and RSA 80:52-c shall not apply to electronic transfers to or from an electronic vehicle registration integrator or a dealer agent. Electronic vehicle registration integrators shall transmit funds within one business day of the completion of the registration to the appropriate entity if the entity accepts electronic transfers of funds and within 20 days to any other entity. The transmittal of funds by an EVR integrator to a town or city or the state pursuant to this section shall not be considered a delegation of a town's, city's, or state's deposit function as set forth in RSA 41:29.

Amend RSA 261:74-s as inserted by section 5 of the bill by inserting after paragraph V the following new paragraph:

VI. The EVR integrator shall be responsible for all reasonable costs, as determined by the commissioner in consultation with the EVR integrator, of the state and towns for:

(a) The development, implementation, and integration of, and ongoing maintenance required to effectively operate, the EVR program; and

(b) Software modifications necessary to integrate EVR program monies and data into software used by towns to transmit registration data to the state.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 156 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 156 creates an electronic vehicle registration program to give New Hampshire residents and businesses the option to register their just-purchased vehicle at New Hampshire dealerships. The towns will receive all the fees they currently receive now, including the registration fee, town clerk fee, municipal agent fee, and any other fees.

Significant amendments were made to this bill in the Commerce Committee to satisfy town clerks' concerns that money and data are properly collected and remitted and that clerks have input into all levels of the EVR program.

The Finance Committee amendment addressed the town clerks' fiscal concerns and spelled out more clearly how town finances will improve by providing further clarification that each town will receive the $2 dealer portion of the title fee, which doubles the towns' title fee proceeds. A town that registers 5,000 just-purchased cars through the EVR system will receive $10,000 more in income. This can be used to offset auditing expenses, if any. And, the EVR vendor will be responsible for all reasonable costs to the towns or the State for the development, implementation, and ongoing maintenance required in order to effectively operate the EVR program, and any software modifications necessary to integrate the money and data into the software used by the towns to transmit data to the State.

SB 160-FN, relative to the definition and regulation of installment loans. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-3. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 160 Ought to Pass. This legislation defines and regulates installment loans and allows for a unique installment loan model that offers extended repayment terms and enables a customer to make a series of relatively equal payments over the course of a loan term rather than one full payment.

The legislation includes a number of strong consumer safeguards. This will promote an environment of responsible lending to responsible borrowers. Not only will Senate Bill 160 allow short-term lending companies to assist families during unexpected and period financial difficulty, it will promote economic growth within our state.

Please join the Finance Committee in voting for Senate Bill 160 Ought to Pass.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise in opposition – shocking – to Senate Bill 160, hoping that the third time is the charm. You'll all recall, I trust, the reasons for my opposition to this type of loan, including – and, I promise I'll be brief – prudence of having an interest rate cap in statute so that we don't invite triple-digit interest rate products, what is good for the United States military personnel being good for New Hampshire residents, we should want to prevent borrowers from getting caught in a debt trap they can't get out of. I would note, in our conversations earlier today surrounding Senate Bill 3, there was a lot of discussion about the concern for taxpayers. Welfare administrators are on record that the types of financial hardship that people end up with end up in town office looking for help with the situation made much worse because of payday/installment or car title loans. Taxpayers subsidize this industry's victims.

Now, none of these arguments have seemed to work, so I'm just going to throw one more thing and see what sticks. We represent voters, of course. In a recent poll, 64 percent of those polled by NTS research in D.C. want to keep existing law, which caps interest rates at 36 percent APR per year. Please don't vote for these particular businesses; please vote for New Hampshire residents. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott for a question of Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: In the bill, it reads $15 per $100 charged per week. Is that how we would calculate the interest rate by the end of a certain term of a loan?

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you for the question, Senator Prescott. When I use the numbers that I use, which are the triple-digit interest rates, I use an APR. So, that's extrapolated out from what the rate per 100 is to what a rate on an APR basis would be.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott for a follow-up question of Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Could you repeat that APR? What's the value?

SENATOR HOUDE: Yes, absolutely. I believe – if you give me one second – I have an interest rate of 403 percent annually, assuming the loan is renewed for the maximum period of time for 14-day periods – and I'm just looking for an amount – $15, 50 per 100. 403, to answer your question, Senator.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: 403 percent. Thank you very much, Senator. I appreciate it.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you.

Amend the bill by replacing sections 2-5 with the following:

2 Uncompensated Care Fund; Definitions. Amend RSA 167:63, IV to read as follows:

IV. "Hospital" means general hospitals and special hospitals for rehabilitation required to be licensed under RSA 151 [~~and receiving medicaid diagnosis related group (DRG) payments~~], but not including government facilities and hospitals excluded from taxation under RSA 84-A pursuant to federal approval of a waiver of the broad-based requirement as described in 42 C.F.R. section 433.68.

3 Uncompensated Care Fund; Rehabilitation Hospitals Deleted. Amend RSA 167:64, I(d) to read as follows:

(d) The commissioner may provide reimbursement for uncompensated care costs in accordance with the approved schedule of payments through either Medicaid fee for service rate adjustments or disproportionate share hospital payment adjustments, or a combination thereof. Funds available under this section shall be [first] allocated to ensure that critical access hospitals [~~and rehabilitation hospitals~~] receive reimbursement for reported uncompensated care costs at the rate of 100 percent of the individual hospital limit for disproportionate share payments as determined by the commissioner consistent with the provisions of 42 U.S.C. section 1396r-4(g). Non-critical access hospitals shall receive reimbursement at the highest uniform percentage of each hospital limit as the funds made available under this section permit. The commissioner may create additional categories of need and make further reasonable distinctions among hospitals when determining the methodology for payments under this section, as necessary, to ensure that no hospital is unduly burdened by the fiscal effect of uncompensated care costs.

4 Uncompensated Care Fund; Duties of Commissioner. Amend RSA 167:65, II to read as follows:

II-a. Submit a waiver calculation pursuant to the process outlined in 42 C.F.R. section 433.68 for the purpose of waiving RSA 84-A, Medicaid enhancement tax liability for Hampstead hospital, Healthsouth Rehabilitation hospital, Northeast Rehabilitation hospital, and New Hampshire hospital, no later than September 30, 2011.

5 Medicaid Enhancement Tax. Amend RSA 84-A:1, III to read as follows:

III. "Hospital" means general hospitals and special hospitals for rehabilitation that provide inpatient and outpatient hospital classes of health care services consistent with the requirements of 42 C.F.R. section 433.56 and the Medicaid state plan definitions of inpatient hospital and outpatient hospital services, required to be licensed under RSA 151 ~~[and receiving medicaid diagnosis related group (DRG) payments]~~, but not including government facilities and hospitals excluded from taxation under this chapter pursuant to federal approval of a waiver of the broad-based requirement as described in 42 C.F.R. section 433.68.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows exclusion of rehabilitation hospitals by federal waiver from the uncompensated care fund and clarifies the application of the Medicaid enhancement tax.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 165 Ought to Pass with Amendment. We have strived to make the New Hampshire DISH Program responsive to both federal regulations as well as trying to address the impact on uncompensated care on the hospital network.

This bill as amended allows exclusion of certain rehabilitation hospitals by federal waiver from the uncompensated care fund and clarifies the application of the Medicaid enhancement tax. With the combined effort from the New Hampshire Hospital Association, Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Revenue, this bill provides clarity for all parties involved and is consistent with federal law.

Amend the title of the resolution by replacing it with the following:

RELATING TO: public education.

PROVIDING THAT: the general court shall have the authority to define standards for public education, establish standards of accountability, mitigate local disparities in educational opportunity and fiscal capacity, and shall have full discretion to determine the amount of state funding for education.

Amend the resolution by replacing all after the resolving clause with the following:

I. That the second part of the constitution be amended by inserting after article 5-b the following new article:

[Art.] 5-c [Public Education.] In fulfillment of the provisions with respect to education set forth in Part II, Article 83, the general court shall have the authority, responsibility, and discretion to define reasonable standards for elementary and secondary public education, to establish reasonable standards of accountability therefor, and to mitigate local disparities in educational opportunity and fiscal capacity. Further, in the exercise thereof, the general court shall have full discretion to determine the amount of, and methods of raising and distributing, State funding for education.

II. That the above amendment proposed to the constitution be submitted to the qualified voters of the state at the state general election to be held in November, 2012.

III. That the selectmen of all towns, cities, wards, and places in the state are directed to insert in their warrants for the said 2012 election an article to the following effect: To decide whether the amendments of the constitution proposed by the 2011 session of the general court shall be approved.

IV. That the wording of the question put to the qualified voters shall be:

"Are you in favor of amending the second part of the constitution by inserting after article 5-b a new article to read as follows:

[Art.] 5-c [Public Education.] In fulfillment of the provisions with respect to education set forth in Part II, Article 83, the general court shall have the authority, responsibility, and discretion to define reasonable standards for elementary and secondary public education, to establish reasonable standards of accountability therefor, and to mitigate local disparities in educational opportunity and fiscal capacity. Further, in the exercise thereof, the general court shall have full discretion to determine the amount of, and methods of raising and distributing, State funding for education."

V. That the secretary of state shall print the question to be submitted on a separate ballot or on the same ballot with other constitutional questions. The ballot containing the question shall include 2 squares next to the question allowing the voter to vote "Yes" or "No." If no cross is made in either of the squares, the ballot shall not be counted on the question. The outside of the ballot shall be the same as the regular official ballot except that the words "Questions Relating to Constitutional Amendments proposed by the 2011 General Court" shall be printed in bold type at the top of the ballot.

VI. That if the proposed amendment is approved by 2/3 of those voting on the amendment, it becomes effective when the governor proclaims its adoption.

2011-1142s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This constitutional amendment concurrent resolution provides that the general court shall have the authority to define standards for public education, establish standards of accountability, mitigate local disparities in educational opportunity and fiscal capacity, and shall have full discretion to determine the amount of state funding for education.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move CACR 14 Ought to Pass (sic). This constitutional amendment provides that the General Court shall define reasonable standards for elementary and secondary public education, establish reasonable standards of accountability, and mitigate local disparities in educational opportunity and fiscal capacity.

The Committee asks your support for the motion of Ought to Pass (sic).

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to express the concern of my constituents over CACR 14, the constitutional amendment dealing with education and education funding.

The city council and Mayor of Laconia, which comprises 25 percent of my District, has expressed opposition to any amendment that does not guarantee them a specific level of funding. While I recognize that the education funding bill passed in the Senate and offered by my good friends Senator Stiles and Senator Rausch would provide a stable, predictable level of funding, I think it's important to express the concerns of my constituents on this issue.

Other constituents fear that the first part of this amendment strengthens the centralization of the control of education in this state, something that has been shown to decrease the quality of education since it is less responsive the further the control is away from the parents and the school boards. Although an argument could be made that the Legislature already has the authority, responsibility, and discretion to define standards and accountability, since we are not a Home Rule state and the municipalities are creations of the State, codifying this in the Constitution may push further legislators to use this authority more than they already have. Additionally, Part One, Article Six grants the municipalities the right to elect and contract with their teachers, showing a strong deference to local control as already existing in our Constitution.

Given the uncertainties we have continuously faced due to the involvement of the courts, support of this amendment is likely to be strong today. I would, however, urge my fellow colleagues in the Senate, no matter how they vote today, to emphasize the discretion this amendment would grant rather than the authority, and continue to push for more local control of education as we have done this session. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I think some of us are basically becoming historians around here, having seen many, many constitutional amendments come by. But, I thought because we need to keep in mind history for fear that we repeat it, I would give you a little history.

In Claremont 1, in 1993, the court ruled that the State had an obligation to provide students with an adequate education. Prior to Claremont 1, the Legislature was free to underfund educational services and did so on a regular basis, refusing to even fully fund the formulas it passed into law to pay for education, or that they agreed with the court they would. The result was that local school districts were left to pay for 90 percent of educational expenses with local property taxes. Thus, you hear why citizens in Laconia and across the state are worried about a constitutional amendment of this sort. Because of varying property rates from community to community, local tax rates to pay for education differ dramatically, with some communities having tax rates that were 400 times the rates of others. The New Hampshire Supreme Court simply said it was not fair, and the State is responsible for paying for an adequate education in a fair and constitutional way.

The Claremont decisions established that an adequate education is a fundamental right in New Hampshire, meaning that it's one of the most important rights we have. Other fundamental rights include free speech, freedom of religion, and the right to vote – that issue's coming up next. Laws that affect fundamental rights receive the highest level of judicial scrutiny, and that's called strict scrutiny – I'm not a lawyer, but I'm learning. In order to protect individuals from government's efforts to infringe on these rights, the New Hampshire Supreme Court has applied the strict scrutiny standard to legislative acts to protect fundamental rights in the past. Two examples are free speech and property ownership. A constitutional amendment would take away or reduce the judicial scrutiny which would give the Legislature more room to infringe on our students' rights to an adequate education. Doing this would treat the fundamental right to an adequate education differently than all fundamental rights. Would we agree to give the State more discretion to infringe on our rights to free speech? Then why are we giving the State more discretion to infringe on the fundamental right to an adequate education, which is just as important as our right to free speech?

While some may put spins on the meaning of constitutional amendments, at their core, they're about one thing: they want to give the authority – and this amendment would do that – to do whatever we want in education without being accountable to the children and taxpayers of New Hampshire, providing less aid and resources to local school districts. If the amendment passes, communities like Concord, Manchester, and Nashua, and numerous property-poor communities throughout New Hampshire, can expect to see less state funding in future years. The amendment completely takes away any constitutional right to an adequate education in New Hampshire, and under the amendment, the Legislature is given the sole discretion to do whatever it wants with no recourse for anyone who might be harmed by those legislative decisions. The Legislature could decide to fund only 8 percent of education services, which is what they did before the Claremont decisions, and no one could do anything about it. The Legislature could force every community in the state to pay $10,000 per pupil from local property taxes for educational services, and no one could do anything about it. This amendment takes away the ability to enforce the right to an adequate education in court and for the court to require the Legislature to abide by its constitutional obligations. No other state in the nation has given its Legislature such protection, and given the Legislature's history of chronic underfunding of education and shifting educational expenses onto local taxpayers, we cannot trust Legislatures to follow through with such an absolute power and not to protect those fundamental rights.

As you've seen in the most recent funding formulas, we have in fact found ways to target funding to those most in need. But, we've met our constitutional requirements through those funding formulas. So, I believe this constitutional amendment is not necessary; you have seen through demonstration that there is a funding formula that has been deemed constitutional and that is targeting aid to those most in need with a measure of fiscal capacity. And so, I urge you to think carefully, if you are going to vote for taking this fundamental right away from the taxpayers of this state to bring their issues to court. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. CACR 14 recognizes that the Legislature has a responsibility to ensure accountability across school districts and to guarantee that local inadequacies do not preclude a child from the opportunity to obtain an adequate education. CACR 14 properly places the responsibility to the legislative body to determine the funds necessary and the methods to carry out that responsibility through raising of funds.

This is the best opportunity to date that we have had to enact a much-needed amendment to allow the people to voice to our commitment to education and the fiscal responsibility to first support those communities that have the financial difficulty to provide that education opportunity. And, I urge you to pass this CACR so that our people can vote, once and for all.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. It is indeed interesting that we would be back here again, almost Old Home Day. I remember well – I'm sure along with Senator Larsen, Senator Barnes, Senator D'Allesandro, and myself, I believe, were all on the first committee of conference that dealt with House Bill 117 in 1998, which was the State's first attempt to comply with the Claremont Decision, Claremont 1, that we had to fund an adequate education.

Claremont 2 superseded Claremont 1, and made another fundamental change in New Hampshire constitutional law, that a tax that funds education could not vary from town to town, that it had to be uniform in nature. And so, here we are, 14 years later, still struggling with how to get our arms around how we fund education; it has become, on a statewide basis, the second largest cost item that our Legislature and our state have to deal with after Medicaid.

When we look at the formula that we have today, and despite the great work of Senator Rausch and Senator Stiles and, quite frankly, all of us, who voted on a bipartisan basis to reform that formula, the Claremont decisions have produced, up until now, a formula that, if you look at it, is almost irrational in nature: 125 towns will lose funding this year, and when you look at who some of those towns are that lose money, they are among the most needy towns in the State of New Hampshire, and some of the towns that will receive windfalls are among the towns that are best able to deal with less state funding. And, because of the nature of the formulas that the uniform tax rate, the Claremont 2, has produced, we have before us, what I believe, is the best opportunity to finally place before the voters a constitutional amendment. It does several things. It recognizes that the State has a responsibility, a responsibility, as well as an authority, to first: define reasonable standards for education, and then define and have the responsibility to produce a reasonable level of accountability to ensure that those standards are met. And, under this constitutional amendment, it gives the Legislature the authority as well as the responsibility to mitigate local disparities and the differing fiscal capacities of our communities.

But, as with any constitutional issue, and we talked about one prior to this in terms of free speech in a Commerce Committee bill, there are always tensions when we propose a constitutional amendment. And so, this amendment correctly recognizes, through the use of the word discretion, that there is a critical aspect here of local control – something I suspect that all 24 of us talk about night and day – local control to ensure that school boards and local taxpayers have the authority that they need to continue with the traditions that we have established in New Hampshire over many years. And, use of the word “discretion” ensures that local control.

And, lastly, the amendment recognizes that the Legislature has the discretion to determine the amount and the method of raising and distributing state dollars for education. This is fundamental to what we are about as a state. We all know – we’ve discussed it much this term, we’ve discussed it in prior terms – that our economy is struggling; our friends and neighbors are struggling; taxpayers are struggling. And yet, despite the struggles that we’ve had in New Hampshire, our state is better off than many states around us because of the New Hampshire advantage; that advantage of no income tax and no sales tax. And so, at its core, this constitutional amendment will give us that opportunity to fight, to preserve that New Hampshire advantage.

But, there’s something that goes beyond any of this discussion today. For 14 years, there have been 425 individuals: Governors, 400 of our friends and colleagues, and 24 of us that have had the opportunity to, in essence, substitute our wisdom for the wisdom of the voters. And, when my good friend from Concord says, “No one will be able to do anything about this constitutional amendment,” I would say, “Wait a minute; the voters have a choice in who they send here.” Let’s finally give, after 14 years, the voters a chance to weigh in on what kind of state we want New Hampshire to be. Let the voters make that choice about the New Hampshire advantage, or perhaps some other way of proceeding in the future. We have never consulted the voters. It's high time we do so; this is our opportunity to make it happen. Let us not falter. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Senator Bradley. I think I just heard a couple of minutes ago from Senator Larsen about targeted aid, that it didn't happen. And, I understand that this amendment will allow us to target aid to the needy towns. I have two towns in my District that are two of the five plaintiff towns, and they always seem to be getting the short end of the stick. And, I have been campaigning for years to target the money to the needy towns. Now, who is right? Are you right saying that we're going to be able to target aid, or is Senator Larsen right in saying that's not the way it's going to be?

SENATOR BRADLEY: Well, I guess anybody can look at the formula, Senator Barnes, and, with different inputs into the formula, make it work in different ways. But, we have a law today. And, that law, in the case of the towns that you represent, two of the plaintiff towns, my understanding, if the formula continues in its effect, they will lose money – they will lose money. And, I don't know how many of us can say that that's a rational outcome. And, a constitutional amendment that gives the Legislature the authority to make those common sense decisions that a uniform tax rate, a court-ordered uniform tax rate, which has led us to that type of irrationality, it's high time that we change it. And, change it by doing the broadest possible participation: letting the men and women who make up this great state, in November of 2012, to finally, after 14 years, allow their voice to be heard.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a follow-up question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BARNES: Would you believe there are two main reasons that I'm voting for this? To take care of towns like the two that I have so we can target the money where it needs to go, and that the citizens of this state can stand up and have an opportunity to have a voice in it.

SENATOR BRADLEY: You encapsulated that in fewer words than I possibly ever could.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. Thank you, Senator Bradley, for taking the question. I think Senator Larsen covered a lot of the kind of legal pieces that I would have raised. But, one of the things that has my attention is the full discretion in the last part of this, to the Legislature, to determine the amount of money spent. And, would you agree that there really isn't any restriction, then, if this constitutional amendment passes, on a funding formula that looked at our state based exclusively on population? And, we're talking about polling the voters. And, so you could have a much more populous southern part of the state that could vote for – the representatives vote for a fuller funding formula for down south that decreases as we go north, so that Berlin – and, I don't see Senator Gallus – but another community could... No one's there to review that decision. Would you believe?

SENATOR BRADLEY: My good friend, Senator Houde, from the other side of the Lakes Region – I guess we're fellow mid-country, maybe even North Country brothers – I doubt that voters will send to Concord people that would look at funding in exactly that kind of geographic area. I don't believe that would be the case of the people that would come here to make the kind of common sense decisions that would have to be made to make sure that we ensure that scarce resources in New Hampshire are most dedicated to the communities that need them the most. And, I think that despite perhaps the history that Senator Larsen talked about in the Augenblick Formula, over the past several years, we have done our best to meet that need, but done so within the strict box that the Claremont 2 ruling has created for us of a uniform rate that means, in essence, we can't target to the communities that need it the most, which is why Senator Barnes' towns, in any rational system, I don't think you and I could agree that they should be getting less money under the current formula.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a follow-up question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR HOUDE: And, I have faith that the Representatives would make reasonable decisions, rational decisions. But, again, should they not, there's no other review process for that type of decision under this amendment, which, I would argue, is different than the amendment that you referenced earlier when I think I was in the House, when you were debating it in the Senate. Yeah... I think there's a question in there.

SENATOR BRADLEY: I would believe that you would believe that, but I would, for the reasons I've already articulated, argue that that is not something that I anticipate happening, and I do, at the end of the day, always trust in the wisdom of the voters. Well, except the voters that sent me there.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a follow-up question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR HOUDE: So, assuming we agree on the wisdom of the voters, in most cases, would you agree that the court wouldn't have a role, should the Legislature err when making funding decisions?

SENATOR BRADLEY: Actually, I would tend to disagree with you, given the word "responsibility" in the earlier part of the amendment.

SENATOR HOUDE: Okay. Thank you for taking the question. We'll disagree on that one, I think.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I do rise against this amendment, CACR 14. And, I think, you know, we've been having these discussions since as long as I've been in the Senate. And, as you yawn, and we all... The discussions continue to be the same and we continue to go, it seems like, in a circle – and around and around – with these same issues.

So, my question about this amendment is really, what is the purpose of the amendment? What is really the need for this amendment? When I look at the language and I say that the General Court has responsibility for defining an education, for the standards, we just did that. I've been here – this is my fifth year – this is what I've spent a lot of time with. We did that. When we talk about targeting and looking at how do we make sure that the schools who need funding receive the funding? We just did that. We have targeting aid in our current law, and we spent a lot of time making sure that we did that. When you talk about the people have a voice about funding in education, in my district, what I hear is: "Thank you for solving, finally, the education funding problem." It has been 14 years, and the people have been sending people to Concord to solve the education funding problem. And, we did. We have law today that is predictable. Schools know what the formula is; the formula stays the same in the law. If there are different numbers of students at schools, then the money changes. But, that's in the law as a formula, and people know that. And, the school districts know that. So, there's predictability. My one concern with the amendment also, in the confusion, and it sounds like the conversation between Senators is, "What is the role of the courts?" If this amendment eliminates the courts or even limits the court, we have upset our balance of power here in the state. And lastly, the premise that we built our current law on was equal opportunity for a quality education for all of our students, and we spent a lot of time doing that, and that's in law today; we have solved the education funding problem, and we need to move forward. People have brought us here to vote on this and to represent them; taking it back to the people is letting the people know we can't solve it; we're asking you to do that. And, I don't think that's what we want to do. So, I would ask my colleagues to vote against this amendment. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a question of Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR BARNES: Senator Kelly, if you lived in Allenstown, where a principal has to run back and forth between two schools and is one of the plaintiff towns, do you think that you just made the statement that the problem has been solved – how can it be solved for the Town of Allenstown and Pittsfield, to have the situation set up the way it is, where they get the short end of the stick, and here's this guy running back and forth to two schools. That isn't right, when you see money going out to some of these other towns that don't need it. That, to me, is what's wrong with the system. I didn't – perhaps, I probably didn't vote for this correction that you so valiantly say we took care of; I don't think it was taken care of, and that's why this amendment's going to take care of it. Would you believe that?

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Senator Barnes.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you.

SENATOR KELLY: What I do believe is that we have a formula that is fair, that provides an equal opportunity. What I also believe is that we have not supported enough funding, truly, that we need for our schools so that all the children have an equal opportunity, and we need to continue to look at the efficiencies in our schools and look at the outcomes and what we're producing, and we need to make sure that we are committed to funding all of the children in our schools.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a follow-up question of Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR BARNES: Would you believe that if you lived in Pittsfield or Allenstown, I think you'd be saying a different story from over there. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I would just seek to respond to Senator Bradley's speech on the New Hampshire advantage. I truly believe that one of the New Hampshire advantages and one which we are sent here to protect are the fundamental rights of free speech, freedom of religion, the right to vote, and the right to an equal and fair educational opportunity in our state. So, I believe that in fact by saying that the General Court is now taking full discretion to determine the amount and methods of raising and distributing state funding for education, we are removing the fundamental right; I think we lose our

New Hampshire advantage. I think, and I trust, that this will go to the voters, and the voters will speak to that as well. I believe they will stand up for that fundamental right of an equal educational opportunity for all the children of our state. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles for a question of Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR STILES: If you believe that the people will do that, why wouldn't you move to allow them to do it?

SENATOR LARSEN: I believe we were elected to protect fundamental rights, and that has already been determined to be a fundamental right, and I will continue to support it as a fundamental right. I believe it enhances our economy and the opportunities for the people of our state to become self-supporting taxpayers and educated individuals in this economy.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR BARNES: In order to get this great CACR passed, how many votes do we need?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: It requires a 3/5 vote, which would be 15.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Barnes, seconded by Sen. Forsythe.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Luther, Lambert, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Forsythe, Houde, Kelly, Carson, Larsen, Rausch, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

Yeas: 16 - Nays: 8

Adopted by necessary 3/5 vote, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SB 196, relative to the enrollment of laws. Re-refer to committee, Vote 3-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. Given where this bill is going to go, I think I have the shortest remarks today. I move that Senate Bill 196 be re-referred to committee. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move that we overturn the motion of re-refer to committee so that a floor amendment can be introduced on a motion of Ought to Pass.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Failed.

Sen. Forsythe moved Ought to Pass.

Sen. Forsythe moved that the Rules of the Senate be suspended to allow for the introduction of a non-germane amendment to SB 196.

The question is on the adoption of the motion to suspend the Rules to allow for the introduction of a non-germane amendment to SB 196.

Adopted by necessary 2/3 vote.

Sen. Forsythe offered a floor amendment.

Sen. Forsythe, Dist. 4

Floor Amendment to SB 196

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the renomination or reelection of teachers and prohibiting assessing teacher performance based solely on assessment scores.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Failure to be Renominated or Reelected. Amend RSA 189:14-a to read as follows:

189:14-a Failure to be Renominated or Reelected.

I.(a) Any teacher who has a professional standards certificate from the state board of education and who has taught for one or more years in the same school district shall be notified in writing on or before April 15 or within 15 days of the adoption of the district budget by the legislative body, whichever is later, if that teacher is not to be renominated or reelected, provided that no notification shall occur later than the Friday following the second Tuesday in May.

(b) Any such teacher who has taught for [3] 5 consecutive years or more in the same school district and who has been so notified may request in writing within 10 days of receipt of said notice a hearing before the school board and may in said request ask for reasons for failure to be renominated or reelected. For purposes of this section only, a leave of absence shall not interrupt the consecutive nature of a teacher's service, but neither shall such a leave be included in the computation of a teacher's service. Computation of a teacher's service for any other purposes shall not be affected by this section. The notice shall advise the teacher of all of the teacher's rights under this section. The school board, upon receipt of said request, shall provide for a hearing on the request to be held within 15 days. The school board shall issue its decision in writing within 15 days of the close of the hearing.

II. Any teacher who has a professional standards certificate from the state board of education and who has taught for [3] 5 consecutive years or more in any school district in the state shall, after having taught for [2] 3 consecutive years in any other school district in the state, be entitled to all of the rights for notification and hearing set forth in [paragraphs I(b), III, and IV of] this section.

III. In cases of nonrenomination because of unsatisfactory performance, ~~[the superintendent of the local school district shall demonstrate, at the school board hearing, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the teacher had received written notice that the teacher's unsatisfactory performance may lead to nonrenomination, that the teacher had a reasonable opportunity to correct such unsatisfactory performance, and that the teacher had failed to correct such unsatisfactory performance. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require the superintendent or the school board to provide a teacher with remedial assistance to correct any deficiencies that form the basis for such teacher's nonrenomination]~~ a teacher's performance shall not be based solely on state or national assessment scores received by pupils in such teacher's class.

~~[IV. In all proceedings before the school board under this section, the burden of proof for nonrenewal of a teacher shall be on the superintendent of the local school district by a preponderance of the evidence.]~~

2 Applicability. Section 1 of this act shall not apply to any teacher who has taught for 3 or 4 consecutive years in any school district in the state as of the effective date of this act.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

2011-1223s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill amends the length of time required for a teacher to be entitled to the rights of notification and hearing for failure to be renominated or reelected. The bill also prohibits a teacher's performance from being considered unsatisfactory based solely on state or national assessment scores received by pupils in such teacher's classes.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. This amendment makes much-needed reforms on the laws for teacher tenure. The majority of our existing tenure and nonrenewal statutes were written in 1957, at a time when the reports of teachers being fired based on gender, age, or even political party were all too common. Since then, however, numerous state and federal laws have been enacted to prevent this sort of workplace discrimination. Although the underlying need for most tenure statutes has been addressed, the language and protections have remained on the books and have morphed into an unintended and cumbersome process that makes for removing even the most ineffective teachers and costly a bureaucratic nightmare.

This amendment would extend from three to five years the amount of time a teacher must teach in a school district before automatically being granted tenure protections. The amendment will also provide additional discretion to local school boards when judging the merits of a superintendent's decision to non-renew a teacher. The amendment also ensures teachers are not judged solely on student test scores, as originally proposed by my esteemed colleague, Senator Larsen.

Amendment 1223s retains a number of significant existing protections offered to tenured teachers, including the ability to request a hearing in front of the school board. It continues the ability for a teacher aggrieved by a school board's decision to appeal to the State Board of Education, protections far beyond those of any at-will employee.

This exact language in this amendment was recommended as Ought to Pass out of the Education Committee on a different bill, after a full public hearing. I ask that you support the committee recommendation and vote Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you. I rise to oppose this amendment, and, as a result, Senate Bill 196 as it might be amended. Senate Bill 196... This bill could have been brought in as a bill this session. It came up as a surprise in the Education Committee, as some of the members saw language relating to teacher nonrenewal. But, we could have had a full discussion on this. Instead, we had an amendment hearing with about four days' notice to those who might want to come in and speak on it. As a result, very few people were able to attend the hearing; very few people were aware of the proposal.

It makes a significant change to how we deal with teachers in our state, and it's been a topic which even was debated years ago in Senate Education, on which I served for a number of years. Nationally, 50 percent of all new teachers now leave the profession, and New Hampshire's already having trouble attracting qualified teachers. Adding two years to the probationary period makes New Hampshire an even less attractive place for teachers. Maine and Vermont both have two-year probationary periods; Massachusetts has a three-year probationary period. So, New Hampshire will be at a disadvantage for those teachers who have spent perhaps as much as ten years trying to get a degree, it will make it more difficult for them and make New Hampshire less attractive.

After three years and 540 days and 4,000 hours of teaching, administrators should know why or why they do not choose to renew a teacher, or to have a continuing contract with that teacher. By the time the teacher has been hired by a school, they expect the teacher's already completed a four-year college degree, passed two standardized tests for teachers, and completed an in-school training program. Under this amendment, a teacher could devote as much as ten years to getting an education in teaching and then be non-renewed without a reason. I believe that we need to be working on making our schools better, not finding ways to create chaos in our schools and to dissuade our best and brightest from staying in our state. This is not a question of tenure; New Hampshire does not have a tenure law. It is a nonrenewal law that gives school districts the flexibility they need to remove poorly performing teachers. Most teachers with performance issues, I am advised, resign from their teaching positions if they've been advised that they are not going to be renewed. Even if a non-renewal goes to a school board hearing, the school board's decision is upheld by the State Board of Education and the courts, unless the local school board decision is, "clearly erroneous". Most other laws, such as anti-discrimination laws, do not apply to teachers who are non-renewed, so even this law is not tenure; it is only the way that teachers have a way to find out why they've been non-renewed. Anyone in a profession who has worked ten years in a profession has a right to know why they're not being renewed. This law makes it more difficult for us to keep our good teachers. It's a bad idea, and we should spend more time discussing it. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I too rise against Floor Amendment 1223s, and against what will now be Senate Bill 196.

As many of you know, I'm a teacher; I've been teaching for almost 50 years. I've taught in the public school system, I've taught in the parochial school system, I've taught at the college level. Attracting people to teaching is a most difficult situation. Mister President, you're Chairman of the school board in your community. I served on my local school board for ten years; I was Chairman of the Curriculum and Instruction Committee. We both can commiserate about the difficulty of attracting quality teachers to our environment; it's very, very difficult. How do you get a math teacher? How do you get a science teacher? How do you get teachers when fewer and fewer youngsters leaving postsecondary education are choosing education as their calling? We're not getting the kinds of people involved in education that we used to, and one of the reasons, obviously, is the salary situation. The salary situation versus a private entity is really de minimis. Yet, we are now saying that three years is not enough time to evaluate an individual – three years is not enough time to evaluate an individual. We ask that that individual take subject matter testing, we ask that that individual enhance their educational experience on a continuing basis by going and taking refresher courses and updating courses, and then we say, in this particular piece of legislation, "Three years is not enough; it has to be five years." Most of us don't keep a vehicle for five years. In some instances, marriages don't last for five years! And yet, what we're saying is, it's going to take five years to evaluate that individual. Now, all of us know that based on the new world that we're living in, most people don't stay in a job five years. The continuous movement of individuals from one opportunity to another has been manifested dramatically – dramatically – in our lifetime. We have an opportunity during that three-year period to evaluate that individual; we can evaluate them on a yearly basis; we can evaluate them on a quarterly basis. I mean, that's really the direction that the school board gives to the principal and to the superintendent. And, we're not a tenure state. Tenure, you know, that is a postsecondary education term that we like to use in association with the secondary level and the primary level. We're a non-renewal state. We have a law – and I'm sure the President knows this – those pink slips have to be given out by April if we're not bringing people back, and we do that on an annual basis – on an annual basis. So, to say we're going to extend it to five years, I think, is not warranted; I don't think it's appropriate at this time. And, to quote my colleague, Senator Larsen, this should have had a significant public hearing; this is a major change – this is a major change when you talk about adding two more years to the period of time, in essence, where you'll be serving at the pleasure of your employer. Not a good thing, and not a good thing to be brought up at the last minute. If you want to bring it up, discuss it, debate it, where the public has an ample opportunity to come forward – I think that's the right thing to do. And I think, as a former school board member, I believe that we had ample opportunity to examine those who were working in our district. And, getting a person to leave during that three-year period? That's done all the time; it's done all the time. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you very much, Mister President. As Chair of the Education Committee, I would like to say that it was posted in the Calendar; we did have an open hearing; there were people there to speak to it. Should it pass the Senate, it would then go to the House for another full hearing. So, there'd be plenty of opportunity for people to react to the amendment.

But, more importantly than that, over the past ten days, I've had the opportunity on several occasions to meet with teachers in my District that had concerns about pieces of legislation that were coming forward. And, without exception, they all felt that this was a good move, because they feel that on many occasions, teachers are let go at that three-year period because they haven't really proven themselves to the administration, when in fact, if they had just a little bit more time, they could attach themselves to an experienced teacher for mentoring and develop those skills and show those skills. So, every teacher that I spoke with over the last ten days has been in support of extending this to a five-year period.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Yes, thank you, Mister President. I also understand that certain school districts can have their own rules, and I know that Exeter has a two-year period where they are able to – that's a long time: two years – to look at a teacher and then decided for non-renewal or not. So, this is not setting a limit or an extent of the non-renewal period. Towns are able to adjust their own rules with their own school boards. So, I wanted to put that forward too, as well. Thank you, Mister President.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR LARSEN: As we suspended the rules, did we change the title of the bill, or will the roll call reflect the original title?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I believe the floor amendment contains a new title.

SENATOR LARSEN: The title was amended?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: The title was amended by the floor amendment, if it were to pass.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. White for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR WHITE: I apologize, but we've been debating this for a while and I'm lost. It took a two-thirds vote to allow us to suspend the rules and bring a non-germane amendment, but both the amendment and the bill will just simply be a majority vote?

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Correct. The suspension was required to bring the amendment in. Both the amendment and any future votes on this bill would only require a simple majority.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Houde, Kelly, Larsen, Boutin, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

Yeas: 18 - Nays: 6

Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

SCR 1, urging Congress to call a convention for the sole purpose of proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Re-refer to committee, Vote 3-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move that Senate Concurrent Resolution 1 be re-referred to committee. This concurrent resolution makes an application for the Congress of the United States pursuant to Article 5 of the Constitution of the United States to call an Article 5 Amendment Convention for the sole purpose of voting to propose or voting not to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, otherwise known as a Madison Amendment.

After an explanation of the concurrent resolution and what it could do and what it could potentially do if passed, the Committee felt it was appropriate to re-refer the concurrent resolution back to the committee in an effort to further examine its policies and legal aspects.

The Committee asks for your support for the motion of re-refer to committee. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Recess. Out of recess.

JUDICIARY

SB 44, relative to payment of rent pending a landlord-tenant action. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator Houde for the committee.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 44 be re-referred to committee. This legislation was introduced in order to address landlords' legitimate concern over not receiving rent while an eviction proceeding is ongoing, in many cases. It would have addressed the issue by requiring tenants to pay weekly rent to the court. A tenant currently has to pay rent to the court only when the eviction action is appealed.

After lengthy, sometimes conflicting testimony, particularly with respect to timelines, we believe that there are undoubtedly abuses of the system by tenants who are acting in bad faith. That being said, the Committee saw two main problems that were not addressed in the hearing and in the bill. First being unresolved was the unresolved issue of the dispute between tenants and landlords. For example, as written, the bill would have included tenants who were being evicted for reasons other than nonpayment of rent, resulting in a tenant paying twice. The bill would also have precluded a tenant's day in court regardless of the reason for nonpayment. Occasionally, particularly in public assistance situations, delays are due to bureaucracy and not the tenant. We believe, genuinely, that those issues could be worked out, therefore the re-referral motion.

However, there was a second issue which had to do with the administrative logistics for the courts, which wasn't addressed at all at the hearing other than problems being raised. And, at this time of cost-cutting and layoffs in the court system, the Judiciary Committee was not inclined to require an additional bookkeeping task until more clarity, including the adequacy of funds allocated, could be provided.

So, before we pass along a proposed solution, we want to be certain that it is fair to all parties and not an undue burden to our courts. Therefore, the Judiciary Committee recommends that Senate Bill 44 be re-referred so that we can continue to work on this legislation. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

SB 2, relative to adoption of spending caps by municipalities. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-1. Senator Boutin for the committee.

Public and Municipal Affairs

March 22, 2011

2011-1149s

10/09

Amendment to SB 2

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; City Charters; Vote. Amend RSA 49-C:12 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in paragraph I, the adoption of an override threshold provision to a spending cap included in a charter pursuant to RSA 49-C:33, I(d) shall provide for a supermajority vote of the elected body to adopt the annual budget.

2 New Subparagraph; City Charters; Optional Provisions; Spending Cap Added. Amend RSA 49-C:33, I by inserting after subparagraph (c) the following new subparagraph:

(d) A limit on the annual increases to spending under the city budget adopted pursuant to RSA 49-C:23. Such spending cap shall provide for an override threshold on a vote to exceed the limit on annual increases which shall be by a supermajority as determined in the charter. A spending cap provision in the city charter may provide for specific exclusions for dedicated, enterprise, or self-supporting funds or accounts, capital reserve funds, grants, or revenue from sources other than local taxes.

3 Town Charters; Optional Matters; Spending Cap. Amend RSA 49-D: 3, I(e) to read as follows:

(e) Other matters of local concern may be included in a charter including, but not limited to, conflict of interest provisions which shall be at least as strict as those established in the general laws, citizen powers of initiative, referendum and recall as described in RSA 49-C, [and] the adoption and periodic review of an administrative code, a merit personnel system, a purchasing system, and a town investment policy, and the adoption of a spending cap limiting the annual increases in spending under the town budget. Such spending cap shall include an override threshold on a vote to exceed the limit on annual increases which shall be by a supermajority as determined in the charter. Such spending cap may specifically exclude certain dedicated, enterprise, or self-supporting funds or accounts, capital reserve funds, grants, or revenue from sources other than local taxes.

4 Municipal Budget Law; Application. Amend RSA 32:2 to read as follows:

32:2 Application. RSA 32:1-13, shall apply to all towns, school districts, cooperative school districts, village districts, and any other municipal entities, including those created pursuant to RSA 53-A or 53-B, which adopt their budgets at an annual meeting of their voters, except RSA 32:5-b, which shall apply only in those towns or districts adopting that section pursuant to RSA 32:5-c. RSA 32:14-23, concerning budget committees, shall apply only in those towns or districts adopting that section pursuant to RSA 32:14, I, and shall apply automatically in school districts or village districts located wholly within towns adopting that section.

5 New Sections; Local Spending Cap; Adoption of Local Spending Cap. Amend RSA 32 by inserting after section 5-a the following new sections:

32:5-b Local Spending Cap.

I. This section shall be known as the local spending cap act.

II. In this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Inflation rate" means the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers (CPI-U), Northeast urban, as determined by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, for the 12-month period ending the fifth month prior to the annual meeting of the local subdivision or, for local subdivisions that have adopted RSA 40:13, the fifth month prior to the second session of the annual meeting.

(b) "Net fiscal year appropriation" means all appropriations approved by the legislative body for the fiscal year, including the operating budget and all amounts appropriated pursuant to special warrant articles and other individual warrant articles, less estimated revenues and credits.

(c) "Estimated revenues and credits" means the estimated revenues and credits for the ensuing year as shown on the budget certified by the governing body or budget committee and posted with the warrant for the annual meeting pursuant to RSA 32:5.

(d) "Taxes raised for the prior fiscal year" means the property taxes raised for the prior fiscal year as shown on the budget certified by the governing body or budget committee and posted with the warrant for the annual meeting pursuant to RSA 32:5.

III.(a) In any local subdivision that has adopted this section, the net fiscal year appropriation as defined in paragraph II shall not exceed the taxes raised for the prior fiscal year by more than the spending cap authorized when this section was adopted except as provided in this paragraph.

(b) Once the legislative body has approved a net fiscal year appropriation that reaches the limit of the spending cap, each subsequent appropriation that increases the net fiscal year appropriation shall be deemed approved only if it receives an affirmative vote of those present and voting equal to or greater than the override threshold authorized when this section was adopted. If an appropriation that causes the net fiscal year appropriation to exceed the spending cap is approved by a simple majority but less than the override threshold, the appropriation shall be deemed approved only to the amount that is within the spending cap. If an appropriation is initially approved by the legislative body but subsequently disapproved upon reconsideration, that appropriation shall not be counted against the spending cap. Any subsequent appropriation that exceeded the spending cap when voted upon by the legislative body, but that would be within the spending cap when the reconsidered item is removed, shall be deemed approved if it has received a affirmative vote of a simple majority of the legislative body present and voting, even if it was initially deemed disapproved for failure to achieve the override threshold.

(c) For a legislative body that has adopted an official ballot form of meeting under RSA 40:13 or under a charter adopted pursuant to RSA 49-D, appropriations shall be deemed approved in the order that they appear on the official ballot.

(d) Any increase over the prior year's costs under a collective bargaining agreement entered into pursuant to RSA 273-A shall not be counted toward the spending cap.

IV. The governing body shall inform the legislative body of the maximum amount of appropriations that will result in a net fiscal year appropriation that complies with the spending cap. This information shall be contained in a notice placed conspicuously on the warrant or, in the case of a legislative body that uses an official ballot form of meeting under RSA 40:13 or under a charter adopted pursuant to RSA 49-D, on the official ballot. The governing body may, in its discretion, include an explanation of how the proposed appropriations compare to the amount permitted by the spending cap. Any reasonable explanation shall be sufficient, and any errors contained in such notice, if made in good faith and without an intent to mislead the legislative body, shall not be a basis for invalidating any actions of the legislative body.

V. A spending cap established pursuant to this section shall not apply to appropriations made at any special meeting held due to an emergency pursuant to RSA 31:5, I(a) or (b) or a disaster pursuant to RSA 31:5-a.

32:5-c Adoption of Local Spending Cap Act.

I. The provisions of RSA 32:5-b may be adopted by any local political subdivision of the state whose legislative body raises and appropriates funds through an annual meeting. A 3/5 majority of those voting on the question shall be required to adopt the provisions of RSA 32:5-b. Only votes in the affirmative or negative shall be included in the calculation of the 3/5 majority.

II. The question shall be placed on the warrant of the annual meeting by the governing body or by petition under the procedures set out in RSA 39:3 or RSA 197:6.

III. A public hearing shall be held by the local governing body on the question at least 15 days, but not more than 30 days, before the question is to be voted on. In multi-town districts, a public hearing shall be held in each town embraced by the district, none of which shall be held on the same day. Notice of the hearing shall be posted in at least 2 public places in the town and at least 2 public places in each town of multi-town districts, and published in a newspaper of general circulation at least 7 days prior to the date of the hearing.

IV. The wording of the question shall be: "Shall we adopt the provisions of RSA 32:5-b, known as the local spending cap act, and limit annual spending increases to (spending cap), with (override threshold) vote required to exceed that limit?" The "spending cap" shall be a fixed dollar amount, a fixed percent or a percent derived from the inflation rate. The "override threshold" shall be either three-fifths or two-thirds.

V. Voting on the question shall be by ballot, but the question shall not be placed on the official ballot used to elect officers, except in the case of a legislative body that uses an official ballot form of meeting under RSA 40:13 or under a charter adopted pursuant to RSA 49-D. Polls shall remain open and ballots shall be accepted by the moderator for a period of not less than one hour following the completion of discussion on the question. If a 3/5 majority of those voting on the question vote "yes," RSA 32:5-b shall apply within the local subdivision for the fiscal year and for all subsequent years until it is rescinded as provided in paragraph VI.

VI. Any local subdivision which has adopted RSA 32:5-b may consider rescinding its action in the manner described in paragraphs I through V. The wording of the question shall be: "Shall we rescind the provisions of RSA 32:5-b, known as the local spending cap act, as adopted by the (local subdivision) on (date of adoption), so that there will no longer be a limit on annual spending increases?" A 3/5 majority of those voting on the question shall be required to rescind the provisions of this section, except in the case of repeal by charter enactment under RSA 49-D. Only votes in the affirmative or negative shall be included in the calculation of the 3/5 majority.

6 Municipal Budget Law; Limitation on 10 Percent Increase. Amend introductory paragraph of RSA 32:18 to read as follows:

32:18 Limitation of Appropriations. In any municipality electing this subdivision, or any district wholly within a town electing this subdivision, the total amount appropriated at any annual meeting shall not exceed by more than 10 percent the total amount recommended by the budget committee for such meeting. Provided, however, that in any town or district which has adopted the provisions of RSA 32:5-b, any increase which would exceed the spending cap may only be adopted according to the procedures for exceeding the spending cap in RSA 32:5-b. In official ballot referendum municipalities, the recommendation of the budget committee made for the first session of the meeting shall be used for determining the 10 percent limitation. These totals shall include appropriations contained in special warrant articles. Money may be raised and appropriated for purposes included in the budget or in the warrant and not recommended by the budget committee, but not to an amount which would increase the total appropriations by more than the 10 percent allowed under this paragraph. The 10 percent increase allowable under this paragraph shall be computed on the total amount recommended by the budget committee less that part of any appropriation item which constitutes fixed charges. Fixed charges shall include appropriations for:

7 Home Rule Municipal Charters; Preservation. Amend RSA 49-B:13 to read as follows:

49-B:13 Separability; Preservation.

I. The provisions of this chapter and of charters created under this chapter are separable. If any portion of this chapter, or of any charter adopted under the provisions of this chapter, or if the application of the chapter or such charter to any person or circumstance shall be invalid, the remainder of the chapter or such charter or the application of such invalid portions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected by such invalidation.

II. All town and city charters which have been adopted, revised or amended; all charter commissions which have been properly established and elected; all elections properly held; and actions properly taken pursuant to such charters are hereby endorsed, ratified, validated, and legalized, [~~provided that such charters at the time of their adoption were not contrary to the general laws and constitution of the state~~] and are fully enforceable.

III. RSA 32 shall not apply to a municipality adopting, revising, or amending a charter under RSA 49-C or RSA 49-D unless that municipality adopts a budgetary town meeting, official ballot town meeting, an official ballot town council, or representative town meeting pursuant to RSA 49-D:3, I-a, II, II-a and III. Except that a municipality may adopt a spending cap as provided in RSA 49-C:33, I(d) or RSA 49-D:3, I(e), notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 32:5-b and RSA 32:5-c.

8 Use of Official Ballot; Vote. Amend RSA 40:13, XIII to read as follows:

XIII. Approval of all warrant articles shall be by simple majority except for questions which require a 3/5 or 2/3 vote by law, contract, or written agreement.

9 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 2 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Senate Bill 2 is enabling legislation that permits localities to adopt a spending cap.

During this most recent election, there was one message that we heard more loudly and clearly from the voters across the State of New Hampshire: that the taxpayers want relief from overspending, not only at the state level, but they said: "Please provide us with a measure to get local budgetary expenditures under control," and that's what Senate Bill 2 does.

Senate Bill 2 – and this is very important to note – Senate Bill 2 is enabling legislation. Communities can do it, or they can choose not to do it. But, clearly what it does do is it establishes a framework for cities and towns where the governing body has budgetary authority for towns and school districts and what is also called "official ballot" towns. It specifies how they adopt a spending cap. And, then it does something which no spending cap legislation that has come before the Legislature in the last few years does: It lays out some very specific mechanics on how the spending cap works. And, Mister President, because there's so much detail in this, I'd like to just take a moment and go through several of the mechanical details that were worked out in crafting this amendment.

First of all, it talks about taxes raised from a prior year. So, the year that a cap is adopted, that year – that becomes what is known as “taxes for the prior year”. And then, the following year, you have what is defined as “net fiscal appropriation”. And so, the difference between those two numbers is what – if there is a spending cap, that's where it's determined. And, in calculating the net fiscal appropriation, there's three items that are excluded. First of all, dedicated and enterprise funds are excluded. Grants – federal and state – are excluded from that calculation, and also capital reserve funds.

The spending cap can take three forms: it can be a fixed dollar amount, it can be a fixed percent amount, or it can be based on an inflation rate, such as the CPI. So, the bill goes on to establish an override threshold. And, in order to override the spending cap, it requires a two-thirds or a three-fifths supermajority vote.

The next piece of the mechanical parts to this has to do with reconsideration. So, it specifies what occurs if there was a reconsideration vote. Another piece has to do with the official ballot towns where appropriations are approved in the order that they are listed on the ballot. Also, and I want to make this very clear, with respect to collective bargaining agreements: The year that the collective bargaining agreement is approved, the subsequent year, the cap does not apply to that collective bargaining. That does not mean that the town can reduce its spending; it can do that. But, there is a chapter in law 273-A, which has to do with collective bargaining agreements, and once they're approved, the funding on that cannot be adjusted, but other municipal funding can be.

There's also another piece, and that's the 10 percent rule. Now, those of you who live in towns know that the recommended budget can be increased at town meeting by 10 percent. What would happen under a spending cap is, if there was a move to increase the budget by that 10 percent, any portion of that 10 percent increase that goes over the spending cap would be disallowed.

Also, you also know that towns and cities are allowed to go to court for special town meetings in cases of emergencies. That also is excluded from the spending cap. We would not want to say to a town: “You've had a flood; you've had a tornado go through your community, but you can't go out and do what you need to fix that problem.”

Additionally, what it calls for is that on the warrant or on the official ballot, the voters would be notified of what that net fiscal appropriation is, so that they would know at what point they go over the spending cap.

Lastly, there is a rescission provision so that if a community adopts a spending cap and later on they decide they don't want it, they can remove it.

What I'd like to take a moment to do right now is to thank the Chairman, Senator Barnes, for his leadership role in bringing all the stakeholders together. And, we did – there was a lot of work that was involved, and we had folks from the New Hampshire Municipal Association, the New Hampshire School Board Association, and the New Hampshire School Administrators Association. And, they made many meaningful contributions into the language that has gone into this bill and this amendment, and for that, we thank them, and we're grateful for that.

Now, I have no illusions that they support the policy; they don't support the policy. But, what they will agree to is that at least now, for the first time, that the mechanics are spelled out so that towns and school districts and SB 2 towns know how the spending cap will work. And, one of the things we were told during testimony is that if this is passed, the New Hampshire Municipal Association will conduct training classes for town moderators and school district moderators so they will understand how the spending cap works.

So, in conclusion, Mister Chairman, I would ask that the members of the Senate, on behalf of the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee, please support the committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Yes, I wanted to announce a guest that's here with us today, the Honorable Bob Perry, who's in a conversation right now. He's from my hometown of Strafford, and I wanted to thank him for his former service in the House, and it's good to have him here with us today. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise, once again, to point out the significant legal questions with what we're attempting to do through Senate Bill 2. New Hampshire Supreme Court ruled unanimously that tax cap gimmicks are illegal because they interfere with the ability of cities in New Hampshire to create budgets. I served on City Council for eight years. I was elected by the majority of the people in this City to serve and to represent them and to review budgets for them. To now say that the mayor or city manager would have to submit a budget within a cap that would only exceed the cap by a supermajority violates what I think is what elected officials are sent there to do, and I believe that's what the Court also found. This takes the power away from the citizens of a city and puts it into an arbitrary formula. I think we make a mistake, and I think the evidence shows that tax cap gimmicks are damaging. A tax cap gimmick passed in Manchester – the City's bond rating actually dropped. I heard there are other cities' bond ratings who dropped when they've had their caps enacted. Franklin – and, I excuse my friends who live in Franklin or represent Franklin – but Franklin has had the longest standing tax cap in the state. And, by almost any economic or demographic measure, Franklin lags behind nearly all other cities. Just last week there was a headline that they're closing an elementary school. Franklin has had one of the single largest shifts in the share of property tax burden onto residential property because of the slow and negative growth in their commercial property. A study released recently argues that the Franklin tax gimmick has actually led to an erosion of the demographic and economic base of the City. Private sector job growth in Franklin dropped 25 percent between 1999 and 2000, making its job growth rate worse than any other comparable city. It has over the past received one of the highest rates of state school aid, but spends less per pupil than all but three communities in our state. Massachusetts – we all love to look at Massachusetts and compare how much better we are, but Massachusetts has had tax cap. In Chelmsford, the town was forced to close an elementary school and a fire station and lay off four firefighters, two police officers, and 14 teachers. In Bridgewater, the town had to reduce library hours to 15 hours a week, and Saugus, Massachusetts closed its library entirely. Hampton, Massachusetts made a decision, and they had to shut off all the streetlights. They've closed libraries, senior centers, and recreation departments.

I've served on local governments; many of you might have done that same thing. How real is it that you can be an effective elected official if you are under some tax cap that's brought on by a supermajority? It's rule of the minority over the majority. It's wrong; it's not good for our cities, it's not good for our towns, it's not good for our state. It's wrong, and I believe that we do not need to pass Senate Bill 2; we need to keep electing officials who will carry out the will of the people. As you can see, we have a House of 400 who've decided that they need to reduce spending and they are doing just that, and they are doing it without a tax cap. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Groen.)

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I think that the citizens of Franklin would take deep offense at the term "tax gimmick". When they passed their tax cap by a 60 percent vote, then when it was re-voted on, I believe it was a 73 percent vote. And, I suspect that the citizens of Franklin wouldn't have re-passed a tax cap by a 73 percent vote – just another little tidbit about that: If you would also look at the property tax rates in Franklin and see how they've dropped since the tax cap, you would see a different light there.

Now, coming from Franklin to a city I'm very familiar with, because I've lived there for many years, is Rochester. We passed a tax cap two years ago by a two-thirds vote – supermajority vote. We also, in that same election – excuse me, not that same election, because that was the general election. But, the next election, we also elected city officials that we then instructed to live under that tax cap, and they have, and have done quite well living under a budget that was defined by the citizens. It works very well, it works very well in the neighboring City of Dover. As a matter of fact, it works so well, that this past budget cycle, they overrode their tax cap. And, that's exactly what it was designed to do. They had a very tight budget – as a matter of fact, with the cost of living having gone down, their budget would have gone down by about four-tenths of a percent. The city council looked at that and overrode their tax cap. They only needed one additional vote in their city council to do that – they have a city council of 12 – it took seven to pass and eight to have a two-thirds majority; so, one additional member to pass that. With all due respect to my colleague from Concord, it's not a gimmick; it's passed by the citizens by a significant vote, and it works very well.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I'm just hoping that we can – I would ask that we talk about another town or city with a tax cap, since there are other to choose from. I appreciate that no one's attacking Franklin directly, per se, but I'm sure there are other examples we can choose from. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you, Senator. I will instruct the Senators to pick on towns in their own districts – at your own peril, I might add.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended.

SB 193, relative to nomination of political organizations. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 193 Ought to Pass. This bill permits nomination papers for political organizations to be dated in either the election year or the calendar year prior.

Public testimony centered on the lengthy and cumbersome process for securing nomination petitions. The time it takes to become a certified candidate affects fundraising and campaign organization. Previously, state statute did allow additional time for collecting petition signatures. The change in statute occurred when the State was attempting to comply with the federal Military and Overseas Voter Empowerment Act, known as the MOVE Act. The change was seen as being in line with the goals of the Act. Upon further consideration, however, it now appears the change in statute was unnecessary to meet these goals. Language for the bill was crafted with the assistance of the Secretary of State's Office.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends Senate Bill 193 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 32, relative to statutory references to the choice and duties of town auditors. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 32 Ought to Pass. This bill is a housekeeping measure, suggested by the Office of Legislative Services. It deletes two inappropriate statutory references to repealed or amended sections of the RSA relative to town auditors. HB 1448, which passed last year, inadvertently contained two references to those sections.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 32 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 42, relative to the appropriate officials with whom to file for a primary. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

Sen. Barnes moved to Table HB 42.

The question is on the motion to Table. Adopted.

HB 288-FN-L, relative to payment for election services to unincorporated places. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 288 Ought to Pass. This bill would require certain unincorporated places to pay for election services through the county. Current statute authorizes the Secretary of State to find a town where voters in a nearby unincorporated place can vote. So, for example, residents of Hale's Location in Carroll County vote in Conway. By law, the town is paid the sum of $50 for conducting the election for an unincorporated place. However, some unincorporated places have grown to a size that makes it significantly more expensive to conduct such elections; Hale's Location being one, where the population is now over 100. This proposal will allow the county to assess the actual cost of an election incurred by a town for an unincorporated place if that unincorporated place has greater than 10 voters.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 288 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 410, extending the reporting date of the committee to study dispatch times within the enhanced 911 system and requiring quarterly meetings of the committee. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 410 Ought to Pass. This bill extends the reporting date of the committee to study dispatch times within the enhanced 911 system from the time the call is placed to the arrival of assistance on scene, and all call transfers in between, from November 1st, 2010, to on or before November 1st, 2011.

The committee found that the data they needed to complete this study is currently unavailable. They're asking for an extension of time to gather the data, which will be available later this year. Meeting on a quarterly basis is the most efficient way for committee members to gather and review this data.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee unanimously recommends House Bill 410 be adopted and asks for your support.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

TRANSPORTATION

HB 441-FN, relative to muffling devices on boats. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-1. Senator Rausch for the committee.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 441-FN Ought to Pass. This bill eliminates the prohibition on devices that may be used to adjust muffling devices on boats.

The Committee heard from the Department of Safety Division of Marine Patrol, who are neutral on this bill, and from the boating stakeholders. After consideration of the testimony, the Committee determined it would be appropriate to pass this enabling legislation, which could lead to noise reduction on New Hampshire lakes.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

Floor Amendment to SB 40

Amend the bill by replacing section 5 with the following:

5 New Paragraph; Collection of Tax; Separate Bank Account. Amend RSA 78-A:7 by inserting after paragraph IV the following new paragraph:

V. If an operator has failed to timely remit tax due under RSA 78-A:8 for at least 2 consecutive months, the commissioner may require an operator to maintain a separate bank account in a federally insured bank chartered under the laws of New Hampshire or the federal government, with a branch within the state for the deposit of meals and rooms tax. All meals and rooms tax collected by the operator shall be deposited at least weekly in the separate bank account for monthly remittance to the state under RSA 78-A:8. When an operator required by the commissioner to maintain a separate bank account has made timely payments under RSA 78-A:8 for a period of 24 consecutive months, the requirement to maintain a separate bank account shall cease.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to introduce Floor Amendment 1308. And, I'll speak to that amendment. In the deliberations on this bill, which I introduced at the request of the Department of Revenue Administration, it was recognized that in the past, in the last budget, we had an attempt to deal with recalcitrant payers of meals and rooms taxes. And, what the proposal was is to put in place a bond that would be required of all businesses in this category. And, that was burdensome, and so that was taken away. But, the Department feels it needs some way to deal with the people that don't pay their taxes on time. And so, it was proposed, and through some negotiations – I have to thank the Senate President for the leadership on this – was this idea of having the equivalent of a joint account from which monies could be deposited and withdrawn by the Department. And, this seemed to be satisfactory to stakeholders and certainly is satisfactory to the Senate President and is satisfactory to the Department.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I recognize that this is a way to take care of those that are remiss in paying their tax, and it does eliminate the bond situation. But, here's a tax that we pay 3 percent to the person collecting it – we pay 3 percent. So, it would seem to me that rather than creating these separate bank accounts and saying that if you do it for 24 months, 24 consecutive months, then you're not going to have to keep the bank account, we should be looking at a methodology by which those taxes are remitted if not on a daily basis – which is easy, because they electronically can transfer the money now – on a more consistent basis. It's a tax that's immediately collected, it's a 9 percent tax that's immediately collected; the individual entity gets 3 percent remuneration for collecting the tax, and yet this is going to create that separate bank account, they're going to move the money into that separate bank account, then that separate bank account will be moved in terms of their payment to the State, and if you do this for 24 consecutive months, you go back to the old way. What is the old way? What's the old remittance situation? Is that once a month now, is it once a week, is it once every 30 days? I mean, if we're talking about efficiencies and effectiveness, the float on that money, if it's retained by the vendor, that's a loss for us, a loss for the State. I think we ought to be thinking along those lines. We put a ton of money into Revenue Administration last time. What did we give them in capital appropriation? About $9 million to create effective mechanisms for operating that Department. I think we ought to be thinking along those lines. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly for a question of Sen. Odell.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. Senator, I just had a question on line 6 of the floor amendment, 1308. And, I'm trying to understand the total bill here without the floor amendments. But, when it says that the Commissioner may require an operator to maintain a separate bank account, how does the Commissioner decide which operator he may or may not require?

SENATOR ODELL: If an operator has consistently been delinquent in paying their tax on time as determined by the Commissioner, then he would have the opportunity to demand that they have a process in place, which is used in other industries, to have the operator deposit the monies from which the Commissioner could withdraw the amount of money that's due and owed to the State. We have – this is a small number of people that are affected by this. But, remember, all of the good people out there are paying this tax, and they don't need any special attention; they just do it as a routine, as part of their business, part of their responsibility. There are those, always, and I remember Senator Janeway sitting right here: He said, "Why are we punishing all of the operators when a few people are recalcitrant and are delinquent in paying their taxes?" That's what this is addressed to. Let's worry about the small number of people who are not paying their taxes on time as determined by the Commissioner, as he determines it in other places within the tax collecting structure, and make sure that those people pay through the help of having a joint account.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly for a follow-up question of Sen. Odell.)

SENATOR KELLY: So, I just want it to be clear then, the intent here is really to provide an additional kind of protection or an account, and this involves the – for the Commissioner it's not an additional burden, and yet it protects kind of the operators from getting themselves in more trouble?

SENATOR ODELL: Yes. But, it also protects all of the good guys that pay regularly, so that we don't have to have a program, change our tax collection system – which is working very well – for everybody, just to deal with this small number of people who don't pay their taxes on time.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you.

Floor Amendment to SB 54

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the definition of declarant under the condominium act and the duties of the committee to study laws relating to condominium and homeowners' associations.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Condominium Act; Definition of Declarant; Mortgage Holder Exempt. Amend RSA 356-B:3, XIII to read as follows:

XIII. “Declarant” means all persons who execute or propose to execute the declaration or on whose behalf the declaration is executed or proposed to be executed. From the time of the recordation of any amendment to the declaration expanding an expandable condominium, all persons who execute that amendment or on whose behalf that amendment is executed shall also come within this definition. Any successors of the persons referred to in this paragraph who come to stand in the same relation to the condominium as their predecessors did shall also come within this definition; provided, however, this definition shall not include any homeowners association which is not controlled by a declarant or any mortgage holder that forecloses on a declarant's interest in the condominium, provided that the foreclosing mortgagee refrains from exercising any of the rights reserved to the declarant by this chapter. A foreclosing mortgagee may transfer all such rights to a successor builder or developer without registration or exemption, provided that, prior to such intended transfer, the mortgagee files an affidavit with the attorney general identifying the intended transferee by name, address, and telephone number, and listing the number of units or interests remaining in the condominium, and the number of units or interests so transferred.

2 Duties of the Committee to Study the Laws Relating to Condominium and Homeowners' Associations. Amend RSA 356-B:70, IV(a) to read as follows:

(a) Study laws relevant to condominium and other homeowners' associations, and the rules and regulations adopted thereunder, to assess their scope and application and whether revision or amendment is necessary.

3 Effective Date.

I. Section 1 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill excludes a foreclosing mortgagee from the definition of declarant under the condominium act. The bill also clarifies the duties of the committee to study the laws relating to condominium and homeowners' associations.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. My bill is a condominium registration act which affects the mortgage bankers in taking over condominium subdivisions and allowing them to pass the property to another developer without declaring themselves as "declarant". Should the mortgagor wish to be a developer or marketer, then he would be the declarant. Otherwise, he would be allowed to pass the property from one developer to another as a normal commercial transaction.

The other portion of the bill is to commit to a study committee to restructure the entire statute of condominium acts. Thank you, Mister President.

Recess. Out of recess.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a question of Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Senator, thank you for taking the question. I just wanted to confirm two things. One is that the purpose of the amendment in XIII is to clarify that a mortgage-holder – a bank, for example – that takes ownership of a property need not satisfy the requirements of a declarant unless they exercise those characteristics, is that correct?

SENATOR DE BLOIS: That's right. The bill basically allows the mortgagor to take over a subdivision and sell it to another developer. If that banker markets and develops the property, then they become the declarant. Otherwise, they are exempt from being the declarant if selling the property from one person to another is all they're doing.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a follow-up question of Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. Thank you, Senator, for taking the question. And, the study – I just want to clarify the study, which is section 2 of the bill – this is an ongoing study committee to look at condominium laws. So, this just adds a duty to that committee, is that correct? Or, adds something to the scope of their study?

SENATOR DE BLOIS: It really does. And, what the AG's Office asked, and that's why we put it into the study, is to look at the entire statute of the condominium act, because they realize it's 35 years old, it's a little outdated; municipalities have a lot more sophistication and subdivisions and condominium developments. So, that's why the committee has extended those responsibilities to look at the entire structure, which would include associations.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Senator. Thank you, Mister President.

SB 120, relative to alcoholic beverage advertising restrictions. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 2-2. Senator Prescott for the committee.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I will yield to those that wish to speak on behalf of the bill for a floor amendment. Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I would ask that you overturn the 2-2 committee vote of ITL so that I can offer a motion of Ought to Pass.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Failed.

Sen. Stiles moved Ought to Pass.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: Senate Bill 120 is legislation about fair advertising. Currently, our restaurants and lounges can identify reduced costs for beverages only within their establishment that cannot be seen from the outside. Advertising to customers who are already in there, they already know what's available. It's advertising to new customers outside the facility that increases their customer base, which can sustain them during slower periods.

Currently, grocery stores and State Liquor Commission and convenience stores are allowed to advertise alcohol freely while the food service community is not. Those who pay the rooms and meals tax are barred from doing so. Why would you restrict a business entity from advertising its products to new customers, inhibiting it from being successful?

The Liquor Commission testified that Senate Bill 120 reinforces responsible alcohol policy, that it empowers and encourages responsible hospitality practices and contains the language that's necessary for the Commission to suspend any advertising or promotion that is inconsistent with the spirit of public health and safety.

Senate Bill 120 is about fairness in our business community. Communities can exercise their local control for signage through sign ordinances. I urge my colleagues to support the Ought to Pass motion. And, thank you, Mister President.

Floor Amendment to SB 120

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Alcoholic Beverages; Advertising Restrictions. Amend RSA 179:31, XI to read as follows:

~~XI. [No advertising or promotion shall be done by the use of a billboard. Advertising shall not contain any reference to a "happy hour" except that a "happy hour schedule" may be posted within the licensed premises, not in view of any public way and an on-premises licensee may advertise or promote the holding of a "champagne brunch" or similar package.] Licensees may advertise liquor and beverage prices separately from any other advertisement or promotion.~~

XI-a. Notwithstanding paragraph XI, if the legislative body of a city or town adopts a provision prohibiting exterior signs promoting the sale of liquor or beverages at reduced prices, such signs shall not be permitted in that city or town.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to offer an amendment to SB 120 that rests on the bedrock principle of New Hampshire that we talked about today a lot, which is local control: Amendment 1318 would permit a city or a town to prohibit exterior signs promoting the sale of liquor or beverages at reduced prices – so, essentially, opt out of Senate Bill 120, which would permit happy hour advertising. I'm hoping that roundabout sentence did what I wanted it to do.

The Commerce Committee received fairly compelling testimony from the Durham Town Administrator and Police Chief and the Dean of Students at UNH, who was also speaking on behalf of the Deans at Keene State College and Plymouth State University about the potential negative impacts of expanded happy hour advertising on the students, the campus environment, and the communities in which the colleges and universities are located. As such, since there are communities that have concerns over expanded advertising, we should provide a response to that, which is the amendment that you see before you – 1318 – which provides for municipalities to opt out, at least with respect to the exterior signs promotion.

So, I understand Senator Stiles talked about principles of fundamental fairness and our responsibility to – but I think we have a responsibility to the wellbeing of all citizens of New Hampshire, which compels us to provide cities and towns, the entities that have to deal with the impact of expanded advertising, the opportunity to make a decision for themselves. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of the floor amendment, and I thank Senator Houde for bringing forward what I think is a reasonable compromise on this issue.

As you can imagine, coming from Durham, I've been involved in, you know, a lot of discussions at the local level about the concerns regarding binge drinking, alcohol abuse among students in particular. And, I can say that the Town of Durham and the University have been working very well and cooperatively to address those problems. So, I think that it's a reasonable approach to say that a town such as Durham has the opportunity to go ahead and continue their work on this problem in the way that is appropriate for them, and if that includes the potential discussion of adoption of the Senate Bill 120 options, so be it. But, I believe that this is a reasonable compromise to allow municipalities to address this issue in the way that they see fit.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I speak actually neither in favor or opposed to the amendment; I'm somewhat neutral. But, because it came in so late and all of us are just digesting this, really, now, I did want to mention that in the Commerce Committee, just to balance Senator Houde's comments, we did hear from restaurateurs, particularly those that own chains, that they thought this type of amendment would be problematic due to the fact that some of them, you know, there are famous chains in New Hampshire, I won't name names on the Senate floor, but you know, they operate in multiple locations. And, they felt that a patchwork of regulations would be difficult for them. And so, I just want you to think about that before we vote.

There was also the concern brought about, there are certain types of media that aren't really constrained by local advertising, such as newspapers and radio and television, that cross town borders, and that was problematic, as well.

So, again, to be clear, I don't speak in favor or against the amendment. There's difficult choices; everybody, I think, has to go their own way on this. But, I did want to bring balance to what the Commerce Committee heard.

And lastly, I just feel – I know this is a little bit unusual, but I do feel that I have to say something in defense of my fellow Senator, Senator Sanborn. He's had kind of a rough time in the press over this bill, and believe it or not, even in this building over the bill, questioning his integrity, his motives. And, that's not only an assault, really, on Senator Sanborn, but, I feel, on the entire restaurant and beverage industry. And, to be clear, I don't drink; I actually consider myself pretty anti-alcohol. But, the fact of the matter is that alcohol is a legal substance in the State of New Hampshire; there's nothing dishonorable about restaurants or restaurateurs that sell alcohol that do it lawfully. They're hardworking people, they work long hours. Senator Sanborn, in particular, and his wife, Laurie, have invested a lot of their personal time, effort, and, I suppose, their funds, into their business. And, they're honorable people; restaurateurs are honorable people. And, I feel bad that both in the press and, like I said, even within this building, this has devolved a little bit into a personal attack on the integrity of Senator Sanborn and the business he's in. And so, I felt it necessary to make these comments to defend Senator Sanborn. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Houde, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Bradley, Forsythe, Houde, Groen, Odell, White, Kelly, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Larsen, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, D'Allesandro, Merrill, Morse, Prescott, Bragdon.

SB 197, regulating guaranteed price plans and prepaid contracts for heating oil, kerosene, or liquefied petroleum gas. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-1. Senator Houde for the committee.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 197 Ought to Pass. SB 197 requires home heating oil, kerosene, or liquefied petroleum gas dealers to secure customer prepaid deposits by maintaining either an escrow account, letter of credit, or surety bond of a specified amount.

The majority of the Committee believes that this bill is a move in the right direction for both consumers and businesses because it will provide greater protections for consumers that enter into prepaid contracts and will allow the industry to show it has moved on from a few recent and unfortunate high-profile instances. Senate Bill 197 is the product of a collaborative effort on the part of the Attorney General's Office and the New Hampshire Oil Heat Council that, among other measures, establishes a provision where companies offering prepaid contracts for heating fuel may reserve funds equivalent to 75 percent of the total amount of prepaid balances in an escrow account with the New Hampshire Attorney General's Office named as beneficiary. The provision will increase the likelihood of recovery of money prepaid by the consumer should a company become insolvent and renege on its obligation to provide fuel as outlined in a contract.

Please support the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass on Senate Bill 197. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Yes. Thank you, Mister President. I do rise in support of SB 197 and would just like to speak to the bill. As the sponsor of this bill, I think I just want to make it really clear to my colleagues what the intent of the bill truly is. And, the intent of the bill is to protect the consumers who enter into these prepaid contracts, and equally important it is for the protection of businesses who offer the prepaid contracts.

We all know that this has been a problem recently and in the last few years. It's unfortunate, and too many familiar situations have struck many of our New Hampshire communities with this issue. Truly, what the issue is is that oil distributors enter into a prepaid contract with customers, but then find themselves unable to deliver the oil. And, in doing so, it is affecting individuals who are consumers and it has affected schools, as well. In particular, in my District, was a very unfortunate situation that happened to an oil company, and not only did consumers suffer because they were individuals that had lost the ability to have oil delivered, and, as well, they now had to come up with additional money to pay for new oil. It also affected the schools in my District; they had budgeted, now they have to look at maybe making even more cuts in their budget in order to receive additional oil. As well, the company in my District ended with a very tragic ending. Not only did the family end up – or, the business go into bankruptcy, but the family suffered personally, as well. And, I'm not going to go into any further detail with that, just to protect the family.

And, we know that there are many other communities that this very same thing has happened to. In fact, just over the weekend in the paper, there was another notice of another company that actually went into bankruptcy and was unable to deliver oil.

So, really, this legislation – all this legislation does is it repeals one section of the RSA 339, which is our trade and commerce legislation regarding petroleum sales contracts. Currently, in the law, under RSA 339, there are three options for businesses who are offering prepaid contracts to consumers: One is a futures contract; one is a surety bond; and the other is the letter of credit. What this legislation does is, it changes the future contract into an escrow account, where the oil company would actually hold 75 percent of the customers' balance. As we all know, futures contracts really are not a protection for the consumer or for the business. What a futures contract does is that it only requires that the oil company reserve a specific amount of oil to be paid at a later date; it doesn't require the company to actually purchase the oil. So, there's never been any exchange of any funds. That option, the futures contract option, has really not offered any protection to any of either, as I said, the consumer or the business. However, an escrow account replaces the futures contract option, and it provides more protection than the future contract. It protects the oil company from defaulting on their promise and any kind of financial ruin.

We did hear from many of the businesses; they came to the hearing and said that they felt this escrow account as a third option provides a system for their businesses to track dollars, and it's a reasonable business practice. So, it's not an additional burden on the company. We also heard from the oil distributors – as I said, it was not an additional burden on the businesses, and, as well, the oil distributors and the AG finally got together and actually came up, together, with this language. So, they agreed upon it, which has taken forever to do. So, we don't want to lose this opportunity to move that forward.

The legislation is, under current law, just changing that one element, and that law is subject to the consumer protection laws, as well, so there is protection there, as well. So, I really, I urge all of my colleagues to support this legislation, and think that we can continue to offer some additional – not just notice, raising the thresholds, but maybe some additional protections so that these tragedies and unfortunate situations don't happen again. I encourage you to support SB 197. Thank you.

Amendment to SB 4

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 4 Ought to Pass as Amended. SB 4 requires legislative approval of cost items for state employee contract negotiations. This legislation assures that the Legislature has a seat at the table regarding new contracts negotiated by the Executive Branch and the State Employees Association. SB 4 recreates an oversight responsibility and provides the Legislature with latitude to decide how to exercise that as part of the budget or separate legislation. This in turn gives the Legislature the opportunity to fulfill its responsibility for budgeting for the State of New Hampshire.

The ED&A Committee voted favorably Ought to Pass as Amended, and we ask for your support on this adoption. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move with some regret and ask the body to overturn the Ought to Pass with Amendment motion; I will offer a subsequent motion of Re-refer to Study. I say that, as I said, with regret, and as the sponsor of the bill. This is another good government initiative, but as we delved into the merits of the bill, we realized that for it to be effective in this legislative session, we're running out of time, if you will. And so, we wanted to re-refer it to make sure that logistically it happens in a way that allows members of the Legislature or the full Legislature to fully participate in any future contracts. So, having said that, I'd urge my colleagues to vote down the Ought to Pass motion and I will introduce a subsequent motion.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Failed.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass. Failed.

Sen. Bradley moved Re-refer to committee.

SB 129-FN, requiring valid photo identification to vote in person. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-3. Senator Barnes for the committee.

Senate Finance
March 24, 2011

Amendment to SB 129-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to presenting photo identification to vote in person and relative to the election fund.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Election Fund. Amend RSA 5:6-d, III to read as follows:

III. The secretary of state is authorized to accept, budget, and, subject to the limitations of this paragraph, expend monies in the election fund received from any party for the purposes of conducting elections, voter and election official education, the purchase or lease of voting equipment which complies with Help America Vote Act of 2002, Public Law 107-252, election law enforcement, and improvements to related information technology, including acquisition and operation of an automated election management system. The secretary of state shall not expend any monies in the election fund unless the balance in the fund following such expenditures shall be at least ~~[15]~~ 12 times the estimated annual cost of maintaining the programs established to comply with the Help America Vote Act of 2002, Public Law 107-252.

2 Obtaining a Ballot. Amend RSA 659:13 to read as follows:

659:13 Obtaining a Ballot.

I. A person desiring to vote shall, before being admitted to the enclosed space within the guardrail, ~~[announce his or her name to one of the ballot clerks who shall thereupon repeat the name]~~ approach the ballot clerk to check in. The ballot clerk shall request that the voter present a valid photo identification meeting the requirements of paragraph II. The ballot clerk shall announce the name of the voter; and, if the name is found on the checklist by the ballot clerk, the ballot clerk shall put a checkmark beside it and again repeat the name. The ballot clerk shall state the address listed on the checklist for the voter, and ask if the address is correct; if the address on the checklist is not correct, the ballot clerk shall correct the address in red on the paper checklist and the supervisors of the checklist shall cause the centralized voter registration database to reflect the correction. The voter, if still qualified to vote in the town or ward and having presented a valid photo identification verifying the voter's identity, and unless challenged as provided for in RSA ~~[659:27-33]~~ 659:27 through 659:33, shall then be allowed to enter the space enclosed by the guardrail. After the voter enters the enclosed space, the ballot clerk shall give the voter one of each ballot to be voted on in that election which shall be folded as it was upon receipt from the secretary of state.

II. A valid photo identification shall satisfy all the following:

(a) The identification shows the name of the individual to whom the identification was issued, and the name substantially conforms to the name in the individual's voter registration record.

(b) The identification shows a photograph of the individual to whom the identification was issued.

(c) The identification includes an expiration date, and the identification is not expired.

(d) The identification was issued by the United States, the state of New Hampshire, a political subdivision of the state of New Hampshire, an educational institution licensed or approved by the postsecondary education commission, or a business or institution recognized by local election officials.

III. If a voter does not have a photo identification that satisfies the requirements of paragraph II, the photo identification requirement may be satisfied by having a digital photograph of the voter taken by an election official to be kept on file.

3 New Sections; Authority of Secretary of State. Amend RSA 659 by inserting after section 13-a the following new sections:

659:13-c Authority to Expend Moneys From the Election Fund. The secretary of state may expend moneys from the election fund established under RSA 5:6-d for the purpose of purchasing equipment and implementing improvements to information technology that may be required by RSA 659:13, III.

4 Requesting Photo Identification. At any election prior to October 1, 2012, when issuing a ballot pursuant to RSA 659:13, the ballot clerk shall request that the voter present a valid photo identification issued by the United States, the state of New Hampshire, a political subdivision of the state of New Hampshire, an educational institution licensed or approved by the postsecondary education commission, or a business or institution recognized by local election officials. If the voter does not have a photo identification requested under this section, the ballot clerk shall inform the voter that such a photo identification will be required in future elections in order to vote.

5 Effective Date.

I. Section 2 of this act and RSA 659:13-b as inserted by section 3 of this act shall take effect October 1, 2012.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires that a voter present a valid photo identification to vote in person or have his or her photograph taken by an election official to be kept on file. This bill also reduces the balance that the secretary of state is required to maintain in the election fund.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move Senate Bill 129 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill requires that a voter present a valid photo identification to vote in person, or have his or her photograph taken by an election official to be kept on file. This bill reduces the balance that the Secretary of State is required to maintain in the election fund. This amendment clarifies the financial component of the bill that the Secretary of State is authorized to accept, budget, and expend monies in the election fund received from any party for the purposes of conducting elections, voter and election official education at which the purchase or lease of voting equipment complies with Help America Vote Act of 2002. The Secretary of State shall not expend any monies in the election fund unless the balance in the fund following such expenditures shall be at least 12 times the estimated annual cost of maintaining the programs established to comply with the Help America Vote Act. The Secretary of State's Office will use the presidential primary coming up to implement and train elected officials in polling places to ease into the new requirements.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment, and I thank you Mister President and colleagues.

Recess. Out of recess.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. Just to add a couple of remarks to what my good friend from Raymond just talked about. As I understand the Finance Committee amendment, it strikes the provision that had been in the previously adopted bill about a provisional ballot – that will be gone. There was a lot of opposition from the Secretary of State's Office about the efficacy of utilizing provisional ballots and concern, quite frankly, from voters, as to whether their provisional ballot would count. The Finance Committee amendment says that if somebody comes to vote without a photo ID, they will be able to vote, their ballot will count – it's not provisional. They will have, I believe it's ten days, in which to return to the town clerk with a valid photo ID after having signed an affidavit to ensure that the person is who he or she says that they are. And, let me also make clear that there will be no cost to the voter to attain the non-driver's license, non-passport photo ID to be able to vote. So, hopefully that has clarified any questions that have come up as a result of this bill.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: You just said, Senator Bradley, that this bill is to ensure the voter is who they say they are. Has there been any instance of voter fraud beyond the one ten years ago of a son representing his father and voting? Has any indication from the Attorney General shown voter fraud?

SENATOR BRADLEY: I believe that we discussed this on the floor last week, or two weeks ago, when this bill was debated before it went to the Finance Committee. And, while there hasn't been any specific examples of it, over the years, there have been a number of concerns raised that we believe indicated that there should be a photo ID to make sure that in the future, our elections are as clean and honest as absolutely humanly possible; that somebody prove before they vote, much as you would to get a passport or anything else of that kind of magnitude, that you are in fact who you say you are. This is what I would call a good government reform; it's one that assures the efficacy and the openness and the transparency and the honesty of the voting process.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. If the committee amendment is the amendment in our book, when we had discussions at the Finance Committee, the question of cost was the issue that was discussed. And, at that point in time, we were going to spend a considerably amount of money to have cameras at every site to take this picture; we've got to train people to take this picture, and then they had to verify this picture. I think we're talking about a problem that doesn't exist; we're trying to create a problem. And, what we're trying to do is, again, constrict the voting process. We run the best elections in the United States of America. Our Secretary of State has been lauded by everyone about the quality of our elections. We get better participation here than any place in the United States; that's what elections are all about: getting people to vote. We haven't had voter fraud in New Hampshire. I think those three imperatives exist, and why we are going one step further doesn't make any sense to me at all. We've got a lot of other things that we can spend money on that enhance the lives of people in New Hampshire rather than addressing a problem that doesn't exist. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill for a question of Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President, and thank you, Senator D'Allesandro. I understand there's been discussion on the use of funding from the Help America Vote Act, or "HAVA", for purposes of this new suggested requirement or way of dealing with the photo ID issue. Did you feel confident that in fact the HAVA money would be available to this purpose?

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you very much for the question, Senator. What we got from the Secretary of State – actually, the designee of the Secretary; the Deputy came to us – was that he wasn't really absolutely sure that this is what the money could be used for; there are two different pockets of money. So, there was no real clarity as to how that money could be used.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. Just in response to Senator D'Allesandro, we just actually in caucus had a meeting with the Deputy Secretary, and he did assure us that money from the HAVA funds would be used for this purpose. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. Last time that we voted on this bill I did stand up and say I would like to make sure that when people do go to the polls that they aren't turned away and that they do vote. And, I really appreciate the work that the Finance Committee did getting this amendment that we just passed onto this bill, and I will be glad to vote for the bill now. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I, too, appreciate the work that the Finance Committee did in taking a look at this bill and in entertaining another approach to the bill. However, in my mind, the amended version still puts out obstacles to voting that are unnecessary and will discourage, I think, a subset of our population from voting, and for that reason, I will not vote for this. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended.

JUDICIARY

SB 88, relative to physical force in defense of a person. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-1. Senator Luther for the committee.

Amendment to SB 88

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 3:

2 New Paragraph; Physical Force in Defense of a Person. Amend RSA 627:4 by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

IV. A person is not justified in using deadly force on another to defend himself or herself or a third person from deadly force that he or she provoked.

2011-1222s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill removes a person's duty to retreat from an encounter involving deadly force. The bill also provides that a person is not justified in using deadly force on another to defend himself, herself, or a third person from the use of deadly force that he or she provoked.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass with Amendment on SB 88. This legislation deals with the duty to retreat from an encounter involving deadly force. Under the Castle Doctrine, an individual has the right to defend himself or herself in their home or curtilage – that's something, a word I hadn't heard before; I learned what curtilage is. And, that's the area immediately surrounding the home. The provisions of SB 88 merely extend this protection to any place where you have the right to be present. Currently, 31 other states have this statutory right. Adopting SB 88 enables New Hampshire to join these states, thus enabling citizens to defend themselves against unlawful force.

The committee amendment merely clarifies that someone who was the initial aggressor, ie: they were trying to rob you when you defended yourself, cannot turn this provision upside down and be protected under the law.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that SB 88 be adopted with the amendment and asks for your support. I will mention beyond the written comments that I am going to be voting against the amendment.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, and I want to speak specifically to the committee amendment. I would urge my Senate colleagues to vote against the committee amendment, even though I believe the Judiciary Committee did a very good job on the bill, I think that there were concerns raised at kind of the eleventh hour by several of my constituents about the committee amendment, specifically the wording about "provoked" and not being clearly defined, a little bit vague, and perhaps would create some unintended consequences. So, for that reason, I'm asking my Senate colleagues, as Senator Luther also has stated, to vote against the committee amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise to speak both to the amendment, to just give a little bit more of a background, perhaps, and also, I was the one on the 3-1, but maybe I'll wait to speak to that.

The Attorney General's Office and the Department of Safety both came in in opposition to the bill as introduced, as people may know. And, that being said, knowing that the policy was going to change somewhat dramatically from the Castle Doctrine to a "stand-your-ground" doctrine, they said: "If you're going to change the policy, please help preclude an unintended consequence of having an initial aggressor benefit from being able to claim they're using deadly force in self defense." And so, we went to the statute on the use of non-deadly force and self defense, where the exact word was used. And, we crafted that not in the hopes of ambiguity, but in the hopes of clarity and consistency. So, for that, I would encourage the committee to support the amendment that was drafted, provided understanding that it is intended to prevent an initial aggressor from taking advantage of this situation to their benefit. That is what it's designed to do, not the other way around. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I haven't been looking at my emails today because we've been up here, but some of the emails refer to the Senate amendment as "the Luther amendment". And so, I'm concerned that you are now opposing your own amendment, and I'm wanting to hear your thoughts behind this.

SENATOR LUTHER: Well, there's a little confusion here: It wasn't my amendment. So, I don't believe it was my amendment – yeah. So, there's some confusion on this. I don't recall it being my amendment. So, I just want to clarify that.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a follow-up question of Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LARSEN: But, you do oppose it now.

SENATOR LUTHER: Yes.

SENATOR LARSEN: And you voted for it in committee?

SENATOR LUTHER: I did, yes.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a follow-up question of Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Is there some information that you came to that's different now than before?

SENATOR LUTHER: I have had a lot of contact with constituents in the last 24 hours, and they've raised enough concerns, I think valid concerns, where I am not comfortable voting for it at this point.

SENATOR LARSEN: Okay. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Failed.

Floor Amendment to SB 88

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to physical force in defense of a person and relative to the brandishing of a firearm or other means of self-defense.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 Criminal Threatening. Amend RSA 631:4, IV to read as follows:

IV. Except as otherwise prohibited by statute, a person who is anywhere he or she has a right to be and who responds to a threat which would be considered by a reasonable person as likely to cause serious bodily injury or death to the person or to another by displaying or brandishing a firearm or other means of self-defense with the intent to warn away the person making the threat shall not have committed a criminal act under this section.

2011-1310s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Removes a person's duty to retreat from an encounter involving deadly force.

II. Provides that a person is not justified in using deadly force on another to defend himself, herself, or a third person from the use of deadly force that he or she provoked.

III. Provides that, except as otherwise prohibited by statute, a person who is anywhere he or she has a right to be and who displays or brandishes a firearm or other means of self-defense to warn off a threat shall not be guilty of criminal threatening.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: The amendment, 1310, has to do with brandishing, and it reads: "Except as otherwise prohibited by statute, a person who is anywhere he or she has a right to be and who responds to a threat which would be considered by a reasonable person as likely to cause serious bodily injury or death to a person or to another by displaying or brandishing a firearm or other means of self-defense with the intent to ward away the person making the threat shall not have committed a criminal act..." Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to speak in opposition to Amendment 1310. But, I may also have questions, and I'm not sure what order, if there's an order, to do that in.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: What's your question about the order?

SENATOR HOUDE: Well, I guess the question is, have some particulars with respect to the amendment, and then I can ask those and then speak to it – speak against it? How would you...

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: You have questions of Senator De Blois on the amendment?

SENATOR HOUDE: I do.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a question of Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. Thank you, Senator, for taking the question. Senator, would you agree that this is, essentially, the gist of Senate Bill 14, which was introduced earlier this session and is...may be on the table at this juncture?

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Yes, it is.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a follow-up question of Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Okay. And, would you believe that the Judiciary Committee decided to re-refer Senate Bill 14 because there were several unanswered questions with how the bill was introduced?

SENATOR DE BLOIS: No, I don't believe that's the case at all. Our intention was to bring one bill instead of two; 14 and 88 are being combined into one bill at this time.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a follow-up question of Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Senator. Is "brandishing" defined in statute?

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Yes. Brandishing is in the statute, and it's a criminal offense – a felony. We've had several citizens who have pulled out a weapon and shown it and have been sentenced to three to six years in prison. The simple fact of brandishing, which is showing an arm, should not be a criminal act. And, that's what this bill does to solve that problem, with simply showing a firearm or a weapon would not constitute criminal threatening.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde for a follow-up question of Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: I'm not aware of where brandishing is defined in statute, so I'm glad to know that it is. But, could you reference that for me?

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Is it referenced in here? My memory isn't good; I think it's 321:B?

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Actually, perhaps we may want to resolve that issue first, about the definition of "brandishing" in statute before I speak.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Senator De Blois, do you have an answer for the previous question about the definition of "brandishing"?

SENATOR DE BLOIS: I'm told that it's not in the statute, but it's... Gee, you know, I thought I read that it was, in 321-B:4, that it was a criminal act to be brandishing a weapon.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you, Senator De Blois.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. Yes, I will speak. Until we get clarification about how "brandishing" is defined in statute, I'm going to argue that there's some ambiguity with respect to how it would be – it's certainly not defined in this section. So, we don't know if "brandishing" means taking a gun out of your holster, out of your bag, whatever, holding it, waving it around, pointing it at someone...there's no clarity with respect to what "brandishing" is. The reason, and, in my opinion and my recollection, is that we re-referred this bill is because we wanted to clarify these issues. We can disagree on the policy. But, the idea was to gain clarity so that it wasn't ambiguous when the bill left this chamber. So, that is a principle concern of mine, is if we're amending criminal statutes we should have clarity with it and not Webster's clarity about what "brandishing" means but our statutory clarification about what "brandishing" means.

I have a second concern, which is with respect to the policy – and, again, we can disagree on the policy. But, my take on the policy here is that we do not want to take this risk of escalation in these sorts of situations. And so, I was thinking about how this bill was drafted, or how this bill came in, and here's a realistic scenario, which is a divorced couple, husband and wife, have joint custody of their kids; they do an exchange at McDonald's. This statute would essentially... They're certainly entitled to be at McDonald's; she's licensed, let's say, but they have a history of domestic violence; he makes a gesture that she interprets, completely reasonably, to be threatening; she takes out and brandishes her gun, her firearm, or other means of self-defense – but let's assume it's a firearm – it goes off, and, God forbid, it kills someone ordering a Big Mac or their kid. And so, this... I'm not using hyperbole; I'm not being melodramatic. I'm painting what I consider to be a reasonable, realistic situation.

I also would add, with respect to the clarity of the statute, and I actually recognize that there's a distinction between how the amendment came in and how the bill was introduced, which is: "except as otherwise prohibited by statute", so I appreciate that effort at clarification of where a firearm might not be allowed. But, I might suggest that there are places where people have a right to be that have rules or regulations that might prohibit them from having firearms, but that situation isn't covered here. So, I believe we have rules or regulations in this chamber that don't allow firearms; we don't next door. So, but this again, let's have clarity. So, if you like the policy, okay, that's fine. But, let's make sure that we take the time to spell out and avoid any ambiguity. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White for a question of Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR WHITE: My first question to Senator Houde is, do you feel there's ambiguity in the word "displaying" in the bill? The amendment says: "is likely to cause serious bodily injury or death to the person or to another by displaying or brandishing..." Do you think there is ambiguity in the word "displaying"?

SENATOR HOUDE: No, I don't think there's ambiguity in the word "displaying".

(The Chair recognized Sen. White for a follow-up question of Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR WHITE: My second question is, even though there may or may not be a definition of the word "brandishing" in our RSA's, wouldn't there be a definition of that in case law, as there's been many criminal cases about this in New Hampshire?

SENATOR HOUDE: There may well be, Senator White; I don't know the answer to that question. But, I think we have taken the prerogative to define certain terms, whether it's "brandishing" or "displaying", differently than the court has on many occasions, and this would be a situation, in my opinion, where we would want to do that.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to respond to some of the comments that Senator Houde brought forward. This bill is specifically aimed at a case that was recently in the news with Ward Bird. The injustice that he suffered for displaying or brandishing a weapon: was convicted of a felony and was sentenced to three to six years. And, that was the mandatory sentence that was unjust, and this bill will prohibit that type of injustice again. Senator Houde says that there are other places that you have a right to be that are not covered. But, I differ with that, because this bill says: "except as otherwise prohibited by statute". Now, statute does prohibit you from being in a courthouse with a weapon or, you know, other places that are prohibited by statute already. So, that is covered; that is in the bill. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I simply rise to point out that, in my mind, there's a big difference between displaying and brandishing. And, displaying can be something as simple as indicating that you have a weapon. Brandishing can include aiming it at someone; brandishing is so ill-defined as in fact you could be pointing it at someone as you're brandishing that you have it. That, to me, raises to a higher level of threatening, and I think it's an important distinction. I think there's a reason why the chiefs of police came and spoke against this bill, and I believe they would probably speak against this amendment. I don't think we've had a hearing on this amendment, so it's hard to know what they would say about that. But, I do believe that there's an important distinction, and there's a reason why the Attorney General came and spoke against the original bill. So, I'm not sure we need to be amending this statute, and that's why I'll be voting "no".

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I will be brief. My point is, we can disagree on the policy – fine. But, let's take a recess, let's take some time to provide clarity so that the objectives can be accomplished and the parameters can be made clear. In response to Senator De Blois' point, I would argue that this bill as amended addresses nothing with respect to Ward Bird. We have bills coming that do address that situation; I'm just not sure that this one actually does. Thank you, Mister President.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I have a 2-17. As all of you know, I'm sure everyone in this chamber realizes, that spring training has been going on down in Arizona and down in Florida for a month-and-a-half, and that the season officially gets kicked off tomorrow. Now, New Hampshire's team doesn't start until Friday – of course, New Hampshire's team is the Boston Red Sox, as we all know.

In my opinion, today marks the first day of the regular session in the Senate. This has been a great example of a lot of discussion, and we're going to have a lot of major-league decisions to be making as we go along. And, we're starting the day before the official Major League baseball season starts. And, the rosters have all been settled, and all 24 of us have a position; we didn't get cut, we didn't get sent to Pawtucket; we're all here.

Now, having said that, we have the great news on the front page – and, I don't have the front page, but on the front page, there was a picture of a young man – it was a small picture. But, on the front page of the sporting page, there's a picture – a bigger picture – and there's a certain Senator in here who knows that young man very well; it's her son. Her son, Sam, has made the big-time. Her son has been playing a lot of Minor League baseball and some Major League baseball; he's been called up, he's with the Cubs. And, it was interesting that the Chicago Cubs traded Sam to Tampa Bay – which is one of our enemies, so I won't be able to root for her young man; for 18 games I'll have to be booing him. But, other than that I'll be cheering him on. He made the big-time. Now, I think that's tremendous, and we congratulate you, Senator, you and your husband, and obviously your son. And, we know you're going to have fun going to Fenway Park and down to New York, close by to see him; you won't have to go out to those places in Dubuque, Iowa and West Cupcake, Oregon to see him play; he's in the big-time! Just like all of you; you're in the big-time.

Now, I'm going to read something, and I'll read it quickly. It's something that caught my eye; it was in the Sunday paper. And, there's a problem with it; the guy that wrote it's a Yankee fan. If this had been me, if I'd have been intelligent enough to write this, I would have made other references, but forgive me when I mention some references that this fella makes. And, it's by Roger Rosenblatt. And, I've got to tell you, it brought a couple of almost tears to my eyes as I read this, because our season is getting ready to start.

"Take me out to the ballgame! Spring is here, and Americans thoughts turn, once again, to baseball. When the game was over, I stood with a bunch of kids outside Yankee Stadium waiting to get autographs. The Indians' Bob Feller burst through the door, a losing pitcher's scowl on his face and plowed through us, muttering his irritation. Offended, I reported it to my dad, who suggested I write a letter of complaint to the New York Times. I was 10, and it was 1951. I can't recall if the Times ran my letter, or even if I mailed it. But the incident suggests what an innocent time that was, long before big money divided fans from the stars, when players were expected to sign baseballs and chat with kids in the street.

Yet even now, when a so-so reliever costs $5 million and the stadium serves quiche, baseball retains most of its innocence. Here we are, older and jaded, and still giddy as the season begins,” and, you’re looking at a giddy Senator right now, “Nothing in American life excites us this way. Of course, my “we” and “us” assume everyone loves the game, but why not? Baseball is America. It’s competitive,” just like in this chamber sometimes. “It’s green. And it’s such a well-made invention.

Like the Constitution, baseball has balances between institutional order and individual passion. For over a century, its rules have suffered no major changes. Sixty feet and six inches is still sixty feet and six inches; the bat is the bat; the ball, the ball.

Yet within that sturdy sameness, the individual goes to town. Robinson Cano flips the ball to first like a 95-miler fastball.” He’s the second baseman for the evil empire, if you don’t know. “Mariano Rivera locates his cutter anywhere he wants to. The Pirates’ Andrew McCutchen runs like a sprinter, and the Cardinals’ Albert Pujols hits everything a country mile. Baseball is the only major sport in which the person, not the ball, does the scoring. Huge Adam Dunn of the White Sox has batted a career .250, while Seattle’s Ichiro Suzuki (170 pounds?) has batted .331. And every feat seems all the more amazing because it is accomplished within the confines of an orderly universe.

The Irish writer Sean O’Faolain said that the most hopeful word in the English language is “and.” And. And here we go again, longing for the world of pitchers and catchers and balls and strikes. And jobs are hard to come by. And mortgages are hard to pay. And the world may be full of terror and tears. And yet...

There are two seasons to baseball and two seasons of emotions:” Just like there are in this chamber. “The heady optimism of spring and early summer and then the dispiriting time not long after the All-Star game, when everything that was heaving with promise comes to a hard end. From April to August, baseball is Mickey Mantle as a boy with peach fuzz, an Oklahoma twang, and knees that worked. From August to the Series, it’s the man with bloodshot eyes and a sunbaked neck, and the foolish yearning to play one year too many.

No sport cherishes its memories like baseball. Will you ever forget” – and I sure won’t – “the picture of Willie Mays’s back as he ran down Vic Wertz’s drive in the 1954 World Series?” And, I’ll bet you Lou D’Allesandro remembers that; he was probably watching it. What a catch. “Will you forget Ted Williams’s last at-bat, how he shot around the bases after his home run and then refused to acknowledge the Boston fans, contemptuous to the end? And Stan Musial’s shy smile? And Bob Gibson’s glower? And you – will you ever forget you – -tossing a ball with your mom or dad” – and I bet you that happened in your household more than once – “in the yard, the two of you connected by nothing but a baseball? You played “catch,” not “throw,” because in no other way were you so completely catching each other.” How many times did you catch that? Boy, I bet you were out there. Okay.

“Bob Feller died last year. I no longer wait outside Yankee Stadium, and I go to maybe three games a year. Yet I go. And I always go early, to watch batting practice, and fungo, and the games of pepper. It is then that we can see the players not as tycoons but as kids; then, as the game is about to begin, that we perch on the edge of our seats, all in it together, one game, one country. And Derek Jeter is breaking toward second. And Minnesota's Joe Mauer is rising from his crouch and pegging the ball low and on the first-base side of the bag. And Jeter goes in headfirst. And there's so much dust. And the umpire cries, "Out!" Out? Are you kidding?!"

Guys, we're at our regular season, and so is baseball, starting tomorrow. Thank you for your indulgence.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: I'd like a Rule 2-17. Very briefly, I would like to wish my daughter, Deirdre, a Happy 22nd Birthday today.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. And, I guess this is a Rule 2-17. I just wanted to thank Senator Barnes for his kind words about Sam. And, it's a pleasure to share Sam's good news with my colleagues here. He's worked hard to get on that opening day roster. I wish I could say I could share 23 free tickets too, or maybe more for our other friends around the room, but not as a new guy – I can't do that. But, perhaps we can meet out in the bleachers sometime when Tampa Bay comes to town.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: As the new season starts, I hope Senator Barnes has the passion in Finance. For all of you that have an interest in finance, and for all of you that have questions that you want to reply back to your constituents where phase two is, because the Senate has not touched the budget yet. The Governor spoke, the House will speak tomorrow, and the Senate, on Monday, will be introduced to the House's position at 1:00. And, all Senators are welcome. If you're coming, I think you should probably let us know – it'll be in Room 103 – so we can save a seat for you. If you can't make Monday, Wednesday, LBA's going to present to Senate Finance starting at 10:00; it'll be in much more detail. But, it's another opportunity to learn, and we're looking forward to the new season, right Senator?

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: Rule 2-17. Very quickly, I just want to say, as a freshman, and I think a lot of my colleagues would share this, that it's a real privilege to be part of this institution, and I think today has been a great experience, even though it's been long; it's been a great privilege, and I just want to thank you all for just your kindnesses and working together.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: I will echo Senator Luther. I think it's been a really good day. Don't forget, today we started this day with Timothy Gibson's memorial bridge, a very somber moment. But, I can tell you that this Senate made us proud, and I can tell you you made a big impact on that family, so I'm really grateful for that. And, I'm grateful for the leadership of Senator Bragdon and all that happened today; I think things went very smoothly. I'm grateful for the leadership of Senator Larsen, because I feel that both caucuses work together very well; my understanding is crossover day, I should still have three or four hours to go, but we don't, and I think that's a tribute to both of those leaders:

Senator Larsen and Senator Bragdon. So, I wanted to give you your due for that and just thank the whole body again for what you did for Corporal Gibson.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you very much. I would certainly like to thank Senator Bradley and Senator Larsen for their assistance in making things flow smoothly.

MOTION TO RECESS TO CALL OF THE CHAIR

Sen. Bradley moved that the business of the day being completed, that the Senate recess to the Call of the Chair for the purposes of introducing legislation, referring bills to committee, scheduling hearings, sending and receiving messages, and processing enrolled bill reports and amendments and when we recess, we recess to the Call of the Chair.

Adopted. The Senate is in recess to the Call of the Chair.

Out of Recess. Call Senate to Order.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

April 13, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Canon Charles LaFond, chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

Since I was with you last, the Church and the Legislature have been in the news. You all need to behave yourselves while I'm gone. Seriously.

In Hebrew Scriptures, the word for guidance is takh-boo-law, and it means "rope"; the word for guidance means "rope". It comes from the nautical language, in that a boat can find its way safely into port or secured to an anchor by a rope.

We all need guidance from time to time, especially those in leadership, and the young, and the tired. We need the wisdom of a guide on the side and not a sage on the stage.

I have found that the guides, those human ropes which form me and expose my thoughts to their wisdom help me not to say or do stupid, mean-spirited things. These guides are the ones that suggest that I not send the email and not speak the poison and not mail the letter, at least until I've thought about it and prayed about it, but to wait for my narcissism to subside slightly so as not to be given to violent communication. If you have a wise guide, you're blessed. If you don't, find one. They're everywhere, and they're in the least likely places, mostly older women who will sit down with you and tell you to calm down and to think and to pray. We all have to do that hard work as leaders of making the choice between being adored and being effective, and it is a very important choice. Let us pray.

God of the wise, grant us wisdom in working, kindness in speaking, compassion in relating, and censure in editing what we do and say. And, if it is your desire, please send us those wise people who guide us as a rope in a blizzard, tied from the barn door to the back door, safely guiding us home as we work, as we live, and as we speak. Amen.

Sen. Carson led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: I have two young women from the beautiful Town of Hollis. And, actually, let me mention one thing about Hollis; I don't know if everybody's aware of this: Hollis lost more troops on a percentage basis at Bunker Hill than any other New England town. So, they paid a deep price for our freedom. And so, two young women here. And, one of these women has a very distinguished name: Haley Barbour. And, Haley, why don't you stand up? She's in the 10th grade, and her favorite subject is English. She's in the student council, yearbook club, cross-country running, and Girl Scouts. And, she wants to go to college in Boston – she was telling me maybe at Emerson College – to study journalism. So, maybe in a few years we'll see her over at the table with our journalist friends over there, covering us. So, let's welcome Haley.

And, Emily Benz – Emily, why don't you stand? She is also in the 10th grade; they're both from Hollis-Brookline High School. And, her favorite subject is math, and – do you use a calculator? You don't need one. Can you do it all in your head? And, her favorite book is The Truth About Forever. I was asking them: "What is that book about?" And they both said it's a girly book. So, I said: "I'm not going to go beyond that." She's cross-country interests, track, math team, science, Olympiad, student council, Girl Scouts – you're busy! Doing a lot of stuff. And, she wants to go to a college where she can study math and science, and that's such a key part of the future of our nation. So, let's welcome Emily.

Without objection, President Bragdon authorized Senator Luther to use electronic devices on the floor of the Senate.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces that the following bills will not come to Finance: HB 36-FN-L, HB 136-FN, HB 142-FN, HB 185-FN, HB 186-FN, HB 206-FN, HB 229-FN-A, HB 231-FN, HB 333-FN, HB 368-FN-L, HB 369-FN-L, HB 439-FN-L, HB 444-FN, HB 457-FN, HB 464-FN, HB 491-FN, HB 542-FN, HB 571-FN, HB 627-FN.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

COMMERCE

HB 95, permitting an insurer to operate a health maintenance organization as a line of business. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 95 Ought to Pass. This bill will allow a licensed health insurer to also operate a health maintenance organization as a line of business within one corporate entity, a practice presently not allowed in our statutes.

One of our New Hampshire insurance carriers has been interested in merging two of their existing health insurance entities, which will help them save administrative costs and streamline their organization. The insurance carrier has worked with the Department of Insurance on this language that will allow them to move forward with their merger.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass on House Bill 95. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 95.

HB 142-FN, relative to sales of artificial flowers and miniature flags. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 142-FN Ought to Pass. This existing statute goes back to World War II, when residents of New Hampshire displayed real flowers and cloth American Flags to show support and respect for our military personnel. Many became disappointed when local vendors began hawking artificial flowers and plastic flags, as it could be construed as showing disrespect to our military personnel, and legislation was passed outlawing artificial flowers and flags. This legislation has been on our books since, yet rarely if ever enforced. This bill repeals the prohibitions on the sale of artificial flowers and miniature flags by street vendors.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass on House Bill 142-FN. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 333-FN, repealing certain provisions relating to the sale of oleomargarine. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 333-FN Ought to Pass. This bill repeals labeling requirements for oleomargarine sold in less quantity than the original packages contain and for serving colored oleomargarine. Modern food packaging regulations cover all processed foods, so the current statute is no longer needed.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 333-FN.

HB 627-FN, relative to "essential benefits" under federal health care reform. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you again, Mister President. I move that House Bill 627-FN be Re-referred to committee. This bill provides that any state insurance mandate that exceeds or which offers better benefits than the essential benefits section of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2009 as amended and which mandate is required to be paid for by the State of New Hampshire shall not be available to the insured.

Given that the federal government has yet to determine what the essential benefits will be in the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2009, the Committee felt it prudent to approach this with a Re-refer of this bill and wait and see what decisions are made in Washington before we move forward.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote to Re-refer House Bill 627-FN. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

EDUCATION

HB 67, expanding the duties of the school administrative unit oversight committee. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

Senate Education
March 30, 2011
2011-1312s
04/05

Amendment to HB 67

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT expanding the duties of the school administrative unit legislative oversight committee and directing the committee to study the statewide consolidation of school administrative units.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 2 with the following:

3 Legislative Oversight Committee; Consolidation of School Administrative Units. The legislative oversight committee established in RSA 194-C:11 shall, in addition to its duties set forth in RSA 194-C:12, study the advantages, disadvantages, and costs associated with consolidating school administrative units statewide into one school administrative unit in each county, except for Hillsborough and Rockingham counties which would have 2 school administrative units each. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before December 31, 2011.

4 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

2011-1312s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill expands the duties of the school administrative unit legislative oversight committee by requiring the committee to study specific issues relative to cooperative school districts. This bill also requires the committee to study the advantages, disadvantages, and costs associated with consolidating school administrative units statewide into one school administrative unit in each county, except for Hillsborough and Rockingham counties which would have 2 school administrative units each.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 67 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This legislation expands the duties of the school administrative unit oversight committee to include cooperative school districts as part of their oversight.

In considering the legislation, the Senate Education Committee amended the bill by including the language from Senate Bill 90, previously passed by the Senate, which tasked the oversight committee with reviewing the possibility of SAU consolidation. This will place all the added responsibilities of the oversight committee into one piece of legislation. This was agreed to by the prime sponsors of both pieces of legislation.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 67 Ought to Pass with Amendment and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 69, relative to the community college system of New Hampshire academic centers. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 69 Ought to Pass. This legislation includes regional academic centers within the community college system of New Hampshire and further authorizes the board of trustees to render the final decision on the closure of any college or regional academic center within the community college system. The primary emphasis for this legislation is to place the academic centers in statute within the community college system. Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 69 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. Carson asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 69.

HB 112, relative to the required number of instructional days and instructional hours in a school district's calendar. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-1. Senator Forsythe for the committee.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 112 Ought to Pass. This legislation permits school districts the authority to set their annual calendar, so long as it complies with the rules set forth by the Department of Education.

Presently, the Commissioner must provide the final approval of a school district's calendar, even if it already complies with the law. Establishing a district calendar takes considerable time and effort from the school board, administrators, parents, and students, and this legislation provides that their efforts will be fruitful so long as they comply with the rules set forth by the Department of Education.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 112 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. Kelly is in opposition to the motion of Ought to Pass on HB 112.

HB 170, conferring degree-granting authority to the Upper Valley Educators Institute. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Forsythe for the committee.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 170 Ought to Pass. This legislation confers degree-granting authority to the Upper Valley Educators Institute. Presently, the Upper Valley Educators Institute provides a certificate program for teachers that is accepted for graduate school credit at several colleges and universities in the region. This legislation would allow UVEI to have an entirely competency-based Master's program, essentially becoming a small graduate school.

While the postsecondary commission has stated their support for the legislation and approval for the programs and courses, legislative approval is needed to provide the degree-granting authority to UVEI. Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 170 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I just wanted to rise very briefly to thank the Committee – Senator Forsythe and the Committee – for moving HB 170 along and recognizing the valuable contribution to the education community that the Upper Valley Educators Institute provides. Thank you very much.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 172, relative to transporting school children to school and school-supported activities. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 172 Ought to Pass. This legislation permits pupils to be transported to or from school or a school-sponsored activity in a mixed-use school bus.

This legislation was prompted by several school districts that have been forced to absorb large costs for full-size school buses to transport as few as six students, and is a result of an unintended consequence from the Department of Safety's rule that stated students must be transported by a driver licensed to drive a school bus. This legislation alleviates any concerns in regards to insurance purposes, as the drivers would be employees of the school district and therefore covered by the district's insurance policy.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 172 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

HB 369-FN-L, relative to withdrawal from a school administrative unit or an authorized regional enrollment area school. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

Sen. Stiles moved to Lay on the Table HB 369-FN-L. Adopted.

HB 505-FN, making charter schools eligible for grants for leased space. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-2. Senator Forsythe for the committee.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 505-FN Ought to Pass. This legislation authorizes chartered public schools to be included in the application process to receive school building aid.

Currently, chartered public schools must factor leasing costs into their budget. Yet, the school building aid fund provides leasing assistance to vocational schools as well as building aid for public schools. In this legislation, the chartered public schools would be provided a mere 30 percent of their lease cost, but with the school building aid fund currently in moratorium, this legislation would have no fiscal impact on the State. Although chartered public schools would not immediately benefit from this bill, the passage of this legislation may open doors to federal grants that would otherwise be closed.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 505-FN Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

HB 542-FN, prohibiting a school district from requiring that a parent send his or her child to any school or program to which the parent may be conscientiously opposed. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-1. Senator Carson for the committee.

Sen. Carson moved to Lay on the Table HB 542-FN.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Odell, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

HB 27, relative to the classification of rivers, de minimis impact work in designated rivers, and protected instream flows, and extending the time for septage and sludge land application restrictions. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 27 Ought to Pass. House Bill 27 as amended by the House makes the following changes to the New Hampshire rivers management and protection program:

First, this bill permits the Commissioner of the Department of Environmental Services to approve certain permit alterations which have de minimis impact or restore a channel's characteristics.

Secondly, the bill requires tributaries and segments of rivers designated for protection to be listed in the same paragraph.

Finally, the bill extends the time before septage and sludge land application restrictions apply. So, I would ask you to please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on House Bill 27.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 46, relative to the membership of the current use advisory board. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Bradley for the committee.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move HB 46 Ought to Pass. House Bill 46 clarifies membership qualifications for persons appointed to the current use advisory board. These technical terms take out prohibitive language as well as outdated language. Further, the changes were recommended by the current use advisory board.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on HB 46. Thank you.

Amendment to HB 55

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT adding members to the exotic aquatic weeds and species committee.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Exotic Aquatic Weeds and Species Committee; Membership. Amend RSA 487:30, II(a)(2) to read as follows:

(2) One member of the senate and ~~[one]~~ 2 public ~~[member]~~ members, appointed by the president of the senate.

(3) One member of the New Hampshire Lakes Association, appointed by the chairman of the board of that association with the concurrence of the chairman of the committee.

2011-1225s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill adds members to the exotic aquatic weeds and species committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 55 Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 55 adds a representative from the New Hampshire Lakes Association to the exotic aquatic weeds and species committee.

The adverse effects of invasive exotic aquatic plants on New Hampshire's lakes are among the principle concerns of the New Hampshire Lakes Association. Its direct involvement in the committee will strengthen the committee's ability to address important ecological problems. The amendment simply makes a technical correction to clarify that there will be two public members appointed by the President of the Senate.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee in recommending Ought to Pass with Amendment on House Bill 55. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a question of Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. Is it true, Senator Merrill, that yesterday, in committee, there was a move to remove you from the committee room because of what your son did the night before? And, is it also true that the vote was 15-1, and that I as the Chairman of that committee am bringing out a minority report?

SENATOR MERRILL: That's my recollection, yes, that you brought the motion, and it was soundly defeated with help from the audience.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, and good morning, Mister President, again. I'd like to welcome a lot of different students from the Governor Wentworth School District that go to the Crescent Lake School. My youngest son actually graduated from there a few years ago. So, thanks for coming down to visit us; let's have some ice out on Lake Winnepesaukee pretty soon, okay? Great. Thank you.

HB 63, extending the instream pilot program for one year. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 63 Ought to Pass. House Bill 63 extends the instream pilot program for one year. The Department of Environmental Services believes that the additional time is reasonable so that the water management plans needed for water use management and dam operation to protect instream flows can be finalized. This additional time will help ensure that both the pilot projects on the Lamprey and the Souhegan Rivers are successful.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee in voting Ought to Pass on House Bill 63. Thank you, Mister President.

HB 206-FN, establishing an apprentice hunting license. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 206-FN Ought to Pass. House Bill 206-FN allows the Fish and Game Department to issue an apprentice hunting license to persons who have not completed a hunter education program or provided proof of previous hunting or archery license. This bill was a request of the Fish and Game Department.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on House Bill 206-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to HB 278

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT setting the natural mean high water mark of Ossipee Lake.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Paragraph; State Water Jurisdiction; Natural High Water Mark of Ossipee Lake. Amend RSA 271:20 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. The general court finds, based on all available information, that the natural mean high water mark of Ossipee Lake is 407.25 feet above mean sea level.

2011-1224s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill sets the natural mean high water mark of Ossipee Lake.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you again, Mister President. I move House Bill 278 Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 278 sets the natural high water mark of Ossipee Lake.

Questions about the natural high water mark concern many property owners around the lake, as well as the three communities those properties are located in. The changes in this bill will alleviate concerns, and the amendment brings language that clearly shows the General Court's intent to set the natural high water mark on the basis of scientific information.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment on HB 278. Thank you.

HB 336, designating segments of the Mascoma River as a protected river. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 336 Ought to Pass. House Bill 336 designates segments of the Mascoma River as a protected river.

Over the past three years, communities in the Mascoma River watershed have conducted a very public process to evaluate the natural resources, study the cultural heritage, and build support for nominating this river into the New Hampshire Rivers Management and Protection Program. Designating segments as protected will help ensure the long-term vitality of a culturally rich river.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on House Bill 336. Thank you, Mister President. (The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. Again, I rise just to thank the Energy and Natural Resources Committee and urge my colleagues to vote in support of its recommendation. I also just wanted to recognize the work of many people involved in this project, but also, in particular, the Upper Valley Lake Sunapee Regional Planning Commission, who's been shepherding this designation through the entire process for about three years now. So, thank you very much, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 404, relative to toilet facilities at recreational campgrounds or camping parks. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Bradley for the committee.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 404 Ought to Pass. House Bill 404 includes self-composting toilets or incinerating toilets on the list of toilet facilities which may be provided in recreational campgrounds or camping parks. This specific language was added in order to bring clarity to the statute.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on House Bill 404. Thank you, Mister President. (The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: I appreciate the hard work, Senator Bradley, that you did in committee. I just wanted to know if the amendment actually does clear the air.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 439-FN-L, relative to claiming an invasive species as a habitat. Refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator Bradley for the committee.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Well, since the air was cleared so well on the previous bill, I've lost the right sheet. I was distracted by Senator Sanborn's tie, trying to answer Senator Prescott's question, and obviously the air is muggy.

So, thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 439 be Re-referred to Committee. House Bill 439 exempts invasive species from being claimed as habitats for endangered species. While we recognize the problems that invasive species can create, the Committee believes that state agencies involved are currently developing a process for addressing control of invasive aquatic plants to balance the mandates of each agency.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Sen. Morse asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 439-FN-L.

HB 570, relative to licensure of guides by the fish and game department. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. Well, as a licensed guide myself, I'm happy to move that House Bill 570 Ought to Pass.

House Bill 570 exempts persons licensed as operators of for-hire vessels for recreational fishing in coastal and estuarine waters from requirements for licensure as a guide.

This bill was a request of the Fish and Game Department. The Department feels that requirements for persons licensed by the U.S. Coast Guard as operators of for-hire vessels is comparable and in some cases exceed the requirements needed to obtain a New Hampshire guide license.

So, please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on House Bill 570. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. Lambert asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 570.

HB 571-FN, relative to lobster and crab licenses issued by the fish and game department. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 571 Ought to Pass. This bill is a request of the Fish and Game Department.

House Bill 571 revises criteria and fees for lobster and crab licenses issued by the Fish and Game Department. The bill also clarifies provisions for lobster tail processing permits and landing licenses for lobster and crab.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee in voting Ought to Pass on House Bill 571. Thank you, Mister President.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ADMINISTRATION

HB 80, relative to ranks in the division of state police. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 80 Ought to Pass. House Bill 80 eliminates the rank of Corporal and the rank of Colonel within the Division of State Police.

The House amendment reflects the existence of seven troop commanders and assistant troop commanders instead of six, which is currently in statute. This bill is a housekeeping bill which cleans up current statute.

The ED&A Committee voted unanimously Ought to Pass, and therefore asks your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 88, relative to liquor enforcement and liquor licensing. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 88 Ought to Pass. House Bill 88 repeals the transfers to the Department of Safety of liquor enforcement, liquor licensing, and education. Over the past three years there have been two study committees which have addressed this issue, and the outcome of both of those study committees have been the same, that being: It is in the best interest to keep the liquor enforcement unit within the liquor commission. This recommendation is supported by the Chiefs of Police Association, the Department of Safety, as well as license holders within the state.

The ED&A Committee voted favorably 4-0 Ought to Pass and asks for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 136-FN, repealing the uniform athlete agents act. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-1. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 136-FN Ought to Pass. 136-FN repeals the uniform athletic agents act.

Last year, the House ED&A Licensing Subcommittee viewed all licensing professions, and this was one that the Committee agreed was not necessary. HB 136-FN eliminates the demand for licensing of uniform athletic agents.

The Senate ED&A Committee voted in favor of the motion Ought to Pass, and we therefore ask for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise in opposition to the Ought to Pass motion.

This bill was – actually, I sponsored this bill in the last session of the Legislature, and the bill has merit. And, the merit is, I don't care if we only have five or six people that are seeking an agent; those five or six people will benefit from that. And, you look at the history of athletes and how they have been treated, you can understand why an agent is necessary in order to protect that athlete and protect the limited lifespan that an athlete has as they move into the professional ranks.

Now, why, after just a couple of years, we're repealing this piece of legislation, is really baffling to me. We've had – I can think of athletes that I have either coached or been associated with: Michael Flanagan, who went on to play for the Orioles; Chris Carpenter, who plays for the St. Louis Cardinals; another young man from Trinity High School who became a pro and played for the Pittsburgh Pirates. So, we've had a number of these athletes. And, think of the athletes that are at the University of New Hampshire; we had four kids already who went from our hockey team to the AHL and to the NHL in just this year.

So, it's an important situation; they need representation. I cannot understand why we'd repeal this. I mean, it just doesn't make any sense to me. If we're going to protect these athletes, we ought to give them a methodology or a way to get that protection. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a question of Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. Senator D'Allesandro, did you go to the Committee and testify?

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: I did not go to the Committee and testify. Probably a violent error on my part, but I must have been busy doing something else. But, I didn't get there.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Senator.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott for a question of Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Senator Carson, there's been a question raised by Senator D'Allesandro: Is there protection for those that wish to have representation as an athlete – you know, get an agent. And, I understand the concerns that Senator D'Allesandro has, and if you have an answer to that, I'd appreciate it.

SENATOR CARSON: No, I do not have an answer to that. As the Committee heard the testimony, of course we listened, there was only two people – one person that actually spoke against the repeal. We just felt that there wasn't a need for this, that there are so few that it just was not necessary, and that's why we voted the way that we did.

Sen. Prescott moved to Lay on the Table HB 136-FN. Adopted.

HB 231-FN, relative to payment of medical benefits for state retirees, their spouses, and dependents. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 231-FN Inexpedient to Legislate. House Bill 231-FN provides that the payment by the State of New Hampshire for the premium for medical benefits for state retirees, their spouses, and dependents, shall be subject to a limit on total state general fund cost.

House Bill 231 would require the Commissioner of the Department of Administrative Services to change the insurance benefits structure for retired state employees in order to save monies in the general fund costs by streamlining their benefit package. This bill, as proposed by the House, proposes cuts which effectively put retirees significantly into harm's way, the ramifications of which are not yet known. We should not place on the shoulders of loyal state employees this unfair and unequal tax.

For these reasons, the ED&A Committee voted unanimously 5-0 to ITL House Bill 231-FN and asks for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I think it's important to note that this bill is part of the House budget; I think it might also be contained – or parts of this language may be contained in another bill. And, when we heard this bill in ED&A, we definitely understand the necessity of fiscal prudence given the situation we're in. But, we also tried to apply the same ED&A Committee principles that we did to SB 3, the pension bill, which was that retirees in the budget process need to shoulder the least changes and the least burden of any population in the State of New Hampshire as we address our budget situation. And, we felt that HB 231 was a little bit over the line in that it had a hard cap of $27.5 million applied to medical benefits. And, we heard testimony from department heads that backed into certain numbers in terms of deductibles and co-pays that were going to be potentially Draconian.

But, having said that, it's also important to note that the concept that there's going to have to be some changes is a valid concept. The Governor's budget contained a provision that retirees under the age of 65 would move from paying $65 a month to $100 a month, and that's a potential solution as we consider our own budget.

In addition, I believe that we're going to have to do something that bends the cost curve for retiree healthcare; and by that I mean, we have to involve the retirees themselves in the decision-making around their own healthcare, because we are on an unsustainable glide path, and sooner or later, change is going to be made that may be fairly unpalatable if we don't head in that direction. So, that could mean maybe us steering toward generic drugs over name brand, or it could be through the use of co-pays to encourage primary care physicians instead of specialists; it could take a lot of different factors.

So, I just think it's important to note, in summary, Mister President, that the concepts of "something has to be done" are still valid. Even though this is a unanimous recommendation of the ED&A Committee to ITL this bill, because we felt it maybe wasn't as well thought out as it needs to be, the fact of the matter is that the day of reckoning on retiree healthcare is fast approaching, and measures are going to have to be taken to, again, put this on a sustainable course for both the taxpayers and for the retirees for predictability and so forth. And so, I just wanted to add that so that you understood our line of thinking in how we handled this bill.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. And, thank you, Senator White; you've covered just about every position that I wanted to cover. But, let me put some clarity for the budget position in this. And, there's no lock on party on this issue; I think the Senate's going to create a position on this that's the Senate's position, and I do believe this is a shortfall in our budget that we got from the House. This is about a $30 million issue, and as Senator White said, that was with the Governor increasing it from $65 to $100. So, with that being done, you still have a $30 million issue in our budget right now that we have to deal with. We have asked Admin. Services, when they present on Friday this week in Finance, to present plans that we can possibly put in place to do exactly what Senator White is asking for. That is going to be a tough number in this budget; I think the Senate's position is, they're going to fill that hole. And, I think we want to put a plan in place, and I'm willing to listen to the Senators on that. But, I just want to make it perfectly clear that we are creating a Senate position today; I intend to remove this from HB 2 this afternoon if the Committee will go with me, because this is in HB 2, and the reality is, we have a $30 million hole to fill. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of the committee recommendation. Both Senator White and Senator

Morse have articulated very significant issues, and issues that we have to grapple with. But, arbitrarily picking a number and saying if you exceed that number, everybody is thrown to the wolves, is idiotic in my opinion. That, to me, that's the height of hypocrisy.

So, we will deal with it; we have to deal with it. It's not the only thing we're going to deal with; we have to deal with a number of things. But, I think sensible thought, bringing in Admin. Services and asking them: "What can be done?" This is not only a question of containing the cost in terms of the money that's paid by the employee. What about the real issue? And, the real issue is healthcare costs, and how you contain healthcare costs, and the rising cost that the insurance companies bring forward repeatedly. Those costs drive the machine. And, when you look at a situation like appeared on CNN, when you go to one institution for an appendectomy and it costs $1,500, and you go to another one where it costs $400, does that mean that that $400 appendectomy is less successful than the $1,500 one? You know, I don't think you ask when you go someplace: "What's the story on this? Am I going to be successful?" You go!

So, I think those things have to be looked at in totality. And, we fail to do that; sometimes we fail to do that in this process. That's why I support this legislation; I commend Senator Carson and her committee for realistically looking at something that makes sense and recognizing the fact that we have to deal with it going forward. Thank you, Mister President.

HB 339-FN-A, allowing the state veterinarian to employ a meat inspection services administrator and making an appropriation therefor. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 339-FN-A Ought to Pass. HB 339-FN-A allows a state veterinarian to employ a meat inspection services administrator that establishes a meat inspection program fund and makes an appropriation to such fund.

Other than the single USDA-approved federal meat inspection site in the State of New Hampshire, there has been no other way for New Hampshire farmers to get their meat inspected since the early 1970s. Consequently, farmers have been unable to sell their meat in the New Hampshire commercial market. This limits the state's opportunity for agricultural growth. This bill is a win-win for consumers and restaurants in New Hampshire, where there is a growing interest in locally-grown and healthy food. And, on a personal note, my wife and I just went to a Manchester restaurant who will benefit from this legislation.

HB 464-FN, requiring the transfer of certain retirement system group II special account funds to the state annuity accumulation fund. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

Senate Executive Departments and Administration

Amendment to HB 464-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 464-FN Ought to Pass as Amended. House Bill 464-FN requires the state retirement system to transfer $89 million from group II special account to the state annuity accumulation fund.

In December of 2010, $89 million was transferred from the medical sub-trust for group II to the special account by the retirement board. By doing this, the monies transferred would make available to group II members monies needed for COLAs. No other groups have monies available for COLAs. This bill also mirrors the transfer of $250 million in like manner in the previous session. The amendment brought in by the Senate changes only the effective date to "upon passage".

The Senate ED&A Committee voted in favor of the motion Ought to Pass as Amended, and we therefore ask for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I simply rise to oppose this. I do sit on ED&A Committee and was not in attendance at the vote due to a bill being up of my own in the House. But, had I been there, I would have been the one vote voting "no".

This is, again, the transfer of $89 million to the corpus of the retirement account, meaning that there will be no hope of cost of living adjustments for folks for many years to come. This, as we recall, was debated in Senate Bill 3, and is an issue which I believe will cause hardship to those who are in the retirement system, not having any chance of a cost of living increase, and that this $89 million is an important element in that the members paid into this what was part of gain-sharing, but it was a member pay that caused gains to occur, as well as an employer pay. We are now transferring all of those funds into offsetting the costs of employers' increases in the future. And, this is why I would be opposing House Bill 464.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I just rise to remind the body that this was done with $250 million in House Bill 1645 in 2008; it was done for the same reason as this is being done today: because the medical subsidy is now an employer responsibility. I urge passage of this bill for consistency and to also rebalance the obligations of the pension fund.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 491-FN, relative to divestiture of retirement system assets relating to Sudan. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 491-FN Ought to Pass. HB 491-FN repeals the statute requiring divestiture of retirement system assets relating to Sudan. This bill complicates the investment decisions of both the New Hampshire retirement system and the Judicial retirement system. The New Hampshire retirement system has stated that this bill would enable them to save money it would otherwise have to spend to monitor Sudan-related securities.

The Senate ED&A Committee feels that it should be left to the retirement system to be able to invest as they see fit in order to receive the best returns. And, this has been shown in the investment community, that socially conscious investing consistently underperforms the market.

The Senate ED&A Committee voted in favor Ought to Pass on HB 491, and therefore we ask for your support for its adoption.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

HB 111, relative to redispensing unused drugs. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 111 Ought to Pass. House Bill 111 simply adds manufacturers' samples to a range of drugs to be redistributed in the current donation program for unused prescription drugs.

Please join the Health and Human Services and Ought to Pass House Bill 111. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 191, relative to the community mental health system. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-1. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 191 Ought to Pass. House Bill 191 implements recommendations of the Office of Legislative Budget Assistant's 2010 performance audit report of the New Hampshire community health system.

Under current law, mental health centers must provide services to the severely mentally disabled whether the individual can afford it or not. The language in House Bill 191 will balance the need of the individuals and the resources of the facilities by allowing service providers to prioritize care for this based on a thorough clinical assessment. House Bill 191 will give mental health service providers control over how their services are accessed in order to create a level of predictability in their budgets.

The Health and Human Services Committee recommends House Bill 191 Ought to Pass and asks for your support.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in caution over House Bill 191. For me, the caution is more relative to the concept which is what we need to do with this very difficult budget cycle and looking at our capacity to prioritize and try and deal with a very difficult budget. I am, however, concerned with the potential of expense or unfunded mandates, and respectfully request your consideration to send this to Finance if it does pass.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you, Senator Sanborn. This will be going to Finance should it pass.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I also rise in support of this being a consideration. House Bill 191 appears to triage some of our mental health needs, or allow for that, and I do think it is something which we're going to have to take into account in our budget. The shocking kind of numbers that even one community behavioral health association acknowledges losing in a year, you know, ranging between $500, $600,000, $750,000 in reductions that they have to accommodate when we know that the community is out there and in need is one which I think we have to pay real attention to. So, I am glad that this is going to Finance, and I think it is an important issue for us to take careful consideration of. Thanks.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of the legislation. In Senator Morse's list of recommended readings, one is the Legislative Budget Office analysis of the mental health situation – wonderful reading. He said: "Over the weekend, digest this, so that we can carry it forward." My recommended reading indicates there were a series of things that needed to be taken care of, and that if they were implemented, we would arrive at savings – we'd arrive at better service and we'd arrive at savings. So, I think this is a movement along that path, and I suggest that recommended reading assignment for everybody. It's a wonderful piece of literature, and it's paid for, so there's no cost to anybody; it's a no-cost item, and you can get it at the Legislative Budget Office. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

HB 289, relative to procedures followed by funeral directors. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you again, Mister President. I move that House Bill 289 Ought to Pass. The intent of House Bill 289 is to clarify and strengthen procedures to be followed by funeral directors when releasing custody and control of a body. It also eliminates the requirement of the board of funeral directors to attend educational meetings.

The New Hampshire Funeral Directors Association requested this bill in order to address issues of missing relatives, uncooperative relatives, homicides, representation and identification of relatives, and unclaimed remains.

So, please join the Health and Human Services Committee in voting Ought to Pass on House Bill 289. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 364, relative to the membership of the state committee on aging. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move HB 364 Ought to Pass. House Bill 364 is a housekeeping bill that clarifies the membership and the duties of the state committee on aging.

House Bill 364 removes the requirement for political parity in the Governor's appointees to this apolitical volunteer committee. It also amends the duties to better reflect the full scope of the actions and responsibilities of the committee on aging.

Please join the Health and Human Services Committee in voting Ought to Pass on House Bill 364. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HJR 3, prohibiting the implementation of certain rules of the board of mental health practice regarding misconduct investigation. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Joint Resolution 3 Ought to Pass. HJR 3 enforces a JLCAR ruling that prohibits the implementation of rules of the board of mental health practice relating to authority of the board to subpoena and examine records and other documents in violation of the licensee-client privilege and to forward communications of alleged misconduct.

Currently, the board of mental health practices will acquire a patient's record without his or her knowledge and use it in an investigation. The board does not redact the names of the patients from the records during this investigation. These records have been kept in archives for up to two decades with all the information intact. This is a clear violation of state law and HIPAA laws. HJR 3 will ensure that the board no longer violates confidentiality during its investigations.

The Health and Human Services Committee recommends House Joint Resolution 3 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you.

Recess. Out of recess.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. I would just add to the remarks of Senator Sanborn that when this resolution was introduced, there was a provision in it that indicated that the General Court would be proposing legislation to clarify the board of mental health practice authority under RSA 330, and that legislation has been retained in the House.

And, I would further add that in discussions with the Director of the Office of Legislative Services this morning, because there was some question about the 90-day window, could these rules go into effect, the Director assured us that she can waive that 90-day provision given the lateness that the Senate received it. And so, our intent is making sure that the confidentiality of patients' records will be protected and the board of mental health will clearly, under the waiver, have to comply with HJR 3.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator Bradley, so it is your understanding that this HJR 3 will, in effect, waive the 90-day requirement of JLCAR, within which it can suspend a rule, so that the 90 days is longer than 90 days as might appear on our docket? It's your understanding that this waiver from the Legislative Services Director is in effect, and the 90 days does not apply to HJR 3?

SENATOR BRADLEY: Yes, Senator Larsen, that's my understanding. And, it's only a matter of a few days anyway, only necessitated by the fact that we didn't meet last week. But, when Director Holahan signed that waiver, it's in effect, and so we have ample opportunity, at your request, that we do this in regular order on the Calendar in its regular format, which we are now obviously doing.

SENATOR LARSEN: And, we thank you for not changing procedure to the extent that might have been necessitated and taking it up in the regular session.

SENATOR BRADLEY: And, I think we thank you and all of the members of JLCAR who have worked really hard to protect the confidentiality and the privacy of people, that when they go to their physicians for these services, that they should know that it's akin to an attorney-client privilege and it will be protected. And, thank you for your help in making sure that we do in fact protect it.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I'd like to speak on this topic. We did have concerns based on the Chair of the board of mental health practice's testimony. There were points made about whether the board would have subpoena power for licensing boards. And, we've been advised that the board will continue to have that subpoena power, even with passage of HJR 3. The language in page two, lines 4 through 6, that say, "The board of mental health practice shall not enforce a statute in such a way as to violate the licensee/client privilege"; that can coexist with subpoena power is my understanding. So, there is no issue of subpoena power. And, it is my understanding that this HJR seeks to reinforce the important client/licensee privilege such that people's personal privacy is respected and protected, and we will be encouraging – it was my understanding, through this – that materials that are kept, particularly for long periods of time, have redacted the private names of individuals and their personal information.

So, that's my understanding of HJR 3 in that it does not in fact hamper the board's ability to take action in disciplinary investigations during the process, that they will need to readdress rulemaking in certain areas. So, we thank you for this discussion, and I think we've covered the ability of the board to continue to oversee the practice of mental health practitioners and continue their disciplinary investigation as needed. Thank you.

JUDICIARY

HB 79, relative to certification of dogs for law enforcement work. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass on House Bill 79. This legislation allows dogs to be certified for law enforcement work by the New England State Police Administrators Compact, or "NESPAC". The legislation merely extends to NESPAC certified dogs and handlers the same protections provided to nationally recognized training organizations.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that House Bill 79 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

HB 70, relative to changes to town charters. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

Amendment to HB 70

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Changes to Town Charters; Approval and Review. Amend RSA 49-B:5-a, I(c) to read as follows:

(c) Within 14 days of receipt of such report the secretary of state, the attorney general, and the commissioner of the department of revenue administration shall notify in writing the municipal clerk and the chairman of the charter commission, if any, of its receipt. Within 30 days of the receipt of said report [by] the secretary of state, attorney general, and the commissioner of the department of revenue administration[~~they~~] shall review the proposed charter, charter revision, or charter amendment to insure that it is consistent with the general laws of this state.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 70 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill requires the Secretary of State, the Attorney General, and the Commissioner of the Department of Revenue Administration to notify any municipality of a receipt of a report relative to its new, amended, or revised charter.

This bill was filed on behalf of the Town of Derry, who had made changes to its town charter, submitted required documentation to the Attorney General's Office, and learned at the eleventh hour that the documentation had been misplaced. As of this time, with approximately $30,000 in expenditures and thousands of man hours volunteered on the charter commission, the Town and its citizens have yet to be able to vote on the ballot question. Committee members sought to ensure municipality notification by requiring the method of notification to be in writing.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 70 be adopted as amended and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 106, relative to filing for town offices. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 106 Ought to Pass. This bill requires that candidates for town offices who file on the last day of the filing period do so in person.

The proposal was introduced out of concern that an individual who files for town office by either telephone or fax might be able to represent him or herself as being someone else. The bill originally required all candidates to file in person. The House Election Law Committee had amended the proposal to require only those filing on the last day of the filing period to do so in person.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 106 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to HB 155

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Raffles; Expiration of Permit. Amend RSA 287-A:7 to read as follows:
287-A:7 Permit Required. Any charitable organization desiring to conduct a raffle under the provisions of this chapter shall first obtain a permit therefor from the selectmen or designee of the town, or the mayor and aldermen or designee of the city where the drawing for prizes is to be held. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the permit shall expire at the time of the drawing[,] and shall not be transferable. At the request of the charitable organization to conduct more than one raffle, the governing body may extend the permit to one year from the date of issuance.

2011-1266s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill permits a municipality to issue a raffle permit that expires one year from the date of issuance rather than on the date of the raffle.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 155 Ought to Pass as Amended. This bill permits a municipality to issue any charitable organization a raffle permit that expires one year from the date of issuance rather than on the date of the raffle.

Committee members amended the original bill to enable cities and towns the opportunity to decide on the length of the permit up to one year.

HB 185-FN, relative to determining bargaining units for purposes of public employee collective bargaining. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-2. Senator Merrill for the committee.

Public and Municipal AffairsApril 6, 2011*2011-1360s*06/03*Amendment to HB 185-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Determining Bargaining Unit. Amend RSA 273-A:8, I to read as follows:

I. The board or its designee shall determine the appropriate bargaining unit and shall certify the exclusive representative thereof when petitioned to do so under RSA 273-A:10. In making its determination the board should take into consideration the principle of community of interest. The community of interest may be exhibited by one or more of the following criteria, although it is not limited to such:

(a) Employees with the same conditions of employment;

(b) Employees with a history of workable and acceptable collective negotiations;

(c) Employees in the same historic craft or profession;

(d) Employees functioning within the same organizational unit.

~~[A public employer may recognize a bargaining unit with 3-10 members, but]~~ In no case shall the board certify a bargaining unit of fewer than 10 employees with the same community of interest without the prior approval of the governing body of the public employer. For purposes of this section, probationary employees shall be counted to satisfy the employee minimum number requirement. In no case shall such probationary employees vote in any election conducted under the provisions of this chapter to certify an employee organization as the exclusive representative of a bargaining unit.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 185 Ought to Pass with Amendment. HB 185 as introduced would have repealed legislation passed in 2008 dealing with the minimum number of local public employees necessary to form a collective bargaining unit.

Before 2008, RSA 273-A:8 prohibited certification of units under ten members. The 2008 legislation extended authorization for certification of units numbering three to nine, but only with the approval of the municipal governing body. The Committee received no testimony indicating that that change had created any problems for municipalities.

The majority of the Committee agreed that municipalities should be able to exert local control in making decisions about acceptable collective bargaining unit size for their public employees. Thus, HB 185 was amended to allow collective bargaining units of under ten members as long as the governing body approves.

Please support the majority recommendation of the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on House Bill 185. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 186-FN, relative to the definition of political communication. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 186-FN be Re-referred to committee. This bill seeks to eliminate the term "implicitly" from the definition of political advertising in RSA 664:2. A court decision from the U.S. District Court, Stenson v. McLaughlin, in August, 2001, ruled the term overly broad and unenforceable. The Attorney General's Office explained if a complaint is made on implicit advertising, its office refers to the Stenson Case. However, the Committee heard testimony that the courts have made a distinction between content and disclosure. The Stenson Case never dealt with that distinction.

With the Committee's desire to protect political advertising disclosure laws and because there are numerous references to political advertising throughout many different statutes, the Committee finds it's prudent to take a stronger look at this issue. We therefore recommend House Bill 186-FN be Re-referred to committee and ask for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

HB 368-FN-L, relative to workforce housing and the definition of community. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 368-FN-L Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill permits municipalities to decide whether or not to approve workforce housing within their community.

The prime sponsor of the bill described workforce housing as a subdivision regulation that allows a builder to circumvent all planning and zoning ordinances, as well as impact fees of a community. Other testimony sought to assure Committee members that the current workforce housing law simply requires a community provide a reasonable opportunity for such housing; it doesn't obligate a town to ensure affordable housing.

There are plenty of opportunities for local control in the current law. Many municipalities have placed unnecessary and restrictive regulatory barriers to the development of workforce housing. In many communities, the market clearly exists for this type of housing, but municipalities are zoning it out. Current law succeeds in establishing a reasonable framework for communities to provide workforce housing while at the same time balancing certain market conditions.

The current statute was developed as a result of a decade's worth of work, including a series of study committees and commissions. The Committee believes it is too premature to make changes to the current statute, which was enacted in 2008. For these reasons, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 368-FN-L be found Inexpedient to Legislate and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. The Committee did a great job on this, and they did the right thing. And, I think Senator Stiles might have alluded to the main reason, I think, that the Committee did what we did. The sponsor worked very hard on this bill, but the bottom line is, this has only been in effect for a little over a year. And, the Committee heard a lot of testimony, and my good friend, Senator Larsen, was the mother of this bill a couple of years back when it came in front of Municipal and County. And, it had been around for about ten years before that. You used to have to shave it before it came to committee, it was getting so old. But, it's in place; let's see what happens with it. You like that one, right Jeb? A little aftershave lotion; we're all set. Okay. Clean up that smell from the toilet issue.

So, the Committee hopes that we can get the support, and I'm sure we will. It's a bill that's in place, and let's see what happens with it. And, a couple years from now, if it needs some tweaking, that can be done.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

HB 444-FN, relative to the commemoration of General John Stark Day. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

Amendment to HB 444-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Observances Proclaimed by the Governor; General John Stark Day. Amend RSA 4:13-1 to read as follows:

4:13-1 General John Stark Day. The governor shall annually proclaim the fourth Monday in April as General John Stark Day ~~[and shall urge cities and towns throughout the state to observe this day]~~ in commemoration of General Stark's gallant and illustrious service to New Hampshire and his country. Schools are encouraged to commemorate the day with appropriate educational activities.

2011-1361s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill encourages schools to commemorate General John Stark Day with appropriate educational activities.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 444-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill would require the Governor to urge schools to commemorate General John Stark Day, the fourth Monday in April, with appropriate activities and events.

Sponsors of the bill expressed concern that details of the American Revolution were no longer being taught in our schools. They feel it is important to have a better history of those who founded our state and to recognize its historical figures.

Although the spirit of the bill is well-intended, the Committee suggested that it be amended to allow a city or town the opportunity to make an appropriate decision. The sponsors of the bill are in agreement with this amendment.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 444-FN be adopted as amended and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White for a question of Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR WHITE: Would you describe this as a “special day” bill?

SENATOR FORRESTER: It’s a very “special day” bill.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White for a follow-up question of Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR WHITE: Would you think one’s birthday is a special day?

SENATOR FORRESTER: I’m sorry; what’s the question?

SENATOR WHITE: Would you think one’s birthday is a special day?

SENATOR FORRESTER: Depending on whose birthday it is.

SENATOR WHITE: Happy Birthday.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you for letting me speak, Mister President. As we see over in the corner of our Senate floor here, we have a commemorative painting of Colonel John Stark concerning the Bunker Hill – the battle that we had. And, I think it’s really important to have that kind of history told, because I have a relative that was living in Raymond at the time of John Stark and the Bunker Hill Battle. And, he left his – maybe a 9-month-old son and his wife in Raymond and went to fight for freedom at Bunker Hill, and he passed away. He was, you know, commemorated there. And, that was my ancestor. So, I think it’s kind of nice to have this come before the Senate today. John Prescott, Jr. from Raymond. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: I stand in support of this bill. I agree that I think many of us, adults and young people, have lost a grasp of the key history, especially the Revolutionary War. I served as a re-enactor – Revolutionary War re-enactor – and got a sense of that. And, another thing that’s significant about New Hampshire that a lot of people don’t realize is the first New Hampshire regiment, historic regiment – it was the longest-serving regiment in the Revolutionary War. There is so much history in this state, and it’s the key figures that have made history that we can’t lose grasp of, because they still – the principles that they fought for, that they stood for, we can learn from them today; it’s not dusty old history. So, I support this bill.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Rausch.)

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. And, not so that I’m outdone by any of my fellow Senators, but just to remind everyone that General Stark was a resident of my District: Derry, New Hampshire.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you, Senator Rausch. And, I am sure that Senator Odell would want us all to know that yesterday, April 12th, marked the 150th anniversary of the first shots of the Civil War in 1861.

HB 457-FN, reducing the interest rate on late and delinquent property tax payments, subsequent payments, and other unpaid taxes. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 457 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill lowers the interest rates applicable to late and delinquent property tax payments, subsequent payments, and other unpaid taxes enforced through the lien procedure.

With the prime rate close to zero, Committee members were urged to take another look at the 12 percent and 18 percent rates charged for late payment of property taxes. The original intent of these rates was to make the town or city whole if it could not collect taxes and had to borrow.

Various towns expressed serious concerns with budget impacts should these late payment rates decrease. And, this is very important: They explained that the various tools they utilize to work with individuals having difficulty paying their property taxes such as abatements, exemptions, and deferrals. Many city and town clerks sought to assure Committee members that the current late payment rates do encourage timely payment of taxes.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 457 be found Inexpedient to Legislate. And, in closing, it is very unusual when the sponsor of a bill comes before the Committee to talk on it that says: "I know it's going to be killed anyway, but I'm going to hear and introduce it." That doesn't happen too often. So, this gentleman knew ahead of time that his bill faced a tough road ahead. Thank you, and the communities, towns, and cities thank you for your vote on this.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

HB 622, relative to adjustments to the semi-annual and quarterly collection of property taxes in towns and cities. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

Amendment to HB 622

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to adjustments to the semi-annual and quarterly collection of property taxes in towns and cities, and relative to the transition of the tax year for the town of Hampton.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 3 the following and renumbering the original section 4 to read as 5:

4 Transition; Tax Year; Town of Hampton. Notwithstanding any general provisions of law to the contrary, the collection of taxes in the Town of Hampton shall be governed by the following provisions:

I. Taxes assessed as of April 1, 2012, shall be assessed for a single 18-month accounting period running from January 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013. The town shall budget receipts and expenditures, and raise and appropriate revenues, on the basis of a single, 18-month period. Taxes for the 18-month period shall be paid as follows: On July 1, 2012, a payment on the taxes for said period shall be due and payable, which will equal 1/2 the amount of taxes paid on the 2011 assessment. A second payment shall be due and payable on or before December 1, 2012, which shall be equal to 2/3 of the 18-month assessment made on April 1, 2012, less the amount of the payment due July 1, 2012. The balance of the taxes due on the then current 18-month assessment shall be due and payable on or before July 1, 2013.

II. Taxes assessed as of April 1, 2013 and in all subsequent years shall be due and payable as follows: 1/2 on or before December 1st of each year thereafter, and 1/2 on or before July 1st of each year thereafter and the fiscal year of the town of Hampton shall thereafter be July 1st to the following June 30th.

III. Interest on taxes assessed in the Town of Hampton as provided in paragraph I shall be charged upon all taxes not paid on or before the due date as set forth in RSA 80, which shall be collected from that date with the taxes as incident thereto.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows for the adjustment in the method of calculating the partial payment of taxes related to an increase or decrease in local education taxes resulting from a change to the town's or city's adequate education grant or excess tax amount. The changes applies to both semi-annual and quarterly collection of taxes.

This bill also provides for an 18-month transitional budget period for the town of Hampton to change its tax year.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 622 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill allows for the adjustment in the method of calculating the partial payment of taxes related to an increase or decrease in local education taxes resulting from a change to the town's or city's adequate education grant or excess tax amount. It takes what was put into session law in 1999 and places it into statute. It makes it available to municipalities on a permanent basis going forward. It is subject to review by the Department of Revenue Administration.

The bill also provides for an 18-month transitional budget period for the Town of Hampton to change its tax year. This will allow Hampton to have their fiscal year correspond to the State, enabling them to better plan for the funding of various programs. It involves no borrowing to facilitate the change and makes no reservation of a certain amount of unrestricted general funds.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 622 be adopted as amended and asks for your support.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

WAYS AND MEANS

HB 36-FN-L, reducing the fee for copies of birth certificates. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 36 Ought to Pass. This bill removes the fee increase for birth certificates that was passed in the 2010 Legislative Session and restores it to the previous amount of $12.

The increase was instituted for the purpose of raising money for the general fund and did not reflect any increase in the cost of providing the service. The $12 amount is more than sufficient to cover the actual cost of providing a birth certificate. This will have no effect on the amount to be deposited in the Vital Records Improvement Fund or on the amount retained by the town clerk; it only eliminates the general fund portion.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I support this piece of legislation, and obviously voted on it in Committee. However, after we take our vote on this, I'm going to be offering a tabled motion. And, I just want everyone to understand that I'm trying to be consistent in Finance.

In HB 2 that came over from the House, this was the only piece that wasn't included. They included it in section 457, meals and rooms operator fee, as a reduction; in 458, a pet store license fee: a reduction; in 459 and 60, condo fee and land sales, reduction; in 461, a marriage license fee: reduction. What they didn't include was House Bill 36. So, I will offer a table motion, and we will pick it up in HB 2 in the budget on the Senate side.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted.

Sen. Sanborn is in favor of the motion of Ought to Pass on HB 36-FN-L.

Sen. Morse moved to Lay on the Table HB 36-FN-L. Adopted.

Sen. Sanborn is in opposition to the motion to Lay on the Table HB 36-FN-L.

HB 229-FN-A, repealing the tax on gambling winnings. Ought to Pass, Vote 6-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 229 Ought to Pass. This repeals the tax on gambling winnings that was enacted as part of 2009 budget. You might also refer to this as the Senator D'Allesandro Job Recovery Act. The bill is nearly identical to Senate Bill 130, which was passed by this body last month. The only difference is that the effective date in this bill is two weeks after passage. This was done to provide the Lottery Director time to reprogram computers to prepare for the repeal of the tax.

The Ways and Means Committee recommends that this legislation be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HOUSE MESSAGE

Sen. Morse: HB 439-FN-L.

Sen. White: HB 95, HB 333-FN.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. It is with a heavy heart that I informed the caucus today of the death of two Londonderry residents in a tragic house fire. Mrs. Fran Gehling and her daughter died this morning. And, for me, it's especially meaningful, because I had a meeting in my District last evening, and she was there. And, we don't always agree, but we've always had spirited conversations, and at the end of the day we've shaken hands and we've agreed to disagree.

This is a tragedy for my community, and we will feel the loss of this wonderful woman and her daughter. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Really, a point of personal privilege, Mister President.

Mister President, on April 8th, Stewart Lamprey, former President of this Senate, was 90 years of age. And, I might say, Stewart is a Republican, and known to many of us in this body.

Stewart Lamprey was Speaker of the House of Representatives, President of the Senate, Under Secretary of Commerce, Co-Chair of the New England Regional Commission, and Chief of Staff to Governor Walter Peterson. Stewart Lamprey has had just a litany of successes as a legislator and as a concerned citizen of New Hampshire.

To the best of my knowledge, Mister President, Stewart is the oldest living survivor as President of the Senate. So, Stewart got to be 90. I was privileged to attend a gathering in Meredith for Stewart on Sunday, where his children, grandchildren, and friends were with him.

When I talk about Stewart Lamprey – and, as I say, Stewart's a Republican – but Stewart is the kind of human being that I think is a manifestation of what public service is all about. His work continues to this day; he's involved in his community of Moultonborough and very, very concerned about milfoil, obviously, that aquatic vascular plant that is growing extensively in our bodies of water.

But, Stewart placed public service at the highest pinnacle – the highest pinnacle. And, I'd like to read to you Stewart's resignation letter as President of the Senate, given on April 1, 1969, when he resigned from the Senate to become Under Secretary of Commerce.

To the Clerk, who was Wilmot S. White.: "Dear Mr. White,

Because of my pending appointment as Under Secretary of Commerce and Federal Co-Chairman of the New England Regional Commission, I hereby tender my resignation as President of the New Hampshire State Senate, effective at 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, April 1, 1969.

It is with deep regret that I shall be leaving the Presidency. However, I look forward to the challenge and the hope to be of greater service to the people of New Hampshire and all of New England.

I want to thank the Senate for the courtesy that it has shown me during these past four years and three months. I want to thank the offices, secretaries, attaches, for their loyalty and devotion to duty. I hope to be able to return at some future date and serve in a legislative capacity.

Sincerely, Stewart Lamprey, President."

Stewart Lamprey did return to become Chief of Staff for Governor Walter Peterson. And, at 90 years of age, Stewart is still extremely active, and, again, he's a real role model for all of us for the kind of service that he has given to the State of New Hampshire. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Yes, I'd like a Rule 2-17, Mister President. Thank you very much for recognizing me. As well as, I'd like to ask leave of the Senate, Rule 2-1, to use an electronic device to read from, if I may.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Sure.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you very much, Mister President. I can easily email this to every member of the Senate. It is the Seacoast Job Fair. It is free; there is now more than 25 employers going to be there. It's at the Great Bay Community College a week from this Friday. So, if you know anybody of it and would like an email of this advertisement for the job fair, I'd be glad to send it off to you. It's very important for us in the Seacoast – Senator Stiles and Senator Merrill – to get together and help out with our community, and we would like to have you guys – part of the Senate here – advertise it if you would, please; it'd be great. Thank you very much, Mister President. April 22nd; next Friday. Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to exercise a Rule 2-17. Thank you. Due to the table motion, there wasn't a chance to speak to 542, so I would like to just address that very quickly, that the table motion was a motion that was made in order to give us time to next year present a similar bill that would reinforce parental rights. That's certainly a very important bill that was put forward, that parents need to be able to have the right to pull their kid out of a program or a school that they're conscientiously opposed to; we heard numerous testimonies to that fact. But, there were some concerns about the bill, so I look forward to working with my good friends on the Education Committee, especially Senator Stiles and Senator Carson, to bring a bill forward next year. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I would like it if you would ask the Chief of Staff to stand up, please.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Would the Chief of Staff please stand?

SENATOR BARNES: Maybe he could go to the front of the room and announce why he's dressed the way he is.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Chief of Staff, why are you dressed the way you are? Why is this day any different than any other? I will explain that the Chief of Staff is wearing a kilt today because it is Tartan Day in the Legislature, and those of Scottish heritage tend to dress differently.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much. I'd just like to take this opportunity to welcome another group of students from the Crescent Lake School. As I told the first group of students, my youngest son graduated from the Crescent Lake School in its first year, so continue on with a good tradition. Thank you for being here today.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. Senate Finance will meet at 1:00 to review House Bill 2. I'd like to just point out something – so I'll use both things; I'll make an announcement and a 2-17.

I'd like to point out that there's over $200 million worth of issues to deal with from the budget that came from the House; they're real issues. Retirees' healthcare was one today, of $30 million. Uncompensated care to the hospitals is $100 million-plus. Mental health is $26 million. The DD waitlist is over $20 million, and we still have to deal with disabilities, which the Senate has spoken highly that they want to return $20 million to. So, there's over $200 million just in those numbers. So, as we go through HB 2 this afternoon to clarify the Senate's position, I want the Senate to understand the enormous task before them in putting this budget together and making this budget balance at $4.4 billion in general funds. It's difficult; it's enormous, and the House has left some things on the table that need to be dealt with. So, as you all want to talk about the budget, please come to the Finance meetings. We're meeting three days a week as is; this is our fourth one this week. We want to hear from you. So, thank you.

Without objection President Bragdon moved that all Rule 2-17's shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate.

MOTION TO RECESS TO CALL OF THE CHAIR

Sen. Bradley moved that the business of the day being completed, that the Senate recess to the Call of the Chair for the purposes of introducing legislation, referring bills to committee, scheduling hearings, sending and receiving messages, and processing enrolled bill reports and amendments and when we recess, we recess to the Call of the Chair.

Adopted. The Senate is in recess to the Call of the Chair.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

April 20, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Kate Atkinson, guest chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

Well, in the past few days, we have celebrated both Judaism's feast of Passover and Christianity's Palm Sunday. And, at the center of both of these holy days is an occasion when God asked somebody to do something, and in spite of human doubt and resistance and plenty of apparently good reasons to say no, in both cases, the answer was yes.

Moses argued that he was not qualified to lead the Israelites out of Egypt into freedom, but he did it. And, centuries later, an unnamed citizen of Bethphage, when told that the Lord needed his donkeys, immediately handed them over, enabling Jesus to make his triumphant entry into Jerusalem just a few days before his arrest and his crucifixion.

Well, it wasn't only 2,000-plus years ago that God made requests of humanity; God is still calling us to take on responsibilities for one another and for the world that we live in. And, we can always think of excuses to say no, but remarkable things happen when we say yes.

This prayer is about 100 years old, but it's timeless. Let us pray.

O, Lord God, Who called Your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown, give us faith to go out with a good courage, not knowing where we are going, but only that Your hand is leading us, and Your love supporting us, to the glory of Your name. Amen.

Sen. Boutin led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to introduce Joshua Rupp from Belmont. Joshua is the son of our IT Director, so the apple doesn't fall far from the tree. He's 15 years old, grade nine, and strangely enough he's interested in computer topics. He also is – even though he's only in ninth grade, he is in AP science studying biology, so that's pretty amazing. He's active in cross country, New Hampshire Destination Imagination, and occasionally the drama club. And, I won't hold this against him, but he's looking to potentially join the Marine Corps instead of the Air Force. But, Semper Fi, Joshua, and welcome.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Odell.)

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. Today I'm very honored and delighted that in the gallery to see us today is my niece, Kerin Braudaway, from Virginia, although she was born and grew up and had a couple of years in New Hampshire. She is here with her family, and they are exploring their roots in Amherst and Milford and around the State of New Hampshire.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: That would be District 11, I might add.

SENATOR ODELL: That would be District 11, sir; yes. And, we've connected the Bragdens and the Odells as we've done many times here before. With Kerin is her husband, Wes, and her two sons, Tom and Ben. They live in Virginia. And, this is a very special family. They have another brother, James, who's at James Madison University and not on this trip. But, the three sons: three Boy Scouts, three Eagle Scouts, one family. Great job. So, please welcome them.

Without objection, President Bragdon authorized Senator Luther to use electronic devices on the floor of the Senate.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces that the following bills will not come to Finance: HB 262-FN, HB 451-FN, HB 474-FN, HB 483-FN-L, HB 609-FN, HB 621-FN-L.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

COMMERCE

HB 143, relative to the sale of stove polish. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 143 Ought to Pass. House Bill 143 repeals the prohibition on the sale of stove polish and related compounds used as polishes.

The Committee received testimony that these stove polishes were initially prohibited due to the flammable nature of the products. Now, flammable stove polish is no longer sold, so there's no need for this statute.

Please join the Commerce Committee in their unanimous vote of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 262-FN, relative to beverage manufacturers. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 262-FN Ought to Pass. This bill establishes a nanobrewery license for businesses that manufacture up to 2,000 barrels of beer or specialty beer annually, and eliminates the quality restrictions on sales by beverage manufacturers to the general public.

The goal of House Bill 262-FN is to allow a small operator-manufacturer to enter the market while maintaining public safety, public health, and revenue controls. Please join the Commerce Committee in their unanimous vote of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a question of Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Don't make it too hard.

SENATOR BARNES: No, it's rather a softball. Does this mean if I vote for this that there's a possibility of Schlitz being re-brewed here in New Hampshire?

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Is the name available? It may be.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 474-FN, relative to freedom of choice on whether to join a labor union and eliminating the duty of a public employee labor organization to represent employees who elect not to join or to pay dues or fees to the employee organization. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-1. Senator Prescott for the committee.

Amendment to HB 474-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to freedom of choice on whether to join a labor union.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Name of Act. It is the intent of the general court that this act be known as "The Franklin A. Partin Jr. Right to Work Act."

2 New Chapter; Right to Work Act. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 273-C the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 273-D

RIGHT TO WORK ACT

273-D:1 Short Title. This act may be cited as the "Right to Work Act."

273-D:2 Declaration of Public Policy. It is hereby declared to be the public policy of this state in order to maximize individual freedom of choice in the pursuit of employment and to encourage an employment climate conducive to economic growth, that all persons shall have, and shall be protected in the exercise of, the right freely, and without fear of penalty or reprisal, to form, join, or assist labor organizations, or to refrain from any such activity.

273-D:3 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Employer" means any individual, corporation, association, organization, or entity that employs one or more persons. The term includes, but is not limited to, the state of New Hampshire and its agencies, every district, board, commission, instrumentality, or other unit whose governing body exercises similar governmental powers. The term "employer" includes, but is not limited to, employers of agricultural labor.

II. "Labor organization" means any organization of any kind, or agency or employee representation committee or plan, which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of work, or other conditions of employment.

273-D:4 Freedom of Choice Guaranteed, Discrimination Prohibited. No person shall be required, as a condition of employment or continuation of employment:

I. To resign or refrain from voluntary membership in, voluntary affiliation with, or voluntary financial support of a labor organization;

II. To become or remain a member of a labor organization;

III. To pay any dues, fees, assessments, or other charges of any kind or amount to a labor organization;

IV. To pay any charity or other third party, in lieu of such payments, any amount equivalent to or a pro-rata portion of dues, fees, assessments, or other charges of a labor organization; or

V. To be recommended, approved, referred, or cleared by or through a labor organization.

273-D:5 Voluntary Deductions Protected. It shall be unlawful for any employer to deduct from the wages, earnings, or compensation of any employee any dues, fees, assessments, or other charges, to be held for, transferred to, or paid over to a labor organization, unless the employee has first presented, and the employer has received, a signed written authorization of such deductions, which authorization may be revoked by the employee at any time by giving written notice of such revocation 30 days in advance of its effective date. Every employer who receives such an authorization from an employee shall have a duty to promptly notify that employee in writing that the employee may revoke an authorization at any time by giving the employer 30 days written notice.

273-D:6 Agreements in Violation, and Actions to Induce Such Agreements, Declared Illegal. Any agreement, understanding or practice, written or oral, implied or expressed, between any labor organization and employer which violates the rights of employees as guaranteed by the provisions of this chapter is hereby declared to be unlawful, null and void, and of no legal effect. Any strike, picketing, boycott, or other action, by a labor organization for the sole purpose of inducing or attempting to induce an employer to enter into any agreement prohibited under this chapter is hereby declared to be for an illegal purpose and is a violation of the provisions of this chapter.

273-D:7 Notice to be Posted. It shall be the duty of every employer to post and keep continuously displayed the following notice at such a place or places in the business, establishment, or premises where it may be readily seen by all employees, and it shall be the further duty of every employer to furnish a copy of such notice to each employee at the time the employee is hired:

EMPLOYEES FREEDOM OF CHOICE

Under the law of the state of New Hampshire, employees are protected in the exercise of their free choice to join or refrain from joining labor unions, and it is unlawful for an employer and a labor union to enter into a contract or agreement requiring them to pay dues, fees, or charges of any kind to a labor union as a condition of obtaining or keeping a job. Under this law, an employer may not discharge or otherwise discriminate against an employee because of joining or refusing to join a labor union, or to pay dues, or other charges to a labor union.

273-D:8 Coercion and Intimidation Prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any person, labor organization, or officer, agent or member thereof, or employer, or officer thereof, by any threatened or actual intimidation of an employee or prospective employee, or the employee's parents, spouse, children, grandchildren, or any other persons residing in the employee's or prospective employee's home, or by any damage or threatened damage to property, to compel or attempt to compel such employee to join, affiliate with, or financially support a labor organization or to refrain from doing so, or otherwise forfeit any rights as guaranteed by provisions of this chapter. It shall also be unlawful to cause or attempt to cause an employee to be denied employment or discharged from employment because of support or nonsupport of a labor organization by inducing or attempting to induce any other person to refuse to work with such employees.

273-D:9 Penalties. Any person, employer, labor organization, agent, or representative of an employer or labor organization, who directly or indirectly imposes upon any person any requirement prohibited by this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, notwithstanding RSA 651:2, shall be subject for each offense to a fine not exceeding $1,000, or to imprisonment not exceeding 90 days, or both.

273-D:10 Civil Remedies. Any person harmed as a result of any violation or threatened violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to injunctive relief against any and all violators or persons threatening violation, and may also recover any or all damages of any character, including costs and reasonable attorney fees, resulting from such violation or threatened violation, cognizable at common law. Such remedies shall be independent of, and in addition to, the penalties and remedies prescribed in other provisions of this chapter.

273-D:11 Duty to Investigate. It shall be the duty of the attorney general and of each county attorney, to investigate any complaints of violation of this chapter, and to prosecute all persons violating any of its provisions, and to use all means at their command to insure effective enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

273-D:12 Existing Contracts. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all contracts entered into on or after the effective date of this chapter and shall not apply to existing contracts, but shall apply to any renewal or extensions of such existing contracts.

273-D:13 Exceptions. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply:

- I. To employers and employees covered by the federal Railway Labor Act.
- II. To federal employers and employees.

III. To employers and employees on exclusive federal enclaves.

IV. Where they would otherwise conflict with, or be preempted by, federal law.

273-D:14 Severability. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill prohibits collective bargaining agreements that require employees to join a labor union.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 474-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. The full Committee voted to remove two amendments to the House Bill 474 that could have had an adverse effect on collective bargaining. The full Committee then voted 4-1 recommending House Bill 474 Ought to Pass, a bill prohibiting payments to a union by nonmembers. Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on House Bill 474-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Sen. Stiles is in opposition to the adoption of the Committee Amendment.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to the committee recommendation; I was the one in the Commerce Committee against.

Senator, the introduction didn't talk a lot about the business aspects of this, but there has been talk about the pro-business components of Right to Work elsewhere, and so I wanted to put to rest any of those suggested reasons to support this bill.

States that have adopted Right to Work legislation have just not seen dramatic increases in job growth. And so, we asked why. Basically, because companies that are seeking cheap labor in a post-NAFTA era, are sending jobs to India, China, and Mexico, not Alabama and Mississippi. In fact, in Oklahoma, which was the last state to institute Right to Work legislation about ten years ago, the number of companies moving in actually declined by a third.

According to Bureau of Labor statistics, New Hampshire maintains the fourth-lowest unemployment rate in the country at 5.2 percent. The state's unemployment rate dropped again in March, resulting in 10,000 fewer unemployed residents than at the same time a year ago. These figures represent a dramatically better employment picture than the vast majority of Right to Work states, including the double-digit unemployment rates in South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida, and the 13.2 percent unemployment – the nation's worst – in Nevada, also a Right to Work state.

Furthermore, workers in the majority of Right to Work states have, on a per capita basis, lower salaries and benefits and lower overall median household income than New Hampshire. The average full-time worker in a Right to Work state makes about $1,500 less annually than a similar worker in a non-Right to Work state. Studies suggest that the wages and benefits of all workers – union and non-union – are adversely affected in Right to Work states.

Now, this same point has been used as a justification for the bill as a means of incentivizing companies to relocate to New Hampshire with the ability to pay depressed wages and benefits. I would suggest that justification is misguided. Job creation should not equate to a race to the bottom for New Hampshire employers and a diminished standard of living for all New Hampshire employees.

With respect to the amendment, I have maintained that supporters are between a rock and a hard place with this bill. The Committee took out the House amendment because it raised issues of discrimination. Good! Unions already have an obligation to represent everyone. But, now the bill is left with the “free rider” problem of a union having to represent someone who does not contribute to the costs of their representation. The answer to this conundrum, by the way, is just to kill the bill.

I also heard arguments with respect to a freedom of an employee to make a choice, and I can only say here what I’ve said multiple times already in committee, and I apologize to my committee members for the repetition on this. It’s all in the eye of the beholder. Supporters say it’s about an individual’s freedom to decide whether to contribute to a union or join a union; no one has to join a union. But, we have to do things, make contributions to organizations that we’re members of frequently. For example, we may pay fees to be a part of an association, whether it’s a condominium or the Bar Association, or otherwise. We all pay taxes for a multitude of things, not all of which we support. And, we may be represented by people that we didn’t vote for.

Finally, for those who are opposed to government intrusion, this bill clearly infringes on a business’ freedom to negotiate contracts with its employees. We often debate the appropriate role for government, and I would submit to you that interfering in negotiations between businesses and employees is not a role for government in New Hampshire.

So, for all these reasons, I’d ask you to join me in opposing the committee recommendation. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D’Allesandro.)

SENATOR D’ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise in opposition to House Bill 474, the legislation being offered as so-called “Right to Work”.

I want to start my conversation with you with an anecdote. My mother-in-law and father-in-law worked in the mills in Manchester: the Amoskeag Mills. Long days, no benefits, no ability to negotiate a contract. They worked because the Amoskeag ran the show. Are we going to return to that kind of a situation? I certainly hope not. Both of them are gone now, but they labored long and hard in that mill and suffered the pains of working in that mill. And, I can tell you that there is a place in the cemetery on Valley Street for those who were killed working in that mill, when the machines never stopped; when an individual fell prey to one of those machines, they kept them running and just took the remains and put them in a pauper’s grave on Valley Street. So, I tell you that House Bill 474 represents bad business policy, bad worker policy, and bad policy for New Hampshire’s economy. Now, think of that: bad business policy. We’re a business-friendly state. Bad worker policy – an unemployment rate that's much less than the national average, and we are praised for the productivity of our employees. It's a manifestation that we talk about constantly when we talk about the quality of New Hampshire. And, bad policy for New Hampshire's economy.

Let me first clarify one point, so that this chamber and all those listening have a basic understanding that this is both an imperative and a fundamental to the policy discussion surrounding House Bill 474. No one – let me repeat – no one: no worker, no individual in the State of New Hampshire or anywhere else can be forced to join a union. There's been a great deal of misunderstanding and misinformation as it applies to this key element in the debate that's come before us today. The matter before us here is a question of whether those individuals who participate in and benefit from terms of employment agree to be and achieve during the collective bargaining process should contribute a fair share of the costs incurred in that process. Plain and simple. Should the cost of wages and benefits earned of a worker's rights of a workplace, safety measures, and of a worker's protections that benefit all workers be paid for by only the few, or should those costs be borne by all of those who stand to benefit – and, I repeat – all of those who stand to benefit? Mister President, I submit to you that House Bill 474 represents a race to the economic bottom for both New Hampshire workers and New Hampshire employers and stands as yet another affront to the already shrinking and diminished middle class.

Further, I would ask you why, at a time when New Hampshire's already low unemployment rate is on the decline and our economy is recovering at a faster rate than the vast majority of states, would we undertake such a dramatic policy shift that would adversely affect so many New Hampshire workers and their families? Why, as a state that enjoys one of the highest per capita income and the highest quality of life anywhere in the United States, why would we want to apply a policy that would only serve to diminish that standard? Our State Labor Commissioner has testified against this piece of legislation and stated that with the thousands of New Hampshire businesses he interacts with each year, the issue of so-called "Right to Work" is not among the chief concerns of our businesses and their workers. The Commissioner of the Department of Resources and Economic Development has further confirmed this statement in his own remarks. And, in a recent survey conducted by the New Hampshire Business and Industry Association in an effort to gauge concerns among New Hampshire businesses, so-called "Right to Work" ranked a distant 14th.

Mister President, I would suggest to you today that House Bill 474 is not good for New Hampshire workers; it's not good for New Hampshire business; it's not good for New Hampshire families; and it's not good for the New Hampshire economy. And, I would ask my colleagues to reject it.

I'd like to read from a letter that was sent to us by the Chancellor of the Diocese of Manchester. This letter represents the position of the Bishop of the Diocese of New Hampshire. Let me just quote the second to the last paragraph; I'm sure all of you have read this letter.

"At a time of great economic difficulty and the need for national unity in the face of great danger, we should preserve institutions like free collective bargaining that promote harmony, collaboration, balance, and justice. The passage of the Right to Work law in New Hampshire will do the opposite. For these reasons, we urge you to vote against the passage of House Bill 474." That's a letter sent to every member of the Senate with regard to the position of the Bishop on Right to Work.

Let me close by saying we all want the right to work; we all want to work. A job gives us the ability for self respect. But, to destroy a climate that has been created in this state, that has been most beneficial for our state, for our businesses, and basically for the economy of this state, why at this time would this body attempt to destroy something that has made New Hampshire what it is? Why take us back to the 19th century, when people died in sweat shops, when people didn't get a living wage, and when people had no opportunity to make their life better? For these reasons, Mister President, I ask you to vote against this piece of legislation. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I too rise in opposition to House Bill 474. As you have heard, states with so-called "Right to Work" laws do not guarantee work for anyone. In fact, they have some of the highest unemployment rates in the nation. And, in states like New Hampshire that have free rights to employers and employees to agree to union contracts, no one is forced to join a union. No one anywhere in the United States is forced to join a union. Rather, employers and unions in states such as ours are free to agree to contracts that require those who benefit from union negotiations to pay a fair share of the costs of such bargaining and oversight. And, I would remind you that only 11 percent of all workers in New Hampshire are represented by a union. So, why are we seeing this energetic assault on organized labor this year? "Energetic assault": that's how it was described by the Keene Sentinel, reprinted, I believe, in the Nashua Telegraph; also opposed in the Portsmouth Herald, this bill. Why are we allowing a Virginia-based group that's been repeatedly rejected in past sessions to come into New Hampshire and push this legislation, which as one House member described: "Is solely intended to create hate and discontent and break up our bargaining units"?

We have so much to accomplish together in balancing this budget in this difficult and deep recession. Why are we spending precious time on this non-issue? And, I can assure you, this issue will not go away; it will hang over our heads throughout this session and into our veto session. So, we could spend our time creating jobs and balancing budgets, or we can spend our time fighting these issues that in fact are non-issues.

We've seen a number of bills this session that serve to undermine the economic prosperity of New Hampshire's workers. House Bill 474 continues along that path. While New Hampshire ranks among the very top of states in categories ranging from low unemployment and low poverty rates to high median household income and high per capita net earnings, those states that have adopted Right to Work laws often fall short in those very areas.

Proponents of this legislation will tell you it's an effort to bolster job creation by attracting new businesses to the state. Yet, you've heard our own Department of Economic Resources has said they have never been asked on the State's position in a business that's considering coming to our state, and these assertions come without the backing of sound economic foundation or serious data-driven analysis. In fact, many Right to Work states, such as Nevada and Oklahoma, rank among the very bottom of the barrel in terms of employment, even before any attention is given to what kind of jobs are created by such policies.

Right to Work laws are often promoted as a means to attract employers looking for cheap wages, but as economist Andrea Orr writes: "When employers compete chiefly on the basis of low wages and benefits, this race to the bottom does a state's workers no good. Consumer spending and tax revenues erode, and ultimately the employer seeking to reduce costs move jobs to even lower markets overseas". This is the quote of an economist who's watched this process around our country. So, if we aren't creating living wage jobs with this bill, what are we doing? House Bill 474 is aimed to weaken labor unions and, it's argued, this subsequent depressing of wages and benefits for all workers is supposed to be good business for business.

So, if this is such a good bill, what did we hear from New Hampshire businesses? At the public hearing conducted by the Senate Commerce Committee a few weeks ago, not one New Hampshire business that employs union workers, including PSNH and FairPoint and others, testified in favor of the bill, and several sent letters in opposition, recognizing the value of union labor. Additionally, in the House hearing in February, opponents to the bill outnumbered those in support ten to one.

Over the years, organized labor and businesses in New Hampshire have enjoyed a strong and amicable relationship. The skilled labor and high production that has resulted from this relationship has benefitted New Hampshire's economy. House Bill 474 would intrude on that relationship without any reliable evidence that points to job growth, and to the certain detriment of New Hampshire's workers and their families.

I urge my colleagues to vote "no" on passage of this middle income killing, decent wage killing bill. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to respond to some of the comments made on this bill.

First off, on Right to Work, we get the argument of the "free rider" problem, that unions have to represent these people so these people have to pay. That issue was dealt with with an amendment that said the unions don't have to represent those people, and yet the unions came out even stronger against that. And so, there seems to be no winning; there's a circular logic here where if you amend it one way, that's not likeable, even though that's consistent, and if you keep it the other way, that's not acceptable either. We have to have one or the other, and we're putting it forward without the amendment.

A lot of my colleagues have mixed statistics here to send a mixed message. It's true that some states with Right to Work are poor, but those states were poor before they passed Right to Work, and since they've passed Right to Work, they've seen job growth. For example, Alabama and Mississippi: those were poor before they passed Right to Work, but since then, they've been closing the gap.

For economic statistics, from 2000 to 2010, real personal income grew 24 percent in Right to Work states, 10.9 percent in non-Right to Work states, and only 8.4 percent in New Hampshire. Meanwhile, New Hampshire lost around 12,000 private sector jobs between 2000 and 2010; Right to Work states actually added a handful of jobs in the private sector; the growth rate was 0.3 percent despite two recessions.

There were comments made that DRED hasn't heard of a single company that wants to move here because of elimination of Right to Work, yet I've been contacted by companies; I know Senator Groen, as well, has been contacted by companies, urging us to pass Right to Work.

To me, this is a matter of personal freedom. No, you can't be forced to join a union; that is true. But, if you're forced to be represented by the union and you're forced to make contributions, I would ask: What's the difference at that point? In fact, I've been contacted by a number of people who urged me, even though they can't come and testify because they're afraid, but they've urged me to pass Right to Work, including a UNH employee.

A lot has been made of the strength of New Hampshire's economy, and rightfully so; we are the strongest economy in the Northeast. But, I would maintain very strongly that is because of our status of having no income tax and no sales tax; it's the New Hampshire advantage, and it's what's made us a great state, and we can do even better by passing Right to Work. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I also would like to respond to some of the comments that our Senate colleagues have made against this bill.

I was on the Commerce Committee, so I did sit through the hours and hours of testimony that we received about this bill. And, like all committees that I've served on, we try to balance the concerns of all stakeholders; this has been a common theme, I think, in this Senate. I'm very proud of the fact that as we've worked through some difficult issues this session that I and my colleagues have tried to be responsive and sympathetic to all sides of an issue. And, I think the fact that we offered the amended version in the Senate and didn't just rubber-stamp what came over from the House was a reflection of that.

We heard during testimony a lot of angst about the House amendment, about the fact that it was an assault on the exclusive bargaining of units, and we responded to that, moving back toward the original bill as introduced. And, the original bill as introduced says...First of all, it says that this act is known as the Franklin A. Partin, Jr. Right to Work Act, and I want to pay tribute to my friend, Franklin Partin, who passed away a few months ago, and just one last time honor him on the Senate floor. And, then it says: "Freedom of choice guaranteed; discrimination prohibited." Who's against that?

Under the law of the State of New Hampshire, employees are protected in the exercise of their free choice to join or refrain from joining labor unions, and we all agree with that. But, as Senator Forsythe just pointed out, if you've got to pay the dues, how much freedom is really there? "Coercion and intimidation prohibited"; what's wrong with that? As we look at this act, this act really comes down to just a simple matter of freedom of choice. I ran as a freedom kind of guy, a liberty kind of guy; I believe in that; I believe "Live Free or Die" in New Hampshire.

We talked about economic issues, and I'll be honest with you: I thought the economic issues didn't enter into it. Senator Larsen outlined a lot of economic arguments. To be honest with you, if I wanted to take up valuable Senate time, I could read a host of economic arguments in the other direction about Right to Work states having increased employment and so forth, but I'm not going to do that because I came away from Commerce, from hearing all those arguments, that it was a mixed message. And, I don't actually believe Right to Work or not Right to Work had any impact on the economics of many states that were cited; I think there were other factors that entered into it, and the data was inconclusive. So, again, it just kept coming back to freedom for me; that was the issue.

The charge was leveled that we're interfering in negotiations; nothing could be further from the truth. With this amended version, unions still have the cornerstone of labor negotiations, which is exclusive representation of the entire unit. We did nothing to interfere with that, and that's why we peeled off that House language that would have interfered with that, again, trying to be responsive.

I'd like to address the issue about – Senator Larsen, again, brought up the fact that 11 percent of New Hampshire is unionized employment. We heard a lot of talk about economic activity, but the facts are that most of that union employment, that 11 percent, is public sector employment; it's not private sector employment. We have very little private sector union employment in New Hampshire. So, again, to inject economics into it, I think, is a bit disingenuous.

Then we talked about the fact that in those hearings people would say: "Well, people know if there's a union present in that workplace or not; they have the choice just simply to not work there. If they don't like the fact that there's a union, they don't want to pay agency fees, they don't want to participate, go find another job." Well, that's fine if there's other jobs available, such as in many private sector jobs where you can work at this garage or that garage or this trucking operation or that trucking operation. But, let's think about that for a minute: When most of the unionization is in the public sector, are you going to say to the citizens of New Hampshire: "If you don't want to join a union, don't be a schoolteacher, don't be a fireman, don't be a policeman, don't be a state employee"? Is that fair? That's not fair. They don't have another place to go. If somebody wants to serve our state in any of those honorable positions, they have to, basically, be a member of a union or pay agency fees almost exclusively in those positions.

The statement was made about the Commissioner of Labor, George Copadis, saying that no one comes to him complaining about Right to Work or not Right to Work being a hindrance to attracting businesses. But, again, I say that's because we have, pretty much, a low private sector unionization rate, and that's just not an issue here.

So, in conclusion I'd just say this...Oh, and one other thing I'd like to take exception to, again from Senator Larsen, is the comment that we're just trying to spread hate and discontent. First of all, this bill has been before this Legislature time and time and time again. The fact of the matter is, with certain people that believe in the right to freely join a union, their appetite has not been quenched for that desire of that right, and I don't believe it would be quenched if we killed this bill again. I think that they have a legitimate concern there. On the other side, those with the labor unions, I heard loud and clear – my mailbox, it got to the point where we stopped reading it and just weighed it. There was an intense volume of it; it was very intense. So, it's intense on both sides, and I will agree with Senator Larsen that we probably haven't heard the last of this. But, I will say this: This Senator is not here to spread hate and discontent, and I take exception to that charge.

So, in conclusion, I just say I do support this bill. We tried to be responsive to the concerns of Labor, and that's why we stripped the House amendment that we did feel was an intrusion on the cornerstone of collective bargaining, which really is that exclusive representation. This bill represents a good common sense, trying to make all stakeholders happy type of attempt; it's our best effort to do that. I urge people to support it, and I think that the Commerce Committee and the Senate members I spoke to can be proud of the fact that they did listen to stakeholders, they didn't have a bad attitude or try to spread hate or discontent. I'm proud of the fact that I listened to stakeholders, and I'll stand by that. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. White.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Senator White, you talked about freedom. And, first I wanted to clarify that the hate statement was in fact a quote from a House Representative who was feeling that fairly strongly in his chambers. So, those were not my words; I was simply quoting his statement, which I pass along.

But, the question of freedom – As you understand it, is it not an agreement between the employer and the employee before an agency fee is, or a fair share fee, is included in a negotiation...It's the freedom of those two groups to choose to have that as part of their contract. Is that not a freedom of choice right there?

SENATOR WHITE: I would agree that that is a freedom of choice. But, again, my answer to that is that when someone objects to paying that fee, at that point, if there is an agreement that there has to be an agency fee, which was voluntarily entered into by the majority of workers when that contract was created, at that point they're out of options. And, I'd also further answer that, you know, through this whole argument, it was portrayed that unions were going to be put at a disadvantage and that they couldn't compete. I believe totally, certainly when I see the kind of effort and impassioned speech that the unions portrayed in our hearings, they can compete for these workers. I really believe the opt-out is going to be a very small percentage of people, because the unions can make a compelling case – they certainly did with me – that they are valuable and that they do a service, and just like I'm in a private enterprise business and I have to fight for customers, they're going to have no problem getting customers lining up at the door. But, I have to be concerned with everybody, including that 1 percent, 3 percent, whatever it is, that just has a moral or religious or whatever reason they have – it's their freedom to not want to exercise or not pay into that system or pay agency fees; I have to watch out for them, too.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I just want to rise and say in our committee hearing and in our committee debates and our deliberation during executive session, I want to commend to Senator Houde, Senator White, Senator Sanborn, and Senator De Blois that you did a great job. We went through all these subjects; we discussed them. And, we are all good friends, as far as I'm concerned, and yet we come to different decisions. And, that, to me, is the beauty of this body. And, I appreciate the open debate and I appreciate that when this bill was entered last fall, the public knew what the bill said. And, I appreciate that we returned it in the Senate, realizing that the amendments were wrong for our committee; all of us – 100 percent of us in that committee – said those amendments by the House were wrong for us. So, we changed it. And, it was all done publicly and open, with good debate. And, now we've come to a point where eight months ago, this was known; this writing is the same. And, I am satisfied with that, that it's been a good open government act. And, I'm ready to vote for it, Mister President, and I move the question.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Unfortunately you cannot move the question after speaking.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I've listened very carefully to the debate, and it's not a new item. Since 1992, I have been voting for it; I'm going to vote for it again today.

One thing struck me as a little strange, and another one that offended me a little bit. So, I'm going to talk about the one that offended me a little bit, then I'll talk to you about the one that I found rather strange to be brought onto the floor of the Senate.

"Attack on the middle class." Well, the Senator that said that is a pretty smart guy, and I think he knows that District 17 doesn't have too many people that are in the high salary range; most of the folks in District 17 are middle class people. Those are the people I've been representing for over 20 years up here. I will continue to represent them. And, I take a little bit of offense that because I'm voting for this that I'm attacking the middle class. That is a positively stupid and uncalled-for statement in my opinion. The phone rings and somebody asks for help, Jack doesn't say: "Are you a Republican? Are you a Democrat?" Jack says: "What do you need?" I do ask a question: "Are you a Yankee fan?" And, I might hesitate a little bit before I help them, but before it's over, I do help them. So, I've been doing it for a long period of time. And, the middle class is very important to this state and it's very important to me, and I've got a hunch it's very important to every other member in this chamber. That's why we're probably here: to represent the middle class. And, I am not attacking the middle class, and I haven't since 1992 attacked the middle class because I've voted for this legislation.

The thing that struck me as a little peculiar is the Bishop of the Catholic Church of New Hampshire sent a letter to everybody. Well, I think that's great. But, he also, on a bill about two years ago, sent a letter to all of us sitting in this chamber, and some people, and one of whom I asked after the vote on a certain bill that he talked to us about why he did it, and I – luckily I have forgotten what his answer was, but I think he knows what his answer was. So, why is the Bishop of the Catholic Church of New Hampshire's letter important to this conversation when it wasn't on another piece of legislation that was very important to the Catholic Church, as well as many Protestants? Thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I want to just react to the remarks of my colleague, the distinguished Senator from Raymond, who's been here for a long time. I was his precursor here. Let me tell you that when you look at the statistics that are presented by the United States Department of Labor, there has been a deterioration of the middle class around the country. That's a fact; that's not fiction. And, I'm not accusing any Senator of doing anything to the middle class. You do what you think is right, you respond to your constituency; that's why you're here. I might say that the median family income in Manchester is around $30,000. That's middle class. Those are the people I have represented since I came to this body in 1973, as a member of the House, as an Executive Councilor, and as a member of the Senate. I refuse no call; I try to support anyone who comes and wants the service that I can give them. And, I suggest that every one of you does the same thing. So, to impugn that I think negatively of some Senator is irresponsible – totally irresponsible – and I will not accept that.

Number two: If the Bishop of Manchester chooses to write, he does have freedom. That's a right that we all have. You have a right to either accept or reject what that Bishop is asking for. That's your freedom, and you should exercise that. To bring it up and say on one occasion I accept it, on another occasion I don't, again, is absolute fallacy, and I will not accept that.

This is a deliberative body. We deliberate the merits of the issue. That's all we debate: the merits of the issue. If you're for the issue, vote for it. If you're against the issue, vote against it. The debate, hopefully, adds to the validity of your decision, whether you're for it or against it. That's what we're here for. We're not here to talk about one another and one another's position.

Mister President, I am proud to be a member of the Senate. I am proud to be a public official. I stand on my record as a public official. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to this legislation, and just want to simply say that I think we need to have some caution in our response to this kind of legislation today and other legislation that's come before us in regard to unions. I do feel that the underlying intent on this legislation is to weaken unions. And, you know, you look at the history of unions, we talk about balance, we talk about justice, and we talk about freedom, and we talk about choice, and these are principles that we will debate forever. And, it's important that we debate them. But, I just simply want to say that without the strength of unions in the past and history, myself as a woman and for many women I speak for, there would not have been a freedom of choice to work or to have benefits, and also, for many, many people, middle class people who work every day to have that choice of employment. And, I also just simply want to end by saying in regard to the work that unions have done historically and continue to do today to protect our young people and children, and let's not forget the history and where we've come from. And, my concern is just simply that many of these bills that we bring before us today, this one as well, is just to weaken our unions. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to this bill. I respect the opinions of every single person in this room; we all represent our constituents. And, I have heard from a number of my constituents, a majority – I've been keeping a running total – who have asked me not to vote for this bill, and I am going to honor the request of my constituents.

But, I have to tell you, I have been subjected to the most vile attacks by this out-of-state special interest group that I have ever experienced in the 11 years that I have spent representing my constituents. They have attacked my husband, they have attacked my daughter, and I have been threatened – that has been in the news. I am just – I just don't know what's happening here in New Hampshire today on this issue. People are very, very passionate about it. And, this just has to stop. This has to stop. We need to respect each other's opinions. We are all representing our constituents. Thank you, Mister President.

Sen. Bradley called the question. Without objection President Bragdon closed debate.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Barnes. The following Senators voted Yes: Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Luther, Lambert, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Gallus, Houde, Kelly, Carson, Larsen, Boutin, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

EDUCATION

HB 386, adding Granite State college to the university system of New Hampshire corporate charter and adding a student trustee from Granite State college to the university system board of trustees. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Forsythe for the committee.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 386 Ought to Pass. This legislation adds Granite State College to the university system of New Hampshire corporate charter and also adds a student trustee from Granite State College to the university system board of trustees. Wow, that's exciting stuff.

The university system of New Hampshire is responsible for providing higher education in New Hampshire and includes Granite State College, Plymouth State University, Keene State College, and the University of New Hampshire. Therefore, it is appropriate to include a student from Granite State College to the rotation of student trustees to the board as recommended by the university system and Granite State College.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 386 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to HB 33

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to the care and maintenance of war memorials in Franconia Notch state park.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Section; Expansion of State Park System; War Memorials in Franconia Notch State Park. Amend RSA 216-A by inserting after section 6-a the following new section:

216-A:6-b War Memorials in Franconia Notch State Park.

I. The war memorials on the eastern shore of Profile Lake in Franconia Notch state park shall be undisturbed and maintained in a proper manner for viewing and visiting by the public. Appropriate signage and recognition of the war memorials shall be placed at the entrances to Franconia Notch state park as well as directional signs to the memorial sites. Veterans groups may aid the division of parks and recreation in enhancing and maintaining the park, through programs such as the Adopt-a-Park program and by other means.

II. The director of the division of parks and recreation may solicit, accept, and expend any gifts, grants, and donations for the purpose of maintaining the war memorials in accordance with this section.

2011-1440s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the care and maintenance of war memorials in Franconia Notch state park.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 33 Ought to Pass with Amendment. HB 33 establishes the standards of care for memorial sites in Franconia Notch State Park. This will help ensure that the memorial on the shore of Profile Lake, dedicated to our combat veterans, will be cared for and maintained for the foreseeable future.

The amendment eliminates extraneous language and the broad scope of the original bill, thereby clarifying that the legislation is specific to memorials in Franconia Notch State Park.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee in voting Ought to Pass with Amendment on HB 33. Thank you, Mister President.

HB 74, relative to the ticketing and season passes at Cannon Mountain. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 74 Ought to Pass. House Bill 74 makes changes to the requirements for reduced rate season passes at Cannon Mountain aerial tramway and ski area. Moreover, the bill looks to simplify the requirements of proof of residency for a child under the age of 18, align season pass and day ticket age brackets, change the terminology of season passes to reflect the new age brackets, change age "as of" requirement to December 15th to align with the current New Hampshire resident discount deadline, and to eliminate the term "coupon book" from New Hampshire resident discount consideration.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on House Bill 74. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

HB 144, relative to energy efficiency and clean energy districts. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 144 Ought to Pass. This bill amends RSA 53-F, passed last year as a mechanism to help residential and commercial property owners finance energy efficiency and renewable energy improvements.

HB 144 establishes that financing for participating property owners in energy efficiency and clean energy districts may be provided through issuance of municipal revenue bonds, but not from general municipal revenues, a change from last year's legislation. Further, this bill removes the priority lien provision for loans made by energy efficiency and clean energy districts under RSA 53-F. The first liens for such loans presented a problematic departure from traditional mortgage lending practices, and were not viewed as essential to these programs.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee in voting Ought to Pass on House Bill 144. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 196, relative to the certificates of completion of a basic hunter education program or bow hunter education program. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you again, Mister President. I move that House Bill 196 Ought to Pass. House Bill 196 allows the Fish and Game Department to suspend a person's certificate of completion of a basic hunter education program or specialized bow hunter education program pursuant to rules adopted by the Executive Director.

This bill was at the request of the Fish and Game Department, and would allow the Department to require individuals to take safety courses a second time when they have been involved in a significant safety violation. So, please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on House Bill 196. Thank you, Mister President.

HB 230, exempting the repair of certain structures from compensatory mitigation requirements. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Gallus for the committee.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 230 Inexpedient to Legislate. House Bill 230 would exempt owners of waters that are solely within the boundaries of the owner's property and have no abutters who repair or replace existing structures from compensatory mitigation requirements.

The Committee felt that the current law seems to be working and shouldn't be changed without a closer examination of possible unintended consequences that may result from the law change.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate on House Bill 230. And, I thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ADMINISTRATION

HB 47, relative to inactive license status for real estate brokers and salespersons. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

Senate Executive Departments and Administration
April 14, 2011

10/04

Amendment to HB 47

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to inactive license status for real estate brokers and salespersons and the use of limited electronic media.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 5:

2 New Paragraph; Definition Added. Amend RSA 331-A:2 by inserting after paragraph V-d the following new paragraph:

V-e. "Limited electronic media" means all electronic media that only allow for the presentation of limited amounts of information. Limited electronic media includes, but is not limited to, thumbnails, twitter messages, text messages, and other forms of electronic media existing now or in the future that similarly limit the amount of information that can be presented.

3 New Subparagraph; Advertising; Limited Electronic Media. Amend RSA 331-A:16, IV by inserting after subparagraph (b) the following new subparagraph:

(c) With respect to limited electronic media, the requirements of subparagraphs (a) and (b) shall be satisfied if the limited electronic media includes a link to an Internet display that contains the required information.

4 Prohibited Conduct; Advertising. Amend RSA 331-A:26, X to read as follows:

X. In the case of a salesperson or broker, advertising in any manner without stating the name of the individual principal broker when licensed under an individual principal broker license or business name as licensed for whom or under whom the salesperson or broker operates, except as provided in RSA 331-A:16, IV(c).

2011-1441s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the real estate commission's procedure for placing a license on inactive status. The bill also regulates the use of limited electronic media in advertising by real estate brokers and salespersons.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 47 Ought to Pass as Amended. HB 47 was requested by the real estate commission, and firstly changes the method of how a real estate broker is placed on inactive status. The past method was by application; the present requested method is by written request by the licensee.

Secondly, the amendment addresses a title change to the bill to include "the use of limited electronic media". The State of New Hampshire regulates how real estate brokers advertise to consumers with every advertisement including the required mandatory information, which is the name and contact information of the real estate brokerage firm. Advertising through electronic communications only allow for a limited number of characters in a message and can be completely used up with the agents' and agents' firms' information. Thus, the National Association of Realtors corrected this dilemma by instituting a new policy which states that the mandatory information is not required in the limited message if and only if the information is included in a link that is embedded in the message. HB 47 as amended places this definition in statute.

The Senate ED&A Committee voted unanimously in favor of the motion Ought to Pass as Amended, and we therefore ask for your support in its adoption.

HB 92, relative to expiration of licenses issued by the board of foresters. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 92 Ought to Pass. Currently, all board of foresters licenses expire on January 1st. This bill changes the license expiration to the last day of the birth month of the licensee. This will level the workload for the licensing board and allow them to better serve their licensees.

FINANCE

HB 35-FN, authorizing the acquisition of certain dams in the Connecticut Lakes Headwaters Tract. Ought to Pass, Vote 7-0. Senator Gallus for the committee.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 35-FN Ought to Pass. This bill authorizes the Fish and Game Department to acquire certain dams in the Connecticut Lakes Headwaters Tract and to transfer rights in the properties to the Department of Environmental Services for repair and maintenance. With the amended version by the House, the bill has been determined that the total fiscal impact would be less than $10,000 in each of the fiscal years 2011 through 2015.

The Finance Committee recommends that House Bill 35-FN Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you.

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

HB 58, relative to inter-facility transfers of critical access hospital patients. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 58 Ought to Pass. House Bill 58 deletes the exception for emergency medical and trauma services to allow certain providers to provide care during inter-facility transfer of critical access hospital patients in an urgent situation.

The exemption, entered into law in 2005, allowed a nurse to supplement an emergency medical service provider as the second individual in the back of an ambulance on an inter-facility transport of critically ill patients. The exception was made because of staffing issues. The system has since evolved, and EMS staff has increased. This exception has not been utilized in four years and has been deemed unsafe by all involved. Therefore, the Health and Human Services Committee believes it should be repealed by HB 58.

Please join the unanimous Health and Human Services Committee in voting House Bill 58 Ought to Pass.

Amendment to HB 71

Amend the bill by replacing section 10 with the following:

10 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2011.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 71 Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 71 allows New Hampshire communities and private entities, in conjunction with law enforcement officers, to establish controlled and non-controlled pharmaceutical drug take-back programs.

Under this bill, the Department of Justice, the pharmacy board, the Department of Safety, and the Department of Environmental Services shall establish guidelines for communities and private entities to follow if they choose to establish a pharmaceutical drug take-back program.

We heard testimony that more people in New Hampshire die as a result of pharmaceutical drug abuse than die in car accidents. These take-back programs will be completely voluntary, and will allow our communities with the assistance and presence of law enforcement to proactively take back unused drugs. The amendment to HB 71, submitted by its sponsor, only changes the effective date.

The Health and Human Services Committee recommends House Bill 71 Ought to Pass with Amendment and we ask for your support. Thank you.

Amendment to HB 483-FN-LOCAL

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Mosquito Control Policy. Amend RSA 142-A:2, VII to read as follows:

VII. State agencies managing land shall allow mosquito control and abatement activities to occur in accordance with local mosquito control plans developed pursuant to RSA 141-C when the department has notified the appropriate agency managing state land that a public health threat declaration under RSA 141-C:25 is in effect, or has previously been in effect within the last year, for the affected municipality or mosquito control district in accordance with RSA 142-A:3.

2 Mosquito Control Policy. Amend RSA 142-A:3, VI to read as follows:

VI. State agencies managing land shall allow the use of biological control agents, specifically Bacillus thuringiensis israelensis or Bacillus sphaericus, to control mosquito larvae in natural wetlands and water bodies on land they administer in accordance with applicable law and rules as long as those wetlands and water bodies are located in municipalities or mosquito control districts where a public health threat is declared, or has been declared within the last year, by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 141-C and when the application is to be made under a special permit issued by the department of agriculture, markets and food, division of pesticide control.

3 Mosquito Control Policy. Amend RSA 142-A:2, VII to read as follows:

VII. State agencies managing land shall allow mosquito control and abatement activities to occur in accordance with local mosquito control plans developed pursuant to RSA 141-C when the department has notified the appropriate agency managing state land that a public health threat declaration under RSA 141-C:25 is in effect, ~~or has previously been in effect within the last year,~~ for the affected municipality or mosquito control district in accordance with RSA 142-A:3.

4 Mosquito Control Policy. Amend RSA 142-A:3, VI to read as follows:

VI. State agencies managing land shall allow the use of biological control agents, specifically Bacillus thuringiensis israelensis or Bacillus sphaericus, to control mosquito larvae in natural wetlands and water bodies on land they administer in accordance with applicable law and rules as long as those wetlands and water bodies are located in municipalities or mosquito control districts where a public health threat is declared, ~~or has been declared within the last year,~~ by the commissioner pursuant to RSA 141-C and when the application is to be made under a special permit issued by the department of agriculture, markets and food, division of pesticide control.

I. Sections 3 and 4 of this act shall take effect November 1, 2014.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

2011-1375s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows a municipality to commence mosquito control abatement activities on state lands where a public health threat is in effect or was in effect within the last year under RSA 141-C:25.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 483-FN-L Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 483 allows a municipality to commence mosquito control abatement activities on state lands where a public health threat is in effect or has been in effect.

This bill was proposed by the Town of Stratham after an interdepartmental miscommunication resulted in a month-long delay between the health threat declaration and permission being granted for the town to treat mosquitoes.

As amended by the House, a town could continue to treat for mosquitoes on state lands for five years after the public health threat is declared.

Committee Amendment 1375s would permit the town to treat for one additional year after the threat is declared during a trial period scheduled to sunset in 2014. The Committee believes one additional year is more appropriate so that our towns do not continue to respond in historical context to current conditions, but are allowed a safeguard on abatement for one year.

So, the Health and Human Services Committee recommends HB 483-FN-L Ought to Pass with Amendment and we ask for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

JUDICIARY

HB 609-FN, establishing the New Hampshire circuit court to replace the current probate courts, district courts, and judicial branch family division. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Houde for the committee.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 609 Ought to Pass. This legislation establishes a circuit court system in the State of New Hampshire, which would incorporate the existing district courts, probate courts, and family division courts under one umbrella. Divided among county lines, the circuit courts will use established court locations and enable staff to more efficiently manage court dockets.

Unlike the current system, which has 52 district clerks who serve each individual court, each circuit court will have one clerk, reducing the number of clerks to 21 from the current 52. Furthermore, current judges serving in the district and probate or family division courts will be able to serve in other divisions upon certification of competency in that area, enabling the judges to be more able to serve whatever cases are assigned to their courts.

This is all part of a larger effort to examine the functioning of the Judiciary, and the court innovation commission came out with several recommendations, the organization being principal among them. Other innovations designed to increase efficiency include a centralized call center to answer questions in a more effective and efficient manner.

While House Bill 609 represents a significant change in the operation of our courts, its passage is critical to the courts meeting their budget and continuing to provide the level of service required and expected. The Judiciary Committee recommends that HB 609 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I just want to reiterate to my colleagues the significance of this piece of legislation, and the dramatic impact it has on the fiscal stability of the state. We have penciled in significant savings based on the passage of this bill. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court came before the Finance Committee and gave us a clear iteration of the value of this piece of legislation and the dollars that will be saved over a long period of time. So, the passage of this bill as presented, I think, is very, very important, and puts us on a path leading to significant financial savings. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I serve on Judiciary under our capable Chairman, and I think this is a great bill. But, I do want to make a comment that I'm very concerned about. I represent parts of Nashua along with Gary Lambert – Senator Lambert – and I am very concerned about the news that we've just heard in the last few days after this bill was presented that they plan to close the Superior Court in Nashua, and this is of great concern to us. I will support this bill, but I'm not happy with what I see coming for the Judiciary.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. And, thank you, Senator Luther, for bringing that to this body's attention. I would note, if it provides any comfort to our colleagues from Nashua, that the superior court system is actually not part of the circuit court fix. So that, while there are issues with the superior court that will perhaps be affecting Nashua, this bill is actually separate from that. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

HB 86, relative to filling a vacancy among county officers. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 86 Ought to Pass. This bill came about as the result of a vacancy in the Rockingham County Sheriff's Department. It would permit the county convention to leave certain elected positions vacant for less than one year. The convention wants the option, by majority vote, to either fill the position or leave it vacant. There may be someone currently in a department capable of serving as an interim who may have no intention of filing for the open position. If the convention fills the position with an interim individual, sometimes that individual is thought to have a leg up in election if that individual plans to be a candidate. If there is less than one year left in the term to be filled, the county convention wants to have the option to assure that the services will be met while not promoting any one person for candidacy.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 86 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 115, relative to the temporary removal or transfer of prisoners from a county correctional facility. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 115 Ought to Pass. This bill authorizes the superintendant of a county correctional facility to transfer prisoners for public safety or emergency reasons without the approval of the county commissioners. The bill requires the county commissioners to review such transfer at their next regular meeting.

Our country correctional facilities currently have arrangements with other county jails or state prisons to transfer a prisoner who is causing a problem, has a contagious illness, or, in some cases, for the protection of the prisoner or other inmates. However, the scheduling of county commissioner meetings may create a problem in attaining timely approval for the transfer of a prisoner. This bill gives authority to the superintendant to make the transfer, and then the county commissioners can investigate the transfer at their next meeting. The commissioners haven't lost any responsibility; this bill merely makes it easier for the superintendant and makes it safer inside the jail, as well. If the county commissioners reject the transfer, the prisoner shall be returned to the facility from which the prisoner came as soon practicable. There was no opposition to this bill during the House hearing and there was no opposition in Public and Municipal Affairs.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 115 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to HB 132

Amend RSA 3-E:2, II(a) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(a) The governor shall order the flag to be flown at half staff in the event of the death of any member of the armed forces who dies in combat and who is a resident of New Hampshire. The flag shall be flown at half staff the day of and the day after the service member's burial. Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 132 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill adopts the United States Flag Code as the flag code for the State of New Hampshire. The bill includes additional occasions on which the flag may be flown at half staff and provides that prohibitions on flying the flag at one's place of residence are unenforceable.

This bill came in before all of the press in the newspaper that you saw about the lady flying her flag at her condominium and she was told she couldn't fly it, and her husband's in Afghanistan. So, this bill happens to fit in very nicely for that situation. It was Representative Blankenbeker who is the – I believe she's a Lieutenant Commander in the United States Navy – that put that bill forward.

Although a federal flag code exists currently in New Hampshire, there is no consistent policy in the display of the American Flag at half staff when the body of a service member killed in combat is returned to the state. This bill adopts Title 4 - Flag and Seal, Seat of Government, and the States, which delineates when it is appropriate to fly a flag at half staff, who it is appropriate for, and how it is flown.

The bill also makes clear under both Title 4 and Public Law 109-243 the Freedom to Display the American Flag Act, that any association, including condominium complexes, cannot restrict the flying of the American Flag.

In discussions with the prime sponsor, Committee members expressed their concern that language in the bill may be limiting, particularly to the display of the flag at half staff and the location of the burial of a

New Hampshire service member. All parties agreed to amend the bill to broaden the language. All agreed as well that the bill should become effective immediately upon passage.

Therefore, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 132 be adopted as amended and asks for your support, and I say thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 72-FN-A, establishing a state aeronautical fund. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

Amendment to HB 72-FN-A

Amend RSA 422:35, II as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. There is hereby established the state aeronautical fund. The commissioner is authorized to accept gifts to further the purposes of this chapter and shall deposit them in the fund. The moneys in the fund shall be nonlapsing and shall be continually appropriated to the department for the purpose of funding maintenance of airports within the state that are open for public use and planning and implementing capital improvements to such airports. The commissioner may also accept and sell to a third party surplus airport equipment disposed of by the federal government and shall deposit the proceeds of the sale in the fund for the purpose of funding maintenance of and planning and implementing capital improvements to the airport where the equipment was located prior to disposal.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 New Section; Property Held in Airport Property Rooms. Amend RSA 471-C by inserting after section 13 the following new section:

471-C:13-a Property Held in Airport Property Rooms.

I. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, an airport director or designee may dispose of all noncontraband abandoned or lost property that has been held in an airport property room for a period of 180 days and not claimed by the owner. If the owner is unknown or if the owner fails to claim the property within 60 days of being notified to claim the property, the airport director or designee may:

(a) Destroy abandoned or lost property which may contain personal or business information, or property which has a value of less than $25.

(b) Return currency to an identified finder. The identified finder shall claim the currency within 60 days of being notified to claim the currency, otherwise said currency shall be retained by the airport for its use in aeronautical activities.

II.(a) An airport director or designee may dispose of all noncontraband abandoned or lost property that has been held in an airport property room for a period of 180 days which the airport director or his or her designee has not been able to dispose of under paragraph I by:

(1) Donating property which may be of value to a charitable organization to charity; or

(2) Selling the property at public auction. The airport director or designee shall fix a day upon which the auction shall take place, and give notice thereof by publication in a daily newspaper. The notice shall state the date, time, and place when such auction shall commence and shall contain a general description of the types of property to be sold. The notice shall be signed by an airport director or designee. The proceeds of such auction shall be retained by the airport for its use in aeronautical activities or donated to the state aeronautical fund; or

(3) Selling the property on an internet auction site with sufficient buyer participation to ensure that the property receives adequate exposure to the market for goods of the type being disposed of. The proceeds of such auction shall be retained by the airport for its use in aeronautical activities or donated to the state aeronautical fund.

(b) Property which fails to sell at public auction or on an internet auction site may be disposed of in any manner which the airport director or designee deems fit.

III. The airport and the state, municipality, authority, or other entity which owns or manages the airport shall have no liability for any claim thereafter arising or made with respect to property disposed of under this section.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 72-FN-A Ought to Pass as Amended. This bill establishes a state aeronautical fund and authorizes the Commissioner of the Department of Transportation to accept donations to the fund.

The Committee heard from stakeholders regarding the important role New Hampshire airports play in the economic stability of the communities in which they reside. This fund would take no money from the general fund.

The Committee amended the bill to include a legal vehicle for all airports in New Hampshire to dispose of abandoned property left on planes or at airports. This disposal of abandoned items was also suggested as a possible revenue source for the aeronautical fund.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.
(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: I've got a question for Senator Rausch if he'll take it.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Senator Rausch has not spoken, but he can take it if he wants to, even though this bill is going to Finance when it's done.

SENATOR MORSE: And, that's the question. Senator Rausch, you sit on a board of directors at a bank. How many accounts have you opened with no money? Just a question.

SENATOR RAUSCH: That's confidential information; I'm sorry.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

HB 90, relative to enforcement of the requirement of boaters to have a safe boater education certificate. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-0. Senator Rausch for the committee.

Senate Transportation

April 14, 2011

03/04

Amendment to HB 90

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Safe Boater Education Certificate; Possession Required. Amend RSA 270-D:11, III to read as follows:

III. Enforcement of this section shall be accomplished only as a secondary action when an operator of a motorized or registered vessel has been cited, [or] charged with, or issued a written warning for a violation or some other offense, or as a primary action when an operator is involved in an accident.

2011-1437s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill permits enforcement of the requirement of boaters to have a safe boater education certificate when the operator is issued a written warning for a violation or offense or when the operator is involved in an accident.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 90 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill permits enforcement of the requirement of boaters to have a safe boater education certificate when the operator is issued a written warning or a violation or offense, or when the operator is involved in an accident or is the subject of a complaint.

The Committee heard from the New Hampshire Department of Safety Division of Marine Patrol, who supported the bill and felt the bill was necessary, as it gives a Marine Patrol officer the authority and discretion to issue a boater a written warning for not having their safe boater certificate. The Committee amended the bill to limit under what circumstances a boater could be issued a written warning by the Marine Patrol officer.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 148, relative to federal funding for motorcycle-only roadside checkpoints. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 148 Ought to Pass. This bill prohibits the acceptance of federal funding for motorcycle-only roadside checkpoints.

The Committee heard from the New Hampshire Department of Safety, who was in support of the bill, and other stakeholders. It was felt motorcycle-only checkpoints were discriminatory and not something that would warrant New Hampshire's participation. The State does not conduct motorcycle-only checkpoints at the current time. This bill would not prevent the State from testing motorcycles for noise violations during Laconia's Bike Week or from stopping motorcycles during sobriety checkpoints.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 397, relative to image display devices in motor vehicles. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

Senate Transportation

April 14, 2011

2011-1438s

03/10

Amendment to HB 397

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to image display devices in motor vehicles and relative to air pollution rules.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 New Paragraph; Air Pollution Control; Rulemaking Authority. Amend RSA 125-C:4 by inserting after paragraph I-b the following new paragraph:

I-c. This section shall not be interpreted to authorize the adoption of standards for motor vehicle emissions.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

2011-1438s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill replaces the prohibition on televisions in motor vehicles with a prohibition on image display devices, as defined in the bill. This bill also limits the authority of the commissioner of the department of environmental services to adopt rules establishing motor vehicle emission standards.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 397 Ought to Pass as Amended. The bill replaces the prohibition on televisions in motor vehicles with a prohibition on image display devices as defined in the bill.

The Committee heard from stakeholders who explained that currently a person can watch a video on an image display device in the front of the vehicle but not broadcast television. This bill would permit image display devices in the front of the vehicle to show video and broadcast television images, but only if the image display device included technology which prohibited the driver from being able to view the video or broadcast television while the car is in motion.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended.

Sen. Boutin moved to Lay on the Table HB 397. Adopted.

HB 548, relative to boater safety education and relative to the minimum age for operation of motorized vessels. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-0. Senator Rausch for the committee.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 548 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill expands the safe boater education certificate requirement to the operation of all motorized vessels, allows persons 12 years of age or older to obtain safe boater education certificates, modifies the minimum age for operation restrictions for motorized vessels, and was requested by the Department of Safety.

The Committee heard from the New Hampshire Department of Safety Division of Marine Patrol, who spoke in support of the bill, as well as small business owners, who spoke in opposition. The Division of Marine Patrol requested this bill in an effort to expand the requirement of a safe boater certificate to every boat operator, regardless of the horsepower they operate. It was explained to the Committee that 44 states require some type of boating certificate in order to operate a boat, but none require a boating certificate for a boat under 25 horsepower.

After careful consideration of the testimony and examining the risk this bill could pose to small boat businesses and state tourism, the Transportation Committee determined it was best to vote Inexpedient to Legislate. The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of ITL. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

HB 549, relative to driver's license reexaminations. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 549 Ought to Pass. This bill eliminates the requirement that a driver be examined upon reaching his or her 75th birthday. In part, we did this, Mister President, on behalf of my colleague here from Raymond.

The Committee heard from the Department of Safety Division of Motor Vehicles, who opposed the bill, as well as stakeholders who supported it. The Division of Motor Vehicles felt this was the best tool they have to test older drivers who statistically suffer more and often from impairments due to their age.

The Committee was told the group of people the current law requires testing of is in fact the safest group of drivers in the country, and the Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR BARNES: Before we go any further, should I sign some sort of a form to not be able to vote on this, or is it okay with this body if I vote on this? Senator D'Allesandro is almost there, so maybe he might have an interest in that, too; I don't know.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I don't know; the line might go out the door depending on how we do this. I do not feel that will be necessary, Senator Barnes.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I rise to support House Bill 549 and to, if I might, introduce a guest in the gallery. Representative Bob Williams is from Concord, and has been an advocate of this bill for many years. He lives in a community of people, very talented people, who in fact, some of whom are age 75 or older. But, they are also wonderfully involved and capable people, and this bill recognizes that age discrimination in any form should not be placed in our laws, and I applaud and welcome Representative Bob Williams of Concord.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 558, relative to exchanging Haseltine Street in Plaistow for a section of NH 121A from the intersection of Haseltine and Main Streets to the border with Haverhill, Massachusetts. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 558 Ought to Pass. This bill exchanges Haseltine Street in Plaistow for a section of New Hampshire's route 121A from the intersection of Haseltine and Main Streets to the border with Haverhill, Massachusetts.

The Committee heard from the New Hampshire Department of Transportation and the Town of Plaistow, both of whom support the bill.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support in the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 621-FN-L, relative to the authority of the department of transportation. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Rausch for the committee.

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 621-FN Ought to Pass. This bill provides for an excavation and dredging permit by notification for municipalities that construct and maintain structures in accordance with best management practices for routine roadway maintenance, and also establishes a committee to study certain rules pertaining to stream crossings.

The Committee heard from the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services, the New Hampshire Department of Transportation, and other stakeholders, all of whom supported the bill. The Committee was told this bill was to rectify a downshift to local communities that occurred during a Joint Legislative Committee on Administrative Rules hearing.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HOUSE MESSAGE

The Clerk read the following Message from the House:

The House of Representatives concurs with the Senate in the passage of the following entitled Bill, with amendment, in the passage of which amendment the House asks the concurrence of the Senate:

SB 66, relative to nonresident fees for motorcycle rider education.

Sen. Rausch moves concurrence.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly for a parliamentary inquiry.)

SENATOR KELLY: Yes, thank you, Mister President. I just have – I think it's a parliamentary question, or a question for our Chair. As you know, I sit on the Senate Transportation Committee, and we heard legislation and testimony on this bill and recommended passage to the House, but I just wonder if you could explain to me briefly the difference between a fee and tuition.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: No. I do not believe that is the position of the Chair to be able to answer such a philosophical question as that.

Adopted.

HOUSE MESSAGE

The Clerk read the following Message from the House:

The House of Representatives concurs with the Senate in the passage of the following entitled Bill, with amendment, in the passage of which amendment the House asks the concurrence of the Senate:

SB 102, establishing a commission to study the effects of service-connected post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury suffered in the line of duty by members of the armed forces and veterans.

Sen. Bradley moves concurrence. Adopted.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM EARLY SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Early Session, that the business of the Late Session be in order at the present time, that all bills and resolutions ordered to Third Reading be, by this resolution, read a third time, all titles be the same as adopted, and that they be passed at the present time.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Early Session.

HB 621-FN-L, relative to the authority of the department of transportation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I appreciate during the course of the debate on House Bill 474, we had a gallery full of people who are passionate on various sides of the measure who've conducted themselves in a very professional manner, and I applaud them for that.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: I just wanted to say, actually, there was a great article on the cover of the Nashua Telegraph; I was with three of my Senate colleagues: Senator D'Allesandro, Senator Merrill, and Senator Stiles. And, we had a great time at the 'No Labels' event last night that was at the New Hampshire Institute of Politics; it was my privilege to be with my esteemed colleagues.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. You alluded to the fact that we did have a little bit of a rancorous day early on, and I do feel kind of bad about that. And, I just wanted to state publicly that I know a lot of Senators have been under a lot of pressure, really about a lot of issues, but particularly the one we debated today. I especially want to voice my support for Senator Carson, who's had a lot of personal attacks, has really been stressed beyond measure over this issue. I want to apologize on behalf of some of the people who've done those things in your District because, candidly, some of those are friends of mine, and they should be ashamed of themselves, and I've conveyed that to them, quite frankly. And so, I just want to say that I appreciate Senator Carson a lot, and I feel awful about the fact that she's had these personal attacks and so forth, and I want to convey that.

And, I just want to say, too, that I do appreciate those that I opposed on that bill; I certainly hope that I personally have not said something offensive or something untoward; I don't want to be like that. I appreciate those, again, that have a different opinion. And, again, just, especially Senator Carson, I want you to know I really appreciate you and care about you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. More of an observation and a concern as a Senator, that while some of us still have eternal hope and pray and kneel at the altar every single day of what the future could be for the Red Sox, I'm a little concerned about the box of ashes on Senator Barnes' desk, and truly hope that it's not the ashes of a poor season of the Red Sox, but it's a hopeful encouragement that they will win from today for the rest of the 150-some-odd games that they have. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I think, in a bipartisan manner, I would like to echo the sentiments manifested by Senator White. Any time any one of us comes under attack, it's all of us; we all share in that responsibility, because we've all taken these jobs for the same reasons. And, that reason is to protect the public, to support the public, and to do what we can for the public. So, I, on behalf of certainly the other party, say to Senator Carson: having been in the same kind of a situation on a number of occasions, I can do nothing but have just great admiration for your ability to stand in there and, as my remarks will record, I think it's awful when something like that happens; I think it's just debilitating to the system, and it makes the system look arcane and archaic. This is a positive system, we want to promote positivism, and we want the work of the individuals to be recognized as good work, regardless of what side of the issue you're on. It's the quality of the work, the commitment to the work, that makes this body function, and it functions as a body of good people trying to do good things. Thank you, Mister President.

SENATOR BARNES: Let the record show that Senator D'Allesandro and I are shaking hands.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I'd just like to announce that Senate Finance Committee will have the public address them tomorrow about HB 1 and HB 2; tomorrow afternoon starting at 2:00 is the first session and starting at 6:00 is the second session – we'll see late we go. But, you're all welcome, and obviously the public's welcome to come and comment to the Senate.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President, just reminding my colleagues on the Senate Judiciary Committee that we'll be convening today at 1:00 in State House 100.

Without objection President Bragdon moved that all Rule 2-17's shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate.

MOTION TO RECESS TO CALL OF THE CHAIR

Sen. Bradley moved that the business of the day being completed, that the Senate recess to the Call of the Chair for the purposes of introducing legislation, referring bills to committee, scheduling hearings, sending and receiving messages, and processing enrolled bill reports and amendments and when we recess, we recess to the Call of the Chair.

Adopted. The Senate is in recess to the Call of the Chair.

Out of Recess. Call Senate to Order.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

April 27, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Kate Atkinson, guest chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

Good morning. Well, if you were around at 10:00 last Sunday morning, you might have noticed something a little bit unusual about the State House lawn: it was covered with eggs; around 1,200 of them. And then, a few moments later, it was covered with children. And, before you could say, "Happy Easter," the eggs were gone. You might still come across one or two if you look carefully.

Well, inside every single one of those eggs there was a gift. It might have been a balloon or a sticker or some candy or maybe even a couple of nickels. But, every single egg held something precious. So, by the end of the morning, each of those children was a little bit richer. And, each of those children holds some special gift. And, luckily we don't have to break them open to find out what those gifts are: gifts of humor and joy and creativity and enthusiasm and awe and wisdom and compassion, and every one of us is a little bit richer when we make time to appreciate them. Let us pray.

Lord, we bring before You the world of children. We bring their openness and friendliness, their sense of enquiry and creativity. Forgive our readiness to classify and divide, to label and separate. Forgive our voices of experience and our demand for their conformity. Help us to understand and encourage them, that their spirits may be lifted, their imaginations quickened, and their vision broadened, for Your world's sake. Amen.

Sen. Barnes led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I'm pleased to recognize our Pages for today. Our first Page is Edward Marion. Edward, would you rise? Edward is a student at Manchester High School West, which is my wife's alma mater; all of my children went to Manchester High School West. His favorite subjects in school are science and history. His extracurricular activities include soccer, the NJROTC, photography, and the New Hampshire JAG. In the future, he hopes to go to college. Edward, welcome to the Senate.

Megan, you'll get better treatment. I'm pleased to introduce Megan Mann, who's also a senior at Manchester High School West. Her favorite subject is chemistry. Her extracurricular activities include DECA, the New Hampshire JAG, and volunteering at the animal shelter. I'm sure that Senator Rausch must have had an enormous amount of influence on you, because her goal in life is to be a distinguished veterinarian – a veterinarian of the highest regard. Amendment to HB 175

Amend the bill by replacing section 6 with the following:

6 New Paragraph; Insurance Standards; Preexisting Conditions. Amend RSA 415-A:5 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. For policies that meet the definition of health coverage under RSA 420-G:2, IX, an insurer may impose a preexisting condition exclusion period, but only if it is at least as favorable to covered persons as the following:

(a) No preexisting condition exclusion period shall extend beyond a period of 9 consecutive months after the date of enrollment of the person's health coverage; and

(b) Such preexisting condition exclusion period shall only apply to a condition, whether physical or mental, regardless of the cause of the condition, for which medical advice, diagnosis, care or treatment was recommended or received during the 3 months immediately preceding the enrollment date of health coverage.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 175 Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 175 as amended by the Committee is a technical corrections bill that was requested by the Insurance Department. The Committee adopts language that was requested by an insurance company and agreed to by the Insurance Department relative to preexisting conditions.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on House Bill 175. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 175.

HB 405, relative to dissolving corporations. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Houde for the committee.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 405 be Re-referred to committee. This bill would, in essence, set the valuation of shares established at the initial petition for dissolution of a corporation by the petitioning shareholder regardless of a subsequent devaluation of shares and election of the corporation itself to dissolve.

While members of the Committee saw merit to parts of the proposal, it is a departure from the New Hampshire Business Corporation Act and the model act upon which that is based, and therefore warrants further analysis. Moreover, the same issue is currently on hold in the Grafton County Superior Court, pending an appeal to the New Hampshire Supreme Court. The Committee was unanimous in its reluctance to pass legislation which could potentially and directly influence private litigants pending suit.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Re-refer HB 405. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to HB 419-FN

Amend RSA 412:6-b, I(b) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) "Certificate holder" means any person, other than a policyholder, who possesses a certificate of insurance and is identified as the certificate holder on the certificate.

Amend RSA 412:6-b, II(a) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

- (a) No person shall issue a certificate of insurance that:
- (1) Does not comply with the requirements of subparagraph (b).
 - (2) Is misleading, deceptive, or encourages misrepresentation.
 - (3) Violates any law.

Amend RSA 412:6-b, II(b)(6) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(6) No certificate of insurance shall contain references to contracts, including construction or service contracts, other than the referenced contract of insurance, unless such reference is in relation to coverage or other requirements of the insurance contract.

Amend RSA 412:6-b, II(e) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(e) An insurance producer may charge a reasonable fee for providing a certificate.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 1 the following and renumbering the original section 2 to read as 3:

2 New Paragraph; Rulemaking Added. Amend RSA 412:43 by inserting after paragraph II the following new paragraph:

III. The commissioner shall adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, relative to defining a reasonable fee for providing insurance certificates and circumstances in which a fee may be charged under RSA 412:6-b.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you again, Mister President. I move House Bill 419-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill establishes the model law relative to content and form of insurance certificates.

House Bill 419-FN as amended by the Committee defines "certificate holder", states what information shall not be contained in the certificate of insurance, and allows for rulemaking authority to the Insurance Department.

Amendment to HB 601-FN

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subdivision; Federal Health Care Reform. Amend RSA 400-A by inserting after section 66 the following new subdivision:

Federal Health Care Reform

400-A:67 Purpose and Scope.

I. The intent of this subdivision is to preserve the insurance regulatory authority of the state by authorizing the commissioner to enforce the insurance reforms required under Public Law 111-152 (hereinafter "Law").

II. Further, it is the intent of this subdivision to prevent the state of New Hampshire from defaulting into federal oversight regarding the Law by not meeting certain federally-mandated time frames measuring the progress being made of state-implemented requirements under the Law. It is not the intent of this subdivision to commit the state of New Hampshire to the full implementation of the Law, but rather to preserve the state's options regarding the implementation as each requirement arises.

III. The provisions of this subdivision shall ensure that New Hampshire residents obtain the protections and benefits provided by the Law, notwithstanding the affirmative choice of the general court of the state of New Hampshire not to participate in some or all of the Law's provisions.

400-A:68 Implementation of the Law.

I. The general court shall determine any policy regarding implementation of the Law if it is determined that the state of New Hampshire is required to implement such Law. The insurance commissioner, or designee, shall develop recommendations in conjunction with the joint health insurance reform oversight committee, established in RSA 400-A:69, prior to the enforcement of the Law. In addition, any state official or agency that seeks to enforce the provisions of the Law shall develop recommendations in conjunction with the oversight committee.

II. The commissioner may, in limited circumstances, enforce provisions of the Law before consultation with the oversight committee when unforeseen circumstances or situations could cause harm to individuals or the insurance market generally, or immediate harm to the state of New Hampshire, if consultation with the oversight committee is not immediately practical, or if such administration and enforcement is a matter of the usual and customary day-to-day administrative and enforcement policies of the department generally. In such cases, the commissioner shall inform the oversight committee as soon as practical for consultation.

400-A:69 Joint Health Insurance Reform Oversight Committee Established.

I. There is established a joint health insurance reform oversight committee consisting of 5 members as follows:

(a) Two members of the senate, appointed by the senate president.

(b) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

II. The terms of the members shall be for the biennium and shall be coterminous with their membership in the general court. The committee shall elect a chairman from its membership. The committee shall meet at the call of the chairman who may call a meeting as often as necessary.

III. The committee shall provide legislative oversight, policy direction, and recommendations for legislation to implement the Law as it determines appropriate.

IV. The committee shall make a report, together with any recommendations for legislation, to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the chairpersons of the house and senate committees having jurisdiction over commerce issues and the house and senate committees having jurisdiction over health and human services issues by October 1, 2011 and annually thereafter.

400-A:70 Authority of the Commissioner. The commissioner shall enforce the consumer protections and market reforms as set forth in the Law that relate to insurance. This shall not include the medical assistance program under RSA 167. The commissioner, in consultation with the oversight committee established in RSA 400-A:69, shall have authority to:

I. Make, adopt, and amend rules and regulations pursuant to RSA 541-A for, or as an aid to, the administration of any provision of the Law relating to insurance;

II. Apply for any grant funds available under the Law; and

III. Adopt and apply standards consistent with the Law for form and rate review of insurance products and any other regulatory oversight functions performed by the department.

2 Contingency. RSA 420-L, relative to federal health care reform, shall be repealed upon the effective date of this act and 2010, 243:15 and 2010, 243:16 shall not take effect.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 601-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 601-FN as amended by the Committee is intended to preserve the insurance regulatory authority of the State by authorizing the Commissioner of Insurance to enforce the insurance reforms required under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Another goal of this legislation is to prevent New Hampshire from defaulting into federal oversight by not meeting certain federally mandated timeframes measuring the progress being made by the state-implemented requirements under the law. In no way is this legislation intended to commit New Hampshire to the full implementation of the law, but rather to preserve the State's options regarding implementation as each requirement arises.

Please join the Commerce Committee in the unanimous vote of Ought to Pass on House Bill 601-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ADMINISTRATION

HB 331-FN, relative to posting agency expenditures on the state transparency website. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 331-FN Ought to Pass. House Bill 331-FN will place the State checkbook online. This legislation is designed to place all financial data on the State website, securing people's privacy, and at the same time giving a level of disclosure. The technology is available, and it is only a matter of creating an interface to display this data to the public.

The Department of Administrative Services stated that they will be able to incorporate this into their planned expansion for their site in fiscal year 2012 with no fiscal impact to the Department.

The Senate ED&A Committee voted in favor 4-0 Ought to Pass, and we therefore ask for your support for its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 503, allowing a master electrician to have 2 apprentice electricians under his or her supervision. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 503 Ought to Pass. House Bill 503 was a request on behalf of the Electrical Contractors Business Association and in conjunction with the licensing board and IDW Local 49.

HB 503 will allow a master electrician to have two apprentice electricians working under his or her direct supervision on a job site. Presently, only one apprentice electrician is allowed by state law. This bill will allow people to get into the industry, allowing companies to add an additional apprentice if they have a master electrician to oversee each two of them.

The Senate ED&A Committee voted in favor 4-0 Ought to Pass and we therefore ask for your support for its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to HB 580-FN-LOCAL

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a committee to study collective bargaining by public employees.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study collective bargaining by public employees.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Four members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties. The committee shall study matters as it deems necessary related to public employer collective bargaining agreements with public employees under RSA 273-A.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Three members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before December 1, 2011.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study collective bargaining by public employees.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President, and good morning. I move House Bill 580-FN-L Ought to Pass as Amended. 580, as amended by the Senate ED&A Committee, has replaced the entire bill with a legislative study committee. This study committee will be looking at the issues raised by collective bargaining.

The ED&A Committee voted unanimously 5-0 in favor of Ought to Pass as Amended and we ask for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

Amendment to HB 524-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT excluding persons convicted of violent crimes and sexually violent persons from mandatory early release on probation or parole.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Parole of Prisoners; Terms of Release. Amend RSA 651-A:6, I(b) to read as follows:

(b) A prisoner convicted of a nonviolent offense who has not been previously convicted of a sexually violent offense as defined in RSA 135-E:2, XI, aggravated felonious sexual assault pursuant to RSA 632-A:2, felonious sexual assault pursuant to RSA 632-A:3, sexual assault pursuant to RSA 632-A:4, I(a)-(b), kidnapping pursuant to RSA 633:1, I, first degree assault pursuant to RSA 631:1, I, possession of child sexual abuse images pursuant to RSA 649-A:3, I, or distribution of child sexual abuse images pursuant to RSA 649-A:3-a, I shall be released on parole upon serving 120 percent of the minimum term of his or her sentence, minus any credits received pursuant to RSA 651-A:23, plus the disciplinary period added to such minimum under RSA 651:2, II-e, any part of which is not reduced for good conduct as provided in RSA 651-A:22, unless the parole board votes to deny such release.

2 Parole of Prisoners; Terms of Release. Amend RSA 651-A:6, I(c) to read as follows:

(c) ~~[All prisoners who have not been previously paroled]~~ A prisoner who has not been previously paroled, or who ~~[were]~~ was recommitted to prison more than one year prior to the expiration of the maximum term of his or her sentence, shall be released on parole at least 9 months prior to the expiration of the maximum term of his or her sentence, unless the parole board votes to deny such release. This provision shall not apply to any prisoner who is the subject of a pending petition for civil commitment pursuant to RSA 135-E. In the event that the prisoner is not civilly committed, he or she shall be released on parole for the remainder of his or her sentence.

3 Effect of Recommittal. Amend RSA 651-A:19 to read as follows:
651-A:19 Effect of Recommittal.

I. A prisoner who is recommitted shall serve 90 days in prison before being placed back on parole or the remainder of his or her maximum sentence, whichever is shorter, or may be subject to an extended term of recommitment pursuant to paragraphs III and IV. The time between the return of the parolee to prison after arrest and revocation of parole shall be considered as time served as a portion of the maximum sentence.

II. Prisoners who are recommitted shall be ~~[housed separately in a prison housing unit that provides]~~ provided access to focused, evidence-based programming aimed at reengaging parolees in their parole plan.

III. The parole board may impose an extended term of recommitment for greater than 90 days if:

(a) The prisoner has previously been recommitted for a parole violation; or

(b) The prisoner was on parole for a sexual offense as defined in RSA 651-B:1, V or an offense against a child as defined in RSA 651-B:1, VII; and

(1) The conduct underlying the parole violation is related to his or her offense or offending pattern; or

(2) The prisoner has displayed a combination of dynamic risk factors, including but not limited to, homelessness, loss of supports, substance abuse, or non-compliance with treatment, as determined by the department of corrections sexual offender treatment program staff; or

(3) Both subparagraphs (1) and (2); or

(c) The prisoner was on parole for a violent crime as defined in RSA 651:5, XIII; or

(d) The nature of the conduct underlying the parole violation constitutes a criminal act or is otherwise so serious as to warrant an extended period of recommitment.

IV.(a) A prisoner may be brought before the parole board at any time during the 90-day term of recommitment to determine whether a longer term is warranted if:

(1) The prisoner did not meaningfully participate in the evidence-based programming during the 90-day recommitment period; or

(2) The prisoner received one or more major disciplinary violations during the 90-day recommitment period.

(b) The prisoner shall be provided notice of the hearing and the basis of the parole board's consideration of an extended term.

V. The imposition of an extended term of recommitment pursuant to paragraph III or IV shall be supported by written findings and a written order.

VI. Any prisoner who is subject to an extended term of recommitment shall, upon request, be entitled to a hearing before the parole board after serving 6 months of his or her term of recommitment and every 6 months thereafter.

VII. At the revocation hearing, the parole board may impose a term of recommitment for less than 90 days if:

(a) The prisoner has not been previously recommitted for a parole violation;

(b) The prisoner was not on parole for a sexual offense as defined in RSA 651-B:1, V or an offense against a child as defined in RSA 651-B:1, VII;

(c) The prisoner was not on parole for a violent crime as defined in RSA 651:5, XIII;

(d) The parole violation is not substantially related to his or her offense or offending pattern; and

(e) The parole board determines that a lesser period of recommitment will aid in the rehabilitation of the parolee.

4 Involuntary Civil Commitment of Sexually Violent Predators; Notice. Amend RSA 135-E:3, II to read as follows:

II. When a person who has committed a sexually violent offense is to be released from total confinement in New Hampshire, the agency with jurisdiction over the person shall give written notice to the person and the county attorney of the county where that person was last convicted of a sexually violent offense, or attorney general if the case was prosecuted by the attorney general. If the person is in custody on an out-of-state or federal sexually violent offense, the agency with jurisdiction shall give written notice to the person and the county attorney of the county where the person plans to reside upon release or, if no residence in this state is planned, the county attorney in the county where the facility from which the person to be released is located or to the attorney general if the person has been convicted of murder. Except as provided in RSA 135-E:4, the written notice shall be given at least 9 months prior to the [anticipated] potential release on parole pursuant to RSA 651-A:6, I(c), except that in the case of persons who are totally confined for a period of less than 9 months, written notice shall be given as soon as practicable.

5 Involuntary Civil Commitment of Sexually Violent Predators; Release From Total Confinement. Amend RSA 135-E:4, I to read as follows:

I. In the event that a person who has been convicted of a sexually violent offense is eligible for immediate release on parole pursuant to RSA 651-A:6, I(c), or upon completion of the maximum term of incarceration, the agency with jurisdiction shall provide immediate notice to the county attorney or attorney general of the person's release. The county attorney or attorney general or the agency with jurisdiction may file a petition for an emergency hearing in the superior court requesting that the person subject to immediate release be evaluated by the multidisciplinary team to determine whether the person is a sexually violent predator. The hearing shall be held within 24 hours of the filing of the petition, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. The person shall not be released from total confinement until after the hearing has been held. At the hearing, the court shall determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the person is a sexually violent predator. If the court finds probable cause, the person shall be held in an appropriate secure facility.

6 Probationers and Parolees; Risk Assessment and Length of Supervision. Amend RSA 504-A:15, III-IV to read as follows:

III. Any person placed on probation for a felony shall be subject to active supervision for up to the first 12 months and thereafter be placed on administrative supervision unless the probationer has been designated high risk [or], has been adjudicated by the court for a violation of the conditions of probation during the first 12 months under supervision, or was placed on probation for a felony listed as a tier II or tier III offense in RSA 651-B:1, IX and X, respectively.

IV. Any person placed on parole for a felony shall be subject to active supervision for up to the first 18 months and thereafter be placed on administrative supervision unless the parolee has been designated high risk [or], has violated the conditions of parole during the first 18 months under supervision, or was placed on parole for a felony listed as a tier II or tier III offense in RSA 651-B:1, IX and X, respectively.

7 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

2011-1444s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Excludes a prisoner convicted of a violent crime or a sexually violent offense from mandatory early supervised release if the parole board votes to do so.

II. Provides the parole board with greater discretion to recommit a person who reoffends while on mandatory early supervised release.

III. Requires that an offender placed on probation or parole for conviction of a felony offense that would require registration as a sexual offender or an offender against children shall not be placed on administrative supervision.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you again, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass with Amendment on House Bill 524-FN. This legislation amends SB 500, which was adopted in a prior session to provide mandatory supervision as a condition of release from prison for certain offenders.

Numerous individuals at the public hearing spoke of how the Senate's version of Senate Bill 52 was preferable to the provisions offered in House Bill 524. Therefore, the committee amendment changes the bill to the position adopted by the Senate in Senate Bill 52-FN.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that House Bill 524-FN be adopted with amendment and welcomes your continued support on this important policy improvement. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 572-FN, relative to official oppression. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move Inexpedient to Legislate on HB 572. This legislation sought to revise and expand the statute dealing with official oppression by making it either a Class B misdemeanor or a violation, depending on whether the public servant acted with a purpose to benefit oneself or to harm another.

There were numerous problems with the bill as presented, and concern was shared that the statute could be greatly abused and have the unintended consequence of being a tool for harassment.

With the consent of the prime sponsor of the bill, the Judiciary Committee recommends that HB 572 not be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

HB 56, relative to proper observance of September 11, 2001. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 56 Ought to Pass. This bill requires the Governor to issue a proclamation calling for proper observance of September 11, 2001, in remembrance of persons who lost their lives on that day.

The intent of the bill is not to declare a state holiday on September 11, but rather to call on the people of New Hampshire to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and honor those we lost, including residents of our own state.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 56 be adopted and we ask for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 198, relative to the investment options for county funds. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 198 Ought to Pass. Presently, county treasurers are able to invest excess funds in obligation to the United States Treasury. This bill would allow for the additional investment of excess funds into pooled money market funds limited to those invested in Treasury obligations. This action expands the investment options for county treasurers and allows them a means to lower risk by broadening their base of investment.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 198 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: This would be a good time to mention that we have some guests in our gallery today. These are students from the Well School in Peterborough, which happens to be in my Senate District. Welcome to the Senate.

HB 251, relative to absentee ballots. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-0. Senator Stiles for the committee.

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 251 Ought to Pass. This bill, sponsored on behalf of the Secretary of State's Office, modifies procedures for delivery and acceptance of absentee ballots.

The changes contained in the bill are in conjunction with the federal Military and Overseas Voter Empowerment Act. It allows city and town clerks to consider a federal write-in absentee ballot submitted by an overseas citizen or a military voter as a request for an official absentee ballot. The absentee ballot would then be sent to the voter so that they could vote for all options that would otherwise be available to them on the ballot.

The bill clarifies in statute that voters uniformed and overseas U.S. citizens who vote absentee are the only voters entitled to receive an absentee ballot electronically. If any absentee ballots are received from UOCAVA voters after the election, they are not counted. That status must be designated on the centralized voter database, and the ballots must be preserved for the statutory timeframes.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends that House Bill 251 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 274-FN, relative to voting procedures. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 274 Ought to Pass. This bill, sponsored on behalf of the Secretary of State's Office, makes various technical changes relating to voting procedures in conjunction with the Military and Overseas Voter Empowerment Act. These changes include requiring town clerks to maintain an official email address and ensure current street address information is publicly available to voters. Polling locations and hours must be maintained on the statewide centralized voter registration database. In addition, section 3 of the bill strikes the phrase: "unless successfully challenged" from RSA 659:12. Removal of this phrase from the statute pertaining to who can vote will allow RSA 659:12 to remain consistent with RSA 659:27 regarding the challenge of a voter and the required affidavit affirming accuracy of identification.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 274 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

WAYS AND MEANS

HB 156-FN-A, reducing the rates of the tobacco tax. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-3. Senator Odell for the committee.

Sen. Gallus is in opposition to the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate on HB 156-FN-A.

Sen. Odell moved to Lay on the Table HB 156-FN-A. Adopted.

Sens. Carson, Forsythe, and Sanborn are in opposition to the motion to Lay on the Table HB 156-FN-A.

HB 187-FN-A, relative to the carry forward periods for the business enterprise tax credit against the business profits tax. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 187 Ought to Pass. This bill extends the carry forward period for the business enterprise tax credit against the business profits tax from five to ten years. This will offer businesses greater flexibility in using the BET credits they earn. In particular, this will be of benefit to start-up companies, as it often takes several years before they turn a profit. Extending the carry forward period to ten years would give them the opportunity to use the credits they earn once they become profitable.

House Bill 187 will help improve the overall business climate in New Hampshire. The Ways and Means Committee asks your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

HB 277-FN, relative to the deposit of fees collected under the Unified Carrier Registration System into the highway fund. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 277 Ought to Pass. This bill was requested by the Department of Safety in order to comply with federal law after the issue was brought up during an audit.

In 2007, the Legislature authorized New Hampshire's participation in the Unified Carrier Registration System, which deals with the registration of heavy commercial vehicles. At the time, the Legislature decided that the revenues the State received from the UCR System would be deposited into the General Fund. However, federal law requires that proceeds from the UCR System go to promote motor carrier safety programs and cover costs associated with administering the UCR System. Currently, the System is administered within the Division of Motor Vehicles and the Highway Fund covers the cost. This bill brings New Hampshire into compliance with federal law by requiring that the fees collected under the UCR System be deposited into the Highway Fund.

The Ways and Means Committee recommends that this legislation be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 348-FN, transferring the duties of the racing and charitable gaming commission to the lottery commission and abolishing the racing and charitable gaming commission, and prohibiting new electronic gaming devices without statutory authorization. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 6-0. Senator Bradley for the committee.

Senate Ways and MeansApril 19, 2011*2011-1490s*08/10*Amendment to HB 348-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to games of chance and prohibiting the racing and charitable gaming commission and the lottery commission from authorizing new gambling machines or devices.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Unclaimed Ticket Vouchers. Amend RSA 284:31 to read as follows:

284:31 Unclaimed Ticket Money. On or before January 31 of each year every person, association, or corporation conducting a race or race meet, whether live racing or simulcast racing, hereunder shall pay to the state treasurer all moneys collected during the previous year of pari-mutuel pool tickets and vouchers which have not been redeemed. The books or records of said person, association, or corporation, which clearly show the tickets entitled to reimbursement in any given race, live or simulcast, shall be forwarded to the commission. Such moneys shall become a part of the general funds of the state. The state treasurer shall pay the amount due on any ticket or voucher to the holder thereof from funds not otherwise appropriated upon an order from the commission. Pari-mutuel tickets and vouchers which remain unclaimed after 11 months shall not be paid. Vouchers shall be remitted to the state treasurer on January 31 of the calendar year, 24 months after the year of the unclaimed voucher.

2 Definitions; Game Operator. Amend RSA 287-D:1, V to read as follows:

V. "Game operator" means:

(a) "Primary game operator" which means any consultant or any person other than a bona fide member of the charitable organization, involved in conducting, managing, supervising, directing, or running the games of chance; or

(b) "Secondary game operator" which means any person other than a bona fide member of the charitable organization, involved in dealing, running a roulette wheel, [or] handling chips, or providing accounting services or security functions.

(c) "Game operator employer" means a primary game operator or a business entity who employs, supervises, and controls game operators and who is hired by a charitable organization to operate games of chance on its behalf. The owner of 10 percent or more of the entity, partner, managing member, or chief executive of a business entity who serves as a game operator employer must be licensed as a primary game operator.

3 Operation of Games of Chance; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-b, I(d) to read as follows:

(d) Notwithstanding subparagraph (a), all charitable organizations that conduct games of chance for charitable purposes may employ, by means of a written agreement, a [primary] game operator employer or a primary game operator licensed under RSA 287-D:2-c to operate games of chance on their behalf.

4 Operation of Games of Chance; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-d, III to read as follows:

III. An applicant for a primary game operator license under RSA 287-D:2-c shall apply to the racing and charitable gaming commission, and if the applicant meets all other requirements of this chapter and pays the fee established by the racing and charitable gaming commission in rules adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A, a license shall be issued. A primary game operator license issued under RSA 287-D:2-c shall expire on December 31. The racing and charitable gaming commission shall notify the attorney general and police chief of any city or town where games of chance are held of any applications approved. RSA 7:28-c shall not apply to game operator licensees subject to this chapter. An applicant for a secondary game operator license under RSA 287-D:2-c shall apply to the racing and charitable gaming commission, and if the applicant meets all other requirements of this chapter and pays the fee established by the racing and charitable gaming commission in rules adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A, which shall not exceed $45, a license shall be issued. A secondary game operator license issued under RSA 284-D:2-c shall expire on the last day of the month of the licensee's birthday.

5 Operation of Games of Chance; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-d, VI to read as follows:

VI. Any license issued under RSA 287-D:2-a or RSA 287-D:2-c shall not be transferable and the fees for the license shall not be refunded except for good cause shown as specified in rules adopted by the racing and charitable gaming commission. Nothing in this section shall prevent a licensee from working for different licensed entities. A licensee who works for more than one game operator employer during the licensed period shall have a separate badge for each game operator employer and pay a separate fee for each badge.

6 Bond; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-b, VIII to read as follows:

VIII.(a) On game dates where the charitable organization operates the games, the charitable organization shall deposit cash and proceeds from a game of chance into the account required by RSA 287-D:2-a, VII(e). All expenses, including ~~[prizes of more than $500]~~ prizes of $500 or more and equipment and hall rental fees shall be paid by check from the account required by RSA 287-D:2-a, VII(e). The treasurer of the charitable organization shall document all prizes awarded as prescribed in rules adopted by the racing and charitable gaming commission.

(b) On game dates where the licensed game operator operates the games, the licensed game operator shall deposit cash and proceeds from a game of chance into the account required by RSA 287-D:2-c, VI. All expenses, including ~~[prizes of more than $500 and]~~ equipment and hall rental fees shall be paid by check or electronic fund transfers from the account established in RSA 287-D:2-c, VI. The licensed game operator shall document all prizes awarded as prescribed in rules adopted by the racing and charitable gaming commission. Prizes of $500 or more shall be paid by check from the account established in RSA 287-D:2-c, VI.

7 Bond; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-c, V to read as follows:

V. Prior to conducting any games of chance, the game operator or the game operator's employer shall submit a bond for each location where the game operator is conducting games of chance, conditioned upon the game operator running games of chance in conformity with this chapter and with the rules and regulations prescribed by the racing and charitable gaming commission, in the amount of up to ~~[$300,000]~~ $500,000 but not less than $25,000 to the racing and charitable gaming commission with the application form. The amount of the bond in excess of $25,000 established for each licensee shall be based on that licensee's normal outstanding obligations of charity payments and state taxes.

8 New Paragraph; Licensing of Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-c by inserting after paragraph VII the following new paragraph:

VIII. Unless a provision to the contrary is part of a written agreement in place prior to the commencement of a game date between the charitable organization and the game operator or game operator employer, all moneys due to the charitable organization shall be paid over to the organization no later than 5 business days following the date on which a game was conducted. Notwithstanding the provisions of any agreement with the charitable organization, the game operator or game operator employer shall pay over all moneys due to the charitable organization no later than 15 business days following a game date.

9 Wagering; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:3, VII to read as follows:

VII. Unless a charitable organization rents a facility from a [primary] game operator employer or a primary game operator licensed under RSA 287-D:2-c, the charitable organization shall only rent a facility by means of a fixed rental payment. The fixed rental payment shall not be based on a percentage of what the charitable organization receives from the game of chance and it shall reflect fair rental value of the property for any use not just as a place to hold a game of chance. If a charitable organization rents a facility from a licensed game operator under RSA 287-D:2-c, the charitable organization shall retain no less than 35 percent of the gross revenues from any games of chance minus any prizes paid in accordance with RSA 287-D:3, VIII. Any rental agreement entered into by the charitable organization shall be submitted with the charitable organization's license application for review by the racing and charitable gaming commission. Under no circumstances shall a charitable organization sustain any loss from games of chance, such that its share of the gross revenues minus any prizes paid is less than zero dollars, during a license period with a single game operator.

10 Wagering; Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:5, I to read as follows:

I. A charitable organization [or], a licensed [primary] game operator employer, or a primary game operator under contract to conduct games of chance on behalf of a charitable organization and designated by the charitable organization to be responsible for submitting financial reports shall submit a complete financial report for all game dates licensed under RSA 287-D:2 and RSA 287-D:2-a to the racing and charitable gaming commission on forms approved by the racing and charitable gaming commission within 15 days of the end of each month during which a game of chance was held.

11 Operation of Bingo Games; Penalty Added. Amend RSA 287-E:7, XVI to read as follows:

XVI. In not more than one game conducted in accordance with [RSA 287-E:7,] paragraph XIII, a carry-over, cover-all game may be run with the prize money rolled over to the successive game dates in the event that there is no winner on the original or preceding game dates. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the prize money may accumulate until there is a winner. The prize shall be awarded to any winner covering all 24 numbers on the card in less than 50 numbers, or a greater number if so designated prior to the game. If there is no winner on a given game date, a pre-designated consolation prize shall be awarded to the game winner who first achieves cover-all. The balance of the [~~monies~~] moneys collected shall be carried over to subsequent game dates until there is a winner. Any person who purposely, knowingly, or recklessly deprives a charitable organization of any of its moneys collected from bingo or lucky 7 or any person who purposely, knowingly, or recklessly deprives players of any prizes collected from bingo or lucky 7, shall be guilty of a class A felony.

12 Reference Change; Financial Reports and Inspection Required. Amend RSA 287-E:9, I to read as follows:

I. A charitable organization which has been licensed to conduct bingo games shall submit a complete financial report to the commission for each license issued under RSA 287-E:6 within 15 days after the expiration of each license; provided, however, a complete monthly financial report shall be submitted in a timely fashion to the commission for each month covered by a license issued under [~~RSA 287-E:6, I-a~~] RSA 287-E:6, II.

13 Reference Change; Financial Reports and Inspection Required. Amend RSA 287-E:9, IV to read as follows:

IV. All charitable organizations licensed under this chapter shall maintain a separate checking account for the deposit and disbursement of all income relating to bingo and lucky 7, except cash prizes awarded at the games. All expenses shall be paid by check, [~~and all prizes of $500 or more shall be paid by check~~] or electronic funds transfers. All prizes of $500 or more shall be paid by check. There shall be no commingling of bingo and lucky 7 funds with other funds of the charitable organization. The organization shall retain all cancelled checks for the payment of expenses and prizes for at least 2 years. The organization may cash checks which it issues.

14 Campground Bingo. Amend RSA 287-E:12 to read as follows:

287-E:12 Bingo [~~License~~] for Private Campgrounds and Hotels. Any private campground or hotel may [~~apply to the commission for a special campground or hotel bingo license. Licenses may be granted under the following conditions~~] conduct bingo games provided:

[~~I. The bingo license application fee shall be $25 per year and shall be nonrefundable.~~

[~~H. The provisions of RSA 287-E:6, IV and RSA 287-E:7, IV and VI relating to bingo licenses and the operation of games for charitable organizations shall also apply to licenses issued under this section.~~

[~~HH.] I. The price to be paid for a single card or play under the license shall be $.10.~~

[~~IV. A license shall permit no more than 2 game dates of bingo in any one calendar week and shall be issued on an annual basis.~~

V.] II. All revenues received from the sale of bingo cards in any game or series of games on any one calendar day shall be paid out to the players. The total value of all prizes, tokens, or awards used, given, offered, or awarded in connection with any game or series of games in any calendar day shall not exceed $500.

[~~VI.] III.~~ Games shall be operated only by persons on the staff of the campground or hotel [~~holding the license under this section~~]. Such staff shall operate the games without compensation from the bingo revenues.

[~~VH.] IV.~~ The games of bingo shall be open only to persons 18 years of age or older who are bona fide guests at the campground or hotel.

[~~VIII.~~ Licenses shall be granted only to campgrounds or hotels in cities or towns which have approved bingo under RSA 287-E.

[~~IX.] V.~~ No campground or hotel shall act as an agent for operating games of bingo when it is unlawful for such campground's or hotel's principal to operate bingo games.

~~[X. The campground or hotel holding the license issued under this section shall keep records and submit a report as required for agricultural fairs under RSA 287-E:10, VIII, except that the report shall be submitted to the commission within 15 days of the expiration of the bingo license. The report shall include the names and addresses of persons from whom bingo equipment was rented or leased.~~

~~XI.] VI.~~ The campground or hotel shall have been in existence for at least 2 years in the city or town in which the bingo games are to be conducted.

~~[XII. The campground or hotel shall be in compliance at the time of application with all applicable state and local requirements for the operation of private campgrounds or hotels.~~

~~XIII.] VII.~~ The campground or hotel shall maintain a current list of bona fide guests.

~~[XIV.] VIII.~~ The campground or hotel shall not have been established solely for the purpose of operating bingo games.

15 Campground Bingo. Amend the introductory paragraph RSA 287-E:13 to read as follows:

Any campground or hotel ~~[holding a license under RSA 287-E:12]~~ may conduct special bingo games for children under the conditions specified in RSA 287-E:12, except:

16 Payment to Distributor. Amend RSA 287-E:23-a to read as follows:

287-E:23-a Payment to Distributor. Licensees shall pay for purchased tickets no later than 30 calendar days after delivery. Unless a waiver is given by the commission for good cause shown, no charitable organization may purchase tickets from a different distributor when that charitable organization has failed to comply with the provisions of this section.

17 Financial Reports and Inspection Required. Amend RSA 287-E:24, IV to read as follows:

IV. All expenses shall be paid by check or electronic funds transfers, and all cash prizes ~~[over]~~ of $500 or more shall be paid by check, and the charitable organization shall retain cancelled checks or bank produced facsimiles of cancelled checks for the payment of expenses and checks or bank produced facsimiles of checks and receipts for the payment of prizes for a period of 2 years.

18 Campground Bingo. Amend RSA 287-E:4, II to read as follows:

II. Such fee shall be submitted to the commission at the time the application for a bingo license is filed and~~[-except as provided in RSA 287-E:12],~~ shall be refunded if the application is denied.

19 Games of Chance. Amend RSA 287-D:2-b, II-a to read as follows:

II-a. Unless otherwise agreed to in advance, pursuant to paragraph II, in writing by the charitable organization, ~~[operators of games of chance]~~ game operators may be reimbursed for their out-of-pocket expenses in an amount not to exceed $25 per game date, provided that such expenses are itemized and submitted in writing to the charitable organization.

20 Games of Chance. Amend RSA 287-D:2-b, VII-a to read as follows:

VII-a. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a member of the sponsoring charitable organization shall be present and on site at least once per day during the operation of any game of chance and shall file with the racing and charitable gaming commission an affidavit attesting to the member's presence at the site during the operation of any games of chance. The sponsoring charitable organization member shall not be employed by the game operator ~~[or the employer of the game operator]~~.

21 Licensing of Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-c, II(a)-(c) to read as follows:

(a) The name and social security number of the primary or secondary game operator, or for ~~[an organization]~~ a game operator employer the name and federal tax identification number. The racing and charitable gaming commission shall not disclose any social security number submitted;

(b) The name, ~~[of the game operator's employer and the employer's]~~ address, and telephone number of the game operator employer;

(c) A list of the known ~~[games of chance]~~ game dates in which the game operator will participate including the ~~[date]~~ name of the game, the location of the game, and the charitable organization holding the game;

22 Licensing of Game Operators. Amend RSA 287-D:2-c, VI to read as follows:

VI. To be eligible for licensure under this chapter, a licensed game operator employer or primary game operator shall maintain an account at a financial institution with at least one branch.

23 New Section; Surveillance Requirements. Amend RSA 287-D by inserting after section 2-d the following new section:

287-D:2-e. Surveillance Requirements.

I.(a) A game operator employer conducting games of chance at a facility that is required to be licensed pursuant to RSA 287-D:2-a, VI shall conduct and record, at the expense of the game operator employer, video surveillance that allows clear, unobstructed views of cashier transactions, table games where cash wagers are accepted, and the counting of money from storage boxes removed from a gaming table. A game operator employer which is authorized to conduct games of chance for no more than 50 calendar days in a calendar year at a particular location may petition the commission to adopt an alternate method of oversight of cash transactions in lieu of the surveillance requirements in this section. Upon approval of any such alternative method of oversight of cash transactions by the commission, the game operator employer may conduct games of chance at such location for not more than 50 calendar days at the particular location in a calendar year. The game operator employer shall be responsible for all costs and expenses associated with implementation of the alternative method of oversight as approved by the commission.

(b) Surveillance shall include the customer, the employee, and the surrounding area and shall monitor and record with sufficient clarity to identify employees and customers in all areas where currency is counted, verified, sorted, stacked, or stored, including monitoring and recording all table game drop boxes, safes, and counting surfaces, and all cashier personnel. The counting surface area shall be continuously monitored and recorded by a dedicated camera during the count.

(c) Access to the surveillance equipment shall be limited to management personnel, designated employees, state regulators, and other persons authorized in accordance with the surveillance policy.

(d) The game operator employer shall ensure at least one person at the facility while games of chance are being conducted is trained in the use of the equipment, knowledge of the games, and all applicable regulations.

(e) Each camera required by these regulations shall be installed in a manner that will prevent it from being readily obstructed, tampered with, or disabled by customers or employees.

(f) Reasonable effort shall be made to repair each malfunction of surveillance system equipment required by the standards in this section within 72 hours after the malfunction is discovered.

(g) In the event of a dedicated camera malfunction, the gaming operator or the surveillance person shall immediately provide alternative camera coverage or other security measures.

II. The surveillance system, at a minimum, shall:

(a) Have an auxiliary or backup power source shall be available and capable of providing immediate restoration of power to all elements of the surveillance system.

(b) Include date and time generators that possess the capability to display the date and time of recorded events on all digital recordings. The displayed date and time shall not significantly obstruct the recorded view.

(c) Utilize cameras that possess the capability of having its picture displayed on a monitor and recorded.

(d) Include sufficient numbers of monitors and recorders to simultaneously display and record multiple table games and count room activities, and record the views of all dedicated cameras and motion-activated cameras.

(e) Record at 30 frames per second or its equivalent.

III.(a) All digital records of coverage provided by cameras required by the standards in this section shall be retained for a minimum of 30 days.

(b) Recordings involving suspected or confirmed gaming crimes, unlawful activity, or actions of investigations by management personnel, shall be retained for a minimum of 90 days.

(c) Duly authenticated copies of digital records shall be provided to the commission upon request.

(d) Multiple recordings shall be made to avoid any loss of images in the event of a hardware failure.

(e) A recording library log, or comparable alternative procedure approved by the commission, shall be maintained to demonstrate compliance with the storage, identification, and retention standards required in this section.

(f) All recordings may be destroyed after a period of 90 days.

24 New Paragraph; Surveillance. Amend RSA 284:12 by inserting after paragraph X the following new paragraph:

XI. Surveillance regulations pursuant to RSA 287-D:2-e.

25 New Paragraph; Racing and Charitable Gaming Commission; Authorization of Electronic Gaming. Amend RSA 284:6-a by inserting after paragraph V the following new paragraph:

VI. The racing and charitable gaming commission shall not authorize the use of any electronic gaming device in connection with the acceptance of wagers on running or harness horse racing, whether live or simulcast, or simulcast dog racing, the type of which was not in use prior to January 1, 2011, unless specific authorization for such electronic gaming device is enacted by the general court. Electronic gaming devices shall mean and include all electro-mechanical instruments and devices used for the purposes of gaming, other than wagering on live or simulcast horse racing or simulcast dog racing, whether in physical presence or through the Internet, and such shall include video slot machines and other gambling devices which function or are designed to function to emulate a video slot machine or historic racing machine. This section shall not be interpreted to prohibit licensees under RSA 284 from replacing equipment used in the conduct of wagering on live or simulcast horse racing or simulcast dog racing, which type of equipment was in service prior to January 1, 2011 with updated or new equipment which are the functional equivalent of the machines which are being replaced. This section shall not be interpreted as prohibiting licensees from accepting account wagers in compliance with applicable rules and regulations.

26 New Paragraph; Lottery Commission; Authorization of Electronic Gaming. Amend RSA 284:21-h by inserting after paragraph V the following new paragraph:

VI. The commission shall not authorize the use of any electronic gaming device in any game, lottery or other offering which was not in use by the commission on or before January 1, 2011, unless specific authorization for such electronic gaming device is enacted by the general court. Electronic gaming devices shall mean and include all electro-mechanical instruments and device used for the purpose of gaming, whether in physical presence or through the Internet, and shall include video slot machines and other gambling devices which function or are designed to emulate a video slot machine or other gambling machine, historic racing machine, and computer technology to reveal instant ticket winners. This section shall not be interpreted to prohibit the commission from replacing offerings, games, or equipment which were in service prior to January 1, 2011 with new offerings, games or equipment which are the functional equivalent of those offerings, games or equipment which are being replaced.

27 Racing and Charitable Gaming Commission; Lucky 7; Authorization of Electronic Gaming. RSA 287-E:21, III-a is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

III-a. Lucky 7 tickets may be sold by dispenser devices approved by the commission and located at the regular meeting place of, or at a facility owned, leased, or utilized by, the licensee for its activities. The commission may authorize electronic lucky 7 ticket dispenser devices so long as those devices have been certified by a testing laboratory, authorized and approved by the commission, as meeting the following criteria: communication with a server to obtain the next available ticket in a finite game set; offer only the game approved by the commission; assure that each game set is totally exhausted; possess the ability to retain accounting information in the event of a power failure; have the ability to accept $1, $5, $10 and $20 bills; have individual programmable ticket values; contain a tamper-proof money receptacle; dispense a paper ticket; dispense a redemption certificate and an electronically produced lucky 7 ticket that comply with commission rules; have a distinctive serial number; and have system servers that interface with the manufacturer's secure website database that is capable of tracking each charity location, vendor, terminal game form, game set, ticket number and time of sale for each ticket purchased.

28 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1 through 22 and sections 25 through 27 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

II. Section 23 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

III. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

LIST OF RULE 2-15'S FOR THE DAY

Sen. White: HB 175.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Point of personal privilege, if I might. Mister President, last Thursday the Senate Finance Committee held a public forum on the budget. That public forum was the largest attendance I've ever seen at a public forum. The entire legislative area was full and the gallery was full. And, I want to point out one thing that makes me so proud to be a Senator in the State of New Hampshire: that people came up to the Chair afterwards and said: "The courtesy extended by this committee and the way this committee was conducted is an example of people having an opportunity to express their opinion." And, I think the Chair ran a terrific committee; he ran a terrific session, and he deserves a great deal of credit for the way he handled that session. It was difficult; these are very difficult times. But, the key element to me was the courtesy extended to every citizen of the State of New Hampshire, the courtesy to speak their mind, and they were all given an opportunity. He extended the time in the afternoon session by an hour; we were there 'til 11:30 in the evening. Mister President, you're a member of that committee. And, I think it's an example of really what the public demands of its public officials: courtesy, and the ability of those individuals to express their opinion. So, my kudos to the Chair, my thanks to the Chair, for once again proving that the Senate is a deliberative body, it's a body that listens, it's attentive to detail, and it gives everyone the opportunity to speak, and that's the mark of true public service. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to take a personal privilege for a moment. I – this is a little hard for me to say, but I want to say thank you to all of you for all the kind words. I'm warmly grateful for it; it's helped me to get along for the first couple of days after my accident. And, I also have a message that I'd like to bring to the Senate from my wife, and in particular to Senators Kelly and Larsen, who were there at the hospital, who helped my wife in those difficult moments, and I want to say thank you to both of you from her. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I just want to let everybody know that Senator Forrester and I were privileged to go next door and present a resolution for Bob Lawton, who's had his 80th birthday. Bob Lawton is the original founder of Funspot, the Guinness Book's world's largest arcade in the world. And, he's the person – and my good friend, Senator Barnes, will be happy to hear this – that gave us General John Stark Day; he sponsored that bill. And, he also sponsored the change from "Scenic" being our motto to "Live Free or Die". So, it was a great honor to present him that resolution on behalf of the Senate. Thank you.

Without objection President Bragdon moved that all Rule 2-17's shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate.

MOTION TO ADJOURN FROM LATE SESSION

Sen. Bradley moved that the Senate adjourn from the Late Session.

Adopted. Adjournment from the Late Session.

May 4, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Jason Wells, guest chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

We know that good leadership requires vision and values. But, we also all know that not just any vision and any old values will do. Sometimes our values get corrupted, sometimes our vision is off target; sometimes our visions are too small and not ambitious enough. If we would be faithful leaders, our vision and our values must come from God. And, we hear from God in prayer, in meditation, in Scripture reading, and any variety of spiritual practice. We should never assume that our values and our vision are the same as God's values, or that our hopes line up with God's mission. If our prayers simply confirm the things that we already think we know, we're certainly off target.

So, I ask you, in your prayers, where is God challenging and changing your vision for what you do? How does God want your leadership to change so that God's Heavenly vision might win over our earthly and small and limited vision? Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven. Amen.

Sen. Larsen led the Pledge of Allegiance.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS AND PRESENTATIONS

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I believe that Senator De Blois has some Pages today.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Yes, I do, Mister President. Thank you very much. Dakota Maitland is from Memorial High School. She's 18; she's in grade 12. Her favorite subject is mythology. Extracurricular activities are New Hampshire JAG – New Hampshire Jobs for American Graduates. Her favorite book, she says, is Speak. And, she would like to be a schoolteacher. Welcome.

And, our second Page today is Miss Kirsten Huot. She's 19; she's grade 12, and also from Memorial High School. Her favorite subject is early childhood education. Her favorite book, she says, is Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows. In the future, she wishes to become a schoolteacher, as well. Welcome to the Senate.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. It is a great pleasure and indeed an honor to recognize one of our former State Senators, my good friend Mark Hounsell, Senator Mark Hounsell, who had the distinction of being able to represent Senate District 2 in the 1980s, who now lives in the fine Town of North Conway. Welcome, again, to the New Hampshire Senate, Mark.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I'm honored today to introduce the Winnacunnet Warriors Girls Basketball Team. This is their fifth – fifth! – state championship, with 70 consecutive wins under their belt. Their captains of the team are Anna Sullivan and Samantha Corcoran. And, I think we need to credit the coach, Ed Beattie, for training these girls over the long period of time and teaching them the skills that they need to get the championship. So, welcome, girls.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I will note that also in the gallery, in the center, is Heather Morton from the National Conference of State Legislatures, visiting the New Hampshire Legislature for the week. Welcome.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I just realized that in the gallery today is Karen Leo-Hill, who's a council member of the City of Lebanon. Welcome, Karen.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Morse.)

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I have the honor of welcoming six outstanding young men and women to the Senate today from the Boys and Girls Clubs all across the State of New Hampshire. They are the 2011 winners of the Boys and Girls Club "Youth of the Year" awards. They are being recognized for having outstanding leadership skills, moral values, along with showing real dedication to their families, communities, and their clubs, while at the same time meeting the highest academic standards and overcoming enormous personal obstacles. Tonight, one of them will be named New Hampshire's Youth of the Year. The winner will represent our state in the regional competition held this summer in New York City.

As a longtime supporter, as I know many of you are, of the Salem Boys and Girls Club, I know what a positive difference these clubs make in the lives of young people. I'm proud of you, the Senate is proud of you, and maybe someday you'll all apply all your leadership skills, your learning, and be one of the ones who makes a positive difference right here in the State House. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I'd like to take a point of personal privilege under Rule 2-17. Last year's Boys and Girls Club nominee for Youth of the Year was from Concord, as well, who has most recently been diagnosed with leukemia. So, I wanted to send a prayer of healing to him and recognition for his accomplishments as well as acknowledging the folks who are in our gallery today. Thank you.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I do note that our interns are winding down their session with us – if you could all stand. And, I believe the Senators who worked with them have been asked to comment on a few, and I have no particular order.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. This session, Senator Forsythe and I have had the pleasure of getting to know David Turner. David has helped things run in our office, and we truly appreciate the help he's given us.

David is a junior at UNH and plans to go to law school. We wish him the best, and with all of his future plans, we know he'll be successful. Thanks for everything, David.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: And, I would like to add to that, Mister President, that David deserves a very special award for dealing with Senator Sanborn.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I rise joyfully to acknowledge Dave Couture's contributions to our offices. David has had the challenge of serving three women who are highly demanding and very busy folks, and David has been remarkable in his wonderful attitude, his sense of humor, his ability to write well, to speak well, and to understand how our office works and make it work even better. So, thank you, David; we wish you all the best in your pursuits, and we really appreciate your work. And, he's staying with us, I think, a few more weeks, which we are very grateful for. Thank you, David.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Yes, I would just like to rise to support Senator Larsen's eloquent speech for David this morning, as well. I am one of the women Senators that David has been most helpful and assisted us, and I want to just let him know how much I appreciate all of his talents, am grateful for all of his work to keep us going; he has been steady as we go, and has always been there for all of us to make our work as efficient as possible. I'm also looking forward to attending his graduation at St. Anselm's College; I will be doing that and standing there also witnessing my son graduating along with David. So, it will be a real privilege and a pleasure to do that. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR MERRILL: I also would like to say how much I've enjoyed having Dave in the office. I'd say he's very adaptable; he's even become a bit of a Tampa Bay fan. So, thank you, Dave.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I rise to say thank you to Jordan Prince. Jordan Prince is graduating from UNH in just a couple of weeks; she's going to have a criminal justice degree. She worked on the Judiciary Committee. She will also be graduating with my son, and we're also going to have a party together afterwards. I also have to say that she's engaged to a wonderful guy who's looking for a job; he's a civil engineering major. And, please contact Jordan Prince. Thank you, Jordan, for being with us at this time; you've helped me a great deal in my abilities to be a good Senator. Thank you very much for your help.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to recognize the lovely and talented Hannah Truslow. Hannah had to meet a special qualification to be in my office: she had to speak Italian – tutti Italian – and she passed! As the co-president of the Italian caucus along with Senator Gallus, you know, it takes a certain specialty to join our group. Hannah's been terrific as our intern. We're a busy office; she works diligently, has even translated a little French for me, too, on occasion. So, well-grounded in her linguistic abilities.

Hannah's a world traveler: has spent time in Italy; likes to travel. And, by the way, works over in Portsmouth at a very fashionable restaurant, so you ought to visit her and give her a big tip, Senator Bradley, because we know you're a big tipper – I know you're a big tipper. And, we're so pleased with her work, happy, and wish her the very best. She'll be graduating from the University of New Hampshire and on her way to bigger and better things. Would like to go to China to teach, and it just shows you the global attitude in our office. Thank you very much, Hannah.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Gallus.)

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you very much, Mister President. I was lucky enough to get one of the tallest and best interns. Josh, I still can't spell or pronounce your last name. He's done a great job for me all year. And, there is a spelling contest in a few minutes. But, Josh has been a real asset to the office, I'll tell you. He's done a great job and he's done a great job for some of the committees. He's about to graduate from the University of New Hampshire, and he's one of those young men that I really appreciated seeing come to work in the morning. And, he's been a self-starter, and I wish him well in the future endeavors that he takes on. Thank you, Josh.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: Well, it's my privilege to thank Brendan Sheehan, who has been with us. And, he has gone above and beyond the call of duty. As some of you know, we had a transition in our admin, and he stepped up to cover both areas. And, just outstanding. And, I have seen a tremendous initiative on his part to just suggest ideas – actually, he changed a couple of my thoughts on things. And, he has been an incredible asset. He's a junior; he's got another year. Actually, I was visiting with President Mark Huddleston at UNH on Monday and then we hung out at the Dairy Bar up there for a little while and he gave me a little insight on UNH. And, he's got an exciting project this summer: he's going to be converting his – what kind of car is it? Yeah, Mercedes. Okay. And, he's going to convert it to vegetable oil. So, if you want to learn about that, he'll tell you all the stuff. If you drive behind him, I suppose it smells like French fries. So, he's done an outstanding job, and I just appreciate all the great work he's done in our office.

(The Chair recognized Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I also want to thank Brendan for the work that he's done in our office; he's helped me a great deal in handling my emails, and the suggestions he presented to me to help me get through all of them, and they were many. I thank you very, very much for the work that you've done in the office; we've enjoyed having you every day. And, thank you very much.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: I share the sentiments of my colleagues. And, I would say that Brendan was probably faced with the greatest challenge of all the interns, because he had three freshmen to serve. And, he did an outstanding job; he handled everything with grace and tact. And, he is looking for an internship this summer if anyone's looking for a good intern. And, Brendan we appreciate all that you did for us. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Well, as the Chairman of Public and Municipal Affairs, there's a guy by the name of the Josh over there who did a great job for our committee. And, all five of us, and also Debbie, who was with us, appreciate the great work you did while you were with us. And, seeing you leaving, we're probably not going to be able to have any more hearings after next week because we're going to miss you. Thanks for all you did for the Committee.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Carson.)

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. As the Chair of ED&A, I would like to thank Brendan for all the work he did on behalf of the Committee. Things can get a little hectic, and Brendan was reliable, responsible, and very, very hardworking, and he helped things to run very smoothly with the Committee, and I would like to thank him. And, he's also a bit of a traveler; while we were hard away at work, he took his vacation: he went to Italy. So, if people like to look at beautiful pictures of Italy – I think he has a career as a photographer, myself – but, go see Brendan; he's got some great pictures. And, I just really want to thank him for all his hard work on behalf of the Committee.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. I would like to add to the thank-yous for Brendan, because he also served in the Education Committee. And, he did all of the running around while Tom was stationary talking notes, and followed everything that I needed, and brought a ray of sunshine into the office on many a day. Thank you, Brendan.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you all very much; it was a pleasure working with you all. And, Angela has something for you to do, I think.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces the following bills will not come to Finance: HB 26-FN, HB 284-FN, HB 411, HB 418-FN, HB 466-FN, HB 488-FN, HB 489-FN, HB 504-FN, HB 629-FN, HB 650-FN-L. HB 131, which is still in Judiciary Committee, will not come to Finance.

Without objection, President Bragdon authorized Senator Luther to use electronic devices on the floor of the Senate.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

COMMERCE

HB 26-FN, relative to the definition of gross misconduct for purposes of unemployment compensation. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-1. Senator De Blois for the committee.

Commerce
April 26, 2011
2011-1581s
09/04

Amendment to HB 26-FN

Amend RSA 282-A:35 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

282-A:35 Gross Misconduct. An unemployed individual who has been discharged for arson, sabotage, felony, assault which causes bodily injury, criminal threatening, or ~~theft of~~ a single theft or multiple thefts in the aggregate of an amount greater than ~~[$500]~~ $100, where such conduct is connected with his or her work, shall suffer the loss of all wage credits earned prior to the date of such dismissal.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 26-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill, as amended by the Committee, clarifies the definition of gross misconduct for purposes of unemployment compensation and reduces the amount of the work-related theft resulting in the loss of wage credits.

House Bill 26-FN will clarify that an unemployed individual who has been discharged for a single theft, or multiple thefts, in the aggregate of an amount greater than $100, where such conduct is connected with his or her work, shall suffer the loss of all wage credits earned prior to the date of dismissal.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.
Sen. Houde offered a floor amendment.

Sen. Houde, Dist. 5
May 3, 2011
2011-1713s
01/10

Floor Amendment to HB 26

Amend RSA 282-A:35 as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

282-A:35 Gross Misconduct. An unemployed individual who has been discharged for arson, sabotage, felony, assault which causes bodily injury, criminal threatening, ~~[or theft of]~~ a single theft or multiple thefts of cash or goods in the aggregate of an amount greater than [500] $100, or a theft or multiple thefts of time in an amount greater than $250, where such conduct is connected with his or her work, shall suffer the loss of all wage credits earned prior to the date of such dismissal.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. We did have some consensus in our committee surrounding the threshold of $100 for theft of cash or goods constituting gross misconduct for purposes of unemployment compensation. However, what we didn't reach consensus on, or I should say I didn't reach consensus on, was whether theft of time should be treated similarly. And, just by way of background, the Department of Employment Security has determined that theft of time goes towards the monetary threshold for gross misconduct theft. Examples of theft of time include playing on the computer while you're on the clock, reporting to a job site late but getting paid based on an earlier job reporting time, and the one that I was most concerned about was the situation where someone might call in sick not having sick time left because they have to take a child to an appointment or something similar.

If you make $15 an hour, you would end up over the $100 threshold in the committee amendment in one day. And, as such, my proposal that you have in front of you, Amendment 1713s, would leave the theft of goods or money threshold at $100, but carve out theft of time and set the monetary threshold for those cases at $250, which, incidentally, is the House's overall compromise language.

Why do I suggest this amendment? It's not because I'm encouraging theft at any level. In fact, any theft by a worker subjects them to criminal prosecution and restitution claims. Rather, it's just incongruous to have such a low threshold with the consequences including not just job loss and loss of unemployment benefits, but also for loss of subsequent work credits, alongside the other enumerated examples of gross misconduct for unemployment compensation purposes such as arson, felony, assault, and criminal threatening.

So, with that, I ask for your support on my floor amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise in favor of the amendment being presented by Senator Houde. I did vote for this amendment in the Senate Committee. I appreciate the hard work that our committee has done on this. We came from a position of a threshold of $500 and came down and came down and came down to something that we felt was more reasonable, and I felt as though the amendment that was presented by Senator Houde was a really good compromise; I voted for it in Committee and I ultimately voted for the bill because I felt as though the threshold of $500 was too high. But, I do feel as though the threshold of $100 is too low.

I would ask that this body would reconsider and put this floor amendment onto the bill, the reason being is, we need to make sure that the punishment is commensurate with the crime. And, I believe that a $100 threshold for theft of time is too low; I would like to see it back up to the $250 as we discussed and voted on in the Committee for Commerce. And, I appreciate the work that we do there. However, I do need to stand up here; I wasn't satisfied with what came out of the committee. I do not always get my way because it is a vote of the members. So, today, I am asking that you would consider that you would take the notes that Senator Houde has said and the desire that I have presented that we should have the punishment meet the crime. I think that $100 is too low for theft of time. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to this floor amendment. And, before I talk about it, I have to thank Senator Houde. As we both know, we started on very opposite ends of the spectrum of what we felt this issue was about.

For 40 years, this state has had a zero tolerance of employees stealing. Two years ago, it was readdressed: it's been $500, it's been $250. And, Senator Houde and I have truly spent time, and I truly appreciate the effort he's put in to try and find some level of compromise. And, we did find compromise; we found compromise on reestablishing the threshold of an employee stealing from an employer. And, again, none of us believe or support theft. But, when it rises to the point of gross misconduct, we all agreed that $100 was a level that we could compromise and meet with.

However, I don't support the amendment at $250 as a theft of time, because although while some employees might make $50 an hour, so a two-hour job might not be that egregious to some, in the industry that I work in, an employee could steal 76 hours – two weeks of time – and that still would not be considered gross.

I think we have a reasonable definition; I think we have something that both sides can live with at $100. And, I think the $250 threshold just sets it too high, and I ask you to vote down this amendment, with all due respect to the Senator. Thank you very much.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Failed.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 31, relative to insurance payments for ambulance services. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator White for the committee.

Commerce

01/09

Amendment to HB 31

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to insurance payments for ambulance services and relative to coverage for the cost of testing for bone marrow donation.

Amend the bill by replacing sections 1 and 2 with the following:

1 New Section; Ambulance Service Providers; Reimbursement. Amend RSA 415 by inserting after section 6-p the following new section:

415:6-q Reimbursement for Ambulance Service Providers. Each insurer that issues or renews any individual policy, plan, or contract of accident or health insurance that constitutes health coverage under RSA 420-G:2, IX, and that provides benefits for medically necessary ambulance services shall reimburse the ambulance service provider directly or by a check payable to the insured and the ambulance service provider subject to the terms and conditions of the policy, plan, or contract. Nothing in this section shall preclude an insurer from negotiating with and subsequently entering into a contract with a non-participating ambulance provider that establishes rates of reimbursement for emergency medical services.

2 New Section; Ambulance Service Providers; Reimbursement. Amend RSA 415 by inserting after section 18-u the following new section:

415:18-v Reimbursement for Ambulance Service Providers. Each insurer that issues or renews any policy of group or blanket accident or health insurance that constitutes health coverage under RSA 420-G:2, IX, and that provides benefits for medically necessary ambulance services shall reimburse the ambulance service provider directly or by a check payable to the insured and the ambulance service provider subject to the terms and conditions of the policy, plan, or contract. Nothing in this section shall preclude an insurer from negotiating with and subsequently entering into a contract with a non-participating ambulance provider that establishes rates of reimbursement for emergency medical services.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 4 with the following:

5 Coverage for the Cost of Testing for Bone Marrow Donation. Amend RSA 415:6-m to read as follows:

415:6-m Coverage for the Cost of Testing for Bone Marrow Donation.

I. Each insurer that issues or renews any individual policy, plan, or contract of accident or health insurance providing benefits for medical or hospital expenses, shall provide to certificate holders of such insurance, who are residents of this state and who meet the criteria for testing as established by the Match Registry (the National Marrow Donor Program), coverage for laboratory fee expenses up to $150 arising from human leukocyte antigen testing, also referred to as histocompatibility locus antigen testing, [for A, B, and DR antigens] for utilization in bone marrow transplantation. The testing shall be performed in a facility that is accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks or its successors, or the College of American Pathologists, or its successors, or any other national accrediting body with requirements that are substantially equivalent to or more stringent than those of the College of American Pathologists, and is licensed under the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Act of 1967, 42 U.S.C. section 263a, as amended. At the time of the new testing, the person tested shall complete and sign an informed consent form that also authorizes the results of the test to be used for participation in the National Marrow Donor Program and shall acknowledge a willingness to be a bone marrow donor if a suitable match is found.

II. In addition to paragraph I, the testing facility shall not bill, charge, collect a deposit from, seek payment or reimbursement from, or have recourse against a covered person or a person acting on behalf of the covered person for any portion of the laboratory fee expenses.

6 Coverage for the Cost of Testing for Bone Marrow Donation. Amend RSA 415:18-r to read as follows:

415:18-r Coverage for the Cost of Testing for Bone Marrow Donation.

I. Each insurer that issues or renews any policy of group accident or health insurance providing benefits for medical or hospital expenses, shall provide to each group, or to the portion of each group comprised of certificate holders of such insurance who are residents of this state and who meet the criteria for testing as established by the Match Registry (the National Marrow Donor Program), coverage for laboratory fee expenses up to $150 arising from human leukocyte antigen testing, also referred to as histocompatibility locus antigen testing, [for A, B, and DR antigens] for utilization in bone marrow transplantation. The testing shall be performed in a facility that is accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks or its successors, or the College of American Pathologists, or its successors, or any other national accrediting body with requirements that are substantially equivalent to or more stringent than those of the College of American Pathologists, and is licensed under the Clinical Laboratory Improvement Act of 1967, 42 U.S.C. section 263a, as amended. At the time of the new testing, the person tested shall complete and sign an informed consent form that also authorizes the results of the test to be used for participation in the National Marrow Donor Program and shall acknowledge a willingness to be a bone marrow donor if a suitable match is found.

II. In addition to paragraph I, the testing facility shall not bill, charge, collect a deposit from, seek payment or reimbursement from, or have recourse against a covered person or a person acting on behalf of the covered person for any portion of the laboratory fee expenses.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires that the providers of ambulance services be reimbursed directly or by a check payable to the insured and the ambulance service provider subject to the terms and conditions of the policy, plan, or contract.

This bill also clarifies the law regarding the cost of testing for bone marrow donation.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 31 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill, as amended by the Committee, requires that the providers of ambulance services be reimbursed directly or by a check payable to the insured and the ambulance service provider, subject to the terms and conditions of the policy, plan, or contract.

Additionally, in an effort to support the valuable national marrow donor program and stop some recent bad practices that have happened in the City of Manchester, this bill will also place a cap of $150 on labs for bone marrow registry expenses for reimbursement.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: Thank you, Mister President. Now that the girls are actually in the balcony after having been recognized in the House, I would ask my Senators to congratulate the Winnacunnet High School girls basketball team on their fifth consecutive year of state championships for Title I.

I would also like to recognize the coach of their team, Ed Beattie, because, you know, to win five consecutive years of championships, it's with his coaching that helps those girls develop those skills to take the championships. So, congratulations, girls.

HB 89, requiring the attorney general to join the lawsuit challenging the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-1. Senator White for the committee.

Amendment to HB 89

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to health insurance coverage and declaring that the attorney general should join the lawsuit challenging the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Section; Insurance Department; Health Insurance Coverage. Amend RSA 400-A by inserting after section 14 the following new section:

400-A:14-a Health Insurance Coverage. No resident of this state, regardless of whether he or she has or is eligible for health insurance coverage under any policy or program provided by or through his or her employer, or a plan sponsored by the state or the federal government, shall be required to obtain or maintain a policy of individual insurance coverage except as required by a court or the department of health and human services where an individual is named a party in a judicial or administrative proceeding. No provision of this title shall render a resident of this state liable for any penalty, assessment, fee, or fine as a result of his or her failure to procure or obtain health insurance coverage. This section shall not apply to individuals voluntarily applying for coverage under a state-administered program pursuant to Title XIX or Title XXI of the Social Security Act. This section shall not apply to students being required by an institution of higher education to obtain and maintain health insurance as a condition of enrollment. Nothing in this section shall impair the rights of persons to privately contract for health insurance for family members or former family members.

2 Lawsuit Challenging the Federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act. The attorney general should, as soon as practicable, join the lawsuit (State of Florida et al. v. United States Department of Health and Human Services et al.) challenging the constitutionality of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

3 Effective Date.

I. Section 1 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2011.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides that a resident of New Hampshire shall not be required to obtain, or be assessed a fee or fine for failure to obtain, health insurance coverage.

This bill also declares that the attorney general should join the lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

Sen. White moved to Lay on the Table HB 89. Adopted.

RESOLUTION

Sen. Bradley moved to Introduce SR 9, requesting an opinion of the justices concerning the constitutionality of HB 89.

The question is on the motion to Introduce SR 9. Adopted.

INTRODUCTION OF SENATE RESOLUTION 9

11-1096

SR 9, requesting an opinion of the justices concerning the constitutionality of HB 89. (Bradley, Dist 3; De Blois, Dist 18; Boutin, Dist 16)

Sen. Bradley moved Ought to Pass on SR 9.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR BRADLEY: The Resolution requests an opinion of the Justices concerning the constitutionality of House Bill 89. As people recall, there was a debate whether we should join the federal lawsuit against the affordable healthcare protection act – federal healthcare reform. The Senate adopted a position previously in, I believe, Senate Bill 14, that we should tell the Attorney General to do so. The House has insisted, in House Bill 89, that it shall instruct the Attorney General to join the lawsuit challenging the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

So, this Resolution, given that we just tabled House Bill 89, would send the question to the Supreme Court for their opinion of the Justices as to regarding the constitutionality of ordering the Attorney General to join the lawsuit.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I simply rise to note that we were very cordially asked to join in this Resolution and did not sign our names to it, simply because we believe it is very clear that House Bill 89 is unconstitutional, and we certainly trust the New Hampshire Supreme Court to come to that same conclusion. But, we did not believe it was necessary to request the opinion to come to that conclusion. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass. Adopted.

HB 246, relative to prearranged funeral contracts or burial plans. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-1. Senator Houde for the committee.

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I move House Bill 246 Ought to Pass. This bill establishes procedures for contracts involving prearranged funeral contracts or burial plans. It was proposed by the New Hampshire Funeral Directors Association, a state trade association that has represented the funeral service industry in New Hampshire for over 100 years.

HB 246 would add disclosures necessary to strengthen existing New Hampshire prearranged funeral contract law. Under current law, there is no requirement that a prearranged funeral contract be in writing, for example. With the adoption of HB 246, these disclosures will be added to strengthen the law. Essentially, this new law will provide a necessary level of protection and provide more information to New Hampshire families.

For these reasons, I ask for your support of the Commerce Committee's unanimous recommendation of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President. I'm sorry, Mister President; it was not unanimous: 4-1. My apologies.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. Sanborn is in opposition to the motion of Ought to Pass on HB 246.

HB 298, requiring condominium management companies to make certain disclosures to the condominium board of directors. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 298 Ought to Pass. House Bill 298 requires condominium management companies to disclose fees by managing agents and contractors.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee in Ought to Pass on House Bill 298. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to HB 424

Amend RSA 405:24, III as inserted by section 6 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. The commissioner, pursuant to RSA 402-J, may issue a producer license to a resident of the state permitting the producer named therein to procure insurance policies and contracts of insurance or suretyship to be effective in this state in foreign insurance companies not authorized to transact business in this state, but which are duly authorized to do business in some state having an insurance commissioner, or in a domestic insurer authorized to do business in ac- cordance with paragraph IV. Such insurance or suretyship placed with an unadmitted surplus lines company shall be for such amount as the producer cannot place with an admitted company, and shall not be placed until the producer has first satisfied the insurance commissioner that the producer cannot procure such an insurance in an admitted company. For purposes of this paragraph, an insurer authorized to do business in accordance with paragraph IV shall not be deemed to be authorized or admitted. Before delivering to the insured a policy or binder of insurance written under the provisions of this section, every producer shall have stamped in a form approved by the commissioner on the face of the binder or policy the following: "The company issuing this policy ~~[has not been licensed by]~~ is an eligible surplus lines insurer in the state of New Hampshire and the rates charged and policy forms used have not been approved by the commissioner of insurance. If the company issuing this policy becomes insolvent, the New Hampshire insurance guaranty fund shall not be liable for any claims made against the policy."

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you again, Mister President. I move House Bill 424 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill enables premium taxes for non-admitted insurance companies, including surplus line insurance, to be collected and disbursed. The bill also allows a foreign insurance company to be designated as a surplus line insurer under certain circumstances.

House Bill 424 as amended was requested by sellers of surplus line insurance and is based on model legislation and gives us the flexibility in New Hampshire that we need.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on House Bill 424. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Amendment to HB 489-FN

Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 332-I:8, I and subparagraphs (a)-(c) as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

I. The powers of the corporation shall be vested in 16 members and up to 3 at-large members. Except for the members appointed under subparagraphs I(b)-(d), members shall serve 3-year terms. No member shall serve more than 2 full consecutive terms. Members shall be appointed as follows:

(a) A consumer not affiliated with the health care industry, appointed by the governor.

(b) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

(c) Three members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

Amend RSA 332-I:8, III as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action shall arise against, any member of the board, or its employees or agents, for any action they take in the performance of their powers and duties under this chapter.

Amend RSA 332-I:9 as inserted by section 5 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

332-I:9 Meetings of Board. Meetings shall be held at the call of the chairperson or when 4 members so request. Members shall be notified 6 business days prior to the meeting date. Nine members of the board shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of 7 members shall be necessary for any action taken by the authority. No vacancy in the membership of the board shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the corporation.

Amend the bill by replacing section 6 with the following:

6 Initial Terms for Members of Health Information Organization Board; First Meeting. The initial terms of office for the members appointed to the health information organization board established in RSA 332-I:8 as inserted by section 5 of this act shall be as follows: the members in subparagraphs I(e), (f), (h), and (l) shall serve for 3 years; the members in subparagraphs I(a), (g), (i), (j), and (k) shall serve for 2 years. The members in subparagraphs I(b), (c) and (d) shall serve coterminous with their term or terms in office. The at-large members in subparagraph I(m), if any, shall serve for terms not exceeding 3 years as determined by the board. Initial appointments shall be made within 30 days of the effective date of this section. The first meeting shall be held within 60 days of the effective date of this section and shall be called by the first-named member of the house of representatives.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I rise on behalf of the Commerce Committee and move House Bill 489 Ought to Pass with an Amendment. The bill establishes health information organization corporation, and not to be confused with health insurance exchange. So, this is a health information organization corporation that will have distinct legal existence from the State. The corporation will establish and maintain a health information organization for the electronic exchange of health information.

This bill also requires the Commissioner of the Department of Health and Human Services to enter into a contract with this organization to grant the New Hampshire information exchange planning and implementation project.

The amendment adopted by our Committee addresses membership of the board and provides for greater legislative representation. The board is made up of 12 members. Two of them were going to be one from the House, one from the Senate. We made that membership up to 16 members so that we could have three from the Senate and three from the House for greater public oversight.

If this bill passes, I believe it's important that we put into the minutes of this hearing today of our legislative intent, if I could have the indulgence?

Thank you very much, Mister President. The board was going to make the decisions for this entity, and that's why it was so important that the Commerce Committee look at the board and made it up of more public members. We found that the policy interest in protecting the privacy of citizens of New Hampshire, especially as it relates to medical records, is a vital thing that the State should have interest in, and we believe in protection of individual privacy rights. That's why, if this bill passes, we are wanting to protect people's privacy.

This is going to be a State-designated entity. It is also going to have a primary objective to transfer responsibility of the monies from DHHS – Department of Health and Human Services – to the organization, and make sure that the state government is involved. Creating this organization as a public instrument allows the State to transfer the programs and financial obligations to a private sector via contractual relationship while still retaining direct policy oversight over privacy issues that are important to the citizens of New Hampshire.

Another issue I'd like to bring forward is that accounting measures and safeguards will be in place to make sure that the money that is spent is spent responsibly and lawfully. Also, I'd like to say that there is a 10-1 leverage for monies being spent. We will have in our budget the $600,000. It's going to be leveraged for $10; for every dollar that we put into this program we have $10 of federal grant to start the organization.

Lastly, I'd like to go over the board member duties. They are to have pretty much control over all of the daily business transactions to make sure that the public is on the board and making sure that the public money is being spent properly. That is directly written in the bill: section 332-I:10 Powers and Duties.

Another subject I'd like to touch upon is how the HIO, the health information organization, is going to act like a business. It will function as a business because it will be a business. It is a private and public organization. The initial capital for the business will be provided by the federal grant as well as a small amount from the State of New Hampshire. But, the ongoing operations will be paid for by hospitals, physicians, and other healthcare providers who choose to procure its services. If the HIO is not able to cover its expenses, its costs, by offering these services, and if they are not valued in the market, it will fail. It is like any other business.

I'd like to make sure that those things are said in public for the intent of this legislation. Thank you very much, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to HB 489. As many of you know, this was a real split decision within the Commerce Committee, and we had ample conversations about it. This piece of legislation shows clearly how difficult the job is of this body every single day, and how complicated it can be in trying to decide the difference between policy and procedure.

We all agree in the need and the desire to try and help exchange information, if someone is injured or hurt or incapacitated, from one hospital to another. It's a worthwhile endeavor; it's something, on a policy basis, we all support. But, the real challenge we have on this really comes into the procedure of how it's being enacted. At a time that we came here to make a smaller, more efficient government, and at a time when we came here to ask our government to get out of the business of small industry, we're standing here today considering a government-funded corporation that's going to combine $5.4 million of federal money, an additional $600,000 coming out of our budget, at a time when we're struggling so hard to find the resources to help those people who are mentally challenged, developmentally disabled, this legislation proposes creating a new business. This business, as we know, is operating in several other states today as a private entity. I don't believe it's this State's responsibility to create businesses that has no plan to how it's going to cover its operational expenses, has no capacity to cover its operational losses when they occur, all for the benefit of other corporations. I would support this legislation if a private entity came and operated in this state as a for-profit or for-fee for service, but I do not believe this is the way for us to invest the money of the people of New Hampshire, and I ask you to say no. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you very much, Mister President. I rise to support House Bill 489. And, would just add, I think – Senator Prescott had certainly talked about the safeguards put in place and the privacy issues. I just want to focus on the substance of what this bill does, which is it's ultimately designed to address cost duplication in the healthcare industry, which I don't think is a small business, with all due respect to my friend and colleague. An ounce of prevention, in this situation, is going to go a very long way with respect to patients won't receive duplication of services if information is more easily transmitted from one provider to the other.

So, I just think that the objective of this legislation is admirable as I think all would agree, and I would just note that as far as who pays for this, healthcare institutions in our state are likely to take a significant hit this biennium for uncompensated care, etcetera, that they provide. I think asking them to cough up additional monies at this point is just not something that they can stomach. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. As Senator Sanborn mentioned, this was a divided Commerce Committee on this bill; there was some internal discussion. We all felt it would have been a 5-0 vote about the intent of what we're trying to do here, which was to facilitate the transfer of medical records in an orderly fashion. A lot of good things can come from that; you can see some savings, perhaps, in Health and Human Services as tests are not duplicated because of the inability to find a record or get a record, we could see costs reduction in the private sector, but even there that spills over into the State because of the entanglement of healthcare costs in general and the things we do here. So, there were a lot of things we were unanimous about.

We were not unanimous about really one issue, which was governance/funding, and that's what you hear being expressed today. And, I would just state an opposite view of my good friend, Senator Sanborn, that if the government was going to get involved in this all, and I believe they had to because of privacy concerns; we would not have been able to get a handle on locking down the privacy if this was strictly a private enterprise with no government oversight whatsoever. So, we were going to have to have some type of legislation sometime either for oversight or whatever, and so I thought it made sense to get right involved in the creation. And so then, at that point, you've got to decide is this going to be in a state agency? Is it going to reside in the Department of Insurance, or is it going to reside in the Department of HHS, and then we have government expansion. Or, as one who like Senator Sanborn espouses a small-government philosophy, a conservative philosophy, I felt that the natural end of that philosophy was private, nonprofit governance; we've used this in the past on other agencies, we use it in much of healthcare delivery; HHS has hundreds of contracts with private, non-profit governed entities that enjoy some sort of government status, and I thought that made the most sense here.

And then, of course, the issue of funding, again, the lever of 10-1, although all the funds are public funds at the end, it just seemed foolhardy to pass up the opportunity to put a small amount of New Hampshire money into it and get a large amount of federal dollars to get this thing off the ground for what could be potentially very profitable.

And then the last thing I'd point out – because I think there's some misunderstanding about what's going to happen with this entity and why the privacy thing is important – there is a clause in here for limited immunity for those who, in good faith and in proper procedure, exchange this information. And, that is important, as anybody who has any ties to the healthcare business would tell you, because the HIPAA laws are very, very onerous, and the penalties are very, very severe. And so, I question if a private entity really would have made this undertaking given the huge potential penalties involved with the exchange of information and the privacy laws without this clause of limited immunity. So, again, I thought that this argued for the bill.

So, again, there is a division of opinion on this to some degree, but we were up against a deadline; I'll finish my remarks by mentioning there was a deadline, really, of October 1st. My preference, quite candidly, would have been to Re-refer this. But, we had a deadline, and I had to, as a freshman legislator, respect the work product of many people before me; a lot of work was put into this by previous people on previous committees in the previous Legislature, and I just did not feel, with that looming deadline, it was my place as a freshman to come gum up the works right at the end after so many people had put so much thought and effort into this, and that's why I'm asking you to support this bill as amended.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I also rise in opposition to House Bill 489. Years ago, the hospitals got in bed with the State on the JUA, and I think, years later, they came to regret that, and I think this will be no different. We're spending $600,000 of state funding; $5.4 million of federal funding. I want to remind my good colleagues here that federal money is still our money; it still comes from the taxpayers.

On one hand we're reducing uncompensated care towards the hospitals; on the other hand, we're spending government money to set up something for the hospitals. On one hand we've cut their funding; on one hand, we raise it if we can get involved with it. I think that's inconsistent. I'd rather see uncompensated care restored and let them do this on their own as a fully private entity. Privacy issues have been dealt with in other states that have these corporations set up. I would much prefer enabling legislation that would allow the private company if enabling legislation is needed to set this up rather than have the government involved.

So, again, I request opposition to House Bill 489, and thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. De Blois.)

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to this bill, as well. I was one of the two that voted against this bill in committee, and I feel that private industry needs to – if they feel that this is valuable enough, they ought to be stepping forward, setting their own corporation up, and collecting this data. For us to spend $600,000 for an endeavor that may or may not succeed doesn't seem prudent, in my mind, at this time. I agree with Senator Forsythe that if they need enabling legislation to create this corporation I would be all in favor of that. But, I am not in favor of spending $600,000 at this point in time when we are trying to fund other entities that sorely need their funding. Thank you, Mister President.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I will note that earlier, this was reported as not going to the Finance Committee even though it has an FN. If this were to pass, I will be sending it to the Finance Committee.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you very much, Mister President, for your leniency. I just wanted to state for legislative intent, there is no legislative intent for any further funds being spent on this organization after it is organized. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Bradley, Houde, Odell, White, Kelly, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Larsen, Boutin, Barnes, Rausch, D'Allesandro, Merrill, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

HB 629-FN, relative to the uninsured health care database. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-2. Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 629-FN Ought to Pass. House Bill 629 repeals the uninsured health care database.

Many stakeholders supported repealing the uninsured health care database because the information currently being collected is incomplete, so the data being generated is also incomplete. The uninsured health care database is currently managed by the Department of Insurance, a department who doesn't regulate healthcare providers. Passing HB 629 will eliminate a burdensome mandate with very little value.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass on House Bill 629-FN. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Houde.)

SENATOR HOUDE: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in opposition to the committee recommendation. As you can tell, it was an interesting week last week in Commerce. We just heard, and we are going to continue to hear a fair amount of concern over uncompensated care and the financial burden that that places on hospitals and healthcare providers, as well as the upward pressure on insurance premiums in light of cost-shifting. If we're concerned about these things, as I think we all are, then House Bill 629 is part of the solution. It would fill the black hole that currently surrounds uncompensated care. I believe talk of incomplete information that we heard is a red herring; half a loaf is better than none. In this situation, we'd be collecting information. As for the discussion of privacy concerns that we heard, since the information is not identifiable in any way toward the individual. Basically, it comes down to the cost of collecting and submitting this information. And, while I would note that some institutions are already being required to submit this information elsewhere and negotiations took place over several months to ease those concerns further, more importantly, it will potentially get at the much costlier underlying issue of what actually makes up uncompensated care, and therefore I'd ask for your vote against the committee recommendation. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Odell, White, Luther, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Houde, Sanborn, Kelly, Lambert, Larsen, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

EDUCATION

HB 216, relative to the instructional authority of school boards. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-1. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 216 Ought to Pass. This legislation requires school boards to be responsible for establishing the structure, accountability, advocacy, and delivery of instruction. It further provides local flexibility in carrying out the responsibilities adopted by the Department of Education. This legislation also extends the school board authority over all schools under its jurisdiction except for charter school or homeschoolers within its geographical boundaries.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 216 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I am the lone one on that vote, and so I rise in opposition to HB 216 for the following reasons:

First, I am concerned that this bill as written leaves too many unanswered questions and that the language is just too vague, such as the statement in the language, wondering what is meant by: "instructional policies and instructional goals". I don't see anything in the legislation that defines either one of those terms. And, the same language refers to knowledge and skills pupils will need in the future. It's not clear to me what definitions or references are used in determining knowledge and skills that pupils will use in the future.

Second, the sponsor of the bill states that HB 216 reinforces one of the most critical roles our local school boards play in the partnership with the State. But, there's absolutely no reference to the Department of Education, or to even the State Board of Education, in this legislation.

And, third, the Education Committee heard testimony stating that the practices as stated in HB 216 are already followed in school districts. So, I question then, if that is true, why is this legislation necessary?

For these reasons, I voted against this bill in the Education Committee and will vote today against the motion Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. Forsythe is in favor of the motion of Ought to Pass on HB 216.

HB 370, making changes to the pupil safety and violence prevention act. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Forsythe for the committee.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 370 Inexpedient to Legislate. This legislation makes changes to the pupil safety and violence protection act. The current pupil safety and violence protection act was adopted last year to address the important issues associated with school and cyber bullying.

There was unanimous testimony from students, parents, school administrators, and community leaders opposing the proposed legislation to change the law. Although parts of the legislation would have potentially strengthened parental rights, there was no testimony from any parent objecting to the current law. Overall, the Committee felt that the current law should be given more time to explore its merits before changes are brought forth.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 370 be Inexpedient to Legislate and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I just want to rise and to... I sat through the committee hearings, again, on this bill, and I just want to commend the young people who were there who had the courage to get up and tell their stories again. And, they also were just incredible in thanking legislators for the bill and the law – I should say the law that we currently have on anti-bullying and anti legislation, and were really close to begging us to keep the law the way that it is; it is working, and I think by ITL-ing this current bill, we are making another commitment to our young people that we want to make sure that all of our students are safe in school Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Prescott.)

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you very much, Mister President. I also rise in favor of this ITL motion. I did sit through the hearing for Education, and I spoke with school administrators, superintendents; I also spoke with school boards. They do know that this bill was a little bit onerous for them; they had to create their rules, they had to go through training. However, they do understand that it is difficult to make sure that there's no bullying, and they're up to the task; they understand it is a difficult task. But, they now appreciate the guidelines that are presented.

It also was a reason for me to vote for this as ITL in committee was that it was just implemented not more than a month or so ago. And, we would like to see, as the Committee voted unanimously, to see if we have any information that comes out from this new legislation. And, appreciate the whole body of the Senate voting to ITL the bill so that the newest bullying law can stay in effect. Thank you very much, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Houde, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Houde, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Kelly, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Larsen, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, D'Allesandro, Merrill, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: (None).

HB 401, relative to postsecondary training for workers with disabilities. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Forsythe for the committee.

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 401 Ought to Pass. This legislation authorizes the Labor Commissioner to establish a practical experience and training program for individuals with disabilities. It is important to adopt this plan to ensure that those who have disabilities are afforded the same opportunities to develop professional skills as those who more frequently participate in internships and job-related training programs.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 401 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 528-FN-L, requiring school districts to develop a facility maintenance and capital improvement program. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 528-FN-L be Re-referred to Committee. This legislation requires school districts develop a facility maintenance and capital improvement plan in order to be eligible to receive school building aid grants. Given the current moratorium and unsure future of school building aid, as well as some concerns for this legislation creating a mandate with an associated cost, further work needs to be done on the details of this bill.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 528-FN-L be Re-referred to Committee and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Amendment to HB 650-FN-LOCAL

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Chapter; Reduction, Rescission, or Increase in Appropriations for State Education Funding. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 197 the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 197-A

SPECIAL MEETINGS

REGARDING APPROPRIATIONS FOR STATE EDUCATION FUNDING

197-A:1 Special Meetings; Reduction, Rescission, or Increase in Appropriations for State Education Funding. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in response to statutory changes resulting in reductions or increases in distribution of state revenues for education pursuant to RSA 198:41 to school districts, the governing body of any school district including those that have adopted RSA 40:13, may call a special meeting of the legislative body to consider a reduction, rescission, or increase of appropriations made at an annual meeting, subject to the following:

I. The governing body of any school district that has adopted the provisions of RSA 40:13 may elect to hold and conduct the meeting in accordance with the provisions of this section and without regard to the provisions of RSA 40:13. A special meeting under this section shall not be petitioned under RSA 39:3 and no petitioned warrant articles shall be inserted in the warrant.

II. The governing body's warrant shall specify, in one or more articles, the amounts of appropriations proposed for reduction, rescission, or increase from the operating budget or separate warrant articles, or both, adopted at the annual meeting.

III. The governing body shall hold a public hearing on the proposed reductions, rescissions, or increase at least 14 days prior to the meeting. Notice of the time, place, and subject of such hearing shall be posted in at least 2 public places within the political subdivision, one of which shall be on the political subdivision's website, if such exists, at least 7 days prior to the hearing.

IV. The governing body of such school district shall post a notice of the meeting, which shall include the warrant, in at least 2 public places within the political subdivision, one of which shall be on the political subdivision's website, if such exists, at least 7 days prior to the meeting. Additional notice shall be published in a newspaper of local or regional circulation in the political subdivision, provided that if there is no newspaper of local or regional circulation in which notice can be published at least 7 days before the date of the meeting, public notice shall be posted in at least one additional place within the political subdivision.

V. The meeting shall be conducted in accordance with RSA 40:1 through RSA 40:11. The most recently updated checklist shall be used.

VI. The legislative body may approve or disapprove any proposed reduction, rescission, or increase of appropriations, or may approve lesser reductions, but the legislative body shall not approve greater reductions, or reduce or rescind an appropriation not specified in the warrant, or act on any other business at the meeting.

VII. Except as provided in this section, provisions of the following chapters of the RSAs, as they apply to special meetings of the legislative body of a school district shall not be required for special meetings held pursuant to this section: RSA 32, RSA 39, RSA 49-D, RSA 197, RSA 654, RSA 669, RSA 670, and RSA 671.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 2011.

Sen. Kelly moved to Lay on the Table HB 650-FN-L. Adopted.

HB 44, designating segments of the Oyster River as a protected river and exempting certain portions of the Oyster River from the provisions of the comprehensive shoreland protection act. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 44 Ought to Pass. This bill designates segments of the Oyster River as a protected river under the Rivers Management and Protection Program, while exempting first, second, and third order portions of the river from the setback provisions of the comprehensive shoreland protection act, leaving setback decisions to the municipalities instead.

The proposed designation of the Oyster River received overwhelming local support and will enhance cooperation among municipalities in protecting this valuable resource.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on House Bill 44. Thank you, Mister President.

HB 381, authorizing net metering for micro-combined heat and power systems. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Bradley for the committee.

Energy and Natural ResourcesApril 28, 2011*2011-1660s*06/01*Amendment to HB 381

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Definitions. Amend RSA 362-A:1-a, II-b to read as follows:

II-b. "Eligible customer-generator" or "customer-generator" means an electric utility customer who owns or operates an electrical generating [facilities] facility either powered by renewable energy or which employs a heat led combined heat and power system, with a total peak generating capacity of not more than 100 kilowatts, or that first begins operation after July 1, 2010 and has a total peak generating capacity of 100 kilowatts or more up to one megawatt, that is located behind a retail meter on the customer's premises, is interconnected and operates in parallel with the electric grid, and is used in the first instance to offset the customer's own electricity requirements.

II-c. "Eligible fuel" means natural gas, propane, wood pellets, hydrogen, or heating oil when combusted with a burner, including air emission standards for the device using the approved fuel.

II-d. "Heat led" means that the combined heat and power system is operated in a manner to satisfy the heat usage needs of the customer-generator.

3 Net Energy Metering. Amend RSA 362-A:9, I to read as follows:

I. Standard tariffs providing for net energy metering shall be made available to eligible customer-generators by each electric distribution utility in conformance with net metering rules adopted and orders issued by the commission. Each net energy metering tariff shall be identical, with respect to rates, rate structure, and charges, to the tariff under which a customer-generator would otherwise take default generation supply service from the distribution utility. Such tariffs shall be available on a first-come, first-served basis within each electric utility service area under the jurisdiction of the commission until such time as the total rated generating capacity owned or operated by eligible customer-generators totals a number equal to 50 megawatts multiplied by each such utility's percentage share of the total 2010 annual coincident peak energy demand distributed by all such utilities as determined by the commission. No more than 2 megawatts of such total rated generating capacity shall be from a combined heat and power system as defined in RSA 362-A:1-d.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect on July 1, 2011.

2011-1660s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill redefines "eligible customer-generator" in order to authorize net metering for micro-combined heat and power systems.

This bill limits the total rated generated capacity from combined heat and power systems for purposes of net energy metering.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you again, Mister President. I move House Bill 381 Ought to Pass. This bill redefines "eligible customer-generator" in order to authorize net metering for micro-combined heat and power systems.

The amendment seeks to limit the total rated generated capacity from combined heat and power systems for purposes of net energy metering, as well as adding wood pellets to the eligible fuels.

HB 387, requiring providers of prepaid cellular telephone service to provide subscriber information to the enhanced 911 system. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 387 be Re-referred to Committee. This bill was a request of the Division of Emergency Services and Communication. HB 387 would require providers of prepaid cellular telephone service to provide subscriber information to the enhanced 911 system. This bill would help get information from providers' databases if the information is available in order to assist the enhanced 911 system in locating someone in need of help.

The Committee found that there are a number of areas of concern with this bill, including the limited regulation on the amount of information that needs to be provided to purchase a prepaid phone. We need to ensure that changes in regulation are done right and there are no unintended consequences. Re-referral will allow the various stakeholders to work on an amended bill which will be thoroughly vetted and ready for discussion and consideration by the full Senate come January of next year.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation in voting Re-refer to Committee on HB 387. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

HB 555, relative to the designation of the Lower Exeter/Squamscott River as a protected river. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Bradley for the committee.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you again, Mister President. I move House Bill 555 Ought to Pass. The bill designates the Lower Exeter and Squamscott River as a protected river.

The Department of Environmental Services recommends these two segments be designated, and there is also unanimous local support for the designation. This will simply add the last two downstream segments of the Exeter/Squamscott River that have not been designated through the Rivers Management and Protection Program.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation of Ought to Pass on HB 555. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to HB 30

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to qualifications for licensure by the board of veterinary medicine.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Definition; Veterinarian; Veterinary Practice Act. Amend RSA 332-B:1, IV to read as follows:

IV. "Veterinarian" means a person who has received a doctor's degree in veterinary medicine from an accredited school of veterinary medicine or other veterinary school approved by the board, or a person from a foreign veterinary school holding an ECFVG certificate or a PAVE certificate.

2 New Paragraph; Veterinary Practice Act; Definitions; PAVE. Amend RSA 332-B:1 by inserting after paragraph XI the following new paragraph:

XII. "PAVE" means the Program for the Assessment of Veterinary Education Equivalence operated by the American Association of Veterinary State Boards.

3 Qualifications For Licensure; PAVE. Amend RSA 332-B:9 to read as follows:

332-B:9 Application for License; Qualifications. Any person desiring a license to practice veterinary medicine in this state shall make written application to the board. The application shall show that the applicant is 18 years of age or more, a graduate of an AVMA accredited school of veterinary medicine or other veterinary school acceptable to the board, or the holder of an ECFVG certificate or a PAVE certificate, a person of good professional character, and such other information and proof as the board may require by rule. The application shall be accompanied by a fee in the amount established and published by the board.

4 Veterinary Practice Act; Reciprocity. Amend RSA 332-B:11, II to read as follows:

II. Applicants who are not graduates of schools of veterinary medicine accredited by the AVMA, other than those described in paragraph I, shall possess a certificate issued by the ECFVG, PAVE, or a Certificate of Qualification issued by the Canadian Veterinary Medical Association, unless at the time such applicant became licensed in the state, province, or U.S. territory from which they are applying, an ECFVG certificate or a PAVE certificate was not required by this state.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

2011-1635s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows persons who received a certificate from PAVE, the Program for the Assessment of Veterinary Education Equivalence, to apply for licensure with the board of veterinary medicine.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 30 Ought to Pass with Amendment. HB 30 was a request by the Board of Veterinary Medicine. This bill allows persons who receive a certificate from PAVE – the Program for Assessment of Veterinary Education Equivalence – to apply for licensure with the Board of Veterinary Medicine.

The amendment brings clarification and house-keeps the original intent so that the PAVE certificate shows up in every section of the Veterinary Practice Act.

The ED&A Committee voted favorably 4-0 Ought to Pass with Amendment and asks for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Before we're attentive to the Clerk, we have some visitors. And, I understand that Senator Luther – no, Lambert... Somebody from Nashua will be introducing these guests.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Lambert.)

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you very much, Mister President; it is somewhat confusing, anyway. The Nashua Christian Academy is here today, and we welcome them, because they are a part of my District – District 13 – they're actually in Ward 4 – one of my favorite wards; however, the only ward that I did lose in the election. But, I still love them anyway, and thank you very much for coming here today. But, before I formally introduce you, Senator Luther would like to say a few words about them.

SENATOR LUTHER: Well, this is such an outstanding school that we've had to fight over how we were going to do this. But, I'm actually a – Nashua Christian Academy is a school that's run by the church that I'm part of: the Grace Fellowship Church in Nashua. I had the privilege, actually, of – Hey guys; how are you all doing? – of being before the school a couple weeks ago. They asked me – this was the high-schoolers – to explain why Washington was going to shut down. So, they want to know, they want to understand politics. So, great to see you all; thanks for coming, and we're just privileged to have you all here. So, let's thank them for being here.

HB 102, establishing a committee to study certain issues relative to the insurance department, banking department, and bureau of securities regulation of the office of the secretary of state. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 102 be Re-referred to the Committee. This legislation establishes a committee to study certain issues relative to the Insurance Department, Banking Department, and Bureau of Securities Regulation of the Office of the Secretary of State.

The ED&A Committee recommended Re-refer so that this legislation could be reviewed with similar legislation which has been retained by the Committee. Therefore, the ED&A Committee asks for your support in the adoption of House Bill 102. Thank you very much, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 102.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I understand we have some more guests, and I understand Senator Boutin may know something about them.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Boutin.)

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. It is a great privilege for me to welcome the law and ethics class from Bow High School. Bow High School is an outstanding high school; it excels both in academics and athletics, and I urge you to join me in welcoming them today to the Senate. Thank you.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: Thank you, Senator Boutin. And, to no one's surprise, Senator D'Allesandro has a connection to someone in the balcony.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Actually, he's on the floor; and, one of my grandsons, Jacob Berrigan. Now, Jacob is not only a scholar, which is of primary importance, but he's an outstanding baseball player; he's on the baseball team, and played Babe Ruth last year. So, Jacob is going to be a future Senator, I'll tell you that. Thank you, Mister President.

HB 150, relative to benefits of judicial branch employees who transfer from the judicial branch to state service in the executive branch or the legislative branch. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Larsen for the committee.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 150 Ought to Pass. House Bill 150 clarifies that for Judicial Branch employees who transfer without a break in service from the Judicial Branch to state service in the Executive or Legislative Branches, that the rate of accrual of annual and sick leave shall be according to the continuous years worked, and upon the employee's transfer, the rate of accrual shall be the rate of accrual of the receiving branch. This legislation brings equity to all transfers within the branches, and the ED&A Committee voted favorably 4-0 Ought to Pass and asks for your support for this in its adoption. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to HB 178

Amend the bill by replacing section 5 with the following:

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before December 1, 2011.

SENATOR CARSON: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 178 Ought to Pass. House Bill 178 establishes a committee to study issues regarding Financial Resources Mortgage, Inc.

As we are aware, the lasting effects of the Financial Resources Mortgage company devastated many people in the State of New Hampshire who had invested their monies in what they believed to be a reputable investment company. Most of these investors lost everything.

Amendment to HB 380

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Commission on the Status of Men; Reinstatement. Pursuant to 2009, 144:87, I(a), the commission on the status of men, established in RSA 19-I, is hereby reinstated until June 30, 2012.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 2 with the following:

3 Repeal, RSA 19-I, relative to the commission on the status of men, is repealed.

4 Effective Date.

I. Section 3 of this act shall take effect June 30, 2012.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

2011-1656s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill extends the commission on the status of men to June 30, 2012 and directs the commission to examine the social and economic consequences of the absence of fathers from the home.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 380 Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 380 exempts the commission on the status of men from repeal on June 30, 2011, and directs the commission to examine the social and economic consequences of the absence of fathers from the home.

The committee amendment reinstates the commission until June 30, 2012. I strongly support this bill as amended by the Committee, and the ED&A Committee voted favorably 4-0 Ought to Pass with Amendment and asks for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

HB 418-FN, relative to the use of open source software and open data formats by state agencies and relative to the adoption of a statewide information policy regarding open government data standards. Re-refer to committee, Vote 4-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 418 be Re-referred to committee. This legislation requires state agencies to consider open source software when acquiring software and promotes the use of open data formats by state agencies.

The ED&A Committee believes that there are issues with this legislation which need to be addressed before it moves forward. Therefore, the Committee recommends that HB 418 be Re-referred to committee and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

HB 461-FN, relative to repealing the authority for retirement system members to purchase service credit for certain out-of-state service. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator White for the committee.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 461-FN Ought to Pass. This legislation repeals provisions which allow Group I and Group II members of the New Hampshire retirement system to purchase credits for out-of-state service.

The ED&A Committee recommends House Bill 461-FN Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

HB 508-FN, establishing a performance measurement system for state agencies. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Larsen for the committee.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 508 Ought to Pass. This legislation establishes a pilot program for the development of a performance measurement system in the Department of Health and Human Services. No additional funds will be needed, and the Department will be able to do this, they assure us, within their existing resources and within their budget.

Therefore, the ED&A Committee recommends House Bill 508 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

FINANCE

HB 72-FN-A, establishing a state aeronautical fund. Re-refer to committee, Vote 7-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 72 to be Re-referred to the Committee. This bill would establish a state aeronautical fund, and it would authorize the Commissioner of the Department of Transportation to accept donations to the fund.

There were vital pieces of this legislation that have been recognized by the Committee regarding the importance of rural New Hampshire airports that play in the economic stability of the communities in which they reside. The Committee would like to review this bill a little more in hopes we can establish this fund.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Re-refer, and I thank all my colleagues in advance.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

HB 339-FN-A, allowing the state veterinarian to employ a meat inspection services administrator and making an appropriation therefor. Ought to Pass, Vote 7-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 339 Ought to Pass. House Bill 339 allows the state veterinarian to employ a meat inspection services administrator, establishes a meat inspection program fund, and makes an appropriation to such fund. The appropriation is $1 in 2012, and deposited into the meat inspection program fund. Once running, the program fund will pay for itself, and includes a list of not to exceed fees for inspection services.

Please support the Finance Committee motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 438-FN-A, relative to funding of the Claremont, Colebrook, Milford, Keene, and Plaistow District Courts. Ought to Pass, Vote 7-0. Senator Odell for the committee.

SENATOR ODELL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 438-FN-A Ought to Pass. This bill comes about out of an attempt to close a number of district courts in the current biennium, which all remain open today due to the 2009 legislative action. This bill requires the Colebrook District Court, the Keene District Court, the Claremont District Court, the Plaistow District Court, and the Milford District Court to remain open in the fiscal years 2012 and 2013. The Judicial Branch is required to pay the maintenance costs within their operating budget for these courts.

Please support the Finance Committee motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Amendment to HB 635-FN-A

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT requiring the governor to consolidate certain agency functions and making an appropriation therefor, and requiring the transfer of inmates from the state correctional facility in Concord to a private correctional facility.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 Department of Corrections; Transfer of Inmates from the State Correctional Facility in Concord.

I. Pursuant to the authority granted in RSA 21-H:8, VI-VII, the commissioner of the department of corrections shall enter into one or more contracts, as may be necessary, with appropriate private correctional agencies or facilities and shall make proper and necessary arrangements with such agencies or facilities for the transfer and reception of not more than 600 inmates currently incarcerated at the state correctional facility in Concord.

II. The department shall not close the North Country facility located in Berlin as a result of meeting the reductions required by this section.

III. As a result of the transfer of inmates, the commissioner of the department of corrections shall reduce the department's general fund appropriation by $5,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2012 and $5,500,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2013.

IV. If as a result of the transfer of inmates, the commissioner is able to reduce the department's general fund appropriation by more than the amount required in paragraph III, the commissioner shall expend any excess funds on the development and implementation of programs and services for the probation, parole, and sentencing of certain offenders required under 2010, 247 (SB 500-FN of the 2010 legislative session), as amended, with the approval of the fiscal committee of the general court.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

I. Requires the governor to develop a plan for consolidating certain agency functions, and includes an appropriation for the purpose of hiring consultants.

II. Requires the commissioner of the department of corrections to transfer not more than 600 inmates currently incarcerated at the state correctional facility in Concord to private correctional agencies or facilities and to reduce the department's general fund appropriation for the biennium ending June 30, 2013.

Sen. Morse moved to Recommit to Committee HB 635-FN-A. Adopted.

Sen. De Blois asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 635-FN-A.

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

HB 168, establishing a committee to study the juvenile delinquency and child in need of services statutes. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 168 Ought to Pass. House Bill 168 establishes a committee to study the juvenile delinquency and child in need of services statutes. These statutes have not been evaluated since their inception, and they stand to be improved in various ways. It is important that we evaluate how to best serve this vulnerable population within the constraints of our current budget.

Therefore, the Health and Human Services Committee recommends House Bill 168 Ought to Pass, and we ask for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 284-FN, relative to contact lens prescriptions. Ought to Pass, Vote 3-2. Senator Bradley for the committee.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 284 Ought to Pass. House Bill 284 clarifies the requirement that contact lenses – including those without refractive power, which means those contact lenses that are decorative in nature – be issued only by a valid prescription.

Federal law already classifies contact lenses, including those without refractive power, as medical devices requiring a prescription. This bill will align state law with federal law in order to better protect public safety from serious health risks caused by ill-fitting and improperly used contact lenses. It was also a request of the Pharmacy Board in New Hampshire.

The Health and Human Services Committee recommends that House Bill 284 Ought to Pass and we ask for your support. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. Sanborn is in opposition to the motion of Ought to Pass on HB 284-FN.

HB 295, relative to the use of long-term antibiotics for the treatment of Lyme disease. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator De Blois for the committee.

Amendment to HB 295

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Board of Medicine; Lyme Disease Treatment. The board of medicine established in RSA 329:2 shall post and maintain on its website the following statement: No licensee may be subject to disciplinary action solely for prescribing, administering, or dispensing long-term antibiotic therapy for a patient clinically diagnosed with Lyme disease, if diagnosis and treatment has been documented and monitored in the physician's medical record for that patient.

Amend paragraph II of section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. "Lyme disease" means the clinical diagnosis by a licensed physician of the presence in a patient of signs or symptoms compatible with acute infection with Borrelia burgdorferi; or with late stage or persistent or chronic infection with Borrelia burgdorferi; or with complications related to such an infection; or such other strains of borrelia that are recognized by the National Centers for Disease Control and Prevention as a cause of Lyme disease. Lyme disease includes an infection that meets the surveillance criteria set forth by the National Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and other acute and chronic manifestations of such an infection as determined by a licensed physician, pursuant to a clinical diagnosis that is based on knowledge obtained through medical history and physical examination alone, or in conjunction with testing that provides supportive data for such clinical diagnosis.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 295 Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 295 requires the Board of Medicine to post a statement on its website stating that no licensee may be subject to disciplinary actions solely for prescribing, administering, or dispensing long-term antibiotic therapy for a patient clinically diagnosed with Lyme disease if diagnosis and treatment have been documented in a physician's medical record for that patient.

The committee amendment returns the definition of Lyme disease to the definition in the bill as introduced. This definition is more expansive, and will better protect the physicians who treat chronic Lyme disease patients. The amendment also adds to the sentence on the website that the treatment must be monitored in order to prevent over-treating with antibiotics.

New Hampshire is among the top three states for incidence of Lyme disease, yet we have only a handful of physicians who will treat chronic Lyme disease. House Bill 295 will increase the level of appropriate care in New Hampshire by reducing the fear of repercussions among practicing physicians.

Please join the Health and Human Services Committee in voting HB 295 Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

Sen. Groen is in favor of the Committee Amendment to HB 295.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of this important bill. And, to begin, I would just like to acknowledge and to thank Senator Bradley for his ability and leadership as the Chair of this committee; as you know, this is a difficult issue. We heard many, many people come before us who are in pain and suffering and also just an emotional pain for their loved ones. And, Senator Bradley did an outstanding job; in fact, he even allowed the four children of parents who were coming to testify to sit with us while their parents testified. So, I do want to thank him and acknowledge him for that.

You know, this legislation puts many of us as legislators, I think, in a difficult position, due for both our respect for the credibility of the medical profession and for the difficult testimony, as I said, that we heard from many, many who are currently suffering. And, we as a committee, had a very lengthy discussion, and what we discussed a lot was the role of government regarding medical decisions. And, after a thorough discussion, the Committee did move Ought to Pass by including the words "monitoring" – which I think is important as we go forward in this disease – by physicians in the legislation. And also, we were able to discuss and move forward because of our respect for the important and primary relationship that exists between a physician and their patient.

So, I do support Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

Sen. Bradley offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment to HB 295

Amend paragraph II of section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. "Lyme disease" means the clinical diagnosis by a licensed physician of the presence in a patient of signs or symptoms compatible with acute infection with Borrelia burgdorferi; or with late stage or persistent or chronic infection with Borrelia burgdorferi; or with complications related to such an infection; or such other strains of borrelia that are recognized by the National Centers for Disease Control and Prevention as a cause of Lyme disease. Lyme disease includes an infection that meets the surveillance criteria set forth by the National Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and other acute and chronic manifestations of such an infection as determined by a licensed physician, pursuant to a clinical diagnosis that is based on knowledge obtained through medical history and physical examination alone, or in conjunction with testing that provides supportive data for such clinical diagnosis. This definition is based on Connecticut Public Act No. 09-128 (HB 6200, approved June 18, 2009).

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you very much, Mister President. Senator Kelly, thank you for those kind words. Now I have to eat crow, and apologize to my Democratic friends for being neglectful this morning in getting to you this final version of the floor amendment.

As people know on both sides of the aisle, there was a request yesterday to give a citation as to where the definition came from. We had been under the impression that the definition came from the ILADS Organization: the International Lyme Disease Organization. When I talked with the sponsor of the bill, Representative Daniels, last night, he told me that we were mistaken, that the definition had not come from ILADS. The request was that the definition be cited as to where it was sourced.

And so, we have added, in this floor amendment – and, again, my apologies, Senator Kelly, especially after those nice words; it really hurts to eat crow, but it's deserved in this case – that we've added the sentence: "This definition is based on Connecticut Public Act No. 09-128 (HB 6200), which was approved on June 18, 2009"; no other changes in the definition. And, as both my good friend, Senator De Blois, and Senator Kelly have indicated, this bill is a vitally important bill to all of the people, including my best friend, who has long-term chronic Lyme, allowing more physicians to be able to treat Lyme patients in our state.

The Committee worked extraordinarily hard, heard compelling testimony; I have to salute Senator Forsythe, who is a cosponsor of the legislation, as well as all of the House sponsors who brought this to us. I think with this floor amendment, the controversy around this bill will dissipate and we can start the process of better treating those amongst us who are afflicted with this problem of Lyme disease. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I'm trying to discern... Through the course of the hearing, it appears that the Board of Medicine opposed this amendment and this language entirely, but the Medical Society came to agree on one of the compromises. Can you clarify which the Medical Society finally came to agree on?

SENATOR BRADLEY: The Medical Society agreed on the notation on the Board of Medicine's website that physicians – the first part of the bill – would not be sanctioned for prescribing long-term antibiotics. And, that was agreed upon by the New Hampshire Medical Society.

There was disagreement about the definition of Lyme disease; there is a Center for Disease Control definition and there is an alternative definition that we thought, mistakenly, was the ILADS definition. In fact, it is a definition that Connecticut largely used, and the New Hampshire Medical Society wanted it noted in the session law, which this definition will be, where the definition came from.

With that, I hope that the Medical Society's objection to the not using the CDC definition will be mitigated.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen for a follow-up question of Sen. Bradley.)

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, and if I could ask a further question. I understood one of the most important parts of this also clarifies that no licensee would be subject to disciplinary action solely for prescribing or administering long-term antibiotic therapy. And, that "solely" means that there would be instances in which someone prescribed long-term antibiotic therapy and misdiagnosed or misused it, but if it's the sole reason is for treatment of Lyme disease, then it would not be something which the Board... Has the Board ever charged someone for treatment of long-term antibiotics?

SENATOR BRADLEY: My understanding, Senator Larsen, is that that has not occurred; that the Board has not sanctioned somebody for prescribing long-term antibiotics. But, there is fear among physicians, because prescribing of long-term antibiotics is somewhat controversial, it needs to be done for a good reason. And, unfortunately, with Lyme disease – in particular for those who are afflicted with it on a long-term basis that may have had a misdiagnosis or didn't even really realize that they had a problem for several years – at that point in time, the long-term antibiotics are a more accepted, though not universally accepted, position. There are not many physicians that are treating patients in New Hampshire for Lyme disease. My hope is that with passage of this legislation, we will see more physicians treating people, and through that process, learning more about effective treatments for Lyme disease, which is increasingly a problem in our state.

SENATOR LARSEN: I recognize that. Thank you.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

Sen. Groen is in favor of the Floor Amendment to HB 295.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Rausch.)

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President. I too will support this piece of legislation. But, I would like to be on the record as saying I hope this is the first and last time the Legislature gets involved with defining a disease and defining a treatment protocol. This sets a very dangerous precedent, and I hope in the future, the Legislature will not have legislation diagnosing and treating disease entities. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise to support the bill as amended. The frequency of Lyme disease in our area is very, very high. I'm sure that you know someone who has Lyme disease or contracted Lyme disease. My son contracted Lyme disease; it was diagnosed early and he was able to be treated and the disease was done away with. I have a player who played for me, lives in Connecticut, who's been suffering with Lyme disease for a number of years. He had to go out of this country to get treated; actually had to go to France to get treated. He lived in isolation in France in a pure environment in order to deal with this situation. He was an outstanding athlete; his body was almost totally crippled: joints, tremendous pain, inability to eat.

So, I think there are times – you don't want Legislatures diagnosing, and I agree with my distinguished veterinarian colleague. He's right; we shouldn't be that. But, there are times when you really have to step up to the plate. This particular situation has been around for the last couple of years; we passed it last year, and it somehow didn't get through the other body. But, this is an attempt to address a situation that affects so many New Hampshire citizens, and we're doing it in an effective and an efficient manner, and we're protecting the physician who does prescribe the antibiotics. I think it's the right thing to do; it's the appropriate time. It's something that actually is pervasive in our environment. The number of people with Lyme disease keeps growing. So, we're doing the right thing; I applaud the members of the Committee for their action. Senator Bradley, I support your amendment because it's always nice to see you eating crow. Well, crow's not a bad delicacy! I've eaten a lot of it, myself. Thank you very much, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I just wanted to salute David Hunter of the Greater Manchester Lyme Disease Support Group for being a resource in the Greater Manchester area on this subject for a number of years to a lot of families and for his tireless work on educating the public and the Legislature about this issue.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly for a question of Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR KELLY: Senator Larsen, I just wonder if you would agree that the passage of this legislation is important as well, and one of the motives and intents is to respect and honor the relationship between the physician and the patient.

SENATOR LARSEN: I believe that patient-physician privacy is of utmost importance, and that this bill will in fact increase that.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sens. Forsythe and Groen are in favor of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended on HB 295.

HB 488-FN, relative to criminal records checks for employment with child day care agencies. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move HB 488 Ought to Pass. House Bill 488 provides an amended criminal records check when an employee or volunteer of a child day care agency who has completed the full criminal records check within the last three years transfers to another day care agency.

Under this bill, day care workers will still be required to undergo a state criminal records check each time they transfer to a different agency. However, they will no longer be required to an additional federal records check and fingerprinting if they transfer within three years. This will reduce redundancy and save the day care agencies the costs of unnecessary second federal records checks and sets of fingerprints.

The Department of Safety has expressed its support of this legislation, and I note that childcare agencies check the Division of Children, Youth, and Family abuse and neglect registry each time new personnel is added, which provides additional information beyond that available in a criminal records check. Also, the childcare licensing unit of Health and Human Services incorporates a check of the national sex offender registry into its process for new childcare applicants.

Health and Human Services recommends HB 488 Ought to Pass and asks for your support.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Kelly.)

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of the legislation. I just wanted to respond to some of the testimony that you would see in the hearing report from Jeffrey Kellett, who's the Chief Administrator for the State Police Criminal Records. He had testified with some concerns in regard to the legislation, and was requested by the Chair of the Committee to work with the Department of Health and Human Services. They did, and he came back and sent us a letter; I just want to read a couple things from the letter just to clarify his testimony for the record.

He stated in his letter that the Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Safety engaged in conversations that would move HB 488 forward yet preserve the integrity of the criminal history background process with the highest priority being the safety of the children at these agencies. Several factors were taken into consideration during those discussions, and upon assurances and the willingness to work with the Department of Safety in moving forward, Department of Health and Human Services will continue to enforce and monitor the controls already in place, incorporate a search of the national sex offender registry, and through instructional information to be provided to childcare agencies, will require more in-depth hiring procedure beyond the scope of a criminal record check. Based upon the above, he says: "I am confident that the integrity of the requirements for childcare agency applicants with respect to the FBI and New Hampshire criminal history record check remains solid and will not set precedence for wide-sweeping changes to other existing public law. Therefore, I support HB 488-FN as submitted." And, that was presented by Jeffrey Kellett, Chief Administrator, State Police Criminal Records Unit. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 504-FN, licensing reverse distributors of drugs and requiring manufacturers, wholesalers, distributors, service distributors, and brokers to report changes in ownership. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I'll again endeavor to speak quickly. I move House Bill 504 Ought to Pass. House Bill 504 licenses reverse distributors of drugs, and also requires manufacturers, wholesalers, distributors, reverse distributors, and brokers to report any change of ownership.

The Board of Pharmacies has requested this bill because the term "reverse distributor" needs to be in statute in order for the Board to be able to make rules regarding their practice in New Hampshire. Reverse distributors are licensed in many other states, and their business of buying unused expired drugs from pharmacies and selling them back to the manufacturer is quite common.

The Board also requested language that would require manufacturers, wholesalers, distributors, reverse distributors, and brokers to inform the Board when there is a change of ownership to identify the new owners. Please join the Health and Human Services Committee in voting Ought to Pass on HB 504. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 632, relative to labeling requirements for dispensing of drugs by automated pharmacy systems. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 632 be Re-referred to Committee. This bill would provide labeling requirements for drugs dispensed by an automated pharmacy system.

The Committee saw merit in the labeling requirements but believes the legislation is premature. So, we would ask you to Re-refer. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

HB 642-FN, requiring the departments of health and human services and administrative services to jointly issue a certain request for information. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. One page this time. I move House Bill 642 Ought to Pass. House Bill 642 requires the Commissioners of the Departments of Health and Human Services and Administrative Services to jointly issue a request for information, soliciting information regarding the feasibility of unifying the public payers of healthcare benefits into a single pharmacy benefits manager.

Under this bill, if the RFI suggests there would be cost savings under such a system, the Commissioners shall issue a request for a proposal. The potential savings of merging these public payers may reduce a significant cost burden to the State.

Therefore, the Health and Human Services Committee recommends Ought to Pass on HB 642.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

JUDICIARY

HB 431, relative to psychiatric evaluations. Ought to Pass, Vote 4-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move Ought to Pass on HB 431. This legislation allows the court to determine whether a psychiatric evaluation will be shared with the facility when an individual is involuntarily committed.

Two years ago, legislation was enacted to protect the privacy of individuals who were subject to nonemergency involuntary admissions. The legislation sealed the court records, which included the psychiatric evaluation done in order for the judge to make a determination. This bill merely corrects this unintended consequence.

What is happening right now is that the sheriff arrives at New Hampshire Hospital with the patient with one sheet of paper: the court order. This is akin to me going to my doctor and refusing to tell him what ails me. In order to best serve and treat these patients, having the psychiatric evaluation available to the attending medical staff would enable hospital personnel to have a better picture of what issues the individual is dealing with and how to begin immediate treatment. The judge would make the determination as to whether it is appropriate to share this evaluation. New Hampshire Hospital would continue to do their own diagnosis and treatment plan, but this initial evaluation gives them important data.

The committee amendment merely moves the effective date to 60 days after passage as requested by the Hospital and sponsors.

The Judiciary Committee recommends that HB 431 be adopted with amendment and asks for your support. Thank you.

Recess. Out of recess.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

PUBLIC AND MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

HB 181, permitting the charter of a city, town, or school district which is in statute to revert to the control of the voters. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator Merrill for the committee.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move HB 181 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill would provide that the charter of a city, town, or school district that was established by the General Court and which does not have a local amendment process would revert to governance by the provisions of RSA 49-B.

In the fall of 2009, a legislatively created commission was appointed and later recommended that a Concord School District charter commission be elected to develop and recommend a procedure to revise, amend, or replace the Concord School District charter. HB 1497 of the 2010 session details that history.

This charter commission, elected locally, has met frequently since that time and has made its recommendations for an amendment process and submitted its preliminary report to the AG with a final report expected before the end of June. The question of accepting the charter commission's recommended amendment procedure will be put to the voters of Concord in November of 2011.

HB 181 adds confusion to a local approval process that is almost complete. If passed, the bill would nullify the efforts accomplished to date by the charter commission. In addition, no other municipalities appeared before the Committee in support of the bill, nor is there evidence that this bill is needed by other communities.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee therefore recommends HB 181 Inexpedient to Legislate and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

HB 358, relative to the maintenance, repair, and preservation of burial grounds. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Forrester for the committee.

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 358 Ought to Pass. This bill amends RSA 289 to use existing mechanisms to establish a procedure for volunteer maintenance of private burial grounds.

Current law makes it cumbersome and difficult for a municipality to declare a private burial ground abandoned and be able to undertake its maintenance. The volunteer or organization interested in caring for the burial ground must petition the municipality for permission to clean, maintain, restore, and preserve the burial ground at its own expense. Written permission must be received from the owner of the land over which these volunteers desire to pass. The work must be completed and the right of way restored if it is disturbed. The bill provides protection from any civil liability for the landowner and the municipality.

The New Hampshire Graveyard Association, the New Hampshire Preservation Alliance, and the Division of Historical Resources all worked together to develop language for the bill.

The Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 358 be adopted and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 411, relative to distributing campaign materials at the polling place. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise on behalf of the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee to move House Bill 411 Inexpedient to Legislate. The bill proposed to allow moderators at polling areas to alter the corridor when people are coming to vote. Moderators told us there was no problem; they saw no reason to change the law. So, we agreed with them. So, the Public and Municipal Affairs Committee recommends House Bill 411 be found Inexpedient to Legislate and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

HB 466-FN, eliminating the ballot law commission. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Barnes for the committee.

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 466 be Re-referred to committee. It was a unanimous vote of the Committee, and I appreciate your support.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

TRANSPORTATION

HB 134, relative to eligibility for walking disability plates. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 134 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill authorized the Director of the Division of Motor Vehicles to exempt persons with permanent disabilities from having to resubmit proof of eligibility for walking disability plates every five years.

In voting on this bill, the Committee was extremely sensitive to the concerns of our United States Military veterans. The Committee specifically heard from one United States Military veteran who explained this bill would mean further abuse of placards and further inaccessibility to handicapped parking, therefore having a negative impact on disabled veterans.

The Committee respects the intent of the bill, but it was made clear the five-year renewal process was not burdensome on our permanently disabled citizens, as they can be done by mail.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

Amendment to HB 335-FN-A

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Intent.

1. The general court wishes to avoid the proliferation of specialty number plates that has become prevalent in some states and to reaffirm that the primary purposes of number plates on vehicles are to provide a ready means of identification of vehicles and their owners and to provide revenues for the state's highway fund. The general court recognizes the value of number plates for law enforcement and crime prevention purposes and that they are used by police officers, victims of crimes, and witnesses to crimes to establish the identity of perpetrators and to clear innocent persons of accusations. It is therefore important that number plates be legible and easily recognizable from a distance and that the number of plate types be limited sufficiently to avoid duplication of numbering schemes and to make the plates easily recognizable as to the state or province that issues them and as to the unique plate type.

II. The general court further recognizes the issuance of license plates and the fees collected from number plate issuance as a valuable source of user-based revenue for the highway fund and the importance of number plates as a ready indication that a vehicle is properly licensed and has paid the appropriate fee.

III. The general court declares that, although not the primary purpose of number plates, they can be a source of pride, such as indicating prior military service or affiliation with a nonprofit or charitable organization, but in consideration of New Hampshire's rich and diverse social fabric they should not be used as tools to promote specific religious or political beliefs or to advertise businesses, and should not contain designs that reasonable persons would find offensive to good taste.

IV. The general court declares its intent to limit the future issuance of specialty number plates by establishing multi-use plates with a consistent and unique numbering scheme and appearance and that future proposals to establish specialty number plates shall conform to the provisions of this act.

2 New Chapter; Multi-Use Plates. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 261-A the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 261-B

MULTI-USE PLATES

261-B:1 Multi-Use Plates Authorized.

I. The department shall issue multi-use plates upon receipt of an application meeting the requirements of RSA 261-B:3. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, multi-use plates shall have the same effect and be issued in the same manner as other number plates. Multi-use number plates shall include a design submitted by the applicant and approved by the director and shall bear a registration number beginning with a letter of the alphabet designated by the director for the applicant. Multi-use number plates shall retain the "live free or die" logo. The department shall not issue vanity multi-use plates.

II. The director shall review all designs submitted to ensure that the design meets the requirements of this chapter and is not capable of an obscene interpretation nor a design which a reasonable person would find offensive to contemporary community standards of good taste. The director shall deny the use of any design that does not meet these criteria.

261-B:2 Eligibility.

I. The department shall only accept an application for multi-use plates from an agency of the state of New Hampshire or an entity that is determined by the Internal Revenue Service to be a tax exempt organization pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and registered with the attorney general.

II. The department shall not approve applications for multi-use plates from religious organizations, political parties, or political advocacy groups, or as advertisements for businesses.

III. The department shall approve the following multi-use plate types:

(a) Number plates supporting New Hampshire public higher education which incorporate the mascots or logos of the university of New Hampshire, Plymouth state university, Keene state college, and the community college system of New Hampshire.

(b) Number plates bearing the insignia of the branch of military service in which the registered owner of the vehicle has honorably served or is serving, upon presentation of satisfactory proof of such affiliation.

(c) Number plates bearing appropriate insignia for vehicles owned by certified firefighters or licensed emergency medical technicians upon presentation of satisfactory proof of such affiliation in good standing. In such cases the portion of the fees payable to the applicant under RSA 261-B:4, I(b) shall be paid to the fire standards and training and emergency medical services fund established in RSA 21-P:12-d.

(d) Number plates bearing the insignia of the Boston Red Sox, with the portion of the fees payable to the applicant under RSA 261-B:4, I(b) paid to the Children's Hospital at Dartmouth.

(e) Number plates bearing the insignia of other New Hampshire or New England professional sports teams with the fees payable to the applicant under RSA 261-B:4, I(b) paid an appropriate registered charitable organization supported by the team, approved by the director.

(f) Such other plates as the director from time to time may approve for issuance provided they meet the criteria in this chapter.

261-B:3 Application.

I. An application for multi-use plates shall provide:

(a) Verification of the applicant's eligibility under RSA 261-B:2.

(b) A proposed design to be placed on the applicant's plate series, which shall occupy an area no more than 3 inches wide by 4 inches high on the plate surface.

(c) The owner's name, date of birth, and vehicle registration information for at least 1,000 vehicles which will be issued the initial multi-use plates in the applicant's plate series.

(d) Forty dollars for each vehicle listed pursuant to subparagraph (c).

II. After successful submission of the application information under paragraph I and review of the design under RSA 261-B:1, the applicant shall verify annually the applicant's continuing eligibility. Failure to verify eligibility shall result in the termination of the applicant's multi-use plate series.

261-B:4 Issuance and Renewal; Fees.

I.(a) The fee for multi-use number plates shall be $40 per year per set, which shall be in addition to any other registration and number plate fees. Plates issued for vehicles listed by the applicant under RSA 261-B:3, I(c) shall be exempt from this fee for the first year.

(b) The department shall retain from fees collected under this chapter an amount as is necessary to recover production and administrative costs as approved by the fiscal committee of the general court. The remaining funds shall be paid to the state treasurer, who shall pay 60 percent of such funds to the applicant entity and 40 percent to the highway fund.

II. Multi-use plates may be issued at any time during the registration period; however, there shall be no proration of the multi-use plate fees.

III. Multi-use plates shall only be issued by the division and shall not be available from municipal agents or other agents of the division.

IV. Multi-use plates may be used on passenger motor vehicles and self-propelled recreation vehicles.

V. If the annual subscription to any multi-use plate series falls below 750 vehicles, the director may terminate the issuance of new plates for that series. If the annual subscription to any multi-use plate series falls below 500 vehicles, the director shall terminate that series.

3 Prospective Repeal. RSA 261-B, relative to multi-use plates, is repealed.

4 Effective Date.

I. Section 3 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2015.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

Sen. Forsythe moved to Lay on the Table HB 335-FN-A. Adopted.

HB 347, exempting from nondisclosure the records of accidents involving and violations by county, city, and town employees and officials. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 3-0. Senator Kelly for the committee.

Amendment to HB 347

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Motor Vehicle Records; Disclosure Required. Amend RSA 260:14, II-a to read as follows:

II-a. The accident report, the technical accident reconstruction report, any repair estimate, or any similar document that constitutes a motor vehicle record that is created or received as a result of any accident or collision involving a ~~[state-owned or state-leased]~~ vehicle owned or leased by the state, a county, a city, a town, or a local public entity shall be a governmental record subject to inspection and disclosure in accordance with RSA 91-A except when inspection or disclosure would risk exposure of undercover law enforcement activity. Any report of a violation of this title by an employee or official of a county, a city, a town, or a local public entity while engaged in official business in a vehicle owned or leased by the state, a county, a city, a town, or a local public entity shall be a governmental record subject to inspection and disclosure in accordance with RSA 91-A.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 347 Ought to Pass as Amended. This bill exempts from nondisclosure the records of vehicle accidents or collisions involving a vehicle owned or leased by the State, a county, a city, a town, or a local public entity. The intent of this bill was to give state, county, and municipal government added transparency.

The Committee amended the bill to exempt undercover officers working in their official law enforcement capacity, as the Committee felt it was important not to compromise their safety or their investigation.

The Transportation Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 374, banning corn-based ethanol as an additive to gasoline sold in New Hampshire. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator Boutin for the committee.

SENATOR BOUTIN: Yes, Mister President. Thank you. I rise on behalf of the Transportation Committee to move House Bill 374 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill would have required the banning of ethanol – corn-based ethanol – which is used in our gasoline.

We heard from a number of New Hampshire bio-fuel industry representatives that they are on the cusp of coming up with commercialized alternatives to ethanol. We also heard that if we did do this that we would have to get what is called “boutique gasoline” and it would cost the consumers a lot more than what might be saved.

So, I ask my fellow Senate colleagues to join the Transportation Committee in support of the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

Sen. Sanborn is in opposition to the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate on HB 374.

WAYS AND MEANS

HB 209, establishing a study committee to recommend a continuing revenue estimating process to produce revenue forecasts. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-0. Senator Morse for the committee.

SENATOR MORSE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 209 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill sought to establish a study committee to recommend a continuing revenue estimating process. The Legislature already does many of the tasks outlined in this bill. The revenue forecasting done by the Legislature has been quite accurate – except for this year.

The Ways and Means Committee feels the bill is unnecessary. The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

HB 579, exempting department of revenue administration guidelines from the right-to-know law. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator D’Allesandro for the committee.

Amendment to HB 579

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT exempting department of revenue administration guidelines from the right-to-know law and relative to the position of revenue counsel.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 3 the following and renumbering the original section 4 to read as 5:

4 Revenue Counsel. Amend RSA 21-J:6-b, II to read as follows:

II. The commissioner shall appoint the position of revenue counsel who shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner.

2011-1583s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the confidentiality of department of revenue administration records for the purposes of performance audits conducted by the legislative budget assistant and RSA 91-A.

This bill also clarifies that the position of revenue counsel shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner of the department of revenue administration.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 579 Ought to Pass with Amendment. This bill clarifies the confidentiality of records at the Department of Revenue Administration for the purpose of performing audits conducted by the Legislative Budget Assistant in RSA 91-A.

This came about as a result of the inability of the LBA to complete an audit of the DRA. There was a conflict over the LBA's ability to obtain certain documents from the DRA and the DRA's need to comply with confidentiality statutes. The language in this bill is needed in order for the DRA to be able to comply with performance audits without violating confidentiality laws. All of the parties involved worked together to craft this solution.

The committee amendment was at the request of the DRA and makes the position of revenue counsel one that serves at the pleasure of the Commissioner. This was done to provide accountability by establishing a clear method for removal, which is now lacking. The position is currently vacant, and the DRA is looking to fill it under these new parameters.

The Ways and Means Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass with Amendment. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Recess. Out of recess.

PRESIDENT BRAGDON: I will announce that HB 131 will not be going to Finance. It's currently in the Judiciary Committee; it will not be going to Finance, thus does not need to come out before tomorrow.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forrester.)

SENATOR FORRESTER: Thank you, Mister President. I'd like to let the Senators know that on June 5th at 2:00 in Meredith there will be a ribbon-cutting for Johnson Bay, and I invite all the Senators to attend. I also want to thank all of you for the vote on Senate Bill 85, which passed out of the Senate 24-0. I'd also like to thank all those Senators who made a contribution to the fund for the sign. Directions and more detail about the event will be forthcoming, and I invite everyone to attend.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro to speak.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mr. President, I'd like to take a point of personal privilege if I might, please.

Some of you may have seen today's Manchester Union Leader, on the obituary page: Colonel Paul Doyon has passed away.

Colonel Doyon was the leader of our State Police for a number of years, and really a tremendous story in that he was a Manchester police officer, then became a Trooper, rose from Trooper to Colonel of State Police. Those of you that knew Paul Doyon know that he was really the epitome of a Trooper: standing tall and representing us in, I think, great fashion. Paul was an avid fisherman, an avid hunter. He and Representative Bill Boucher, many, many times, went hunting and fishing together.

Paul was 83 years of age; as I said, had a distinguished career as a public servant, as a Trooper in law enforcement. And, I befriended Paul early on, actually, when he became Colonel. And, just a really, really good human being. And, as I said, kind of the epitome of a State Trooper. If you knew Paul, he was tall, he was strong. He really, he filled that uniform well, Colonel; he filled it well, as only an 0300 ground pounder could do it. And, quality, quality guy, and I know the Senate expresses its deep sympathy to the family. And, I must say, I think he's the second Colonel that's passed away in my lifetime; Colonel Reardon was the first, and Colonel Doyon is the second. Thank you, Mister President.

Without objection President Bragdon moved that all Rule 2-17's shall be entered into the permanent Journal of the Senate.

MOTION TO RECESS TO CALL OF THE CHAIR

Sen. Bradley moved that the business of the day being completed, that the Senate recess to the Call of the Chair for the purposes of introducing legislation, referring bills to committee, scheduling hearings, sending and receiving messages, and processing enrolled bill reports and amendments and when we recess, we recess to the Call of the Chair.

Adopted. The Senate is in recess to the Call of the Chair.

May 11, 2011

The Senate reconvened at 10 a.m., a quorum being present.

The Reverend Jason Wells, guest chaplain to the Senate, offered the following meditation and prayer.

Even though the parable of the Good Samaritan is a Christian story, it has achieved meaning for people of all faiths and of no faith. You know the story of the traveler who was attacked and beaten along the road. A priest and a Levite passed him by, offering no help, and then a Samaritan came by to sacrifice his time, his energy, and his money to save the man's life. By ignoring the man, the first two passersby did nothing to violate the man's rights; they were totally intact. They did nothing to spend money; they did nothing against the law or unconstitutional. Clearly, they did nothing. But yet, we find ourselves bid to not look at that example that would say that our moral and spiritual responsibilities simply belong back in the temples, back on sacred ground. And, we are bid to wear the Samaritan's shoes in the story. We are asked to seek out, as he did, the places where, out on the public roads and public streets, out in secular ground, we should take the responsibility to pay the cost for the sake of others. And, in doing so, we show the golden rule to all people: to believers and unbelievers alike, in all places. Let us pray:

Heavenly Father, take every aspect of our lives: our work, our family, our politics, and our personal lives, and unite them all together under Your gracious and loving and merciful will. Amen.

Sen. De Blois led the Pledge of Allegiance.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. On the Senate floor we have Representative Jeanine Notter with us today. Jeanine is from Merrimack; she is in her first term as a House member. She was here about a month ago, if you recall, for the Gibson Family, when we dedicated a bridge in their son's name. She wants to come to the Senate frequently because I think she's trying to get comfortable; has her eyes on seat number nine right here. And so, that's always a good thing. But, she's here for a bill that's very important to her later on our schedule, and so I asked her to be my guest here in the Senate. So, thank you, Jeanine; stand up please.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Stiles.)

SENATOR STILES: I believe they're in the balcony...Yes, they are. I thought I'd check this time. I'm pleased to introduce Jennie Rowntree, Meg Ortega, and Leah Willingham, and their counselor is Rachel Green. They belong to Girls Rock; it's a legislative internship that is designed to immerse teens in the Democratic process, promote leadership and teambuilding skills, and to provide a forum to discuss ideas and issues that are important to New Hampshire residents. These interns have the opportunity to experience the parliamentary process and action and participate in committee discussions. The interns experience how this dynamic process shapes the direction of life for New Hampshire residents in the coming years. And, I am excited to have them with us today, and they will be following me around this afternoon. So, if you girls would stand? Welcome to the Senate.

Without objection, President Bragdon authorized Senator Luther to use electronic devices on the floor of the Senate.

FINANCE REPORT

Sen. Morse announces the following bills will not come to Finance: HB 205-FN, HB 210-FN, HB 225-FN, HB 276-FN, HB 299-FN, HB 330-FN, HB 378-FN, HB 442-FN, HB 468-FN, HB 479-FN, HB 487-FN, HB 634-FN.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

COMMERCE

HB 276-FN, relative to wine manufacturers. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator De Blois for the committee.

Sen. De Blois moved to Recommit to Committee HB 276-FN. Adopted.

HB 291, relative to permissible fireworks. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Prescott for the committee.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 291 Ought to Pass. It defines permissible fireworks as consumer fireworks with certain limited exceptions and revises the membership and duties of the permissible fireworks review committee.

The Committee received testimony stating that in recent years the list of permissible fireworks has grown out of control at almost 3,000 items. The state fire marshal testified that this bill will make it easier for the State to regulate fireworks in New Hampshire.

Please join the unanimous Commerce Committee's vote of Ought to Pass. Thank you very much, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 317, relative to fire warning devices and carbon monoxide detection devices in dwellings. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator De Blois for the committee.

SENATOR DE BLOIS: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 317 Ought to Pass. This bill revises the type and location requirements for automatic fire warning devices and carbon monoxide detection devices in dwellings. House Bill 317 makes it clear that carbon monoxide detection devices are not required in dwellings that have no possibility of producing carbon monoxide.

Please join the unanimous vote in the Commerce Committee of Ought to Pass on House Bill 317. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 605, authorizing the business finance authority to establish a New Hampshire innovation business job growth program. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

Amendment to HB 605

Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 162-A:13-d, III as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. Upon approval by the authority's board of directors, the authority may apply funds maintained in the New Hampshire innovation business job growth fund to provide guarantees of the principal of investments in qualified venture capital funds and to invest directly in qualified venture capital funds that by contract agree to invest such principal in New Hampshire within 60 months of the receipt of the guarantees. The authority's board of directors shall approve such application of funds after making all of the following findings:

Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 162-A:13-d, IV as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV. Qualified venture capital funds are those funds that have by contract with the authority's board of directors agreed to invest, no later than 60 months after the execution of the guarantee or investment, the amount of the guaranteed or invested principal in businesses whose primary operations are located in New Hampshire and that, in opinion of the board:

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 605 Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 605 as amended by the Committee authorizes the business finance authority to establish a New Hampshire innovation business job growth program, the purpose of which shall be to provide investment in venture capital funds that evidence a commitment to providing venture capital to New Hampshire businesses. The committee amendment allows for direct investment in qualified venture capital funds that, by contract, agree to invest such principle in New Hampshire within 60 months.

As was stated during the public hearing, this legislation leverages private financing, it is targeted appropriately, it is efficient and easy to use, and it fills a current gap in available financing. As New Hampshire is posting one of the lowest levels of venture capital investments in America, it is our hope that this legislation will make New Hampshire a more attractive place for investors to come to and operate in.

Please join the Commerce Committee and vote Ought to Pass with Amendment on House Bill 605. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted. Sen. Sanborn asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 605.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

Sen. Sanborn asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 605.

Amendment to HB 617

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT establishing a committee to study the consequences of repealing the prohibition on Sunday business activities.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study the consequences of repealing the prohibition on Sunday business activities.

2 Membership and Compensation.

I. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Two members of the senate, appointed by the president of the senate.

(b) Three members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives.

II. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties. The committee shall study the consequences of repealing RSA 332-D, relative to prohibitions on Sunday business activities. The committee shall solicit testimony from any individual or group with information relevant to the committee's study.

4 Chairperson; Quorum. The members of the study committee shall elect a chairperson from among the members. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named senate member. The first meeting of the committee shall be held within 45 days of the effective date of this section. Three members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

5 Report. The committee shall report its findings and any recommendations for proposed legislation to the senate president, the speaker of the house of representatives, the senate clerk, the house clerk, the governor, and the state library on or before November 1, 2011.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study the consequences of repealing the prohibition on Sunday business activities.

Sen. De Blois moved to Lay on the Table HB 617. Adopted.

EDUCATION

HB 290, relative to staffing exceptions for small schools. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-1. Senator Carson for the committee.

SENATOR CARSON: Good morning, Mister President. I move House Bill 290 Inexpedient to Legislate. This legislation establishes a definition of a small school and implements a procedure for such schools to petition the Department of Education for approval of an alternative staffing plan. This bill would put into statute a procedure which already exists and could limit the flexibility of school districts.

Therefore, the Education Committee recommends that House Bill 290 be Inexpedient to Legislate and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of House Bill 290. I think it was something that allowed for small schools to have a different staffing that fits within their needs and yet still provides a good education system to the children. And, I urge the sponsors to try to address any concerns in this legislation to bring it forward in future years if this fails. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

Sens. Forsythe, Groen, and Sanborn, are in opposition to the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate on HB 290.

ENERGY AND NATURAL RESOURCES

HB 205-FN, relative to notice to owners of upstream dams. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator Gallus for the committee.

03/05

Amendment to HB 205-FN

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Board's Procedure on Plats; Notice to Upstream Dam Owners. Amend RSA 676:4, I(d) to read as follows:

(d)(1) Notice to the applicant, holders of conservation, preservation, or agricultural preservation restrictions, abutters, [~~upstream dam owners, the department of environmental services dam bureau,~~] and the public shall be given as follows: The planning board shall notify the abutters, the applicant, holders of conservation, preservation, or agricultural preservation restrictions, and every engineer, architect, land surveyor, or soil scientist whose professional seal appears on any plat submitted to the board by certified mail of the date upon which the application will be formally submitted to the board. [~~For those proposals near rivers and streams and downstream of a dam, the planning board shall also notify the owners of the upstream dam and the department of environmental services dam bureau by certified mail.~~] Notice shall be mailed at least 10 days prior to submission. Notice to the general public shall also be given at the same time by posting or publication as required by the subdivision regulations. The notice shall include a general description of the proposal which is the subject of the application and shall identify the applicant and the location of the proposal. For any public hearing on the application, the same notice as required for notice of submission of the application shall be given. If notice of public hearing has been included in the notice of submission or any prior notice, additional notice of that hearing is not required nor shall additional notice be required of an adjourned session of a hearing with proper notice if the date, time, and place of the adjourned session was made known at the prior hearing. All costs of notice, whether mailed, posted, or published, shall be paid in advance by the applicant. Failure to pay such costs shall constitute valid grounds for the planning board to terminate further consideration and to disapprove the plat without a public hearing.

(2) For those proposals in which any structure or proposed building site will be within 500 feet of the top of the bank of any lake, pond, river, or stream, the planning board shall also notify the department of environmental services by first class mail at the same time that notice is provided to abutters, cost to be paid in advance by the applicant consistent with subparagraph (d)(1). The sole purpose of notification to the department shall be to provide information to the department for dam hazard classification. This requirement shall not confer upon the department the status of an abutter. Failure by the municipality to notify the department shall not be considered a defect of notice.

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 205-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 205 eliminates requirements that planning board applicants identify and planning boards notify upstream dam owners. The amendment was worked on between the planners association and the Department of Environmental Services to further simplify the notification process by better defining when, how, and who needs to be notified.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment on House Bill 205-FN. And, I thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted.

03/04

Amendment to HB 468-FN

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Payment for Freshwater and Tidal Wetlands Losses. Amend RSA 482-A:30, III to read as follows:

III. An administrative assessment which equals [20] 10 percent of the sum of paragraphs I and II.

2 Payment for Freshwater and Tidal Wetlands Losses. Amend RSA 482-A:30, III to read as follows:

III. An administrative assessment which equals [10] 20 percent of the sum of paragraphs I and II.

3 Payment for Stream or Shoreline Losses. Amend RSA 482-A:30-a, II to read as follows:

II. An administrative assessment equal to [20] 10 percent of the amount in paragraph I.

4 Payment for Stream or Shoreline Losses. Amend RSA 482-A:30-a, II to read as follows:

II. An administrative assessment equal to ~~[10]~~ 20 percent of the amount in paragraph I.

5 Rulemaking. Amend RSA 482-A:31, II to read as follows:

II. The method of calculating the amount of in lieu payments under RSA 482-A:30 and RSA 482-A:30-a which shall approximate the total cost of wetlands construction, stream and river construction, or such other mitigation actions as would have been required by the department and incurred by the applicant in the absence of making such payments. An administrative assessment of ~~[20]~~ 10 percent of the total cost shall be added as part of the calculation method.

6 Rulemaking. Amend RSA 482-A:31, II to read as follows:

II. The method of calculating the amount of in lieu payments under RSA 482-A:30 and RSA 482-A:30-a which shall approximate the total cost of wetlands construction, stream and river construction, or such other mitigation actions as would have been required by the department and incurred by the applicant in the absence of making such payments. An administrative assessment of ~~[10]~~ 20 percent of the total cost shall be added as part of the calculation method.

7 Repeal. 2010, 16:3, 16:5, and 16:7, relative to administrative assessments, are repealed.

8 Effective Date.

I. Sections 2, 4, and 6 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2015.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 2011.

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 468 Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 468 amends RSA 482-A:30 regarding the aquatic resource mitigation program, or ARM, in which developers can pay money into the ARM fund to be used for mitigation projects outside the area impacted by the developer's project.

The bill as amended reduces the administrative assessment paid by developers from 20 percent of construction costs plus the value of impacted land to 10 percent, but returns the administrative assessment to 20 percent after July 1, 2015 in order to give the Department of Environmental Services certainty in anticipation of an improving economy.

Please join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass with Amendment on House Bill 468. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 519-FN, repealing New Hampshire's regional greenhouse gas initiative cap and trade program for controlling carbon dioxide emissions. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-2. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 519 be found Inexpedient to Legislate. House Bill 519 would remove New Hampshire's participation in the regional greenhouse gas initiative, which is the first market-based carbon reduction effort in the nation.

RGGI has a lot to do with climate change and CO2, but I want to talk about the most important thing to me, and that's jobs. If you take a look at my website, which I haven't really updated from the campaign, the number one issue I ran on is jobs. So, jobs are important to me. And so, when I look out there, I don't see the State creating it, I don't see government creating it; I see small businesses creating it, and in my District, retail merchants. If you go down the Tewksbury line all the way up to Main Street, what have you got? You've got retail merchants in the Pheasant Lane Mall all the way up the strip. So, the Retail Merchants Association came to me and showed me a list of all their members, and it's the "who's who" of who's in Nashua. What do they want? They want RGGI. Why do they want it? It's good for business. It's good for energy efficiency, it's good for business, and that means it's good for jobs.

Now, if that wasn't enough for me, I opened up the paper one day to find a full-page ad of over 140 small businesses who have asked this Senate to keep RGGI. That was the "wake up and smell the coffee" moment for me, because I've only been up here since December, but I had paid attention to politics before here. But, I don't recall that many businesses taking out a full-page ad in the newspaper to ask the Senate to do something for them. And, they did. So, like I say, that was the "Aha!" moment for me.

Now, if jobs wasn't enough – because, retail merchants in my District: they're the ones creating the jobs. We've got BAE, but basically I've got a bunch of stores that sell things to people that come across from Massachusetts to buy things in tax-free New Hampshire. Now, if jobs wasn't enough, the economics of this whole thing should sell everyone on it. For example, if we repeal RGGI, it's a lose-lose situation. I mean, I'm a Marine, but I can do the math on this. If we stay in RGGI, we're going to get $12 million in auction proceeds. If we get out of RGGI, we're going to have to pay $5.6 million – $6 million. It's just simple math; 12 minus 6 equal $6 million. Now, I could see if that's all we're going to get – and this is all uncontroverted fact. If that's all, that'd be fine. But, as I understand it – uncontroverted fact – each dollar of RGGI funds invested in energy efficiency results in $3.42 in direct savings in energy efficiency. So, we're tripling that $6 million.

All right, once again, uncontroverted fact: UNH study – I've got it right here – everybody on the Committee got it, and hopefully they didn't spend a lot of money making the fancy pictures and all, but the details in here and the facts in here are real good. And, the good is, we will save more than $60 million due to energy efficiency programs due to RGGI; $60 million, especially when the State is facing the budget shortfalls that it is. Just in the first two years of this program – it's only been around since 2008 – $31 million in RGGI auction proceeds to the State to fund energy efficiency projects.

Back to jobs – once again, my number one priority – the reason why I came up here and what I told all the constituents, all the voters, my number one priority was. Ten-state pact – RGGI's part of that ten-state pact. So, we're going to bail out. What does that show all those clean energy efficient manufacturers out there and companies out there? Come to New Hampshire? I don't think so. They're going to create jobs if they come. Repealing RGGI's going to eliminate that.

All right, enough about jobs, enough about economy, even though I think that's the most important party. Let's face it, RGGI is about climate change. Okay, so I've got a double major in chemistry and biology, I've got an interest in climate change, I'm also a deer hunter, active outdoorsman, as you are as well, Senator Bradley, I know. But, I've seen climate change; you don't have to tell me. I don't care what the science... You can say whatever you want; there's climate change. I believe it scientifically; I believe it practically. And, better yet, Senator Barnes, Senator Carson, Senator De Blois, you'll be interested to learn this, but where I learned the most about climate change was the Army War College, where I got sent down for the Marine Corps to get a Master's in strategy, because they're big on climate change and learning all about it. And, here's what DOD – the Department of Defense – says about climate change in their quadrennial defense review:

"Climate change will shape the operating environment roles and missions. Although they produce distinct types of challenges, climate change, energy security, and economic stability are inextricably linked. Climate change may act as an accelerant of instability or conflict." So, look, I'm a Marine: I pay attention to my boss; that's the Department of Defense.

C02 emissions: I don't want to get into the science on that; I know we can go either way. Once again, hey, look, I'm a patent attorney; I deal with science and engineering every day; I'm not going to argue the C02 effects with you. If you're not with me, you're not with me. The American Chemical Society says C02 is a greenhouse gas; it doesn't help, it accelerates climate change. That's enough for me.

Okay, look. Criticisms of RGGI: China and India. People say: "China and India; for every year we work in RGGI, China can ruin that in a day." I say, So what? Since when does China and India dictate what we do? Hey, once again, the Marine in me, you walk the point, you're out in front. We're the lead; we should be the lead on this. We don't listen to China and India. We're the best country in the world and we'll decide what's best, and we're certainly not going to go by what they do to dictate our policy, here.

The other argument I hear is "big government". Well, we just voted 24-0 – what was it, a week ago? Two weeks ago? – to keep the bullying law in effect. Bullying: important. More important than energy? So, big government... A 24-0 vote. We let big government get involved in the schoolyard situation. And, now the argument is: "Don't let government get into helping our environment."

All right, the next thing I hear: "It's a tax." Well, I looked all through RGGI; don't see anything about a tax. You can call it a tax; we called something here a "tuition" not too long ago. All right, you can call it tax, whatever you want to call it. But, here's the deal: Even if you want to call it a tax, it's $0.36 a month on the average taxpayer. So, I understand – I've got constituents in my District, and there's some really downtrodden poor people in my District in urban Nashua. So, maybe $0.30 is a lot to them, and I'm sure it is. But, for all those folks going through Dunkin' Donuts: Don't buy a coffee for four months and help the environment. That's what I'm asking you to do.

The other argument I get is: "Let's do something else. Let's not do RGGI; let's do this, let's provide an incentive." Oh, yeah? Well, I don't see something up here. We've got another month to go, maybe, for the session. I haven't seen anything else. This is it; RGGI's it.

All right, so I'm going to conclude. RGGI's not perfect. I understand there's going to be an amendment; I actually like the amendment. Hopefully that'll work. But, a RGGI is better than no RGGI, and I'm here to tell you that RGGI's the best way to go. So, I'm going to ask you to join the Energy and Natural Resources Committee's recommendation, the Department of Environmental Services' recommendation, the Department of Resources and Economic Development's recommendation, the Retail Merchants Association, and over 140 small businesses, including some of our major employers: EMS, Timberland, Smuttynose Brewery, to vote ITL. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes for a question of Sen. Lambert.)

SENATOR BARNES: Senator Lambert, I've been up here 20-some years. And, would you believe that you have the record for the longest blurb in the history of this Senate over the last 20 years?

SENATOR LAMBERT: Well, Senator Barnes, thank you, because, as you know, I normally don't say much.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I do appreciate the remarks of my esteemed colleague, who is also my roommate downstairs. And, he doesn't say much, and unfortunately, when he did say a lot, he was wrong. So, I guess what I'm going to do is I'm going to try to controvert some of his incontrovertible facts.

The fact of the matter is that the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative, which we will call "RGGI" going forward, has collected about $1 billion from ratepayers. And, that's a lot of money over those ten states that are throughout the Mid-Atlantic and the Northeast. In fact, New Hampshire's share of that is close to $30 million. And, I would argue that when you take $30 million out of the economy and redistribute it that it is not good for business and jobs; it may be good for business and jobs that are on the receiving end of that redistribution, but there's plenty of companies who aren't on the receiving end.

The State of Pennsylvania understood the hazards of RGGI when they decided not to get involved in it; they had their opportunity and didn't. And, now that we're discussing possibly exiting it, we find that other states around us such as New Jersey, Delaware, and Maine, are starting to think the same thought. The fact of the matter is that they see this as a wealth redistribution type of situation and they're second-guessing their decisions.

I believe that when government uses tax dollars to stimulate job growth, it's basically just people who are producing wealth in an honest fashion: going out, doing hard work; they're picking winners and losers. I have tried, as a member of the Commerce Committee, to avoid picking winners and losers at all costs. We have bill after bill in Commerce where businesses will face off against each other, ask us to make a decision, and in the Commerce Committee, we've tried to avoid that like the plague. I see RGGI as going down the same path. I don't like trying to pick winners and losers.

I also have grave concerns that were brought to me by one of my Merimack Reps, Dick Barry, who's on the Finance Committee in the House. He was an original sponsor and creator of RGGI, and now he is leading the charge to repeal it. And, a quote he said to me has stuck in my ears for the months that we have talked about this when he said: "If I had known this thing was going to go off the rails the way it has, I never would have gotten involved in it." And, what he means by that is basically we have a politically-motivated board making politically-motivated decisions about who gets what, and that's just a bad setup.

So, Mister President, I'll be voting to go against the ITL recommendation. I want to kill this thing; I want to drive a stake through it. I feel strongly about it, and I'd urge my Senate colleagues to feel the same way. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Yes, thank you, Mister President. Standing up there, looking very attentive, future Senators and State Representatives and maybe a Governor, these young folks are from the great Town of Danville. And, it's a fourth grade class, and there's another group coming in behind them, I understand. So, there are two groups coming in. So, we want to welcome you young folks. Did you hear that discussion? Wasn't that interesting? You wouldn't have heard that in school. And, you were here when a record was made, so that's pretty fantastic. So, welcome, Danville.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Merrill.)

SENATOR MERRILL: Thank you, Mister President. And, first, I will say that the Army War College must do a very good job, because I only attended for a one-week seminar and I've come to the same conclusion as Senator Lambert.

I rise in support of the ITL motion on SB 519. And, I do so because I believe that RGGI has been helping us here in New Hampshire to forward the goals of reducing CO2 emissions and encouraging energy efficiency, while at the same time lowering energy costs for residents, businesses, and municipalities.

Through RGGI, we're working toward a goal of 80 percent reduction in greenhouse gas emissions by the year 2050, a goal set by the state climate task force. Now, some doubt climate change, or that CO2 emissions are a bad thing that we need to worry about. And, I won't review the data here, either. But, I will say that there is, in fact, a long list of scientific organizations, including the American Meteorological Society, the Chemical Society, the National Research Council, which have recognized the current and potential effects of climate change. And, Senator Lambert did mention the Chemical Society's stance, and I would quote from their recent policy statement:

"Comprehensive scientific assessments of our current and potential future climates clearly indicate that climate change is real, largely attributable to emissions from human activities, and potentially a very serious problem."

And, the Department of Defense and other organizations have voiced concern about the relationship between climate change, energy dependence, and national security. The CIA has recently started its own center on climate change and national security.

RGGI also contributes to the goal of increased energy efficiency use and saves money for energy users. The megawatt – or, a saved megawatt – is the cheapest form of energy out there, and it has zero emissions. Funding from RGGI auction proceeds are helping New Hampshire get on a path of greater reliance on energy efficiency and a sustainable energy policy.

Some have argued that if energy efficiency is such a good investment then everyone should be doing it and not need government assistance in doing that. But, not everybody has the means to make even the small up-front investments that will lead to savings in energy costs.

Recently, this Senate reconfirmed its commitment to workforce housing. And, I think it's important to point out that two recent RGGI grants are ones that will lower energy costs for those most in need of those reductions.

The New Hampshire Finance Authority has a program in which they do detailed energy analysis and upgrades in low-income housing units, and the New Hampshire Community Loan Fund Program is helping manufactured home owners with important energy efficiency improvements, including replacements of energy-leaking roofs. This improvement is expected to save $614 a year per home.

We all know that municipalities and school districts are facing more difficulty than ever in meeting their budget needs, and through the Municipal Energy Assistance, the New Hampshire Energy Smart Schools, and other programs, RGGI is helping our towns reduce energy use and see savings that can be passed on to taxpayers.

The Town of Temple has energy updates that are expected to result in a heating and energy use reduction of $75 to $80,000. The City of Rochester is close to completing an energy upgrade at its wastewater treatment plant that is likely to yield a 30 percent energy use reduction.

And, finally, RGGI is an important tool in supporting the small and large businesses that are vital to our economy here in New Hampshire. The New Hampshire Business Authority has a RGGI-funded program: the business energy conservation revolving fund. One example of a company that I think we've all heard a lot about that has taken advantage of that revolving fund is Foss Manufacturing in Hampton, which has made energy efficiency improvements that saved $65,000 over two months, and Foss is already paying back into the fund so that other businesses can see the same kinds of improvements and cost reductions. And, the program, run by the New Hampshire Retail Merchants, is giving assistance to small businesses with energy efficiency improvements that are tough for them to fit into what are their already tight budgets.

Participation in RGGI costs the average residential customer $0.35 per month. The program is estimated to reduce CO₂ emissions by 13,200 metric tons annually, and energy costs by $4.2 million annually over the two-year initial period of the program. Put another way, every RGGI dollar spent results in over $3 in energy savings.

RGGI is just getting going in New Hampshire, and the advantages are already clear. It doesn't make sense to stop this program in its tracks and to turn our backs on the environmental rewards it offers and the energy and money it saves for our citizens, municipalities, and businesses. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)

SENATOR FORSYTHE: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in – it gets very confusing on this bill, doesn't it? I rise in opposition of the ITL motion and in support of a full repeal with no amendments. While I appreciate all the work that's gone into an amendment that would improve on RGGI, I believe if we improve on it, we're in danger of never repealing it. We need to repeal it, and we need to repeal it now.

This is hardly a market-based program; and I'll try to keep my comments brief in order to curry a little bit of favor, and also, because the arguments against RGGI are very simple and very principled, whereas the arguments for RGGI require a lot of confusing math that is misleading. It's not a market-based approach; anything dictated by the government is hardly a market-based approach. The argument's been made that it creates jobs. However, what you don't see is the hidden man: that $30 million of taxes that Senator White referred to. Where did that come from? What jobs were lost because of that? What energy improvements were made by someone because of that? You do see the obvious costs of the jobs benefit to the people you're giving money to, but you're taking from everyone and giving to a small group of people as opposed to the other way around, and the Constitution has something to say about that. Even if you do believe, as many in here seem to believe, in greenhouse gas being a problem with global warming, even the strongest opponents for this program admit that it will hardly make a dent in the world's greenhouse gas emissions.

In short, I believe New Hampshire has always led the way towards personal freedom and towards free markets, and we should lead the Northeast and get out of RGGI and get out now. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. D'Allesandro.)

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. Mister President, I rise in support of the Inexpedient.

Let me just say this, if I'm going to battle, Senator Lambert, you've got point with my team, okay? I can understand now why general officers get that kind of treatment.

I want to make three points, because I think the Colonel made them very efficiently and very effectively. And, they are these: First of all: jobs. We all came here to find jobs for people who are unemployed. Jobs are a key element. We've got to stick by that. A job gives a person self worth, it provides a positive effect on the economy, makes people feel good, and that's what we're here to do: make our constituents feel better by doing something positive for them.

The second thing: energy efficiency. 80 percent of our people heat with oil in the Northeast. In many instances, our homes are the most inefficiently prepared – the most inefficiently. We don't take good care of the kind of work that we should do in buttoning up those homes to make them efficient. This helps us do this.

And, the third thing is climate change. Climate change is here; we see it. We see it in this country. We see evidence of it on a daily basis. We're witnessing tragedies in the Midwest as we sit here today. Thousands of people are losing their homes; thousands of acres of land are being overrun by the Mississippi River. Climate change: very, very important to all of us. For these reasons, and for the magnificent articulation by the Colonel, I support the premise. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Luther.)

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I first want to say how much respect I have for my colleague; we share Nashua. I do differ on a couple of points. One point that I think has been made over – and, I stand against the ITL; I want to make that clear. I've heard this from many people: $0.35 a month. What is not being said is the cost to business. It's millions of dollars. And, businesses are the ones that create jobs. And, I have heard from many manufacturers and large businesses in this state that they hate RGGI because it is taking jobs away; it is taking money out of their budgets that they cannot expand. And, I agree with Senator Forsythe; I am a market-driven person. And, penalizing versus incentive is not the American way. We should incent for this behavior, not penalize. And, if you look at what the federal government has done with home insulation, that was an incentive program; it was a raving success. People weren't penalized. And, they actually – that was an oversubscribed program. We can do that.

One of the biggest issues that manufacturers and big businesses have in staying in this state or moving to this state is high energy costs; it's one of the top two issues. And, RGGI adds a buffer above that; it makes energy even more expensive. So, I am for jobs, but RGGI is driving jobs out of this state. And so, we – I think we need to look at this carefully. And, manufacturers – this is my last point – manufacturers are the most important component in the economy; they bring back the most money into this state, and they are the ones that are hurting the most by RGGI. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Sanborn.)

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I rise against the ITL for RGGI. I find it a very rare day when I see two of my favorite Senators from Nashua and see that they are split on it, and unfortunately for the Colonel, I'm going to have to side against him this time.

At its core, RGGI is a failed program. And, it's not just because four of the ten states are trying to get out of it because they recognize the fact that the program just isn't working. And, if I can back up, I know, having spoken to virtually every Senator in this room, that we're all exceedingly concerned with our environment. We all are conservationists at heart. That's why my good friend, Senator Bradley, like I, hikes, and Senator Lambert hunts. We hunt, we hike, we fish, we snowmobile. We live in this state because we enjoy everything that there is about it. It's very important to every single Senator, and I'm proud to stand with all of you in wanting to protect our state and make it better in the future than it is today.

Unfortunately, RGGI isn't protecting us. At its core, it's assuming that every single person that lives in this state is guilty, and it penalizes them financially and redistributes the money politically. If we're ever going to truly be good conservationists to the State of New Hampshire and to our country and to our world, we need to begin to reward people for doing the right job, as Senator Luther also expressed. Our ability to conserve and protect our state will only come if everyone participates, and participation, just like leading the horse to water, comes from rewarding people for doing the right thing, not discouraging participation by charging and redistributing.

You know, when RGGI started and was passed in 2008, all we heard about was how it was going to save our environment, how we needed to take people's money and redistribute it. Never heard about jobs – that was never part of the discussion. I'm so old I can barely remember what I had for lunch yesterday, but I think if I go back far enough, I think I was a member of the Retail Merchants Association; and, it's a fine organization that was created and worked to help further the cause of retailers. But, today, the Retail Merchants Association receives millions of dollars as a direct benefit to RGGI. I'm not sure their position is unbiased today.

I urge all of you to, like me, consider saying no on the ITL, repealing RGGI, and let's find a way that we can protect our environment by rewarding those who do good versus penalizing those who do bad. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Larsen.)

SENATOR LARSEN: I rise to support the ITL motion for the regional greenhouse gas initiative repeal. Our good friend from Senate District 9 pointed out that this bill might create winners and losers. And, I say: "Yes, it does, in fact." It creates winners in New Hampshire ratepayers when we know that if we stay in, we gain $12 million; if we get out, it costs us $5.6 million. It creates winners for small businesses when we hear from retail merchants and other retail and small business leaders across the state who have benefitted from this energy efficiency program, that three-year contract that we have with our retail merchants: those are winners in the small business world. It creates winners for New Hampshire homeowners, homeowners who, particularly low-income processes, where we oftentimes spend money for low-interest energy efficiency programs. We can save that money, and it saves homeowners across the state as we put energy-efficient windows into their homes and shore up leaky homes. We create winners for New Hampshire's air-breathers – all of us – as we reduce CO2 emissions. And, we create winners for the future generations of New Hampshire who, through our actions, through our actions as a regional team with other states, we can protect future generations and their ability to breathe clean air and live in the environment that we all so appreciate here in New Hampshire. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Houde, seconded by Sen. Forsythe.

Floor Amendment to HB 519-FN

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT relative to New Hampshire's regional greenhouse gas initiative cap and trade program for controlling carbon dioxide emissions.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Energy Consumption Reduction Goal; Reports; Reference Change. Amend RSA 21-I:14-c, III to read as follows:

III. Beginning in calendar year 2012, the commissioner shall submit an annual report to be made available to the public on or before December 1 compiling the annual reports submitted under paragraph II, with findings on the departments' annual progress in complying with the energy consumption reduction goal established in paragraph I and problems which may prevent the departments from achieving this goal, to the [energy efficiency and sustainable energy board established under RSA 125-O:5-a, the] governor, the senate president, the speaker of the house of representatives, the chair of the senate energy[, environment and economic development] and natural resources committee and the chair of the house science, technology and energy committee.

2 Rulemaking; Energy Efficiency Fund and Use of Auction Proceeds. Amend RSA 125-O:8, II to read as follows:

II. The public utilities commission shall adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, to administer the ~~[greenhouse gas emissions reduction]~~ energy efficiency fund and auction proceeds received pursuant to RSA 125-O:23.

3 Carbon Dioxide Emissions Budget Trading Program; Auction Proceeds. Amend RSA 125-O:21, III to read as follows:

III. The department shall make available for sale at one or more auctions all of the budget allowances for a given year, except for those granted or reserved under RSA 125-O:22, VI, 125-O:24, and 125-O:25. The department may also make available for sale at one or more auctions a portion of future year budget allowances. Such auctions may be conducted in coordination with other states. Revenues from the sale of allowances shall be deposited in the ~~[greenhouse gas emissions reduction]~~ energy efficiency fund established under RSA 125-O:23.

4 Greenhouse Gas Emissions Reduction Fund Replaced With Energy Efficiency Fund and Use of Auction Proceeds. RSA 125-O:23 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

125-O:23 Energy Efficiency Fund and Use of Auction Proceeds.

I. There is hereby established an energy efficiency fund. This nonlapsing, special fund shall be continually appropriated to the commission to be expended in accordance with this section. The state treasurer shall invest the moneys deposited therein, as provided by law. Income received on investments made by the state treasurer shall also be credited to the fund. All programs supported by these funds shall be subject to audit by the commission as deemed necessary. A portion of the fund moneys shall be used to pay for commission and department costs to administer this subdivision, including contributions for the state's share of the costs of the RGGI regional organization. The commission shall transfer from the fund to the department such costs as may be budgeted and expended, or otherwise approved by the fiscal committee of the general court and the governor and council, for the department's cost of administering this subdivision.

II. All amounts in excess of the threshold price of $1 for any allowance sale shall be rebated to all default service electric ratepayers in the state on a per-kilowatt-hour basis, in a timely manner to be determined by the commission.

III. All remaining proceeds received by the state from the sale of allowances shall be allocated by the commission as an additional source of funding to electric distribution companies for core energy efficiency programs that are funded by SBC funds.

5 Review of New Hampshire RGGI Program. Amend RSA 125-O:27 to read as follows:

125-O:27 Review of the New Hampshire RGGI Program. At the time of the 2012 comprehensive review by the signatory states as required in the MOU, the commission and the department shall concurrently review New Hampshire specific elements of the RGGI program, in particular RSA 125-O:23[~~IV~~] and RSA 125-O:25, and include the results of such review in the agencies' annual report under RSA 125-O:21, VI.

6 Legislative Oversight Committee on Electric Utility Restructuring; Report. Amend 374-F:5, III to read as follows:

III. The committee shall provide an interim report on or before April 1, and an annual report on or before November 1 to the governor, the speaker of the house, the senate president, the state library, and the public utilities commission on the status of electric utility restructuring, including the status of core energy efficiency programs monitored under RSA 374-F:6.

7 New Paragraph; Legislative Oversight Committee on Electric Utility Restructuring; Duties. Amend 374-F:6 by inserting after paragraph IV the following new paragraph:

V. Monitoring core energy efficiency programs funded by proceeds from sale of allowances under the regional greenhouse gas initiative program pursuant to RSA 125-O:23, III.

8 Funding of Contracts. All contracts executed before December 31, 2010 and funded through the greenhouse gas emissions reduction fund shall remain funded through such fund or the energy efficiency fund according to the terms of those contracts. Any funds remaining in the greenhouse gas emissions reduction fund as of January 1, 2012 shall be transferred to the energy efficiency fund.

9 Fund Name Change. Amend RSA 6:12, I(b)(272) to read as follows:
(272) Moneys deposited in the ~~[greenhouse gas emissions reduction]~~ energy efficiency fund established in RSA 125-O:23.

10 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 125-O:5-a, I(d), relative to recommendations made to the public utilities commission by the energy efficiency and sustainable energy board.

II. RSA 125-O:19, relative to statement of purpose and findings.

III. RSA 125-O:21, VI(g), relative to a report on the allocation and spending of the greenhouse gas emissions reduction fund.

11 Contingent Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 125-O:3, III(d), relative to carbon dioxide cap.

II. RSA 125-O:20 through 125-O:28, relative to the regional greenhouse gas initiative.

12 Powers and Duties of Commissioner; Reference Deletion Related to Contingency. Amend RSA 125-O:6, I to read as follows:

I. Develop a trading and banking program to provide appropriate compliance flexibility in meeting the emission caps established under RSA 125-O:3, III ~~[and allowance requirements of RSA 125-O:21 and RSA 125-O:22]~~, and to encourage earlier and greater emissions reductions and the development of new emission control technologies in order to maximize the cost-effectiveness with which the environmental benefits of this chapter are achieved.

13 Rulemaking Authority; Changes Related to Contingent Repeal. Amend RSA 125-O:8 to read as follows:

125-O:8 Rulemaking Authority.

[E.] The commissioner shall adopt rules under RSA 541-A, commencing no later than 180 days after the effective date of this section, relative to:

[(a)] I. The establishment of trading and banking programs as authorized by RSA 125-O:6, I.

[(b)] II. The establishment of a method for allocating allowances and other emissions reduction units or mechanisms as authorized by RSA 125-O:3, II and III.

[(c)] III. Emissions and allowance monitoring, tracking, record-keeping, reporting, and other such actions as may be necessary to verify compliance with this chapter.

[(d)] ~~The method and requirements for auctioning budget allowances under RSA 125-O:21, which may use regional organizations.~~

[(e)] ~~Defining eligible projects for early reduction allowances under RSA 125-O:21, IV, and establishing criteria to quantify and grant such allowances.~~

[(f)] ~~Defining eligible projects for offset allowances under RSA 125-O:21, V, and establishing criteria to quantify and grant such allowances, including the accreditation of third-party verifiers.~~

~~(g) The forms and information required on applications for a temporary or operating permit required under RSA 125-O:22.~~

~~II. The public utilities commission shall adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, to administer the greenhouse gas emissions reduction fund pursuant to RSA 125-O:23.]~~

14 Compliance Dates; Reference Deletions Related to Contingent Repeal. Amend RSA 125-O:9 to read as follows:

125-O:9 Compliance Dates. The owner or operator of each affected source shall comply with the provisions of this chapter, excluding the subdivision on mercury emissions, RSA 125-O:11 through 125-O:18, ~~and the subdivision for CO2 emissions, RSA 125-O:19 through RSA 125-O:28,~~ by December 31, 2006.

15 Non-Severability; Reference Deletions Related to Contingent Repeal. Amend RSA 125-O:10 to read as follows:

125-O:10 Non-Severability. No provision of ~~[RSA 125-O:1 through RSA 125-O:18 of]~~ this chapter shall be implemented in a manner inconsistent with the integrated, multi-pollutant strategy ~~[or RSA 125-O:1 through RSA 125-O:18]~~ of this chapter, and to this end, the provisions of ~~[RSA 125-O:1 through RSA 125-O:18 of]~~ this chapter are not severable.

16 Compliance. The repeal of the regional greenhouse gas initiative program under section 11 of this act shall not affect each affected CO2 source's obligation to satisfy the program's requirements for the compliance period ending December 31 of the prior year, including those contained in adopted rules. All means of enforcement shall remain in place for these requirements, including the provisions of RSA 125-O:7 and any permit issued or modified by the department of environmental services in accordance with RSA 125-O:22, IV.

17 Contingency. If a New England state which has at least 10 percent of the total load of the 10 states participating in the regional greenhouse gas initiative ends its participation in the initiative sections 11-15 of this act shall take effect upon the date that the commissioner of the department of environmental services certifies to the secretary of state and the director of the office of legislative services that such state has terminated its participation in the initiative.

18 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1-9 and 16-17 of this act shall take effect January 1, 2012.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect as provided in section 17 of this act.

2011-1823s

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill replaces the greenhouse gas emission reduction fund with the energy efficiency fund, lowers the rebate threshold for auction proceeds to $1, and allocates the remaining proceeds received by the state from the sale of allowances to core energy efficiency programs funds by system benefits charges. The bill also requires the legislative oversight committee on electric utility restructuring to monitor and report on certain core energy efficiency programs.

The bill contains a contingent repeal of New Hampshire's regional greenhouse gas initiative cap and trade program if a New England state which has at least 10 percent of the total load of the 10 states participating in the initiative withdraw from participation in the initiative.

SENATOR BRADLEY: Good morning, everyone. How are we doing this morning? Good, I like that. I like that, because what we have this morning, my friends, at 15 to 9, is the definition of a conundrum. There are 15 of us who would repeal what I consider the ill-fated RGGI program. But, we don't have the votes; it's that simple. So, I don't want to wade into the whole issue of climate change, and I certainly don't want to get on the wrong side of Senator Lambert's gorgeous boots. But, I do want to talk about something that I think has united the 24 of us, quite frankly, in a bipartisan basis, all year, and that is trying to achieve good government.

We debated my bill last year on managed Medicaid. It failed. But, guess what? We came back; we worked together. The Governor called for managed Medicaid so that we could deliver quality services while saving taxpayer dollars. We all came together. That's good government; that's what we should be doing. I think about the 20th century philosopher Mick Jagger when I think about this: You can't always get what you want. But, what we need today is good government. And, that's what I hope this floor amendment does.

Number one: It gets back to some of the things that Senator Barnes, Senator Larsen, myself, Senator D'Allesandro, Senator Merrill, those of us who have been around here for a long time – even though I took a vacation – worked for for a lot of years: lower cost electricity. This amendment says to New Hampshire: The cost of electricity matters. We cap it and we rebate to customers – every customer in the State of New Hampshire. One of the flaws with the outright repeal bill is if you're a Unital customer or a Co-op customer or a Granite State Electric customer: no rebates; you pay and you get nothing. This amendment actually solves that problem.

The second thing that it does – and, this is what the good government's all about – it actually dedicates hard-earned money to programs that work. We've had a lot of discussion this morning about programs. I would urge everybody to look at this report; it's actually pretty simple. There is $17 million that was dedicated in the first round of RGGI grants to different programs; $7 million of that went to the energy efficiency programs that have been run by the Utilities for ten years without controversy – something that was created in the restructuring of the electric industry. That $7 million – I think it was actually $7.6 million – represents 43 percent of the funding of that first round of RGGI grants. It created 85 percent of the energy efficiency programs. Why? Because it goes to programs that work.

So, what does that mean? Well, the other $10 million went to programs that only created 15 percent of the energy efficiency savings, at a time that we're having trouble struggling to fund the DD waitlist or mental health or...The list goes on and on and on. At least let's recognize, as this amendment does, that we have got to fund programs that work. That's what this does.

Now, we've heard a lot of discussions this morning about politically motivated grants coming out of RGGI. I believe that's the case. That's why I would vote to repeal it. So, for my friends who want to make a politically-driven vote now and not vote when we are in the definition of a conundrum, don't do the same thing the RGGI authors did in making politically driven grants. Do the right thing. You can't always get what you want; this is what we need. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Rausch.)

SENATOR RAUSCH: Thank you, Mister President and colleagues. I rise in support of the amendment. I do support the repeal of RGGI; I think it was a flawed piece of legislation. Unless we do that on a national and worldwide basis, I don't think we want to isolate ourselves as a small state. But, that said, I'm pragmatic enough to realize that, as Senator Bradley said, we do not have the votes to take this to fruition, and I would rather gain an improvement than lose the entire battle. So, I will support this amendment in the hopes of making a bad piece of legislation better.

And, I will also say, with a sense of humor – and, I stress humor – now that I've found out that my drinking coffee contributes to the problem, I would be willing to get all of those who support the repeal of RGGI to drink 50 percent coffee if I can get those who support RGGI to have a 50 percent reduction in the respiratory rate, because I think if they breathe half the time, we would have a much higher decrease in our carbon dioxide emissions.

So, I will be happy to offer that, and if we can get that rate of respiration reduced, I will be happy to reduce my coffee consumption.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Gallus.)

SENATOR GALLUS: Thank you, Mister President. I happen to rise in opposition to the floor amendment. I'm probably the only one here on the Senate floor that actually still believes in the Tooth Fairy. But, I watched RGGI this morning become a jobs bill. And, I just want to say that my good colleague has said that we have 15 votes here to repeal RGGI, and I would urge my colleagues to do that today and vote no on the floor amendment. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

Sens. Carson, Forsythe, Groen, and White are in opposition to the Floor Amendment to HB 519-FN.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Houde.

The following Senators voted Yes: Forrester, Bradley, Houde, Odell, Kelly, Luther, Lambert, Larsen, Boutin, Barnes, Rausch, D'Allesandro, Merrill, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Gallus, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, White, Carson, De Blois, Morse.

Yeas: 16 - Nays: 8

Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

HB 651, allowing the sale and possession of monk parakeets. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: From RGGI to parrots, Mister President. Thank you. Senator Gallus, if you're impressed with me turning RGGI into a jobs bill, you're going to watch me turn a parrot bill into a jobs bill right now. It's all about jobs.

All right. I move House Bill 651 Ought to Pass. House Bill 651 allows for the sale and possession of monk parakeets, also known as "Quaker parrots". These parakeets are highly sought after as pets, and only recently were owners of pet stores aware that these birds were illegal. The bill will decriminalize the possession of these birds for hundreds of owners who already have them and also help the state's pet store owners – ie: more jobs – sell this highly sought after parrot.

So, we would please ask you to join Energy and Natural Resources on an Ought to Pass on this bill. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I just once again want to recognize Representative Notter, who's now in the gallery. This bill was very important to her; she did a ton of work on it, and I just want to recognize that work.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND ADMINISTRATION

HB 211, relative to the review and approval of proposed agency rules under the administrative procedures act. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 211 Ought to Pass. House Bill 211 requires any agency, when submitting a new rule proposal, to submit the rule to the appropriate policy committee for review. The members of the policy committee will review the proposed rule to determine whether the rules are consistent with the intent of the authorizing legislation.

The bill also requires a waiver for the Joint Legislative Committee on Administrative Rules to exceed timeframes to approve or object to a rule.

The ED&A Committee voted unanimously 5-0 Ought to Pass and asks for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 299-FN, relative to the method of financing for the judicial retirement plan. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 5-0. Senator White for the committee.

Senate Executive Departments and Administration

Amendment to HB 299-FN

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Judicial Retirement Plan; Recalculation and Recertification of Employer Rate. Notwithstanding the requirements of RSA 100-C:13, I, the board of trustees of the judicial retirement plan shall direct the plan's actuary to recalculate the employer contribution rate for the state fiscal years 2012 and 2013 to reflect the requirements of RSA 100-C:13, III(d) as amended by section 1 of this act. Such recalculated employer contribution rate shall be recertified by the board of trustees to the judicial branch and shall be used by the judicial branch for state fiscal years 2012 and 2013 until the next biennial valuation.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 299-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. House Bill 299-FN allows the annual contribution for unfunded accrued liability of the judicial retirement plan to be calculated over a 30-year period instead of 20 years. The Judicial Branch requested this change in order to get some budgetary relief, as it will save roughly eight paralegals to the Judicial Branch.

The ED&A Committee voted unanimously 5-0 Ought to Pass with Amendment and asks for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 413, directing the joint legislative oversight committee on the emergency management system to review the duties of certain other committees. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Larsen for the committee.

SENATOR LARSEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 413 Ought to Pass. House Bill 413 will direct the joint legislative oversight committee on emergency management systems to review the duties of four other emergency management related committees and to make a report on whether they could consolidate functions.

The ED&A Committee unanimously voted 5-0 Ought to Pass and asks for your support. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 450, relative to the regulatory authority of the board of barbering, cosmetology, and esthetics. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 5-0. Senator Luther for the committee.

SENATOR LUTHER: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 450 Inexpedient to Legislate. HB 450 reduces the penalty for unlicensed practice of barbering, manicuring, cosmetology, or esthetics. The bill also adds an exemption for providing barbering, manicuring, cosmetology, or esthetics services to family and friends for no compensation.

Might I just say, parenthetically, that especially the men on the Committee, we got a whole education about esthetics, cosmetology, and this was a good experience in governance.

The ED&A Committee voted unanimously 5-0 Inexpedient to Legislate and asks for your support in its adoption. Thank you, Mister President.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Inexpedient to Legislate. Adopted.

Sen. White asserts Rule 2-15 on HB 450.

Sen. Forsythe is in opposition to the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate on HB 450.

HB 462-FN, relative to the determination of employer assessments for excess benefits paid by employers in the retirement system. Ought to Pass with Amendment, Vote 4-0. Senator Groen for the committee.

Amendment to HB 462-FN

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Retirement System; Employer Assessment for Excess Benefits. Amend RSA 100-A:16, III-a to read as follows:

III-a. Upon the retirement of a member:

(a) The retirement system shall:

(1) Calculate average base pay of a member during his or her highest 3 years of creditable service, or during all of the years in his or her creditable service if less than 3 years;

(2) Multiply the average base pay determined in subparagraph (1) above by 125 percent;

(3) Subtract the result from subparagraph (2) from the member's average final compensation.

(b) If the calculation in subparagraph (a)(3) is greater than zero, the employer shall be assessed the cost of the excess benefit provided by:

(1) Multiplying the present value of the member's retirement benefit by the amount determined in subparagraph (a)(3) divided by the ~~[amount in subparagraph (a)(2):]~~ member's average final compensation; and

(2) Subtracting from that amount a credit to account for the portion of the present value of the member's retirement benefit attributable to the compensation above base pay, as determined by the retirement system, that has been funded through the normal employer contributions.

(c) The employer shall certify to the accuracy of each member's base pay.

(d)(1) The retirement system shall certify to the cost determined in subparagraph (b) to the employer and assess upon the employer such cost for payment to the retirement system at such times and in such manner as the board of trustees may prescribe.

(2) The assessments upon employers determined in subparagraph (b) shall be phased-in over a 4-year period as follows:

(A) Until the end of state fiscal year 2013, the retirement system shall assess and collect 25 percent of the amount determined in subparagraph (b).

(B) For state fiscal year 2014, the retirement system shall assess and collect 50 percent of the amount determined in subparagraph (b).

(C) For state fiscal year 2015, the retirement system shall assess and collect 75 percent of the amount determined in subparagraph (b).

(D) For all state fiscal years thereafter, the retirement system shall assess and collect the full amount determined in subparagraph (b).

(3) Each such employer is hereby authorized to appropriate the sums necessary for payment of such assessments.

2 Retirement System; Effective Date; Employer Assessments. Amend 2008,300:35, VII as amended by 2009, 4:1 and 2010, 357:1, to read as follows:

VII. Sections 33 and 34 of this act shall take effect July 1, ~~[2011]~~ 2012.

3 Effective Date.

I. Section 1 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2012 at 12:01 a.m.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

Floor Amendment to HB 462-FN

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 Retirement System; Interactive Estimator. The retirement system shall develop and implement on the retirement system's website, within 30 days after the effective date of this section, an interactive estimator for a retirement system employer to evaluate its probable costs under RSA 100-A:16, III-a, as amended by this act, for individual members.

SENATOR GROEN: Thank you, Mister President. I move to amend HB 462 with Amendment 1814s. This amendment will require the retirement system to establish on their website an interactive estimator that will allow employers to determine what the cost of this will be to them as far as their payments to the retirement system. And, it will require that within 30 days after the effective date so that it will give approximately 11 months for employers to look at examples and look at what this will cost them and be able to budget appropriately.

The question is on the adoption of the Floor Amendment. Adopted.

The question is on the adoption of the motion of Ought to Pass as Amended. Adopted, bill ordered to Committee on Finance (Rule 4-3).

(The Chair recognized Sen. Barnes.)

SENATOR BARNES: Thank you, Mister President. Sitting up in the gallery is the second wave of students from the Danville Elementary School. And, look how intelligent they all are; they're all staring out here and saying: "Boy, we wish we were down there being Senators." Is that what you're thinking? Well, by golly, stick around all day; you might change your minds before you go home. Don't go away yet.

I want to thank you and the teachers and the chaperones for coming up here to the State House; it's a great tour that the folks put on: a lot of history; this is a very historical room that you're viewing. Is there anyone up there that can tell me who my favorite President is? My favorite President is a fellow by the name of Franklin Pierce; only one from New Hampshire. So, someday, maybe one of you will make it two. Thanks for coming up.

FINANCE

HB 113, prohibiting the use of state funds for New Hampshire public television. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 4-3. Senator D'Allesandro for the committee.

SENATOR D'ALLESANDRO: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 113 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill prevents any general funds from being appropriated for the New Hampshire public television.

As written, the bill would not allow New Hampshire public television to receive general funds in any instance. This includes contracting with the State for various services, including the use of their towers.

The Committee has concerns about this broad prohibition, given that the New Hampshire public television provides a vital role to the state through our telecommunications network and has a long history of working with many state agencies. The New Hampshire Public Broadcasting promotes this unique character of the state in many of its local programs on air, online, and through on-the-ground education services.

Please support the Finance Committee's motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you, Mister President.

Sen. Bradley moved to Lay on the Table HB 113.

A roll call was requested by Sen. Larsen, seconded by Sen. Barnes.

The following Senators voted Yes: Gallus, Forrester, Bradley, Forsythe, Groen, Sanborn, Odell, White, Luther, Lambert, Carson, Boutin, Barnes, De Blois, Rausch, Morse, Prescott, Stiles, Bragdon.

The following Senators voted No: Houde, Kelly, Larsen, D'Allesandro, Merrill.

Amendment to HB 442-FN

Amend RSA 126-V:4, I as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. The fee structure by the department for alternative treatment centers and registry identification cards shall generate revenues sufficient to offset all state expenses of implementing and administering this chapter, and no state funds shall be used to implement or administer this chapter; however,

Amend RSA 126-V:8, II(a)(12) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(12) Permissible hours of operation, including the establishment of an appointment-only system for patient access.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, II(d) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(d) Within 18 months of the effective date of this section, provided that at least 2 applications have been submitted that score sufficiently high to receive a certificate, the department shall issue alternative treatment center registration certificates to the 2 highest-scoring applicants.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, II(f)-(g) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

(f) If at any time after one year after the effective date of this section, fewer than 2 alternative treatment centers hold valid registration certificates in New Hampshire, the department shall accept applications for a new alternative treatment center. Except as provided in subparagraph (g), no more than 2 alternative treatment centers shall hold valid registration certificates at one time. One alternative treatment center shall be located in Carroll, Coos, or Grafton county and one shall be located in Cheshire, Hillsborough, or Rockingham county.

(g) If at any time after 2 years after the effective date of this section, the report issued pursuant to RSA 126-V:9 determines that 2 alternative treatment centers are not sufficient to ensure access to registered qualifying patients throughout the state, the department shall accept applications for up to 2 additional alternative treatment centers and issue registration certificates to the appropriate number of applicants who score the highest. The number of additional alternative treatment centers shall be determined by the department, based on the report issued pursuant to RSA 126-V:9.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, III(b) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) Any time one or more alternative treatment center registration applications are being considered, the department shall also allow for comment by the public and shall solicit input from registered qualifying patients, registered designated caregivers, local law enforcement agencies, and the towns or cities where the applicants would be located.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, VI(b) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) An alternative treatment center may not be located in a residential district or within 1,000 feet of the property line of a pre-existing public or private school or playground.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, VII(a) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(a) An alternative treatment center agent shall require a qualifying patient or the designated caregiver to produce a valid registry identification card and one additional form of photo identification in order to gain access to the center. Each time an alternative treatment center agent dispenses marijuana to a registered qualifying patient directly or through the qualifying patient's registered designated caregiver, he or she shall consult the alternative treatment center's records to verify that the records do not indicate that the dispensing of marijuana would cause the registered qualifying patient to receive more marijuana than is permitted in a 10-day period. Each time marijuana is dispensed, the alternative treatment center agent shall record the date the marijuana was dispensed and the amount dispensed. All records shall be kept according to the registry identification number of the registered qualifying patient and registered designated caregiver, if any.

Amend RSA 126-V:9 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by inserting after paragraph VI the following new paragraph and renumbering the original paragraphs VII-VIII to read as VIII-IX, respectively:

VII. Input from state and local law enforcement agencies.

Amend RSA 126-V:1, I as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. "Alternative treatment center" means:

(a) A not-for-profit entity registered under RSA 126-V:8 that acquires, possesses, cultivates, manufactures, delivers, transfers, transports, sells, supplies, or dispenses marijuana, or related supplies and educational materials, to a registered qualifying patient who has designated it, either by dispensing it directly to the registered qualifying patient or by dispensing it to his or her registered designated caregiver, or

(b) A hospital registered under RSA 126-V:8 which is engaged in providing to patients, under supervision of physicians, diagnostic and therapeutic services for medical diagnosis, treatment, and care of injured, disabled, or sick persons, or rehabilitation services for the rehabilitation of such persons, which has a pharmacy on site staffed full-time by at least one registered pharmacist, that acquires, possesses, cultivates, manufactures, delivers, transfers, transports, sells, supplies, or dispenses marijuana, or related supplies and educational materials, to a registered qualifying patient who has designated it, either by dispensing it directly to the registered qualifying patient or by dispensing it to his or her registered designated caregiver.

Amend RSA 126-V:4, I as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. The fee structure by the department for alternative treatment centers and registry identification cards shall generate revenues sufficient to offset all state expenses of implementing and administering this chapter, and no state funds shall be used to implement or administer this chapter; however,

Amend RSA 126-V:8, II(a)(12) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(12) Permissible hours of operation, including the establishment of an appointment-only system for patient access.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, II(d) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(d) Within 18 months of the effective date of this section, the department shall issue one alternative treatment center registration certificate to the highest-scoring applicant under RSA 126-V:1, I(a), provided that such applicant has achieved a score which is sufficient to receive a registration certificate. The department shall issue a registration certificate to any alternative treatment center applicant as defined in RSA 126-V:1, I(b) which receives a sufficient score under this chapter.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, II(f)-(g) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

(f) If at any time after one year after the effective date of this section, no alternative treatment center as defined in RSA 126-V:1, I(a) holds a valid registration certificate in New Hampshire, the department shall accept applications for registration of an alternative treatment center as defined in RSA 126-V:1, I(a). Except as provided in subparagraph (g), no more than one alternative treatment center as defined in RSA 126-V:1, I(a) shall operate in this state at any time. There shall be no limit on the number of alternative treatment centers as defined in RSA 126-V:1, I(b) in operation in this state at any time.

(g) If at any time after 2 years after the effective date of this section, the report issued pursuant to RSA 126-V:9 determines that the alternative treatment centers registered and operating in this state are not sufficient to ensure access to registered qualifying patients throughout the state, the department shall accept applications for one additional alternative treatment center as defined in RSA 126-V:1, I(a), and issue a registration certificate to the applicant which achieves the highest score.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, III(b) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) Any time one or more alternative treatment center registration applications are being considered, the department shall also allow for comment by the public and shall solicit input from registered qualifying patients, registered designated caregivers, local law enforcement agencies, and the towns or cities where the applicants would be located.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, VI(b) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(b) An alternative treatment center as defined in RSA 126-V:1, I(a) may not be located in a residential district or within 1,000 feet of the property line of a pre-existing public or private school or playground.

Amend RSA 126-V:8, VII(a) as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(a) An alternative treatment center agent shall require a qualifying patient or the designated caregiver to produce a valid registry identification card and one additional form of photo identification in order to gain access to the center. Each time an alternative treatment center agent dispenses marijuana to a registered qualifying patient directly or through the qualifying patient's registered designated caregiver, he or she shall consult the alternative treatment center's records to verify that the records do not indicate that the dispensing of marijuana would cause the registered qualifying patient to receive more marijuana than is permitted in a 10-day period. Each time marijuana is dispensed, the alternative treatment center agent shall record the date the marijuana was dispensed and the amount dispensed. All records shall be kept according to the registry identification number of the registered qualifying patient and registered designated caregiver, if any.

Amend RSA 126-V:9 as inserted by section 2 of the bill by inserting after paragraph VI the following new paragraph and renumbering original paragraphs VII-VIII to read as VIII-IX, respectively:

VII. Input from state and local law enforcement agencies.

SENATOR KELLY: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 442-FN Ought to Pass with Amendment. HB 442 permits the use of marijuana for medicinal purposes in New Hampshire.

The prime sponsor of the bill indicated in her testimony that this bill is about healthcare and providing a legally available medical option for patients suffering from debilitating and terminal illnesses. This will be the tightest and most carefully crafted bill in the country on this issue. It does not allow for the loopholes seen in California or Colorado, but instead HB 442 defines in statute the limited number of debilitating medical conditions that may be treated with medical marijuana. Under HB 442, patients must be registered with the State, overseen by a physician, and suffer from conditions or symptoms that have failed other long-term available treatments listed in the bill.

The Committee heard compelling testimony from many constituents in New Hampshire who are suffering from painful and debilitating illnesses whose pain has been alleviated by medical marijuana. Among the pain sufferers were veterans who noted that in July, 2010, the U.S. Department of Veterans' Affairs approved the use of marijuana for veterans living in states where medical marijuana is legal.

The committee amendment serves to further tighten the regulations in the bill by only establishing one treatment center throughout the state and mandating that patients be seen by appointment only. It also gives law enforcement oversight in the placement of the facility.

The Health and Human Services Committee recommended by a vote of 3-2 that HB 442 Ought to Pass with Amendment and we ask for your support. Thank you.

(The Chair recognized Sen. White.)

SENATOR WHITE: Thank you, Mister President. I rise in support of House Bill 442, as well. I'd like to acknowledge that the sponsors of this bill, I think, did a great job. This bill has been before both bodies numerous times; I think they put a lot of work into tightening things up, a lot of thoughtful effort. And, I definitely feel kindred with those who have debilitating pain and suffering and nausea and so forth.

And, I also want to acknowledge that downstairs, in room 105, there's a young man named Clayton who came here because he had promised a friend of his that died in excruciating pain that somehow, some way he would see this bill through for his friend. And, unfortunately, Clayton has multiple sclerosis; he's in a fairly frail condition. And, he candidly said to me just a little while ago that he doesn't have much time left; his body's been wracked by that disease, and he had hoped to somehow see that promise to his friend carried forth.

So, I would urge my fellow colleagues to support this bill and vote Ought to Pass. Thank you, Mister President.

Sen. D'Allesandro moved to Lay on the Table HB 442-FN. Adopted.

Sens. Forsythe, Kelly, and White are in opposition to the motion to Lay on the Table HB 442-FN.

HB 479-FN, relative to receivership of nursing homes and other residential health care facilities. Re-refer to committee, Vote 5-0. Senator Sanborn for the committee.

SENATOR SANBORN: Thank you, Mister President. I move HB 479 be Re-referred to committee. HB 479 would reestablish the RSA chapter regarding procedures for receivership of nursing homes and other residential care facilities, which was repealed on July 1, 2010.

The Committee supports the concept of the bill, but finds some of the language concerning and in need of further defining. Since there were no incidents of receivership during the five years in which the law stood, we believe that all involved parties would benefit from taking additional time to address issues in the bill.

Therefore, the HHS Committee recommends HB 479 be Re-referred, and we ask for your support.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Re-refer to committee. Adopted.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS

HB 114, reinstating and expanding the duties of the joint legislative historical committee. Ought to Pass, Vote 5-0. Senator Lambert for the committee.

SENATOR LAMBERT: Thank you, Mister President. I move that House Bill 114 Ought to Pass. This bill reinstates the joint legislative historical committee, and the Committee asks for your support for the motion of Ought to Pass. Thank you.

The question is on the adoption of the Committee recommendation of Ought to Pass. Adopted, bill ordered to Third Reading.

HB 160, relative to the powers of the joint committee on legislative facilities. Inexpedient to Legislate, Vote 3-2. Senator Prescott for the committee.

SENATOR PRESCOTT: Thank you, Mister President. I move House Bill 160 Inexpedient to Legislate. This bill requires that beginning July 1, 2011, any policy revisions concerning the carrying of weapons in the State House complex must be by legislation adopted by the General Court. The Committee was told this bill was not about the policy of carrying firearms, but about the process such a policy currently experiences.

While the Committee understands the intent of the bill, the majority vote felt it was appropriate to leave the powers and duties of the joint committee on legislative facilities as they currently stand, and the Committee asks for your support for the motion of Inexpedient to Legislate. Thank you, Mister President.

(The Chair recognized Sen. Forsythe.)
